6. On "no small", see 12:18.
7. Or, "pressing upon". On this word, see "press upon" in Lk 23:23.
8. Or, "removed". The worsening condition of the ship, and the growing weariness of the sailors, were also key factors. Same word as in 2 Cor 3:16; Heb 10:11. Elsewhere only as "cast off" in 27:40; 28:13. GK 4311.
9. Or, "And there being much abstinence-from-food", or, "And much abstinence-from-food existing".
10. This could mean a "long" abstinence, or a "great, serious, severe" one.
11. Or, "lack of appetite, not-eating". Not related to "fasting". Used only here. GK 826. Related to "without food" in v 33.
12. Luke seems to be implying that the lack of eating was the visible expression of the desperate situation and loss of hope, v 20. Note that Paul does not address the eating, but the fear, telling them twice to "cheer up", v 22, 25. By the fourteenth night (perhaps several days later), still having not eaten, but hope returning, Paul gets them to eat, v 33-38.
13. This word means "to obey one in authority". Elsewhere only of obeying God (Act 5:29, 32), and authorities (Tit 3:1, "be obedient"). Paul is not saying "I told you so". He is saying that he is the authority that should be listened to, to prepare for what he will say in v 23. And the others do listen to Paul after this, v 31, 36. GK 4272.
14. Or, "incurred". This word means "to gain, profit, win". On this word, see Mk 8:36. It also can mean "to avoid or spare oneself" a loss, thereby "gaining" the loss. This would be rendered here, "Crete, and spared-yourselves this damage and loss".
15. These are the same two words Paul used in v 10.
16. Or, "recommend, urge publicly". Elsewhere only in v 9. GK 4147. Note that in v 9, Paul's recommendation was his opinion, and was only half right. Here his words are based on revelation from God, and prove to be true.
17. Or, "be of good spirit, be cheerful". Same word as in v 25. Elsewhere only as "be cheerful" in Jam 5:13. GK 2313. Related to "cheerful" in v 36, and to "cheerfully" in 24:10. Paul's "good cheer" is reminiscent of his singing praises in jail in 16:25.
18. Or, "stood by, beside, near". Same word as in the next verse. On this word, see "present" in Rom 12:1.
19. Assuming this conversation took place in the daytime, Paul means the night previous to the day on which he is now speaking. For a Jew, the day began at sundown. So what we would call "last night", he calls "this night", the night of this day. If the conversation took place at night before sunrise, then he means "earlier on this night still in progress".
20. In some manuscripts, the word that makes this bold (emphasized) is omitted {C}.
21. Or, "worship". On this word, see "worship" in Heb 12:28.

28. This is from the sailor's perspective. We would say "that they were approaching some land".
29. Or, "having heaved the lead". That is, having dropped a weighted line to the bottom. Used only in this verse. GK 1075.
30. A fathom is the length of a man's outstretched arms, about six feet, or 1.8 meters. A sailor "measured" the distance to the bottom as he pulled up the weighted line. Used only in this verse. GK 3976.
31. That is, an interval of time, which would allow an interval of distance. Based on the geography, some think Luke means about thirty minutes. Or, "having separated a short distance, having stood apart a little". On this word, "set an interval", see "separated" in Lk 24:51.
32. On this idiom, see 5:26.
33. Same word as in v 19. On this word, see "throw forth" in Mt 9:36.

36. Same word as in 4:30; 26:1. Used 16 times. GK 1753.
37. Paul's prediction now coming to pass, the soldiers obey him as if he were the captain! In addition, the soldiers would surely regard it to be in their own self-interest to keep the sailors on board.
38. Or, "run aground", as in v 17, 26, 29. Luke does not mean "fall down" into the water, for it was already in the water. He means to presently "fall away, drift away" from the ship, or to ultimately "run aground".
39. Or, "encouraging, exhorting". Same word as in v 34. On this word, see "exhort" in Rom 12:8.
40. Or, "share in, receive a share of". Same word as in v 34. On this word, see "share in" in Heb 12:10.

11. Thus closing the book of Acts some time in A.D. 62. Some think Paul's case was then dismissed, the Jews having failed to prosecute it; others, that it was heard and he won. Some think that during this two-year period in Rome, Paul wrote Ephesians, Philippians (note Phil 1:13; 4:22), Colossians, and Philemon (which are accordingly called the Prison Epistles). Others think these letters were written during an imprisonment in Ephesus during Acts 19; others, in Caesarea during the two years there, Act 24:27. After Acts 28, some think that Paul was released and traveled again, during which time he wrote 1 Timothy and Titus. Then he was imprisoned again in Rome, during which he wrote 2 Timothy. Then he was beheaded. There are other views.
12. Or, "at his own expense", in Roman government quarters. Used only here. GK 3637. Related to "hire, pay wages".
13. Or, "confidence, openness, freedom-of-speech". This phrase, "with all boldness" is also in 4:29; Phil 1:20. On this word, see "confidence" in Heb 4:16.
14. Or, "unforbidden". Used only here. GK 219. Related to "forbid" in 1 Cor 14:39. In the providence of God, this arrangement allowed Paul to reach Rome while being protected from the Jews by the Roman government!

Introduction	1:1-17
1A. The wrath of God is revealed against all ungodliness of people holding down the truth	1:18
1B. Because the thing known of God is evident in them, for God made it evident to them	1:19-20
2B. Because having known God, they did not glorify Him as God, but became futile in thinking	1:21
1C. They became foolish and exchanged God for an idol. God handed them to impurity	1:22-24
2C. Who exchanged the truth of God for the lie. God handed them to dishonor	1:25-27
3C. And as they did not approve of God, God handed them over to a disapproved mind	1:28-32
3B. Therefore you are without excuse, O human— everyone judging	2:1
1C. For in what you judge others, you condemn yourself, because you do the same things	2:1-2
2C. But are you thinking this, O human, that you will escape the judgment of God?	2:3
3C. Or are you disregarding His goodness, not knowing its purpose is your repentance?	2:4
4C. But by your unrepentance, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath	2:5-8
4B. There will be affliction and distress upon every human doing evil— the Jew and the Greek	2:9-10
1C. For there is no respect of persons with God	2:11
2C. For all who sinned will be judged, whether without the Law or through the Law	2:12-13
1D. For the Gentiles will be judged by the things of the Law written on their hearts	2:14-16
2D. But if you are a Jew and rely upon the Law, do you obey it? You transgress it. Circumcision will be of no profit to transgressors of the Law	2:17-29
5B. What then is the advantage of the Jew? Much in every way. God keeps His promises	3:1-8
6B. Therefore what? Are we better than they? No. All are under sin, accountable to God	3:9-20
2A. But now apart from law, the righteousness of God has been revealed	3:21
1B. And it is the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all the ones believing	3:22
1C. For there is no distinction— all have sinned, and are declared righteous as a gift through the redemption in Christ, whom God set forth as the satisfaction of His wrath	3:22-26
2C. Therefore where is the boasting? It was shut out by faith. God is God of all by faith	3:27-31
3C. Abraham also believed God, and it was credited for righteousness. This was apart from circumcision and Law, so that he might become the father of all believers	4:1-25
2B. Therefore, we have peace with God, and access by faith into this grace in which we stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God, a hope which does not put to shame	5:1-11
3B. Because of this, just as sin and death entered the world through one man, so also the gift of righteousness and life came through one Man. Grace now reigns over sin and death	5:12-21
4B. Therefore should we be continuing in sin that grace might increase? No, we died to sin	6:1-2
1C. Or do you not know that we were baptized into His death?	6:3
2C. We were buried with Him that we might be raised with Him to newness of life	6:4-11

- 3C. Therefore do not let sin reign in your body, for you are not under the Law, but grace 6:12-14
- 5B. Therefore should we commit a sin because we are not under the Law but under grace? No 6:15
- 1C. Do you not know you are slaves to whom you obey? You were slave of sin, but you obeyed the teaching from the heart and were set free. Present yourself to God 6:16-23
- 2C. Or do you not know that the Law lords over a person only while he lives? You have died to the Law, and now serve in the newness of the Spirit. But the Law did not cause my sin or death. The sin in me used the Law to kill me 7:1-25
- 6B. Therefore, there is now no condemnation for the ones in Christ. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set you free from the law of sin and death 8:1-2
- 1C. For what the Law could not do, God did through His own Son for us walking in accordance with the Spirit. For you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit 8:3-9
- 2C. And if Christ is in you, the body is dead, but the Spirit is life 8:10
- 3C. And if the Spirit is in You, God will give life to your mortal bodies through the Spirit 8:11
- 4C. So then, brothers, we are debtors not to the flesh. For if by the Spirit you are putting to death the practices of the body, you will live— 8:12-14
- 1D. For all who are being led by the Spirit of God— these are sons of God 8:14-16
- 2D. And if we are children, we are heirs— heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ 8:17
- 1E. For the sufferings of the present are not worthy to the glory to be revealed 8:18
- 2E. For creation is awaiting the revelation of the sons of God, to also be set free in the glory of the children of God, and is groaning and suffering-birthpains 8:19-22
- 3E. And we ourselves are groaning while awaiting our adoption, for we were saved in hope of this glory we do not see. And the Spirit helps us 8:23-27
- 3D. And we know all things are working together for good for the ones loving God 8:28-30
- 7B. Therefore, what shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 8:31-39
- 3A. I am telling the truth. There is great grief for me and unceasing pain in my heart over Israel 9:1-2
- 1B. For I would pray that I might be accursed from Christ on behalf of my kinsmen, the Israelites 9:3-5
- 2B. But it is not such as that the word of God has failed 9:6
- 1C. For all these ones from Israel are not Israel, nor children of promise. God chooses 9:6-13
- 2C. Therefore is God unrighteous? No. He has mercy and He hardens whom He wants 9:14-18
- 3C. Therefore why does He still find fault? He is the Creator, carrying out His purposes 9:19-29
- 3B. Therefore, what shall we say? 9:30
- 1C. That Gentiles, the ones not pursuing righteousness, took hold of it by faith 9:30
- 2C. But Israel, pursuing the Law of righteousness, did not attain it, but stumbled on Christ 9:31-33
- 4B. Brothers, I pray for their salvation, but their zeal is not in accordance with knowledge 10:1-2

1C. For being ignorant of God's righteousness, they did not subject themselves to it	10:3
1D. For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness for everyone believing	10:4
2D. For Moses says the one having done the Law will live. But salvation is by faith	10:5-10
3D. For Scripture says everyone putting faith in Him will be saved— obeying the report announced. But they did not all obey the report, as Isaiah said	10:11-17
2C. But I say— it is not that they did not hear. The word went out	10:18
3C. But I say— it is not that they did not know. Moses and the prophets told them	10:19-21
5B. Therefore did God reject His people? No. The remnant was saved, the rest hardened	11:1-10
6B. Therefore did they stumble in order to fall? No	11:11
1C. By their trespass, salvation came to the Gentiles. How much more their fullness	11:11-12
2C. And I glorify my ministry to the Gentiles that I might provoke them to jealousy	11:13-15
3C. But if the root is holy, so are the branches. God can regraft them into their tree	11:16-24
4C. For a partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of Gentiles comes in	11:25-32
7B. O the depths of God's wisdom and knowledge. To Him be the glory forever, amen	11:33-36
4A. Therefore I urge you to present your bodies as a sacrifice to God as your spiritual worship	12:1
1B. And do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind	12:2
2B. For I say to all of you by the grace given to me— be thinking accurately about yourself and your place in the body; love one another, be diligent, bless your enemies, be humble	12:3-21
3B. Let every soul be subject to superior authorities	13:1-7
4B. Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another. Love is the fulfillment of the Law	13:8-10
5B. And do this knowing the time. Lay aside darkness and put on the weapons of light	13:11-14
6B. Now be accepting the one being weak in faith, but not for disputes about opinions	14:1
1C. One has faith to eat, another not. Do not treat with contempt or judge one another	14:2-4
2C. One judges a day above another. Let each be assured in his own mind. We live for the Lord. We will all stand before His judgment seat and give an account for ourselves	14:5-12
3C. Therefore judge this— not to place a cause of stumbling or falling for your brother	14:13-15
4C. Therefore do not let your good thing be blasphemed	14:16-18
5C. So then, let us pursue the things of peace and edification	14:19-15:6
6C. Therefore be accepting one another, as Christ accepted you, for the glory of God	15:7-12
7B. Now may the God of hope fill you with joy and peace in believing	15:13
5A. Paul explains why he wrote, his commission by God, his present and future plans	15:14-33

1. That is, a slave belonging to Christ Jesus. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {B}.
2. Or, "called to be an apostle". This adjective is also in v 6, 7. Paul uses it again of himself only in 1 Cor 1:1. On this word, see Rom 8:28. It was God who appointed Paul, not Paul himself, and not other humans.
3. That is, "set apart, appointed" for this purpose. Same word as in Gal 1:15, where Paul says it was from his mother's womb, and in Act 13:2. Elsewhere only in Mt 13:49; 25:32; Lk 6:22; Act 19:9; 2 Cor 6:17; Gal 2:12. GK 928.
4. Or, "Sacred Writings". This phrase is used only here. On "Scriptures" see 2 Pet 3:16. Compare 2 Tim 3:15.
5. Or, "with respect to, in relation to". Same word as in v 4. GK 2848. Same phrase as in 4:1; 9:3, 5.
6. Or, "declared, appointed, defined, determined, ordained, marked out as being". Same word as in Act 10:42; 17:31; Heb 4:7. Elsewhere only as "determine" in Lk 22:22; Act 2:23; 11:29; 17:26. GK 3988. The related noun means "boundaries, borders".
7. Or, "in, by means of". Some think Paul means "designated... with power", in a mighty way, mightily, powerfully, by the resurrection; others, "God's Son with power", as opposed to His days of humiliation.
8. Or, "spirit". Some think Paul means the human spirit of Jesus, characterized by holiness, as opposed to His flesh in v 3; others, His divine nature as opposed to His human nature in v 3; others, the Holy Spirit, so that the contrast is between what His human descent shows Him to be, and what His resurrection by the Spirit shows Him to be. There are other views.
9. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 7:1; 1 Thes 3:13. GK 43. Related to "holiness" in Heb 12:14.
10. Or, "since, from the time of", as in Mk 10:20; Jn 9:1; or, "because of", as in 2 Cor 13:4; Rev 16:10. GK 1666.
11. Some think Paul means "I"; others, "we apostles".
12. Or, "the office of apostle". Elsewhere only in Act 1:25; 1 Cor 9:2; Gal 2:8. GK 692. Related to "apostle" in v 1.
13. That is, "to bring about". Compare Gal 2:7-9; Eph 3:8-9.
14. On "obedience of faith", see 16:26.
15. Or, "nations". On this word, see Act 15:23.
16. Same word as in v 1. Some think Paul means "called ones belonging to" Jesus; others, "ones called to be" His; others, "called by" Him.
17. Having set his sights on Rome in Act 19:21, having come to Corinth for the winter, Paul writes this book in Act 20:3 to prepare his way to Rome after returning to Jerusalem with the gift of the churches for the poor, Rom 15:25-29. He arrives in Rome three years later in Act 28, as a prisoner.
18. Or, "called ones, holy ones", making three parallel adjectives—beloved, called, and holy ones. On "called saints", see 1 Cor 1:2.
19. Paul details his prayers in view of his personal desires. He uses grammar that may imply a second point (perhaps regarding his plans in view of his mission, v 13, in which case he continues with "and", rather than "then" as in Heb 7:2 and Jam 3:17, or "second"). Or, this grammar may mean "first" in the sense of "above all", expecting no second point. Same grammar as in 3:2, 1 Cor 11:18.
20. Or, "in connection with". That is, in connection with the good news about or proceeding from His Son. GK 1877.
21. Elsewhere only in 1 Thes 1:2; 2:13; 5:17. GK 90. A related word is used in 2 Tim 1:3.

27. Same word as in 16:25. On this word, see 1 Thes 3:2.
28. That is, the faith in God that is active in both the Romans and Paul. More literally, "through the faith in one another".
29. Or, "set before myself, purposed". On this word, see "set forth" in 3:25.
30. Elsewhere only in Mt 6:12; 18:24; Lk 13:4; Rom 8:12; 15:27; Gal 5:3. GK 4050. I owe them the gospel.
31. This is like saying "to the civilized (in Greco-Roman terms) and the uncivilized". On "barbarian", see Col 3:11.
32. This is an idiom, literally, So "as to the thing according to me". The idea is, "as far as it depends on me". Used only here in this sense. Used in the plural as "the things concerning me" (meaning "my circumstances") in Eph 6:21; Phil 1:12; Col 4:7; and in Act 24:22; 25:14.
33. Or, "So the eagerness on my part is also to announce". On this word, see "willing" in Mt 26:41. Related to "eagerly" in 1 Pet 5:2, and "eagerness" in 2 Cor 8:19.

37. Or, "exercising faith". On this word, see Jn 3:36. Same root word as "faith" in the next verse.
38. This word means "righteousness, rightness, justice", either from God's viewpoint, or people's viewpoint, depending on the context. Used 92 times. GK 1466. Related to "declare righteous" in 3:24.
39. Some think Paul means righteousness "from God", the righteous status we have from God; others, "belonging to God", God's righteousness, a God kind of righteousness into which we enter by faith. There are other views.
40. Some think Paul means a righteousness "starting from faith and leading to a life of faith"; others, "beginning with faith and ending with faith"; others, "revealed from the faith of one to the faith of another". There are other views. On "faith", see Eph 2:8.
41. This word means "righteous, right, just", either from God's viewpoint, or people's viewpoint, depending on the context. Used 79 times. GK 1465. Related to "declare righteous" in 3:24.

1. That is, "Now" or "You see." Paul now begins his lengthy exposition of the revelation of God's righteousness (v 17), and its implications. He uses this word to assert his first point. GK 1142.
2. That is, God's anger directed at sin. All humans are children of wrath (Eph 2:3; Rom 9:22), whose sin will bring God's wrath (Jn 3:36; Eph 5:6; Col 3:6; Heb 3:11), which is coming (Mt 3:7; Rom 2:5; Rev 6:17; 11:18; 14:10; 19:15), but from which believers are delivered (Rom 5:9; 1 Thes 1:10; 5:9). On this word, see Rev 16:19.
3. The wrath is revealed now in God's "handing over" people to their life choices, with all the consequences in this life. This only begins what also will be revealed in the future, when they will "pay the penalty" in the next life, 2 Thes 1:9. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:3.
4. Or, "impiety, godlessness, profaneness". Lack of reverence toward God. Elsewhere only in 11:26; 2 Tim 2:26; Tit 2:12; Jude 15, 18. GK 813.
5. Or, "wrongdoing, iniquity, violation of what God considers right". This word is also used with reference to human standards of right and justice. Same word as in 1:29; 2:8; 3:5; 6:13; 9:14. Used 25 times. GK 94. Related to "wronged" in Act 7:24, and "declare righteous" in Rom 3:24.
6. Or, "suppressing, holding back". People hold down what truth they know in their desire to live as they please. This word means "to hold down, suppress; to hold back, restrain; to hold on to, retain, hold fast". Elsewhere only as "hold on to" in Lk 8:15; 1 Cor 7:30; 11:2; 2 Cor 6:10; 1 Thes 5:21; Heb 3:6, 14; 10:23; "hold on" in 1 Cor 15:2; "hold" in Lk 14:9; Act 27:40; Rom 7:6; "hold back" in Lk 4:42; Phm 13; "restrain" in 2 Thes 2:6, 7. GK 2988.
7. That is "in connection with, in the sphere of". Or, "by, by means of". GK 1877.
8. Paul explains their "holding down", and God's wrath on it, in v 19-32. These people are acting contrary to the truth God has revealed about Himself, resulting in God's judgment. Paul continues this theme in a different way in 2:1.
9. Same adjective as in Jn 18:15, 16; Act 1:19; 2:14; 4:10, 16; 9:42; 13:38; 15:18; 19:17; 28:22, 28. Elsewhere only as "acquaintance" (a "known" one) in Lk 2:44; 23:49. GK 1196.
10. That is, about God. Some think Paul means "what may be known, the knowable"; others, "what is known, the known". What is the known thing? It is God's existence, and the things mentioned next in v 20.
11. Or, "known, clear, visible, plainly seen". Same adjective as in Act 4:16; 1 Cor 3:13; 14:25; Gal 5:19; 1 Tim 4:15; 1 Jn 3:10. Elsewhere only as "visible" in Lk 8:17; Rom 2:28; Phil 1:13; "visibility" in Mt 4:22; Lk 8:17; and "known" in Mt 12:16; Mk 3:12; 6:14; Act 7:13; 1 Cor 11:19. GK 5745. Related to "made evident" next.
12. Or, "among them". Some think Paul means God's existence is evident "in their minds" as evidenced by the universal drive of all humans to worship something greater than themselves. Others think he means God made it evident "among them", that is, in creation (v 20).
13. Or, "made known, made clear". Related to the word earlier in the verse. On this verb, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
14. Or, "divineness, divinity", as seen in His attributes and actions. Used only here. GK 2522.
15. Or, "distinctly seen, perceived". Used only here. GK 2775. The invisible is perceived with the mind through the visible creation.
16. Or, "perceived, comprehended". See "think" in Eph 3:20 on this word.
17. Or, "so that they might be without excuse". This indicates either the actual result or the intended purpose of God's action in v 19. The people in v 18 are without excuse because God revealed enough about Himself in creation to make them accountable (3:19).
18. Rather than the next step in explaining v 18, others connect this with v 20 as the reason why people are without excuse (making it point 1D.). Same word as in v 19, and elsewhere in Romans only in 3:20; 8:7. Used 23 times, meaning "therefore, because". GK 1484.
19. That is, as a result of God's revelation in creation. What people knew, they turned away from.
20. Or, "worthless". People directed their thoughts to worthless, futile, pointless things. When they stand before God, they will see just how futile they were. Used only here. GK 3471. Related to "futile" in 1 Cor 15:17.
21. Or, "reasonings, opinions". On this word, see Jam 2:4.
22. Or, "foolish", from God's point of view. Same word as in v 31. On this word, see "without understanding" in 10:19.
23. Used 5 times. GK 5029. Related to "darkness" in Jn 3:19.
24. Or, "were made foolish". Same word as "made foolish" in 1 Cor 1:20. GK 3701.
25. Elsewhere only as "changed" in Act 6:14; 1 Cor 15:51, 52; Gal 4:20; Heb 1:12. GK 248. Related to "exchange" in v 25. Same word as in Ps 106:20, "they exchanged their glory for the image of an ox", and reflecting that grammar.
26. Elsewhere of God only in 1 Tim 1:17. It is the word "mortal" (used next) with a negative prefix. On this word, see "undecayable" in 1 Cor 15:52.
27. Rendered this way, this phrase explains "likeness". More literally, "for a likeness of an image". Others think Paul means "for a copy of a figure" of a mortal, etc. On this word, see Col 1:15.
28. Here, people begin to worship God in the form of an idol, representing the infinite glory of their immortal Creator as an object of their own creation in the likeness of one of His creations.
29. Or, "delivered them". Same word as in v 26, 28. Compare Eph 4:19. God "handed over" Israel in Act 7:42. On this word, see Mt 26:21. Some manuscripts say "also handed over" {N}.
30. Some think the subject is an implied "they"; others, "their bodies". See the next note. The grammar permits either.
31. Some think Paul means "with the result that" this happens. Others think it expresses their purpose, "so that they might dishonor their bodies" or "so that their bodies might be dishonored", that is, so that they might carry out their impure desires in their bodies. Others think it defines impurity, "impurity—the dishonoring as to their bodies among themselves".
32. This word resumes the subject of v 22-23. Same word as in v 32. Others think v 25-27 is subordinate to v 24 (so that v 24 is 2C., v 25 is 1D., and v 26 is 2D.). There are other views.
33. Elsewhere only in v 26. GK 3563. Same root word and grammar as "exchanged" in v 23.
34. Some think Paul means "the Truth", that is, God; others, "the truth that God revealed about Himself".
35. Or, "for falsehood". On this word, see "falsehood" in Rev 14:5. The lie of false religion.
36. Or, "venerated". Used only here. Related to "object of worship" in 2 Thes 2:4, and "worshiping" in Act 13:50.
37. Or, "creature". Here, people worship creation as their god, rather than God as their Creator, trading truth for lies. Some think Paul is describing progressive steps away from God; others, different aspects of the same thing as in v 22-23. On this word, see 8:39

2. Paul may mean "characterized by dishonor", that is, "dishonorable passions"; or, "leading to [further] dishonor"; or, "proceeding from [the] dishonor" God gave them up to in v 24. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:20. Related to "dishonored" in v 24.

7. Or, "carrying out". On this word, see "work out" in Phil 2:12.
8. Or, "the shame, indecency, shameful deed". Some give this a more abstract sense by rendering it plural in English. Elsewhere only as "shame" in Rev 16:15. GK 859. Related to "private parts" in 1 Cor 12:23; and "behave dishonorably" in 1 Cor 7:36.
9. Or, "recompense, requital", the thing deserved. The root words mean "the wage corresponding to". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 6:13. Here the context implies a negative sense, "penalty"; there, a positive sense, "reward". GK 521.
10. Or, "was necessary for, had to be for". On this word, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
11. Or, "deception, delusion". On this word, see 1 Thes 2:3. Some think Paul means that such people receive in their own persons the consequences of their homosexual behavior; others, that this behavior is the penalty they receive for their error of rejecting God, v 25.
12. On this word, see 12:2. People disapprove of God for themselves, and others (v 32).
13. Note the play on the root word. They did not "approve-after-testing", so their mind was "disapproved-after-testing". On this word, see 1 Cor 9:27.
14. On this word, see Mt 22:18. Some manuscripts add "sexual immorality" before this word; others have this and the next two words in different order {C}.
15. Or, "an evil disposition, maliciousness", a desiring to harm others. Used only here. GK 2799. Related to "badness" earlier.
16. Or, "gossips, slanderers". Used only here. GK 6031. Related to "whisperings" in 2 Cor 12:20.
17. Used only here. GK 2897. Related to "speak against" in 1 Pet 3:16.

19. Paul may mean "evil things", "evil things to do", "ways of doing evil". On this word, see 3 Jn 11. Related to "malice".
20. Or, "undutiful". That is, unfaithful in the sense of "not faithful to their promises". Used only here. GK 853.
21. Or, "without natural affection, affectionless, without good feelings for others". Elsewhere only in 2 Tim 3:3. GK 845. Some manuscripts add "unreconcilable" {A}, which is also found in 2 Tim 3:3.
22. Or, "ordinance, righteous decree". Same word as in Lk 1:6; Heb 9:1, 10. Elsewhere only as "requirement" in Rom 2:26, 8:4; "righteous acts" (the keeping of God's requirements) in Rom 5:18; Rev 15:4; 19:8; and "verdict of righteousness" (the final result) in Rom 5:16. GK 1468. Related to "righteousness" in v 17.
23. Or, "well-pleased-with, agreeing-with, giving consent to". These people promote anti-God behavior. Same word as in Lk 11:48; Act 8:1; 22:20. Elsewhere only as "consent" in 1 Cor 7:12, 13. GK 5306. Not related to "approved" in v 28, but to "well pleased" in Mt 17:5.
24. Elsewhere only in 1:20. GK 406. Notice Paul changes from addressing "they" to "you".
25. That is, exercising judgment, applying God's Law to others. Paul speaks here to all who know the right thing, as evidenced by judging, but who do not do it. Note Jam 4:17. The point of correspondence between those in chapter 1 and those here is 1:21— they do not act in accordance with what they know. Their knowledge renders them without excuse with regard to their sin. Some think Paul is referring here to the broad case of the moral person in general; others, to the specific case of the Jew, without explicitly naming him until v 17. On this word, see Mt 7:1.
26. Or, "For while you..."
27. Used five times in 1:32-2:3. It means "to do, practice, act, commit". Used 39 times. GK 4556. Related word in Mt 16:27.
28. This is the Greek word order. Some think Paul means that God's "judgment is truly upon" such people; others, that His "judgment based on truth is upon" them (not based on their pretensions).
29. Or, "counting, calculating". On this word, see "consider" in 3:28. Is this how you count it out? Do you calculate that you will escape? Do you add it up in such a way that you will be exempt even though you do the same things?
30. Same word as in Heb 2:3; 12:25; and Lk 21:36; Act 16:27; 2 Cor 11:33; 1 Thes 5:3. Elsewhere only as "flee out" in Act 19:16. GK 1767.
31. Or, "caring nothing for, scoffing at, treating as unworthy of notice, looking down on, scorning". Since you continue to do the things you know are wrong, you must either think you are exempt, or you must simply be unconcerned about it, scorning God's goodness by not taking to heart its purpose. Same word as in Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; 1 Tim 6:2; Heb 12:2. Elsewhere only as "look down on" in Mt 18:10; 1 Tim 4:12; "treat with contempt" in 1 Cor 11:22; and "despise" in 2 Pet 2:10. GK 2969. Related to "scoffer" in Act 13:41.
32. Or, "kindness". On this word, see 3:12. Kindness is goodness in action, shown to another.
33. Or, "kind". Related to the word earlier in the verse. Same word as Lk 6:35. On this word, see 1 Pet 2:3.
34. Or, "is trying to lead".

37. Or, "stubbornness". This noun is used only here. GK 5018. Related to "harden" in 9:18. In Mk 16:14, it is combined with the word "heart" to mean "hardness-of-heart".

1. Paul uses grammar that links together point 1E. and 2E. as a two-part statement.
2. That is, work that is good from God's perspective. Some paraphrase this "doing good". This phrase "good work" is elsewhere only in Act 9:36; Rom 13:3; 2 Cor 9:8; Eph 2:10; Phil 1:6; Col 1:10; 2 Thes 2:17; 1 Tim 2:10; 5:10; 2 Tim 2:21; 3:17; Tit 1:16; 3:1. On "good" see 1 Tim 5:10b. On "work", see Mt 26:10. See also "good works" in Tit 2:14, which uses a different word for "good".
3. The grammar links "eternal life" to the subject of "will render" in v 6. God Himself will personally render or give back eternal life, v 7. Wrath will result, v 8.
4. Note that Paul places the "you" group in this category. They are storing up this wrath (v 5).
5. Or, "self-seeking, self-ambition". On this word, see Jam 3:14.
6. Notice the change from addressing "they" (1:19-32), or "you" (2:1-8), to the universal principle. Others place 2:9-16 under v 6, placing v 9 as 3E., v 10 as 4E., v 11 as 2D., and v 12-13 as 3D. Then v 17 becomes 4B. On this word, see Rev 7:14.
7. Or, "man, human". This word is singular. Grammatically, "the person committing evil" describes "soul" ("committing" modifies "person", not "soul"). That is, every soul belonging to the class defined as "the person committing evil", every individual in this category, both from the Jew class and the Greek class. Paul means the same thing as if he had said "everyone committing" (using the grammar from v 10, "everyone working"), but states it here in a more explicit manner. This phrase is found only here, and may be contrasted with "souls of people" in Rev 18:13, where both words are plural; and "every conscience (singular) of mankind (plural)" in 2 Cor 4:2. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
8. Or, "producing". Same word as in 1:27. Same root word as "working" in 2:10.
9. That is, neither Gentile nor Jewish persons. God has a single standard. On this word, see Jam 2:1.
10. This is the case of the "Greek" in v 9. How they sin "without the Law" of Moses, yet not "without law" from God, is explained in v 14-16. Used only in this verse. GK 492. Related to "without the Law" in 1 Cor 9:21.
11. Or, "in", meaning "in the sphere of, in the domain of". Used in this sense also in 3:19; 7:23; Lk 23:40; Tit 1:6, and perhaps Jn 3:21. GK 1877. This is the case of the "Jew" in v 9.
12. Elsewhere only in Jam 1:22, 23, 25. GK 212. Related to "auditorium" in Act 25:23.
13. It is lowercase here because this statement applies to both groups in v 12. "Law" means one thing for the Gentiles, as explained next, and another for the Jews. Used 64 times in Romans. On this word, see 7:21.
14. Same word as in Jam 1:22, 23, 25; 4:11. Next Paul shows how neither Gentiles nor Jews are "doers" of what they know. Both are "under sin" (3:9), violators of God's Laws (written in one case in their hearts; in the other case, in the Law of Moses), and are therefore subject to God's impartial judgment in accordance with their works. GK 4475.
15. That is, by their natural-born moral abilities, "instinctively". Others render this "having no Law by nature, are doing". That is, by birth, they are ones living apart from the Law, as in v 27. On this word, see Eph 2:3.
16. Where the Gentile's own standards coincide with God's Law, at those points they become a law to him.
17. Or, "showing, proving", in their actions. On this word, see Eph 2:7.
18. That is, their actions demonstrate that some of the requirements of God's Law are written on their hearts, as part of their own internal standard of conduct. By these requirements, they can be judged.
19. The grammar indicates that this adjective modifies "work", not "Law". Used only here. GK 1209.
20. Their conscience bears witness with their actions to these requirements written in their hearts. It renders judgment on their actions based on these internal standards. Elsewhere only as "bearing witness with" in this same phrase in 9:1, and in 8:16. GK 5210.
21. Or, "reflections". On this word, see "considerations" in 2 Cor 10:4.
22. The thoughts are a third witness to the requirements written on the heart, as these Gentiles apply them. Some think "one another" refers to the thoughts themselves, as they alternately accuse or defend one's action between themselves; others think it refers to the interaction with other people, as they accuse or defend their actions to one another.
23. The present tense "judges" is given a future sense by the reference to that "day". Some manuscripts say "shall judge" {N}. Some think Paul means that such people judge their actions now, and that God will also judge them on that day, using their own standards that coincide with His Law, as witnessed by their actions, conscience, and thoughts. On this basis they will be condemned because they are not "doers" of their own moral principles, v 13; 3:20. Others connect this verse to v 12 or 13, so that Paul says "will be judged" (v 12) or "will be declared righteous (v 13)... on the day when God judges", making a parenthesis of what comes between.
24. Or, "the secrets". On this word, see 1 Cor 4:5.
25. That is, the good news I proclaim. Compare 2 Thes 1:8. God's judgment is certain. The good news is about eternal life in Christ for all who believe. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:1.
26. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {C}.
27. Neither are the Jews "doers". They have "sinned under the Law" (v 12), and are subject to impartial judgment by God through the Law. Paul does not need to explain the "how" as with the Gentile. He only needs to apply the Law to them. They have it, and boast in their knowledge, but they do not obey it. Others group 2:1-16 together and start a new point (4B.) here, so that v 17 begins the specific application to the Jew of the general principles of 2:1-16.
28. That is, "assuming that". Instead of "But if", some manuscripts say "Behold!" {N}.
29. Or, "are named, bear the name, name yourself". Used only here. GK 2226. The root word is "name".
30. On this phrase, see Phil 1:10.
31. Or, "are sure, convinced". On this word, see "persuade" in 1 Jn 3:19.
32. Or, "trainer, discipliner, instructor". On this word, see "discipliner" in Heb 12:9.
33. Or, "form, shape". Elsewhere only as "form" in 2 Tim 3:5. GK 3673.
34. This concludes the "if" in v 17. "But if v 17-20 is true of you, then...".
35. These examples of being "judged through the Law" (v 12) are enough to prove Paul's point.

1. Or, "abhorring". Elsewhere only as "be abominable" in Rev 21:8. GK 1009. Related to "abomination" in Rev 17:4, and "detestable" in Tit 1:16.
2. Or, "commit sacrilege". Used only here. GK 2644. The related noun is in Act 19:37, where it is clear that this was a problem in that day. The exact details of this behavior are uncertain to us. Some take this literally. Others take it to mean "profit from idol temples". It is related to "rob" in 2 Cor 11:8. Others think Paul means "rob God of what is due Him", including the offerings commanded by God for the support of His temple. Others take it in the general sense of "commit sacrilege" in various ways.
3. Same word as in 1:24, of the Gentiles. On this word, see Act 5:41.
4. Or, this may be a question, "Law— are you dishonoring...?".
5. Paul uses this word to assert his next point. It may be rendered "Now" or "Indeed". GK 1142. You who call yourselves Jews and break God's Law are dishonoring God. And circumcision will not protect you.
6. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
7. Or, "benefits, helps, is of use or value". Same word as in Mt 16:26; 27:24; Mk 8:36; Lk 9:25; Jn 6:63; 12:19; 1 Cor 13:3; 14:6; Gal 5:2; Heb 4:2; 13:9. Elsewhere only as "benefit" in Mt 15:5; Mk 5:26; 7:11. GK 6067. Related to "profit" in 3:1; "profitable" in 2 Tim 3:16; and "unprofitableness" in Heb 7:18.
8. What was done to a Jewish male when he was eight days old is only of value if he obeys God's Law. Doers will be declared righteous, not circumcised ones.
9. The rite has become worthless. This rite was given by God as a sign of the covenant with Abraham (Gen 17:9-14), but by itself is of no value. Righteousness is what is needed to be accepted by God.
10. Paul uses the same word in two senses. Here it refers to "uncircumcised" people, as also in v 27; 3:30; 4:9; Gal 2:7; Eph 2:11; Col 3:11. In v 25 and 26, it refers to a state of "uncircumcision", as elsewhere only in Act 11:3; Rom 4:10, 11, 12; 1 Cor 7:18, 19; Gal 5:6; 6:15; Col 2:13. In both cases, this word is sometimes used as another way of saying "Gentiles", "non-Jew", as here. GK 213.
11. Paul is not saying this is possible. He is saying that considering the matter in this way proves that it is obedience, not circumcision, that makes the difference. On this word, see "regulation" in 1:32.
12. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
13. Or, this may be a question, "And will the uncircumcised... judge?", or "and will [not] the uncircumcised... judge?". Same word as in v 14.
14. That is, the Law, the written code. Same word as in v 29. On this word, see "writings" in Jn 7:15.
15. That is, the outward, open and public things like dress, rituals, culture, etc. On this word, see "evident" in 1:19.
16. Or, "in the spirit, not the letter". On "the letter", compare 2:27; 7:6; 2 Cor 3:6.
17. Or, "usefulness, utility, gain, benefit". Elsewhere only as "advantage" in Jude 16. GK 6066. Related to "profit" in 2:25.
18. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it just says "First...", as in 1:8. Paul's grammar may imply there are other reasons (more are listed in 9:4); but he chooses not to list more here. Or, Paul may mean "first" in the sense of "above all". See 1:8.
19. That is, the sacred writings, the Holy Scriptures. On this word, see Heb 5:12.
20. Paul is either answering Jewish objections to what he has said, or false inferences drawn from what he has said by "some", v 8. He gives three true inferences (1C., 2C., 3C.), states the false conclusions drawn from them (level D), and refutes the false conclusions (level E).
21. Or, "What then? If some...". On this word, see Mt 27:23. Or, "For what if...".
22. Or, "did not believe, were unfaithful", with reference to the oracles God entrusted them to them as Jews, the OT. "Were faithless", "faithlessness", and "faithfulness" (and also the word "entrusted") are from the same root word, and they are rendered this way to show this connection. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:13.
23. Or, "unbelief". On this word, see "unbelief" in 1 Tim 1:13.
24. If some Jews (the majority of Israel) did not believe, will this nullify God's faithfulness with regard to the oracles He entrusted to them? On this word, see "done away with" in 6:6.
25. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected to this question, and the one in v 5.
26. Or, "happen, take place, come about". GK 1181.
27. God will not abandon His promises. Though every human is found to be a liar, He will be found faithful to His word. Elsewhere only in Jn 8:44, 55; 1 Tim 1:10; Tit 1:12; 1 Jn 1:10; 2:4, 22; 4:20; 5:10. GK 6026.
28. Or, "vindicated". When it comes to being faithful to His promises, God will be pronounced righteous by all. On this word, see 3:24.
29. Or, "in Your judging", that is, when You judge. On this word, see Mt 7:1.
30. Or, "exhibits, shows". On this word, see 5:8. If our sin provides a contrast against which God's righteousness may be exhibited, then what? "Our unrighteousness" refers to Israel, the "some who were faithless" in v 3.
31. Is it unfair for God to punish Israel, since their sin serves to prove His righteousness and faithfulness?
32. Or, "in accordance with mankind". That is, with human logic and perspective; the way a human might look at it.
33. Some manuscripts say "For" {B}.
34. Or, "falsehood". Used only here. GK 6025. Related to "liar" in v 4.
35. Why is an individual Jew held accountable if his sin magnifies God's glory? Paul answers by showing the absurd conclusion.
36. Or, "spoken against, slandered". On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.
37. That is, the slanderers who blaspheme Paul or affirm him to say this. Neither they nor Paul taught this. Or, more generally, ones who would say such a thing.
38. Or, "deserved, right". Elsewhere only in Heb 2:2. GK 1899.
39. Some think Paul is referring to the Jews; others, to Christians.
40. This word means "to be before, to be first, to excel", so Paul could mean "are we better" than they, or "are we ahead". Do we have an advantage? Others take it as passive, "are we excelled?" Are they better than we? Do they have an advantage over us? The word also means "to hold something in front" for protection, so Paul could mean "are we excused", "are we shielded" by Judaism or circumcision, "do we excuse ourselves". Used only here. GK 4604.
41. Or, "surely not". Some think Paul means "Not in every way". On this word, see "surely" in 1 Cor 9:10.
42. Or, "previously charged". Paul is referring to 1:18-2:29. Used only here. GK 4577.

1. Or, "unprofitable, worthless". Used only here. GK 946. Related to "unprofitable" in Mt 25:30.
2. Or, "kindness, generosity". Same word as in 2:4. Elsewhere only as "kindness" in Rom 11:22; 2 Cor 6:6; Gal 5:22 (where it is distinguished from "goodness"); Eph 2:7; Col 3:12; Tit 3:4. GK 5983. Related to "good" in 1 Pet 2:3, and "show kindness" in 1 Cor 13:4.
3. Some manuscripts omit the words "There is not" {C}.
4. Or, "up to" one. There is not a single individual. GK 2401.
5. This is a participle, a grave "having been opened".
6. That is, prayer for evil to come upon someone, calling down evil upon someone. Used only here. GK 725. Related words in Jn 7:49; Gal 3:10; Rom 12:14.
7. Same word as in 2:12. What Paul said in v 10-18 certainly applies to Jews! They are not exempt.
8. Or, "shut, closed, blocked". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 11:10; Heb 11:33. GK 5852. If God's people are not excepted, no one is.
9. Or, "answerable, liable, subject to". Used only here. GK 5688.
10. Placed here, this explains and concludes this section in universal terms, "law" applying in a different sense (as in 2:13) to both Jews and Greeks (v 9). Others make this point 1D., explaining and concluding the case of the Jew only. In this case, this would be rendered "of the Law" here and later in the verse.
11. This is an idiom, literally, "all flesh will not be". On "no flesh", see Mt 24:22. By works of law, whether the Law of Moses or the laws of conscience (2:15), all flesh (every human) earns wrath (1:18), and death (6:23).
12. That is, law of any kind. Or, "the Law" of Moses.
13. The contrast of the two kinds of righteousness is seen clearly in Phil 3:9. It is God's righteousness apart from my obedience to any kind of rule or law, received as a free gift by faith.
14. Same word as in 16:26; Col 1:26; 2 Tim 1:10; Tit 1:3. On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
15. Instead of giving the human point of view, some think this is from Christ's point of view, "through the faithfulness of Jesus Christ" to the work He was sent to do, leaving the human side to the next phrase ("the ones believing"). On this word, see Eph 2:8.
16. Or, "to all". Some manuscripts say "to all and on all" {B}.
17. Using this same word, Hebrews exhorts us not to come short of the promise in 4:1, or the grace of God in 12:15. On this word, see "be in need" in Lk 15:14.
18. Some think this means "of rendering to God the glory due Him"; others, "of reflecting the glorious character of God originally given to mankind", God's image; others, "of the glory or praise now given by God"; others, "of the future heavenly glory God will give".
19. Some think Paul means there is no distinction, for all sinned and all are declared righteous in the same way. Others take "For... God" as a parenthesis, so that he means "... for all the ones believing (for there... God), being declared righteous".
20. Or, "justified". Same word as in Rom 2:13; 3:4, 20, 26, 28, 30; 4:2, 5; 5:1, 9; 6:7; 8:30, 33; and Mt 12:37; Lk 16:15; 18:14; Act 13:38, 39; 1 Cor 6:11; Gal 2:16, 17; 3:8, 11, 24; 5:4; 1 Tim 3:16; Tit 3:7; Jam 2:21, 24, 25. Elsewhere only as "vindicate" in Mt 11:19; Lk 7:29, 35; 10:29; and "declare right" in 1 Cor 4:4. GK 1467. Related to the two words in 1:17, and "unrighteousness" in 1:18.
21. Or, "freely". On this word, see "without a reason" in Gal 2:21.
22. Or, "deliverance, release". It is the "release" based on payment of a ransom, used of what Christ did on the cross in 1 Cor 1:30; Eph 1:7; Col 1:14; Heb 9:15; and for what He will do in the future in Lk 21:28; Rom 8:23; Eph 1:14; 4:30. Elsewhere only in Heb 11:35. GK 667. Related to "ransom" in Mt 20:28 and 1 Tim 2:6; "redeem" in 1 Pet 1:18; "redemption" in Heb 9:12; and "deliverer" in Act 7:35.
23. Or, "in connection with, by, by means of". GK 1877.
24. Or, "presented, publicly displayed". Elsewhere only as "purposed" (that is, set forth to oneself) in Eph 1:9; and "planned" in Rom 1:13. GK 4729. Related to "presentation" in Mk 2:26. On this concept, compare Act 2:23; Rev 13:8.
25. Or, "that which propitiates; the means-of-satisfaction; the satisfying-sacrifice", the effect of which is to satisfy God's wrath and obtain His mercy (its focus is on God). Some think it means "that which expiates, covers, cleanses" our sin, the effect of which is to remove our sin and guilt (its focus is on our sin). "Propitiation" is the removal or satisfaction of wrath. Stated from the human perspective, it is the means of gaining His mercy. Jesus is the sacrifice that removes or satisfies the wrath against sin (1:18) that Paul has just proven is upon all flesh (1:18-3:20). As a result, God is "merciful" (the related word in Heb 8:12). Elsewhere only as "mercy seat" in Heb 9:5, the place where the propitiation was made. GK 2663. Related to "satisfaction" in 1 Jn 2:2, and "make-an-offering-for-satisfaction" in Heb 2:17. We could never satisfy God's wrath against sin. He set forth His own Son as the satisfaction for His own wrath for the reason stated at the end of v 26.
26. Or, "By". GK 1877.
27. On this word, see 1 Jn 1:7. Some think Paul means "through faith in His blood"; others, that the propitiation is both "through faith" and "in His blood". In other words, the faith is in Christ, the propitiation is in His blood.
28. That is, to prove His righteousness with regard to His passing by all the sins of the past. GK 1650.
29. Or, "showing, proof". Same word as in v 26; 2 Cor 8:24. Elsewhere only as "sign" in Phil 1:28. GK 1893. Related to "demonstrate" in Eph 2:7; and "evidence" in 2 Thes 1:5.
30. Or, "leaving unpunished". This word is used of debts or obligations, and also means the "remission, forgiveness" of debts. Used only here. GK 4217.
31. Or, "happened-beforehand". That is, before Christ died for them. Used only here. GK 4588. God "passed over" them in anticipation of the Cross. Compare Act 17:30.
32. That is, in connection with. God passed them by in connection with His forbearance.
33. Or, "holding back, delay of punishment, clemency". Elsewhere only in 2:4. GK 496.

- 4E. For¹ the demonstration² of His righteousness^A at the present time, so that He might be³ righteous^B and declaring-righteous^C the one of faith⁴ in Jesus
- 2C. Where then is the boasting?⁵ It was shut-out⁶. Through what kind of law?⁷ Of works? No, but through a law of faith
- 1D. For⁸ we consider⁹ a person to be declared-righteous by faith apart from works^D of the Law
- 1E. Or is He the God of Jews only¹⁰? Is He not also the God of Gentiles? Yes, of Gentiles also,* since¹¹ there is one God— Who will declare-righteous^C the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through the same faith¹²
- 2D. Do we then nullify^E the Law through the faith?¹³
- 1E. May it never be! On the contrary, we establish¹⁴ the Law
- 3C. What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather¹⁵ according-to¹⁶ the flesh, has found?¹⁷ For if Abraham was declared-righteous by works, he has a boast¹⁸— but not before God¹⁹
- 1D. For²⁰ what does the Scripture say?— “And Abraham believed^F God, and it was credited²¹ to him for righteousness^A” [Gen 15:6]
- 1E. Now to the one working^G, the wages²² are not credited to him based-on²³ grace^H, but based on debt²⁴
- 2E. But to the one not working, but putting-faith²⁵ upon the One declaring the ungodly²⁶ righteous²⁷— his faith^I is credited for righteousness
- 3E. Just as David also says [in Ps 32:1-2] as to the blessedness^K of the person^L to whom God credits righteousness apart from works^D—
- 1E. “Blessed^M are the ones whose lawless-deeds²⁸ were forgiven^N, and whose sins were covered
- 2E. “Blessed^M is the man whose²⁹ sin the Lord will never^O count^P”
- 2D. So is this blessedness³⁰ upon the circumcised³¹, or upon the uncircumcised^Q also? For³² we say, “Faith was credited to Abraham for righteousness”. *How then was it credited— to one being in circumcision^R, or in uncircumcision^Q?
- 1E. Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision!
- 2E. And he received the sign^S of circumcision— a seal³³ of the righteousness^A of faith³⁴ while in uncircumcision— so that he might be³⁵
- 1E. The father of all the ones believing^F through uncircumcision— so that righteousness^A might be credited^P also³⁶ to them
- 2E. And the father of the circumcised^R—
- 1G. To the ones not of circumcision only³⁷
- 2G. But indeed to the ones walking-in-line³⁸ in the footsteps of the faith of our father Abraham while he was in uncircumcision³⁹

1. Or, "For the purpose of, with a view to". GK 4639. Not the same word as "For" in the previous phrase, but having the same general meaning.
2. That is, to prove His righteousness with regard to His present declaring-righteous through faith in Jesus. Instead of making the two "demonstration" statements parallel as here, some think this one explains the "passing by", "because of the passing by of the sins having previously taken place in the forbearance of God with a view to the demonstration of His righteousness at the present time". Then the following phrase "So that He might be righteous..." becomes the 4E. point.
3. Or, "so that He is", depending on whether Paul is referring to the purpose or the result of the demonstration. That is, that God might be righteous, based on the propitiation, and be seen to be righteous, based on the demonstration.
4. Same phrase as "the ones of faith" in Gal 3:7, 9. That is, the one who "lives by faith", Rom 1:17. Compare the phrase in 4:14.
5. Since there is no distinction between Jew and Gentile (v 22), and since it is not by our works, there can be no boasting. Boasting comes from a perceived distinction between people, a basis for feeling superior over another. On this word, see 2 Cor 7:4.
6. Or, "excluded". On this word, see Gal 4:17.
7. Some think Paul means this in the sense of "principle, system", both times in this verse; others, as "God's Law", not through a Law wrongly understood as of works, but a Law rightly understood as leading to faith, 9:31-32. On this word, see 7:21.
8. Some manuscripts say "Therefore" {B}.
9. Or, "think, count, conclude". This word means "count, calculate, compute; credit, account, put to the account; take into account; consider, evaluate, estimate, regard, think, be of the opinion". Same word as in Jn 11:50; Rom 8:18, 36; 14:14; 1 Cor 4:1; 2 Cor 10:2, 7, 11; Phil 3:13; 4:8; Heb 11:19. Elsewhere only as "count" in Lk 22:37; Act 19:27; Rom 2:26; 4:8; 6:11; 9:8; 1 Cor 13:5, 11; 2 Cor 3:5; 5:19; 2 Tim 4:16; 1 Pet 5:12; "credit" in Rom 4:3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, 22, 23, 24; 2 Cor 12:6; Gal 3:6; Jam 2:23; and "think" in Rom 2:3; 2 Cor 11:5. GK 3357.
10. Or, "alone". This would be the conclusion if we were saved through a Jewish Law of works.
11. Or, "if as is the case". On this word, see 8:9.
12. Or, "that faith". Paul means "the faith" just mentioned, to show which, "same" is added.
13. A natural question since Paul just nullified the Law as an item of boasting, national pride and making distinctions between people. No, the fact that God sent His Son to satisfy the justice of the Law establishes its place forever as His standard for righteousness.
14. Or, "confirm, make stand". Used in this sense also in 10:3. GK 2705.
15. Used only here. GK 4635. Some manuscripts say "father" {B}.
16. Or, "with respect to, in relation to". GK 2848.
17. That is, did the Jew's physical forefather find righteousness by faith or by works? Or, "has found according to the flesh?", that is, by his works. Some manuscripts omit "has found" {N}, so that it says "... say as to Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh?"
18. That is, a matter or ground for boasting, something to boast about. On this noun, see Phil 1:26.
19. Some think this means Abraham could boast to others, but not to God, because he would simply have done what was required; others, that he does not have such a boast at all.
20. Some think Paul uses this word to assert his first point, in response to v 1. It can be rendered "Now" or "Well". What has he found? Well, what does the Scripture say? GK 1142. Others think this is in response to v 2. Abraham has no boast before God, for what does the Scripture say? In either case, the Genesis quote is the answer, and the first main point in the lesson from Abraham.
21. Same word as "consider" in 3:28. It occurs 11 times in this chapter as "credit" and "count".
22. Or, "pay, reward". On this word, see "recompense" in Rev 22:12.
23. Or, "according to, in keeping with". GK 2848. Same word as in v 16.
24. That is, as something owed based on the work. A wage is not based on the grace of the giver, but on the debt to the worker. Elsewhere only in Mt 6:12. GK 4052.
25. Or, "believing", as it is rendered in v 3. This verb is normally translated "believe". It means "to believe, put faith in" and is related to the noun "faith". It is used with the preposition "upon" elsewhere only in Rom 4:24; Mt 27:42; Act 9:42; 11:17; 16:31; 22:19; and with different grammar in Rom 9:33; 10:11; Lk 24:25; 1 Tim 1:16; 1 Pet 2:6. All of these are rendered "put faith upon" to distinguish them. Compare Jn 3:15. On this word, see Jn 3:36.
26. Same word as in 5:6. On this word, see Jude 15.
27. This striking phrase is the heart of the gospel and Paul's message here. God declares the ungodly righteous by faith—not the godly, the obedient, the one who keeps the Law, who deserves it, who earns it, but the ungodly.
28. Or, "lawlessnesses". This word is plural only here and Heb 10:17. On this word, see 1 Jn 3:4.
29. Some manuscripts say "to whom" {N}, so that it says "to whom the Lord will never count sin".
30. Same word as in v 6.
31. Continuing the lesson to be learned from Abraham, does one have to be a Jew to receive this blessing?
32. Since the word "blessedness" comes from the reference to David in v 6, Paul first explains that he is speaking again with reference to Abraham in Gen 15.
33. Same word as in 1 Cor 9:2; 2 Tim 2:19; Rev 5:1; 8:1; 9:4. GK 5382. Related to the verb in Eph 1:13.
34. Or, "by faith"; or, "his faith righteousness". The seal of his righteousness in Gen 15 came at least 14 years later in Gen 17.
35. Or, "so that he is", indicating either the purpose of receiving it, or the result of receiving it.
36. Here Paul is referring to the Gentiles with faith like Abraham's. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
37. That is, those with circumcision but without Abraham's faith.
38. That is, "to the circumcised ones walking in line". On this word, see Gal 5:25.
39. In other words, true Jews, 2:28-29; 9:8. Abraham is not the spiritual father of his descendants who are merely circumcised (though he is their physical father), but only of those with both his circumcision and his faith.

- 3D. For¹ the promise^A to Abraham or to his seed² that he should be the inheritor^B of the world³ was not through⁴ the Law⁵, but through the righteousness of faith⁶ 13
- 1E. For if the ones of the Law⁷ are inheritors— faith has been made-empty⁸, and the promise has been nullified⁹ 14
- 2E. For the Law brings-about^C wrath.¹⁰ But¹¹ where there is no Law, neither is there transgression¹² 15

1. Paul uses this word to assert his next point in the lesson to be learned from Abraham. It may be rendered "Indeed" or "Moreover". GK 1142. Since Abraham is the father of all believers, v 11-12, on what basis is the promised inheritance granted to him and to his seed? Paul points out that it was not made dependent on obedience to God's Law, but was freely given based on the righteousness resulting from faith.
2. That is, his believing offspring, his spiritual descendants, those of whom he is the father, v 11-12, 16, who are fellow-heirs with Christ, 8:17. Same word as in v 16, 18. GK 5065. Some think Paul specifically means Christ alone, as in Gal 3:16.
3. Compare Gen 22:17-18.
4. Or, "via, by means of". GK 1328. Same word as in 3:20, 22, 25, 27, 30, 31.
5. Or, "law". Note that Paul has combined the case of Abraham and his seed. Viewing it from Abraham's historical point of view, before the Law was given, some think Paul means "law" in general, or "a legal system" of obedience. Viewing it from the point of view of the "seed", which is the case Paul expands upon in v 14-16, others think he means God's Law, and more specifically, "works of the Law" (3:28) as taught by the Jews in Paul's day. The promise was not received by Abraham or his seed through any kind of works-righteousness, but through a faith-righteousness. These two views of "Law" occur also in v 14 and 15, but in v 16 it is agreed that Paul is referring to the Law of Moses, God's Law.
6. Or, "faith righteousness". That is, the kind of righteousness that is granted through faith. Note that in what follows, Paul does not develop the historical argument with regard to Abraham (as he does in Gal 3:17), but shows that Law and Promise are incompatible with regard to salvation.
7. That is, ones relying upon their obedience to God's Law, hoping to be accepted by God through obedience to His Law. Paul says this is the heart of Israel's error in 9:31-32; 10:3. Compare "the one of faith" in 3:36.
8. Or, "voided". That is, made empty of any value or place. On this word, see "emptied" in Phil 2:7.
9. The promise of a free gift is nullified, since such people would then need to obey in order to attain it. The path of promise would be a dead end. More abstractly, even if perfect obedience were attained, the reward would be earned; the inheritance would not be God's gift based on His promise. Promise and Law are mutually exclusive. On this word, see "done away with" in 6:6.
10. In addition to nullifying the path of promise, the path of Law also brings its own consequences. Because we cannot keep it, God's Law produces a result opposite of what "the ones of the Law" are hoping. It only makes us aware of our sin (3:20), condemns us for our failure to perform, and causes us to desire a Savior (Gal 3:24). It is powerless to give life, and was not given for this purpose.
11. Some manuscripts say "For" {B}.
12. Or, "violation". There is no law to violate connected with the promise of a gift, so there can be no transgression or wrath either. Promise, inheritance, gift, and grace are one reality; Law, obedience, transgression, and wrath is a different reality. On this word, see 5:14.
13. Some think this looks back to the negative side in v 14-15. Because Law nullifies the promise and brings only wrath to those under it, not the promised blessing, it is by faith. Others think it points forward to the positive side that follows, "For this reason it is by faith—that it may be based..."
14. That is, the promise, the inheritance, righteousness, salvation.
15. Or, "secure, certain, sure". On this word, see 2 Pet 1:10. It is firm because it is based on grace, not works.
16. That is, to believing Jews like Paul himself, those following Moses' Law and Abraham's faith.
17. That is, to believing Gentiles, those following Abraham's faith alone.
18. Abraham is the spiritual father before God of all believers; the father of the faith relationship with God.
19. Or, "as-if". Some take these words to mean "calling [into] being the things not being" in an act of creation, as seen in the birth of Isaac, v 19. Others think "the things not being" are the things God has planned and promised, but which do not yet exist. God calls or names them "as if" they already existed, as when He called Abraham a "father of many nations" when he had no child, v 17. GK 6055.
20. Or, "against, beyond". That is, contrary to all that human hope could offer, upon the hope God promised.
21. Paul may mean Abraham believed for this purpose, so that he might become what God promised. Or, "so that he became", meaning that he believed, with the result that he in fact became the father of nations.
22. Paul details the scope and endurance of Abraham's faith.
23. Abraham considered it, but did not waver. Some manuscripts say "He did not consider" it {C}, meaning that his faith was so strong he did not even consider it. On this word, see Heb 10:24.
24. Or, "by this time, now". On this word, see Mt 24:32. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
25. Or, "become dead, as good as dead, lifeless", dead from the point of view of procreation. Same word as in Heb 11:12. Elsewhere only with different grammar as "put to death" in Col 3:5. GK 3739. Related to "deadness" next.
26. Or, "doubt". On this word, see "doubting" in Jam 1:6.
27. Or, "was strengthened" by faith. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:1.
28. Same word as in 14:5.
29. More literally, "has promised, He is able", as the Greek typically phrases the tenses.
30. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
31. For the final time in v 13-25, Paul links Abraham and his seed.
32. On "put faith upon", see 4:5.
33. This same word is used of the action of Judas (Mt 26:48); the Jews (Mt 27:2; Jn 18:35; Act 3:13); Pilate (Jn 19:16); Jesus (Jn 19:30; Gal 2:20; Eph 5:25); and God (Rom 8:32). On this word, see Mt 26:21.
34. Or, "because of, for the sake of". This word is used twice in this verse, and twice in v 23-24 as "for [his] sake". If both occurrences in v 25 are to be taken in the same sense, some think both look backward ("because we had sinned, because we had been justified"); others, forward ("for the sake of atoning for our sin, for the sake of demonstrating our justification"). Others think Paul means "because of our trespasses" and "for the sake of our justification". GK 1328.
35. Or, "arose". Same word as in v 24.
36. On this word, see "a declaring-righteous" in 5:18. Related to "declare righteous" in 5:1.

- 2B. Therefore, having been declared-righteous^A by faith, we have¹ peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, *through Whom also we have² the access³ *by faith*⁴ into this grace⁵ in which we stand 5:1 2
- 1C. And we are boasting⁶ over⁷ the hope^B of the glory of God
- 2C. And not only this,⁸ but we also are boasting in the afflictions^C— knowing that the affliction is producing^D endurance^E, *and the endurance is producing approvedness⁹, and the approvedness is producing hope^B 3 4
- 1D. And the hope does not put-to-shame¹⁰, because the love of God¹¹ has been poured-out^F in our hearts^G through the Holy Spirit having been given to us 5
- 1E. For while we were still being weak^H, yet¹² at the right-time¹³, Christ died for ungodly^I ones 6
- 1F. For one will rarely¹⁴ die for a righteous^K person 7
- 2F. For¹⁵ perhaps someone may even dare^L to die for the good¹⁶ person
- 3F. But God demonstrates¹⁷ His own love^M for us, because while we were still being sinners, Christ died for us 8
- 2E. Therefore by much more, having now been declared-righteous^A by His blood^N, we shall be saved^O from the wrath¹⁸ through Him 9
- 1F. For if while being enemies,¹⁹ we were reconciled²⁰ to God through the death of His Son 10
- 2F. By much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved^O by His life^P
- 3C. And not only this,²¹ but we are also boasting²² in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through Whom we now received the reconciliation²³ 11
- 3B. Because of this,²⁴ just as through one man^Q sin entered into the world, and death through the sin, and so²⁵ death went-through²⁶ to all people^Q, because²⁷ all sinned— 28 12
- 1C. For until the Law,²⁹ sin was in the world— but sin is not charged-to-the-account³⁰, there being no law³¹ 13
- 2C. Nevertheless death reigned^R from Adam until Moses— even over the ones not having sinned in the likeness³² of the transgression³³ of Adam, who is a pattern³⁴ of the One coming 14
- 1D. But not as is the trespass³⁵, so also is the grace-gift³⁶— 15
- 1E. For if by the trespass of the one man, the many³⁷ died³⁸
- 1F. By much more, the grace of God and the gift³⁹ by the grace of the one man Jesus Christ abounded^S for the many
- 2D. And not as what resulted through one man having sinned, is the given-gift⁴⁰— 16

1. Some manuscripts say "let us have" {A}, that is, "let us be having, enjoying", as this word is used in Act 9:31.
2. That is, we have come-to-have it. The grammar implies that we came-to-have it in the past, and continue to have it now. Some try to communicate the sense of this by paraphrasing it "we have obtained".
3. Or, "introduction, approach, admission", as into a king's presence. Elsewhere only in Eph 2:18; 3:12. GK 4643. Related to "bring to" in 1 Pet 3:18.
4. Some manuscripts omit "by faith" {C}.
5. That is, this state of grace.
6. Or, "let us boast", here and in v 3, if "let us have" is adopted earlier. Same word as in v 3, 11. We boast in God's gift to us, God's accomplishment. On this word, see 2 Cor 11:16. Related to "boasting" in 3:27.
7. Or, "on, on the basis of, in, in reference to". GK 2093. Not the same word as "in" in v 3, 11.
8. We not only boast in the hope, we boast in the affliction that produces the hope.
9. This word means the approved quality of a thing having been tested. On this word, see 2 Cor 2:9.
10. Or, "dishonor, disgrace, humiliate, disappoint". Hope would put us to shame if it never became reality, 1 Cor 15:14. Same word as in 9:33; 10:11; and Lk 13:17; 1 Cor 1:27; 2 Cor 7:14; 9:4; 1 Pet 2:6; 3:16. Elsewhere only as "shame" in 1 Cor 11:4, 5; and "humiliate" in 1 Cor 11:22. GK 2875. Related word in 1 Jn 2:28.
11. That is, God's love for us.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word; others omit the previous "still" {C}. It is the same word, "yet, still".
13. That is, God's time. See Gal 4:4; Eph 1:10; Tit 1:3. GK 2789.
14. Or, "hardly, scarcely". On this word, see "with difficulty" in 1 Pet 4:18.
15. Others render this word "Though, Yet" here, so that this qualifies the first case, rather than standing as a second case. GK 1142.
16. Some think Paul is contrasting a righteous person (whom we respect) with the good person (whom we love). On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b.
17. Or, "shows, exhibits, commends". Same word as in 3:5; 2 Cor 7:11; Gal 2:18. Elsewhere only as "commend" (see 2 Cor 3:1); and with different grammar, "stand with" in Lk 9:32, and "have existence" (see 2 Pet 3:5). GK 5319.
18. That is, God's wrath against sin (1:18), which is coming (2:5). On this word, see Rev 16:19.
19. We were on course to receive His wrath, 1:18; 2:8, 9.
20. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 5:18, 19, 20; and in 1 Cor 7:11. GK 2904. Related to "reconcile" in Col 1:20; "reconcile" in Act 7:26; "reconcile" in Mt 5:24; and "reconciliation" in Rom 5:11.
21. Others make this point 3E. ("not only [shall we be saved]..."), or 3F. ("not only [reconciled and saved]...").
22. Same word as in v 2.
23. Elsewhere only in 11:15; 2 Cor 5:18, 19. GK 2903. Related word in v 10.
24. That is, because we now received the reconciliation as a gift by grace through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, resulting in righteousness, peace with God, and eternal life. Paul now puts this in broad perspective, comparing Christ's one act bringing life to Adam's one act bringing death, and the former reign of sin to the present reign of grace. His death brought global changes even more far-reaching than Adam's sin. Grace now reigns in the world, resulting in eternal life for all who receive the gift of righteousness.
25. Or, "in this manner". That is, through one man. Compare 1 Cor 15:22. Some render this "even so", eliminating the break at the end of the verse. On this word, see Jn 3:16.
26. Or, "spread, came through". Used by Paul also in 1 Cor 10:1; 16:5; 2 Cor 1:16. Used 43 times. GK 1451.
27. On this idiom, see "for which" in Phil 3:12.
28. Note that Paul breaks off his thought. He picks it up again in verse 18, and gives the "so also". His basic point is that both Adam and Christ performed one act that affected all their progeny. But before he can make this point, he must explain how Adam's act affected his whole race. So next he explains the meaning of "all sinned".
29. That is, the period of time between Adam and Moses, v 14.
30. Used only here. GK 1824. Related to "charge to my account" in Phm 18.
31. That is, since there was no law. See 4:15. With no requirement, there can be no accountability.
32. Adam violated a requirement of God. People living between Adam and Moses had no such requirements or violations. Yet they died. On this word, see Phil 2:7.
33. Or, "violation". This word refers to the violation of a law or command. With no law from God, there can be no violation of His law. Thus Paul does not mean "all sinned" in v 12 in the sense of "violated God's command". In v 13-14 Paul is proving that death is not the result of each person's individual sins, but in some sense, is a consequence upon all humanity resulting from Adam's sin, "the trespass of the one man", v 15, 17. Consult the commentaries. Having proven this, he can now compare and contrast the universal consequences of Adam's act and Christ's. Elsewhere only in 2:23; 4:15; Gal 3:19; 1 Tim 2:14; Heb 2:2; 9:15. GK 4126. Related to "transgressor" in 2:25, 27; Jam 2:9; and "transgress" in Mt 15:2, 3.
34. Or, "model". Same word as in 1 Pet 5:3. But Adam is not a pattern not in all respects. Before Paul returns to where he left off in v 12 to explain how these two are similar (just as... so also), he first explains how they are not similar.
35. Or, "false step". Related to "fall". Same word as in v 16, 17, 18, 20. On this word, see Mt 6:14.
36. That is, the gift is not like the trespass. The contrast is between the sin which takes away life, and the gift which abounds in life. Same word as in v 16b. On this word, see "gift" in 1 Cor 1:7. Related to "grace", this word is emphasizing its "freeness". Not related to "gift" next.
37. When referring to Adam, "the many" and "all" means all his progeny, mankind. They died (v 12, 15) and were condemned (16, 18, 19). When referring to Christ, these words mean all His progeny, those "receiving" the gift (v 17), the verdict of righteousness (v 16, 18, 19).
38. That is, if by the sin of Adam, His entire progeny fell under the reign of death.
39. Same word as in v 17, the "gift" of righteousness. Elsewhere only in Jn 4:10; Act 2:38; 8:20; 10:45; 11:17; 2 Cor 9:15; Eph 3:7; 4:7; Heb 6:4; all of God's gifts. GK 1561. Related to the verb "to give", this word emphasizes its "givenness".
40. That is, the gift given is not like the result of Adam's act. On this word, which is related to "gift" in v 15, see "gift-given" in Jam 1:17. This word emphasizes the gift as the result of an act of giving.

- 1E. For the judgment¹ is from one *trespass*², resulting-in³ a verdict-of-condemnation⁴— but the grace-gift is from many trespasses,⁵ resulting in a verdict-of-righteous⁶
- 2E. For if by the trespass of the one man, death reigned^A through the one— 17
- 1E. By much more, the ones receiving the abundance^B of the grace^C and of the gift of righteousness⁷ will reign in life^D through the One, Jesus Christ⁸
- 3C. So then,⁹ as it was through one trespass¹⁰ resulting-in a verdict-of-condemnation for all people^E, so also it was through one righteous-act¹¹ resulting-in a declaring-righteous¹² issuing in life¹³ for all people^E 18
- 1D. For just as through the disobedience¹⁴ of the one man, the many were made¹⁵ sinners 19
- 2D. So also through the obedience^F of the One, the many will be made righteous ones
- 4C. And the Law¹⁶ came-in-beside¹⁷ that the trespass might increase^G. But where sin increased, grace super-abounded¹⁸, *in order that 20
- 1D. Just as sin reigned^A in death
- 2D. So also grace might reign through righteousness^H resulting-in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord
- 4B. Therefore, what shall we say? Should¹⁹ we be continuing^I in sin in order that grace might increase?²⁰ 6:1
May it never be! How shall we who died to sin still live in it?
- 1C. Or do you not know that all we²¹ who were baptized^K into²² Christ Jesus²³ were baptized into His death?
- 2C. Therefore we were buried-with Him through baptism^L into death, in order that just as Christ arose²⁴ from the dead through the glory of the Father, so also we might walk^M in newness^N of life 4
- 1D. For if we have become united-with²⁵ Him in the likeness^O of His death, certainly we shall be also in the likeness of His resurrection^P 5
- 1E. Knowing²⁶ this— that our old^Q person²⁷ was crucified-with²⁸ Him in order that the body^R of sin²⁹ might be done-away-with³⁰, so that we no longer are-slaves³¹ to sin 6
- 1E. For the one having died has been declared-righteous^S from sin³² 7
- 2E. And if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live-with^T Him, *knowing that Christ— having arisen³³ from the dead— dies no more. Death lords-over^U Him no longer 8-9
- 1E. For the death that He died,³⁴ He died to sin once-for-all³⁵. But the life that He is living, He is living to God 10
- 2E. So also you, be counting^V yourselves to be³⁶ dead³⁷ to sin— but living to God in Christ Jesus³⁸ 11

1. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between the judgment and the grace-gift. On this word, see Jn 9:39.
2. This is supplied from what follows. Or, "man having sinned" from what precedes. The contrast is between judgment as the deserved response of God to one sin, and the gift as the undeserved response of God to many sins.
3. Used twice in this verse, this word means "to, into, for, toward, resulting in, leading to, for the purpose of". It is also in 5:18, 21; and as "leading to" in 6:16, 19, 22; 8:15. Used 1767 times. GK 1650.
4. Same word as in v 18, and as "condemnation" in 8:1.
5. For judgment, the starting point was one sin. For the gift, the starting point was many sins.
6. Or, "justification". Used in this sense only here. Same word as "righteous-act" in v 18.
7. That is, "consisting of righteousness".
8. The sin of Adam brought a reign of death to all people. The gift brings a reign in life to all who receive it.
9. Paul turns now to the positive sense in which Adam is a pattern of Christ (v 14), which is also returning to what he began to say in verse 12. The first half of this verse restates v 12 using words from v 15-17. Then the "so also" is given.
10. Some render this "the trespass of one", and later, "the righteous act of One".
11. Same word as in Rev 15:4; 19:8. It is rendered "righteous act" to correspond to "one trespass" preceding and "obedience" in v 19. Others render it "verdict of righteous [upon Christ]", as it is used in v 16. On this word, see "regulation" in 1:32. Related to "declare righteous" in 3:24, "declaring righteous" here, "righteous" in v 19, and "righteousness" in v 17, 21.
12. Or, "justification". Elsewhere only as "justification" in 4:25. GK 1470. Related to "declare righteous" in 3:24.
13. Literally, "of life". Or, "resulting in life, characterized by life". Paul could have added such a word earlier, "verdict-of-condemnation issuing in death".
14. Or, "refusal-to-listen". On this word, see 2 Cor 10:6.
15. Or, "constituted, caused to become". Same word as later in the verse. On this word, see "put in charge" in Act 6:3.
16. Paul now puts Law and grace into this broad perspective. The reign of grace resulting in righteousness and eternal life in contrast to the reign of sin through the Law resulting in death is the subject to which he turns in chapters 6-8.
17. This is the same root word as "entered" in 5:12, with the prefix "beside" added. Sin "came into the world", Law "came in beside". Elsewhere only in a negative sense as "sneaked in" in Gal 2:4. GK 4209.
18. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 7:4. GK 5668. Related to the word in Mk 7:37, and in 1 Thes 5:13.
19. Some manuscripts say "Shall..." {N}.
20. A natural question. If salvation is all by grace, and we stand in grace at peace with God (5:1), and where sin increased grace abounded (5:21), then does it matter how we live after we are saved? After all, the worse sinner I am, the more God's grace and mercy will be magnified.
21. A similar construction occurs in Gal 3:27, "all you who were baptized".
22. On "baptize into", see Mk 1:9. On "baptize", see Mk 1:8.
23. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
24. Or, "was raised". On this word, see Mt 28:6.
25. Or, "united-with" the likeness; "united-together", "grown-together" in the likeness. This adjective is used only here. GK 5242. Related to "grow with" in Lk 8:7. The word may imply a uniting together into a living union, as in a graft.
26. This word (see Lk 1:34) is not the same word as "knowing" in v 9 (see 1 Jn 2:29).
27. Paul uses this metaphor also in Eph 4:22; Col 3:9. Some think he means "the former self", the one "in Adam" before we became new creations "in Christ", 2 Cor 5:17. There are other views.
28. Same word as in Gal 2:19. Elsewhere only of the two thieves in Mt 27:44; Mk 15:32; Jn 19:32. GK 5365.
29. Some think Paul means "the physical body characterized by sin", our sinful body; others, "the body belonging to sin", sin's body; others, "the mass of sin", consisting of sin; others, "the sinful self"; others, the "old person".
30. This word basically means "to work down to nothing", "to make barren, useless, inoperative, null", and therefore "powerless, ineffective", with English renderings depending on the context. Same word as in 1 Cor 6:13; Gal 3:17; 2 Thes 2:8; Heb 2:14. Elsewhere only as "bring to nothing" in 1 Cor 1:28; 2:6; "abolish" in 1 Cor 15:24, 26; Gal 5:11; Eph 2:15; 2 Tim 1:10; "nullify" in Rom 3:3, 31; 4:14; "set aside" in 1 Cor 13:8, 10, 11; "use up" (waste, exhaust, make barren) in Lk 13:7; "pass away" in 2 Cor 3:7, 11, 13, 14; "release" in Rom 7:2, 6; "alienate" in Gal 5:4. GK 2934.
31. Or, "are serving as slaves". This word means "to be a slave to, to serve as slave to". Some think Paul means "so that we are no longer slaves to sin", expressing the result of the death (as this grammar is used in 7:3); others, "that we might no longer be serving as slaves to sin", expressing the purpose of the death. Both are true. Same word as in Jn 8:33; Gal 4:8, 9, 25; Tit 3:3. Elsewhere only as "serve" in Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13; Act 20:19; Rom 7:6, 25; 9:12; 12:11; 14:18; 16:18; Gal 5:13; Eph 6:7; Phil 2:22; Col 3:24; 1 Thes 1:9; 1 Tim 6:2; "serve as slaves" in Act 7:7; and "slaving" in Lk 15:29. GK 1526. Related to "slave" in 6:17; "slavery" in 8:15; "enslaved" in 6:18; and "enslave" in 2 Cor 11:20. A key word group.
32. We are no longer slaves of sin because having died with Christ, we have been declared righteous, and therefore are freed from it.
33. Or, "been raised". Same word as in v 4.
34. More literally, "For what He died... what He is living", or "For that which He died... that which He is living".
35. Or, "one time". On this word, see Heb 7:27.
36. Some manuscripts omit "to be" {C}.
37. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
38. Some manuscripts add "our Lord" {A}. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.

- 3C. Therefore do not let sin be reigning¹ in your mortal^A body so that you are obeying^B its desires², nor be presenting³ your body-parts⁴ to sin as instruments⁵ of unrighteousness^C 12

1. This word is used in Romans of death reigning, 5:14, 17; of sin reigning, 5:21; 6:12; and of grace reigning, 5:17, 21. On this word, see Rev 19:6.
2. On this word, see Gal 5:16. Some manuscripts say "so that you obey it"; others, "so that you obey it in its desires" {B}.
3. Or, "providing, offering, putting at the disposal of". Same word as later in the verse (note the change of tense), and in v 16, 19, and 12:1, "present your bodies as a living sacrifice". On this word, see 12:1.
4. Or, "parts, members" of your body. Same word as in 6:19; 7:5, 23. On this word, see Col 3:5.
5. Or, "tools, equipment, weapons". On this word, see "weapons" in 13:12.
6. Or, "as though". This is Paul's only use of this word. Made of two words "as" and "if". Elsewhere only as "as if" in Mt 3:16; Mk 9:26; Lk 24:11; Act 2:3; 10:3; Heb 1:12; "like" in Mt 9:36; Lk 22:44; Act 6:15; and "about" in Mt 14:21; Lk 3:23; 9:14, 28; 22:41; 22:59; 23:44; Act 1:15; 2:41; 19:7. GK 6059.
7. Or, "living". Same word as "live" in v 2, 10, 11. On this word, see "came to life" in Rev 20:4.
8. That is, "as if" presently possessing resurrection life like Jesus (v 4), or "as" being alive from the spiritually dead.
9. That is, the Law that came in beside, 5:20. The escape from the lordship of sin is explained by the release from the Law that occurred when we died to it. Under the Law, sin did in fact lord over them. Note 1 Cor 15:56. Paul explains this in chapter 7.
10. That is, should we commit a sin, as opposed to continuing to live in sin, v 1.
11. Or, "for, resulting in". Same word as in the next phrase, in v 19, 22, and as "resulting in" in 5:16.
12. Same noun as in Rom 1:1; 6:16, 17, 19, 20; 1 Cor 7:21, 22, 23; 12:13; 2 Cor 4:5; Gal 1:10; 3:28; 4:1, 7; Eph 6:5, 6, 8; Phil 1:1; 2:7; Col 3:11, 22; 4:1, 12; 1 Tim 6:1; 2 Tim 2:24; Tit 1:1; 2:9; Phm 16; Jam 1:1; 1 Pet 2:16; 2 Pet 1:1; 2:19; Jude 1; plus 89 times in the Gospels, Acts, Revelation (see Rev 1:1). GK 1528. The feminine form is in Lk 1:38. Related to "fellow slaves" in Rev 19:10; "are slaves" in 6:6.
13. Or, "pattern". On this word, see "pattern" in 1 Pet 5:3.
14. Same word as in v 22. On this word, see 8:2.
15. Or, "made slaves". Elsewhere only in 6:22; Act 7:6; 1 Cor 7:15; 9:19; Gal 4:3; Tit 2:3; 2 Pet 2:19. GK 1530. Related to "are slaves" in 6:6.
16. That is, in referring to our status as slavery to righteousness, in using the slavery analogy. On this word, see "common to humanity" in 1 Cor 10:13.
17. Some think Paul is referring to their understanding. Compare Heb 5:14.
18. Or, "sanctification". Same word as in v 22.
19. Since you were not slaves to two masters, you were slaves to sin and free with regard to righteousness.
20. Punctuated this way, this gives the answer to the previous question. Others punctuate it "at that time, over which things you are now ashamed?", in which case the implied answer is "none".
21. Same word as in v 19 and v 16.
22. Or, "rations". A military word. The pay earned from sin. Same word as in Lk 3:14. Elsewhere only as "rations" in 1 Cor 9:7; 2 Cor 11:8. GK 4072.
23. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
24. Paul now takes up the other part of 6:14-15, that we are not under the Law.
25. Some think Paul means the Law of Moses; others, the general principle of law and legal justice. On this word, see 7:21.
26. Or, "rules, is master of, is lord over". This is the verb related to the word "lord". It is used in Romans of death (6:9), sin (6:14), and Law (7:1), which no longer "lord over" us; and of Christ (14:9), who "is Lord" over us. Same word as in Lk 22:25; 2 Cor 1:24. Elsewhere only as "being lords" in 1 Tim 6:15. GK 3259. Related to "lord over" in 1 Pet 5:3.
27. This word is made of the word "man" with the prefix "under", and means "under a man, subject to a man". Used only here. GK 5635. Not related to the words "marry" or "wedding, marriage" (Mt 22:11).
28. Same word as in v 6.
29. Or, "she will bear the name". Same word as in Act 11:26. The Law names her as such. On this word, see "revealed" in Lk 2:26.
30. Or, "comes-to-be with". GK 1181. Same word as in v 3b, 4.
31. Now Paul applies to us the principle of v 1, illustrated by v 2-3, that death ends the authority of the Law.
32. Or, "were made dead to the Law". It is passive only here, 8:36; 2 Cor 6:9; 1 Pet 3:18. Elsewhere only in Mt 10:21; 26:59; 27:1; Mk 13:12; 14:55; Lk 21:16; Rom 8:13. GK 2506. It is the verb related to the word "death" (see 2 Cor 11:23).
33. That is, God's Law as the basis of a relationship with Him, His terms and conditions of which we must be "doers" to be saved (if this were possible). For the Jews, the Law of Moses is the written expression of this, the "letter", and is foremost in Paul's mind here. For the Gentiles, some of the things of God's Law are written on their hearts, 2:15. Thus, it is the Law we must be "released" from if we are to be saved, the Law that will judge and condemn us before God if we must face it. We did not die to man's civil law or all law in general, but to God's Law as the standard of righteousness for acceptance by Him. Christ did not need to die to release us from our subjective legalism, however we might impose it upon ourselves in God's name, but from God's objective legal requirements. On this word, see 7:21.
34. Our "old person" was crucified with Christ (6:6), and buried with Him (6:4).
35. Same word as used in both illustrations of v 3. It is not the normal word for "marry", but that is the idea in v 3-4. GK 1181.
36. Or, "been raised". On this word, see "arose" in Mt 28:6.
37. Same word as in v 5. Elsewhere only in Mt 13:23; Mk 4:20, 28; Lk 8:15; Col 1:6, 10. GK 2844. Related to "fruitful" in Act 14:17.
38. Some think the metaphor is that Christ (the husband) bears fruit through us (His bride), for the glory of God, similar to Jn 15:8, 16; others think there is a change of metaphor here, from marriage to an agricultural metaphor as in Jn 15, vine and fruit.

- 1E. For when we were in the flesh,¹ the passions² of sins³ which⁴ were through the Law⁵ were at-work⁶ in our body-parts⁷, so as to bear-fruit^A for death
- 2E. But now⁸ we were released⁹ from the Law— having died¹⁰ to that by which¹¹ we were being held¹²— so that we are serving¹³ in newness¹⁴ of the Spirit¹⁵ and not in oldness of the letter¹⁶
- 3D. Therefore, what shall we say? Is the Law sin?¹⁷ May it never be! On-the-contrary¹⁸, I¹⁹ would not have known²⁰ sin except through the Law
- 1E. For indeed I would not have known²¹ coveting²² if the Law were not saying [in Ex 20:17], “You shall not covet”²³
- 1E. But sin, having taken²⁴ an opportunity²⁵ through the commandment²⁶, produced^B every [kind of] coveting²⁷ in me

- 1E. But the commandment^C having come, sin became-alive³², *and I died³³
- 2E. And the commandment for life^D— this was found in me to be for³⁴ death
- 1G. For sin, having taken an opportunity through the commandment, deceived³⁵ me, and through it, killed³⁶ me
- 3E. So-then the Law³⁷ is holy^E, and the commandment is holy and righteous^F and good^G—
- 4D. Therefore did the good thing become death for me?³⁸ May it never be! On the contrary, it was sin, in order that it might become-visible³⁹ as sin while producing⁴⁰ death in me⁴¹ through the good thing, in order that sin^H might become extremely⁴² sinful^I through the commandment

1. That is, before we were Christians, new creations, in the Spirit, crucified with Him.
2. Used in this sense elsewhere only in Gal 5:24. On this word, see "sufferings" in Phil 3:10. Related word in Rom 1:26.
3. Some think Paul means "the sinful passions"; others, "the passions belonging to the sins"; others, "the passions leading to sins", along the lines of Jam 1:14.
4. The grammar indicates this refers to "the passions".
5. That is, they were increased through the Law, 5:20. Paul explains this next in v 7-8.
6. Or, "in operation, working". On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
7. Same word as in 6:13.
8. Paul is contrasting the present to the past (v 5), our condition before and after we died with Christ.
9. Or, "discharged, disengaged". Used in this sense also in v 2. On this word, see "done away with" in 6:6.
10. The KJV says "being dead", a conjectural reading with no manuscript support.
11. More literally, "died in-connection-with the thing by which we were being held". Some think Paul is referring to the Law. Others render it "died in-the-sphere-of what we were being held", referring to the state of slavery in which we were held, but from which we are now freed to "serve in newness...".
12. Or, "held down". On this word, see "holding down" in 1:18. Related to the word in Gal 5:1.
13. That is, "with the result that we are serving as slaves" to our new Master. On this word, see "are slaves" in 6:6.
14. Elsewhere only in 6:4, "newness" of life. GK 2786.
15. Or, "spirit".
16. That is, the written code of Law, the Law of Moses (God's only written code), as in 2:27, 29; 2 Cor 3:6.
17. A natural question since Paul just said that the passions of sins were through the Law, v 5. Is God's Law the problem? Is it His Law that makes me a sinner? No, the Law is not sin, but it defined a standard against which sin rebelled, causing my death.
18. This same word follows "May it never be" elsewhere only in 3:31; 7:13; 11:11. GK 247.
19. Some think Paul is referring to his own personal history; others, that he is speaking vividly; others, that he is speaking as a representative of Jews, or of mankind before the Law, or of Adam before the fall.
20. Or, "come to know". Or, "I did not know...". On this word, see Lk 1:34. That is, Paul would not have known of sin's presence in him as sin (1E.), and its power to kill him in relation to God (2E.). Apart from God's Law, we consider sin to be merely "your opinion" or "my mistakes or bad choices". God's Law defines sin as God Himself views it, and will view it on judgment day. When we understand His standards, we come to know that sin is in us, and is killing us.
21. Or, "known about, had knowledge of". Or, "I was not knowing...".
22. Or, "[evil] desire". This is the normal word for "desire", used in both a positive and negative sense. When we desire what is not ours, this word can be translated "covet" as here. On this word, see "desire" in Gal 5:16. See Gal 5:17 for the verb, which is also used here.
23. The Law saying not to do it made Paul aware he was doing it.
24. Or, "received". Same word as in v 11. This is the common verb "take, receive" used 258 times. GK 3284.
25. Or, "occasion, starting point, base of operations". Elsewhere only in v 11; 2 Cor 5:12; 11:2; Gal 5:13; 1 Tim 5:14. GK 929. Notice the parallelism with verse 11. Sin made the commandment its base of operations.
26. Or, this phrase may go with "produced"; "opportunity, produced... in me through the commandment", like v 13.
27. Once aware that it was forbidden, sin increased it. Sin stimulated coveting in rebellion to the Law. This explains how the passions of sins are "through the Law", v 5.
28. Or, "without a law". Note 4:15. Sin is lawlessness, 1 Jn 3:4. Sin against God requires a law from God to rebel against, a line to cross. In a more abstract sense, violation requires a rule to violate.
29. This is stated as a general principle. Sin is present, but inactive until it has a law to transgress. God's Law is the power of sin, 1 Cor 15:56. Or, "was dead", stating it as the historical experience of Paul.
30. Or, "formerly". Some think Paul is referring to his childhood, when he was unaware of the Law; others, to his self-righteous, complacent ignorance before the Law became real to him, like the ruler in Lk 18:21, "I kept all these things". He thought he was alive, as all do, until the Law did its work in him and he came to understand God's requirements. Others think Paul is referring to mankind before the Law was given; others, to Adam before the command. On this word, see "ever" in Gal 2:6.
31. Or, "living". Same word as in 6:13. Related to "became alive" in the next phrase.
32. Or, "sprang to life, came back to life". GK 348. Elsewhere only as "became alive again" in Lk 15:24.
33. Used 111 times. GK 633.
34. That is, it was "for the purpose of" life, but it "resulted in" death, both being the same word (see "resulting in" in 5:16 on it). This verse is true because it is God's command, God's standard.
35. Or, "completely deceived". Or, "opportunity, deceived me through the commandment". Same word as in 16:18; 1 Cor 3:18; 2 Cor 11:3; 2 Thes 2:3. Elsewhere only as "completely deceived" in 1 Tim 2:14. GK 1987. It is a strengthened form of the word "deceive" in 1 Tim 2:14.
36. Used 74 times. GK 650.
37. Paul's grammar implies there is a correlating statement, which is left unsaid, something like "But I am dead in sin". The bold word and the dash attempt to reflect this nuance in English.
38. A natural question, since Paul just said the Law resulted in death for him, v 10. Is God's Law responsible for my death? Is my condemnation to death the fault of God's requirements? This is the subject of v 13-25.
39. Or, "appear, be revealed". On this word, see "shine" in Phil 2:15.
40. On this word, used also in v 8, 15, 17, 18, 20, see "work out" in Phil 2:12.
41. Paul uses himself as the example to show that sin is the killer, not God's Law.
42. Or, "supremely, utterly, extraordinarily, exceedingly, beyond measure". On this phrase, see "beyond measure" in 1 Cor 12:31. The extremity of the consequence, death, demonstrates the extremity of the cause, sin. Otherwise, sin is merely opinion.

- 1E. For¹ we know that the Law is spiritual.² But I am³ made-of-flesh⁴, having been sold⁵ under sin⁶ 14
- 1E. For I do not understand⁷ what I am producing⁸ 15
- 1G. For I am not practicing^A this which I am wanting⁹. But I am doing^B this which I am hating^C
- 2E. But if I am doing this which I am not wanting, I am agreeing-with¹⁰ the Law¹¹— that it is good^D 16
- 3E. And now I am¹² no longer producing it, but the sin dwelling^E in me¹³ is 17
- 2E. For I know that good¹⁴ does not dwell^E in me, that is, in my flesh¹⁵ 18
- 1E. For the wanting is present¹⁶ in me, but the producing the good¹⁷ is not¹⁸
- 1G. For I am not doing the good^F which I am wanting. But I am practicing^A this evil which I am not wanting 19
- 2E. But if I am doing this which I¹⁹ am not wanting, I am no longer producing it, but the sin dwelling in me²⁰ is 20
- 3E. I find then the law²¹ in me, the one wanting to do the good^D, that the evil²² is present in me 21

1. Paul explains how the Law as the objective yardstick demonstrates how extremely sinful sin is.
2. That is, the Law is spiritual in origin, coming from God (as this word is used in 1 Cor 10:3), and therefore "good", v 16. But Paul is enslaved to sin, as he explains next.
3. Note that Paul changes to the present tense in v 14-25, the significance of which is the subject of no small debate. The purpose of these verses is to explain how sin is responsible for his death, not the Law (v 13), thus defending God's Law from the charge of causing the death of those to whom it was given. Some think Paul is reflecting on his experience under the Law of Moses as a devout Pharisee who wanted to keep God's Law and earn acceptance by Him, but could not keep it. His sin produced spiritual death, a state which continued until he was saved, and died to the demands of the Law, v 6. Others think he is reflecting on his experience as a Christian rightly seeking to live in holy obedience to the laws of conscience, as led by the Spirit. He is reflecting upon law as a principle, broadly conceived, in its present place in his life, to prove what was also true under the Law of Moses, exonerating God's Law. He is unable to obey, his sin grieving the Spirit, and he lives in this state of struggle until his physical death, when he is separated from his sinful flesh. Others think it is the experience of a Christian wrongly trying to live up to rules and obligations in a desire to please God. Such a person is unable to do so, his violations producing human guilt. He continues in this state until he gives it up and walks in the Spirit, as in chapter 8. Others think that the experience described here accurately illustrates all three of these views, using differing definitions of law, sin, and death, because Paul is talking about the experience of anyone who tries to live under law as a rule of life. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
4. On this word, see 1 Cor 3:1. Related to "fleshly" in 1 Cor 3:3, a word which some manuscripts have here {N}. Some think Paul means "carnal, fleshly", partially controlled by the flesh. Others think he means "human, of Adam's race", and therefore not good, but in bondage to sin, "in the flesh" (7:5).
5. Elsewhere only in Mt 13:46; 18:25; 26:9; Mk 14:5; Jn 12:5; Act 2:45; 4:34; 5:4. GK 4405.
6. Same phrase as "under sin" in 3:9. Some think Paul would not say this of a Christian as described in 6:2, 6-7, 12-14, 17-18, 21-22; 7:4-6. It was our time "in the flesh" (v 5) that was dominated by sin, prior to our "release" from the Law (v 6). Others think it is an appropriate description of the sin that remains in our flesh, which by the leading of the Spirit we are striving to put to death (8:13).
7. Or, "know, acknowledge, recognize". On this word, see Lk 1:34. Paul does not acknowledge such an action as representing his true desires, or understand how to control it. He does not approve of it.
8. To use Paul's example in v 8, "I do not understand this coveting I am producing". It is not what he wants. On this word, see v 2.
9. Or, "wishing, desiring, willing". Same word as in v 16, 18, 19, 20, 21. On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
10. Or, "concurring with". Used only here, this word is made of "with" and "to say". Paul is speaking along with the Law, saying what it says, saying its demand is good; but he is not doing it. GK 5238.
11. This proves v 14a. The Law is not the problem. Paul agrees with the Law that the action is wrong, and does not want to do it.
12. Sin enslaves Paul in spite of his own desire to obey God, and in spite of his agreement with what God is requiring of him. When God says not to do it, he agrees and does not want to do it, but sin produces it in him anyway. Thus it is sin, not God's Law, that causes his death. The sin in him is against him and against God! How extremely sinful it truly is!
13. This proves v 14b. Paul is "under sin", under its domination. The sin is using the command to produce in him actions which he hates and does not desire (v 8), yielding death (v 11). Sin is the problem, not the Law.
14. The emphasis of v 14-17 was "The Law is good, I cannot stop doing what I hate". The emphasis of v 18-20 is "I am not good, I cannot do the good I want to do". The inner good necessary to be accepted by God is not in him. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b.
15. That is, the flesh "sold under sin", v 14.
16. Or, "ready, at hand". Elsewhere only in v 21. GK 4154.
17. Paul uses two different words for "good" here. "Good" (inner moral goodness) does not dwell in Paul, for though he wants it, he cannot produce the "good" (outer, visible moral goodness, 1 Tim 5:10a) corresponding to it. Both words are used of the Law, v 12, 13, 16. It is good in both senses.
18. Some manuscripts say, "but the producing the good I do not find" {B}.
19. Some manuscripts do not have the word making this emphatic (bolded) {C}.
20. This proves v 18. Good does not dwell in Paul, but sin. Good is not in him producing good, but sin is in him producing sin, and overcoming his good desires to obey God's good Law. Thus the sin in him causes his death.
21. Some think Paul means "the principle", referring to the law of sin, v 23. Others render it, "I find then as to the Law [of God], in me...". This word is used 194 times, 74 of which are in Romans. Used of God's Law, the Law of Moses, a system of law, an individual law, a principle, the first five books of the OT, the entire OT. GK 3795. See also the note on 7:4.
22. Notice the progression. The Law is good, v 14-17; Paul is not good, v 18-20; the evil is in him, v 21-25.

1. Or, "taking pleasure with, delighting in". Used only here. Made of "with" and the word "pleasure" in Lk 8:14. Some think this could not be said of an unbeliever, whose fleshly mind is "hostile" to God, 8:7. Others think it is what would be said by those in 2:17-20 and 10:2, who think they are "alive"; 7:9. GK 5310.
2. Or, "with-respect-to my inner person". GK 2848.
3. Same phrase as in 2 Cor 4:16; Eph 3:16. Compare the phrase in 1 Pet 3:4. Elsewhere only as "inside" in Mt 26:58; Mk 14:54; 15:16; Jn 20:26; Act 5:23; 1 Cor 5:12. GK 2276.
4. This is seen in Paul's "wanting", v 15, 18, 21. Paul calls this his "mind" in v 23, 25. It is precisely here that the great deception of sin occurs. We think that because we know what is right, and intend to do it, that it is enough. It is when the commandment of God "comes" to us in its full meaning that we die (v 9), and see our captivity to sin and death, and cry out to God as in v 24.
5. Same word as in v 5.
6. Or, "fighting against". Used only here. GK 529. Related to "fight" in 1 Tim 1:18.
7. That is, Paul's "wanting" to obey, v 15, 18, 21; the inner person, v 22. This word means "mind, intellect, understanding, way of thinking". Same word as in Lk 24:45; Rom 1:28; 7:25; 11:34; 12:2; 14:5; 1 Cor 1:10; 2:16; 14:14, 15, 19; Eph 4:17, 23; Col 2:18; 1 Tim 6:5; 2 Tim 3:8; Tit 1:15; Rev 17:9. Elsewhere only as "understanding" in Phil 4:7; 2 Thes 2:2; Rev 13:18. GK 3808.
8. Or, "making me prisoner". On "taking captive", see 2 Cor 10:5.
9. Or, "in the sphere of, in the domain of". Same word as "under" Law in 2:12.
10. Or, "being". It is the common verb "to be". GK 1639.
11. Or, "miserable". Elsewhere only in Rev 3:17. GK 5417. Related to the verb in Jam 4:9, "be miserable". Some think such a statement would not be made by the pious Pharisee who thinks he is "alive" (v 9), but by the believer truly struggling with sin. Others think this is what that Pharisee said in v 9 when the commandment came to him and "he died", and is not how Paul would speak of himself as a Christian.
12. Or, "rescue". On this word, see Col 1:13. Some think Paul is crying out for salvation; others, for resurrection.
13. Or, "the body of this death". That is, "this body" characterized by death. Or, the body characterized by "this death". Note 6:6.
14. Compare 1 Cor 15:57. Some manuscripts say instead "I thank God through Jesus..."; others, "The grace of God through Jesus...", where "grace" is the same word as "thanks" {B}.
15. Some think Paul states this as the condition in which the believer now remains until his physical death. Such a person struggles with sin as he puts to death the practices of the body by the Spirit, 8:13. Others think Paul states this as the dead end for all who would seek to be accepted by God through works of the Law, through obedience. Such a person knows what to do and so is without excuse (2:1), but he cannot do it (3:19), because sin enslaves him. He needs to be saved by grace (3:24), and then to live under grace in the newness of the Spirit (6:15, 7:6), not under the Law.
16. That is, his "wanting", v 15, 18, 21; the inner person, v 22. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
17. This "therefore" continues on in Paul's main argument, building further upon it. He turns now from correcting false inferences drawn from salvation by grace (chapters 6-7), to again teaching true ones.
18. Some think Paul means "now in becoming a Christian", in our salvation; others, "now in our life as Christians", as we live it out in the Spirit as ones who are saved. Thus some think this follows logically from 7:4-6, in contrast to the pre-Christian state described in 7:14-25, and in answer to the question of 7:24. Others think it logically continues from chapter 7, now describing the Christian life from the Spirit's point of view.
19. Those "in Christ" are completely beyond the scope of condemnation, because they have already died in Christ and are now living in Christ (Gal 2:20). They will be disciplined here as God's children (Heb 12:6); they will face reward and loss there (Rom 14:11; 1 Cor 3:15); but there is no condemnation. They battle with sin from victor's ground. Elsewhere only as "verdict of condemnation" in 5:16, 18. GK 2890. Related to "condemned" in v 3. The opposite of "justification".
20. These have died in Christ to the Law (7:4), from which condemnation comes. All others continue to be subject to law, and will be judged and condemned by law, 2:12. Some manuscripts add "not walking according to the flesh"; others, "not walking according to the flesh but the Spirit" {A}, from v 4.
21. This explains why there is now no condemnation for those in Christ. We have been set free.
22. That is, the operative power, the controlling principle, as in 7:21, 23, 25, and later in this verse. GK 3795.
23. That is, the life-giving Spirit, the Spirit who is life (v 10), the One by and in whom we now live and will live.
24. Or, "For the law of the Spirit of life set you free in Christ Jesus...".
25. This word is singular. Paul makes it personal. Some manuscripts say "me" {B}.
26. This word "to set free" is the same word as in 6:18, 22. Elsewhere only in Jn 8:32, 36; Rom 8:21; Gal 5:1. GK 1802. Related to "freedom" in Gal 5:13; and "free" in Mt 17:26.
27. This explains how such ones were set free.
28. That is, to conquer the death-producing power of sin, to give life. Note Gal 3:21. On this word, see Heb 6:4.
29. More literally, "of the Law, from the Law".
30. The flesh used the Law to produce death, chapter 7. We could not keep the Law, and the Law could not empower us to do so. It only condemned us, 7:10.
31. More literally, "of the flesh of sin", the flesh characterized by sin (GK 281). It was in the "likeness" of sinful flesh because the Son's flesh was not sinful. Note that Paul does not say "in the likeness of flesh" or "in sinful flesh". On "flesh", see Col 2:23.
32. Or, "concerning sin". Some think Paul means "[as an offering] for sin", as in Heb 10:6, 8; 13:11 and the OT; others, "for" sin in the broadest sense, to deal with sin in all its aspects. GK 4309.
33. Or, "in His flesh", "the" flesh just mentioned. Some think Paul means "in His body on the cross"; others, "in the flesh which He shares with us", the very flesh through which sin dominated us.
34. Or, "regulation", as in 1:32 (where it is singular, as it is here). This word views the entire Law as a single requirement. Some take this in a legal sense, the requirement for perfect holiness. This describes our salvation, and is fulfilled in all who die with Him and now live in the Spirit. Others take it in a practical sense, the requirement for living a holy life in keeping with God's will, of loving God and neighbor. This describes our life after becoming Christians, and is fulfilled in us as we live it out in the Spirit.
35. Thus in v 1-4, some think Paul means that there is no condemnation for us because when we became Christians, we passed from the controlling power of sin leading to death to that of the Spirit of life, because God condemned sin in His Son in order that the perfect holiness required by the Law might be fulfilled in us, the ones having received Christ's righteousness by faith (3:22) and now living in the Spirit. Others think he means that there is no condemnation for us because now that we are Christians, we live under the controlling power of the Spirit of life, not of sin leading to death, because God condemned sin in His Son in order that the moral holiness required by God's Law might be fulfilled in our daily lives as we live in the Spirit. Others think these two are not separable, and that both are in view, as in v 10.

1. Verses 4b-9 identify the "us" in whom this is true (by their lifestyle, thinking pattern, and spiritual capability), and explain why it is so. Paul defines the "us" as not being in one class, but being in the other. The "us" are all those "in Christ Jesus" (v 1), "in the Spirit" (v 9). God fulfills this requirement "in us" walking with His Spirit, as opposed to those who are not in Christ. Paul is not saying "in those of us" Christians (a subgroup of "us") who walk in the Spirit, as opposed to those Christians who do not walk in the Spirit. What God did in v 3-4a. He did for all who are in Christ. The exhortation comes in v 12.
2. Or, "in conformity with, in harmony with, based on". This word occurs four times in v 4-5. GK 2848.
3. This explains why this freedom is not true of the ones walking in accordance with the flesh. Their thinking is limited to the realm of the flesh. They set their minds on this realm. They are natural (1 Cor 2:14), not spiritual.
4. Or, "existing, living". Another way of saying "walking", v 4. Same word as in v 8, and as "you are" in v 9. GK 1639.
5. Or "setting their minds on, being intent on". This is the focus of the hearts and minds of such ones. Elsewhere only in Mt 16:23; Mk 8:33; Act 28:22; Rom 11:20; 12:3, 16; 14:6; 15:5; 1 Cor 13:11; 2 Cor 13:11; Gal 5:10; Phil 1:7; 2:2, 5; 3:15, 19; 4:2, 10; Col 3:2. GK 5858. The word also means "to be minded or disposed". Related to "way of thinking" in v 6; and "understanding" in Eph 1:8.
6. This explains why this freedom cannot be true of ones thinking the things of the flesh. The content and outlook of this thinking that occupies their mind constitutes death in relation to God. It is death, and it leads to death.
7. Or, "the mind-set, the mind, the thinking". Used three times in v 6-7. Elsewhere only as "mind" in v 27. GK 5859. Related to "thinking" in v 5, this is the content of that thinking, what is thought.
8. This explains why the way of thinking of the flesh is death.
9. Same word as in Jam 4:4. On this word, see Eph 2:14. Related to "enemy". Note 1 Cor 2:14.
10. Or, "does not subject itself, is not in submission to, is not subordinate to". On this word, see Eph 5:21.
11. As Paul explained in chapter 7. It is dominated by sin.
12. Others place verse 8 as 2G., the second reason that way of thinking is death. Then verse 9 becomes point 2E., "But you are not...".
13. Note that v 5 defines this group by what they are doing, v 8 by what they are not able to do.
14. On this word, see 1 Thes 2:4. Related to the word in Heb 11:6. It is impossible to please God without faith.
15. Or, "if as is the case, if indeed". Same word as in Rom 3:30; 8:17; 2 Thes 1:6. Elsewhere only as "if indeed" in 1 Cor 8:5; 15:15. GK 1642.
16. That is, does not belong to Him. Such a person is not a Christian. All those "in Christ" have the Spirit. Compare Jude 19.
17. Note that Paul is no longer explaining "walking not in the flesh" of v 4. He is giving another aspect of the freedom of v 2. The emphasis of v 3-9 was freedom from "sin", the cause of death. Now he turns to "death" itself.

18. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
19. That is, our physical body is dead and will die. This is the only aspect of death that remains for us.
20. The Spirit is life in us now, true life, the life of God. We are set free from spiritual death. Same word as in v 6. It means "life" in all 135 of its uses. GK 2437. Here, some take "spirit" to be the human spirit as opposed to the body, and so must render this "alive", "but the spirit is alive". In this case also, Paul means that the life of God is now in us. The related verb is "came to life" in Rev 20:4.
21. Some think Paul means "God's righteousness" in us by faith; others, our growing righteousness, the fruit of the Spirit living in us; others think these cannot be separated, and that he means both.
22. Not only is His Spirit life in us now, He will set our bodies free from physical death on that day.
23. Or, "living". Used of the Spirit also in v 9 and 1 Cor 3:16. Elsewhere only in Rom 7:17, 18, 20; 1 Cor 7:12, 13; 1 Tim 6:16. GK 3861. Related to the word later in this verse.
24. Or, "by means of". Some manuscripts say "because of" {B}.
25. Not to that which enslaved us to death, but to God who set us free into life. On this word, see 1:14.
26. That is, with the result that we should be living according to the flesh. This is the realm of condemnation and death.
27. Note that Paul does not continue on with this thought as an exhortation, "We are debtors to live according to the Spirit". Instead, he continues the teaching begun in v 11 about resurrection life, picking it up with "You will live" at the end of v 13. He takes up exhortation in detail in 12:1.
28. The reason we have this debt is the outcome of each path. The path of the flesh ends in a death after earthly life, but the Spirit's path continues in a life after physical death. We are debtors to God, for we live, and we will live!
29. That is, "assuming it is true that". Same grammar as "if" in v 9b, 10, 11, 13b.
30. Or, "you are destined to die, you will die". Same idiom as in 4:24; Mt 17:22; Jn 11:51; Act 26:22; Rev 1:19.
31. Or, "spirit", the human spirit empowered by the Holy Spirit.
32. The "will live" points to the "life" of v 11, the future redemption, and our inheritance with Christ.
33. This gives the reason for "will live". If you are living by the Spirit, you "will live" with God, "for" this means you "are" one of His children.
34. This is related to being "in the Spirit" and "walking in the Spirit", of which "putting to death the practices of the body" is one part. This is the broad category of which that is one specific part. Every Christian is led by the Spirit to become more like their Father, to bear the family resemblance. In part, this leading is how the Spirit bears witness, v 16. Compare 1 Jn 3:9. On this word, see Lk 4:1.
35. Note that "children" is used in v 17. That is, family members. We are called "sons of God" elsewhere only in Mt 5:9; Lk 20:36; Rom 8:19; 9:26; Gal 3:26. Paul means "sons" versus "slaves", with all the status, security and privilege associated with the one as opposed to the other. On "sons", see Gal 3:7. Compare "children of God" in Jn 1:12.

- 1E. For¹ you did not receive *a spirit*² of slavery³ again⁴ leading-to⁵ fear^A. But you received *a Spirit*⁶ of adoption⁷, by Whom we are crying-out^B “Abba^C! Father!” 15
- 2E. The Spirit Himself bears-witness-with^D our spirit⁸ that we are children^E of God 16
- 2D. And⁹ if we are children, we are heirs¹⁰ also. *We are heirs*¹¹ of God¹²— and fellow-heirs¹³ of Christ,¹⁴ since¹⁵ we are suffering-with¹⁶ Him in order that we may also be glorified-with¹⁷ Him 17
- 1E. For¹⁸ I consider^F that the sufferings^G of the present time are not worthy^H to the glory¹⁹ destined²⁰ to be revealed²¹ to²² us 18
- 2E. For²³ the eager-expectation^I of the creation²⁴ is awaiting²⁵ the revelation^K of the sons of God 19
- 1E. For²⁶ the creation was subjected²⁷ to futility²⁸— not willingly²⁹, but because of the One having subjected it— in hope³⁰ *that³¹ the creation itself also will be set-free³² from the slavery^L of decay³³ into the freedom^M of the glory³⁴ of the children^E of God 20
- 2E. For³⁵ we know that the whole creation is groaning-together³⁶ and suffering-birthpains-together³⁷ until the present 21
- 3E. And³⁸ not only creation, but also ourselves having³⁹ the firstfruit^N of the Spirit⁴⁰, we ourselves also are groaning⁴¹ within ourselves while eagerly-awaiting adoption⁴²— the redemption^O of our body 23
- 1E. For⁴³ we were saved^P in hope⁴⁴ 24
- 1G. But hope being seen is not hope, for who hopes-for^Q what he sees?⁴⁵
- 2G. But since⁴⁶ we hope-for what we do not see, we are eagerly-awaiting it with endurance⁴⁷ 25

1. This gives the reason or proof that they are "sons", family members.
2. That is, a spirit or disposition characteristic of slavery, a slave kind of spirit, tending toward fear. Or, "Spirit", a Holy Spirit of slavery (since there is no such thing). See "Spirit" next.
3. Or, "servility". Elsewhere only in 8:21; Gal 4:24; 5:1; Heb 2:15. GK 1525. Related to "are slaves" in 6:6.
4. That is, such as we had when we were slaves of sin and death. Some think Paul means "receive... again"; others, "leading to fear again". We have been freed from fear, not returned to it, Heb 2:15; 1 Jn 4:18.
5. Same word as "resulting in" in 5:16.
6. Or, "spirit". Others take both occurrences as "spirit"; others take both as "Spirit".
7. On this word, see Gal 4:5. The Spirit leads us as family members of God, not as slaves. We call on God as our daddy (abba) in an intimate relationship, as Jesus did, Mk 14:36; Gal 4:6.
8. That is, our spirit crying out to our Father in v 15. We cry out "My Father"; He bears witness "My child".
9. This is the consequence of sonship. You "will live" for you are "sons", and childship implies heirship.
10. Or, "inheritors", ones designated to inherit. Same word as in Mt 21:38; Mk 12:7; Lk 20:14; Gal 3:29; 4:1, 7; Tit 3:7; Heb 6:17. Elsewhere only as "inheritor" in Rom 4:13, 14; Heb 1:2; 11:7; Jam 2:5. GK 3101. Related to "inherit" in Gal 4:30, and "inheritance" in Eph 1:14.
11. Paul uses grammar that closely links the two halves of this sentence; heirs and fellow-heirs.
12. That is, ones God has designated to inherit from Him.
13. Or, "co-heirs". Elsewhere only in Eph 3:6; Heb 11:9; 1 Pet 3:7. GK 5169.
14. That is, we are God's heirs and Christ's fellow heirs.
15. Same word as in v 9. The suffering always comes before the glory, 8:18; Phil 3:10; Heb 2:9; 1 Pet 1:11; 4:13.
16. Some think Paul is referring to sufferings because we are Christians, as in v 17; others, to all the sufferings we continue to endure—Christian and human—even though we are His children and heirs. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 12:26. GK 5224.
17. Used only here. GK 5280. Related to "glorified" in v 30.
18. Paul uses this word to assert his first point. It may be rendered "Now" or "Indeed". Likewise in v 19. GK 1142. Some think this affirms the greatness of our inheritance. Being heirs of God, the glory will be so great that the sufferings we endure now are not worthy of comparison. Others think Paul is offering comfort in view of the sufferings. They are nothing by comparison.
19. That is, to be compared to the glory. Compare 2 Cor 4:17.
20. This is a participle, the glory "being destined, being about to be". This word and grammar is elsewhere only in Gal 3:23; Rev 1:19; and as "about to" in Rev 3:16; 12:4. Same word as "going to" in Rom 8:13, but different grammar. On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32.
21. This word is used three times in Romans. Wrath is revealed (1:18), but glory will be revealed (8:18), because the righteousness of God is revealed (1:17). Compare Gal 3:23, where they awaited the faith. We await the glory. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:3.
22. Or, "for, in". GK 1650.
23. Or, "Indeed". Some think this again confirms the greatness of the coming glory. It is so great, all creation will share in it. Others think it confirms the certainty of it. All creation is awaiting this impending glory, by the design of God.
24. Paul is personifying the physical creation. That is, "all nature". Angels and humans are not in view here. Consult the commentaries. On this word, see v 39.
25. Or, "eagerly-awaiting". Same word as in 1 Pet 3:20. Elsewhere only as "eagerly-await" in Rom 8:23, 25; 1 Cor 1:7; Gal 5:5; Phil 3:20; Heb 9:28. GK 587.
26. Verses 20-21 give the reason creation eagerly awaits our revelation in glory. God gave it this hope.
27. That is, by God, in Gen 3:7-19. Creation shared the penalty of the Fall.
28. Or, "purposelessness, pointlessness". Elsewhere only in Eph 4:17; 2 Pet 2:18. GK 3470. Related to "futile" in 1 Cor 15:17.
29. Or, "of its own will", still personifying creation. It was because of the Fall. Elsewhere only as "of my own will" in 1 Cor 9:17. GK 1776. Related word in 1 Pet 5:2.
30. Or, "on hope, on the basis of hope". That is, "in the hope granted to it that". The hope is on the part of the creation, and results in its "eager expectation" in v 19. Some link this with v 19, "awaiting... in hope", making "For the creation... subjected it" a parenthesis. Grammatically, the hope (in the sense of "expectation") could be ascribed to God, "on the basis of the expectation that the creation itself", which would make this the only place "hope" is used with God as the subject in the Bible. On this word, see Col 1:5.
31. Or, "because", so that it says "...in hope, because the creation...".
32. On this word, see v 2. Related to "freedom" next.
33. That is, consisting of decay, or belonging to decay, or characterized by decay. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:42.
34. Some think Paul means the freedom characterized by glory, the glorious freedom; others, the freedom belonging to the glory.
35. This verse confirms that creation has this eager expectation (v 19) by reference to a generally accepted fact. The fact is known by observation; the linkage to the Fall and redemption of mankind, by God's Word.
36. Used only here. GK 5367. Related to the word in v 23 and the word in v 26.
37. That is, for the birth of the new age. Used only here. GK 5349. Related words in 1 Thes 5:3 and Gal 4:19.
38. Our own eager expectation, led by the Spirit in us as the firstfruit of the glory, confirms creation's eager expectation (v 19) as a second witness. Both are "awaiting" the glory to come while "groaning" in "hope". Note the repetition of these three words.
39. Some think that Paul means "since we have"; others, "even though we have".
40. Some think Paul means the initial foretaste of the Spirit, of which the fullness then will be the harvest. Others think he means "the firstfruit which is the Spirit", the Spirit now being the first "installment" of the fullness of all the blessings that God will bestow on us then, the firstfruit of the state of glory.
41. Related to the word in v 22. On this word, see Jam 5:9.
42. Same word as in v 15.
43. As with v 20, this gives the reason for the waiting and groaning. God saved us in hope.
44. Or, "by hope". That is, the hope of the redemption of our body, and living forever in glory with God.
45. Some manuscripts say "For why indeed is he hoping-for what someone sees?" [B].
46. Or, "if", as is the case.
47. Endurance is called for because of our suffering, v 17. On this word, see Jam 1:3.

1. Or, "likewise, in like manner". Some think Paul means "with groaning". The groaning of the "firstfruit" in us is added as a second witness to our own, His not being a groaning for the glory to come, but similar to it, a groaning to help us as we await that glory. Others think he means "as hope sustains us while we endure (v 24), similarly the Spirit helps us". Others connect this to v 25, "Since we hope for what we do not see, we await it with endurance, and the Spirit helps us with our weakness as we wait", giving our side and God's side of the matter. Elsewhere only in Mt 20:5; 21:30, 36; 25:17; Mk 12:21; 14:31; Lk 13:5; 20:31; 22:20; 1 Cor 11:25; 1 Tim 2:9; 3:8, 11; 5:25; Tit 2:3, 6. GK 6058.
2. Or, "indeed, even".
3. Or, "takes a share of" the load. Elsewhere only in Lk 10:40. GK 5269. Related to the gift of "helps" in 1 Cor 12:28.
4. Some think Paul means all our weakness, to which we respond with prayer, groaning, waiting, and endurance, the prayer itself being one part of it. Others think he specifically means our weakness in praying. Some manuscripts say "weaknesses" {N}. On this word, see Mt 8:17.
5. More literally, we do not know "the what we should pray according as it is necessary [to pray]". That is, what we should pray as is necessary to pray in view of our situation. We do not know the right thing to ask with regard to the situation we are praying about. Paul is an example, 2 Cor 12:8-9. On "ought to", see Act 25:10.
6. Or, "intercedes on behalf of". Used only here. GK 5659. Related to the word in v 27.
7. Some manuscripts express this word {A}.
8. Or, "in".
9. This word can mean "unspoken, wordless", or, "unspeakable, inexpressible, too deep for words". Used only here. GK 227. Related to the word "dumb, mute" in Mk 7:37; 9:17, 25.
10. Some think these are the Spirit's groanings. He intercedes with His unspoken/unspeakable (in human words) groanings to God, this being Paul's metaphorical way of describing the communication between the Father and the Spirit, like the groanings of creation, v 22. Or, the Spirit intercedes in our hearts with His groaning, prompting us to pray as needed. Others think these are our groanings. The Spirit intercedes by carrying our unspoken/unspeakable (because we do not know what to ask) groanings to God, and some include here our groanings spoken in tongues. Elsewhere only in Act 7:34. GK 5099. Related to the words in v 22 and v 23.
11. That is, as we "groan within ourselves" (v 23), not knowing what to ask (v 26). Note the word in Act 1:24.
12. Some think Paul means "knows" in the sense of "approves of, recognizes with approval, honors, takes interest in", as this word is used in 1 Thes 5:12; others, "knows" in the simple sense.
13. That is, the content of the thinking. On this word, see "way of thinking" in 8:6. The Father, who searches our hearts to know what we are thinking, also knows (and honors) what the Spirit is interceding on our behalf. Or, the Father who searches our hearts knows (and honors) what the Spirit is prompting there.
14. That is, God knows (and honors) the Spirit's way of thinking in our situation, because the Spirit intercedes according to God's will. Or, "that", God knows the purpose and content of the Spirit's mind.
15. On this word, see 8:34, where Christ intercedes for us.
16. That is, the Spirit intercedes in accordance with God's will, asking what we could not, due to our not knowing.
17. Instead of the closing climax of this section, others make this 3F., another source of help to us. Others render this word "But", seeing this as a contrast to the groaning.
18. Or, "cooperating, helping, assisting, joining in working, contributing". Elsewhere only as "work with" in Mk 16:20; 2 Cor 6:1; Jam 2:22; and "help" in 1 Cor 16:16. GK 5300. Related to "fellow worker" in 16:3. Some render it "that He works all things together for good"; others, "that in all things, He joins in working for good for the ones loving God". Some manuscripts add "God" as the subject {B}.
19. That is, the people who are called ones of God. This adjective is elsewhere only in 1:1, 6, 7; Mt 22:14; 1 Cor 1:1, 2, 24; Jude 1; Rev 17:14. GK 3105. Related to "called" in v 30; and "calling" in 2 Pet 1:10.
20. This same word is used of God's purpose in Rom 9:11; Eph 1:11; 3:11; 2 Tim 1:9; and of human purpose in Act 11:23; 27:13; 2 Tim 3:10. Literally, the word refers to something "set before, put before" yourself; that is, a plan, purpose, design, resolve. Elsewhere only as "presentation", the bread of presentation physically "set before" God in the temple, in Mt 12:4; Mk 2:26; Lk 6:4; Heb 9:2. GK 4606. The related verb is "purposed" in Eph 1:9.
21. Or, "knew beforehand, had advance knowledge of". Some think this refers to God's advance knowledge of something in the person. Others think "knew" in this word has the sense of "had regard for, loved, took interest in" (similar to Gen 18:19; Jer 1:5; Amos 3:2; etc.), and therefore "chose beforehand". Same word as in 11:2; 1 Pet 1:20. Elsewhere only as "know beforehand" in Act 26:5; 2 Pet 3:17. GK 4589. Related to "foreknowledge" in 1 Pet 1:2.
22. This word also means "to decide beforehand, to predetermine, to preappoint, to predesignate, to preset". Elsewhere only in Act 4:28; Rom 8:30; 1 Cor 2:7; Eph 1:5, 11. GK 4633. Related to "designated" in 1:4, and "separated" in 1:1. Compare the unrelated words, "prepared beforehand" in Rom 9:23, and "appointed" in Act 13:48.
23. Or, "like-the-appearance". On this adjective, see Phil 3:21, "similar-in-form" to the body of His glory. We shall be "like" Him, says 1 Jn 3:2, using a different word. Some think Paul is referring here to that which will take place on that day; others, to that which begins to occur at salvation and is completed on that day. Compare 1 Cor 15:49; 2 Cor 3:18.
24. Or, "likeness". On this word, see Col 1:15.
25. That is, the preeminent One, first in rank, the supreme One. On this word, see Col 1:15.
26. Or, "summoned". Same word as in Mt 9:13; Rom 9:12, 24; 1 Cor 1:9; 7:17; Gal 1:6, 15; 5:8, 13; Eph 4:1, 4; Col 3:15; 1 Thes 2:12; 4:7; 5:24; 2 Thes 2:14; 1 Tim 6:12; 2 Tim 1:9; Heb 9:15; 11:8; 1 Pet 1:15; 2:9, 21; 3:9; 5:10; 2 Pet 1:3; Rev 19:9. This word also means "call" in the sense of "name" (as in Mt 1:21); or "invite" (as in Mt 22:3; Lk 14:7; Jn 2:2; 1 Cor 10:27). Used 148 times. GK 2813. Related to "called" in v 28.
27. Paul puts this in the past tense, as something already certain, already done. This word, used 61 times, is not used elsewhere of God glorifying us, but note v 17. GK 1519. "Glory" (GK 1518) is used of us in Rom 8:18, 21; Jn 17:22; 1 Cor 2:7; 2 Cor 4:17; Phil 3:21; Col 1:27; 3:4; 1 Thes 2:12; 2 Tim 2:10; Heb 2:10; 1 Pet 1:7; 5:1, 4, 10.
28. Or, "since". That is, if, as is the case. GK 1623.
29. This is the Greek word order. Some think Paul means "also with Him"; others, "also freely-give".
30. Or, "graciously grant". On this word, see 1 Cor 2:12. Related to the word "grace".

3. Others make this 1D., followed by the question "Who is the one condemning?". Then "Christ Jesus... for us" becomes 2D., followed by the question "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?".
4. Or, "Who is the one condemning?" The difference between the future and present is an accent mark. On this word, see 1 Cor 11:32.
5. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
6. Or, "having arisen". On this word, see "arose" in Mt 28:6.

12. Paul may mean human rulers, or angelic rulers, or both. On this word, see "beginning" in Col 1:18.
13. This is a participle, the things "having come, being present". On this word, see Heb 9:9.
14. Or, "things going to be". Same word as in 1 Cor 3:22. On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32.
15. Some manuscripts have "nor powers" after "nor rulers" {A}. On "powers", see Act 8:10.
16. Or, "creature, created thing". Same word as in 1:20, 25; 8:19, 20, 21, 22; Mk 10:6; 13:19; 16:15; 2 Cor 5:17; Gal 6:15; Col 1:15, 23; Heb 4:13; 9:11; 2 Pet 3:4; Rev 3:14. Elsewhere only as "institution" in 1 Pet 2:13. GK 3232. Related to "create" in Eph 2:15.
17. Paul turns now to address the critical question, "If God is doing this, why has Israel not believed?".
18. Paul makes this statement also in 2 Cor 11:31; Gal 1:20; 1 Tim 2:7.
19. On this word, see "bearing co-witness" in 2:15. Paul's conscience is a second witness to what he is affirming.
20. Or, "wish" (pray in a non-religious sense). Some think Paul means "I would pray" but can't, because it is not possible; others, "I could almost pray" but don't, because it is not possible. Or, this could be rendered "I was wishing", which would mean Paul did at one time wish this could be true, similar to Moses in Ex 32:32. At one time, Paul thought he was the perfect person to reach his people, Act 22:19-20. Perhaps this thought burst from his heart when he realized that such would not be the case. With the same grammar, Paul wishes for something impossible in Gal 4:20 also. Elsewhere only in Act 26:29; 27:29; 2 Cor 5:16, 9; Jam 5:16; 3 Jn 2. GK 2377. 24. On this word, see Gal 4:5. Used only here with reference to Israelites.
25. That is, the glory of God, in all its manifestations in their history.
26. On this word, see Heb 8:6. Some manuscripts say "covenant" {B}.
27. Paul may also have in mind services in the home and synagogue. On this word, see "worship" in 12:1.
28. That is, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, as in 11:28; 15:8.
29. Or, "with respect to", as to His human ancestry. Same phrase as in 1:3.
30. Or, "the One Who is". The three descriptions that follow all refer to this participle. The Christ is "the One Who is" these three things. This could be rendered "the One being over all, blessed God forever" or "the One being God over all, blessed forever". The exact Greek is "the One being over all God blessed forever". The key is that grammatically, "the One being", "God", and "blessed" are all referring to "the Christ", just as in 2 Cor 11:31 "the One being blessed forever" (same words as here) refers back to "Father". Some, for theological reasons which they think outweigh the grammar and context, do not think Paul could have called Christ God here. Based on this, this view makes this a doxology to the Father, having a grammar occurring only here in the Greek Bible. It may be rendered as "... flesh. May the One being God over all be blessed forever", or, "... flesh, the One being over all. May God be blessed forever". Consult the commentaries on these and other views.
31. Or, "spoken well of, praised". This is an adjective. It is a description, not an action (like "blessed by God"). When used in a doxology in Greek or Hebrew (as it is in Lk 1:68; 2 Cor 1:3; Eph 1:3; 1 Pet 1:3), the word order is always "Blessed be God", not "God be blessed". Elsewhere only in Mk 14:61; Rom 1:25; 2 Cor 11:31. GK 2329. The related verb is in Lk 6:28.
32. That is, the promises made to Abraham and his descendants, to Israel.
33. Or, "fallen". On this word, see "fall from" in Gal 5:4. The nation's rejection of Christ is not God's failure.
34. Not all the physical descendants of Jacob (Israel) making up the nation of Israel are spiritual Israel. God's word did not fail, for not all of Abraham's Israel is God's Israel, nor are they all God's children because they are Abraham's children. God's "Israel" in this sense is not the ethnic nation of physical descendants, nor the geopolitical nation in Judea, nor the religious nation living under the Law of Moses, but the spiritual nation of those receiving God's promises by faith, the physical-spiritual "seed" of Abraham in whom God continues to fulfill His promises to Abraham. Stated positively, God's word is fulfilled in all those among physical Israel who are His children, whom Paul later calls "the remnant... according to the choosing of grace" in 11:5.
35. That is, children of God, v 8. God's children will also walk in line with Abraham's faith (4:12), circumcised in heart (2:28-29).
36. That is, physical descendants. On this word, see Heb 11:11.
37. Isaac and Ishmael prove that not all Abraham's physical children are his God-promised "seed" in whom the promises would be fulfilled.
38. That is, a line of descendants fulfilling God's promises to Abraham.

- 1D. For He says to Moses [in Ex 33:19], “I will have-mercy-on^F whomever I have-mercy, and I will have-compassion-on whomever I have compassion” 15
- 1E. So then, mercy is not of the²⁰ one wanting^G, nor of the one running, but of the One having-mercy^F— God²¹ 16
- 2D. For the Scripture says to Pharaoh [in Ex 9:16] that “I raised you up²² for this very purpose— so that I might demonstrate^H My power²³ in you, and so that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth” 17
- 1E. So then, He has-mercy-on^F whom He wants^G, and He hardens²⁴ whom He wants^G 18
- 3C. Therefore²⁵ you will say to me, “Why then²⁶ does He still find-fault²⁷? For who has resisted²⁸ His will²⁹?” 19
- 1D. O human^I, on the contrary, who are you, the one answering-back^K to God? The thing formed will not say to the one having formed³⁰ it, “Why did you make me like-this?”, *will it?*³¹ 20

1. Paul generalizes from Isaac and Ishmael to "children" of flesh and promise. Some think he is referring to Ishmael and Abraham's other children and their descendants, versus Isaac and the subsequent children of promise. Others think he is also referring to the case under discussion, unbelieving Israel versus believing Israel, the remnant.
2. This category of children are not children of God. The next category of children are the children of God.
3. That is, belonging to the promise, originating in the promise, proceeding from the promise. The promises to Abraham will be fulfilled in children resulting from the promise, not children independent of the promise.
4. Or, "counted as seed". That is, by God, for His purposes.
5. The generalization of v 8 is proved by the specific case of Isaac. He was born as the result of God's word of promise, and so he was counted as the "seed" promised to Abraham.
6. Jacob and Esau prove that God did not choose Abraham's promised "seed" based on their personal merit. God chose between the twins fathered by His "child of promise", Isaac, before they were born.
7. That is, having conceived. See Heb 13:4 on "bed".
8. This clause is moved forward in the Greek word order for emphasis, and could all be bolded. Paul means it was said to Rebekah before the children were born "that 'the older will serve the younger', in order that the purpose... continue". This is why it was said then.
9. Same word as in 8:28. What purpose is in view here? All agree it includes God's purpose of creating a nation based on His promise, and of defining a line to the One who would fulfill His promise, and of fulfilling His promises to Abraham. In addition, some think Paul is including God's purpose of saving individuals here; others, that personal salvation is not in view here, only national purposes. The answer influences what inferences may be drawn from v 11-13, on which, consult the commentaries. In either case, however, the example of Isaac and Jacob does at least illustrate the process of salvation which "continues" in all believers. We too were chosen before we were born (Eph 1:4), apart from our merit, and called according to His purpose (Rom 8:28), to become spiritual seed of Abraham (Gal 3:29).
10. Or, "election, selection". Or, "in relation to choosing, in choosing, based on choosing, [carried out] in accordance with [His] choosing". On this word, see 11:5.
11. Or, "remain, stay, abide". On this word, see "abide" in Jn 15:4. Some render it "stand" in the sense of "abide" only here. The grammar indicates Paul means "be continuing". God's purpose "continues" with Jacob as in the case of Isaac. God also chose Isaac before he was born, without reference to his works, and promised he would be the "seed", and "called" him.
12. Some think Paul means "the purpose... not of works..."; others, "continue [being] not of works...". In either case, the purpose of God, accomplished through His choosing, carried out not on the basis of works but His call, continues in the case of Jacob, because it was said to Rebekah in advance of the birth or actions of her twins that "the older will serve the younger".
13. Or, "by works, from works". That is, not based on works, but based on the God who calls. Same phrase as in Eph 2:9, and "by works" in v 32; 11:6; Tit 3:5; etc.
14. More literally, "the greater will serve the lesser", but here used in the sense of age. In Gen 25:23, this refers to these two as individuals who would become heads of nations, "two nations, two peoples" in your womb. On "older", see "greater" in Mt 11:11. This word is elsewhere only as "lesser" in Jn 2:10; Heb 7:7; and "fewer" in 1 Tim 5:9. GK 1781.
15. Some think this quotation explains the positive basis of God's choice, which was given negatively in v 12. Others think it restates God's choice of Jacob in different terms. Others think it proves God's choice by means of their subsequent history.
16. Israel (Jacob's nation) and Edom (Esau's nation) are the subject of Mal 1:2-5. On this word, see "devotedly love" in Jn 21:15.
17. Some think this means "hated" in the sense of "loved less"; others, "rejected" for God's purposes. Used 40 times. GK 3631.
18. That is, because being "children of God" is based on God's choosing and calling, not on their works or merit.
19. A "no" answer is expected to this question. Is it unjust for God to choose one over the other? Paul's answer is that it is not unjust, because mercy is God's choice to make. God gives gifts of mercy as He chooses, as He thinks best and right. He owes it to no one. He hardens whom He chooses, as He thinks best for His purposes.
20. That is, is not in response to, dependent on.
21. God is not unrighteous because it is not a matter of justice or debt for the One showing mercy, nor of the desire, effort, or merit of the one seeking mercy. It is a matter of grace, undeserved kindness. Gift-giving is the prerogative of the giver, carried out for reasons important to the giver. God cannot be faulted for blessing Isaac and Jacob.
22. Some think this means "I spared you from the last plagues"; others, "I placed you on the stage of history". GK 1995.
23. Both God's power to save (Israel) and to punish (Egypt) were demonstrated, His mercy and His wrath.
24. God's choice to harden instead of show mercy is also His to make. God is not unrighteous to harden because all punishment for sin is earned and deserved, just as all mercy is undeserved. This hardening was seen in the case of the Gentiles in 1:24, 26, 28. Paul will say later that God hardened those in Israel whom He did not choose, 11:7-8. Elsewhere only in Act 19:9; Heb 3:8, 13, 15; 4:7. GK 5020. But see Exodus 7:13, 22; 8:15, 19, 32; 9:7, 12, 34, 35; 10:1, 20, 27; 11:10; 14:8; Deut 2:30; 1 Sam 6:6; 2 Chron 36:13; 2 Cor 3:14. Related to "hardness" in Rom 2:5. Another word is used in Rom 11:7.
25. That is, since God has mercy on or hardens whomever He wills.
26. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
27. Elsewhere only in Heb 8:8, of God finding fault with Israel. GK 3522. Related to "faultfinders" in Jude 16.
28. Or, "opposed, stood against". On this word, see Eph 6:13. If God has mercy or hardens as He chooses, how can people be held accountable since they are unable to stand against His will in either direction? Paul's answer is that the creature cannot complain to the Creator, apart from whom he would not exist; that the Creator has the right to do as He chooses; and that God intends to demonstrate both His wrath and His mercy in mankind, v 22-24.
29. Or, "intention, purpose". On this word, see 1 Pet 4:3.
30. Or, "molded, made". Elsewhere only in 1 Tim 2:13, of Adam and Eve. GK 4421. Related to the noun earlier.
31. The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected.
32. Or, "power, freedom" to act. On this word, see Rev 6:8. See Prov 16:4.
33. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:20. On the potter, compare Isa 29:16; 45:9; Jer 18:6.

1. Same grammar as in Act 23:9, and similar to Jn 6:62. Or, this may be a statement, "But if God... bore with much patience vessels of wrath... destruction, it is indeed in order that He might make known..."
2. Or, "wishing, willing, intending". Some think Paul means "because of wanting"; others, "although wanting". Same word as in v 18.
3. Same word as in v 17, of Pharaoh. Related to "demonstration" in 3:25.
4. Or, "Carried, Endured, Put up with". The idea is "carried the load consisting of such vessels". Same word as in Heb 12:20; 13:13. On this word, see "carried" in 2 Pet 1:17.
5. Same word as in 2:4, where it is for repentance.
6. Like Pharaoh. Compare Eph 2:3; 5:6; Jn 3:36; Rom 2:5, 8; 5:9. On this word, see Rev 16:19.
7. In what sense are these people prepared? Perhaps in the sense that as clay vessels they are "hardened" in their choices, 11:7-10. Who prepared them? Perhaps God (as in 9:18; 11:7-8; Jn 12:37-40); or perhaps Paul means the people themselves did (this word could be translated "having prepared themselves"); or, that Satan did. This word means to "put in order, prepare, equip, furnish, complete, restore". Same word as in Mt 4:21; 21:16; Mk 1:19; Heb 10:5; 11:3; 13:21. Elsewhere only as "made complete" in 1 Cor 1:10; "complete" in 1 Thes 3:10; "restore" in 2 Cor 13:11; Gal 6:1; 1 Pet 5:10; and "fully trained" in Lk 6:40. GK 2936. Related to "restoration" in 2 Cor 13:9, and "equipping" in Eph 4:12.
8. Or, "even in order that...". Some manuscripts omit "and" {A}. In any case, Paul means "bore... in order that".
9. Same word as in 16:26; Eph 1:9; 3:3, 5, 10; Col 1:27. On this word, see "know" in Phil 1:22.
10. Note that God "endured, bore" the one, but He actively "prepared beforehand" the other, as Paul said in 8:28-30. On this word, see Eph 2:10. Not related to "prepare" in v 22.
11. Or, "us whom He also called...", or, "whom He also called, even us, not only..."
12. Here Paul proves that the Gentiles would be called to salvation. God will turn to people for the most part outside of Judea.
13. In Hos 1:6, 9, "Not my people" and "Not having been loved" are the names given to two of Hosea's children by God. On this word, see "devotedly love" in Jn 21:15.
14. Or, "in that place". Used 105 times. GK 1695.
15. That is, family members, with reference to both sexes. See 8:14 on "sons of God".
16. Here Paul proves that only a remnant of Israel would be saved.
17. That is, the physical descendants of Jacob. On "sons", see Gal 3:7.
18. That is, God's remnant, the spiritual children of Abraham who follow his faith, 4:12. Used only here. GK 5698. Related to the word in 11:5, the remnant according to the choosing of grace; and to "left" in 11:3.
19. Or, "do, execute, perform, carry out". On this word, see "does" in Rev 13:13.
20. Some give this a more specific meaning here, "sentence, work"; others a more general one, "matter". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:8.
21. On this word, see "accomplished" in Mk 13:4. Paul may mean "completing [the judgment]", or "carrying out [His word]", or "closing [the account]" with finality.
22. This word "cut short, shorten, limit, cut off, cut down" is used only here. GK 5335. Some think Paul means "cutting short [the nation]", that is, cutting it down to the remnant. Others think he means "cutting short [the time]", that is, quickly. Paul is quoting the Septuagint, from which some manuscripts add additional words {A}, as seen in the KJV. The KJV, translating "word" as "work", interpretively renders this verse as "For He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth."
23. The seed, or descendants, is the remnant. On this word, see Heb 11:11.
24. Or, "compared". That is, we would have been used as an illustration of desolation, like Gomorrah. On this word, see "become like" in Mt 13:24.
25. This concludes what precedes, and leads to what follows. God did not fail them (v 6), they failed God.
26. Or, "seized, took possession of". On this word, see "overcome" in Jn 1:5.
27. Or, "reach, arrive at". On this word, see "came" in 1 Thes 2:16.
28. That is, they pursued the Law demanding righteousness, or containing God's righteousness, for the purpose of attaining righteousness through obedience to it. But they did not attain to its standard. Some manuscripts add "of righteousness" {N}.
29. Some manuscripts add "of law" {B}.
30. Some manuscripts say "For they..." {K}.
31. This phrase refers to a stone one accidentally strikes against and stumbles over. On this word, see "opportunity for stumbling" in 14:13. Related to the verb earlier.
32. This phrase refers to a rock deliberately placed as part of a trap, a cause of being caught, trapped, offended. Same word and phrase as in 1 Pet 2:8. On this word, see "cause of falling" in 11:9. Same word as "offense" in Gal 5:11.
33. Some manuscripts say "And everyone putting faith..." {A}.
34. On "put faith upon", see 4:5.
35. Or, "good-pleasure, good will". Same word as in 2 Thes 1:11. On this word, see "good pleasure" in Eph 1:5. Paul's grammar implies there is a correlating statement, which is left unsaid— something like "But they are not willing", which is explained in v 3.
36. Some manuscripts say "Israel" {A}.
37. Or, "based on". GK 2848.
38. Or, "not knowing". Same word as in 1 Tim 1:13, where Paul confesses his own ignorance leading to unbelief, and Heb 5:2; 2 Pet 2:12. It also means "to be unaware, to not understand". Used 22 times. GK 51. Related to "ignorance" in Heb 9:7, and in Act 3:17.
39. Or, "God's righteousness". That is, from God, or belonging to God. Same phrase as in 1:17; 3:21.

1. Paul uses this word to assert his first point. GK 1142. This summarizes the heart of Israel's ignorance and their wrong approach to God—the relationship between Christ, Law, righteousness, faith, and works.
2. Or, “completion, fulfillment, termination, goal, conclusion, outcome”. Some think Paul means Christ is the “fulfillment” of the Law, because He fulfilled its demands for us, 8:4; others, that Christ is the “termination” of the Law as a way of righteousness, because in Him a righteousness apart from law has been revealed, 3:21; others, that Christ is the “goal” to which the Law was leading, the Law being our instructor to lead us to Christ, Gal 3:23-24. This word is used 40 times. Same word as “end” in Mt 10:22; Mk 3:26; 13:7; Lk 1:33; Jn 13:1; 1 Cor 1:8; 10:11; 15:24; 2 Cor 3:13; Phil 3:19; Heb 6:11; Rev 21:6; “fulfillment” in Lk 22:37; “goal” in 1 Tim 1:5; “outcome” in Mt 26:58; Rom 6:21; 1 Pet 1:9; 4:17. GK 5465. Related to “finish” in Rev 10:7.
3. Some think Paul means the Law of Moses; others, the principle of law in relation to God. See 7:4 on this.
4. Or, “for the purpose of, leading to, resulting in, with a view to” righteousness for everyone. Some think Paul means “for purposes of righteousness, for everyone”; others, “so that there may be righteousness for everyone”. On this word, see “resulting in” in 5:16.
5. Using this word to assert his next point, Paul details the content of Israel's ignorance. They were ignorant about the saving value of their law-righteousness, which they sought to establish. Moses implies it cannot save them because the Law requires perfect obedience in order to attain life. By contrast, God's saving righteousness, to which they did not subject themselves, comes to those who believe and confess Jesus. There are other views on the flow of thought in v 3-5. Consult the commentaries.
6. Some manuscripts say “For Moses writes that the person having done the righteousness from the Law will live by it” {N}, where “it” refers to “righteousness”.
7. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
8. Under Law, the doing is the prerequisite of the living. Only does will be justified, 2:13.
9. Or, “from, by”. Same word as in v 5, “of” the Law. GK 1666.
10. Paul uses phrases from Deut 30:11-14 to help describe God's saving process, explaining his current application of each. Notice the parallelism with v 9. In v 6-7 Paul gives two questions based on unbelief, representing what the righteousness by faith does not say. In v 9 he gives two statements corresponding to these two questions, representing what the righteousness by faith does say.
11. The righteousness by faith does not say “who is going to bring down the Messiah from heaven”, because He has already come. Rather, it confesses Jesus as Lord (v 9), as the Messiah come down from heaven.
12. The righteousness by faith does not say “Who is going to bring Jesus back from the dead”, because He has already been raised. Rather it believes that God has raised Him from the dead (v 9).
13. That is, what does the righteousness by faith say?
14. That is, the message “about faith”, or “producing faith”, or “calling for faith”. The message is in v 9.
15. Rendered “that”, the words that follow in v 9-10 detail the content of “the word of faith which we are proclaiming”. Or, “because”, explaining why the righteousness of faith says it is near, or why it is near you in your mouth and heart.
16. Same word as in v 10 and Mt 10:32, “If you confess me before men, I will confess you...”. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12. But “confessing Him” is not just saying words, as seen in Tit 1:16, where the same word is used.
17. Or, “Lord Jesus”. Some manuscripts say “confess the word with your mouth, that Jesus is Lord” {N}.
18. That is, “the word of faith which we proclaim” (v 8). Note that the two verbs in this verse are passive.
19. On this word, see 5:16.
20. Asserting his next point, Paul proves that the Jews were ignorant of the true basis of salvation. The Scripture says it is faith. Others think v 11-13 are given in proof of v 10, and start a new point with v 14. There are other views of the connection and flow of v 11-18. Consult the commentaries.
21. On this phrase, “putting-faith upon”, see 4:5. Same word as in v 16 (but different grammar), and as “believe” in v 4, 9, 10, 14.
22. Paul uses this word to assert his point that “everyone” means “everyone”, Jews and Gentiles. GK 1142.
23. Now Paul works out the logical implications of the Scriptures just quoted, tracing back step by step from everyone calling upon the Lord in faith to the sending forth of the messengers. The preceding Scriptures imply that the response of faith is made to a message proclaimed to everyone by ones sent forth from God. Compare Act 26:23.
24. That is, “everyone” (v 13), “Jew and Greek” (v 12). Israel's ignorance is about God's way for everyone, including themselves. Paul carries out his argument in the universal terms of the prophets, which he is applying to the case of Israel in particular.
25. The people hear Jesus in the message brought, the “report” (v 16, 17). Some render this “of Whom”, meaning either “from Whom” or “about Whom”.
26. Paul quotes Isaiah to prove that the last two steps have been done, initiating the process. God has done His part. The messengers (the apostles being the foundation) have indeed been sent forth by God to proclaim the message so that all may hear, believe, call upon Him and be saved.
27. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b. Some manuscripts say “... announcing-good-news-of peace, the ones announcing-good-news-of good things” {N}, the repeated word “announce-good-news” being rendered as “preach the gospel” and “bring glad tidings” in the KJV.
28. That is, all who heard the proclamation of the good news. Paul continues the universal language, which he is applying to Israel in particular.
29. Related to “hear” in v 14; and to the “obedience” of faith in 16:26, which is in view here. On this word, see Act 6:7.
30. Isaiah also predicted the rejection of God's message by Israel—further proof of their ignorance (v 3). This too is a universal principle, a reality that takes place everywhere the good news is proclaimed, a predicted response to God's message.
31. Or, “believed”. Same word as in v 11. It is rendered this way to show its connection to “faith” in v 17, the same root word.
32. In Isaiah 53, the rejected “report” is about the suffering Messiah. Jn 12:38 also refers to this verse to explain the unbelief of Israel.

- 3E. So¹ the faith² comes from a report-hearing³, and the report-hearing through a word⁴ about Christ⁵
- 2C. But⁶ I say— it is not that they did not hear⁷, *is it?*⁸
- 1D. On the contrary— “Their voice went-out⁹ into all the earth, and their words to the ends^A of the world^B” [Ps 19:4]
- 3C. But I say— it is not that Israel did not know¹⁰, *is it?*¹¹
- 1D. First Moses says [in Deut 32:21], “I will provoke you to jealousy¹² over what is not a nation. I will provoke you to anger¹³ over *a nation without-understanding*¹⁴”
- 2D. And Isaiah is very-bold and says [in Isa 65:1], “I was found by the ones not seeking^C Me. I became visible¹⁵ to the ones not asking-for^D Me”
- 3D. But with-regard-to¹⁶ Israel He says [in Isa 65:2], “I held-out¹⁷ My hands the whole day toward a disobeying¹⁸ and contradicting¹⁹ people”
- 5B. Therefore I say, God did not reject²⁰ His people, did He? May it never be!
- 1C. For²¹ I also am an Israelite, from the seed^E of Abraham, the tribe^F of Benjamin
- 2C. God did not reject His people whom He foreknew²²
- 1D. Or do you not know what the Scripture says in-connection-with²³ Elijah [in 1 Kings 19:14], how he appeals²⁴ to God against Israel?²⁵— “‘Lord, they killed Your prophets, they tore-down²⁶ Your altars, and I alone^G was left, and they are seeking^C my life^H”
- 2D. But what does the divine-response²⁷ say to him [in 1 Kings 19:18]?— “I left-remaining²⁸ for Myself seven-thousand²⁹ men³⁰ who did not bow a knee to Baal³¹”
- 3D. In this manner then, there has come-to-be a remnant³² also at the present time, according-to³³ the choosing³⁴ of grace^I
- 1E. And if *it*³⁵ is by grace, it is no longer by works. Otherwise the grace becomes grace no longer³⁶
- 3C. Therefore what? This³⁷ which Israel is seeking-for^K, it did not obtain^L. But the chosen³⁸ obtained it, and the rest^M were hardened³⁹, *just as it has been written—

1. Here Paul summarizes the process he has deduced from the Scriptures he quoted above. This is what Scripture teaches as to how a person comes to be saved. Faith in the hearer comes in response to a report about Christ, and this report comes through a message proclaimed by one sent (or, a word directly from Christ in such a message). By this faith, we call upon Him and are saved. This is God's way, not works of the Law. About this Israel was ignorant.
 2. That is, the faith to call upon His name and be saved.
 3. Or, "a hearing, a report". This word means both "hearing" (the act of hearing) and "report" (the message heard). It is the same word as "report" in v 16, and is related to "hear" in v 18, and is rendered this way to show the connection to both. In addition, "hearing" means both "listening to, hearing" the words (as Israel did in v 18), and "obeying" what is heard (as they did not do in v 16). Here, Paul is referring to an obedient-hearing of the report of the good news. This word focuses on the receptor's response. On this word, see "hearing" in Heb 4:2.
 4. Or, "message". That is, "the word of faith we proclaim" (v 8); the "words" of v 18 (same word in all three places). The "word" is the report sent by God (v 16); the good news (v 15); the proclamation brought by the ones sent (v 15). This word focuses on the proclaimer's message. It means "that which is said, a speech, saying, word, statement, discourse, message", and more generally, "matter, thing". It is used 68 times, by Paul only in Rom 10:8, 17, 18; 2 Cor 12:4; 13:1; Eph 5:26; 6:17. GK 4839.
 5. Or, "from Christ", sent through His messengers. Some manuscripts say "God" {A}.
 6. Moving on from describing the content of Israel's ignorance, Paul now addresses their culpability for it. It is not that they did not hear or know. Their rejection of the message and the Prophets was willful.
 7. That is, listen to it, have an opportunity to hear it. Israel did hear (listen to) the report proclaimed, but they failed to hear (obey) it.
 8. This idiom (also found in v 19; 1 Cor 9:4-5; 11:22), is a double negative, literally, "They did not not hear, did they?", the grammar expecting a "no" answer, "No, they heard". In other words, Israel did not fail to hear, did they? Is their problem that they did not hear Jesus and the gospel proclaimed? Does this explain their ignorance and failure to subject themselves to God, v 3? No, they did hear. Israel cannot claim they did not hear the report, for the messengers took it to the world.
 9. It went out, but it has not arrived everywhere yet.
 10. Or, "understand". That is, know its meaning. Israel's ignorance and failure (v 3), is not because they did not know the meaning of the message about Christ being proclaimed. It was a willful rejection of the message and the OT prophecies regarding its meaning for the world and for them. They should have known better, based on the OT given to them by God, and are solely responsible for their actions. They are without excuse. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
 11. Same idiom as in v 18, literally, "Israel did not not know, did they?", expecting a "no" answer. Israel did not fail to know. God told them from the beginning, when He first spoke to Moses, that He would go to the Gentiles and Israel would not believe.
 12. The word "provoke to jealousy" is the same word as in 11:11, 14, where this is explained.
 13. On this word, "provoke to anger", see Eph 6:4.
 14. Or, "foolish, senseless". Same word as in Mt 15:16; Mk 7:18. Elsewhere only as "senseless" in Rom 1:21, 31. GK 852. The nation that knows God, and has His Word, and is trained in spiritual matters, will be angered by ones with no such expertise.
 15. That is, known. Elsewhere only in Act 10:40, of Christ becoming visible after His resurrection. GK 1871.
 16. As this word is used in Lk 19:9; Heb 1:8. Or, "against", as it is used in Lk 20:19. GK 4639.
 17. This verb "to hold out, stretch out" in an imploring, begging, pleading gesture, is used only here. GK 1736.
 18. Not related to "obey" in v 16, this word means "refusing to believe". On this word, see 11:30.
 19. Or, "speaking against, opposing". Same word as in Act 13:45; Tit 1:9; 2:9. Elsewhere only as "speak against" in Lk 2:34 (where Jesus was appointed as a sign to be spoken against); 21:15; Jn 19:12; Act 4:14; 28:19, 22; and "deny" in Lk 20:27. GK 515.
 20. Or, "push away, push aside". This word is used by Paul of Israel's rejection of the gospel in Act 13:46. Same word as in Rom 11:2; Act 7:27, 39, of Israel rejecting Moses. Elsewhere only as "push aside" in 1 Tim 1:19. GK 723.
 21. Some take this as the motive for the denial; others, as part of the answer, "I myself am proof".
 22. Same word as in 8:29. Some think Paul is referring to the remnant (v 5); others, to "His people Israel" as a whole, of which the "remnant" now believes, and the "rest" were hardened, but hopefully will believe (v 11-31).
 23. Or, "in the case of, in [the place about]". GK 1877.
 24. Or, "intercedes, petitions". On this word, see "intercede" in 8:34.
 25. Some manuscripts say "Israel?— saying, 'Lord...' {N}.
 26. On this word, see Act 15:16. Some manuscripts say "and they tore-down" {K}.
 27. Or, "the communication from God". Used only here. GK 5977. Related to "revealed" in Lk 2:26.
 28. Or, "left behind". Same word as in Heb 4:1. On this word, see "left behind" in Act 6:2.
 29. Some think this is symbolic of "the full, complete number", as a multiple of seven.
 30. This word means "males". The number of women and children is unstated. On this word, see 1 Tim 2:12.
 31. The Jews substituted the word "shame" for "Baal", and this is reflected in Paul's grammar here. Used only here. GK 955.
 32. Used only here. GK 3307. Related to the word in 9:27; "left" in 11:3; and "left remaining" in 11:4. This proves Israel's rejection was not a complete rejection.
 33. Or, "in accordance with, based on". GK 2848.
 34. Or, "election, selection". Same word as in v 28; 9:11. Elsewhere only as "chosen" in 11:7; Act 9:15; and "election" in 1 Thes 1:4; 2 Pet 1:10. GK 1724. See 8:33 for related words.
 35. That is, the choosing.
 36. Some manuscripts add "But if it is of works, it is no longer grace, otherwise the work is no longer work" {A}.
 37. That is, righteousness, life. Israel sought it through obedience to the Law, not faith, 9:31-32; 10:3.
 38. Literally, "the choosing, election", as in v 5. This abstract term refers to the whole group of those chosen.
 39. Elsewhere only in Mk 6:52; 8:17; Jn 12:40; 2 Cor 3:14. GK 4800. Another word is used in Rom 9:18. Related to "hardness" in 11:25. For another example of God doing this, see 2 Thes 2:11-12.

1. This is an idiom, literally, "until the today day". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 3:14; Mt 28:15; Act 20:26.
2. More literally, "come-to-be for a snare, and for a trap, and for a cause of falling, and for a retribution...", reflecting a Hebrew way of speaking.
3. Or, "trap". Elsewhere only in Lk 21:35; 1 Tim 3:7; 6:9; 2 Tim 2:26. GK 4075. The verb is in Mt 22:15.
4. Or, "net". A wild game trap. Used only here. GK 2560. Related to the word for "wild animal".
5. This word means "the trip-stick" that causes the trap to spring and the prey to fall, then a "trap" set for a prey or an enemy, then a "cause of falling, a cause of being trapped or captured, a cause of offense". See also 14:13. Same word as in Mt 13:41; 16:23; 18:7; Lk 17:1; Rom 14:13; 16:17; 1 Jn 2:10; Rev 2:14. Elsewhere only as "falling" in the phrase "Rock of falling" in Rom 9:33; 1 Pet 2:8; and "offense" in 1 Cor 1:23; Gal 5:11. The Cross is a cause of falling for many. GK 4998. On the related verb, "cause to fall", see 1 Cor 8:13.
6. Or, "pay back". Elsewhere only as "repayment" in Lk 14:12. GK 501. Related to "payback" in Col 3:24; "repay" in 2 Thes 1:6.
7. David may mean "in bondage or slavery", "in fear or grief", or, "under their burden".
8. Or "always, through all". On this phrase, see 2 Thes 3:16.
9. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:10. Not related to "stumble" in Rom 14:21.
10. Or, "so that (GK 2671) they fell". Note that both the stumbling and falling are from God's viewpoint. Unbelieving Israel would not admit to either. Paul may mean "for the purpose of falling" permanently. A permanent fall was not God's purpose, was it? Or, he may mean "with the result that they have fallen". In this case, some think he means "They did not stumble with this permanent result, did they?"; others, "A permanent fall was not the only result, was it?"; others, "A fall with the possibility of getting up was not the only result, was it?". Same word as in v 22; 14:4. Used 90 times. GK 4406. Compare Mt 21:42-44; Heb 4:11.
11. On this word and construction, see 7:7.
12. Or, "false step". Some think this is a reference to the "stumbling" of v 11, and means Israel's stepping in the wrong direction, causing them to stumble. In this case, Paul is denying that they fell permanently. Others think this refers to the related verb "fall" in v 11, and render it "fall". In this case, he is giving the other reason for their fall (whether permanent or not permanent). Same word as in v 12, and 5:15.
13. That is, Israel.
14. This word, "provoke to jealousy, make jealous", is elsewhere only in Rom 10:19; 11:14; 1 Cor 10:22. GK 4143.
15. Or, "failure". If Israel's fall brought the spiritual wealth of the gospel to the world, what will happen when Israel believes? Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 6:7. GK 2488. The related verb is in 2 Pet 2:20. Some take this to mean "diminishing" in order to have an opposite to "fullness" ("fulfilling") in the next phrase.
16. Some think Paul means the completion or fulfilling of Israel's full number, as in v 25, where the same word is used. Others think he means the "fullness" of their obedience to God's will, their "fulfilling" of God's command, in contrast to their trespass; others, their fullness of salvation. On this word, see Col 1:19.
17. Some manuscripts say "For" {N}.
18. Some manuscripts omit "So indeed" {N}.
19. Or, "as long as, as far as, inasmuch as". Paul could mean "inasmuch as" I am an apostle (as this phrase is used in Mt 25:40, 45); or, "as far as" I am able to reach, even to you in Rome; or, "as long as" I am alive in this ministry (as it is used in Mt 9:15; 2 Pet 1:13). This phrase occurs elsewhere only with the addition of the word "time" in the phrase "as much time" in Rom 7:1; 1 Cor 7:39; Gal 4:1.
20. That is, I magnify, honor, publicize it, so Israel will see what God is doing among the Gentiles, be provoked to jealousy, and return to God.
21. Or, "if perhaps". This is a modestly stated hope that he might be part of God's plan in this matter. On this idiom, see Phil 3:11.
22. That is, my fellow Israelites, as in 9:3.
23. Or, "throwing off, being cast away", by God. Elsewhere only as "loss" in Act 27:22. GK 613. Related to "throw off, away" in Mk 10:50; Heb 10:35; and to "rejected" in 1 Tim 4:4. Not related to "reject" in v 1.
24. On this word, see Rom 5:11. Some think Paul is referring to the objective reconciliation of the world to God in the death of Christ; others, to the subjective reconciliation of individuals in the world upon conversion.
25. Or, "reception", by God, v 25-26. Used only here. GK 4691. Related to "accept" in 14:1.
26. Some think Paul means the physical resurrection at the return of Messiah. Others think he means spiritual life (as in 6:13, "alive from the dead"), and refers to an unprecedented future spiritual awakening that is worldwide in scope. Others think he means a present life, "what is their acceptance if not" spiritual life for them as well.
27. Paul now turns from their failure, which serves the Gentiles, to their remaining potential for salvation.
28. Firstfruit refers to the first part of the lump of dough offered to God. Some think Paul is referring to Abraham, or "the fathers" (v 28). If they are holy, then the whole lump is holy, that is, Israel. Others think this metaphor has a different meaning than the next one. It refers to Jewish Christians, the firstfruit of believers in the church. If they are holy, then so is the lump from which they came. They sanctify (set apart) the unbelieving Israel lump (similar to 1 Cor 7:14).
29. The root is Abraham or the "fathers" (v 28); the branches, Israelites.
30. That is, if unbelieving branches were broken off. Physical Israel was pruned from spiritual Israel, 9:6-13. Compare Jn 15:2.
31. In v 17-24, "you" is singular, referring to a single Gentile as a representative. In v 25, "you" is plural again.
32. Paul is illustrating what God in fact did spiritually, using the concept of grafting. Whether or not an olive grower would graft wild stock to domestic stock is irrelevant to the physical process of grafting, and to Paul's point.
33. Paul is referring to Gentile Christians being grafted in to the root of Abrahamic faith (Gal 3:29), among the other branches on that tree, including Jewish Christians.
34. Or, "joint-sharer, co-participant". On this word, see Phil 1:7.
35. Some manuscripts say "of the root and of the fatness..." {B}.
36. Or, "richness, wealth". That is, the life of the tree. Some think Paul means "of the fat root of the olive tree"; others, "of the root— [that is,] of the fatness of the olive tree". Used only here. GK 4404.
37. Used twice here; elsewhere only in Jam 2:13; 3:14. GK 2878. It means "to vaunt over, to boast over, gloat over", to boastfully call attention to your triumph. Used of gladiators vaunting over their defeated foes.
38. Paul may be referring to the unbelieving branches, or to all of them, to even the Jewishness of Jewish Christians (the Gentile Christians perhaps continuing in the church any former anti-Jewish sentiments they may have had). This word is GK 3080. Used 11 times.

1. That is, do not think proud thoughts. This same phrase occurs in 12:16. On this word, see "highly-valued" in Lk 16:15. Some manuscripts combine "think" and "lofty, high" into one word, "do not be high-minded" {N}, the word in 1 Tim 6:17.
2. Some think Paul means "be reverencing God, be in awe of God"; others, "be afraid of unbelief".
3. That is, the natural branches. Same word as in 2:27; 11:24; Gal 2:15. On this word, see Eph 2:3.
4. Or, "[fear] that He will somehow not spare you". This phrase "perhaps, somehow" is also in 2 Cor 11:3; 12:20; Gal 4:11. Elsewhere only as "not somehow" in 1 Cor 8:9; 9:27; 2 Cor 2:7; 9:4; Gal 2:2; 1 Thes 3:5. GK 4803. Some manuscripts omit it {C}.
5. Elsewhere only in Act 20:29; Rom 8:32; 1 Cor 7:28; 2 Cor 1:23; 12:6; 13:2; 2 Pet 2:4, 5. GK 5767. Related to "sparingly" in 2 Cor 9:6.
6. Or, "goodness". On this word, see "goodness" in Rom 3:12.
7. Used only in this verse. GK 704. Related to "severely" in 2 Cor 13:10.
8. A permanent fall was denied in v 11. The fall is not yet permanent, as seen in v 23. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
9. Some manuscripts omit "of God" {N}.
10. Compare Heb 3:6, 14. Same word as in v 23; Col 1:23, and in Rom 6:1; 1 Tim 4:16. Elsewhere only as "continue-on" in Jn 8:7; Act 12:16; "stay" in Act 10:48; 21:4; 28:12, 14; 1 Cor 16:7; Gal 1:18; "stay-on" in Act 21:10; 1 Cor 16:8; "remain" in Phil 1:24. GK 2152.
11. Some think Paul means "according to your nature as a Gentile"; others, "the wild olive tree by its nature".
12. Some think Paul means "contrary to your nature", not your native tree; others, "contrary to normal practice". On this word, see Eph 2:3.
13. This word is used of truth hidden in the past, but now revealed by God; something known only by God's revelation. Some think the mystery is that "all" Israel will be saved in this way after the fullness of the Gentiles comes in; others, that all Israel will be saved in this way from Paul's day "until" Christ's return, implying their continued existence until then. Elsewhere only in Rom 16:25; 1 Cor 2:1, 7; 4:1; 13:2; 14:2; 15:51; Eph 1:9; 3:3, 4, 9; 5:32; 6:19; Col 1:26, 27; 2:2; 4:3; 2 Thes 2:7; 1 Tim 3:9, 16; and in Mt 13:11; Mk 4:11; Lk 8:10; Rev 1:20; 10:7; 17:5, 7. GK 3696.
14. This phrase "among yourselves" is also in 12:16. Some manuscripts say "in yourselves" {C}.
15. Elsewhere only in Mk 3:5; Eph 4:18. GK 4801. Related to "hardened" in 11:7.
16. That is, to part of Israel, "some" of the branches, v 17. This idiom "partial, in part" is used elsewhere only in Rom 15:15, 24; 2 Cor 1:14; 2:5. This word, meaning "part, share" in various senses, is used 42 times. GK 3538. This idiom is related to "in part" in 1 Cor 12:27.
17. It is temporary, "until", as in Luke 21:24, "until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled". Some think Paul means that the hardness in part ends then, and the fullness of Israel's response comes; others, that the hardness in part continues until then, when Christ returns, implying nothing about a national conversion at that time. GK 948.
18. Same word as in v 12. That is, the "sum total, full number", or, the "completion".
19. Or, "And in this manner", "And thus". That is, with the fullness of the Gentiles coming in, and the moving of Israel to jealousy (v 11), so that they believe (v 23), and are regrafted into their tree (v 24).
20. Some think Paul means the nation of Israel as a whole (not every individual), ending the temporary "hardness in part" (v 25), resulting in "fullness" (v 12). It is "Israel" of v 25; and of 11:2, 7; 10:19, 21; 9:6 (first mention), 27, 31; Israel in contrast to the remnant. The emphasis is on "all" versus "in part". This is the answer to v 11. They have not fallen forever, God is able to do it (v 23). The remnant is saved for now, the fullness then. Just as the generation at Christ's first coming was hardened, so the generation at His second coming will be saved. Paul hoped this would be one and the same generation (that is, his generation), just as we hope it will be ours. Others do not think this is an end-time prophecy, but a description of how the Jewish remnant will be saved along with the fullness of Gentiles until Christ returns. "Israel" is not the "Israel" of v 25, but of 9:6 (second mention). "All Israel" means all true, spiritual Israel, the remnant in contrast with Israel (9:27). The emphasis is on "so" (in this manner). Thus, in this manner, alongside the continuing hardness in part, moved to jealousy, all the Jews who are to believe will believe; all the remnant will believe, all the elect Jews will be saved.
21. Some think Paul is referring to Christ's first coming; others, to His second coming.
22. This word is plural, "[acts of] ungodliness, impieties, lackings of reverence". On this word, see 1:18.
23. That is, Israel.
24. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:1.
25. Some think Paul is referring to the remnant of as yet unsaved Jews in both halves of this verse, "choosing" having the same reference as in v 5, 7; others, to the nation as a whole ("Israel" of v 25, "His people" of v 1), not the remnant.
26. Some think Paul specifically means they are enemies of the progress of the gospel in the world, as described in 1 Thes 2:15-16.
27. Such ones are treated as enemies by God. They are rejected (v 15), so that you might be saved, summarizing v 11-15.
28. Or, "election". Same word as in 11:5. In relation to their choosing as His people.
29. That is, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For the sake of God's gifts and promises to them, and His calling of them, they are beloved.
30. Or, "unregretted, unchanged". The Lord does not regret His promises to Israel. He keeps them, 3:4. Elsewhere only as "unregretted" in 2 Cor 7:10. GK 294. Related to "regret" in Mt 21:29.

1. Or, "formerly". On this word, see "ever" in Gal 2:6.
2. This word means "to disobey, be disobedient; to refuse to obey, comply". Elsewhere only in 2:8; 10:21; 11:31; 15:31; and in Jn 3:36; Act 14:2; 19:9; Heb 3:18; 11:31; 1 Pet 2:8; 3:1, 20; 4:17. GK 578. Related to "disobedience" in this verse, and to "disobedient" in Lk 1:17. Based on the context here, where the "obedience of faith" (16:26) is in view, some prefer to render these words "did not believe" and "unbelief", though they are not related to the word for "believe" itself.
3. Or, "by". Paul may mean "because of", "as a result of", "through". It is the same thought as v 11.
4. Elsewhere only in v 32; Eph 2:2; 5:6; Col 3:6; Heb 4:6, 11. GK 577. Related to "disobey" earlier.
5. This is the Greek word order of v 30-31. Some think the phrase, "in the mercy belonging to you" is placed forward in the Greek word order for emphasis, and belongs with the next phrase, providing a parallelism of phrases in v 30-31. Thus, it would be rendered "... disobeyed, in order that they also now may receive mercy in the mercy belonging to you".
6. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
7. The Gentiles received mercy in connection with Israel's disobedience. Israel receives mercy in the Gentile's mercy (not obedience).
8. Or, "riches, and of...", so that "riches" stands by itself, perhaps referring to riches of grace and mercy.
9. Used only here. GK 451. Related to "search" in 1 Cor 2:10.
10. Or, "inscrutable, incomprehensible". Elsewhere only in Eph 3:8. GK 453. His paths cannot be traced out.
11. Or, "gave beforehand, gave in advance". Used only here. GK 4594.
12. Or, "[acts of] compassion". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 1:3; Phil 2:1; Col 3:12; Heb 10:28. GK 3880. The related verb "to have compassion" is used only in Rom 9:15, where it is distinguished from "mercy". Related to "compassionate" in Jam 5:11.
13. This word is used outside the Greek Bible to mean "offer" a sacrifice, and some think the context points to this meaning here. Or, Paul may mean it in the same way he used this word in 6:13, 16, 19. Present your bodies for God's use. Same word as in Lk 2:22; Act 1:3; 9:41; 23:33; 2 Cor 4:14; 11:2; Eph 5:27; Col 1:22, 28; 2 Tim 2:15. It also means "be present, be here; stand (near, by, before)", etc. Used 41 times. GK 4225.
14. Or, "reasonable, thoughtful". This is not the normal word for "spiritual". It is "word, reason" with a suffix meaning "pertaining to". Here it means pertaining to reason, or to the real ("spiritual") nature of things. The Gospel does not call for mindless ritual, but service pertaining to what is reasonable and rational in view of the compassions of God, and therefore "in spirit and truth". Elsewhere only as "of-the-word" in 1 Pet 2:2, the milk "pertaining to the word". GK 3358.
15. Or, "service". This word is used of the service of divine worship in the temple as prescribed by God. We offer ourselves in "spiritual worship", Heb 12:28; 13:15; 1 Pet 2:5; or in "reasonable service" appropriate to what God has done for us. Elsewhere only as "service" in Jn 16:2; Rom 9:4; Heb 9:1, 6. GK 3301. Related word in Heb 12:28.
16. Or, "molded". The grammar implies "Stop being conformed, do not continue to be conformed". Elsewhere only in 1 Pet 1:14. GK 5372. Some manuscripts say "And not to be conformed..., but to be transformed" {N}, making v 1-2 one sentence.
17. Or, "world". GK 172.
18. Or, "metamorphosed, changed in form". The grammar implies, "Continue to be transformed". Same word as in 2 Cor 3:18, as we behold His glory. Elsewhere only as "transfigured" in Mt 17:2; Mk 9:2. GK 3565. Related to "formed" in Gal 4:19.
19. Or, "renewal". On this word, see Tit 3:5.
20. Some manuscripts include this word {N}.
21. Or, "so that you approve", depending on whether Paul is referring to the purpose or the result. This word means "to test, examine, assay (a metal), prove by testing" and "to approve after testing". The NIV combines both meanings here "test and approve". A renewed mind allows us to approve the right things—"what is pleasing to the Lord", Eph 5:10; "the things mattering", Phil 1:10. Same word as in Rom 1:28; 2:18; 14:22; 1 Cor 16:3; 1 Thes 2:4. Elsewhere only as "test" in Lk 12:56; 14:19; 1 Cor 3:13; 1 Thes 2:4; 5:21; 1 Tim 3:10; 1 Pet 1:7; 1 Jn 4:1; "examine" in 1 Cor 11:28; and "prove" in 2 Cor 8:8, 22; 13:5; Gal 6:4. GK 1507. Related to "trial" in Heb 3:9; "approvedness" in 2 Cor 2:9; "approved" in 2 Tim 2:15; "testing" in Jam 1:3; "disapproved" in 1 Cor 9:27; and "rejected" in Heb 12:17.
22. Same word as in v 1.
23. Or, "approve what is the will of God—the thing good and pleasing and perfect".
24. Paul uses this word to assert his next point. GK 1142. It may be rendered "Moreover".
25. Paul is probably referring to his gift as an apostle of Jesus Christ. Compare Eph 4:7.
26. Used only here. GK 5672. Paul uses the root word "think" three times in this verse.
27. Or, "must think", in accordance with the facts. On this idiom, see Act 25:10.
28. Or, "be sensible, be serious, be in control, be moderate, be in one's senses, be in a right mind". Sound-minded thinking focuses on our spiritual endowments from God. We are to measure ourselves against God's gift to us, not against one another (2 Cor 10:12), and not against the world's standards (slave or free, rich or poor, male or female; human merit, achievement; personal opinion). "What has God given me to invest for Him, and how am I doing with it?" are sound-minded questions, not "Am I better than you?" Elsewhere only in Mk 5:15; Lk 8:35; 2 Cor 5:13; Tit 2:6; 1 Pet 4:7. GK 5404. On this word group, see 1 Tim 3:2.
29. Or, "divided, distributed". God divided the portions. On this word, see 1 Cor 7:17.
30. That is, "a quantity, a measured portion" of faith appropriate to the gifts God gives to each person in v 6. Paul is not referring to saving faith, nor to the gift of faith (1 Cor 12:9). God has given us gifts to serve Him and His people, and the faith to exercise them. We are to measure ourselves against our own use of our own faith and gifts, just as God will do on that day (Rom 14:10-12). Same word as in Eph 4:7. On this word, see Jn 3:34.
31. Paul further explains this sound-minded thinking about ourselves, using the illustration of the human body.

1. On this word, see "gift" in 1 Cor 1:7. It is rendered this way to show its relationship to "grace" next.
2. Or, "based on". GK 2848.
3. Compare Eph 4:7.
4. Some think Paul transitions from explanation to exhortation here, intending the reader to supply the commands needed, whether a single command is added as here, or a separate one is added to each gift. Others think this continues from v 5, explaining the second half of v 4 and the individual apportionment of v 3. It would be rendered "one another, and are having different grace-gifts... given to us—whether..."; would add no commands; and would have no commas dividing each of the seven following phrases.
5. Or, "the right relationship to, agreement with". Used only here. GK 381.
6. Or, "the faith given". This is the word "the", and each of the first four gifts has it. It is taken here to mean "the faith given to you". Others think Paul means "the faith" in a different sense, as explained next.
7. Some think Paul means the personal "measure of faith" given in v 3. He may be referring to the faith that allows this person to hear the revelation from God. "Prophecy in correspondence to the faith-received revelation from God, saying nothing more, nothing less". Or he may mean "Exercise your prophetic ministry as widely as your God-given faith permits". Others think Paul means the objective content of "the faith" (as in Jude 3), "prophecy according to the right relationship to the faith delivered to us". Other prophets would discern this, as in 1 Cor 14:29.
8. Or, "ministry". This word is used regarding food preparation (Lk 10:40), apostleship (Act 1:25), the Word (Act 6:4), giving (Act 11:29; 2 Cor 9:1), missions (Act 12:25), the work of service (Eph 4:12), etc. On this word, see "ministries" in 1 Cor 12:5. The related verb is in 1 Pet 4:10, 11, where "serving" and "speaking" summarize all the gifts. It is also related to "deacons" in Phil 1:1. Some think Paul means service to the poor, sick, and suffering; others, deacon-ministry; others, all kinds of practical service.
9. Or, "in, in connection with, with, by". This word is also used in the next five phrases, but is rendered "with" in the last three. GK 1877.
10. Or, "the service given". The same noun is used twice. Both the gift, and the sphere or realm in which it is used are from God. In this case, the gift of "service" for one means distributing food; for another, running the nursery, etc. Use your gift of serving in the ministry God gives you. Look to Him for both. Compare 1 Cor 12:4-6.
11. This verb is used 97 times. GK 1438. Related to "teacher" in 1 Cor 12:28.
12. Or, "the teaching given". On this noun, see 1 Tim 5:17.
13. Or, "encouraging". This word means "to appeal to" in Rom 15:30; 2 Cor 5:20; 10:1; "beg" in Mt 8:34; 14:36; Act 13:42; 21:12; "exhort" in 1 Cor 1:10; Eph 4:1; Phil 4:2; 1 Thes 4:1; Tit 1:9; 2:15; "urge" in Act 16:15; 27:33; Rom 12:1; 16:17; 1 Tim 2:1; "encourage" in Act 15:32; Col 4:8; 1 Thes 4:18; "comfort" in Mt 2:18; 5:4; Act 20:12; 2 Cor 1:4; 7:6; 2 Thes 2:17. Used 109 times. In some verses, more than one of these senses is appropriate. GK 4151.
14. Or, "encouragement, comfort". Related to the previous verb, and to "helper" in Jn 14:16. Like teaching, this takes place on a personal and group basis, formal and informal, on various subjects. On this word, see "encouragement" in Act 4:36.
15. Or, "giving a share of" one's things. Same word as in Lk 3:11; Eph 4:28. Elsewhere only as "impart" to spiritual needs in Rom 1:11; 1 Thes 2:8. GK 3556. Paul is referring to giving proceeding from God-given faith, not human philanthropy.
16. Paul changes from referring to the sphere in which the gift is used, to the manner in which it is used, using the same Greek word.
17. Or, "simplicity, sincerity". Same word as in 2 Cor 8:2; 9:11, 13. Elsewhere only as "simplicity" in 2 Cor 1:12; and "sincerity" in 2 Cor 11:3; Eph 6:5; Col 3:22. Here, some think Paul means with "simplicity", without any self-seeking motive, respect of persons, hidden purposes; others, with "sincere concern"; others, with "generosity". Related to "generously" in Jam 1:5, and to "single" in Mt 6:22. GK 605.
18. Or, "managing, ruling, directing, being at the head, taking the lead, standing before, presiding over". Used of elders. Same word as in 1 Thes 5:12; 1 Tim 3:4, 5, 12; 5:17. Elsewhere only as "take the lead" in Tit 3:8, 14. GK 4613. Related to "benefactor" in 16:2. Some think this refers to leading in all kinds of Christian works; others, to elders.
19. This word is used of Jesus meeting physical needs for healing in Mt 9:27; of forgiving debt, Mt 18:33; and of God "having mercy on" us, Rom 9:15, 18; 11:30-32. Used 29 times. GK 1796. Related to "almsgiving" in Mt 6:2. Related to "mercy" in Mt 9:13, which is used of what the Good Samaritan did, Lk 10:37. God desires it, Mt 9:13, 23:23. Related to "merciful" in Mt 5:7. Some think this refers to caring for the sick, aged, dying, and needy based on faith-driven motives, not human philanthropy.
20. Used only here. GK 2660. Related to "cheerful" in 2 Cor 9:7.
21. What follows is clearly a series of exhortations, so most make them all commands. Here, they are given as Paul wrote them. Since he has given no clear indication that he has changed subjects, they are listed as a continuation of what he wants to "say to everyone being among you", v 3. "Love" here is a noun, "affectionate" is an adjective.
22. Or, "genuine, without hypocrisy, unhypocritical". It is the negative of the word "hypocrisy" in Gal 2:13. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 6:6; 1 Tim 1:5; 2 Tim 1:5; Jam 3:17; 1 Pet 1:22. GK 537.
23. Or, "joining oneself to, associating with". On this word, see "join" in 1 Cor 6:16.
24. Or, "warmly devoted, tenderly loving, dearly loving". Used of love between family members. Used only here. GK 5816.
25. Paul may mean "leading the way for one another in honor", or "being first to honor one another", or "esteeming one another more highly in honor". Used only here. GK 4605. Related to "regarding" in Phil 2:3.
26. This adjective is elsewhere only as "lazy" in Mt 25:26, and "troublesome" in Phil 3:1. GK 3891. Related to "to delay" in Act 9:38.
27. This participle is used of Apollos in Act 18:25. Or, "boiling in the Spirit".
28. Same word as in Gal 6:6 (with teachers); Phil 4:15 ("partnered" with Paul); Rom 15:27 (in spiritual things). On this word, see 2 Jn 11.
29. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. "Persecute" is the same word as "pursue" in v 13.
30. Or, "calling a curse upon". Same two words as in "Bless those cursing you" in Lk 6:28. Elsewhere only in Mt 25:41; Mk 11:21; Jam 3:9. GK 2933. Related to the noun "curse" in Gal 3:10.

1. Paul uses this same phrase in Rom 15:5; 2 Cor 13:11; Phil 2:2; 4:2. The same idea is in 1 Cor 1:10.
2. Or, "high, proud". Same phrase as in 11:20.
3. Or, "being accommodating to; associating with". That is, give up lofty thinking about yourself and allow yourself to be carried along with the lowly. Elsewhere only as "carried away by" in the sense of "led astray" in Gal 2:13; 2 Pet 3:17. GK 5270.
4. Or, "humble". Some take the grammar to mean "lowly things". Be carried along with the lowly things of life, the humble tasks. Be accommodated to humble things. Others take it to mean "lowly people". Be associating with the lowly people. Both are true, and fitting contrasts with "thinking lofty things". On this word, see Jam 1:9.
5. This word (on which see Mt 7:24) is the same root word as "thinking" just used twice.
6. Same words as in Rom 11:25. The Corinthians did this, 1 Cor 4:10; 2 Cor 11:19 (same word for "wise").

17. Even Pharaoh, 9:17. Some manuscripts say "from" {N}.
18. Some manuscripts say "authorities" {N}.
19. Or, "put in place, stationed, arranged, arrayed, appointed, assigned". This is a participle, they "are having been established", they stand established by God. Elsewhere only as "ordered" in Mt 28:16; "placed" in Lk 7:8; "appoint" in Act 13:48; 15:2; 28:23; 1 Cor 16:15; and "assign" in Act 22:10. GK 5435.
20. Or, "resisting", but not the same word as follows. It means "to establish, arrange, set oneself in array against". The root word is "establish" in v 1. Elsewhere only in Act 18:6; Jam 4:6; 5:6; 1 Pet 5:5. GK 530.
21. Or, "stood against". On this word, see Eph 6:13.
22. Or, "decree, direction", that which is ordered or commanded. The authority of government is God's decree. Paul is commanding subordination to the authority of government, however that is expressed in your nation. In some nations, this includes active involvement in government. In other nations, citizens have no input. Elsewhere only as "directions" in Act 7:53. GK 1408. Related to "edict" in Heb 11:23, and to the verb "to direct" in 1 Cor 7:17.
23. That is, from God whose ordinance was resisted. Secondly, from the authorities, if you are caught. On this word, see Jn 9:39.
24. Paul explains and applies God's ordinance regarding government in general, dealing here with none of the exceptions.
25. That is, civil evil, crime, criminal wrong. Same word as in v 4. On this word, see 3 Jn 11. Some manuscripts have these words plural {N}, so that it says "to good works, but to evil ones".
26. Or, "it". That is, the authority mentioned earlier in this verse. Praise for good is the general rule. But Paul also was persecuted for good—for being a Christian. He does not address this here. Note 1 Pet 3:13-14; 4:13-16.
27. Or, "wear". On this word, see 1 Cor 15:49.
28. Governments have God's authority to punish evil to the fullest extent—including death. A government may choose not to punish evil with death, but this does not change the fact that it has this authority from God, and serves as His servant when carrying it out. Whether or not a government should choose not to use the sword is not addressed here.
29. That is, for no reason. On this word, see Col 2:18.
30. Elsewhere only in 1 Thes 4:6. GK 1690. Related to "avenging" and "vengeance" in 12:19.
31. That is, for the purpose of carrying out God's wrath, as His servant. On this word, see Rev 16:19.
32. On this word, see Act 23:1. We are to submit out of fear of God's wrath expressed through His servant (government), and because of our conscience toward God based on His will. In general, these two are in agreement. But in exceptional cases, which Paul does not speak to here, the latter must always be preeminent. If government requires us to disobey God, then we must obey God and suffer the consequences, like Peter (Act 5:28-29) and Daniel (Dan 6). Early Christians suffered death rather than deny Christ.
33. Some think Paul means because such authorities are serving God's purposes (v 1-5); others, because of wrath and conscience (v 5).
34. Same word as in v 7. Tributes were paid by foreigners to a ruling state, such as that paid by Israel to Rome. Elsewhere only in Lk 20:22; 23:2. GK 5843.
35. Or, "public servants", as when we say prime minister or defense minister, etc. Note that Paul is talking here about the Roman government that ruled the world from the city to which this letter is addressed, a foreign power that conquered and subjugated his nation and took away their freedom and right of self-government. Yet Paul says the Romans are "servants of God". This word was used of priests in the OT. Elsewhere only in Rom 15:16 (of Paul); Phil 2:25 (of Epaphroditus); Heb 1:7 (of angels); and Heb 8:2 (of Jesus). GK 3313. Related to the verb in 15:27.
36. Some think Paul means serving the public good, and God's purposes (v 1-4); others, collecting the taxes.
37. Some manuscripts say "Therefore give..." {K}. On this word, see "render" in Mt 16:27.
38. Or, "due". This noun is rendered "owed" to show its relation to "owing" in v 8. On this word, see "due" in 1 Cor 7:3.
39. This refers to taxes, duties, tolls, etc. paid to your own country. Here the local government is addressed. Same word as in Mt 17:25. GK 5465.
40. Or, "respect". On this word, see Eph 5:21.

1. Related to the word in v 7. The "owing" and the "loving" here refer to the same group of people. Thus, Paul is referring to our personal relations with individuals. Paul's main point here is that love is a debt we always owe to all, which he shows by contrast to debts we can pay off. He is not giving an absolute rule, "Never borrow anything from your neighbor". Paul means "Keep all your balances (monetary and otherwise) with other people clear or paid up as agreed— except love, which is never clear or paid up". On this word, see "ought" in 1 Jn 4:11.
2. That is, the other person, in the broadest of terms. Same word as "other" commandment in v 9. GK 2283.
3. Some manuscripts add "you shall not bear false witness" {B}.
4. Some manuscripts omit "in the" {C}, which introduces the quotation.
5. Or, "like". See Mt 19:19.
6. Or, "evil", civil or personal. On this word, see "evil" in 3 Jn 11.
7. Or, "fulfilling". On this word, see "fullness" in Col 1:19.
8. Paul is probably referring to all of chapters 12-13 to this point. This is a motive for all of it.
9. Some manuscripts say "us" {B}.
10. Or, "be raised, be awakened". On this word, see "arose" in Mt 28:6.
11. Or, "put aside, put away", like a garment. Same word as in Act 7:58; Eph 4:22, 25; Col 3:8; Heb 12:1; Jam 1:21; 1 Pet 2:1. Elsewhere only as "put away" in Mt 14:3. GK 700. Some manuscripts say "let us throw off" {A}.
12. Or, "tools, instruments". Same word as in Jn 18:3; 2 Cor 6:7; 10:4. Elsewhere only as "instruments" in Rom 6:13. GK 3960. Related to "arm yourselves" in 1 Pet 4:1, and "full armor" in Eph 6:11.
13. Or, "decently, with propriety". Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 14:40; 1 Thes 4:12. GK 2361.
14. Or, "during". Some think Paul means the daytime, as in broad daylight; others, as in the future day with Jesus, when He comes; others, as in the present daylight of the gospel. GK 1877.
15. This word is used of wild parties with drunken antics and debauchery of all kinds. Elsewhere only in Gal 5:21; 1 Pet 4:3. GK 3269.
16. This word is plural, and may mean "episodes of drunkenness, drinking bouts". Elsewhere only in Lk 21:34; Gal 5:21. GK 3494. Related word in Jn 2:10.
17. That is, sex, and in this context, illicit sex, orgies. Same word as in 9:10. On this word, see Heb 13:4.
18. Or, "dress in, wear, clothe-yourself-in", like a garment. Same word as in v 12; Mt 6:25; 27:31; Mk 6:9; 15:20; Lk 8:27; 12:22; 15:22; 24:49; Act 12:21; 1 Cor 15:53, 54; Gal 3:27; Eph 4:24; 6:11, 14; Col 3:10, 12; 1 Thes 5:8. Elsewhere only as "dress in" in Mt 22:11; Mk 1:6; Rev 1:13; 15:6; 19:14. GK 1907.
19. Or, "foresight, forethought, plan". Elsewhere only as "foresight" in Act 24:2. GK 4630. Related to "providing for" in 12:17.
20. Same word as in v 3; 15:7; and as "welcome" in Act 28:2. It also means "take, take aside". Used 12 times. GK 4689.
21. Such a person is not fully aware of the implications of their faith for their behavior, and is carrying over things from their former way of life— observing days, rituals, rules about foods, etc. Some think the weaker brother here is the Jewish Christian who was unable to leave his former traditions completely behind. This person would "judge" the Gentile Christian for not following these traditions, and the Gentile Christian would "treat him with contempt" for his opinions. That the Jewish Christians were the ones not being accepted may be the reason Paul concludes as he does in 15:7-12. But we do not know the precise circumstances. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. In any case, neither person is saying their course must be followed to be saved, as in Act 15:1. GK 820.
22. Or, "in faith". The faith of these people is weak in that it does not allow them to accept or enjoy their full freedom in Christ.
23. This word means "discernments, judgments", and negatively, the "disputes, quarrels" that result from this behavior. On this word, see "discernment" in 1 Cor 12:10. Related to "dispute" in Act 11:2.
24. Or, "reasonings, thoughts, doubts". On this word, see "thoughts" in Jam 2:4. That is, for the purpose of correcting the weaker one's opinions about matters of Christian living by disputing with that person based on your knowledge.
25. An occasion of eating may be in view here, such as a banquet attended by both groups of believers. The weak person's faith or beliefs lead them to conclude that God does not want them to eat the meat, perhaps out of fear of defilement. This person feels the meat has a negative spiritual significance and must be avoided. The strong person's faith leads them to put no significance in the matter. Paul addresses both, the strong first.
26. Or, "despising, disregarding". Same word as in v 10. Used of the Pharisee in Lk 18:9. On this word, see 1 Thes 5:20.
27. Paul continues addressing the one "judging". The two are addressed again using the same two verbs in v 10.
28. Or, "slave", generally. Same word as in Lk 16:13; Act 10:7. Elsewhere only as "servants" in 1 Pet 2:18. GK 3860. Related to "house".
29. Or, "he will be caused to stand, made to stand". Same word as "make stand" next. On this word, see "standing" in Mk 13:14.
30. Or, "Master". Same word as "master" earlier in the verse. On this word, see "master" in Mt 8:2. Some manuscripts say "God" {A}.
31. Paul uses this word to assert his next point. It may be rendered "Moreover". GK 1142. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
32. This person feels one day has a positive spiritual significance beyond "ordinary" days, and must be observed as such. Perhaps Paul is referring to the Sabbath, or some other "holy" day on the Jewish calendar. Compare Gal 4:10; Col 2:16.
33. Each should follow the course proceeding from their own faith in Christ. On this word, see "fulfill" in Lk 1:1.
34. On this word, see Rom 8:5. This person thinks of the day in a special way, and honors it more highly, out of a desire to worship God more deeply. He or she is "intent on" honoring the day in a special way. This is the weak one.
35. Some manuscripts add "and the one not thinking of the day, does not think for the Lord" {N}.
36. In other words, both are making their choices for the right reasons. Both are living for the Lord.
37. Paul generalizes from his illustrations in v 6. We Christians are all living for the Lord, in life and death.
38. That is, none of us Christians— weak or strong.
39. Therefore the point is that we all are the Lord's— in all of life's choices, and in death. He is our Lord.
40. Or, "lived, became alive". On this word, see Rev 20:4. This refers to Christ's resurrection. Some manuscripts say "died and rose"; others, "also died and rose and lived" {A}.
41. That is, if we are all the Lord's in life and death (v 9), then why do you judge one another?

1. Or, "the tribunal". Same word as in 2 Cor 5:10; of Pilate in Mt 27:19; Jn 19:13; of Herod in Act 12:21; of Gallio in Act 18:12, 16, 17; and of Festus in Act 25:6, 10, 17. Elsewhere only as "step" in Act 7:5. GK 1037.
2. Some manuscripts say "Christ" {B}.
3. Or, "praise", as in 15:9. Same word and idea as in Phil 2:11. On this word, see Jam 5:16.
4. Some manuscripts say "Therefore" {C} instead of "So then".
5. Some manuscripts omit "to God" {C}.
6. That is, in the sense of "determine, decide, resolve". What follows to v 15 is directed at the strong person. Same word as earlier in the verse. On this word, see Mt 7:1.
7. Or, "an occasion to take offense; an occasion to stumble into sin". Same word as in 14:20; 1 Cor 8:9. Elsewhere only as "stumbling" in Rom 9:32, 33; 1 Pet 2:8. GK 4682. Related to "stumble" in Rom 14:21, and the word in 2 Cor 6:3.
8. On this word, see 11:9. The difference is that the "opportunity for stumbling" may cause an accidental fall, an unintentional result. The "cause of falling" is intentional, a consciously chosen thing. In this case, the strong person deliberately proceeds with behavior he knows is objectionable to the weak person, perhaps even in defiance of him. Jesus said it is better to die than to do this, Mt 18:6.
9. Before Paul continues exhorting the strong, he firmly acknowledges his agreement with their position. As to knowledge, they are correct. But there is another way of viewing it besides "in itself", as he goes on to explain.
10. That is, nothing in the category of things under discussion here.
11. Or, "common, impure, ritually defiled" as opposed to "holy". Compare Mk 7:15. On this word, see Heb 10:29.
12. That is, by means of being what it is. Even in the OT, pig was not unclean because it was pig. All things God created are good. It was unclean to the Jews because God said so. Now God says all things are clean.
13. Regardless of what it is in itself and to God, it is defiled to a person who thinks it to be such; it is defiled to their conscience. They make it defiled for themselves, in spite of what God says. The strong person's judgment of their opinions will not help them grow out of it. It may harden them in their weakness, or cause division. Loving acceptance may give them the chance.
14. Some manuscripts say "But" {K}.
15. Or, "distressed, caused pain, caused sorrow". This is not godly sorrow (2 Cor 7:8-11), but self-destructive sorrow. Such people follow the behavior of the strong, without the support of their conscience, apart from their own faith, and afterward suffer under their conscience, and are hindered in their growth and walk with God. On this word, see 2 Cor 7:9.
16. Or, "in accordance with, in harmony with, based on". GK 2848.
17. Or, "for".
18. Some think Paul means "you strong ones"; others, all of you, strong and weak. This word is plural.
19. Some think Paul means your food, your freedom in Christ; others, your salvation; others, the gospel. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b.
20. Or, "spoken against". Some think Paul means by outsiders; others, by the weak ones. Thus some think this is addressed to the strong—
- "Do not let your exercise of freedom cause it to be spoken against by your weaker brother" (as mere self-indulgence, for example). Others think Paul is speaking to both the strong and the weak—"Do not let the gospel (or your salvation) be blasphemed by the unbelievers because of your selfish disputing over your opinions about these matters". On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.
21. Some think these three things refer to our relationship with God. It is the subjective experience of these three things from God that the strong can take from the weak. Others think they refer to our relationship with one another.
22. That is, serving as a slave to Christ. On this word, see "are slaves" in 6:6.
23. Some think Paul means "in this righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit which the kingdom of God is really about"; others, "in this Spirit"; others, "in this way" (foregoing your rights for others). Some manuscripts say "in these things" {N}.
24. On this adjective, see 2 Tim 2:15. This is as opposed to being blasphemed, v 16. Related to the word in v 22.
25. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:1. Some manuscripts say "we are pursuing" {D}.
26. That is, belonging to or leading to peace... and edification.
27. Or, "building up". Same word as in 15:2; 1 Cor 14:3, 5, 12, 26; 2 Cor 12:19; Eph 4:29. Elsewhere only as "building up" in 2 Cor 10:8; 13:10; Eph 4:12, 16; and as a "building" in Mt 24:1; Mk 13:1, 2; 1 Cor 3:9; 2 Cor 5:1; Eph 2:21. GK 3869. Related to "edify" in 1 Cor 14:4.
28. Some think Paul means God's work in the church; others, the work God is doing in the weak one.
29. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
30. This phrase is similar to 1 Cor 6:12, "All things are lawful".
31. Some think Paul means for the strong person whose eating is accompanied with an opportunity for others to stumble; others, for the weak person who eats in violation of his conscience. Same word as in v 13. Related to "stumbles" in v 21.
32. Some think this refers to an additional limitation the weak placed on themselves; others think Paul is generalizing the issue (similar to 1 Cor 10:31), without necessarily implying this was really an issue for them.
33. Or, "takes offense". Same word as in Jn 11:9, 10; Rom 9:32; 1 Pet 2:8. Elsewhere only as "strikes against" in Mt 4:6; 7:27; Lk 4:11. GK 4684. Some manuscripts add "or is caused to fall or is made weak" {B}. Related to the word in v 13.
34. Paul is referring to the faith to eat all things (v 2), the faith of the strong person.
35. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it means either "The faith you have" or "Do you have faith?"
36. Or, "in the interest of, in relation to". GK 2848.
37. Or, "by". GK 1877.
38. On this word, see 12:2. Some take this to mean "Blessed is the strong person who does not judge himself over these things like the weak one does"; others, "Blessed is the strong person who does not approve the wrong things, bringing judgment on himself".

- 2E. And again he says, “Celebrate^R, Gentiles, with His people” [Deut 32:43] 10

1. This refers to the weak person, the one not having "the faith which you have" regarding the matter. On this word, see Jam 1:6.
2. Some think Paul means "everything in regard to issues like this"; others, "everything, period", so that he is giving the broad general principle (like Heb 11:6) which includes the matters in this context.
3. Some think Paul means "proceeding from Christian faith", so that he is giving the general principle that all actions outside of Christian faith are sin, of which the actions here are one example. Others think he is referring to the faith guiding our conscience, so that he is giving the broad principle that everything done in violation of our conscience is sin, including the things here. Others think he means the faith that permits us to exercise our freedom in these matters, as "faith" is used in v 1, 2, 22, 23, so that he means everything done while doubting whether Christ permits it is sin.
4. Some manuscripts have 16:25-27 here {A}. See 16:25.
5. Or, "powerful, able". That is, the spiritually strong. The strong would agree completely with 14:22-23. This is the point Paul also wants them to see, the one that breaks the deadlock, the one they were not seeing. 14:23 is not just "their problem". GK 1543.
6. Same word as "owing" in 13:8. This is a debt we owe.
7. Or, "bearing, bearing with". The strong are not to just tolerate the weak, but to carry, support and help them. Same word as in Gal 6:2, "carry one another's burdens". Paul himself approaches life this way, 1 Cor 10:31-33. On this word, see Mt 8:17.
8. Used only here. GK 821. Related to "weak" in 14:1, 2; and "weakness" in Mt 8:17.
9. Or, "powerless, not able". Same word as "strong" earlier, with a negative prefix. This is a broader term, including, but not limited to the "weak" ones of 14:1. Same word as "powerless" in Act 14:8. On this word, see "impossible" in Heb 6:4.
10. That is, pleasing ourselves without regard to the impact of our behavior on others.
11. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
12. Paul is not praying the Romans will agree about the foods and days, but about their treatment of one another, eliminating the judging and the treating with contempt mentioned in 14:3. On "think the same thing", see 12:16.
13. Paul may mean "according to His will"; or, "in accordance with His example and commands"; or "in relation to Christ Jesus". "According to" is GK 2848.
14. This is Paul's conclusion of this discussion. He repeats the same word he began with in 14:1.
15. Same word as 14:13, 19. GK 253.
16. Some manuscripts say "us" {A}.
17. Some think Paul means "accept one another... for..."; others, "accepted you for..."; others, both.
18. Some think these verses imply that the Jewish Christians were the weak ones not being accepted. Others think both groups may have been composed of former Jews and Gentiles. Some manuscripts say "Now" {K}.
19. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
20. Some manuscripts say "became" {N}.
21. Or, "minister". Related to the verb Jesus used of Himself in Mt 20:28. On this word, see 1 Cor 3:5.
22. That is, the Jews. On this word, see Eph 2:11.
23. That is, the promises belonging to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
24. Others take this as a second thing Paul says, "For I say that Christ has become...; but that the Gentiles glorify".
25. On this word, see "confess out" in Jam 5:16. Not related to the word in v 11.
26. Elsewhere only in Lk 2:13, 20; 19:37; Act 2:47; 3:8, 9; Rev 19:5. GK 140. Related words in Heb 13:15; Mt 21:16.
27. Or, "commend, approve, compliment". This word is different but related to "praising" earlier in this verse. Elsewhere only in Lk 16:8; 1 Cor 11:2; 17, 22. GK 2046. Related to the word in 1 Cor 4:5. Some manuscripts say "and all peoples, praise Him" {N}.
28. Or, "standing up". On this word, see Lk 18:33.

30. That is, the One granting us hope, the source of hope, as in "God of endurance" (v 5) and "God of peace" (v 33).
31. Elsewhere only in Mt 23:28; Jn 19:29; 21:11; Rom 1:29; Jam 3:8, 17; 2 Pet 2:14. GK 3550. Not related to "filled" next.
32. Or, "more daringly". That is, more boldly than the Romans may have expected. Or, "very boldly". Used only here. GK 5529. Related to "dare" in v 18.
33. Some manuscripts add "brothers" {N}.
34. This is the Greek position of "in part". Some take it with what follows, as here. Paul wrote partially to remind the Romans and partially for the reason he states in v 23-24. Others take this with what precedes. He "wrote more boldly in part", that is, in some parts of the book, such as chapter 14. On "in part", see 11:25.
35. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
36. Or, "serving as priest for". Used only here. GK 2646. Paul applies the word describing the work of priests who offered sacrifices in the temple to his work in connection with the gospel. He is doing temple duties in God's spiritual temple. Related to "priesthood" (Heb 7:11), "priest", "temple", "temple duties" (1 Cor 9:13). Not related to "minister" earlier.
37. On this word, see Act 21:26. That is, in order that the offering to God consisting of the Gentiles may become acceptable to Him. In calling them an offering, some think Paul is thinking of Isa 66:20, where the same concept occurs. Some think Paul means the Gentiles are his own offering; others, that they offer themselves to God.
38. Or, "welcome". Same word as in 15:31; 2 Cor 8:12; 1 Pet 2:5. Elsewhere only as "very acceptable" in 2 Cor 6:2. GK 2347. Related to "acceptable" in Lk 4:19.
39. Or, "made holy, set apart [to God]". On this word, see Heb 10:29. This word refers back to "offering".
40. That is, this act of boasting by Paul just written in v 16, as to his God-given ministry for Christ. On this noun, see 2 Cor 7:4. His boasting is in Christ Jesus, who made him a minister to the Gentiles and is working through him. Or, "my boasting". Literally "the boasting" just given, but some manuscripts omit "the" {C}.
41. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
42. On this word, see "work out" in Phil 2:12. Stated positively, it would be "For I will dare only to speak of what Christ accomplished through me".
43. Or, "for the purpose of, leading to, resulting in". On this word, see "resulting in" in 5:16.
44. That is, the obeying of what they hear. On this word, see 16:26.

2. That is, the signs of the apostle, 2 Cor 12:12. On "signs and wonders", see 2 Thes 2:9.
3. Some manuscripts omit "of God"; others say "the Holy Spirit" {C}.
4. This resumes from v 17 (2B.), summarizing the extent of his God-given ministry.
5. In modern terms, from Israel up and around the Mediterranean to north of Greece in the area of the Balkans.
6. Or, "fulfilled". Paul has "completed [the announcing of] the good news about Christ". "Fully preached" paraphrases this. Same word as in Act 13:25; 14:26; and as "fulfill" in Col 1:25. He finished his pioneering ministry in these areas, leaving them for others to build upon. He finished what he was to do. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18.
7. Some take this as looking back, "And thus engaged in this work". Others take this word ("thus, so, in this manner, as follows") as referring to what follows, and begin a new sentence with v 20, "And in this manner I was being ambitious—to announce...". On this word, see "so" in Jn 3:16. Some manuscripts say "Christ. And thus I am ambitious..." {N}.
8. Or, "aspiring, making it my ambition, pursuing as my ambition". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 5:9; 1 Thes 4:11. GK 5818.

27. That is, secured and certified in accordance with its intention, v 31b. 1. Paul always calls her Prisca (Rom 16:3; 1 Cor 16:19; 2 Tim 4:19). Luke always calls her Priscilla (Act 18:2, 18, 26), a diminutive, more familiar form of Prisca, like saying Debbie instead of Deborah. Some manuscripts say "Priscilla" here {N}. She is mentioned before her husband in four of the six references. GK 4571.

Some have it after 14:23 and end the letter with 16:24. Some do not have it at all, ending the letter with 16:24. One has it after 15:33 and ends the letter with 16:23. Several theories have been suggested to account for these variances, on which consult the commentaries.
2. Same word as in 1:11. On this word, see 1 Thes 3:2.

6. On this word, see 11:25. This mystery is defined by the next three phrases.
7. On this phrase, "eternal times", see 2 Tim 1:9.
8. Same word as in 3:21.

13. Some think Paul means the obedience "which consists of faith"; others, "which comes from faith"; others, the "faith kind of obedience"; others, the obedience "to the faith". Same phrase as in 1:5. Thus he opens and closes the book with this thought. On "faith", see Eph 2:8.
14. Or, "Gentiles". On this word, see "Gentiles" in Act 15:23.
15. Some think this refers to "God"; others, to "Jesus Christ". Some manuscripts omit "to Whom" {N}, so that it says "To the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory forever, amen".
16. On this idiom, "into the ages", see Rev 20:10. Some manuscripts say "forever and ever" {A}.

Introduction	1:1-9
1A. I exhort you brothers, that you all speak the same thing, and that there not be divisions among you	1:10
1B. For I hear that there are quarrels among you, divisions over Paul, Apollos, Cephas, Christ	1:11-12
2B. Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in Paul's name?	1:13
1C. I give thanks I baptized none of you	1:14-16
2C. For He did not send me to baptize, but to speak the gospel without wisdom of speech	1:17
1D. For the speech of the cross is foolishness to the world, but God's power to us	1:18
2D. For God said He would destroy the wisdom of the wise. He did so in saving us	1:19-31
3C. And I having come to you, I did not proclaim God's mystery with human wisdom	2:1-5
4C. Yet we are speaking wisdom to the mature, but a wisdom not of this age or its rulers	2:6
1D. Rather we speak God's wisdom—the hidden wisdom predestined for our glory	2:7-9
2D. And God revealed it to us through the Spirit. We speak it in Spirit-taught words	2:10-13
3D. But a natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God	2:14
4D. But the spiritual person examines all things	2:15-16
5C. And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you then as to spiritual ones. I gave you milk	3:1-2
6C. But even still you are fleshly, walking like mankind, saying I am of Paul, Apollos	3:3-4
3B. Therefore what is Apollos and Paul?— Servants through whom you believed	3:5
1C. I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing the growth. We are not anything	3:6-7
2C. Apollos and I are one, for we are co-workers of God. You are His farm, His building	3:8-17
3C. Let no one deceive himself. The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God	3:18-20
4C. So then, let no one be boasting in people. All things are yours	3:21-23
5C. Let a person consider us as attendants of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God	4:1-5
4B. I applied these things to Apollos and me that you may learn not to be puffed up about men	4:6-21
2A. Sexual immorality is being heard of among you. Remove the immoral person from among you	5:1-13
3A. Does any one of you dare to take your cases before the unrighteous judges and not the saints?	6:1-11
4A. Flee sexual immorality. Your body is for the Lord, a part of Christ, and a temple of the Spirit	6:12-20
5A. Now concerning the things which you wrote	7:1
1B. Concerning marriage issues	7:1-24
2B. Concerning virgins, and the remarriage of widows	7:25-40
3B. Concerning the eating of foods sacrificed to idols	8:1
1C. We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up	8:1-3
2C. Therefore we know that an idol is nothing, and that there is only one God	8:4-6
3C. But all do not know this. Some eat by the custom of the idol, staining their conscience	8:7
4C. But food will not bring us near to God. We lose or gain nothing by it	8:8

- 5C. But watch out that this right of yours does not somehow cause the weak to stumble 8:9-12
- 6C. If meat causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat it again. Follow my example. I freely give up any right so as not to hinder the gospel, but advance it 8:13-9:23
- 7C. Run so as to lay hold of the prize, and so as not to become disapproved. Remember Israel. They are examples to us. Take heed, and flee from idolatry 9:24-10:22
- 8C. All things are lawful, but not all is beneficial. Be seeking the good of the other 10:23-30
- 9C. Therefore do all to the glory of God. Become blameless to all, imitators of me 10:31-11:1
- 4B. Head coverings for women when prophesying 11:2-16
- 5B. Proper conduct at the Lord's Supper 11:17-34
- 6B. Concerning spiritual gifts 12:1
- 1C. You were led away to the speechless idols. Know then how the Spirit leads 12:2-3
- 2C. Now there are differences of gifts, ministries, and things-worked, given by the one God 12:4-6
- 3C. And the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each for our benefit, as He wills 12:7-11
- 4C. For just as the human body has many body-parts but is one body, so also is Christ 12:12
- 1D. For with one Spirit we were all baptized into one body 12:13
- 2D. For the body is not one body-part, but many, all placed by God 12:14-19
- 3D. And there are many body-parts, but one body, blended together by God 12:20-26
- 4D. And you are the body of Christ and its body-parts. Be zealous for the greater gifts 12:27-31
- 5C. And I show you a way still beyond measure— love. Be pursuing love 12:31-14:1
- 6C. Now be zealous for spiritual gifts, but even more that you might be prophesying 14:1
- 1D. For one speaking in a tongue speaks to God, edifying himself, not the church 14:2-5
- 2D. Now the one prophesying is greater, unless the tongues are interpreted to edify 14:5-12
- 3D. Therefore, let the one speaking in tongues pray to interpret. Otherwise, those hearing will not know what is said, or be edified 14:13-19
- 4D. Brothers, do not be children in your understanding. Be mature. The tongues are for the unbelievers, the prophecy is for the believers 14:20-25
- 5D. What then is to be done, brothers? In church, do all things for edification 14:26-38
- 6D. So then my brothers, be zealous to prophesy, do not forbid tongues, be orderly 14:39-40
- 7B. Now I make known the good news which I announced to you, through which you are saved 15:1-2
- 1C. I delivered to you that Christ died, and was raised, appearing to many 15:3-11
- 2C. How is it some are saying there is no resurrection? If He is not raised, all is empty 15:12-19
- 3C. But He has been raised, the firstfruit. For as in Adam all die, in Christ all are raised 15:20-34
- 4C. How are they raised? Like a seed sown. The natural is sown, the spiritual raised 15:35-49
- 5C. Behold— We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, death conquered 15:50-57
- 6C. So then brothers, abound in the work of the Lord. Your labor is not empty 15:58
- 8B. Concerning the collection for the poor in Jerusalem 16:1-11
- 9B. Concerning Apollos 16:12

- A. Paul, a called apostle of Christ Jesus¹ by the will of God, and Sosthenes² our brother 1
- B. To the church of God being in Corinth,³ to ones having been sanctified⁴ in Christ Jesus, called⁵ saints⁶ 2

- D. I am giving-thanks^B to my⁹ God always for you for the grace^C of God having been given to you in Christ Jesus¹⁰— 4
1. Because¹¹ you were enriched¹² in everything in¹³ Him— in all speech¹⁴ and all knowledge, *even as the testimony^D of Christ¹⁵ was confirmed¹⁶ in you¹⁷ 5-6
- a. So that¹⁸ you are not lacking^E in any gift¹⁹ while eagerly-awaiting^F the revelation^G of our Lord Jesus Christ

- 1B. For it was made-clear^L to me concerning you, my brothers, by the ones of Chloe,³² that there are quarrels³³ among you. *Now I mean^M this— that each of you is saying “I am of Paul”, and “I of Apollos³⁴”, and “I of Cephas³⁵”, and “I of Christ” 11
- 2B. Has³⁶ Christ been divided^N? Paul was not crucified^O for you, was he?³⁷ Or were you baptized^P in³⁸ the name of Paul? 12
- 1C. I give-thanks^B to God³⁹ that I baptized none of you, except Crispus⁴⁰ and Gaius⁴¹, *so that no one may say that you were baptized⁴² in my name! 14-15
- 1D. Now I baptized also the household^Q of Stephanas⁴³. As to the rest⁴⁴, I do not know if I baptized any other 16
- 2C. For Christ did not send me forth^R to be baptizing, but to be announcing-the-good-news^S— not in wisdom^T of speech,⁴⁵ in order that the cross^U of Christ may not be made-empty⁴⁶ 17

1. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {B}. On "called apostle", see Rom 1:1.

- 3E. And God chose the low-born²⁸ things of the world, and the things having been treated-with-contempt²⁹— the things not being³⁰, in order that He might bring-to-nothing³¹ the things being³² 28
- 4E. So that no flesh may boast³³ in the sight of God³⁴ 29
- 5E. But by Him you are in Christ Jesus, Who became wisdom to us from God— both³⁵ righteousness and holiness³⁶, and redemption³⁷—•in order that, just as it has been written [in Jer 9:24], “Let the one boasting be boasting in the Lord” 30 31
- 3C. And I, having come to you, brothers, did not come³⁸ in accordance with superiority³⁹ of speech or of wisdom while proclaiming⁴⁰ to you the mystery⁴¹ of God 31
- 1D. For I determined^Q not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ— and this One having been crucified 32
- 2D. And I was⁴² with you in weakness^R, and in fear^S, and in much trembling⁴³ 33
- 3D. And my speech⁴⁴ and my proclamation⁴⁵ was not in persuasive words⁴⁶ of wisdom, but in demonstration⁴⁷ of the Spirit and power^B, •in order that your faith might not be in the wisdom of humans^M, but in the power of God 34

1. For what follows is what the message of the cross is, by God's definition. To announce it with human wisdom is to empty it of its power to accomplish one or both of these God-intended purposes.
2. Or, the "message, word". Same word as in v 17. That is, the content of the message—Christ crucified, v 23.
3. Such people are on this path. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence. This word is used 90 times of "perishing, being destroyed, lost, ruined" in both an earthly and eternal sense. Elsewhere by Paul only in Rom 2:12; 1 Cor 10:10; 15:18; 2 Cor 2:15; 4:3, 9; 2 Thes 2:10; and as "destroy" in Rom 14:15; 1 Cor 1:19; 8:11; 10:9. GK 660. Related to "destruction" in 2 Pet 2:1.
4. For it is God's plan and intention to show through the gospel the foolishness of human wisdom.
5. Same word as "perishing" in v 18, with different grammar.
6. Or this may be rendered "insight of the insightful, cleverness of the clever, understanding of the understanding". Elsewhere only in Mt 11:25; Lk 10:21; Act 13:7. GK 5305.
7. That is, the scholar, the expert in the Law. GK 1208.
8. Or, "disputer". Used only here. GK 5186. Related to "controversies" in 1 Tim 6:4; "issue" in Act 15:2; and "debate" in Mk 8:11.
9. In the gospel, God acted in deliberate contradiction to human wisdom as a judgment on it. He made it foolish by saving through that foolish proclamation (v 21-25), and by saving ones the world considers foolish (v 26-31).
10. Some manuscripts say "this" world {N}. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected.
11. The first half of this verse tells why God made it foolish, the second half how He did it.
12. Or, "by, by means of", as also later in the verse. GK 1328.
13. Or, "come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
14. Human wisdom did not lead the world to God (as they think), but away from Him (as He declares). Paul expands this in v 22-24.
15. Or, "proclaimed message". That is, the foolishness belonging to the proclamation (from the world's point of view), to the content of the message, to "Christ crucified", v 23. Elsewhere only in Mt 12:41; Mk 16 (short ending); Lk 11:32; Rom 16:25; 1 Cor 2:4; 15:14; 2 Tim 4:17; Tit 1:3. GK 3060. The related verb is in v 23. Note that this "foolishness" is later called God's wisdom, 2:7. Thus God was well pleased to save the ones believing by His wisdom, not the world's wisdom. On God's view of the world's opinion, see 3:19.
16. Some manuscripts say "a sign" {K}.
17. This word means "proclaim as a herald". On this word, see 2 Tim 4:2. Related to "proclamation" in v 21, but not to "proclaim" in 2:1.

28. Or, "base, not-noble, not-well-born", answering to the word "well-born" in v 26. Ones of no family. Used only here. GK 38.

31. Same word as in 2:6.
32. That is, God chose things thought to be worthless, nothing, to void things thought to be of value, important.
33. More literally, "so that all flesh may not boast". On "no flesh", see Mt 24:22. On "boast", see 2 Cor 11:16.
34. Some manuscripts say "His", {N}, so that it says "in His sight".
35. Paul closely links these two terms. Some think there are three parallel concepts, "wisdom..., both righteousness and holiness, and redemption". Others think the last three terms explain "wisdom". Others think the last three terms stand for and detail the unexpressed "power of God" (note v 24).
36. Or, "sanctification". On this word, see Heb 12:14.
37. Some think Paul means our initial redemption at salvation, and that it is placed last for emphasis; others, that it refers to our final redemption. On this word, see Rom 3:24.
38. That is, in Act 18:1.
39. Or, "preeminence, excellence". On this word, see 1 Tim 2:2.

45. Same word as in 1:21. Some think Paul means the content, the message; others, the act of proclamation; others, the form of the message.
46. Some manuscripts omit "words", either leaving it implied, "the persuasive words of wisdom", or meaning "the persuasion of wisdom". Other manuscripts say "persuasive words of human wisdom" {C}.
47. Or, "proof, display". Some think Paul means "from the Spirit and power". His words were spoken "in connection with the demonstration or proof in their hearts proceeding from or given by the Spirit and God's power", rather than in connection with persuasive words proceeding from human wisdom. Others think Paul means his words were spoken "in connection with proof that the Spirit and power were in him". Compare 1 Thes 1:5. Some think miracle working, or miraculous gifts are included here. Used only here. GK 618. Related to "display" in 4:9.

- 4D. But the spiritual²³ person examines all²⁴ things, yet he himself is examined by no one²⁵ 15
- 1E. For “who knew^D the mind^N of the Lord, who will instruct Him?” [Isa 40:13], and we have the mind^N of Christ²⁶ 16
- 5C. And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual^M ones, but as to ones made-of-flesh²⁷, as to infants²⁸ in Christ. *I gave you milk to drink, not²⁹ food^O, for you were not yet able 3:1

2. Same word as in 1:28. Or, "done away with, nullified". On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6.
3. Same word as "But" in v 4, 5, 9, 12, 13. GK 247.
4. Some think Paul means "speaking... in a mystery"; others, "God's wisdom [contained] in a mystery". "Mystery" refers to something hidden in the past, but now revealed by God, that is, the gospel. It is defined in v 7-13; Rom 16:25-26; Eph 3:3-7; Col 1:26-28. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
5. This verb modifies "wisdom", not "mystery". Elsewhere only in Eph 3:9; Col 1:26; Lk 10:21. GK 648. Related to the words in Mk 4:22; Jn 8:59; 1 Cor 4:5.
6. That is, "But this wisdom is", or "But we are speaking" (in both cases, referring back to v 7). Paul is continuing the contrast with what "this age" (v 6) thinks, as exemplified in its rulers (v 6, 8). This could also be placed as point 2D. Others take this as a direct contrast to the rulers and their action described in v 8, making this point 1F. "But it happened just as..."
7. Or, "arise". Same phrase as in Act 7:23; Lk 24:38. GK 326.
8. Instead of "which", some manuscripts say "all that" {N}.
9. Some think Paul is paraphrasing Isa 64:4; others, summarizing several passages. Consult the commentaries. 10. Or, "But, Now". Some manuscripts say "For" {B}.
11. That is, the "hidden wisdom" in the "mystery" (v 7), containing things "predestined" (v 8) and "prepared" (v 9), but unimagined by humans (v 9). Or, "them", the prepared things (v 9), contained in the hidden wisdom (v 7).

16. Or, "not in taught words of human wisdom".
17. Some manuscripts say "Holy Spirit" {N}.
18. This word means "combine, compare, explain". Some think Paul means that spiritual truths or thoughts of God (v 10-11) are combined with the spiritual words given by the Holy Spirit. Others think he means "explaining spiritual things to spiritual people". It is used of Joseph "interpreting" the dream in Gen 40:8. There are other views. Elsewhere only as "compare" in 2 Cor 10:12. GK 5173.
19. This word means "pertaining to the soul", a soul-person, a person limited to the human soul's abilities and perspectives, a non-Christian, the human animal. Jude 19 adds "not having the Spirit". Jam 3:15 combines "earthly, natural, demonic". Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 15:44, 46, of the natural, physical body. GK 6035.
20. Or, "receive, welcome". On this word, see "welcome" in Mt 10:40.

29. Some manuscripts say "and not" {K}.
30. Some manuscripts say "neither" {K}.

32. The contrast is between what the Corinthians "were" (v 1-2), which was appropriate at the time, and what they "are" now, which is no longer appropriate at all.
33. Or, "carnal". This word means "pertaining to the flesh", flesh-people; here, Christians still living like non-Christians; people with the Spirit, living by the flesh. Paul is faulting the Corinthians here. This sense occurs in 2 Cor 1:12; 1 Pet 2:11. Elsewhere only in the sense of "material, physical" in Rom 15:27; 1 Cor 9:11; 2 Cor 10:4. GK 4920. - 3B. Therefore, what¹ is Apollos? And what is Paul?— servants² through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave^A to each³ one 5
- 1C. I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing-growth^B 6
- 1D. So then neither is the one planting anything, nor the one watering, but God causing the growth 7
- 2C. And the one planting and the one watering are one⁴, but each will receive his own reward^C according to his own labor⁵. *For we are God's fellow-workers⁶; you are God's farm, God's building^D 8 9
- 1D. I laid⁷ a foundation^E according-to⁸ the grace of God having been given to me as a wise master-builder⁹, and another is building-upon^F it 10
- 2D. But let each one be watching-out¹⁰ how he builds-upon^F it
- 1E. For no one can lay^G another foundation¹¹ other than the one which is laid¹², which is Jesus Christ 11
- 2E. And if one builds^F gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw upon the¹³ foundation^E, *each one's work will become evident^H 12 13
- 1E. For the day¹⁴ will make it clear¹⁵, because it is revealed^I by fire. And the fire itself¹⁶ will test¹⁷ what-sort^K each one's work is
- 1G. If one's work which he built-upon^F it shall remain¹⁸, he will receive a reward^C 14
- 2G. If one's work shall be burned-up, he will suffer-loss¹⁹. But he himself will be saved^L, yet so as through fire 15
- 3D. Do you not know that you are God's temple²⁰, and the Spirit of God is dwelling^M in you²¹? If anyone ruins²² the temple of God, God will ruin this²³ one. For the temple of God is holy^N— which²⁴ you are! 16 17
- 3C. Let no one be deceiving^O himself. If anyone among you thinks^P that he is wise in this age, let him become foolish, in order that he may become wise. *For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God 18 19
- 1D. For it has been written [in Job 5:13], "He is the One catching the wise in their craftiness²⁵" 20
- 2D. And again [in Ps 94:11], "The Lord knows the thoughts²⁶ of the wise, that they are futile²⁷" 20
- 4C. So then, let no one be boasting^Q in people^R 21
- 1D. For all things are yours— *whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things coming²⁸— all things are yours 22
- 2D. And you are Christ's, and Christ is God's 23
- 5C. Let a person be considering²⁹ us in-this-manner— as attendants³⁰ of Christ, and stewards³¹ of the mysteries^S of God 24 25
- 1D. Here³², furthermore^T, it is sought^U in³³ stewards that one be found faithful³⁴ 26

1. Both here and in the next phrase, some manuscripts say "who" instead of "what" {N}. Some manuscripts reverse the names, Paul first, then Apollos {A}.
2. Or, "ministers", not faction leaders. The root word means "to serve". It is used in the NT of Christ, household servants, ministers/servants of Christ, deacons, and government authorities. 13. Some take this phrase as part of the previous question; others, as a separate sentence, either as an exclamation, or as a question.
14. Same word as in v 1.
15. Same phrase, "so indeed", as in v 4. Paul moves from where to try the case, to the fact that such lawsuits exist at all. Both sides already lost before God before the case is even heard! Some manuscripts omit "so" {C}.
16. Same word as in 5:1.
17. Or, "failure". On this word, see Rom 11:12.
18. Some manuscripts say "among you" {K}.
19. More literally, "For what reason are you not rather being...", both times in this verse. GK 1328.
20. Or, "robbed, deprived", as Christ taught, Mt 5:38-42. The party pressing the lawsuit has been defeated because he did not follow Christ in this matter. It is better to be wronged and defrauded than to have a lawsuit with a brother, even though you are in the right. Same word as in Mk 10:19; 1 Cor 6:8. Elsewhere only as "fraudulently withhold" in Jam 5:4; "deprive" in 1 Cor 7:5; and "rob" in 1 Tim 6:5. GK 691.
21. Though Paul could mean that the party filing the lawsuit was in the wrong and trying to defraud his brother through it, perhaps he is turning to the other party, the one committing the wrong. This party has been defeated by the sin itself. Paul addresses this party in v 9-11.
22. Or, "unrighteous ones", as in v 1. Same root word as "wrong" in v 7 and 8 (see Act 7:24), and rendered this way to show the connection. Used 12 times. GK 96.
23. Or, "catamites". This word was used of men and boys who gave themselves to be kept and used homosexually by older men. Thankfully, modern English has no commonly used word for this practice. GK 3434.
24. That is, an adult male who engages in sex with another male. Made of two words "male-bed". "To have bed" means to have intercourse, as in Rom 9:10. Elsewhere only in 1 Tim 1:10. GK 780.
25. Paul changes from "nor" to "not". Perhaps this is stylistic, or perhaps he highlights these because they describe the issues in Corinth resulting in their lawsuits. Some manuscripts continue to say "nor" in these three cases {N}.
26. Same word as in 5:10, 11. On "reviler" and "drunkard", see 5:11.
27. Or, "you washed away your sins, you washed yourselves". It is not passive, as in "you were washed". Some think Paul is referring to when the Corinthians believed and were baptized. Elsewhere only in Act 22:16, "wash away your sins". GK 666. Related to "washing" in Eph 5:26.
28. Or, "made holy, set apart [to God]". On this word, see Heb 10:29.
29. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
30. Or, "permitted, authorized, right, proper" before God. This phrase is used twice here and in 10:23. Paul probably made this statement to them with reference to the external things formerly commanded to him as a Jew, especially food restrictions (a subject found both here and in 10:23). The Corinthians appear to have misapplied this to the area of sexual behavior, which Paul now corrects. Paul appears to be quoting it as their slogan. Same word as in Mt 12:2, 4, 10, 12; 14:4; 19:3; 20:15; 22:17; 27:6; Mk 2:24, 26; 3:4; 6:18; 10:2; 12:14; Lk 6:2, 4, 9; 14:3; 20:22; Jn 5:10; and with regard to Roman law in Jn 18:31; Act 16:21; 22:25. Elsewhere only as "is permitted" in 2 Cor 12:4; "is permissible" in Act 21:37; and "is proper" in Act 2:29. GK 2003.
31. Or, "useful, profitable, expedient, advantageous, helpful" (brought together for good). Same word as in 10:23; 2 Cor 8:10; 12:1; and as "benefit" in 1 Cor 12:7; Heb 12:10. Elsewhere only as "be profitable" in Act 20:20; "be better" (see Mt 18:6); "be expedient" in Mt 19:10; and "bring together" in Act 19:19. GK 5237. Related to "benefit" in 1 Cor 7:35.
32. Or, "be under the authority or power of". Elsewhere only as "have authority" in Lk 22:25; 1 Cor 7:4. GK 2027. Related to "authority" in Rev 6:8.
33. Some think Paul is again quoting the Corinthians' slogan, which they were applying to sexual matters. "It's only natural", and has no moral or eternal consequence. Others think this is Paul's statement, affirming that this is the purpose for which God created foods, and thus "All things are lawful" is correctly applied to them. They have no other significance, and no place in the next life.
34. Or, "bring to nothing, nullify". God will abolish both the stomach and the foods. On this word, see Rom 6:6.
35. The case of the body is different. It was not made for sex, but for the Lord. And it will not be done away with, but transformed (Phil 3:21), resurrected. It has a permanent place in the next life.
36. Some manuscripts say "raised us up"; others, "raises us up" {B}. "Raise up" (GK 1995) is related to "raise" earlier.
37. Or, "limbs, members of the body". On this word, see Col 3:5.
38. Or, "whore". Elsewhere only in Mt 21:31, 32; Lk 15:30; 1 Cor 6:16; Heb 11:31; Jam 2:25; Rev 17:1, 5, 15, 16; 19:2. GK 4520. Related to the "sexual immorality" word group in 5:1; 5:9; 6:18.

- 1C. Or¹ do you not know that the one joining² himself to a prostitute is one body with her? For He says [in Gen 2:24] “the two will be³ one flesh” 16

1. Some manuscripts omit this word (C).
2. This word means "join, unite, cling to, glue together". It is used of a husband and wife in Mt 19:5; of a believer and the Lord in 1 Cor 6:17; of joining or associating with others in Lk 15:15; Act 5:13; 8:29; 9:26; 10:28; 17:34. Elsewhere only as "cling" in Lk 10:11; Rom 12:9; and in the idiom "reached" in Rev 18:5. GK 3140. Related word in Mk 10:7.
3. Literally, "be for one flesh", a Hebrew way of speaking.
4. Same word as in 10:14 (idolatry); 1 Tim 6:11 (love of money); 2 Tim 2:22 (youthful desires). Used 29 times. GK 5771.
5. All sin proceeds from the heart outwardly (Mt 15:18-20) against the Lord (like idolatry), and usually also against another person (like theft). With sexual immorality, sin is in addition against one's own body. Some do not think Paul intends to imply that only immorality is against the body. It is also true of drugs, drunkenness, gluttony, etc. Others think Paul means sexual sin is different from all other sin, and suggest various senses in which this might be true.
6. Or, "engaging in illicit sex, fornicating". This verb is related to the words in 5:1, 9; 6:15. Elsewhere only in 10:8; Rev 2:14, 20; 17:2; 18:3, 9. GK 4519.
7. More literally, "You are not your own's" or "You are not of yourself". That is, you do not belong to yourself. To those who would say "I can do what I want, because it is my body", Paul says, Not so!
8. Some manuscripts add "and in your spirit, which are God's" {A}.
9. Some manuscripts add "to me" {N}. The Corinthians wrote to Paul about several issues, and he now begins to answer their questions. Some think their questions are behind each B. point through 16:1, and perhaps even the question about Apollos in 16:12. Six of the nine B. points that follow begin with "Now concerning", a phrase Paul uses elsewhere only twice (1 Thes 4:9; 5:1). Others think the lack of "Now concerning" at 11:2 (and the comment in 11:18, and other factors) indicates that Paul returns there to writing proactively (as in chapters 1-6) about issues he heard about from other sources (perhaps the three men mentioned in 16:17). In this case, the B. points beginning at 11:2 would become A. points. Then again, perhaps chapters 11-16 are a mixture of Paul's issues and their questions. In any case, the understanding of each separate section in chapters 7-16 is unaffected by this question. Lacking an explicit indication from Paul that he has finished with their letter, the TransLine continues at the B. level for the rest of the book.
10. Or, "commendable, praiseworthy, advantageous, noble, desirable". Same word as in v 8, 26. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10a.
11. Or, "to take hold of, cling to, have contact with". That is, it is good not to marry. Used 39 times, mostly of touching to heal. Used only here with reference to marriage and sexual contact. It also means "light" a lamp or fire. GK 721.
12. Or, "be having". That is, marry, and have sexually, as this word is used in 5:1. In order to avoid sexual immorality, let these God-created needs be fulfilled in one another.
13. That is, give back what is owed to one another. The physical is in view here, but it is true in all ways. Some manuscripts say "the kindness being due her" {N}. Elsewhere only as "owed" in Rom 13:7; and "debt" in Mt 18:32. GK 4051. The related verb is "ought" in 1 Jn 4:11.
14. Or, "have the right". That is, the authority to refuse or deprive the other of sexual relations. On this word, see "mastered" in 6:12. Related to "right" in 8:9.
15. Used only here. GK 5247. Related to "harmony" in 2 Cor 6:15.
16. This word means "to have time for, have leisure for", have free time to devote to something, and then "give your time to, devote yourself to". Elsewhere only as "unoccupied" in Mt 12:44. GK 5390.
17. Some manuscripts say "for fasting and prayer" {A}.
18. On this word, see "is" in Mt 26:26. Some manuscripts say "come" {N}.
19. On "together", see "at the same place" in Act 2:47.
20. Or, "lack of power over yourself". Elsewhere only in Mt 23:25 as "self-indulgence". GK 202. Related to "without-self-control" in 2 Tim 3:3.
21. Some think Paul is referring to v 2, to marry; others, to v 5, the making of such agreements.
22. Some manuscripts say "For" {B}.
23. That is, single and pure. Paul prefers the single life for reasons he explains in verses 32-35.
24. Both marriage and singleness are a gift from God. On this word, see 1:7.
25. Used of men and women. Elsewhere only in v 11, 32, 34. GK 23.
26. Elsewhere only as "exercises-self-control" in 1 Cor 9:25, of the self-control of athletes. GK 1603. Related to the word in v 5, and to words in Tit 1:8 and 2 Pet 1:6.
27. Same word as in v 10, 28, 33, 34, 36, 39. Used 28 times. GK 1138. Related to "give in marriage" in v 38, and "wedding" in Mt 22:11.
28. That is, with sexual desire. On this word, see 2 Cor 11:29, where Paul uses it of burning with anger or concern.
29. See the Lord's command in Mt 5:31-32; 19:1-12; Mk 10:1-12; Lk 16:18.
30. Whether by separating herself, or by being sent away by the husband. The command applies to both cases. On this word, see Mt 19:6.
31. Or, "abandon, divorce". Used only in v 11, 12, 13 in this sense. On this subject, see Mt 5:31. Same word as Rev 2:4, "left" your first love. This word is used 143 times in the NT, mostly as "to leave, permit, allow" and "to forgive" (see Mt 6:12). GK 918.
32. As seen by what follows, Paul means those in marriages where one partner became a believer. On this word, see "other" in 2 Pet 3:16.
33. That is, Jesus did not address this issue while on earth. Paul has no command from the Lord. Note v 25.
34. Or, "approves". On this word, see "give approval" in Rom 1:32.
35. Some manuscripts say "leave him" {N}.

- 1E. For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified¹ by his wife. And the unbelieving wife has been sanctified by the brother² 14
- 2E. Otherwise then your children are unclean, but now³ they are holy⁴

1. Or, "consecrated, made holy". On this word, see Heb 10:29. Though the marriage is not "in the Lord" (v 39), the marriage and family have been made holy by the presence of the believer. Such a person is consecrated as a husband or wife, not as an individual before God. Rather than being "defiled" by the unbeliever, who is probably an idolater, the believer "sets apart, consecrates" the unbeliever, and the children.
2. Some manuscripts say "husband" {A}. Paul means the "believing husband".
3. Or, "but as it is". On this idiom, see 5:11
4. On this word, see 1 Pet 1:16. Related to "sanctified" earlier.
5. This command refers back to "the unbelieving one", whether the husband or the wife. The subject is rendered "such a one" here instead of "him" (as normal, with reference to both genders) to more clearly bring this out. Paul makes the universal reference he implies here explicit in the next sentence.
6. Or, "in such matters", or relationships. Or, "by such ones" who have departed, the unbelievers. You are "free" (v 39) from that partner to live in peace, not still bound to the deserter and living in turmoil. The "hardness of heart" (Mt 19:8) of the deserter has destroyed the marriage. Move on with the Lord in peace.
7. Some manuscripts say "us" {B}.
8. Note the difference. Stay together because of the positive impact you as a believer will have regardless of whether or not your partner comes to Christ, v 14. But if the unbeliever leaves, let the marriage go and move on, because you do not know if such a one will ever come to Christ and return to the marriage. Thus Paul gives the reason for accepting the dissolution of the marriage caused by the unbelieving partner. Some connect this verse with v 12-13, so that Paul is giving a further reason to stay together. In this case, v 15 becomes point 1F., a parenthesis, and this verse becomes 3E.
9. Having said that the believer is "not enslaved" to human relationships in v 15, Paul now contrasts this statement with the broader view. This is the general principle of Christian living extending beyond marriage to all of life, of which the case in v 15 is an exception. In general, focus on serving Christ in whatever place or status in life He called you, rather than trying to change or escape from your obligations or situation. Allow Him to bring about change from within, through you. Some smooth this idiom as "but, only, however, nevertheless". It normally means "except, unless, if not". In any case, it indicates a contrast with what precedes.
10. Some manuscripts say "God" here, and "the Lord" in the next phrase, reversing them {N}.
11. Or, "divided, distributed, assigned". Some manuscripts say "has apportioned" {N}. Same word as in Rom 12:3, of spiritual gifts, and in 2 Cor 10:13. Elsewhere only as "divided" in Mt 12:25, 26; Mk 3:24, 25, 26; 6:41; Lk 12:13; 1 Cor 1:13; 7:34; Heb 7:2. GK 3532.
12. Or, "commanding, ordering, giving orders". Same word as in Lk 8:55; Act 7:44; 1 Cor 9:14; 16:1; Tit 1:5. Elsewhere only as "give directions to" in Mt 11:1; "order" in Act 18:2; "give orders to" in Act 24:23; "set in order" in 1 Cor 11:34; "arrange" in Act 20:13; and "command" in Lk 3:13; 17:9, 10; Act 23:31; Gal 3:19. GK 1411.
13. Or "pretend he is uncircumcised, mask it". Let the Jewish Christians not seek to undo their Jewish heritage. Used only here. GK 2177. This is a medical term meaning "to pull over the foreskin", used metaphorically here.
14. Some manuscripts say "Was anyone called" {N}, as in the first sentence.
15. Same word as in Mt 22:16; Mk 12:14; Jn 10:13; 12:6; Act 18:17; 1 Cor 9:9; 1 Pet 5:7. Elsewhere only as "care" in Mk 4:38; Lk 10:40. GK 3508.
16. Or, "even, indeed". The grammar means "Assuming that you are able to become free". This word adds one of three nuances to the condition, so that it means assuming that "also", or "even", or "indeed". "If also" is in 2 Cor 11:15. "If even", meaning "even though", is in Mk 14:29; Lk 11:8; 18:4; 2 Cor 4:16; 5:16; 7:8, 12; 11:6; 12:11; Phil 2:17 ("if even"); Col 2:5; Heb 6:9. "If indeed" is in Lk 11:18; 1 Cor 4:7; 2 Cor 4:3. A related idiom is used in Phil 3:12; 1 Pet 3:14.
17. All three nuances mentioned in the note above are advocated here, since Paul does not state what it is these slaves are to make use of. Some think he means "Assuming that you also (while not being concerned about it, but serving where the Lord called you) are able to become free, rather make use of this opportunity", making this a parenthetical softening of "not a concern". Others think he means "Assuming that you indeed are able to become free, rather make use of your new freedom", so that in this verse he addresses both slave and free, as in v 18 he addressed both circumcised and uncircumcised. Others think he means "Assuming you even are able to become free, rather make use of your present state", heightening the exhortation to serve Christ now. Do not wait until you are free to serve Him.
18. Some manuscripts say "Likewise also" {N}.
19. Same sentence as in 6:20.
20. Some think Paul means "do not sell yourself as a slave". Others think he means "do not become slaves of the opinions of others regarding your status as slave or free", including this with v 22 in the parallel to v 19.
21. That is, unmarried females usually, but sometimes males (as in English). Here, some think Paul means females, as in the other uses of this word in this context (v 28, 34, 36, 37, 38. In these cases, the grammar is clear. Here in v 25, it is not specific). Others think he means both, because what follows is specifically applied to both, v 26-28, 32-34. In any case, what should they and their families do about past commitments to arranged marriages, or about future marriages? Marriages were arranged by the parents, and commitments were made between families and individuals. Should they cancel or honor them? Should their child go ahead and marry? For example, what should two people in the status of Joseph and Mary do, Mt 1:18-19. During this status, which could last a year, the still virgin couple continued to live with their respective parents, but they were considered to be man and wife, based on the commitments made by the families. On this word, see Rev 14:4.
22. Or, "judgment". Same word as in v 40. On this word, see "purpose" in 1:10.

1. That is, the status of being a virgin and unmarried mentioned in v 25.
2. This is a participle, "having come, being present". On this word, see Heb 9:9.
3. Or, "constraint, pressure, compulsion", and then a "distress, calamity" caused by external necessities or forces. Paul's advice is given in view of some unusual circumstance, perhaps a persecution or a famine. Same word as in Mt 18:7; Lk 14:18; Rom 13:5; 1 Cor 7:37; 9:16; Heb 7:12, 27; 9:16, 23; Jude 3. Elsewhere only as "compulsion" in 2 Cor 9:7; Phm 14; "constraint" in 2 Cor 6:4; 12:10; and "distress" in Lk 21:23; 1 Thes 3:7. GK 340.
4. More literally, "that the being so is good for a person". Some think Paul means "the being a virgin, unmarried" (v 25), this phrase clarifying and emphasizing the previous one. Others think he means "that it is good for a person to be as-follows" (as this word is used in Mt 1:18; Rom 10:6; Rev 9:17; etc. GK 4048). Others take this to mean "to be as he is", so that it was broad enough to include the unmarried and married in what follows.
5. Some think Paul is referring to the agreements or arrangements for marriage previously made by their families. This view renders the next word "woman". Others think he means bound in marriage, as this word is used in 7:39; Rom 7:2. This view renders the next word "wife". Used 43 times as "bind, tie". GK 1313.
6. Used three times in this verse, this word means either "woman" or "wife", based on the context. It is used 215 times in the NT. GK 1222.
7. Or, "an unbinding, untying, a loosing". That is, a release from a pledge or obligation. Some think Paul means "Do not seek a release from your commitment to marry. Do not break your commitments"; others, "Do not seek a divorce", as in v 10-11. Used only here. GK 3386. Related to the next word.
8. Or, "unbound, untied, loosed". Used 42 times in the NT, but only here with regard to a man-woman relationship. Those who take the first view of the previous word give this related word the same meaning, "released" from a commitment to marry. Those who take the previous word to mean "divorce" give this word a different meaning, such as "freed from the marriage bond" by any circumstance; or, more broadly, "unmarried" (including those never married). On this word, see "break" in Mt 5:19.
9. If you take the next step and marry, you have not sinned. Paul states this for both parties. "You" is the male.
10. Some manuscripts say "a virgin" {N}.
11. That is, Paul is trying to spare the young couples from the problems they will have caused by the "present necessity" (v 26).
12. That is, the time remaining in one's life to serve Christ before one dies, or He comes.
13. Or, "drawn in, compressed". This is a participle, "is having been shortened", is in a state of shortness. Elsewhere only as "wrapped up" in Act 5:6, of a dead body. GK 5366.
14. Or, "retaining". Compare 2 Cor 6:10. On this word, see "hold down" in Rom 1:18.
15. Or, "using". Same word as in 7:21; 9:12, 15. Elsewhere only as "use" in Act 27:17; 2 Cor 3:12; 1 Tim 1:8; 5:23; "act" in 2 Cor 1:17; 13:10; and "treat" in Act 27:3. GK 5968. Related to "make full use" next.
16. This verse speaks of an internal separation from this world that is reflected in actions. Same word as in 9:18, where Paul does this. Some give this word a negative flavor, "abuse".
17. On this word, see "outward appearance" in Phil 2:7. The present form of this world is passing away.
18. Or, "without a care". Elsewhere only in Mt 28:14. GK 291.
19. Paul is not saying marriage is bad. But in view of the "present necessity", it may be unwise. Some manuscripts say "and he has been divided. And the unmarried woman and the unmarried virgin...". Others say "and the woman has been divided. And the unmarried virgin...". Others say "The wife and the unmarried virgin have also been divided. She is concerned..." {D}.
20. That is, the widow (v 39-40), the abandoned or divorced (v 15).
21. That is, that the unmarried should remain so.
22. Or, "profit, advantage". Elsewhere only in 10:33. GK 5239. Related to "beneficial" in 6:12.
23. Or, "a slip knot", a rope used as a lasso, a snare, or a restraint, a halter. A choke chain. That is, not to try to restrain or control you. Used only here. GK 1105.
24. Or, "what is proper, appropriate, decent, becoming, presentable". The word means "of good form, elegant, graceful". Same word as "presentable" in 12:24. GK 2363. Related to "properly" in 14:40.
25. Or, "service, constant waiting upon, attending to". Used only here. GK 2339. Related to "serve" in 9:13.
26. Used only here. GK 597. This adverb is related to "distracted" in Lk 10:40.
27. In v 36-38, some think Paul is addressing the father of a daughter of marriageable age; others, a groom betrothed or engaged to a girl. Consult the commentaries on these and other views.
28. Or, "improperly, disgracefully, indecently", the opposite of "good order" in v 35. Such would be the father's position if he acted against his daughter's will and needs (v 7, 9) and did not permit her to wed (it was his decision to make in that day). He would be dishonoring himself, and placing her in danger of temptation and disgrace. Those who think Paul is referring to the groom take this to mean "if the man is unable to control his passions". Elsewhere only in 13:5. GK 858.
29. Those who think this refers to the groom supply "fiancee".
30. That is, of marriageable age, past full physical development. Those who think Paul is referring to the groom think he means "if she is beyond her prime", that is, getting old; or, "if he is of strong passions" and needs to marry her. Used only here. GK 5644.
31. Or, "become". GK 1181.
32. That is, if the marriage is right and ought to take place, all things considered; if the father feels it is his duty to permit his daughter to marry, all things considered.
33. That is, the father making this decision. In the other view, this refers to the groom.
34. That is, believing it is best for his daughter to remain single as Paul said, in spite of the cultural pressure against this decision. In this case, the father is certain that this is the honorable choice in his daughter's case, all things considered. In the other view, this refers to the groom's resolve to remain single.
35. Or, "constraint, obligation, compulsion". Same word as in v 26. Outside forces, including his daughter's desires and needs, are not compelling the father to do otherwise. Nothing is compelling him to act against his best judgment. In the other view, this means that the groom's sexual passions are not forcing him to marry.

2E. And has authority¹ concerning² his own will

3E. And has determined^A this in his own heart— to keep³ his virgin daughter

4E. He will do well⁴

3D. So then, both the one giving his virgin *daughter*⁵ in marriage is doing well, and⁶ the one not giving-in-marriage⁷ will do⁸ better⁹ 38

5C. A wife has been bound⁹ for as much time as her husband lives 39

1D. But if her husband falls-asleep¹⁰, she is free^C to be married to whom she wishes^D— only in the Lord

2D. But she is happier¹¹ if she remains^E thus¹², according to my opinion^F— and I also think that I have the Spirit of God 40

3B. Now concerning the foods-sacrificed-to-idols¹³ 8:1

1C. We know that we all have knowledge¹⁴

1D. Knowledge puffs-up^G, but love builds-up^H

2D. If¹⁵ anyone thinks^I that he has come-to-know¹⁶ anything, he did not-yet know¹⁷ as he ought-to¹⁸ know.¹⁹ *But if one loves^K God, this one has been known by Him²⁰ 2

2C. Therefore concerning the eating of the foods-sacrificed-to-idols— we know^L that an idol is nothing²¹ in the world, and that there is no²² God except one 4

1D. For even if-indeed²³ there are ones being called^M gods, whether in heaven or on earth— as-indeed there are many gods and many lords²⁴—*yet for us there is 5

1E. One God the Father, from Whom are all things. And we *are*²⁵ for Him 6

2E. And one Lord Jesus Christ, through Whom are all things. And we are through Him

3C. But this knowledge is not in all people 7

1D. But some, by the accustomed-habit²⁶ of the idol until now, eat this food as food-sacrificed-to-an-idol.²⁷ And their conscience^N, being weak^O, is stained²⁸

4C. But food^P will not bring us²⁹ near³⁰ to God— neither³¹ if we do not eat are we lacking³², nor if we eat are we abounding³³ 8

1. Or, "power, freedom to act". That is, the father has the freedom and resources to do what he wants to do. Nothing is preventing him from doing as he thinks best. For example, a father who was a slave would not have this authority. In the other view, this means that the groom has power over his own passions, a positive restatement of the previous phrase. On this word, see Rev 6:8.
2. Or, "in relation to, with regard to". GK 4309.
3. That is, to keep her as she is, unmarried: to keep his daughter in his household and support her so that she can serve the Lord undistractedly, v 35. Those who think Paul is referring to the groom think he means "to keep his virgin fiancée in that status" or "to keep his virgin fiancée a virgin", implying either "to not marry her" or "to delay marrying her".
4. That is, he will be doing a good or commendable thing. On this idiom, see Act 10:33. Some manuscripts say "he does well" {K}.
5. Some manuscripts omit "his virgin daughter" {N}.
6. Some manuscripts say "but" {K}.
7. Used twice in this verse, this word (GK 1139) is elsewhere only in Mt 22:30; 24:38; Mk 12:25; Lk 17:27; 20:35; all in the phrase "marry and give-in-marriage", where the word "marry" is the word in 1 Cor 7: 9. Here, those who think Paul is referring to the groom in v 36-38 take this word to mean the same thing as "marry" in 7:9. Related word in Lk 20:34. Some manuscripts say "give out in marriage" both times in this verse {N}, the word also being a variant for this word in Mt 22:30; 24:38; Lk 17:27; 20:35.
8. Some manuscripts say "does" {K}.
9. Same word as in v 27. Some manuscripts add "by the Law" {N}.
10. That is, dies. Same word as 15:6, 18, 20, 51. On this word, see 1 Thes 4:13.
11. Or, "more blessed, more fortunate". On this word, see "blessed" in Lk 6:20.
12. That is, single, so that she can serve undistractedly, v 35. However, outside of this "present necessity" (v 26), Paul advises younger widows to remarry, 1 Tim 5:11-15.
13. That is, the eating of meat or foods that had been previously offered as a sacrifice to an idol. Part was burned on the altar to the deity, part was eaten at a meal in the idol's temple, and part was sold in the meat market. As unbelievers, it was the Corinthians' custom to buy and eat this meat (v 7), but now they have become concerned about it in view of their commitment to Christ. Elsewhere only in Act 15:29; 21:25; 1 Cor 8:4, 7, 10; 10:19; Rev 2:14, 20. GK 1628.
14. Some think Paul is referring to a claim the Corinthians made about themselves in their letter to him. He corrects the spirit of it, in light of the fact of v 7.
15. Some manuscripts say "And if" {N}.
16. Or, "has known". Same word as "know" and "known" next, on which see "know" in Lk 1:34. Some manuscripts say "knows" {N}.
17. Some manuscripts say "he has not yet known" {K}. Some manuscripts add "anything" {N}, so that it says "not yet know anything".
18. Or, "as it is necessary" to know. On this idiom, see Act 25:10.
19. The knowledge we all have (v 1) is at best a partial (13:9), dim reflection (13:12). It never fully attains.
20. That is, assuming that you love God, you are known by God, because the love you have is from God, 1 Jn 4:7. Love defines our relationship to God and His family, not knowledge. Knowledge proves nothing, for even the demons know Him (Jam 2:19). Love shows that a relationship has been established.
21. Or, "that there is no idol", that is, no genuine representation of any god.
22. Some manuscripts add "other" {N}.
23. That is, even if there are many called gods, as is the case, yet for us there is one God. On this word, see "since" in Rom 8:9.
24. Paul later calls them "demons", 10:20.
25. Or, "exist, live". Same idea in the second statement in this verse.
26. Or, "custom, habitual use, the being accustomed to a thing". Same word as "custom" in 11:16. Some manuscripts instead have the word used later in the verse, "conscience, consciousness" {A}.
27. Such people eat the food as if the "sacrifice", the "eating", and the "idol" still carried their old meanings. They have not yet escaped the former mental associations.
28. Or, "dirtied, soiled, defiled". Elsewhere only in Rev 3:4; 14:4. GK 3662. Related to "stain" in 2 Cor 7:1. Such people have a dirty conscience because they suspect (incorrectly) that eating these idol-sacrifices is an offense to God.
29. That is, us having knowledge, whose choices are the focus of the entire discussion in chapters 8-10. Paul is correcting a false estimation of the spiritual significance of eating or not eating that the strong might hold, and even proclaim to the weak—that they gain spiritually by exercising this freedom, or lose by restricting it. Verse 8 is also true for the weak ones in v 7, but it does not address their case. They would say the opposite of v 8—that they are better not to eat, and worse if they eat.
30. Or, "present us". This word, "bring near", is the same word as "present" in Rom 12:1. Some manuscripts say "does not bring near" {N}. Some think Paul means "present us to our advantage, bring us near", based on the context. When food is spiritually considered, we lack no advantage if we do not eat, and we gain none if we do eat. But the word itself is neutral, and others prefer a neutral meaning here, "present". When food is physically considered, it does not "present" us to God for either reward or judgment. It has neither a positive nor a negative effect on us before God. Compare Rom 14:17.
31. Note the precision of Paul's statement. He does not say "eating or not eating is neither good nor bad". He says not eating causes no lack, eating no gain. This is true for both strong and weak; both directly for themselves, and indirectly for themselves through its effect on others. However, not eating can bring reward, and eating can bring loss. This is true for the weak (directly, as seen in v 7, 10-11) and the strong (indirectly, the loss being seen in v 9, 12, the gain beginning in v 13). Note that it is this side of things, the indirect effects of the behavior of the strong on others and on themselves, that Paul turns to and develops beginning in 8:9. Some manuscripts say "For neither" {N}.
32. Or, "are we in need". That is, before God. On this word, see "be in need" in Lk 15:14.
33. Some manuscripts invert the order of these two clauses, putting "if we eat... abounding" first {N}. On this word, see 2 Cor 8:2.

- 5C. But be watching-out^A that this right¹ of yours does not somehow become an opportunity-for-stumbling² to the weak³ ones 9
- 1D. For if someone sees you— the one having knowledge⁴— reclining⁵ [to eat] in an idol-temple, will not his conscience^B, being weak^C, be built-up⁶ so as to eat the foods-sacrificed-to-idols? 10
- 1E. For⁷ the one being weak⁸ is being destroyed⁹ by your knowledge— the brother^D for the sake of whom Christ died! 11
- 2E. And in this manner sinning^E against the brothers and striking¹⁰ their conscience^B while being weak^F, you are sinning against Christ 12
- 6C. For-this-very-reason¹¹, if food^G causes my brother to fall, I will never eat meats, ever¹²— in-order-that¹³ I may not cause my brother to fall¹⁴ 13

- 2E. I am not speaking these things according to [mere] human^T *thinking*²⁸, am I? Or does not the Law also say these things?²⁹ ^{*}For in the Law of Moses it has been written [in Deut 25:4], “You shall not muzzle a threshing ox” 8 9

- 3E. Indeed³² it was written for our sake— because³³ the one plowing ought^V to plow on the basis of hope^W, and the one threshing to thresh on the basis of hope that he might partake³⁴ 11

- 4E. If others partake of this right over you³⁶, should we not more? 12

1. Or, "authority, power", the "right" to eat this food. Same word as in 9:4, 5, 6, 12, 18; Jn 1:12; 2 Thes 3:9; Heb 13:10; Rev 22:14. Elsewhere only as "authority", 91 times (see Rcv 6:8). Knowledge brings a power, a freedom to act. But do not allow your actions to cause unintended harm to those who do not have your knowledge. Freedom is bounded by love of God and our neighbor.
2. On this word, see Rom 14:13. It refers to an accidental cause of someone else stumbling or taking a misstep.
3. The weak here are those with a weak conscience (v 7), who follow the strong believer's example and then have a dirty conscience about it. Their knowledge of God's truth is not sufficient to support their acting this way. On this word, see 1 Thes 5:14. Some manuscripts say "the ones being weak" {K}.
4. Note Paul does not say "the strong one". Whether this person is "strong" will depend on how he or she uses their knowledge.
5. People in that day laid down to eat. Though not the subject here, later Paul addresses the question of whether the stronger brother should be doing this at all, 10:14-22. There he says it is wrong to do so.
6. Or, "established, strengthened". The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. Same word as in 8:1.
7. Some manuscripts say "And"; others, "Therefore" {N}.
8. Some manuscripts say "the brother being weak" {K}.
9. Or, "ruined". On this word, see "perish" in 1:18. Some manuscripts say "will perish" {N}.
10. Or, "assaulting", and thus "wounding". On this word, see Lk 6:29.
11. That is, to not be a cause of stumbling (v 9), and thus sin against Christ (v 12). Elsewhere only in 10:14. GK 1478.
12. On this idiom, "never... ever", see Jn 4:14.
13. Or, "so that I will not cause". GK 2671.
14. Note that this is a negative reason for doing this—so that others are not caught in a trap that hinders them from further spiritual growth or damages their spiritual life. Such causes of falling will come (Mt 18:7), but Paul acts so as not to unnecessarily become one by his own personal choices. The positive reason is given in 9:24. This word means "cause to fall, be caught, be trapped; to take offense; to give offense". Jesus said it is better to die than to do this, Mt 18:6. Same word as in Mt 5:29, 30; 13:21; 18:6, 8, 9; 24:10; 26:31, 33; Mk 4:17, 9:42, 43, 45, 47; 14:27, 29; Lk 17:2; Jn 16:1; 2 Cor 11:29. Elsewhere only as "take offense" in Mt 11:6; 13:57; 15:12; Mk 6:3; Lk 7:23; and "offend" in Mt 17:27; Jn 6:61. GK 4997. On the related noun, see Rom 11:9.
15. Paul now uses himself (in foregoing his right to financial support) as an example of choosing not to use one's rights for the good of the progress of the gospel, so as to justify the bold statement in 8:13.
16. That is, Paul's behavioral decisions are not based on the opinions of others. He is free to eat meat. The choice to not do so is his free choice, made not because someone disapproves of the meat, but because he is seeking something greater than meat. He returns to this in v 19. On this word, see Mt 17:26. Some manuscripts reverse these two questions, putting "apostle" first {N}.
17. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {K}.
18. Paul's point in saying this is to prove that he has certain rights because of his status, calling, and work. Specifically, he has certain rights over the Corinthians, because he is an apostle to them, one being the right to financial support, which he proves in v 4-12. Note that v 1-14 are aimed at proving he has the right which he gives up in v 12, 15.
19. Some think this is a parenthetical comment regarding the defense of Paul's apostleship, a matter he does not discuss further here. In this case, "this" looks back to "you are the seal". Others think he means his defense regarding the strong statement in 8:13; that is, regarding his call to place a voluntary restriction on our "rights" for the good of other believers. In this case, "this" looks forward to what follows, and verse 2 is parenthetical. This sentence would begin point 2D., "This is my defense to the ones examining me—".
20. Note that Paul's first argument (v 4-12), is negative. Surely we are not excluded from this right, are we? His conclusion in v 12 is that he did not make use of this right from which he was not excluded. Compare v 13-14.
21. That is, to eat and drink from you, at your expense, to sustain ourselves through our work in the Lord. On the grammar of this and the next question, see Rom 10:18. More literally, "we do not not have the right..., do we?" or "It is not that we do not have the right, is it?" You would not say Barnabas and I do not have the right, would you? We are not excluded from the rights all others have, are we? The grammar expects a "no" answer.
22. That is, a fellow believer, a spiritual sister, as also in Mt 12:50; Rom 16:1; 1 Cor 7:15. Used also of physical sisters, as in Lk 10:39. Used 26 times. GK 80. Compare "brother" in Act 16:40.
23. The grammar expects a "no" answer. Barnabas and I have the right to take with us on our journeys a wife who is a believer at the church's expense. On this idiom, see "a man who was" in Lk 24:19.
24. On the brothers and sisters of the Lord, see Mt 13:55-56.
25. That is, Peter. On this name, see Gal 1:18.
26. The first two questions say "If all others have this right, we are not excluded, are we?" Now Paul says the reverse, "Even if all others are excluded from this right over you, do not we alone have it?"
27. That is, not to work outside the ministry—at tentmaking—to support ourselves in our ministry to you. The grammar implies "Surely we have the right not to work, do we not?", and expects a "yes" answer.
28. Or, "according to mankind". That is, based merely on the authority of the human illustrations just given. The grammar expects a "no" answer. Paul is speaking in accordance with God's Law.
29. The grammar expects a "yes" answer.
30. More literally, "It is not a concern to God about the oxen, is it?" Not muzzling the ox allowed it to eat the grain while it was threshing it. The grammar expects a "no" answer. That is, God is not concerned about how the animal is fed. The law was given for the Israelites' benefit, to teach them a lesson. The ox would be fed with or without this law. Whether it is before, during, or after threshing is not the real concern of God.
31. Or, "certainly, by all means". Same word as in Lk 4:23; Act 21:22; 28:4; and as "by all means" in 1 Cor 9:22. Elsewhere only with a negative as "not at all" (surely not) in Rom 3:9; 1 Cor 5:10; 16:12. GK 4122.
32. Or, "For". Paul uses this word to assert his answer. GK 1142.
33. Or, "that", so that it says "[meaning] that the one plowing...".
34. Same word as in v 12, on which see Heb 2:14. Some manuscripts say instead "hope, and the one threshing in hope ought to partake of his hope" {N}.
35. Or, "material". Similar statement in Rom 15:27. On this word, see 1 Cor 3:3. Paul commands this in Gal 6:6.
36. That is, the right to financial support in view in this section.

1. Having proven that he cannot be denied this right, this is Paul's conclusion. He chose not to exercise this right, so as not to hinder the gospel. The Corinthians also should forego rights that no one would ever deny are theirs, for the sake of the weaker brother, and the gospel.
2. Or, "enduring". On this word, see 13:7, "love bears all things".
3. Or, "so that we will not give". GK 2671.
4. Used only here. GK 1600. Related to "hindered" in Gal 5:7.
5. Now Paul makes his point even stronger. Having said that he did not make use of a right from which he was not excluded, he now says he did not and will not make use of the right which he was specifically commanded by the Lord, v 13-18
6. Or, "sacred services or things". On this word, see "sacred" in 2 Tim 3:15. Related to "temple", "priest".
7. Some manuscripts omit "the things" {C}, so that it says "eat from the temple". The Jewish priests ate portions of some sacrifices.
8. On this word, see 7:17. See Mt 10:10; Lk 10:7 on the command.
9. Even though Jesus commanded it. So also you should forego rights given to you in Scripture by God—rights based on knowledge of the truth—for the weaker brother, based on love.
10. Or, "in me, in connection with me". GK 1877.
11. This idiom occurs ten other times, six meaning "rather than", four meaning "more than". Paul breaks off this thought, and with emotion, gives an exclamation. Some manuscripts say "rather than that anyone should make my boast empty" {B}.
12. That is, the thing Paul boasts about. No one will empty his boast of its content. Paul did he not make use of his right to financial support, and this sacrifice of his right is a personal matter of boasting for him which he would rather die than give up. On this word, also in v 16, see Phil 1:26.
13. Paul would lose his matter of boasting if he accepted their financial support, for he cannot boast that he announces the gospel, only in how he does so sacrificially. Broadly stated, there is no boast in receiving my due, in utilizing my rights, while doing my duty. The boast is in not doing so while doing my duty.
14. That is, "If I carry out my ministry", "If I fulfill what Jesus called me to do". On this word, see Act 5:42.
15. Paul has no boast because he has no choice in the matter. It is not optional. He must preach the gospel.
16. Or, "a constraint, a compulsion". On this word, see 7:26.
17. Or, "is laid upon, is imposed upon, is pressing upon". On this word, see "pressing upon" in Lk 23:23. Jesus stopped Paul on the road and assigned (Act 22:10) him this task. It is his duty and obligation to his Master. It is his destiny. It is not a freely chosen act of service. He must do it, or suffer woe. Of course, it is also his joy and passion.
18. Paul distinguishes between two scenarios of "announcing the gospel". Only one has reward for him.
19. That is, announcing the gospel.
20. On this word, see "willingly" in Rom 8:20. The related word is used next (GK 220). They may also be rendered "willingly...unwillingly, voluntarily...not voluntarily". The idea here is "by my own choice".
21. Or, "recompense, wage, compensation". Some think Paul means that if he by his own choice had taken up this ministry of announcing the gospel, he would have the reward due him for it (whether a reward by God; or financial support from those he serves; or a reward from the task itself). But this is not the case for him. It was a necessity, a stewardship, laid on him. In this case, this point would be 3G., another reason it is not a boast for him. He does not have this ministry in reward mode, but in stewardship mode. Others think he means that if he performs his assigned ministry in a way that in addition reflects his own willing devotion—as he is doing by not accepting support—then he has a reward from God. In this case, he is positively stating the means by which he can have a reward for his work. There are other views of this and the flow of v 15-18. Consult the commentaries. On this word, see "recompense" in Rev 22:12.
22. That is, a position of management responsibility. Paul uses the word "stewardship" of his ministry again in Eph 3:2; Col 1:25. On this word, see Eph 1:10. A steward was a slave assigned a management task by his master. The task was the master's choice and assignment, not the steward's. The steward's task was to be faithful, 1 Cor 4:2. He had no boast in doing what he was obligated to do, Lk 17:10. Paul means that if he did not take up this ministry by his own choice or add an element to it of his own choice (depending on the meaning of the first phrase), he nevertheless must still perform it, for it is a task, a necessity, a responsibility laid upon him as a steward.
23. That is, for announcing the gospel, carrying out my assigned ministry (v 16), since it is not in the doing of it.
24. Some manuscripts add "of Christ" {N}.
25. Or, "without charge". Used only here. GK 78. Related to "cost" in Lk 14:28 (GK 1252).
26. Elsewhere only in 7:31. GK 2974. Related to "make use of" in v 12, 15.
27. Or, "in connection with". GK 1877.
28. Paul's reward for doing his duty is to accept no human reward or wage, even though it is his right to receive it. His reward is to sacrifice it, to share Christ's sufferings, Phil 3:10. This is a reward to Paul because by carrying out his ministry this way—and doing so purely out of devotion, not any kind of obligation to anyone—he earns the opportunity to boast in how he did what was laid upon him to do, a boast he will not allow them to make empty. So also you, by choosing to give up your rights for the weaker brother, you can earn the ability to boast in your choices.
29. Concluding his justification of his bold statement in 8:13, Paul now expands beyond the pay illustration to a general principle. He does all things for the sake of the gospel, and so should the Corinthians.
30. Paul again emphasizes this point made in 9:1. He makes his sacrifices freely, by choice, not obligation or law. Same word as in 9:1.
31. This is a broader group than "Jews", including proselytes and God-fearers. On this word, see Rom 7:21.
32. Note Gal 2:19-20. Some manuscripts omit "not being myself under the Law" {A}.
33. That is, living outside the Law. This refers to Gentiles, as opposed to those living under the Law, v 20. The same word is used four times in this verse. Elsewhere only as "lawless" in Lk 22:37; Act 2:23; 2 Thes 2:8; 1 Tim 1:9; 2 Pet 2:8. GK 491.
34. Some manuscripts say "to God", and "to Christ" next {N}.
35. This word means "within the law, legal, under the law, lawful, subject to the law". Elsewhere only as "lawful" in Act 19:39. GK 1937.
36. Some manuscripts say "I became to the weak ones as weak" {N}.
37. This is what Paul said in 8:13, and it is the goal of this exhortation to the Corinthians.
38. Paul gives up all personal liberties and rights for the progress of the gospel among all people.

1. Some manuscripts say "this" instead of "all things" {N}.
2. That is, one assisting in the advance of it. On this word, see Phil 1:7.
3. Paul just said in 8:13-9:23 that the Corinthians should limit their freedom so that they do not cause their brother to stumble or hinder the gospel—that is, for the good of others. Now he says they should do this so that they might lay hold of their own personal reward, and not lose any reward they already have—that is, for their own good.
4. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
5. Elsewhere only in Phil 3:14, the goal Paul aims at. GK 1092. See also Heb 12:1-2.
6. Some think this looks back. Run like the athlete who wins the prize in order that you might lay hold of your prize; run like a winner. Others think it looks forward. Run in such a way that you lay hold of the prize; run to win.
7. That is, that you may earn it, and keep it.
8. Or, "striving, contending [for a prize]". On this word, see "struggle" in 1 Tim 4:10.
9. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
10. This word, "well then, hence, therefore, so indeed" is elsewhere only in Heb 13:13; and as "well then" in Lk 20:25. GK 5523.
11. Or, "uncertainly, unknowingly"—like eating without any thought of the impact on others. Used only here. GK 85. Related to "uncertain" in 1 Cor 14:8; and "uncertainly" in 1 Tim 6:17.
12. Or, "give a black eye to, beat black and blue, treat severely". On this word, see "wear out" in Lk 18:5.
13. Or, "subjugate it". Used only here. GK 1524.
14. Or, "rejected after testing, disqualified" for the prize, "failing to meet the test". Elsewhere only in Rom 1:28; 2 Cor 13:5, 6, 7; 2 Tim 3:8; Tit 1:16; Heb 6:8. GK 99. See the positive word, "approved" in 2 Tim 2:15. That is, that I may receive and keep my reward. The idea is that Paul does not want to run the race and then be disqualified and forfeit the prize due to some rule violation. In context, the danger for the Corinthians is that they might run the race and seem to win a reward based on their knowledge and effort, but then lose the reward because of the harm they caused their fellow believers through lack of love in matters such as eating meat offered to idols, or in falling into idolatry (10:14).
15. A fall into disapproval is not theoretical. It happened to Israel. God disciplines those who do not obey him. Paul is the positive example, Israel the negative. Israel did not exercise self-control and run for the prize as Paul did.
16. See Ex 13:21.
17. On this word, see Mk 1:8. Some manuscripts say "baptized themselves", "had themselves baptized" {C}.
18. Same word as twice in v 4. On this word, see 14:1. That is, the physical manna they ate was spiritual in origin, coming to the Israelites from God.
19. That is, the water they drank was spiritual in origin, because it was provided by God, as described next.
20. Note that this word is here applied to the source of the water, not the water itself as previously. Paul could mean that the physical rock following them (based on Jewish tradition) was spiritual in origin; that is, from the realm of God. Or, he may be referring to the nature of the rock. It was a spiritual, supernatural, invisible rock; that is, Christ Himself.
21. Some think Paul is agreeing with a Jewish tradition that a physical rock giving water followed the Israelites, and is identifying that rock as Christ. Others think he is saying Christ was the source of water following them, not any physical rock, correcting the tradition. Compare Ex 17:6; Num 20:8.
22. Or, "spread out, strewn about". That is, killed and left. Used only here. GK 2954. Same word as in Num 14:16 (killed, slaughtered). All but two were "disapproved", v 27.
23. Or, "ones who desire". This noun is used only here. GK 2122. Related to "desired" next.
24. Or, "be becoming". GK 1181.
25. Num 25:9 says 24,000. Paul gives a correct, approximate number.
26. Some manuscripts say "the Lord"; others, "God" {B}.
27. On "put to the test", see Mt 4:7. Related to "tested" next.
28. Some manuscripts add "also" {K}.
29. Same word as "being destroyed" in v 9, with different grammar. On this word, see 1:18.
30. Used only here. GK 3904. Related to the verb in Heb 11:28. Not related to "perished" earlier.
31. That is, the consequences of sin just described. Some manuscripts say "all these things" {B}.
32. On this word, see Rom 10:4. Related to "conclusion" in Heb 9:26.
33. Or, "arrived, reached". The preceding ages ended in Christ. Christ begins a new age. On this word, see "attain" in Act 26:7.
34. Now Paul applies these examples to the Corinthians.
35. Such a person supposes he stands based on his knowledge, but he may be falling into sin, as Israel did. On this word, see Lk 19:11.
36. That is, fall into sin and "become disapproved" (9:27), and lose one's reward. Same word as in v 8, on which see Rom 11:11.
37. Or, "trial, testing". The testing or temptation in this context is in regard to meat offered to idols—with reference to both loving the weaker brother and idolatry, as seen next. Some think v 13 is an encouragement, "You need not fall. Your temptations are not unique, and do not exceed your strength. God will show you the way out". Others think it is a warning, "You have only had common human temptations up to now. Worse is coming, but God will help you". On this word, see "trials" in Jam 1:2.
38. Or, "taken". This common word meaning "to take, to receive" is used 258 times. GK 3284.
39. Or, "human". Elsewhere only as "human" in Act 17:25; Rom 6:19; 1 Cor 2:13; 4:3; Jam 3:7; 1 Pet 2:13. GK 474.

42. Or, "bear up under". Same word as in 2 Tim 3:11, of persecution. Elsewhere only as "bear up" in 1 Pet 2:19, of unjust treatment. GK 5722.
43. That is, that you may not fall while thinking you stand, v 12. Same word as 8:13.
44. Paul now applies this to eating in idols' temples, an issue mentioned but not addressed in 8:10. Your knowledge in which you stand will cause you to fall if you think you can do this and not arouse the jealousy of God.

1. Or, "sensible". On this word, see Mt 7:24.
2. This is a command.
3. That is, "the cup of blessing", as it was called in the Passover meal, which we bless with regard to the Lord's Supper, as Jesus did on that night. On this word, see 2 Cor 9:5.
4. Or, "communion, partnership". On this word, see "fellowship" in 1:9. Related to "sharer" in v 18, 20.
5. Partaking of the one bread makes us sharers of Christ, and makes us one with all the others who do so. Paul's point is that the same is true in the idol temple. Others render this, "Because we the many are one body, one bread".
6. That is, the physical nation of Israel worshiping in the temple of Jerusalem.
7. Or, "partners, fellowshippers". Same word as in v 20. Related to "sharing" in v 16. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:4.
8. These are the same two points of "knowledge" that Paul began with in 8:4 and 8:8. Some manuscripts reverse them, putting "that an idol is anything" first {K}.
9. Some manuscripts say "the Gentiles" {C}.
10. The Gentiles used this word to mean "deities" (as in Act 17:18), but the Jews and Christians used it to mean "demons". Used 63 times. GK 1228. Related to "demon possessed" in Mt 8:16.
11. Or, "and to a no god". Paul may be quoting Deut 32:17.
12. Or, "be becoming". GK 1181.
13. That is, without provoking God to jealousy (v 22), and bringing His judgment upon you (v 7, 11).
14. On the word "provoke to jealousy", see Rom 11:11. Paul may be referring to Deut 32:21.
15. The grammar expects a "no" answer.
16. Same phrase as in 6:12. Now Paul returns to the matter of eating foods sacrificed to idols begun in 8:1. Both here and in the next sentence, some manuscripts add "to me" {N}, as in 6:12. Paul may again be quoting the Corinthians' slogan here.
17. As just seen, some things harm other believers, some things disqualify from reward, some things bring God's discipline upon us.
18. Or, "edify". Same word as 8:1, 10. On this word, see "edify" in 14:4.
19. Some manuscripts add "each" {N}, as in Phil 2:4.
20. This is beneficial to both you and the other. It is the guiding principle in this whole matter, and is applied in detail next. Compare Phil 2:3-4.
21. On this word, see 2:14. Make no investigation or inquiry in any way about where the meat came from.
22. Some think Paul means "examining nothing with questions your conscience might propose"; others, "examining nothing, making no inquiries, so as not to trouble your conscience".
23. That is, everything filling it. On this word, see Col 1:19.
24. That is, to his home, not to the idol's temple, as Paul said in v 14-22.
25. Paul is apparently referring to a weaker brother who is a fellow guest at that meal.
26. Used only here. GK 2638. Some manuscripts say "food-sacrificed-to-idols", the word in 8:1.
27. The grammar implies "stop eating".
28. That is, for his good (v 24), out of love for him (as discussed in 8:1-9:23). On this word, see "showed" in Lk 20:37.
29. That is, for not harming his conscience, 8:12. Some manuscripts add the quotation from v 26, "For the earth and the fullness of it are the Lord's" {A}. Paul does not mean the conscience of the one he is exhorting, as he did in v 25 and 27, so he clarifies this next.
30. Because your conscience is not harmed by it. The food is not an issue for you, the strong one.
31. That is, the one who disclosed it, v 28.
32. Some think Paul is defending the stronger one, so as to balance love's sacrifice with the freedom in Christ. His or her freedom exercised in good conscience is not limited by the judgment of another's conscience. If the strong one partakes with thanksgiving, others have no right to blaspheme him. He has the right to eat. But in this case, do not eat, out of love for the weaker one. This choice is based on love, not on any guilt in the strong one's conscience caused by the other person, and not by any submission to his viewpoint. Others think Paul is exhorting the strong one, as in Rom 14:16. Do not eat, for why should you give an occasion for your freely chosen behavior to come under condemnation? Why conduct yourself in a way that what you receive with thanksgiving, others blaspheme you for? Do not do so.
33. Or, "for what purpose". Not the same word as in v 30. On this word, see Mt 27:46.
34. Or, "condemned". On this word, see Mt 7:1.
35. Some manuscripts say "But if" or "For if" {K}.
36. This word also means "grace", hence we speak of "saying grace". GK 5921. Related to "give thanks" next.
37. Paul concludes with the broadest possible expression of the principle he has been teaching since 8:1.
38. Or, "Be becoming". GK 1181. Same word as in 11:1.
39. Or, "without an opportunity for stumbling, without offense". Elsewhere only in Phil 1:10; Act 24:16. GK 718. It is the negative of the word "opportunity for stumbling" in 8:9.
40. Some manuscripts add "brothers" {N}.
41. Or, "that". GK 4022.
42. Or, "kept me in mind" as to all my teachings and your questions. On this word, see Lk 1:54.
43. Or, "what is handed down, delivered". Used in this sense in 2 Thes 2:15; 3:6. Elsewhere only in Mt 15:2, 3, 6; Mk 7:3, 5, 8, 9, 13; Gal 1:14; Col 2:8. GK 4142. Related to "delivered" next.
44. Or, "But, Now". Same word as "now" in v 2, and "but" in v 17. GK 1254. "And" or "Now" would mean this continues with the questions about which the Corinthians have kept Paul in mind, as seen in their writing to him about them, 7:1. "But" would mean this begins an issue about which they had not kept Paul in mind, or had not held on to his teaching, about which he now writes to correct them. In this case, some think Paul is continuing to respond to their questions; others, that he now moves on to an issue about which he heard from other sources (as perhaps in the next issue, v 18). See 7:1.
45. Same word as "husband" next. It means either "man" or "husband", based on the context. Used 216 times. GK 467.
46. Or, "and the man is the head of his wife". Or, "the man is the head of a woman", when the two are considered as a pair.
47. This word means either "woman" or "wife", depending on the context. It is used 215 times. GK 1222.
48. This is the general spiritual principle. Paul now applies this principle to a question from the Corinthians specific to their culture, "Should women continue to wear veils while praying or prophesying". It was their custom to do so (v 16), and Paul argues to continue it.

- 1C. Every man praying^A or prophesying^B while having a covering down over his head is shaming^I his head². *And every woman praying or prophesying³ with the head unveiled⁴ is shaming her head⁵ 4
- 1D. For⁶ she is one and the same with the one having been shaved⁷ 5
- 1E. For if a woman is not veiling-herself⁸, let her also⁹ have-herself-sheared¹⁰ 6
- 2E. But if it is shameful¹¹ for a woman to have-herself-sheared or shaved, let her be veiling-herself 6
- 2D. For a man¹² ought^C not to be veiling the head, being the image^D and glory^E of God— but the woman is the glory of man¹³ 7
- 1E. For man is not from woman, but woman from man¹⁴ 8
- 2E. For indeed man was not created^F for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man¹⁵ 9
- 3E. For this reason,¹⁶ the woman ought^C to be having authority¹⁷ on her head because of the angels¹⁸ 10
- 4E. Nevertheless¹⁹ there is neither woman without man, nor²⁰ man without woman in the Lord. *For just as the woman is from the man, so also the man is through the woman. And all things are from God 11

- 3C. Does not even nature²⁴ itself teach^H you that if a man²⁵ has long hair, it is a dishonor^I to him— but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory^E to her? Because²⁶ the long hair has been given to her²⁷ for²⁸ a covering²⁹ 14
- 4C. But if anyone seems³⁰ to be contentious, we do not have such a custom³¹, nor do the churches of God 15

1. Or, "dishonoring". On this word, see "put to shame" in Rom 5:5.
2. Some think Paul means Christ; others, the man's physical head; others, both. The reason is given in v 7.
3. Some think Paul is implying that this praying and prophesying took place "in church" for both the man and the woman; others, elsewhere for the woman, based on 14:34.
4. Or, "uncovered, without a head covering". Elsewhere only in v 13. GK 184. Related to "veil" in v 6.
5. Some think Paul means the woman's husband, v 3; others, her physical head, v 6; others, both. When she is praying or prophesying, a woman should wear a veil in order to honor her husband and marriage and herself, not shame them. Her spiritual equality is to be exercised in subordination to her marriage relationship, so as not to bring unnecessary shame on them or on Christ from her society—as this is expressed in her culture.
6. The woman shames her head because she identifies herself with the ones her society considers shamed, and thus brings unnecessary insult upon the gospel from her society. It was improper in that society to not wear a veil.
7. Some think Paul is referring to adulteresses, who were shaved in Israel. Others think he is referring to women who try to look like men. Elsewhere only in v 6 and Act 21:24, shaving men's heads for a vow. GK 3834.
8. Or, "covering". Used twice here, and elsewhere only in v 7. GK 2877. Related to "unveiled" in v 5.
9. If you are going this far in violating proper decorum, then why not go all the way and cut off your hair!
10. Elsewhere only in Act 18:18, of Paul keeping his vow; and in Act 8:32, of sheep. GK 3025.
11. It was shameful in the culture of that day, but in other cultures the length of a woman's hair is not a matter of decency or shame. There is nothing to be gained for Christ by violating one's societal standards of decency. Much can be unnecessarily lost. On this word, see Tit 1:11.
12. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
13. Some think Paul is implying something the man is that the woman is not. Adam reflects God's image in a way Eve does not, because he is in the position of rule and authority. However, perhaps Paul is instead stating something the woman is that the man is not. Adam is the human counterpart of God's attributes, created from Him to reflect His glory. He ought to reflect that glory, not veil it. Eve, in addition to reflecting God's image and glory like Adam (including the dominion they were given as a pair, Gen 1:26-28), also reflects the glory of Adam, being created from him as his counterpart, v 8-9. The aspects of her that are a counterpart to the man are related specifically to her as his mate, to the marriage relationship. In a special way, her spirit and body "corresponds" to him, making them a pair. Since the glory of her "mateness" is for him and no other, honoring it is honoring him, herself, and their marriage. She should honor it in whatever way is appropriate in her culture—in the case here, by veiling the head.
14. That is, Eve, the first woman, was made from Adam (Gen 2:21-22), rather than from dust.
15. Paul is referring to Gen 2:18-24, where Eve was made from Adam to be a mate suitable to him. Paul is not saying that Genesis means the woman was created to serve the man as his slave, but that she was created to complete him, to be his mate, to be the second half of the pair, as Adam observed among the animals he named.
16. That is, because the woman was created from man and for man (v 8-9); because she is the glory of man (v 7), the completion of man as his mate.
17. Some think Paul means a veil as a "symbol of authority", symbolizing the husband's authority and the wife's freedom to act within it. It symbolizes that she is exercising her spiritual freedom to pray and prophesy within the chain of relationships as established by God. Since she is her husband's mate, she should wear a veil while praying or prophesying. Others think Paul means she ought to have "control over" her head so as not to bring shame upon herself and others, as this same phrase means in Rev 11:6; 14:18; 20:6. On this word, see Rev 6:8. Some manuscripts say "a veil" {A}.
18. Or, "messengers". Some think Paul is referring to the angels present during worship. Note 4:9. Others think he is referring to the human messengers, the preachers present during worship. There are other views. On this word, see "messengers" in 1 Tim 3:16.
19. The creation of woman from man and for man is the order of the first creation, our existence as humans on earth. This order does not exist in the new creation, where there is no male or female in the Lord, Gal 3:28. But at the present, we live and have responsibilities in both spheres. Balancing the woman's freedom "in the Lord", with what was "fitting" (v 13) by their cultural standards, and would not bring unnecessary insult and shame to Christ, is Paul's goal in this whole section.
20. Some manuscripts put the "man without woman" phrase first {K}.
21. Or, "within". GK 1877.
22. Paul asks them to use their common sense in this matter. On "you yourselves", see 5:13.
23. Or, "proper, suitable, seemly, becoming". Same word as in Mt 3:15; 1 Tim 2:10; Tit 2:1; Heb 2:10; 7:26. Elsewhere only as "proper" in Eph 5:3. GK 4560. Our "judgment" as to what is "fitting" differs by culture. For example, if Christian women in Western cultures were made to wear veils, it would not be judged "fitting" at all, but would bring the very insults and shame upon the church that Paul is trying to avoid here. Compare 14:34, where the same issue arises.
24. The grammar expects a "yes" answer to this question. By "nature", some think Paul means the physical makeup of man and woman, women in general having a richer endowment of hair. Others think he means the natural disposition and preferences of men and women in this matter, as reflected in the customs regarding hair. Note that his point is not about how long one's hair should be, or what our customs regarding hair should be, but that woman's natural covering of hair honors her in a special way when she is not wearing a veil, and as such, shows that a veil is also honorable. On this word, see Eph 2:3.
25. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
26. Or, "That", making this a second question. GK 4022.
27. Some manuscripts omit "to her" {C}.
28. Or, "corresponding to, answering to". GK 505.
29. Elsewhere only as "cloak" in Heb 1:12. GK 4316.
30. Or, "thinks, presumes". That is, seems to you, or thinks in himself. On this word, see "thinking" in Lk 19:11.
31. That is, if you want to debate this, we have no other custom. All our women wear the veil. This is the habit we are accustomed to in the churches. Elsewhere only in Jn 18:39, and as "accustomed habit" in 1 Cor 8:7. GK 5311. Some think Paul means "we have no custom of fighting about these things".

1. As Paul did in 11:2. Same word as in v 2, 22.
2. Paul uses grammar that may imply a second issue is to be named (as perhaps in v 20); or, he means "first" in the sense of "above all". Same grammar as in Rom 1:8.
3. Or, "an assembly, a congregation". That is, a gathering of people, often in a home. On this word, see Rev 22:16.
4. Perhaps Paul heard it from the same people as in 1:11, or those in 16:17. This may mean the Corinthians did not ask Paul about this issue; or, that in addition to their question about the Lord's Supper, Paul had heard this news about them.
5. Or, "And some part I believe". That is, "in part". Same idiom as in Act 5:2, and elsewhere only as "any part" in Lk 11:36.
6. Or, "must". Or, "it is necessary that there be...". On this idiom, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
7. This word means "a choice, a chosen opinion, a taking of sides". Same word as in Gal 5:20. Then it means the "school, sect, or party" professing that opinion— as in the "sect" of Sadducees in Act 5:17; Pharisees in Act 15:5; 26:5; Nazarenes in Act 24:5; the Way in Act 24:14; Christians in Act 28:22. Then, if rejected, this opinion becomes a "heresy", as this word is elsewhere only used in 2 Pet 2:1. Our word "heresy" is from this word. GK 146. These groups should not be built around personalities, 1 Cor 1:10. But Christianity itself was seen as a sect or faction of Judaism— and this was necessary in order to separate out the approved ones, Christians. Related to "chose" in Mt 12:18; and "divisive" in Tit 3:10.
8. This adjective means "approved after testing". See 2 Tim 2:15 on it.
9. Or, "indeed". Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
10. Choices between good and bad, right and wrong exist in order to separate the approved from the disapproved.
11. Or, "Then, Therefore". This is either a second problem, or a specific manifestation of the first problem.
12. Same word as in 11:17, 18, 33, 34; 14:23, 26. GK 5302.
13. On this idiom, "at the same place", see Act 2:47.
14. Same word as "Supper" preceding. On this word, see Lk 14:12. Related to "dining" in v 25.
15. That is, they are not waiting for one another and eating together, v 33. They are eating independently. Paul is referring to the "love-feast" or common meal associated with the Lord's Supper at that time.
16. They are not sharing food. Some take to the point of excess, others do not get enough. Note v 33. Elsewhere only in Mt 24:49; Act 2:15; 1 Thes 5:7; Rev 17:6. GK 3501. Related to "get drunk" in Jn 2:10.
17. The grammar expects a "no" answer. Same grammar as in 9:4. More literally, "you do not indeed not have houses..., do you?".
18. Or, "looking down on" the church. On this word, "treat with contempt", see "disregard" in Rom 2:4.
19. That is, the poor, the have-nots who are going hungry at your dinner, v 21.
20. Some punctuate this "Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise".
21. Or, "delivered, handed down". Same word as later in v 23; and as "delivered" in 11:2; 15:3; etc. On this word, see Mt 26:21.
22. Some manuscripts say "Take, eat, this..." {A}.
23. On this word, see Mt 26:26.
24. The verb "being given" is supplied from Lk 22:19. Some manuscripts here say "being broken" {A}, using the same word as "broke" earlier in this verse, a word used 14 times in the NT, always of breaking bread (see Act 2:46 on it).
25. Or, "reminder, calling to memory". Same word as in 11:25; Lk 22:19 (by Jesus of the Lord's Supper). Elsewhere only as "reminder" in Heb 10:3, in the sacrifices there was a "reminder" of sin year by year. GK 390.
26. That is, the eating of dinner. Same word as in Lk 22:20. Elsewhere only as "have dinner" in Lk 17:8; Rev 3:20. GK 1268. Related to "dinner" in v 21.
27. Or, "as many times as". That is, as often as you drink this cup, not as often as you drink anything. Jesus gives no indication of how often it should be done. Elsewhere only in 11:26; Rev 11:6, "as often as they desire". GK 4006.
28. Some manuscripts say "this" {N}.
29. Some manuscripts say "this" {N}.
30. Some manuscripts say "and" {K}.
31. That is, in a manner unworthy of the Lord— by being in sin during the very act of remembering His sacrifice for sin! In the Corinthians case, Paul is referring to the way in which they were conducting themselves while partaking of the Lord's Supper, as described in v 18-22— their actions and attitudes toward it and one another. Used only here. GK 397. Related to "unworthy" in 6:2.
32. Or, "liable for, answerable for". Same word as in Mk 3:29; Jam 2:10. Elsewhere only as "liable to" in Mt 5:21, 22; and "subject to" in Mt 26:66; Mk 14:64; Heb 2:15. GK 1944. Such people are rendered "guilty" by their unworthy conduct with regard to the Lord's Supper, and therefore "liable" to the Lord's discipline for their actions, v 32.
33. Or, "test, approve". Same word as "prove" in 2 Cor 13:5. On this word, see "approve" in Rom 12:2.
34. Or, "from". Same preposition used with "drink" next. GK 1666.
35. Some manuscripts add "unworthily" {A}, as in v 27.
36. Or "discerning, distinguishing". By "body", some think Paul means "the Lord's Supper as a remembrance of His body and blood on the cross". Thus some think Paul means "Not distinguishing the Lord's Supper from all other meals", treating the bread and wine as common. That is, not properly reverencing or hallowing the remembrance of the Lord, and therefore the Lord Himself. Others think he means "Not appreciating the true nature and full meaning of the Lord's Supper, the Lord's body given for you", failing to see what these elements mean in themselves and for your behavior. That is, they are partaking of this remembrance without applying it to themselves, without seeing the ways in which His sacrifice for us requires that we be holy and sacrifice ourselves for our fellow believers. By "body", others think Paul means "the church, the body of believers". Thus he means "while not appreciating the true meaning of the body of Christ with whom you are celebrating this remembrance", failing to properly honor one another and join together as one body in the remembrance of the Lord. Same word as in v 31, and related to "judgment" next. It is rendered this way to show these connections. On this word, see "doubting" in Jam 1:6.
37. Some manuscripts say "the body of the Lord" {A}. In the Greek word order, the phrase "while not rightly-judging the body" is at the end of the sentence, after "himself".
38. That is, discipline, as Paul says in v 32. See Heb 12:7-11. Sickness and death are examples of this discipline. On this word, see Jn 9:39.
39. This is a different word than earlier, perhaps meant to convey "many-others". GK 2653.

1. Some manuscripts say "For" {N}.
2. That is, be experiencing judgment as described in v 30. Same word as next, on which see Mt 7:1.
3. Or, "corrected, trained, instructed, educated". We are disciplined as God's children, not condemned with unbelievers. Same word as in Lk 23:16, 22; 2 Cor 6:9; Heb 12:6, 7, 10; Rev 3:19. Used of parents disciplining their children, and government disciplining (with whippings, floggings) its wayward subjects. Here, discipline by God with sickness and death is in view. Elsewhere only as "correct" in 2 Tim 2:25; and "train" in Act 7:22; 22:3; 1 Tim 1:20; Tit 2:12. GK 4084. Related to "training" in 2 Tim 3:16.
4. Or, "so that we will not", depending on whether Paul is referring to the purpose or the result of the discipline. GK 2671.
5. That is, "judged against", pronounced judgment upon. Used 18 times. GK 2891. Same root word as "judge rightly", "judgment", and "judge". Thus the same root word is used six times in v 29-32.
6. Some manuscripts say "And if" {N}.
7. Or, "so that you will not". GK 2671.
8. Or, "resulting in, leading to". On this word, see "resulting in" in Rom 5:16.
9. Some supply "gifts" here, based on 12:4, 31; others, "manifestations" from v 7, in light of v 2-3; others, "people", as in 14:37. Both words "spiritual" and "gift" are used together only in Rom 1:11.
10. Compare Act 15:23. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, so that it says "... that you were Gentiles being led away..."
11. That is, pagans, non-believers. On this word, see Act 15:23.
12. The Corinthians were led away to the idols by outside forces. Not so now. Paul wants them to understand, to not be unaware of how the Spirit is working among them and through them. GK 552.
13. The idols neither spoke, nor did they lead you to speak! Not so with the Spirit, whose influence is known to you, and is discernable by its results. On this word, see "meaningless" in 14:10.
14. Or, "whenever", as in 11:34; Rom 15:24; Phil 2:23. This idiom is elsewhere only as "as if" in 2 Cor 10:9.
15. Or, "Jesus be cursed". The word is anathema. It means "the object of a curse". On this word, see Rom 9:3.
16. That is, from the heart, not simply mouthing the words. Compare Jn 6:44; Rom 10:9.
17. Paul gives no historical context to verse 3. Many theories about what may lie behind this verse have been proposed. Consult the commentaries. In any case, Paul begins his discussion of spiritual things by distinguishing the ministry of the Spirit from what the Corinthians experienced from their speechless idols.
18. Or, "divisions, varieties, allotments, distributions". Used only in v 4-6. GK 1348. The related verb is "distributing" in v 11.
19. This emphasizes the source. They are gifts of grace freely given without merit in the receiver. Same word as in v 9, 28, 30, 31. On this word, see 1:7.
20. Or, "services", ways of serving, spheres of serving. This emphasizes the purpose—to serve others. Same word as in Act 1:17, 25; 6:1, 4; 11:29; 12:25; 20:24; 21:19; Rom 11:13; 1 Cor 16:15; 2 Cor 3:7, 8, 9; 4:1; 5:18; 6:3; 8:4; 9:1, 12, 13; 11:8; Eph 4:12; Col 4:17; 2 Tim 4:5. Elsewhere only as "service" in Lk 10:40; Rom 12:7; 15:31; 1 Tim 1:12; 2 Tim 4:11; Heb 1:14; Rev 2:19. GK 1355. Related to "servant" in 3:5; and "ministering" in 1 Pet 4:10.
21. Or, "effects, products, results, what is worked" in us. This emphasizes the result which is produced in and through us by God. That is, there are different manifestations or results of God's working in us, different "activities, operations, workings" of God in us, different things He accomplishes in and through us. This Greek word is formed like "gift" in v 4. As God's giving results in a "thing given" (a gift), so His working (v 6) results in a "thing worked" (a work, though this English word is ambiguous). Thus "teaching" is a gift, a service, and a spiritual work of God in and through the teacher. Elsewhere only in v 10. GK 1920.
22. Some manuscripts say "and" {N}.
23. On this word, see "works" in v 11. Related to "things-worked".
24. Or, "open disclosure, public revelation". Gifts are public disclosures of the Spirit in us. Some think Paul means gifts are our means of exhibiting the Spirit; others, His means of exhibiting Himself. Elsewhere only as "open disclosure" in 2 Cor 4:2. GK 5748. Related to "evident" in Rom 1:19; and "make evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
25. Or, "profit". This is an idiom, "with a view to the thing being beneficial". Same word as "beneficial" in 6:12. Compare the similar phrase in Heb 12:10.
26. This common word, logos, used 330 times, means "word, speech, talk, saying, statement, message, reason, account, matter". GK 3364.
27. This word, sophia, is used 51 times, in 1 Cor only in 1:17, 19, 20, 21, 22, 24, 30; 2:1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 13; 3:19; 12:8. Some think Paul is using the word as he did in 2:6-13, where the wisdom we speak (2:6) is the Spirit's revelation (2:10) about God's mystery, Christ (2:7), spoken in words taught by the Spirit (2:13). Others define it as a "wise saying" revealed by the Spirit for a specific circumstance (such as when on trial, Lk 21:15). Others define it more generally, as an appropriate speaking of God's wisdom to a specific circumstance, "wise counsel". GK 5053.
28. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:77; 11:52; Rom 2:20; 11:33; 15:14; 1 Cor 1:5; 8:1, 7, 10, 11; 13:2, 8; 14:6; 2 Cor 2:14; 4:6; 6:6; 8:7; 10:5; 11:6; Eph 3:19; Phil 3:8; Col 2:3; 1 Tim 6:20; 1 Pet 3:7; 2 Pet 1:5, 6; 3:18. GK 1194. Some define it as knowledge of the revealed word of God. Others define it as a revelation of unknown facts, such as when Jesus knew the woman had five husbands, Jn 4:18, 29.
29. Or, "based on, by way of". GK 2848.
30. Some manuscripts say "And to..." {N}.
31. In verses 8-10, "another" can mean "another of the same kind" (GK 257, used 155 times, also as "other"). "Different" can mean "another of a different kind" (GK 2283, used 98 times, mainly as "another, other"). The change of terms may be stylistic, or Paul may be intending to divide the gifts into three groupings. If the latter, there are different opinions as to what the meaning of these three groupings might be. Consult the commentaries.
32. Used in 1 Cor only in 2:5; 12:9; 13:2, 13; 15:14, 17; 16:13. Most define it based on 13:2, faith so as to move mountains. Faith to perform works of faith, 2 Thes 1:11. On this word, see Eph 2:8.
33. That is, the effecting of healings as seen in Act 3:6; 4:30; 5:15-16; 8:7; 9:34; 10:38; 28:8-9. Elsewhere only in 12:28, 30. GK 2611. Note Lk 9:1, 6; 10:8-9. Related to "heal" in Mt 8:8. See also "cure" in Mt 8:7.
34. Some manuscripts say "by the same Spirit" {A}.

1. Or, "products, effects, workings of His powers; effects which are miraculous, consisting of miracles; workings by Him of miracles". That is, miraculous things God does by the working of His powers. On this word, see v 6. This does not refer to a human ability to produce a miracle (note Act 3:12; 4:30), but to the miraculous result itself, produced by God. To another, God gives miracles (compare v 28, where this gift is simply "miracles"). The related verb (in v 11) is used with "miracles" in Gal 3:5, of God "working miracles".
2. Or "powers". That is, supernatural effects of the powers of God other than healing (though healings were also miracles). For example, execution, Act 5:9; raising the dead, Act 9:40; blinding, Act 13:11. Same word as in Mt 7:22; 11:20, 21, 23; 13:54, 58; Mk 6:2, 5; 9:39; Lk 10:13; 19:37; Act 2:22; 8:13; 19:11; 1 Cor 12:28, 29; 2 Cor 12:12; Gal 3:5; Heb 2:4. Same word as "power" in Lk 5:17; 6:19; 8:46; 9:1; Act 1:8; 3:12; 4:33; Rom 15:19; 1 Cor 2:4; 2 Thes 2:9; etc. On this word, see "power" in Mk 5:30.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
4. That is, the output of a prophet when he or she prophesies. Prophets (noun, 12:28, 29; 14:29, 32, 37, see 12:28) prophesy (verb, 11:4, 5; 13:9; 14:1, 3, 4, 5, 24, 31, 39, see 14:1) prophesies (noun, 12:10; 13:2, 8; 14:6, 22). Elsewhere only in Mt 13:14; Rom 12:6; 1 Thes 5:20; 1 Tim 1:18; 4:14; 2 Pet 1:20, 21; Rev 1:3; 11:6; 19:10; 22:7, 10, 18, 19. GK 4735. Prophets are the direct mouthpiece of God, Lk 1:70. Compare Mt 26:68; Mk 14:65; Lk 2:36; 7:39; Jn 4:18, 19; 11:51; Act 2:17, 30; 11:28; 21:9-11; 1 Cor 14:30; Eph 3:5; 2 Pet 1:21; Rev 1:3; 22:18. Some define this gift as speaking revelation from God confirmed by supernatural knowledge of past, present, or future events. Others define it as speaking revelation from God, but without the supernatural confirmation aspect. Others define it as "speaking for God, preaching, forthtelling", defining it based on its results in the hearer (14:3, 31) rather than its source.
5. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
6. Or "judgments, distinguishings". Same word as in Heb 5:14. Elsewhere only as "disputes" in Rom 14:1. GK 1360. The related verb is in 14:29. It is the gift of distinguishing the source of a spirit or message or act, as in 14:29; 1 Jn 4:1-3. Act 16:16-18 may be an example. 1 Cor 14:29 may indicate that prophets also had this gift. Some think it is based on revelation.
7. Some manuscripts say "And to..." {N}.
8. That is, "languages". For two views of this gift, see 14:2. "Tongues" (plural) may refer to this gift in Mk 16:17; Act 2:3, 4; 10:46; 19:6; 1 Cor 12:10, 28, 30; 13:1, 8; 14:5, 6, 18, 22, 23, 39; and "tongue" (singular) in 1 Cor 14:2, 4, 9, 13, 14, 19, 26, 27. "New tongues" is in Mk 16:17; "other tongues" is in Act 2:4. Related to "other-tongues" in 1 Cor 14:21. Elsewhere only of the organ itself in Mk 7:33; Lk 16:24; Rev 16:10; of languages in Act 2:11; of peoples grouped by language in Rev 5:9; 7:9; 10:11; 11:9; 13:7; 14:6; 17:15; of humans beings in Rom 14:11; Phil 2:11; and of speech in Mk 7:35; Lk 1:64; Act 2:26; Rom 3:13; Jam 1:26; 3:5, 6, 8; 1 Pet 3:10; 1 Jn 3:18. GK 1185.
9. Or, "translation". Used only here and 14:26. GK 2255. Related to "translated" in Jn 1:42; "translated" in Act 13:8; "interpreter" in 1 Cor 14:28; and "interpret" in 1 Cor 12:30.
10. Or, "effects, produces". Same word as in v 6; and in Gal 2:8; 3:5; 5:6; Eph 1:11, 20; Phil 2:13; Jam 5:16. Elsewhere only as "at work" in Mt 14:2; Mk 6:14; Rom 7:5; 2 Cor 1:6; 4:12; Eph 2:2; 3:20; Col 1:29; 1 Thes 2:13; 2 Thes 2:7. GK 1919. Related to "working" in Phil 3:21; "things-worked" in 1 Cor 12:6; and "effective" in Heb 4:12. The root word is "work" in Mt 26:10.
11. Or, "dividing". Elsewhere only in Lk 15:12. GK 1349. Related to "differences" in v 4.
12. Or, "to each one his own". On this word, see "own" in Act 20:28.
13. Or, "wants, wishes". On this word, see Jam 1:18.
14. Or, "members, parts". On this word, see Col 3:5. Used 13 times in this chapter.
15. Some manuscripts say "the one body" {N}.
16. Having detailed diversity (v 7-10) and unity (v 11), Paul now illustrates both in the human body. Each phrase of v 12 is discussed next. The "one body" (1D), with "many members" (2D), is "one body" (3D). "So also Christ" (4D).
17. This phrase "For indeed" is also in v 14; 5:7; 11:9; 14:8; and as "For even" in 8:5. It occurs 39 times.
18. Or, "in, by". Paul could mean "by" the Spirit, that the Spirit baptized us into one body. Or he could mean that Jesus baptized us into one body "by means of, in, with" the Spirit. Elsewhere, Jesus is always the baptizer "in, with" the Spirit. On "with, in, by" the Spirit, see Mk 1:8. GK 1877.
19. Unity is the point here. To make the body metaphor work, Paul must prove believers are all parts of "one body".
20. This word is used regarding the Spirit only here, and when contrasting John's baptism "in" or "with" water to Jesus' baptism "in" or "with" the Spirit. On this word, see Mk 1:8.
21. That is, the body of Christ. The baptism makes us "one body", and the gifts make us "many members".
22. Some see this as a different metaphor with the same point, unity. Our unity is produced through a Spirit baptism, through a drink of living water. We are given the Spirit to drink either by the Father (as in Jn 14:16, 26); or by Jesus (as in Jn 15:26; 16:7). Others see this as something distinct from the baptism. Consult the commentaries. The verb "give to drink" is GK 4540. Some manuscripts add "into", so that it says "And we were all made to drink into one Spirit" {N}.
23. Now Paul shows that the differences in the body are necessary and intentional. We should not devalue ourselves because we are not some other part we admire. Those who consider themselves lesser members than others are still essential members of the body, and are needed by the body as God placed them.
24. Or, "But as it is". On this idiom, see 5:11.
25. In contrast to his previous point (v 14), Paul gives another side of the illustration.
26. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
27. The diverse members still form one body, each part mutually dependent on the other. Those who consider themselves more honorable members are dependent on the lesser members of the body.
28. Elsewhere only as "without honor" in Mt 13:57; Mk 6:4; and "dishonored" in 1 Cor 4:10. GK 872. Here it is a comparative, "more dishonored", that is, "less honored, less honorable". Related to "dishonor" in Act 5:41.
29. Perhaps like putting on a gold ring or shoes or a cloak. The verb "put on" is used of a robe in Mt 27:28.

- 1E. Indeed our private¹ parts have more presentability², *but our presentable parts have no need³ 24
- 3E. But God blended-together⁴ the body, having given more honor^A to the body-part lacking^B, *in order that there should not be division^C in the body, but that the body-parts should be having the same concern⁵ for one another 25
- 4E. And if one body-part is suffering^D, all the body-parts are suffering-with^E it. If one⁶ body-part is being glorified^F, all the body-parts are rejoicing-with it 26
- 4D. And you are the body of Christ, and body-parts in part⁷ 27

- 1E. And if I have prophecy^O and know²⁹ all mysteries^P and all knowledge^Q, and if I have all faith so as to remove^R mountains, but I do not have love— I am nothing 2

1. That is, our reproductive organs, our “shameful” parts (related to “indecent” in Rom 1:27), or our “un-honored, dishonorable, unbecoming” parts (related to “behave dishonorably” in 1 Cor 7:36). Used only here. GK 860.
2. Or, “decorum, decency, propriety”. That is, because we put more honor on such parts by covering them with clothing. Our presentable members have no need of this. Used only here. GK 2362. A related word follows.
3. Some manuscripts add “of honor” {N}.
4. Or, “united, mixed together, combined, composed”. Elsewhere only as “united” in Heb 4:2. GK 5166. Related to “mix” in Rev 14:10.
5. The equality of honor comes from the mutual dependence. On this word, “be having concern”, see “be anxious for” in Mt 6:25.
6. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so it says “if a body part...”.
7. Some think Paul means “body parts [of it] in part”, meaning the Corinthians are only part of Christ’s body, which is worldwide; others, “body-parts in [your assigned] part”; others, “body parts viewed as individual parts of the whole”, that is, “individually”. Perhaps Paul means “you are a partial body-part”, meaning for example, not “the eye”, but “the eye in part”. This phrase “in part” is elsewhere only in 13:9, 10, 12; and is similar to “in part” in Rom 11:25.
8. Paul starts to say “some as apostles, others as prophets” (as in Eph 4:11), but then combines this with “first... second” in order to rank the gifts.
9. Or, “sent ones, official representatives, messengers”. Jesus chose the twelve and gave them this name, Lk 6:13. They and Paul were personally sent by Christ to the world as eyewitnesses of Christ (Act 1:21-22), with miraculous powers, (Act 2:43; 8:18; 2 Cor 12:12; Heb 2:4). Other than of the Twelve and Paul, this word is used of Jesus in Heb 3:1; perhaps of James in Gal 1:19; of Barnabas and Saul, sent by the Holy Spirit in Act 14:14; of “missionaries, delegates, representatives” sent by churches in 2 Cor 8:23; Phil 2:25, and perhaps Rom 16:7; and of “messengers” in general in Jn 13:16. Used four times of “false apostles”, who claim this authority. Some define this gift narrowly, as those Jesus Himself chose and sent as His eyewitnesses. Others define it broadly as “missionary, church planter”. GK 693. Used 80 times.
10. Used 144 times, in this sense perhaps in Lk 11:49; Act 11:27; 13:1; 15:32; 21:10; 1 Cor 14:29, 32, 37; Eph 2:20; 3:5; 4:11; Rev 18:20; 22:6, 9. Elsewhere only of the OT prophets, John the Baptist, Jesus, the Cretan prophet (Tit 1:12), and in Revelation. GK 4737. The feminine word is used of Anna (Lk 2:36), and in Rev 2:20. See the related words in 1 Cor 12:10; 14:1; 2 Pet 1:19.
11. Used 59 times, in this sense as in Act 13:1; Eph 4:11; 1 Tim 2:7; 2 Tim 1:11; Heb 5:12; Jam 3:1. Elsewhere only of Jesus, John the Baptist, teachers of Israel, false teachers. GK 1437. Apollos is a good one, Act 18:24-28. Related words in Rom 12:7; 1 Cor 14:6.
12. Or, “powers”. Same word as in 12:10.
13. This means “helpful deeds, assistance, aid, support”. Used only here. GK 516. Related to the word in 1 Tim 6:2; and in Rom 8:26. The root words imply “take a part corresponding to the need”.
14. Or, “governing, leadership, management”. Used only here. GK 3236. A related word meaning “pilot of a ship, helmsman” is in Rev 18:17.
15. Same word as in Mt 13:47; Mk 9:29; 1 Cor 12:10; 14:10. Elsewhere only as “offspring” in Act 17:28, 29; Rev 22:16; “family” in Act 4:6; 7:13; 13:26; 1 Pet 2:9; “nation” in Act 7:19; 2 Cor 11:26; Gal 1:14; Phil 3:5; and “nationality” in Mk 7:26; Act 4:36; 18:2, 24. GK 1169. It is plural only in 1 Corinthians.
16. The grammar of all these questions expects a “no” answer.
17. Or, “All are not [workers of] miracles, are they”; “All do not have [the gift of] miracles, do they”. See 12:10.
18. Some think Paul means “in the church, officially” as opposed to “in the closet, privately”.
19. Same word as in 14:5, 13, 27. Elsewhere only as “translate” in Act 9:36; and of “interpreting” Scripture in Lk 24:27. GK 1450. On this word group, see 12:10.
20. Same word as in 14:1.
21. Verse 28 is the only place Paul ranks the gifts, other than prophecy and tongues in chapter 14. Some manuscripts say “better” {N}, the word in 7:9, 38; 11:17; Heb 1:4.
22. The Spirit distributes the gifts as He desires, v 11, 18. But since we do not know the works He has prepared for us (Eph 2:10), we should seek to lay hold of all that for which we were laid hold (Phil 3:12). We should aim high, desiring that God produce the greatest possible results through us, so that we can be of maximum value to the body. Do not all seek to have the same gift, because all do not have it. But seek to have the greater gifts. Some think Paul means to seek to have the greater gifts expressed in your local church; others, seek to have them personally.
23. Having completed his primary explanation of gifts, Paul now describes their needed balance, love.
24. Or, “path”. Some think the “way” is love; others, gifts exercised with love. On this word, see Lk 3:4.
25. This word means “still, yet, as yet”; and “furthermore” (as in Lk 14:26; Act 2:26; 21:28; Heb 11:36), “longer, more”. “Still” is used with a phrase like this only in Lk 1:15; Jn 11:30; Rom 5:6; Rev 12:8. Paul may mean it in the second sense, “and furthermore, I show you a way beyond measure”. Used 93 times. GK 2285.
26. This idiom is rendered “extremely” in Rom 7:13; 2 Cor 1:8; 4:17; Gal 1:13. The word itself means “excess”, as elsewhere only in 2 Cor 4:7; 12:7. The Greek word is hyperbole, from which we get “hyperbole”, meaning “excessive or exaggerated speech”. While some gifts are “greater” than others, love is beyond measure, and outside the ranking of gifts. It is in a still unmeasured category— as infinite as the character of God, and operative in every member of the body of Christ (whereas no gift is possessed by all believers). Some render this phrase as a comparative here, love is a “more excellent” path than gifts; others as a superlative, “most excellent” (“excellent” comes from the context, where it is “beyond measure” in the direction of good). Related to “surpassing” in 2 Cor 9:14. GK 5651.
27. Some think this is a hyperbole, “even of angels, [if that were possible]”, giving the maximum, unattainable height of expression of the gift, as in v 2-3. The Greek word order is “If in the tongues of humans I speak, even [or ‘and’; the word means both] of angels”. Others think Paul is referring to something truly possible and attainable.
28. That is, a brass making its sound. Used only here. GK 2490.
29. Some think Paul is referring to an additional gift or gifts; others, to the extent of the gift of prophecy— if God is giving me revelations to speak to the point that I know all His mysteries and knowledge.

- 2E. And if I dole-out¹ all my possessions², and if I hand-over³ my body so that I may boast⁴, but I do not have love^A— I am profited^B nothing 3
- 2D. Love^A is patient⁵. Love shows-kindness⁶ 4
- 1E. - 3D. Love never fails¹⁶. But if there are prophecies^I, they will be set-aside¹⁷. If there are tongues^K, they will cease¹⁸. If there is knowledge^L, it will be set-aside 8
- 1E. For we know^M in part^N, and we prophesy^O in part—*but when the complete¹⁹ thing comes, the²⁰ thing in part will be set-aside 9-10
- 2E. When I was a child^P, I was speaking like a child, thinking²¹ like a child, counting²² like *a child*²³— when²⁴ I have become²⁵ a man, I have set-aside the things of the child 11
- 3E. For now we are seeing through²⁶ a mirror, in *an enigma*²⁷— but then face to face 12
- 4E. Now I know in part— but then I will know-fully²⁸, just as I also was fully-known 13

1. Or, "give away" piece by piece. This word was used of "feeding" a child by putting little bits in the mouth. That is, if I dole out all my possessions piece by piece to poor ones. Elsewhere only as "feed" in Rom 12:20. GK 6039. Related to "piece of bread" in Jn 13:26.
2. Or, "belongings". This is a participle, on which see Heb 10:34.
3. Or, "deliver". Paul may mean deliver his body into slavery to help others or feed the poor; or, as a martyr. On this word, see 11:23.
4. Compare 9:16. On this word, see 2 Cor 11:16. Some manuscripts say "that I may be burned", perhaps as in Daniel 3, or as a martyr {C}.
5. Or, "has patience, waits patiently". Same verb as in Mt 18:26, 29; Lk 18:7; 1 Thes 5:14; Jam 5:7, 8; 2 Pet 3:9. Elsewhere only as "wait patiently" in Heb 6:15. GK 3428. Related to "patience" in Heb 6:12. The root words mean "is long to anger, is keeping anger far away".
6. This verb is used only here. GK 5980. Related to "goodness" in Rom 3:12; and "good" in 1 Pet 2:3. Kindness is goodness in action.
7. It is also possible to punctuate by grouping the first two, "Love waits patiently, shows kindness, love does not envy, love does not brag"; or, the second two, "Love waits patiently, love shows kindness, does not envy, love does not brag". Some manuscripts omit the third "love" {C}.
8. Or, "does not behave jealously" in a negative sense. On this word, see "jealous-for" in 2 Cor 11:2.
9. On "behave dishonorably", see 7:36.
10. Same word as 10:24, 33; Phil 2:21.
11. That is, to anger. Or, "irritated". Elsewhere only in Act 17:16. GK 4236. Related to "provoking" in Heb 10:24.
12. Or, "account, calculate, consider". Some think Paul means "take account of it"; others, "count it against", hold a grudge, be resentful; others, "impute it" to others. On this word, see "consider" in Rom 3:28.
13. Or, "wrong". Some think Paul means the wrong suffered; others, the wrong done. On this word, see "evil" in 3 Jn 11.
14. Or, "endures, covers, shelters, protects". Elsewhere only in 9:12; 1 Thes 3:1, 5. GK 5095. The root word means "roof" (Mt 8:8).
15. Or, "perseveres". On this word, see Jam 1:12.
16. Or, "falls, falls down". Used in this sense also in Lk 16:17. On this word, see "fall" in Rom 11:11. Related word in Rom 9:6.
17. Or, "made idle, done away with". Same word as in v 10, 11. On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6.
18. Or, "leave off, stop, come to an end". Some think tongues cease before the "complete thing" comes and "sets aside" the other gifts, v 10. Others think they cease when "the complete thing" comes. Same word as in Lk 5:4; 8:24; 11:1; Act 5:42; 6:13; 13:10; 20:1, 31; 21:32; Eph 1:16; Col 1:9; Heb 10:2; 1 Pet 4:1. Elsewhere only as "stop" in 1 Pet 3:10. GK 4264.
19. Or, "perfect, mature, finished, having attained its end or purpose". Some think "the complete thing" is the completed revelation of the NT. Once complete, the gifts of revelation and confirmation (including prophecy and knowledge) ceased or continued in a non-revelatory sense. Others think it refers to the fullness that comes when Christ returns. We shall then be like Him, 1 Jn 3:2. The body will be "mature", Eph 4:13 (same word). The partial will be completed and prophecy and knowledge will no longer be needed. There are other views. Same word as in Jam 1:4. Elsewhere only as "perfect" in Mt 5:48; 19:21; Rom 12:2; Heb 9:11; Jam 1:17, 25; 3:2; 1 Jn 4:18; and "mature" in 1 Cor 2:6; 14:20; Eph 4:13; Phil 3:15; Col 1:28; 4:12; Heb 5:14. GK 5455. Related to "to perfect" in Heb 2:10.
20. Some manuscripts say "then the" {N}.
21. On this word, see Rom 8:5. I set my mind on things as a child does.
22. Or, "calculating, evaluating". Same word as in v 5. A narrower term, focusing on intellectual reasoning.
23. That is, with partial understanding. Prophecy, tongues, and knowledge belong to the period of childhood. They will appear as childish when the complete comes. Not wrong; just partial, incomplete, rudimentary.
24. Some manuscripts say "But when" {N}.
25. This word "have become" is the same word and form as 9:22; 13:1; 2 Cor 12:11. GK 1181. As it is characteristic of adults to have done so now, so it will be of us then. Paul is comparing the state of childhood with the state of adulthood. As an adult, I have put away childish things and am going on in the things of adulthood.
26. Or, "by means of, with". GK 1328.
27. That is, in a form that is imperfectly seen, indistinctly reflected, hence "dimly, unclearly, indirectly". Used of sayings that were "riddles". Ancient mirrors were made of polished metal, and produced an imperfect reflection. Our present vision of God is like a reflection in a primitive mirror. But then, we will see His face, Rev 22:4. Used only here. GK 141.
28. On this word, used twice in this verse, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
29. Paul says "these three", as a group, are remaining, love being the greater. Some think he means "But as it is, these three remain forever, in contrast to the gifts, which cease when Jesus comes". This means faith and hope must take on a new meaning after He comes, since as we know them now, faith becomes sight and hope is fulfilled. What this new meaning might be is differently explained. Others think Paul means "But at the present, these three virtues remain, along with gifts, but superior to them. But love is superior to them all". Faith and hope are added because they are our present connection to "then" in v 8-13. These three are remaining as more fundamental, more important, and more powerful than gifts. Love is superior "beyond measure" (12:31), because God is love. Love is as infinite and as eternal as He is. All these other things are expressions of His love, and His love gives meaning to them. Pursue love, and all these three will grow, and gifts will have value, v 1-3. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
30. Though the form of this word is "greater", some think the sense of it here is "greatest".
31. Or, "running after, seeking after". Same word as in Rom 12:13; 14:19; 1 Thes 5:15; 1 Tim 6:11; 2 Tim 2:22; Heb 12:14; 1 Pet 3:11; "press on" in Phil 3:12, 14; and "persecute" in 2 Tim 3:12. Used 45 times. GK 1503. Others link this with what follows, "Pursue love and be zealous-for..."

6C. Now be zealous-for¹ the spiritual² gifts, but even-more³ that you might be prophesying⁴

1D. For⁵ the one speaking^A *in*⁶ a tongue⁷ is not speaking to people^B, but to God⁸— for no one hears⁹, but he speaks mysteries¹⁰ with his spirit¹¹. *But the one prophesying is speaking edification^C and exhortation^D and consolation¹² to people

1E. The one speaking in a tongue is edifying¹³ himself.¹⁴ But the one prophesying is edifying the church^E

2E. And I wish¹⁵ that you all were speaking in tongues, but even-more¹⁶ that you might be prophesying

2D. Now¹⁷ the one prophesying is greater¹⁸ than one speaking in tongues— unless¹⁹ he interprets²⁰ in order that the church may receive edification^C

1E. But now²¹, brothers^F, if I come to you speaking in tongues²²

1E. What will I profit²³ you, unless I speak to you either by²⁴ a revelation^G or by knowledge^H or by a prophecy^I or by a teaching²⁵?

2E. Likewise²⁶ the lifeless things giving a sound^K— whether a flute or harp

1E. If it does not give a distinction in the tones, how will the thing being fluted or the thing being harped be known^L?

1G. For indeed, if a trumpet gives an uncertain^M sound^K, who will prepare^N himself for battle^O?

2E. So also you²⁷ with the tongue²⁸— if you do not give a clear word²⁹, how will the thing being spoken be known? For you will be speaking into the air!

1. Now Paul returns to where he left off in 12:31. Same word as in 12:31; 14:39. Related to "zealots" in 14:12. On this word, see "jealous for" in 2 Cor 11:2.
2. This word means "pertaining to the spirit". Elsewhere only in Rom 1:11; 7:14; 15:27; 1 Cor 2:13, 15; 3:1; 9:11; 10:3, 4; 12:1; 14:37; 15:44, 46; Gal 6:1; Eph 1:3; 5:19; 6:12; Col 1:9; 3:16; 1 Pet 2:5. GK 4461. The root word is "spirit".
3. Or, "still more". Used 81 times. It means "more", or in a contrast, "rather, instead". GK 3437. Some render it "especially" here. Same word as in v 5.
4. This verb is elsewhere only in 11:4, 5; 13:9; 14:3, 4, 5, 24, 31, 39; and in Mt 7:22; 11:13; 15:7; 26:68; Mk 7:6; 14:65; Lk 1:67; 22:64; Jn 11:51; Act 2:17, 18; 19:6; 21:9; 1 Pet 1:10; Jude 14; Rev 10:11; 11:3. GK 4736. Related words in 1 Cor 12:10; 28; 2 Pet 1:19.
5. Seek to prophesy, for tongues has no edification value to the church— unless accompanied by the interpretation. Paul's focus in chapter 14 is specifically on defining the value and place of tongues in the public assembly of the local church.
6. Or, "with". When "speaking" is connected to "tongues" it is always with the same grammatical construction, which implies either "in" or "with" tongues. Only in 14:19 is the actual preposition with the same meaning used (GK 1877).
7. What was occurring in Corinth is different from what occurred in Acts 2. In Acts, the speaking was in public and was understood by the native speakers of the language present. In 1 Cor 14, the speaking was in church and was not understood unless accompanied by the gift of interpretation. Based on this some think that there are two different gifts of tongues; others that the one gift was used in two ways. Thus, some think Paul is not referring here to the gift seen in Acts 2, but to a different gift, a personal prayer language understood only by God. In Corinth they were using this gift in church. Since no one understood, the result was confusion. Others think he is referring to the same gift seen in Acts 2. In Corinth they were using it for worship in church with no native speakers present who could interpret and no one with the spiritual gift of interpretation. Since no one understood, the result was confusion. See 12:10 on "tongue".
8. That is, the speaker addresses his speech to God (speaking, praying, singing, blessing), whereas prophets address their speech to people for edification. The one speaking in a tongue is not focused on people and edification.
9. That is, hears with understanding. Some take this to mean no one except a native speaker as in Acts 2, or an interpreter as in v 5. The speaker does not address people in general because they do not understand. Others think Paul means no human understands because it is a personal prayer language addressed to God. The speaker does not address any human being, because none understands and none is intended to understand. Same word as in Act 22:9.
10. That is, truths yet to be explained. They need interpretation (v 5), to be understood. Prophecy speaks truths immediately understood. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
11. Paul may be emphasizing the source of the mysteries spoken, "in the Holy Spirit" (as in 12:2); or that they are spoken "with his spirit", apart from his mind (as in 14:14, 15); or that they are spoken "with his spiritual gift" (as this same word is used in 14:12). All are true, of course. He clearly does not mean "silently", "in his spirit".
12. Or, "comfort, encouragement". Used only here. GK 4171. Related to "encourage" in 1 Thes 5:14.
13. Or, "building up, strengthening, establishing". Same word as in v 17, and as "build up" in Act 9:31; 20:32; 1 Cor 8:1, 10; 10:23; 1 Thes 5:11. Used 40 times. GK 3868. Related to "edification" in v 3, 5, 12, 26 (on which see Rom 14:19), and "builder" in Act 4:11.
14. This is not because the speaker understands, but because God is speaking through him. All gifts edify the person using them, but with tongues alone it is possible for this to be the only benefit that takes place. Some think this personal benefit is God's intended use of this gift, a personal prayer language for self-edification. Others think the gift was given to be used with unbelievers as described in v 21-22, and that the personal benefit is a by-product, as with all other gifts.
15. Or, "want". Some think Paul wishes this "in theory", knowing that neither is possible (as he said in 12:11, 18, 30), just as in 7:7 he "wished" (same word and grammar) all to be single like him even though each has his own gift from God. Others think Paul truly "wants" all to do both—to develop a personal prayer language, and to focus on edifying others by proclaiming the truth. On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
16. Same exact phrase as in v 1. Or, "rather", if Paul is making a contrast with tongues.
17. Or, "But, And". Some manuscripts say "For" {K}.
18. That is, in this person's ability to edify the church, not personally. Paul wants edification to be the focus.
19. Literally, "except unless", an idiom elsewhere only in 15:2; 1 Tim 5:19. It means "with this exception, unless..."
20. Sometimes the tongue-speaker also had the gift of interpretation; other times not, v 13, 28. The interpretation is equal to prophecy in edification value. For this reason, Paul allows both to contribute to the church, 14:27, 29. His focus is on edification. On this word, see 12:30.
21. Or, "But as it is". As in 5:11 and 12:20, Paul is beginning a point in his argument in contrast to what he previously said. But now, in contrast to the case with interpretation, what can tongues alone profit you? His intent in v 6-12 is to prove that tongues alone has no edification value to others, so the Corinthians should be seeking to edify through the greater gifts (12:31).
22. Some think Paul means "actually speaking in tongues in your presence"; others, "as one with this gift, as a tongues-speaker". See the next note.
23. Some think Paul means that only if his tongue is interpreted can its content, which could be one of these four things, profit the hearers. Others, that since his tongue cannot profit the hearers, if Paul is to do so he must instead use one of these other four gifts. Same word as in 13:3. On this word, see Rom 2:25.
24. Or, "with, in", four times in this verse. GK 1877. Some manuscripts omit the fourth "by", so that it says, "by a prophecy or a teaching" {C}.
25. This noun is used 30 times. GK 1439. Related to "teacher" in 12:28.
26. Or, "yet", meaning "There are lifeless things giving a sound, whether a flute or harp, yet if it does not give a distinction...". GK 3940.
27. Paul applies the lesson of the flute and harp to the Corinthians.
28. This is the Greek word order. Or, "So also you—if you do not give a clear word with the tongue". Some think Paul is referring to normal speaking, articulating words; others, to the interpretation of the gift.
29. Or, "give intelligible speech". The speaker must give a word that is understandable by the hearer.

- 3E. There are perhaps¹ so-many kinds^A of spoken sounds² in the world, and none³ is meaningless⁴ 10
- 1E. If then I do not know the force⁵ of the spoken sound, I will be a barbarian⁶ to the one speaking, and the one speaking a barbarian with me 11
- 4E. So also you⁷— since you are zealots⁸ for spiritual⁹ gifts, be seeking¹⁰ that you may abound^B for the edification^C of the church 12
- 3D. Therefore¹¹ let the one speaking in a tongue pray¹² in order that he might interpret^D 13
- 1E. For¹³ if I am praying^E in a tongue, my spirit¹⁴ is praying, but my mind¹⁵ is unfruitful¹⁶ 14
- 2E. What then is to be done¹⁷? I will pray with the spirit, and¹⁸ I will also pray with the mind. I will sing-praise^F with the spirit, and I will also sing-praise with the mind 15
- 3E. Otherwise¹⁹, if you are blessing²⁰ with²¹ your spirit²² [only], how will the one filling^G the place²³ of the uninstructed²⁴ say the “Amen” at your thanksgiving^H, since he does not know what you are saying? 16
- 1E. For you²⁵ are giving-thanks^J well^K— but the other person is not being edified^L 17
- 4E. I give-thanks^J to God²⁶ I speak in tongues more than all of you. *But in church,²⁷ I want^M to speak five words with my mind in order that I might also instruct^N others, rather than ten-thousand words^O in a tongue 18-19
- 4D. Brothers, do not be children^P in your understanding²⁸. But be childlike²⁹ in evilness^Q, and be mature³⁰ in your understanding 20
- 1E. It has been written in the Law [in Isa 28:11-12] that “I will speak to this people³¹ by people of other-tongues³², and by the lips of others.³³ And not even in this manner will they listen-to Me, says the Lord”³⁴ 21

1. This word is an idiom meaning here "If it should happen [that they can be counted]", which some smooth into "who knows" how many, or, "maybe" so many, or, "doubtless" so many. This idiom is elsewhere only in 15:37. GK 5593.
2. This is a common word used of a "sound" or "voice", and the same word as "sound" in v 7, 8. Here and in v 11, it has the sense of "language" or "speech", the spoken sounds of humans.
3. Some manuscripts say "none of them" {N}.
4. Paul has a play on words here. There are many kinds of "voices" but none is "voiceless", many kinds of "speech", but none is "speechless". It means "speechless" in the sense of "unable to communicate" here; and is used in the sense of "incapable of speaking" in 1 Cor 12:2; 2 Pet 2:16. Elsewhere only as "silent" in Act 8:32. GK 936.
5. That is, the meaning. This is from the hearer's viewpoint; v 9 is from the speaker's viewpoint. On this word, see "power" in Mk 5:30.
6. Or, "foreigner". That is, unable to communicate in a common language. On this word, see Col 3:11.
7. Having proved his point— that tongues alone does not edify— Paul now gives the conclusion for the Corinthians. Note that he does not state the conclusion as might be expected, "So do not speak in tongues in church without interpretation", but as a positive, "so seek to edify the church", which excludes speaking tongues in church without interpretation.
8. Or, "zealous ones, enthusiasts, zealous admirers". This noun is elsewhere only in Lk 6:15; Act 1:13; 21:20; 22:3; Gal 1:14; Tit 2:14; 1 Pet 3:13. GK 2421. Related to verb "be zealous for" in v 1.
9. Or, "spirits". Same word as in Holy "Spirit". Used here (and perhaps in 14:2, 14, 15, 16, 32; Eph 1:17; 2 Thes 2:2; 2 Tim 1:7; Rev 22:6) in the sense of "spiritual manifestation" or "spiritual gift". GK 4460. Related to "spiritual" in 14:1.
10. Or, "striving for, trying to obtain". Same word as in 10:24, 33; 13:5; Col 3:1. On this word, see Phil 2:21.
11. Now Paul draws the positive conclusion from v 5 and v 12.
12. Some think Paul means the one desiring to speak in a tongue should first pray in his native language for the gift of interpretation, so that his tongue can edify. Others think he means the one speaking in a tongue should pray in this tongue for the purpose of interpreting it, so that the interpretation may edify the body.
13. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
14. Or, "spiritual gift", as in v 12. Paul may mean my "human spirit", or my "spiritual gift" of tongues. See v 2.
15. Or, "understanding, intellect". Same word as in v 15 (twice), 19. On this word, see Rom 7:23.
16. Or, "barren, unproductive". Same word as in Mt 13:22; Mk 4:19; Eph 5:11; Tit 3:14; 2 Pet 1:8. Elsewhere only as "fruitless" in Jude 12. GK 182. My mind produces nothing for edification. What I pray is a mystery to me (v 2), and bears no fruit in others.
17. What is the tongue-speaker personally to do? What is the conclusion of the matter for the individual? Same idiom as in v 26, and in Act 21:22.
18. Or, "but". Same word as in the next sentence. Some think Paul means "I will pray with one or the other separately". I will abound for edification by praying privately in tongues "with my spirit" for myself, and praying publicly "with my mind" (in the common language) for the church. Others think he means "I will pray with both sequentially". I will abound for edification of the church by praying in my tongue "with my spirit" and then praying also the interpretation "with my mind". Others think he means "I will pray with both at the same time", meaning in his normal language.
19. If you do not follow the course in v 15, this is what will result.
20. On this word, see Lk 6:28. Some manuscripts say "shall bless" {N}.
21. Some manuscripts omit this word, leaving it implied {C}.
22. Or, "spiritual gift", as in v 12. Equivalent to v 14, "praying [a blessing] in a tongue".
23. Some think Paul means "the status"; others, "the physical location", the seats, the room. On this word, see Eph 4:27.
24. Or "untrained, unskilled; a layman, outsider, uninformed one, one not versed in a thing". Same word as in 14:23, 24. Elsewhere only as "untrained" in Act 4:13; 2 Cor 11:6. GK 2626. This person is defined in this verse as one who "does not know what you are saying". He is not versed on the significance of the gift of tongues, and he does not understand the tongue you just spoke in.
25. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
26. Some manuscripts say "my God" {N}. Note that Paul's purpose here is to confirm by his own example what he taught in v 15 and illustrated in v 16-17, that is, do not use tongues without interpretation in the church.
27. Where then did Paul speak in tongues? Some think outside the church, to unbelievers, in accordance with v 22, Acts. Others think privately in a personal prayer language for personal edification, v 4, 28.
28. Or, "thinking, thoughts". That is, regarding tongues. The grammar may imply "stop being children". Used only here, twice. GK 5856. Related to "thinking" in 13:11.
29. Or, "be infants, babies, children". This verb is used only here. GK 3757. Related to "infant" in 3:1. Not related to "children" earlier.
30. Or, "complete, perfect". Same word as "complete" in 13:10. Compare Rom 16:19.
31. That is, Israel. "This people" (singular) is elsewhere only in Mt 13:15; 15:8; Mk 7:6; Lk 21:23; Act 13:17; 28:26, 27. On "people", see Rev 21:3.
32. Or, "different-tongues", the languages of others. This word is a combination of "other" (different) and "tongues", the two words found separately in Act 2:4. Used only here. GK 2280.
33. That is, by people speaking foreign languages. This verse describes exactly what happened in Acts 2. Some think this indicates that "tongues" in 1 Cor 14 is the same as that seen in Acts 2. Others agree that this verse describes what happened in Acts 2, but think that 1 Cor 14 also describes a different gift, a personal prayer language. Some manuscripts say "by other lips" {N}. "Others" is the same word as in the compound word preceding.
34. In Isaiah 28, it was a sign of judgment on Israel through the Assyrian conqueror. If Israel will not listen to the prophets, God will speak to them through foreigners as punishment for their unbelief.

- 2E. So then¹ the tongues are for a sign²— not for the ones believing^A, but for the unbelievers.³ But the prophecy is not for the unbelievers^B, but for the ones believing⁴ 22
- 1E. Therefore, if the whole church comes-together at the same *place*⁵, and they all speak in tongues,⁶ and uninstructed⁷ ones or unbelievers come-in, will they not say that you are mad⁸? 23
- 2E. But if they all prophesy, and some unbeliever or⁹ an uninstructed one comes in, he is convicted¹⁰ by all. He is examined^C by all. *The¹¹ hidden^D things of his heart become evident¹². And thus, having fallen on his face, he will give-worship^E to God, declaring^F that God is really^G among you 24

- 5D. What then is *to be done*¹³, brothers^H? Whenever you come-together, each¹⁴ one has a psalm^I, has a teaching^K, has a revelation¹⁵, has a tongue^L, has an interpretation^M. Let all things be done^N for edification^O 26
- 1E. If anyone speaks in a tongue, let it be done by two or at the most three, and in turn, and let one¹⁶ person interpret^P 27
- 1E. But if there is no interpreter¹⁷, let him be silent^Q in church. And let him speak to himself and to God¹⁸ 28
- 2E. And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others¹⁹ discern²⁰. *But if a prophecy 29-30 is revealed^R to another being seated, let the first be silent²¹
- 1E. For you can all prophesy individually²², in order that all may learn^S, and all may be exhorted²³ 31
- 2E. And the spirits²⁴ of prophets are subject^T to prophets²⁵ 32
- 3E. For God is not the God of disorder²⁶, but of peace 33
- 3E. As²⁷ in all the churches²⁸ of the saints, *let the women²⁹ be silent³⁰ in the churches.³¹ For it is not permitted³² for them to speak³³ 34
- 1E. But let them be subject^T, just as the Law also says³⁴

1. This is Paul's application of the OT quotation, the mature thinking he wants the Corinthians to have.
2. Some think it is a sign of God's presence in the one speaking, as in Acts 2, a sign that God was speaking to the hearers. It was responded to based on the state of the hearer's heart. Some believed, some rejected, as seen in Acts 2. Israel was supposed to speak for God. Instead, God now speaks to Israel through foreign languages. In Acts 2, the tongues sign created the opportunity to say "Repent and be saved, or face judgment". Others think it was a sign of judgment on Israel, as in Isaiah.
3. That is, tongues are for use outside of the church setting, as seen in Acts. In the church setting, without interpretation, this gift is ineffective for all but the speaker, v 3, 23. The believers may be "instructed" about it, but still do not understand it.
4. When used in the church setting, prophecy is effective for all, even any unbelievers present, v 24-25. It is not "for a sign", but for the things mentioned in v 3, 31.
5. Same phrase as in 11:20.
6. That is, without interpretation. Paul is referring to the fact of its occurrence, not the manner (for example, in a disorderly manner). Since it is not for believers (v 22), that is, not for the church setting, what follows will be the result.
7. Same word as in v 16, 24. Note that "uninstructed" and "unbeliever" are plural here, singular in v 24.
8. Or, "raving, out of your mind. Since no one understands, they conclude you are mad. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. This word was used of being "mad" with rage, bloodlust, a god, wine, love, joy, etc. Used of mad dogs. Elsewhere only in Jn 10:20 (of Jesus); Act 12:15 (of a girl); Act 26:24, 25 (of Paul). GK 3419. Related to "madness" in Act 26:24.
9. Both will understand what is said and neither needs instruction on the significance of the gift of prophecy. Since it is for believers, that is, the church setting, it will have a positive effect in that environment upon all present.
10. Or, "exposed, rebuked". On this word, see "expose" in Eph 5:11. All the prophets speak to this person's heart.
11. Some manuscripts say "And thus, the hidden..." {N}.
12. Or, "known". On this word, see Rom 1:19.
13. What is the church to do? What is the conclusion of the matter for the church? Same phrase as v 15.
14. Some manuscripts say "each of you" {N}. Each has what God has given him, these being examples.
15. On this word, see 2 Thes 1:7. Some manuscripts reverse this, putting "tongue" here, and "revelation" next {K}.
16. This is the number "one". Paul could mean that one person is to interpret for all three speaking in tongues; or, that one person interprets per speaker. GK 1651.
17. Note that the speaker must know in advance that his tongue can be interpreted, or he is not to speak out loud. Used only here. GK 1449. See also 12:10.
18. Some think Paul means "speak silently to himself and God", so as to exercise his gift without causing confusion in the church. Others think he means "speak privately, somewhere else, out loud, to himself and God". In either case, the speaker is to use the gift God gave him, not abandon it. But he is to use it properly, v 40.
19. That is, "the others of the same kind", meaning the other prophets. Same with "another" later in the verse.
20. This is the verb related to "discernment" (12:10) of spirits. Prophets seem to be among those having this gift. That is, discern whether God is the source of the prophecy. On this word, see "doubt" in Jam 1:6.
21. The grammar means "keep silent". Some think Paul means "immediately". God would not give a revelation to both at the same time, v 33. Others think he means "before the second one speaks. Do not speak at the same time".
22. Or, "one by one". On this idiom, see Eph 5:33.
23. Or, "encouraged". On this word, see Rom 12:8.
24. Same word as in v 12. Paul could mean "the human spirits" or "the spiritual gifts".
25. The prophets and the tongue-speakers (as seen in v 28) are not in a state of uncontrollable ecstasy, possessed by the gods as in the Corinthians' former pagan religions. There is a shared control by the Spirit and the prophet.
26. Or, "unruliness, commotions". On this word, see Jam 3:16. God is not the source.
27. Or, "As in all the churches, let the wives of the saints be silent in the churches", that is, Christian wives. Or, "but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints. Let the wives...". Some manuscripts have v 34-35 after v 40 {B}.
28. As in 11:16 with veils, Paul appeals to the general practice or custom of the churches with which he was associated. Some think it is going beyond what is said to teach that these customs apply to every church in every culture. The principle must be applied in each culture so that the intended result is achieved, that is, to conduct ourselves in church honorably and without bringing unnecessary shame on the gospel. Others think it is going beyond what is said to view these as culturally specific applications, and that veils and silence should be observed in all churches. Others accept the first position with regard to veils, and the second position with regard to women.
29. Or, "wives". "Wives" are mainly in view here, based on v 35. Some manuscripts say "your" women {N}. On this word, see 1 Tim 2:11.
30. Same word used of tongue-speakers and prophets, v 28, 30. They were instructed to be silent regarding expressing their gift. Same word as in Lk 18:39; Act 12:17; 15:12, 13. Elsewhere only as "keep silent" in Lk 9:36; Rom 16:25; and "become silent" in Lk 20:26. GK 4967.
31. Some think that women prayed and prophesied in the church like the men, the women being veiled, the men bare-headed (subordinating this verse to 11:4-5). Aside from such participation led by the Spirit, they are to remain quiet. General talking and asking questions are in view here, v 35. Others think that women prayed and prophesied elsewhere (subordinating 11:4-5 to this verse), and that Paul is forbidding all speaking in church by women.
32. Or, "allowed". On this word, see 1 Tim 2:12.
33. Or, "talk". Some think Paul means to speak out of order, as with the tongue-speakers and prophets. His point with all three groups is "properly and in order" (v 40), not "shamefully and out of order". Others take this absolutely. On this word, see Jn 12:49.
34. Note Paul's explanation in 11:8-9 and 1 Tim 2:13-14. It is part of God's created order before the Fall (Gen 2:18), and part of His curse after the Fall (Gen 3:16). Compare Eph 5:23-24.

- 2F. And if they want to learn^A anything, let them question^B their own husbands at home. For it is shameful^I *for a woman*² to speak in church 35

1. Same word as in 11:6. A woman shames herself and her church in the eyes of her society. Paul's goal is to avoid bringing unnecessary shame on the church. On this word, see Tit 1:11.
2. Some manuscripts say "women" {K}.
3. Some think this is said specifically in regard to women, making this point 3F. Others think it applies to all the directions for public worship given in v 26-35.
4. Or, "recognize". On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
5. On this word, see Mk 12:28. Some manuscripts say "that they are commandments..." {N}.
6. Or, "not-recognize... not-recognized". If someone does not recognize this, he or she is not recognized as a prophet or spiritual person. The same word is repeated. Some manuscripts have this as a command, "let him be not-known" {B}. On this word, see "being ignorant of" in Rom 10:3.
7. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
8. Or, "preventing, hindering, trying to stop". "Forbidding" is verbally "hindering". Same word as in Mt 19:14; Mk 9:38, 39; 10:14; Lk 9:49, 50; 18:16; 23:2; Act 10:47; 11:17; 16:6; 24:23; 27:43; 1 Thes 2:16; 1 Tim 4:3; 3 Jn 10. Elsewhere only as "hinder" in Lk 11:52; "prevent" in Act 8:36; Rom 1:13; Heb 7:23; "withhold" in Lk 6:29; and "restrain" in 2 Pet 2:16. GK 3266. Related to "prevent" in Mt 3:14; and "without hindrance" in Act 28:31.
9. Or, "gospel", the good news about Jesus Christ, the good news from God. Same word as in Mt 4:2; 24:14; 26:13; Mk 1:1, 14, 15; 16:15; Act 15:7; 20:24; Rom 1:1, 16; 2 Cor 4:3; Gal 1:6; 2:2, 7; Eph 1:13; 3:6; Phil 1:5, 7; Col 1:5; 1 Thes 2:4; 2 Thes 1:8; 2 Tim 1:8, 10; 1 Pet 4:17; Rev 14:6. Used 76 times. GK 2295.
10. In this verse Paul uses the noun and the verb of the same word, as also in Gal 1:11. On this verb, see Act 5:42.
11. The grammar means "assuming that you are holding on".
12. The unique grammar here indicates Paul is speaking of what we hold on "in" or "with". Elsewhere, with different grammar, this word means "hold on to", as in 7:30; 11:2. On this word, see "hold down" in Rom 1:18.
13. Or, "which", but not the word used elsewhere in v 1-2 (GK 4005). The uncertainty arises because of this issue of the resurrection addressed in this chapter. If the Corinthians do not believe Jesus was raised, they are not saved. GK 5515.
14. The Corinthians would have believed in vain if there is no resurrection, v 17. On this idiom, see 14:5.
15. That is, to no purpose. On this word, see Col 2:18.
16. That is, the most important things. This word means "first, foremost, leading". Used 155 times. GK 4755 and 4756.
17. That is, Peter. On this name, see Gal 1:18.
18. This may be a title, not a count, as in Lk 24:33. Judas was gone at this point, but they are still called "the twelve", as in Jn 20:24. They are called "the eleven" in Mt 28:16; Mk 16:14; Lk 24:9, 33. Or, if Paul is using this term in the revised sense of Act 1:26 and 6:12 (note also Act 2:14), then Matthias is the twelfth.
19. This letter was written in about A.D. 55, in Act 19:10, about 25 years after the death of Christ.
20. That is, the brother of the Lord. See Mt 13:55 on him.
21. Or, "as it were". Used only here. GK 6062. It is "as if" because Paul was not in fact born "late" in God's plan, but was separated from his mother's womb, Gal 1:15.
22. Or, "abnormally born". This word means "miscarriage, abortion, forced birth, untimely birth". Perhaps Paul refers to himself as a "forced birth". Before the normal course of events led to his spiritual birth, Christ intercepted him on the road and "forced" his birth. Or perhaps he intends a general sense, "one not born in a normal way". Or perhaps he means, "an apostle born after the normal time", after Christ ascended. Used only here. GK 1765.
23. Or, "prove to be". Same word as in Act 26:19. GK 1181.
24. Or, "without result". Same word as in v 14, 58.
25. Paul may mean "than all of them together"; or, "than any one of them".
26. That is, by all these witnesses in v 5-8, and others. Assuming that Christ's body was raised as all these witnesses are proclaiming, how can resurrection be impossible?
27. These people were not saying that there is no heaven and hell, but that our bodies will not be resurrected. We will be spirits. Some philosophers taught that the body was evil, part of this world. Note the response in Act 17:32.
28. If Christ's resurrection is not an objective, historical reality, then Christianity is worthless, and the worst deception ever foisted upon the world. Apart from His resurrection, none of it is believable or worth believing. If He was raised, then nothing other than what Jesus and His apostolic witnesses said about God is believable or worth believing. There is no middle ground for Paul. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
29. Some manuscripts say "Our" {B}.
30. That is, concerning God.
31. That is, against or in contradiction to the truth of God. Or, "by God", under oath, as this word is used in Heb 6:13, 16. That is, we claimed God's authority for our message. GK 2848.
32. That is, "if we assume it is true that the dead are not raised", as is the case under this false teaching. On this idiom, see "since" in Rom 8:9.

1. Or, "useless, pointless, to no end, worthless". Same word as in 3:20; 1 Pet 1:18. Elsewhere only as "worthless" in Act 14:15; Tit 3:9; Jam 1:26. GK 3469. Related to "become futile" in Rom 1:21; "futility" in Rom 8:20; "in vain" (futilely) in Mt 15:9; "worthless-talkers" in Tit 1:10; and "worthless-talk" in 1 Tim 1:6.
2. That is, having died. On this word, see 1 Thes 4:13.
3. That is, as Christians.
4. Or, "were lost". That is, died in their sins. On this word, see 1 Cor 1:18.
5. Or, the two verbs may be combined as "If we have hoped". Or, "If we are only ones having hoped in Christ in this life".
6. That is, more deserving of pity. On this adjective, see Rev 3:17.
7. Or, "first portion". Jesus is the first, the representative of what is to come. Elsewhere only in Rom 8:23; 11:16; 16:5; 1 Cor 15:23; 16:15; 2 Thes 2:13; Jam 1:18; Rev 14:4. GK 569. Some manuscripts say "dead. He became the firstfruit..." {N}.
8. That is, in the sphere of, in connection with. GK 1877.
9. This is the Greek word order. Some punctuate it "as all in Adam die, so also all in Christ...". That is, all humanity dies, all believers will be raised. Unbelievers will be raised also, but they are not "in Christ", and are not in view here. Others punctuate it "as all die in Adam, so also all will be given life in Christ". In this case, Paul is referring to the universal resurrection of all humanity, some to life, others to judgment, as in Jn 5:29; Act 24:15.
10. Or, "made alive". Same word as in v 36, 45, on which see Jn 5:21.
11. Or, "group". This word means a "class, division, group, rank", and is used of a "detachment, division" of troops. It also means the "arrangement, turn". Used only here. GK 5413.
12. Or, "Then, Next in order". Same word as in v 6, 7. Same word as "then" in 12:28; 15:46; 1 Thes 4:17. Used 16 times. GK 2083.
13. That is, belonging to Christ.
14. That is, both those dead, and those still living, 1 Thes 4:16-17. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:8.
15. Or, "Next". It implies nothing as to the length of time between the coming of Jesus and the end; only that they are sequential events. P-M (see the note on Rev 20:1) thinks there is an interval of 1000 years between them; A-M thinks there is no significant interval between them. The end comes immediately after Christ returns. Same word as in v 5, 7; Mt 4:28; 1 Tim 2:13. Used 15 times. GK 1663.
16. Or, "delivers". Some manuscripts have this word in the same tense as the verbs following {N}, so that the three of them would be rendered "hands over... abolishes... puts". On this word, see Mt 26:21.
17. Some think this refers to the Son, and what He does before He hands over the kingdom, this phrase continuing the subject of "He hands over" earlier, which also continues in "He must reign" in v 25. Reading forward from v 24 to 25, one would naturally assume there is no change in subject. Others think this verb refers back to "the God and Father", and is referring to what the Father will do prior to when Christ hands it over. Since the One subjecting all things under His feet is the Father in v 26-28, Paul may intend us to read that fact back into v 24-25.
18. Paul changes tense, indicating that the rule, authority, and power are "abolished" (and the enemies are "put", v 25) before Christ "hands over" the kingdom. P-M thinks the abolishing, reigning, and putting down of enemies, including death last, takes place during the interval (that is, the millennium) between His coming and the end (when He hands over the kingdom). A-M thinks the reigning is taking place now, and the abolishing and putting down take place immediately after His coming, just before He hands over the kingdom. There is no interval between these final events. On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6.
19. Paul may mean this in an abstract sense, the very principle and position of these things apart from God, as well as the beings holding those positions, human or angelic. Or he may mean it in a personal sense, "every ruler and every authority and power", the enemy beings themselves. Same word as "rulers" in Rom 8:38.
20. That is, the Son.
21. Some think Paul means the Father, as in v 27; Ps 110:1; Ps 8:6; others, the Son.
22. Or, "done away with, nullified". Same word as in v 24. Once all are raised, death no longer has any meaning. Compare Rev 20:14.
23. That is, the Father.
24. That is, the Son.
25. Some think Paul means "when God says in Psalm 8:6"; others, "when God says at the end" (note the change to "have been subjected").
26. That is, "except the Father who subjected all things to the Son", v 28. He remains the Father. Compare 11:3.
27. That is, the Son.
28. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
29. That is, the Father.
30. Some think Paul means "will be subjected... in order that..."; others, "the One having subjected... in order that".
31. This same phrase, "all things in all", is used of Christ in Eph 1:23.
32. That is, "Otherwise, if v 20-28 is not the case, then what?".
33. This may mean "on behalf of", "for the sake of", "because of", or "with reference to". GK 5642.
34. What Paul means here is uncertain. Note that v 29 is in the third person—the ones, they, them—and that v 30 has an emphatic "we". Some think this indicates Paul is talking about what some other people do. Some think he is sarcastically referring to some pagan practice of proxy baptism familiar to the Corinthians. However, no such practice is known at this time from other sources. Others think it was "because of" the dead, because of the influence of their lives, or to be with them. Consult the commentaries.
35. Some manuscripts say "for the dead" {N}.
36. Or, "Why also", or "And why". Same phrase as "why indeed" in v 29.
37. Or, "in peril, at risk". Elsewhere only in Lk 8:23; Act 19:27, 40. GK 3073. The related noun is in Rom 8:35.
38. That is, I face death daily. Note 2 Cor 4:11.

1. Or, "take place, happen, come to pass". GK 1181.
2. Some manuscripts say "Hades", as does the Septuagint.
3. Some manuscripts have "stinger" in the previous phrase and "victory" in this one {B}.
4. That is, the part that does harm, that injects the poison. As the scorpion delivers its poison through its stinger, so death does through sin. Sin is what brings separation from God in death, the bitterest of poisons. Apart from sin, death is powerless. Same word as in v 55; Rev 9:10. Elsewhere only as "goad" in Act 26:14. GK 3034.
5. The Law of God establishes the line to cross, the rule to break—and the penalty for doing so.
6. Elsewhere only in v 54, 55; Mt 12:20. GK 3777. Related to the word in 1 Jn 5:4, and to "overcome" in Rev 2:7.
7. Or, "become". GK 1181.
8. Used only here. GK 293. Related to "moved away" in Col 1:23.
9. Or, "in vain". Same word as in v 10, 14.
10. That is, the collection Paul was raising from the Gentile churches for the poor Christians in Jerusalem. See 2 Cor 8-9 for more. Here Paul gives the Galatians as an example for the Corinthians (he wrote this book in Act 19:10). Later, he gives the Macedonians as examples for them in 2 Cor 8, and reports that he had given the Corinthians as examples for the Macedonians in 2 Cor 9:2 (written in Act 20:2). And later, he reports the contribution given by the Corinthians and Macedonians to the Romans in Rom 15:26 (written in Act 20:3). Elsewhere only in v 2. GK 3356.
11. Perhaps Paul did this on the trip mentioned in Act 18:23. On this word, see 7:17.

13. Or, "lay away, put down". On this word, see "put" in Act 19:21.
14. That is, at home.
15. Or, "treasuring up". Same word as in Lk 12:21; Rom 2:5; 2 Cor 12:14; Jam 5:3; 2 Pet 3:7. Elsewhere only as "treasure up" in Mt 6:19, 20, where it is used with the related noun "treasure". GK 2564. Note Mt 19:21.
16. On the phrase "whatever thing", see Col 3:17.
17. Or, "So that... collections will not...". GK 2671.
18. These approved people would be official representatives. Some are named in Act 20:4. This may also be punctuated "... you approve with letters, I will send these ones...". In one case, the Corinthians give each person they approve a letter of authorization; in the other case, Paul gives them letters of introduction to those to whom he would be sending them in Judea and Jerusalem.
19. Or, "bring, take away". Same word as in Act 19:12. Elsewhere only as "carry away" in Lk 16:22; Rev 17:3; 21:10; and "take away" in Mk 15:1. GK 708. The root word is "bring, carry".
20. Or, "worthy". Paul may mean that if the amount collected made it appropriate for him to go, he would do so; or, that if it is fitting for him to go at that time, in view of other circumstances, he would go. Later, in Act 19:21, while still in Ephesus, after writing this letter, Paul decided he would go to Jerusalem. He did go, leaving from Corinth in Act 20:3. There are no Corinthians in the list of those who went with him in Act 20:4, for reasons unknown. On this word, see "worthy" in Rev 16:6.
21. Paul gives the Corinthians more details about when he plans to come there to finalize and send the collection, and the reasons for this plan. If v 12 is not taken as the final question in the Corinthians' letter to Paul, then the conclusion of the letter begins here instead of in v 13. See v 12.
22. This took place in Act 20:1-2.
23. This represents a change in plans already communicated to them. See 2 Cor 1:16.
24. Or, "it may be that". This idiom, more literally "having turned out that way", is used only here. It is the same word as in the idiom in 15:37, with different grammar.
25. Some manuscripts say "but" {N}.
26. Paul stayed 3 months (Act 20:3), during which he wrote Romans. On this word, see 1 Tim 2:12.
27. Paul is writing this letter from Ephesus.
28. Or, "active". On this word, see Heb 4:12.
29. Paul sent Timothy ahead to Macedonia in Act 19:22, and from there to Corinth, 1 Cor 4:17. Whether or not Timothy made it there is not known. Note 2 Cor 1:1.
30. Paul was probably concerned about Timothy's age, since he writes to Timothy eight to ten years later and says "Let no one look down on your youth", 1 Tim 4:12.
31. On this word, see "treat with contempt" in 1 Thes 5:20.
32. Some think Paul means "the brothers with him"; others, "the brothers with me".
33. Or, "And". This is the last occurrence of "Now concerning", and a question about the return of Apollos, whom the Corinthians loved, can easily be imagined as part of their letter to Paul (see 7:1). Or, if this is not in response to their letter, it may be rendered "And concerning". In this case Paul is updating them about Apollos, as he just did regarding Timothy. In this view the conclusion of the book begins at v 5, making the update on Paul point A., the command about Timothy (v 10) point B., the update on Apollos point C., and then continuing with point D. in v 13.
34. See Act 18:24 on Apollos.
35. Some think Paul means the brothers with Paul, perhaps those in v 17; others, the brothers with Apollos.

9. That is, to Ephesus, where Paul was.
10. That is, your physical lack, your absence. Both "your lack by me", "your lack of me". These men made up for your absence, filling the gap between us. They probably brought letters and information to Paul, and he may be sending this letter back with them. Others think Paul means "your lack [of service]", as in Phil 2:30. The grammar of "your lack" here is different from the other occurrences of this word. Some manuscripts have the same grammar {N}. On this word, see Phil 2:30.
11. Paul may mean that sending these men refreshed your spirit when you sent them. Sending them set you at ease, and with their arrival here, you can take comfort. Or, that these men refreshed your spirit upon their return to Corinth with this letter (it will be past tense when the Corinthians read this letter).
12. On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6. Fully recognize them.
13. Ephesus, the city from which Paul is writing, is in the Roman province of Asia.
14. Some manuscripts say "Priscilla" {N}. See Rom 16:3 on these two. Paul had found them in Corinth, Act 18:1-2. They went with Paul to Ephesus, Act 18:18-19, where they met and helped Apollos, Act 18:24-26.
15. This is the same phrase as in Col 4:18; 2 Thes 3:17. Similar to Phm 19. This may indicate Paul had been dictating to a secretary until here.
16. Same word as affectionately-love in Jn 21:15. Elsewhere by Paul only in Tit 3:15. It is related to "kiss" in v 20.

20. Some manuscripts say "our" {K}.
21. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {N}.
22. This is the word agape, the word in chapter 13. On this word, see 1 Jn 4:16.
23. Some manuscripts add "amen" {B}.

Introduction	1:1-2
1A. Blessed be God who comforts us in all our affliction so that we may be able to comfort others	1:3-11
2A. Our conscience boasts that we conducted ourselves with you in simplicity and purity from God	1:12
1B. For we are writing no other thing than what you read or indeed, understand	1:13
2B. And I hope you will understand that we are your boast, even as you are ours	1:13-14
3B. And in this confidence, I was intending to come to you first, on the way to Macedonia	1:15-16
4B. Therefore, while intending this, did I act with lightness? I changed plans to spare you	1:17-2:11
5B. Now having come to Troas, I had no rest at not finding Titus. I went to Macedonia	2:12-13
6B. But thanks be to God who leads us, and makes the aroma of Christ evident through us	2:14

4C. And we have such a confidence through Christ toward God	3:4
1D. Not that we are sufficient from ourselves to count anything as out of ourselves	3:5
2D. But our sufficiency is from God, who made us ministers of a new covenant	3:6
3D. And this ministry comes with a permanent glory surpassing the old covenant	3:7-11
4D. Therefore we use much boldness, reflecting the glory, not veiling it like Moses	3:12-18
5C. For this reason, having this ministry even as we received mercy, we do not lose heart	4:1
1D. But we renounced hidden motives. If the truth is veiled, it is so in the perishing	4:2-6
2D. But we have this treasure in clay vessels. Death is at work in us, life in you	4:7-12
3D. But we believe, therefore we speak, knowing God will raise us with Jesus	4:13-15
4D. Therefore we do not lose heart, but we are renewed daily by hope	4:16-5:8
5D. Therefore we are ambitious to please God, for we must all appear before Him	5:9-11
7B. Now we have been made known to God, and I hope also in your consciences	5:11
1C. We are not commending ourselves, but giving you an opportunity to boast in us	5:12
2C. For it we lost our senses, it is for God! If we are sound minded, it is for you!	5:13
3C. For Christ's love controls us— He died for all, and we live for Him as new creations	5:14-17
4C. And all things are from God— the One who reconciled us and gave us this ministry	5:18-19
5C. Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is appealing through us	5:20
1D. We are begging on behalf of Christ— Be reconciled to God!	5:20-6:2
2D. In nothing giving an opportunity for stumbling, so the ministry is not faulted	6:3
3D. But in everything commending ourselves as God's servants	6:4-10
8B. Our mouth and heart have opened wide to you, Corinthians. You open wide also. Do not become mis-yoked to unbelievers. Make room for us. I do not condemn you	6:11-7:4
9B. I have been filled with comfort by the news of you brought by Titus	7:4-16
3A. Now we make known to you the grace of God granted in the churches of Macedonia—	8:1

1B. That their abundance of joy and deep poverty abounded into their generosity	8:2-6
2B. But just as you abound in everything, be abounding also in this grace. Complete the doing	8:7-15
3B. I am sending Titus and two brothers to you so that you may be prepared when I come	8:16-9:5
4B. Now this I say—the one sowing sparingly will reap sparingly. God will help you	9:6-14
5B. Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift	9:15
4A. Now I beg to not have to be bold toward some considering us as walking according to the flesh	10:1-2
1B. For we do not wage war according to the flesh, but with God's weapons	10:3-6
2B. You are looking at things according to appearance	10:7
1C. If anyone is confident in himself that he is Christ's, we are also	10:7
2C. For if I boast about our authority which the Lord gave us, I will not be put to shame	10:8-11
3C. For we do not dare to compare ourselves with those who commend themselves	10:12
4C. And we will not boast unmeasurable things, but based on the standard God gave us	10:13-16
5C. But let the one boasting boast in the Lord, for the one He commends is approved	10:17-18
3B. O that you would bear with me in a little bit of foolishness, yet keep bearing with me	11:1
1C. For I am jealous for you. I fear for you that your minds are being corrupted	11:2-3
2C. For if one comes to you with another Jesus, spirit or gospel, you bear with them nicely!	11:4
3C. For I in no way come short of the superlative apostles— except for my self-support	11:5-15
4B. Again I say, receive me even if as foolish, in order that I also may boast a little bit	11:16
1C. What I am speaking is not according to the Lord, but as in foolishness	11:17
2C. Since many are boasting according to the flesh, I also will boast—in my weaknesses	11:18-33
3C. It is necessary to boast, so I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord	12:1-10
5B. I have become foolish—you compelled me! I ought to be being commended by you!	12:11
1C. For I in no way come short of the superlative apostles—the signs prove it	12:11-12
2C. For in what were you worse off than the others, except that I was not your burden	12:13-18
6B. All this time are you thinking we are defending ourselves? We are speaking before God	12:19
1C. For I fear that having come, we may not find each other such as we would want	12:20-21
2C. This is the third time I am coming to you	13:1
1D. Every word shall be established based on the mouth of two and three witnesses	13:1
2D. If I come I will not spare you, since you are seeking proof of Christ in me. Prove yourselves! We pray you not do anything bad, for your sakes, not mine	13:2-9
3C. I am writing these things while absent so I may not have to act severely when I come	13:10

1. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
2. Paul is now with Timothy, whom he had sent to Macedonia and Corinth (in Act 19:22; 1 Cor 4:17), and had written to the Corinthians about in 1 Cor 16:10-11. Whether Timothy ever reached Corinth is not mentioned. He is mentioned again in this book only in v 19. See 1 Tim 1:2 on Timothy.
3. This letter was written in Act 20:2, before Paul's three-month stay in Corinth in Act 20:2-3.
4. This is the Roman province in which the city of Corinth was located (see Act 19:21). It is also called "Greece" in Act 20:2.
5. Or, "acts of compassion, mercy". That is, the Father characterized by compassions; or, the Father who is the source of the compassions we experience. On this word, see Rom 12:1.
6. Or, "encouragement". That is, the God who is the source of all comfort, of every kind of comfort. Paul uses this word and its related verb 10 times in v 3-7. On this word, see "encouragement" in Act 4:36.
7. Or, "in reference to, for, upon, over". GK 2093. Same word as "in" in 7:4; 1 Thes 3:7.
8. Or, "within, in the sphere of, under". GK 1877.
9. On this subject, see Phil 1:29; 3:10; Col 1:24; 1 Pet 4:13; Jn 15:20; Rom 8:17; Heb 13:13; etc. Paul could mean the sufferings we experience because we are Christians; or, the suffering Christ experiences when His people are made to suffer (Act 9:4). Or, he could mean both, the sufferings of Christ which He shares with His people.
10. Some manuscripts omit "and salvation... your comfort", which resulted in other variations {A}.
11. Or, "in operation". On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
12. Or, "sure, secure", like an anchor. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:10.
13. Or, "concerning, about". GK 5642.
14. That is, where Paul intended to remain in 1 Cor 16:8-9. This happened during Acts 19, after Paul wrote 1 Corinthians, and may be foreshadowed by "many opposing" in 1 Cor 16:9. We do not know to what Paul refers, but the Corinthians did, perhaps through Titus. Some think it was a persecution; others, a sickness. Some manuscripts add "to us" {N}, so it says "having happened to us in Asia".
15. Or, "weighed down". Same word as 5:4; 1 Tim 5:16. Elsewhere only as "weighed down" in Mt 26:43; Lk 9:32; 21:34. GK 976. Related to the word in 1 Thes 2:9.
16. Some take this as a single description of Paul's internal distress, "burdened... beyond our power"; others, as two descriptions, "burdened extremely" externally, and "beyond our power" internally.
17. Or, "were utterly at a loss, were in great perplexity, were utterly perplexed". On this word, see "utterly perplexed" in 4:8.
18. Or, "even that we should live". That is, they could not see how they would survive the danger facing them. GK 2409.
19. Or, "have". The grammar implies it continues to be true.
20. Or, "having confidence, putting confidence, relying". Same word as in Mt 27:43; Lk 11:22. On this word, see "persuade" in 1 Jn 3:19.
21. That is, "a [peril] of death", as in 11:23. Paul considered himself dead. Some manuscripts say "so many deaths" {B}.
22. Some manuscripts say "and delivers us"; others omit this phrase {B}. On this word, see Col 1:13.
23. Or, "even, also". GK 2779.
24. That is, in the future. Instead of "hope that... still", some manuscripts say "hope. And He will still deliver us" {C}.
25. Paul may mean "joining with me"; "joining together with one another"; or, "joining with others". Used only here. GK 5348.
26. Or, "So that thanks will be given...". GK 2671.
27. Some manuscripts say "your" {B}.
28. Or, "persons". That is, persons viewed as faces looking up to God in prayer. On this word, see "presence" in Lk 9:52.
29. That is, the gift of future deliverance from the peril of death.
30. Or, "people", people praying.
31. Paul uses this word to assert his first main point, as in Rom 1:18. GK 1142. Paul is under attack, and he is writing 2 Corinthians to vindicate himself and his apostleship, and to expose his detractors. But he begins with his answer, without first detailing the questions being raised about him. Thus we feel as if we are jumping into the middle of their conversation here, and we must infer what was being said about Paul from the responses he gives. He begins by boasting that he behaved with simplicity and purity, and then proves it by recounting the reasons for his decisions, and sharing his inner thoughts regarding his ministry, 1:12-7:4. In chapters 10-13, Paul takes on his detractors more directly. This book is a deeply personal and introspective look into the heart of Paul. Acts is the outside view; this is the inside view.
32. Our boasting or glorying is our conscience giving its testimony as to our behavior toward you, not our boasting as to our strengths or accomplishments. To understand this statement, compare Rom 9:1. Here Paul does not begin with an "I" statement, such as "I am the apostle who brought you the gospel and the ones attacking me are wrong for the following reasons", that is, with a direct boast about his ministry and a rebuke of them. Instead he says his boasting is his conscience bearing witness, almost as if it were a third party. On this word, see 7:4.
33. That is, the testimony proceeding from our conscience. On this word, see Act 23:1.
34. What follows in this verse is the "testimony" that our "conscience" is "boasting".
35. Or, "frankness". On this word, see "generosity" in Rom 12:8. Some manuscripts say "holiness" {B}.
36. Or, "sincerity". Paul is referring to the purity of his motives, which come from God, thus, his "sincerity". Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 5:8 and 2 Cor 2:17. GK 1636. Related to "pure" in Phil 1:10.
37. Literally "of God". That is, God-given, derived from God. Others render this "godly"; others, "god-like"; others, "before God". Some take this with both of the preceding words; others, only with "purity".
38. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
39. Paul's simplicity and purity of motive is reflected in his writing. There is no hidden meaning or motive. Perhaps some were accusing him of this by saying, "there is a hidden meaning in Paul's words"; or, "he does not mean what he says".
40. Some think Paul means "fully, completely" in contrast with the Corinthians' past partial understanding; others, "until the end of your lives" or "until the end of the world" (as in 1 Cor 1:8). On this word, see Rom 10:4. Some manuscripts say "even until the end" {K}.
41. Paul may mean "some of you understood us" or "you understood us partially". On this idiom, see Rom 11:25.
42. Some think Paul means "you will understand...that"; others, "you did understand... that". In either case, it is clear that Paul knows he does not enjoy the unqualified favor of all in Corinth.
43. That is, the content of your boast. On this word, see Phil 1:26.
44. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "the day of the Lord Jesus".

- 4B. Therefore,⁸ while intending^A this, I did not then act with lightness⁹, did I? Or do I plan¹⁰ the things which I plan according-to¹¹ the flesh— so that there is with me the yes, yes, and the no, no?¹² 17

- 1D. For God's Son Jesus Christ, the One having been proclaimed^C among you by us— by me and Silvanus¹⁶ and Timothy— did not become¹⁷ yes and no, but has become¹⁸ yes in Him¹⁹ 19
- 1E. For as many as there are promises^D of God— in Him is the yes²⁰! 20
- 2E. Therefore also through Him²¹ is [spoken] the amen²² to God for His glory²³, through us²⁴ 21

1. Paul may be referring to his self-confidence (v 12), the confidence of a clear conscience and pure motives. Or, he may mean his confidence in their mutual relationship, v 14. It is clear from v 15-17 that his change of plans regarding his next visit to Corinth had become an issue with some in Corinth, and was used to cast him in a bad light. Here Paul recounts his original plan, the plan he changed in 1 Cor 16:3-6. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 3:4; 8:22; 10:2; Eph 3:12; Phil 3:4. GK 4301.
2. Or, "formerly". This is the position of this word in the Greek word order. Some think Paul means "to come to you first", on the way to Macedonia. Others think he means "I was intending formerly", referring to the plan he changed. Same word as in Gal 4:13; Heb 7:27. Elsewhere only as "former" in Eph 4:22; Heb 10:32; 1 Pet 1:14; and "formerly" in Jn 6:62; 7:50; 9:8, 1 Tim 1:13; Heb 4:6. GK 4728.
3. Paul may mean "second" because this would be his second visit to them, making the visit described next (upon his return from Macedonia) his third visit. See "again" in 2:1. Or, "second" may refer to the return visit described next. I was coming to you first so that you might have a second visit when I return from Macedonia. The word does not mean "dual, double, twice", but this gives the sense of it here for this view. Used 37 times, all rendered "second". GK 1311.
4. Or "grace, kindness, favor". Some think Paul is referring to his upcoming visit with the Corinthians as a benefit of God's grace to them (compare Rom 1:11; 15:29); others, as a personal act of kindness toward them. Some manuscripts say "joy" {B}. On "have a benefit", see "have gratitude" in Lk 17:9.
5. Or, "indeed, even", defining the two benefits.
6. Same word as in Rom 15:24 of the Romans sending Paul forward into Spain.
7. This original plan led Paul to Corinth first— clockwise from Ephesus to Corinth to Macedonia, then back to Corinth, and then to Jerusalem. Paul changed this plan when he wrote 1 Cor 16:3-6. His new plan was to go to Corinth last— counterclockwise from Ephesus through Macedonia to Corinth, stay for the winter, and then go to Jerusalem. This was his actual course, as seen in 2 Cor 2:12-13; Act 20:1-3. Before he came to Corinth, somewhere in Macedonia, Titus (coming from Corinth, 2 Cor 7:5-6) met him, and Paul wrote this letter (in Act 20:2). Not long after this letter, he arrived in Corinth and stayed three months, and then changed his plans again about the trip to Jerusalem, Act 20:3.
8. In these words, Paul is apparently referring to accusations made against him. Some saw his change in plans as evidence that he was not a divinely directed apostle, but made and changed his plans as a mere man.
9. That is, did I make my plans lightly? Was I vacillating, fickle? The grammar indicates a "no" answer is expected. Used only here. GK 1786. Related to the word in 4:17.
10. Or, "decide, resolve". On this word, see Jn 11:53. Related to "intending" in v 15, 17.
11. Or, "based on" human desires. GK 2848.
12. That is, are my plans based on human uncertainty? If so, the next question could be "Is your message, the gospel, also uncertain?" Paul's answer begins in v 18 with an answer to this broader question, and moves to the specific question in v 23.
13. Some think this is an oath, like Rom 14:11 (which has the same grammar). Same idiom as in 2 Cor 11:10. Others render it "But God is faithful in that our message...". There is a similar idiom in Gal 1:20. On "faithful", see Col 1:2.
14. Some manuscripts say "was" {N}.
15. There is no wavering or uncertainty in the message we brought. It is as firm as God's Son's accomplishment.
16. That is, Silas. See 1 Thes 1:1 on Silvanus.
17. Or, "did not prove to be... but has proven to be"; or, "was not... but has been (and continues to be)". GK 1181.
18. Some think the subject of both occurrences of this verb is the Son, "the Son did not become yes and no, but He has become yes in connection with the Father"; others think the subject changes, "for the Son did not prove to be yes and no among you, but the message has proven to be yes in Christ"; others think the subject of both verbs is "the message" (the Son the three of us proclaimed among you), "the message did not prove to be uncertain, but has proven to be yes in Christ".
19. Some think Paul means "Our message is not 'maybe' (uncertain or vacillating), for the Son of God Himself did not become a 'maybe', but has become the 'yes' in connection with God and His promises". Paul is affirming the certainty of the message by the Son's connection with God. Others think he means "Our message is not uncertain, for the Son did not prove Himself to be uncertain among you, but the message has proven to be a 'yes' in Christ in your own experience of Him". He is affirming the certainty of the message by its result among them.
20. That is, Christ is the fulfillment, the confirmation, the affirmation of all the promises of God.
21. Instead of "Therefore also through Him", some manuscripts say "And in Him" {N}.
22. That is, the amen of response to God's message, and acceptance of it.
23. This is the Greek word order. Or, "for glory to God".
24. Or, "by us". Some think Paul means "through us messengers". Through Christ, the amen is spoken by all who accept this message brought to them through us. Others think he means "by us Christians". Through Him, the amen is spoken by us all, in response to God's message. Others think he means "by us messengers". Through Him, the amen is spoken by us messengers as we bring the message to you.
25. That is, establishing us together in the faith. The faithful God is the One doing this for both us who are bringing the message, and you who are receiving it. On this word, see "confirm" in 1 Cor 1:6.
26. This word is used in Rom 16:5; Phm 6; 1 Pet 1:11. Or, "in Christ", as in Act 24:24; Gal 2:16. This idiom is elsewhere only in different senses, six times. This is not Paul's normal phrase for "in Christ". GK 1650.
27. Some think the "us" in this and the next two phrases carries forward the "us" in the first phrase, and so refers to Paul and his companions as ones specially anointed (commissioned) by God to bring the message to the Corinthians. Others think the "us" carries forward the "us with you" in the first phrase, and so refers to what is true of all Christians. In this case, some think Paul means anointed to reign with Christ (note Rom 5:17); others, anointed with the Spirit.
28. This is the Greek word order of this phrase, "the One establishing... and having anointed is God".
29. This word means "earnest money, down payment, first installment, deposit", a partial payment of an obligation, pledging that the remainder is forthcoming. Elsewhere only in 5:5 and Eph 1:14. GK 775.

- 3C. And I call-upon^A God as witness^B for my soul^C that sparing^D you^I I no longer came² to Corinth—^{*}not that we are lording-over^E your faith, but we are fellow-workers^F of your joy³.
For you stand in your faith⁴ 23 24
- 1D. For⁵ I determined^G this for myself— not to come to you again⁶ in grief^H 2:1
- 1E. For if I grieve^I you, who indeed is the one cheering^K me except the one being grieved by me? 2
- 2D. And I wrote this very *thing*⁷ in order that having come, I should not have grief^H from the ones of whom I ought-to-have⁸ rejoicing^L— having confidence⁹ in you all that my joy is the joy of you all 3
- 1E. For I wrote to you through many tears¹⁰, out of much affliction^M and anguish^N of heart— not that you might be grieved^I, but that you might know^O the love^P which I have especially¹¹ for you 4
- 1E. But¹² if anyone has caused-grief,¹³ he has grieved not me, but in part¹⁴ (that I not be a burden¹⁵), you all 5
- 2E. This¹⁶ punishment by the majority¹⁷ is sufficient¹⁸ for such a one 6
- 1G. So that on-the-contrary¹⁹, instead you should forgive^Q and comfort²⁰ him, that such a one should not somehow be swallowed-up^R by more grief^H 7
- 2G. Therefore I urge you to confirm²¹ your love for him 8
- 2E. For I also wrote for this purpose— that I might know²² your approvedness²³, whether you are obedient²⁴ in all things 9
- 1E. And²⁵ to whom you are forgiving^Q anything, I also 10
- 1G. For indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything,²⁶ is for your sakes in the presence of Christ, ^{*}in order that we may not be exploited²⁷ by Satan. For we are not unaware^S as to his schemes²⁸ 11
- 5B. Now²⁹ having come to Troas³⁰ for the good-news^T of Christ— and a door having been opened for me by the Lord—^{*}I had no rest³¹ in my spirit at my not finding Titus³² my brother. But having said-goodbye³³ to them, I went forth to Macedonia³⁴ 12 13
- 6B. But thanks^U be to God, the One always leading us in triumph³⁵ in Christ and making the aroma³⁶ of the knowledge of Him³⁷ known³⁸ through us in every place 14

1. Sparing them grief was Paul's motive for changing his plans, which he explains in 2:1-11. An incident had occurred causing grief in the church with which the Corinthians had to deal, v 5-7. Paul's presence would have increased the grief.
2. That is, came "first", according to his original plan, v 15-16. Paul is on the way there now.
3. The aim of Paul and his co-workers is to bring the the joy of salvation to the Corinthians.
4. Or, "by your faith"; "in the faith"; "by faith".
5. Instead of "For", some manuscripts have a word meaning "Now, But, And" {C}.
6. Some think Paul means "come again". He did not want this planned second visit to be one of grief, so he aborted it. Others think he means "again in grief", implying there was a former "sorrowful visit" not recorded in Acts, and thus making the aborted visit mentioned here his third planned visit. For more, see 12:14; 13:1; 1:15. The Greek word order is "not again in grief to you to come".
7. That is, his change of plans, 1:23. Some manuscripts add "to you" {N}. Some think Paul wrote of this change in 1 Cor 16:5-7. Others think he is referring to some other letter, now lost. Others think he is referring to chapters 10-13, sent as a separate letter before chapters 1-9, but combined in Corinth into the form we have it. This theory is based on the internal content and tone of the two sections. It has no support in the ancient manuscripts we presently have. There are other views. Compare the notes on v 4; 7:8, 12.
8. On this idiom, see "should have" in Mt 25:27. Same grammar as in Act 24:19.
9. That is, having confidence that the Corinthians share Paul's joy in the gospel of Christ and would therefore respond to the directions in his letter and correct the problem.
10. Some think the tears were over the divisions and immorality in 1 Cor 1-6. Others think this description is too strong to refer to 1 Cor 1-6, and that Paul must be referring to some other letter. On this word, see Act 20:19.
11. Same word as in 1:12. Paul's love for the Corinthians is seen in his speaking the truth to them about their behavior. GK 4359.
12. Paul pauses to comment on the case about which he wrote to them in order to avoid coming to them again in grief, v 1.
13. Some think Paul is referring to the man living with his father's wife, delivered to Satan in 1 Cor 5; others, to the ringleader of opposition to Paul's apostolic authority in Corinth (see chapters 10-13). There are other theories. Compare 7:12.
14. Same idiom as in Rom 11:25. Some think Paul means the man who sinned is only "partially" responsible for the Corinthians' grief. The Corinthians' actions, Paul's letter, and the "punishment" (v 6) they carried out also caused grief in the church. Others think that he grieved them "to some degree"; others, that he grieved "some of them".
15. Or, "weigh heavily". Some think Paul means "that I not exaggerate, put too severely" the extent of the grief; others "that I not be a burden to him", by blaming him for all the grief; others, "that I not be a burden to you all" by detailing your responsibility in the matter. On this word, see 1 Thes 2:9.
16. Paul may mean "This grief-causing punishment"; or, "This punishment of which Titus has now informed me".
17. Some think this implies a minority who preferred a more lenient approach; others, a harsher approach.
18. Or, "enough, adequate". Same word as in 3:5. It was sufficient because it led to repentance. Some think Paul is referring to a punishment such as that in 1 Cor 5:5, 13.
19. Some think Paul means on the contrary to the minority view, which sought a harsher, continued punishment; others, on the contrary to continuing the punishment (without reference to a minority view). Elsewhere only in Gal 2:7; 1 Pet 3:9. GK 5539.
20. Or, "encourage". On this word, see "exhort" in Rom 12:8.
21. That is, to publicly affirm, reaffirm. Elsewhere only as "ratify" in Gal 3:15. GK 3263.
22. Or, "come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
23. This word means "the approved quality of a thing having been tested, the approval that comes after testing". Same word as in 9:13; Rom 5:4; Phil 2:22. Elsewhere only as the "test" in 2 Cor 8:2; and its result, the "proof" in 2 Cor 13:3. GK 1509. On this word group, see "approve" in Rom 12:2.
24. And now I know it. You were obedient. Elsewhere only in Act 7:39; Phil 2:8. GK 5675. Related to "obedience" in Rom 16:26.
25. And in view of your approved handling of the matter, I am following you in forgiving whoever needs it— whether the one in v 5-6, or any other involved in this incident. The matter is closed.
26. Some manuscripts say "For if indeed I have forgiven anything to whom I have forgiven it, it is for..." {N}.
27. Or, "cheated, defrauded, taken advantage of". On this word, see 1 Thes 4:6.
28. Or, "thoughts". On this word, see "minds" in 3:14.
29. Moving on from discussing his aborted plans, Paul summarizes his travels before he met Titus returning with news from Corinth.
30. Paul was there in Act 16:8. The trip here in v 12-13 was in Act 20:2.
31. Or, "refreshment, relief". Same word as in 7:5, on which, see 8:13.
32. A door was opened, but since Paul could not find Titus, he felt he had to go to Macedonia seeking him so as to find out about how things went at Corinth and put his spirit at rest.
33. Or, "having taken leave, bid farewell". Elsewhere only in Mk 6:46; Lk 9:61; 14:33; Act 18:18, 21. GK 698.
34. After a lengthy reflection on his ministry and motivation, in 7:5 Paul completes this description of his travels, giving his thoughts after he found Titus and heard the report from Corinth.
35. Or, "triumphing over us, causing us to triumph". Elsewhere only as "triumph over" in Col 2:15. GK 2581. Note the change to the present tense. Paul moves from his past change of itinerary to a lengthy reflection on his present ministry (2:14-6:10), occasioned by the positive report of Titus concerning the Corinthians, 7:5-7. It is a remarkable look into the heart of Paul. Because he returns to the meeting of Titus in 7:5, some call this an extended digression. Others think the heart revealed here is the main thing he wanted to communicate to them. It is mature thinking, Phil 3:15. Though I had no rest in my spirit, nevertheless God is leading me in triumph. His triumph does not depend on whether I understand what He is doing or what I am feeling—or on whether those to whom I speak choose life or death. He leads me in His victory.
36. Or, "smell, odor". Elsewhere only in v 16; Jn 12:3; Eph 5:2; Phil 4:18. GK 4011.
37. That is, the aroma consisting of our knowledge about Christ (or, God).
38. Or, "making evident, making manifest, revealing". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.

1. Or, "good smell", as in the "fragrance of a rose". Elsewhere only in Eph 5:2; Phil 4:18. GK 2380.
2. Or, "to God". Paul may mean that to God, we smell like Christ among those we minister, "to God" being added to show His approval of us. Or he may mean "for God", for the purposes of His triumph.
3. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between this group and the next.
4. Some think Paul means "from Christ's death to their death". Such people see Jesus as dead, and only smell His death on Paul, leading to their own eternal death. Others think he means they consider the message of Christ to originate and result in death.
5. Some think Paul means "from Christ's life to their life". Paul has the aroma of resurrection life to these people, leading them to eternal life. Others think he means they consider the message we bring as originating in life, and resulting in life.
6. Same word as in 3:5. Who is equal to the task? Some think Paul leaves the question unanswered here, but means "No one is humanly sufficient. Our sufficiency is from God", as he says in 3:5-6. Others think that the question implies a choice, "Us, or those speaking against us?", and that v 17 is the answer, "We are, for we are not like them..."
7. Some think this answers the previous question; others, that it is the next point in his argument, stating v 15 in comparative terms. The many influencing you change the message to make it more appealing. We speak it as God intended it, recognizing that the dual effect produced is His plan, 1 Cor 1:18-19.
8. Some manuscripts say "others" {B}.
9. Or, "hawking, being hucksters of". We are not selling it for personal gain, retailing it, being a merchant of it. This word comes to mean "adulterate", since it includes the idea of using all the tricks of the trade to make the product more sellable. Thus here it refers to both wrong motives and wrong methods. Used only here. GK 2836.
10. Same word as in 1:12. This gives the internal source of Paul's words, pure motives. The next phrase gives its external source, God.
11. Or, "exhibit, show, present". Are we proclaiming our own competence? Paul pauses to answer a false conclusion that could be drawn from 2:14-17, and perhaps was made about him by his opponents. God Himself commended us when He saved you! Same word as in 2 Cor 4:2; 5:12; 6:4; 10:12, 18; 12:11; Rom 16:1. On this word, see "demonstrate" in Rom 5:8.
12. That is, to prove that we are who we say we are, that we are God's authorized representatives. Apollos (Act 18:27) and Phoebe (Rom 16:1) received such letters. The grammar expects a "no" answer.
13. Some manuscripts say "or letters of recommendation from you" {N}.
14. Or, "written in, recorded". Same word as in v 3. Elsewhere only as "recorded" in Lk 10:20. GK 1582.
15. Christ wrote you as the letter we carry in our hearts, not in our pockets. Some manuscripts say "your hearts" {A}.
16. When people read "it", the letter about you inscribed in our hearts, what follows is what is made known about you. Same word as in 2:14. Not related to the word earlier.
17. Or, "about". Some think Paul means "from Christ to others", written by Christ; others, "about Christ to others".
18. This is the Greek word order. Or, "but in tablets made of flesh—in hearts". On the idiom "tablets which are hearts", see "a man who was a prophet" in Lk 24:19. On this word, see 1 Cor 3:1.
19. That is, as described in 2:14-3:3, confidence that God is leading us in His triumph, and that we are the fragrance of Christ among you, and that we speak in Christ from God to you, and that you are our credentials from Christ. On this word, see 1:15.
20. Next Paul further explains the source of this confidence. It is not based on self-sufficiency (v 5), but on sufficiency God granted us for the ministry in which He placed us (v 6), and on the glory inherent to this ministry itself (v 7-11). Therefore we use boldness reflecting this confidence and glory (v 12-18).
21. Or, "competent, fit, adequate, enough, worthy". Same word as in 2:6, 16; Mt 28:12; as "fit" in 1 Cor 15:9; Mt 3:11; 8:8; as "competent" in 2 Tim 2:2; and as "enough" in Mk 15:15. It often means "considerable, many". Used 39 times. GK 2653. Related to "sufficiency" and "made sufficient" in v 6.
22. That is, from our own resources and abilities.
23. Or, "qualification, fitness". Used only here. GK 2654.
24. On "made sufficient", see "qualified" in Col 1:12.
25. Or, "servants". On this word, see "servants" in 1 Cor 3:5. Related to "served" in v 3, and "ministry" in v 7, 8, 9.
26. Some think Paul means "ministers... not of the letter..."; others, "new covenant which is not of the letter...".
27. On this word, see Rom 2:27, 29.
28. Or, "spirit". Not of the Law (in the sense described in v 7), but of the Spirit. Or, not of a code in letters, but of true righteousness in the spirit, "written on the heart" (Heb 8:10); a circumcision of the heart (Rom 2:29). Some think Paul means "spirit" in each case down through v 18.
29. The Law brings the death sentence, Rom 6:23; 7:10-11. It is a ministry of death. The "killing" and "giving life" are amplified in v 9.
30. Or, "carved, chiseled". This word modifies "ministry", not "letters". Others render this "ministry of death in letters, having been engraved on stones", the Greek word order. In this case, Paul is describing two characteristics, in letters (versus in the Spirit), engraved in stone (versus hearts). Used only here. GK 1963.
31. That is, descendants. On this word, see Gal 3:7.
32. The Israelites were afraid to come near Moses, Ex 34:29-30. God's glory made Moses' face shine temporarily.
33. Or, "being done away". Same word as in v 11, 13, 14. On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6.
34. Some manuscripts say "For if the ministry of condemnation has glory" {B}.
35. Both here and in v 11 and 13, the Greek says "the thing", leaving the reader to supply the reference from the context. To make Paul's point clearer, the fuller phrase has been supplied in brackets.
36. The ministry of the letter was glorified in the face of Moses, and in other ways. Yet it has no glory at all compared to the surpassing glory of the ministry of the Spirit. It does not lack glory in itself, but its glory pales by comparison.
37. Some think Paul means the hope which characterizes this ministry, the hope of an "abounding" (v 9) and "remaining" (v 11) glory. By "hope" he does not mean "wish", but "expectation". Others think "hope" is equivalent to "confidence" in v 4, and make this point SC., a resumption of his main argument.
38. Based on the confidence (v 4), which issues from this hope, we use much boldness, in keeping with the glory of the ministry God has given us as His sufficient servants of the new covenant. We are not like Moses, who hid his fading glory. We reflect a growing glory. The flow and meaning of v 12-18 is difficult. Consult the commentaries.

1. Same word as in v 7.
2. Or, "cessation, termination, finish, goal". On this word, see Rom 10:4.
3. As in v 7. Others supply "[ministry of the letter]" as in v 11 (which is then explained in various ways); and there are other views.
4. Ex 34:34-35 says Moses repeatedly would remove the veil before God, then speak unveiled before the people, and then veil his face until he went before God again. From the point of view of Paul's application of this event here, after Moses proclaimed the words of the old covenant with the effect of God's glory shining from his face for all to see, he veiled his face so they would not focus on the imminent cessation of this fading glory. The fading glory symbolized the temporary nature of that covenant.
5. Paul draws an application from Moses for Israel.
6. Or, "thoughts". Same word as in 4:4; 11:3; Phil 4:7. Elsewhere only as "thoughts" in 2 Cor 10:5; and "schemes" in 2 Cor 2:11. GK 3784. Related to "think" in Eph 3:20.
7. But the Israelites were hardened to the spiritual meaning of this fading glory, and did not understand that the temporary glory of Moses pointed to the temporary glory of the covenant he brought. This means they were hardened to the true nature and meaning of the old covenant itself, which is seen in the fact that a veil still remains on their understanding of it whenever they read it, until this very day. On this word, see Rom 11:7.
8. On this phrase, "until this very day", see Rom 11:8. Some manuscripts say "until this day" {N}.
9. It is the "same veil" in that, like the one on Moses, it hides the temporary glory. But unlike the one on Moses, this veil is on the hearts of the ones looking (here, reading), not on the thing seen (here, the old covenant). Elsewhere only in v 13, 15, 16. GK 2820. The related verb is in 4:3.
10. This is the only place where the old covenant is called such. Compare Heb 8:13. On this word, see Heb 8:6.
11. That is, the veil not being removed. Elsewhere only in v 18. GK 365.
12. Or, "that", "it not being unveiled [that is, revealed] to them that it [the old covenant] passes away in Christ".
13. Or, "is done away". The same word as in v 7, 11, 13.
14. Paul repeats this to make clear that the veil is not on the Law, but on their hearts. Same word as "But" beginning v 14. GK 247.
15. Or, "at the time when". Elsewhere only in v 15. GK 2471.
16. Or, "he". Some think Paul is referring to such a veiled heart (v 15) or hardened mind (v 14) as just mentioned. This may be simplified by supplying "a person, a Jew, a heart, one". Others render it "he", referring to "Moses" as the type of the person turning to the Lord. When Moses returned to the presence of God, he first removed the veil, Ex 34:34. As with Moses physically, so today spiritually. The veil is removed when one turns to the Lord. There are other views.
17. Some think Paul means "God", as in the physical case of Moses in Ex 34:34; others, "Christ", as in the spiritual case today, as defined by v 14b.
18. On this word, see Act 27:20.
19. Some think this is intended to link the "Lord" in view in v 16 (that is, in the reference to Ex 34) to the Spirit today. As Moses physically turned to the Lord speaking then, we must spiritually turn to the Spirit speaking now. Others think Paul means "Christ is the Spirit", continuing the link of "Lord" back to "in Christ" in v 14b. That is, Christ is the Spirit of the Lord (as used in the OT) in our experience of God. Christ is the Spirit in the same sense as "I and the Father are one" and "The one having seen Me has seen the Father" (Jn 10:30; 14:9).
20. That is, freedom from the ministry of death (v 7), and all it entails (Rom 8:2); freedom as full members of God's family (Rom 8:15, Gal 5:1). Some manuscripts say "there is freedom", meaning, "in-that-place there is freedom" {N}. On this word, see Gal 5:13.
21. Or, "And". Now Paul gives the application of Moses for us, the other side of the comparison begun in v 13. "We are not like Moses. He was... But we are...". Others think Paul has dropped the link to v 13, and that this links to v 17. "There is freedom! And we all..." (giving a spiritual sense in which we are like Moses, not unlike him, in contrast to hardened Israel).
22. Or, "looking at the glory of the Lord as in a mirror". Moses veiled his face to hide the temporary physical glory produced in him by God's glory, v 13. All we Christians with unveiled face boldly "reflect" the growing spiritual glory of the Lord being produced in us. Others link this to v 17 as point 2G. Moses took off the veil to look at the glory, and to reflect it to the people. We also with unveiled face, "looking at" (or, "reflecting") the glory, are spiritually transformed. This word, "reflecting as a mirror", is used only here. GK 3002.
23. On this word, see Rom 12:2. Our "reflection" of the glory is growing in intensity as we are transformed by the Lord, the Spirit. Or, while we are "looking at" the glory, we are being transformed by it.
24. Some think Paul means not from glory to fading to glory to fading, like Moses. But from glory leading to more glory, continually. Others think he means "from His glory to our glory".
25. Or, "as". That is, just as would be expected. Same word as "like" in v 13. Used 13 times. GK 2749.
26. Or, "the Lord who is the Spirit", as stated in v 17. Others think Paul means "the Lord Spirit", "the Spirit who is Lord", similar to "the Lord God"; others, "the Lord of the Spirit", the Lord who sends the Spirit. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
27. That is, because we have such a confidence (3:4), having been made sufficient for this ministry by God (3:6), and are serving in the glory of this ministry with boldness. Others make this point 5D., the conclusion of the previous section, and start the new point in 4:7.
28. Or, "just as". That is, from the Lord, as a gift of His grace. This phrase is added to explain the true nature of this ministry. It is something received as a gift of grace, just like salvation. Therefore we do not lose heart in it. It is part of His triumph, not our personal achievement for Him. We are discovering the greatness of His gift, not creating it. GK 2777.
29. On this word, see "showing mercy" in Rom 12:8.
30. Or, "grow weary". Same word as in v 16; Lk 18:1; Eph 3:13. Elsewhere only as "grow weary" in Gal 6:9; 2 Thes 3:13. GK 1591.
31. Or, "disowned". Without this renouncing, we would be losing heart. Used only here. GK 584.
32. That is, the secret things proceeding from shameful motives (such as pleasing people, Gal 1:10); or resulting in shame when they are known; or the secret things that shame leads one to hide. In v 2-6, Paul is speaking to the internal cause of losing heart. Our failure to attain hidden motives or goals of self-interest causes us to lose heart. Paul renounces them, and simply speaks the truth, leaving the results to God. Therefore he does not lose heart when the majority reject him, v 3. God's plan is twofold, 2:16. On this word, see Heb 12:2.
33. Or, "trickery". That is, using any means to gain our ends. On this word, see 1 Cor 3:19.
34. Or, "adulterating, counterfeiting, falsifying". Used only here. GK 1516. Related to "deceit" in Mt 26:4.

1. Or, "manifestation". On this word, see "manifestation" in 1 Cor 12:7.
2. Or, "presenting, showing, recommending". That is, presenting ourselves positively. On this word, see 3:1. This word does not mean "gaining their approval, causing them to approve of us". Some think Paul means that in the sight of God, he recommends himself for the approval of every kind of human conscience by means of an open disclosure of the truth, not by means of any secret crafty subterfuge. As to the response, some approve, others reject and persecute him. Others think he means that he presents himself to their conscience in such a way that it approves of his sincere and honest approach, even if outwardly they reject and persecute him.
3. Or, "people". In this phrase, "conscience" is singular and "mankind" is plural, "every individual conscience of all people". Compare "every soul of the person" in Rom 2:9.
4. Or, "And even if". On this idiom, see "if also" in 1 Cor 7:21.
5. This is a participle, "is having been veiled". Likewise in the next phrase. Assuming that the open disclosure of the truth of the gospel is indeed veiled in the hearer, it is not because of the messenger. On this word, see "covers" in 1 Pet 4:8. Related to "veil" in 3:14.
6. That is, "in the case of", as next. GK 1877.
7. Or, "so that the illumination.... might not shine forth on them". Some manuscripts add "on them" {N}. Used only here. GK 878. Related to "daybreak" in Act 20:11.
8. Elsewhere only in v 6. GK 5895. Related to "light" in v 6.
9. Some manuscripts say "Christ Jesus" {N}.
10. Some manuscripts say "your slaves through Jesus" {B}.
11. Elsewhere only in Mt 5:15, 16; 17:2; Lk 17:24; Act 12:7. GK 3290. Paul is shining to Gen 1:3. Some manuscripts say "... having told light to shine..." {N}.
12. God shined in our hearts to create in us the illumination for others to see, consisting of the knowledge of the glory of God as seen in the person of Christ. We give out the illumination to which those perishing are blinded, v 4.
13. That is, "consisting of the" or "produced by the", as in v 4.
14. Some manuscripts omit this word; others say "Christ Jesus" {C}.
15. Paul now turns to the external causes of losing heart, suffering and persecution.
16. That is, the gospel (v 4), the knowledge of His glory (v 6), which we proclaim in this ministry we received. On this word, see Mt 12:35.
17. Same word as in 12:7. Paul may mean the excess of quantity, "abundance"; or, the excess of quality, "excellence".
18. Or, "pressed, oppressed, distressed, squeezed". Same word as in 1:6; 7:5; 1 Thes 3:4; 2 Thes 1:6, 7; 1 Tim 5:10; Heb 11:37. Elsewhere only as "constricted" in Mt 7:14; and "pressing" in Mk 3:9. GK 2567. Related to "affliction" in Rev 7:14.
19. Or, "confined, distressed, cramped, restricted". Elsewhere only in 6:12. GK 5102. Related to "distresses" in 6:4.

23. Or, "the putting to death". Or the result, "the death, deadness". Elsewhere only as "deadness" in Rom 4:19. GK 3740.
24. Some think Paul means "the dying that we do for Jesus", "the peril of death we experience for Jesus"; others, "the putting to death done to Jesus in us", the attack upon Him in and through us; others, "the Jesus kind of dying", by violent persecution. Some manuscripts say "of the Lord Jesus" {K}.
25. Or, "made known, revealed, made visible". Same word as in v 11. On this word, see 1 Jn 2:19.
26. Some think Paul means "physical death is at work in us, spiritual life in you". Others think he means "our physical dying is at work in us, our spiritual life in you". That is, the dying of Jesus we carry works bodily death in us; the life of Jesus we thus make evident works life in you.
27. Or, "working, being worked". On this verb, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
28. The answer to external causes of losing heart is an eternal perspective, knowing God will raise us. Having this perspective, we press on in spite of the dangers.
29. Or, "Spirit". Some think Paul means the disposition of faith the psalmist had; others, the Spirit producing faith.
30. Some manuscripts add "and" {N}, "and therefore..."
31. Some manuscripts omit "the Lord" {B}.
32. Some manuscripts say "by" {N}.
33. That is, all our work and suffering.
34. That is, "Accepting that our outer person even is being destroyed...". On this idiom, see "if also" in 1 Cor 7:21.
35. Or, "ruined, spoiled, consumed, wasted". Same word as in Lk 12:33; Rev 8:9; 11:18. Elsewhere only as "corrupted" in 1 Tim 6:5. GK 1425. The related noun is used of the "decay" of the grave in Act 2:27.

38. Elsewhere only as "light" in Mt 11:30. GK 1787. Related to "lightness" in 1:17.
39. This phrase "extremely beyond measure" contains the same root word repeated with two different prepositions, "excessively beyond excess", "extremely beyond the extreme", "immeasurably beyond measure". On this word, see "beyond measure" in 1 Cor 12:31. Some take this phrase with "weight"; others, with "producing".
40. Or, "looking at, looking out for, looking to, watching for". Elsewhere only as "watch" in Phil 3:17; "look out for" in Gal 6:1; Phil 2:4; "watch out" in Lk 11:35; "watch out for" in Rom 16:17. GK 5023. Related to "goal" in Phil 3:14.

- 1F. For the things being seen are temporary^A, but the things not being seen are eternal^B
- 2E. For we know that if our earthly^C house^D— our tent¹— is torn-down², we have a 5:1
 building³ from God, a house not-made-by-human-hands^E, eternal, in the heavens
- 1E. For indeed in this tent we are groaning^F, yearning^G to put-on-over⁴ ourselves 2 our dwelling⁵ from heaven—^{*}inasmuch as we,⁶ having taken-off⁷ this tent, 3 shall not be found naked⁸
- 1G. For⁹ indeed we, the ones being in the tent¹⁰, are groaning^F, being 4 burdened¹¹— because we do not want to take-off our earthly tent, but to put on our heavenly dwelling over it, in order that the mortal¹² may be swallowed-up¹³ by the life
- 2E. And the One having made^H us for this very *thing*¹⁴ is God, the One having¹⁵ given us His pledge^I— the Spirit¹⁶
- 3E. So while always being confident¹⁷, and knowing that while being-at-home in 6 the body, we are away-from-home¹⁸, from the Lord ^{}(for we walk by faith, not by appearance¹⁹)—^{}yet we are confident,²⁰ and prefer²¹ rather²² 8
- 1G. To get-away-from-home— out of the body
 2G. And to get-at-home— with the Lord

1. Or, "our earthly house which is our tent". Literally, "our earthly house of the tent". That is, our physical body. Same grammar as v 5, "the pledge—the Spirit". Note our temporary earthly "tent" vs. our eternal "building". Elsewhere only in v 4. GK 5011.
2. Or, "taken down, put down". That is, if we die. On this word, see Mt 24:2.
3. Some think Paul is referring to our resurrection body, skipping over the time between death and the Second Coming when we receive it (compare 1 Cor 15:53); others, to heaven itself, or a house or "place to stay" (Jn 14:2) that our soul enters upon death until the resurrection. There are other views.
4. Used of putting on an outer garment over another garment. Used only here and in v 4. GK 2086. Related to "put on" in 1 Cor 15:53. Related to "outer garment" in Jn 21:7. There Peter was "naked" (same word as in 2 Cor 5:3), so he put his outer garment on over. Here Paul is referring to putting on our new body over our present one. Some think he is referring to "being changed" (1 Cor 15:52) at Christ's coming; others, to our putting it on at our death.
5. On this word, see Jude 6. Related to "house".
6. Or, "if indeed we" in the sense of "since indeed we".
7. Same word as in v 4. Elsewhere only as "strip" in Mt 27:28; Lk 10:30; and "strip off" in Mt 27:31; Mk 15:20. GK 1694. Some manuscripts say "having put-on the heavenly dwelling" {C}, using the same word as in 1 Cor 15:53, and related to "put on over" in v 2.
8. There are many views on this clause. Consult the commentaries. One view is that Paul means "since having shed our old body (or, 'put on' our new one if the variant is accepted), we shall not in fact be found disembodied". This is the reverse of v 1. Having torn down this tent, we will have a building, v 1. Having put on the new (which means shedding the old), we will not be without a body, v 2. On this word, see Jam 2:15.
9. The purpose of this verse is to explain that the "yearning" in v 2 is not a desire to die—for we do not want to take off this tent—but a desire to live, to put on our new body, to be swallowed up by life.
10. That is, physically alive on earth. Same word as in v 1.
11. On this word, see 1:8. We are burdened because we do not want to put off the body (to die), but we yearn to put on the new spiritual body. We are pulled in both directions, as Paul expresses in Phil 1:21–24. We want to be "changed", 1 Cor 15:51–53. Others think Paul means we are burdened because we do not want to be without a body.
12. Same word as in 1 Cor 15:53, 54, this mortal body putting on immortality. Elsewhere only in Rom 6:12; 8:11; 2 Cor 4:11. GK 2570. It means "subject to death". The root word is "to die".
13. Same word as in 1 Cor 15:54. On this word, see Heb 11:29.
14. That is, the receiving of an immortal body.
15. Some manuscripts add next "also" {N}.
16. Or, "the pledge which is the Spirit". Literally, "the pledge of the Spirit".
17. That is, in the present life we live by faith. This is a positive way of saying "not lose heart". Same word as in v 8; 7:16; Heb 13:6. Elsewhere only as "bold" in 2 Cor 10:1; 2. GK 2509. It means "to be bold, confident, courageous".
18. The same root word is used with different prefixes—to be at home, to be away from home; living at home, living abroad. Both are used only in 5:6, 8, 9. GK 1685 and 1897. The second word is related to "go on a journey" in Mt 21:33. Note that Paul reverses the reference of these two words in v 8.
19. Or, "outward-appearance, what is seen, sight". Some take this to mean "not by what we physically see in this world"; others, "not by a physical seeing of the heavenly realities". Same word as in Lk 9:29. Elsewhere only as "form" in Lk 3:22; Jn 5:37; 1 Thes 5:22. GK 1626.
20. That is, in the future that awaits us when we die.
21. On this word, see "well pleased" in Mt 17:5. Not related to "pleasing" in v 9.
22. What follows probably anticipates Christ's return, but may refer to Paul's death, as in Phil 1:23.
23. Or, "also". We do not lose heart, looking to the next life, 4:16. We indeed are ambitious (the opposite of losing heart), looking to the rest of this life, to be pleasing to God both here and when we stand before Him. Others make this 4F, we prefer to be with Him, therefore we also are ambitious to be pleasing to Him.
24. Or, "we make it our aim". On this word, see Rom 15:20.
25. On this adjective, see Eph 5:10. We want God to be pleased with us, whether here or there.
26. That is, in the body or out of the body; or, with the Lord or away from the Lord. Both mean the same thing, whether here now, or standing before Him as described next.
27. Or, "be made known, be revealed". Same word as "reveal" in 1 Cor 4:5. On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
28. Or, "receive in full, get for oneself, get, obtain, receive in recompense". That is, receive back what is due. This word was used of receiving a wage, recompense, or reward. Same word as in Mt 25:27; Eph 6:8; Col 3:25; Heb 11:19. Elsewhere only as "receive" in Heb 10:36; 11:39; 1 Pet 1:9; 5:4; and with different grammar, "bring" in Lk 7:37. GK 3152.
29. That is, while in this life, "during the time of" the body. Or, "by means of, through, with". GK 1328.
30. Same word as in Lk 12:47. GK 4639.
31. On this word, see Jam 3:16. Some manuscripts have a different word meaning "evil, wicked, bad" {N}.
32. That is, the reverence for the Lord and the desire to please Him that this fact (v 10) elicits in us.
33. Some render this "we are trying to persuade". On this word, see 1 Jn 3:19.
34. Some think Paul means he persuades people that he is pleasing God in his work and motives; others, that he persuades them so as to please God regarding what God called him to do, that is, to preach the gospel, 5:20–21.
35. Or, "But, And". Having openly reflected before God and the Corinthians upon himself and his ministry (2:14–5:11), Paul now turns back to them, and states the facts about his motives and responsibilities as an apostle more directly to their need. As in 3:1, he again begins by denying a motive of self-commendation. Others punctuate this "persuade people, but we have...", continuing that point. This view thinks Paul persuades people about his motives and intentions, but that God knows his motives are true, and he hopes the Corinthians know this as well.
36. Same word as "appear" in v 10. It is a play on words, moving from what will be then, to what is now. We have already been made known to God in every way—our work, motives, conduct, all the things discussed in 2:14–5:11.
37. This is the purpose of Paul's writing. To make sure this hope is realized, he now speaks plainly and explicitly.
38. On this word, see Act 23:1. It is plural only here.

- 2C. For⁵ if we lost-our-senses⁶, it is for God! If we are sound-minded⁷, it is for you! 13
- 3C. For⁸ the love^D of Christ⁹ controls¹⁰ us, we having determined¹¹ this— 14
- 1D. That¹² One¹³ died for all, therefore all¹⁴ died. *And He died for all so that the ones living¹⁵ might no longer be living for themselves, but for the One having died and been raised¹⁶ for them¹⁷ 15

1. This is our motive for speaking about ourselves as we do. Some manuscripts say "For we" {N}.
2. Or, "starting point". On this word, see Rom 7:8.
3. That is, to have a matter to boast about. On this word, see Phil 1:26.
4. That is, in what humans see and respect, not in what God sees, as in v 16.
5. That is, "And I hope (v 11)... For...".
6. Paul is referring to what his opponents said about him—that he is mad with fanaticism. This was said of Jesus in Mk 3:21 (same word), and of Paul in Act 26:24 (different word).
7. Paul is referring to what he says about himself. Compare Act 26:25, where a related word is used. On this word, see Rom 12:3.
8. This is our motive for conducting ourselves as we do.
9. Paul could mean our love for Christ, but probably means His love for us, as expressed in v 14-15.
10. Or, "compels". This word means "to hold in, enclose (Lk 8:45), confine (Lk 19:43), hold (in custody, Lk 22:63); to hold shut (Act 7:57); to hold attention on, be occupied with (Act 18:5), be absorbed in; to be held under the positive control of, gripped (Phil 1:23), governed, ruled, overcome; to be held under the negative control of, gripped (Mt 4:24; Lk 4:38; 8:37; Act 28:8), afflicted, distressed"; and elsewhere only as "held" (Lk 12:50). GK 5309. The root word is "to hold". Here, some think Paul means Christ's love "controls, governs, directs" us. Others extend this to mean "drives, compels, urges us on".
11. Or, "having made this judgment". On this word, see "judge" in Mt 7:1.
12. Some manuscripts add "if" {N}, so that it says "That if One died for all, then all died".
13. This is the number "one". That is, that one Man died for all.
14. Some think Paul means all the world, as in v 19. Note 1 Jn 2:2. Others think he means all believers.
15. Some think Paul means living in Christ, v 17; others, alive in this world (making this group the same as "all" in v 14, 19).
16. Or, "having arisen". On this word, see "arose" in Mt 28:6.
17. Or, "having died for them, and having been raised".
18. That is, since all died, and the ones living are living for Him. Same in v 17.
19. Or, "know". This word means "to know", here in the sense of "to regard, recognize, take interest in, value". Same word as "know" in 1 Thes 5:12, on which see 1 Jn 2:29.
20. Or, "in accordance with, according to, in relation to". GK 2848.
21. We no longer relate to people based on human distinctions or what they are in the flesh. As ones dead and living in Christ, the world is in a new position for us. We regard people only in relation to the One who died for them—either as needing Him, or as living for Him.
22. Even the way we regard Christ has changed. On this idiom, see "if also" in 1 Cor 7:21. Regardless of the fact that we have known Christ in this manner, we no longer do.
23. On this word, used twice in this verse, see Lk 1:34.
24. This phrase "based on the flesh" has the same meaning as in the first part of the verse, "based on human viewpoints and distinctions". Paul may have personally known Jesus while He was on earth, but that is not what he is saying here. He is saying that he regarded Him from a fleshly perspective, a human point of view, based on His human status as a Galilean. On what this verse might imply about Paul, consult the commentaries.
25. Or, "creature". Same phrase as in Gal 6:15. As ones who have died (v 14), believers are new creations, living a new life for Him.
26. Or, "come, come about, come to pass". Same word as in Jn 1:3. Some manuscripts say "all things have become new" {A}, where "become" is the same word as "come into being". GK 1181.
27. Paul continues his thoughts about himself and his ministry. The love of Christ controls us. And God, who reconciled us and gave us this ministry, is the source of all things in it (compare 2:14-16). The "us, we" has the same reference throughout all of point 7B. Paul is speaking of himself and his fellow workers, as models for all believers. Others place this as point 3E., further describing the life of all God's new creations. The "us" in v 18a (and some think, 18b and 19) refers directly to all believers. In this case, Paul returns to his main line of thought in v 20.
28. On this word, see Rom 5:10. Same word as in v 19, 20.
29. Paul states with reference to himself and his fellow workers what is objectively true of the whole world, and subjectively true of all believers. See note 7.
30. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
31. God gave us (and you, in your various ways) the ministry of bringing this message of reconciliation to the world. So we take them the message and beg, v 20. Same word as in v 19. On this word, see Rom 5:11.
32. On "how that" see 11:21. Paul is giving God's statement of the matter.
33. This is the Greek word order. Some take this to mean "God was in Christ, reconciling", making two doctrinal points; others, "God was reconciling in Christ", making one point. Consult the commentaries.
34. Reconciliation has both an objective sense (which was finished on the cross for all the world), and a subjective sense (each individual's acceptance of it by faith). The former is done forever, the latter continues as the message of reconciliation is taken to the world. In Christ's ministry on earth, God accomplished the former and began the latter.
35. The following two phrases explain how God "was reconciling"—by "not counting" (which continues from the cross forward, forever), and by "having placed" (which is finished. He placed this message in the apostles and witnesses of Christ, and through them, in all believers. It has been delivered once for all, Jude 3).
36. Having given us this ministry (v 18) and message (v 19), God made us His ambassadors.
37. This verb is elsewhere only in Eph 6:20. GK 4563. Related to "delegation" in Lk 14:32; 19:14.
38. This is the word "as" in the sense of "seeing that, since, because". Same word as in 2 Pet 1:3. Generally, it is rendered this way when it is giving a true relation; and as "as-though, as-if" when it is giving a false or theoretical relation, as in Act 23:15, 20; 27:30; 28:19; 1 Cor 4:18; 1 Pet 4:12. Here, Paul means we are His ambassadors because God is in fact appealing through the message He placed in us (v 19), just as a president does through a message sent to another country. GK 6055.
39. On this word, see "exhorting" in Rom 12:8. The combination "appeal... beg" is also in 2 Cor 8:4; 10:1-2.

- 11D. We are begging¹ on behalf of Christ— “Be reconciled^A to God! •He² made^B the One not having known^C sin to be sin³ for us, in order that we might become the righteousness^D of God in Him”. •And working-with *Him*⁴, we also are appealing^E *that you*⁵ not receive the grace of God in vain⁶ 21 6:1
- 11E. For⁷ He says [in Isa 49:8], “I heard you at the acceptable^F time. And I helped^G you on the day of salvation^H”. Behold— now is the very-acceptable⁸ time. Behold— now is the day of salvation 2
- 21D. In⁹ nothing¹⁰ giving^I any opportunity-for-stumbling¹¹, in order that the ministry^K may not be faulted^L 3

1. Or, "pleading". On this word, see 8:4.
2. Some manuscripts say "For He..." {K}.
3. That is, in terms of God's relation to it, as with "righteousness" next. He who never knew sin was made our sin, that we who never knew righteousness might become God's righteousness in Him.
4. Some think Paul means "you". On "working-with", see Jn 8:46.
5. In 5:21, "Be reconciled" is general, applying to all. Here, Paul specifically applies it to the Corinthians.
6. Or, "for no purpose, without result". On this word, see "empty" in 1 Thes 2:1. Note 6:14-7:1. Some think this will be the result if the Corinthians turn away and follow the ones in 5:12, or the false apostles in 11:13. Compare 13:5; Gal 3:4; 4:11; 5:4; 1 Cor 15:2. Others think Paul is referring to a fruitless and rewardless life before God.
7. This verse applies both to the specific case (v 1), and the general case (5:21).
8. Related to "acceptable" earlier. On this word, see "acceptable" in Rom 15:16.
9. In this arrangement, verses 3 and 4 describe the manner of their "begging" (5:20) in their general ministry as apostles. Others take them as describing the manner of their specific "appealing" (6:1) to the Corinthians.
10. That is, except Christ Himself, who is the "stone of stumbling", Rom 9:33. Note 1 Cor 10:32; Rom 14:13.
11. Used only here. GK 4683. Related to the word in Rom 14:13.
12. The first three refer to general trials, the second three to specific ones.
13. Or, "difficulties". Elsewhere only in Rom 2:9; 8:35; 2 Cor 12:10. GK 5103. Related to "restrained" in 4:8.
14. Same word as in Lk 21:9. That is, mob actions, as seen in Acts. On this word, see "disorder" in Jam 3:16.
15. Or, "sleepless nights". Elsewhere only in 11:27. GK 71. Related to "keep alert" in Eph 6:18. Perhaps Paul means due to ministry, prayer, making tents, traveling, etc.
16. Or, "the Holy Spirit". That is, a spirit that is holy, as in 1 Cor 7:34. Compare 2 Cor 7:1.
17. Or, "genuine, without hypocrisy". On this word, see Rom 12:9.
18. Some think Paul means "truthful speech"; others, the message characterized by truth, the gospel, as in Col 1:5; others, the declaration of the truth.
19. Or, "With, By", that is, by means of. Same word as "through" next, though used in a different sense there. GK 1328.
20. Same word as in 10:4, on which see Rom 13:12.
21. That is, weapons proceeding from, or belonging to, or supplied by, or used for righteousness.
22. Some think Paul means "fully armed for any fight from any direction". Others think he means offensive weapons for the right hand (a sword), defensive weapons for the left (a shield), in keeping with the soldier of that day.
23. That is, by way of, with, amid.
24. Or, "slander and praise, ill-repute and good-repute". They are related, opposite words. Both are used only here. GK 1556 (related to "slander" in 1 Cor 4:13) and GK 2367 (related to "commendable" in Phil 4:8).
25. Compare Ps 118:18. On this word, see 1 Cor 11:32.
26. Compare 1 Cor 7:30. On this word, see "holding down" in Rom 1:18.
27. Used 78 times. GK 5125.
28. Or, "cramped, distressed". Same word as in 4:8. There is no restraint of love in us toward you Corinthians, no cramping of space for you in our hearts. But you are restrained in your hearts toward us, you have a small cramped space for us there.
29. Or, "recompense, requital". Or, "Now give the same return". That is, as the same recompense due me (love from one's children) which was due you (love from one's father), open wide your hearts to me. Repay my open heart of fatherly love toward you with your open heart of love for me as my spiritual children. This involves both a turning from those misleading them, 6:14-7:1, and a turning to Paul, 7:2. On this word, see Rom 1:27.
30. That is, your hearts, as in v 11. Same word as in v 11. Elsewhere only as "widen" in Mt 23:5. GK 4425.

32. As in 6:1, Paul pointedly addresses the Corinthians about a key problem. This was one source of their mistaken attitudes toward Paul, and their less than wide-open feelings toward him.
33. Used only here. GK 3580. Related to "companions" (partners) in Lk 5:7.
34. Some manuscripts say "And" {K}.
35. Or, "agreement", a blending of voices, a shared interest. Used only here. GK 5245. Related to "agreement" in 1 Cor 7:5; "music" in Lk 15:25; and "agree" in Mt 18:19.

- 1D. For I have said-before^A that you are in our hearts so as to die-together¹ and to live-together²
 2D. There is great confidence^B in me toward you 4
 3D. There is much boasting³ by me about you
- 9B. I have been filled^C with comfort^D. I am super-abounding^E with joy in all our affliction^F
- 1C. For indeed we having come to Macedonia,⁴ our flesh⁵ had no rest^G, but we were being afflicted^H 5 in every way— battles⁶ outside, fears⁷ inside
- 2C. But the One comforting^K the downcast⁷, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus—^{*}and not 6-7 only by his coming, but also by the comfort^D with which he was comforted over you while reporting^L to us your yearning^M, your mourning, your zeal^N for me, so that I rejoiced^O more
- 1D. Because even though⁸ I grieved^P you by the letter⁹, I do not regret^Q it 8
 2D. Even though¹⁰ I was regretting it (for¹¹ I see that that letter grieved you, even though¹² for an hour), now I am rejoicing^O— not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved¹³ 9 into repentance^R
- 1E. For you were grieved in-accordance-with¹⁴ God, in order that you might suffer-loss^S in nothing by us
- 1E. For the grief¹⁵ in accordance with God works^T unregretted¹⁶ repentance¹⁷ 10
 leading-to¹⁸ salvation^U
- 2E. But the grief of the world produces^V death
- 2E. For behold this very thing, the being grieved^P in accordance with God, how much earnestness¹⁹ it produced^V in you— even a defense²⁰, even indignation²¹, even fear²², even yearning²³, even zeal²⁴, even punishment²⁵. In everything you demonstrated^W yourselves to be pure^X in the matter^Y
- 3E. So even though²⁶ I wrote to you [causing grief], it was 12
- 1E. Not²⁷ for the sake of the one having done wrong²⁸
 2E. Nor for the sake of the one having been wronged²⁹
 3E. But for the sake of making your earnestness^Z for us³⁰ evident^{AA} to you in the sight of God
 4E. For this reason,³¹ we have been comforted^K 13
- 3C. But³² in addition to our comfort^D, we rejoiced^O even more abundantly over the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed^{BB} by you all
- 1D. Because if I have boasted^{CC} anything to him about you, I was not put-to-shame^{DD}. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before Titus proved-to-be the truth 14
- 2D. And his deep-feelings^{EE} are especially for you, while remembering the obedience^{FF} of you all— how you received^{GG} him with fear and trembling³³ 15
- 4C. I³⁴ am rejoicing^O because in everything I am confident^{HH} in you 16
- 3A. Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God having been granted³⁵ in the churches of Macedonia³⁶— 8:1
- 1B. That in a great test³⁷ of affliction^F, their abundance³⁸ of joy and their down deep³⁹ poverty⁴⁰ 2 abounded⁴¹ into the riches of their generosity⁴²

1. Elsewhere only as "die with" in Mk 14:31; 2 Tim 2:11. GK 5271.
2. Or, "so as to die-with you and to live-with you". Others render it "so that you died with us and live with us". Some explain the fact that "die" is first by taking Paul to mean "die in Christ, live our Christian lives". Elsewhere only as "live with" in Rom 6:8 and 2 Tim 2:11, where "dies" also comes first. GK 5182.
3. This noun refers to the act of boasting. Elsewhere only in Rom 3:27; 15:17; 1 Cor 15:31; 2 Cor 1:12; 7:14; 8:24; 11:10, 17; 1 Thes 2:19; Jam 4:16. GK 3018. See Phil 1:26 on "boast" and 2 Cor 11:16 on the verb, "to boast". The "boast" word group is used 59 times in the NT, almost half in this book, all but 4 by Paul.
4. That is, when we came into Macedonia. Paul resumes where he left off in 2:13. "Rest" also occurs in 2:13.
5. Note that in 2:13 Paul said "spirit".
6. Or, "fights, conflicts". That is, with spiritual enemies. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:23.
7. Or, "depressed, lowly, humble". On this word, see "lowly" in Jam 1:9.
8. More literally, "Because if I even caused you grief...". That is, "assuming that I even caused you grief...". The same idiom occurs twice more in this verse, and in v 12. On this idiom, see "if also" in 1 Cor 7:21.
9. On this letter, see 2:3.
10. More literally, "If I even was regretting it", assuming that I even was regretting it.
11. Some manuscripts omit this word. In addition, others have a participle, "seeing that the letter..." {C}.
12. More literally, "If even for an hour", assuming that it was even for a short time.
13. This word means "to grieve, cause grief, sorrow, pain, distress". Same word as in Mt 14:9; 17:23; 18:31; 19:22; 26:22, 37; Mk 10:22; 14:19; Jn 16:20; 21:17; Rom 14:15; 2 Cor 2:2, 4, 5; 6:10; 7:8, 9, 11; Eph 4:30; 1 Thes 4:13; 1 Pet 1:6. Elsewhere only as "cause grief" in 2 Cor 2:5. GK 3382. Related to "grief" in v 10.
14. Or, "according to [the will of] God". Likewise in v 10, 11.
15. Or, "sorrow, pain, distress". Same word as in Lk 22:45; Jn 16:6, 20, 21, 22; Rom 9:2; 2 Cor 2:1, 3, 7; 7:10; 9:7; Phil 2:27; Heb 12:11. Elsewhere only as "sorrows" in 1 Pet 2:19. GK 3383.
16. Others render this "repentance for unregretted salvation", a salvation that will never be regretted. On this word, see "without regret" in Rom 11:29.
17. Worldly (human) sorrow is simply regret over a loss or failure. Repentance is a change of mind leading to a change of behavior. Elsewhere only in Mt 3:8, 11; Mk 1:4; Lk 3:3, 8; 5:32; 15:7; 24:47; Act 5:31; 11:18; 13:24; 19:4; 20:21; 26:20; Rom 2:4; 2 Cor 7:9; 2 Tim 2:25; Heb 6:1, 6; 12:17; 2 Pet 3:9. GK 3567. The related verb is in Act 26:20.
18. Or, "for". On this word, see "resulting in" in Rom 5:16.
19. That is, earnestness to obey God, to do what is right before Him in response to that grief. On this word, see 8:16. Same word as in v 12.
20. That is, a verbal defense in a good sense, perhaps of their loyalty to God and Paul. On this word, see 1 Pet 3:15.
21. That is, anger toward the wrongs committed among them. Used only here. GK 25. Related to the word in Mt 20:24.
22. Paul may mean fear of God; of Paul coming with a rod, 1 Cor 4:21; or of Titus, v 15. On this word, see Eph 5:21.
23. Some think Paul means a yearning for Paul, as in v 7; a yearning for him to come. Elsewhere only in v 7. GK 2161. Related word in 1 Pet 2:2.
24. Some think Paul means zeal to carry out Paul's instructions; a zeal for Paul (v 7), for God, and for their church. On this word, see "jealousy" in 11:2.
25. Paul is referring to the man in 2:5-6. On this word, see 2 Thes 1:8. The related verb is in 10:6.
26. More literally, "If I even wrote to you [causing grief]", accepting that I even did this.
27. That is, not primarily, not mainly. Same idiom as in 3:10. In comparison to the main reason, it was not for this reason.
28. This statement leads some to think that the person in view here and in 2:4-8, 11 could not be the man described in 1 Cor 5. Would Paul make a statement like this about a person like that? Others think Paul is simply stating that his primary purpose was to affect the church, not the man. Otherwise he would have written to him directly.
29. Some think Paul means the father in 1 Cor 5:1; others, Paul himself (see 2:5). Same word as in the previous phrase, and as 7:2.
30. The phrase "earnestness for" is also in 8:16. Compare "zeal for" in 7:7, which uses a different word. Some manuscripts say "our earnestness for you" {N}.
31. That is, because this was our intention, we were comforted by your response.
32. Some manuscripts connect this clause with the previous one, and say "your" instead of "our", so that it says "For this reason we have been comforted in your comfort. And we rejoiced even more abundantly..." {N}.
33. On "fear and trembling", see Phil 2:12.
34. Some manuscripts say "Therefore I..." {K}.
35. Or, "given". Paul is referring to the grace seen in the joy and generosity he mentions next in v 2. On this word, see "give" in Eph 1:22.
36. That is, where Paul was laboring at the time he was writing this letter, 7:5. The churches we know about in Macedonia are those at Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea (Act 16:12-17:14).
37. Or, "trial". Related to "proving", v 8. On this word, see "approvedness" in 2:9. That is, a testing characterized by affliction that "proved" their genuineness as Christians. Compare 1 Thes 1:6, 2:14.
38. Or, "surplus". Elsewhere only in Rom 5:17; 2 Cor 10:15; Jam 1:21. GK 4353. Related to "abounded" later in the verse.
39. Same word as in Lk 5:4; 1 Cor 2:10. Elsewhere only as "depth" in Mt 13:5; Mk 4:5; Rom 8:39; 11:33; Eph 3:18. GK 958. The related verb is in Lk 6:48.
40. That is, extreme poverty. Same word as in v 9.
41. This word means "to abound, exceed, overflow, surpass, be in excess, be more than enough, be leftover". Same word as in Mt 5:20; Mk 12:44; Lk 12:15; 15:17; 21:4; Act 16:5; Rom 3:7; 5:15; 15:13; 1 Cor 8:8; 14:12; 15:58; 2 Cor 1:5; 3:9; 4:15; 8:7; 9:8, 12; Phil 1:9, 26; 4:12, 18; Col 2:7; 1 Thes 3:12; 4:1, 10. 1. Or, "power, strength, capability". Same word as next. On this word, see "power" in Mk 5:30.
2. Or, "voluntarily, by their own choice". Elsewhere only in v 17. GK 882.
3. This shows the degree of the Macedonians' initiative in the matter. Same two root words as in 2 Cor 5:20 and 10:1-2, "appealing... begging". Used together only in these three places. The word "beg" also means "to ask, pray", and is used 22 times. GK 1289.
4. Some manuscripts add "that we accept" {N}, which changes the following to "the grace-gift and the partnership".
5. Or, "grace". The Macedonians begged Paul for the "grace" (favor, v 4) to share in this "grace" (v 6, 7, 19) to the saints, by the "grace" (v 1) of God, remembering the "grace" (v 9) of Jesus, giving "grace" (thanks, v 16) to God. How Paul richly uses this word in this chapter! Yet he does not use the related word "gift" (1 Cor 1:7) at all, nor does he use the normal verb "to give" in relation to their offering. On this word, see "grace" in Eph 2:8.
6. Or, "participation". On this word, see "fellowship" in 1 Cor 1:9.
7. Or, "expected". The Macedonians went far beyond what Paul expected—giving themselves, not just their money. On this word, see "put hope" in Jn 5:45.
8. Some think Paul means "first" in order; others, "first" in importance; others, both. The giving by the Macedonians followed their dedication of themselves to the Lord and to Paul. It was a fruit of this broader and deeper dedication of themselves to the service of Christ. It was not simply a gracious act of charity.
9. Paul's appeal to Titus to complete the collection in Corinth springs from the Macedonians' example of giving (8:1-5), to whom Paul had used the Achaians (Corinthians) as an example of being prepared to give (9:2).
10. Or, "appealed to". Related to "appeal" in v 4, and "urging" in v 17, where Titus responds to this. On this word, see "exhorting" in Rom 12:8.
11. That is, in the implementation of 1 Cor 16:1-4, before Titus returned to Paul in 2 Cor 7:6. Same word as "began beforehand" in v 10.
12. Same word as in v 11.
13. Or, "grace-gift, [act of] grace". On this word, see Eph 2:8. Paul calls this a "collection" (1 Cor 16:1); a "contribution" or, "sharing, fellowship" (2 Cor 9:13; Rom 15:26); a "grace gift" (1 Cor 16:3; 2 Cor 8:19); a "ministry, service" (2 Cor 9:1); a "blessing" (2 Cor 9:5); a "priestly service" (2 Cor 9:12).
14. Some manuscripts say "from you in us" {C}.
15. Or, "testing, proving by test". Same word as "prove" in v 22. On this word, see "approve" in Rom 12:2. Paul will "prove" the extent of the Corinthians' love using the earnestness of the Macedonians as the standard of comparison.
16. Or, the "legitimacy". The root idea is "legitimate birth". Elsewhere only as "genuine" in Phil 4:3; 1 Tim 1:2; Tit 1:4. GK 1188. Related to "genuinely" in Phil 2:20.
17. Or, "grace gift", "[act of] grace". Same word as in v 6.
18. Some manuscripts say "our" {B}.
19. Used only here. GK 4776.
20. Compare Phil 2:6. When the Son became a man, He left His glory (Jn 17:5) and became impoverished by comparison. On this adjective, see 1 Tim 6:17.
21. Elsewhere only in 8:2; Rev 2:9. GK 4775. Related to "became poor" in this verse, and to "poor" in Gal 4:9.
22. Some think Paul means "giving my opinion" (rather than a command); others, the Corinthians' participation in this collection.
23. Some think Paul means the Corinthians began before the Macedonians got involved; others, before Paul had asked them. Their "wanting" may have led to a question to Paul as to how they could become involved, which he answered in 1 Cor 16:1-4. Elsewhere only as "previously-began" in v 6. GK 4599.
24. Or, "bring to completion". Same word as later in the verse. On this word, see "perfecting" in 7:1.
25. Same word as in v 12, 19.
26. That is, a gift, the concrete expression of the eagerness, is acceptable. On this word, see Rom 15:16.
27. Or, "to the extent, insofar as". Same word as earlier in the verse and as 1 Pet 4:13. Elsewhere only as "as" Rom 8:26. GK 2771.
28. Compare 1 Cor 16:2. The Macedonians gave more, 2 Cor 8:3.
29. Or, "relief, relaxation, abatement". Same word as in 2 Cor 2:13; 7:5; 2 Thes 1:7. Elsewhere only as "relaxation" in Act 24:23. GK 457.
30. Or, "pressure, distress, trouble", because you gave too much. On this word, see Rev 7:14. Some manuscripts say "and affliction" {N}.
31. Or, "fairness, equity". Same word as in v 14. Elsewhere only as "fairness" in Col 4:1. GK 2699.
32. Same word as in Mt 12:34; Lk 6:45. Elsewhere only as "leftovers" in Mk 8:8. GK 4354. Related to the words in v 2.
33. Some think Paul means "so they can help you materially someday when you need it"; others, "so they can help you with your spiritual needs, based on the mutual relationship established", as in 9:14 (in prayer); Rom 15:27; 1 Cor 9:11; Phil 4:17 (fruit).
34. Elsewhere only in Rom 5:20; 6:1; 2 Cor 4:15; Phil 4:17; 1 Thes 3:12; 2 Thes 1:3; 2 Pet 1:8. GK 4429. This word is often combined with "abound", to which it leads. In Ex 16, the Israelites gathered the same amount of manna for each person, so none had an excess or a shortage. The sense here is "did not increase [beyond his need]... have less [than his need]".
35. Or, "granted". Same word as in 8:1. Some manuscripts say "the God giving..." {N}.
36. Or, "diligence, eagerness". That is, the same kind as Paul's. Same word as in 7:11, 12; 8:7, 8. Elsewhere only as "diligence" in Rom 12:8, 11; Heb 6:11; 2 Pet 1:5; "effort" in Jude 3; and "haste" in Mk 6:25; Lk 1:39. GK 5082. Related to the word in v 17.
37. Or, "appeal". Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence, between the external urging of Paul and the internal choice of Titus. This word is related to "urge" in v 6, and refers to that verse. Same word as "appeal" in v 4.
38. Or, "more diligent, eager". Titus apparently already intended to return, or to suggest to Paul that he return, and so welcomed Paul's appeal. His earnestness was more than just a response to Paul's urging. He went out to them again with this letter. Elsewhere only as "diligent" twice in v 22. GK 5080. Related to "earnestness" in v 16; "diligently" in Tit 3:13; and "be diligent" in Eph 4:3.
39. That is, along with this letter, and with the brothers mentioned next. Titus "went out", and Paul "sent" the next two with him, from the Corinthians' perspective, when they read this letter. Paul could also have said, "he is going out".

- 2C. And we sent with him the brother¹ whose praise^A in² the good-news³ is through all the churches 18
- 1D. And not only this, but who was also appointed⁴ by the churches⁵ to be our fellow-traveler⁶ 19
with⁷ this grace-gift⁸ being ministered^C by us
- 1E. For⁸ the glory of the Lord Himself⁹; and to show our¹⁰ eagerness¹¹
- 2D. Avoiding¹² this— that anyone should fault¹³ us in this abundance¹⁴ being ministered^C by us 20
- 1E. For we are providing-for¹⁵ good^D things— not only in the sight of the Lord, but also 21
in the sight of people^E
- 3C. And we sent with them our brother whom we often proved¹⁶ in many things as being diligent¹⁷, 22 but now is much more diligent with great confidence^F in you
- 4C. If *any ask*¹⁸ about Titus— he is my partner^G and fellow-worker^H for you; if as to our brothers¹⁹— 23
they are delegates²⁰ of the churches, a glory of Christ²¹
- 5C. Therefore, be demonstrating²² to them, to²³ *the face*²⁴ of the churches, the demonstration²⁵ of 24 your love and our boasting^I about you
- 1D. For indeed, it is superfluous for me to write to you concerning the ministry²⁶ to the saints²⁷ 9:1
- 1E. For I know your eagerness^K, which I am boasting about you to the Macedonians— 2 that “Achaia has been prepared [to give] since last year”. And your zeal^L stirred-up^M the majority
- 2D. But I sent the brothers in order that our boast about you might not be made-empty^N in this 3 respect— in order that, just as I was saying,²⁸ you may be prepared²⁹
- 1E. That we should not somehow be put-to-shame^O (that I³⁰ not say you) in this confidence³¹ 4
if Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared³²
- 2E. Therefore I regarded^P it necessary^Q to urge^R the brothers that they go-ahead to you and prepare-beforehand your previously-promised³³ blessing³⁴— that this may be ready^S thus as a blessing and not as greediness³⁵
- 4B. Now this *I say*³⁶— the one sowing³⁷ sparingly³⁸ will also reap sparingly. And the one sowing for³⁹ 6 blessings will also reap for blessings. *Each should give just as he has chosen-beforehand⁴⁰ in his 7 heart— not out of grief⁴¹, or out of compulsion⁴²
- 1C. For God loves a cheerful⁴³ giver

1. Note 12:18. It is not known to whom Paul is referring. Perhaps it is one of those mentioned in Act 20:4.
2. Or, "in connection with". GK 1877.
3. That is, who is praised by all the churches in connection with his work in spreading the gospel. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:1.
4. Or, "chosen, elected". More literally, "but also having been appointed". This man was chosen by the churches to accompany their gift. Note 1 Cor 16:3. This word means "to stretch out the hand, to vote by raising the hand", and simply "to appoint". Elsewhere only in Act 14:23. GK 5936. Related to "chosen beforehand" in Act 10:41.
5. Which churches? If 9:4 implies that they were not Macedonians, perhaps here Paul means those of Asia (Act 20:4).
6. Elsewhere only in Act 19:29, where it is used of Gaius and Aristarchus. GK 5292.
7. That is, "together with". Some manuscripts say "in" {N}.
8. Some take this with "appointed", expressing the purpose of the churches; others, with "ministered", expressing the purpose of Paul.
9. Some manuscripts omit this word; others say "For the same glory of the Lord" {C}.
10. Some manuscripts say "your" {K}.
11. Or, "willingness, readiness". That is, our eagerness to help the believers in Jerusalem. Elsewhere only in 8:11, 12; 9:2; Act 17:11. GK 4608. Related to words in 1 Pet 5:2; and in Rom 1:15.
12. Or, "Keeping away from". That is, "we sent with him... avoiding". On this word, see "keep away" in 2 Thes 3:6.
13. Or, "find fault with, blame, criticize, censure". Elsewhere only in 6:3. GK 3699. Related to "blemish" (a physical fault) in 2 Pet 2:13.
14. That is, this bountiful gift. Used only here. GK 103.
15. Or, "taking thought for, exercising foresight for". Elsewhere only in Rom 12:17; 1 Tim 5:8. GK 4629. Related to "provision" in Rom 13:14. Some manuscripts say "... by us, while providing-for..." {N}.
16. Or, "proved by testing". Same word as in v 8.
17. Same word as later in the verse, and as "more earnest" in v 17. A person begins a work with eagerness and earnest zeal. A person is proven to have diligence as the work is carried out and completed.
18. Paul is giving a written commendation of these people, the kind mentioned in 3:1. Titus represents Paul.
19. That is, the one in v 18 and the one in v 22.
20. Or, "official representatives, apostles". The brothers represent the churches. On this word, see "apostle" in 1 Cor 12:28.
21. This is a second description of these brothers, parallel with "delegates". Paul may mean Christ's glory, a glory proceeding from Christ, or a glory to Christ. It does not modify "churches".
22. Or, "giving proof of, showing". Some manuscripts have this as a command {N}, so that it says "Therefore, demonstrate... the demonstration of your love". That is, through your reception of these brothers and your assembling of your gift with their help. On this word, see Eph 2:7.
23. Some manuscripts say "and to" {K}.
24. Or, "presence". This is the literal rendering of this idiom, which means "before the churches". These men represent the face or presence of their churches witnessing what the Corinthians do. Whatever the Corinthians do, they do before these men and the churches they represent. On this word, see "presence" in Lk 9:52.
25. Or, "sign, proof, evidence". On this word, see Rom 3:25. Related to "demonstrating" earlier.
26. Or, "service". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:5.
27. Same phrase as 8:4, "the ministry to the saints". That is, to write regarding the details of this ministry to the poor in Jerusalem and your need to be part of it. The Corinthians already knew this. There is no need to be promoting this ministry. Note that our limited knowledge of the details of this ministry come from elsewhere, Rom 15:26; 1 Cor 16:1-4.
28. That is, to the Macedonians, v 2. Paul was saying that "they have been prepared", v 2. Now he wants to make sure that they are really prepared.
29. Or, "ready". This is a participle, "you may be having been prepared", that is, that you may stand prepared. Same word as in v 2. Elsewhere only in Act 10:10; 1 Cor 14:8. GK 4186. Related to "preparation" in Jn 19:31.
30. That is, to say nothing of you. The Corinthians would bear the greater shame if they failed to complete what they began. Some manuscripts say "we" {B}.
31. Or, "project, undertaking". On this word, see "assurance" in Heb 11:1. Some give this a subjective meaning, "this confidence I have in you on the basis of which I boasted about you". Paul's boast would be made empty (v 3) if his confidence in them proved false. Others give it an objective meaning, "lest we be put to shame in this project we are organizing for the benefit of Jerusalem and the church". Some manuscripts add "of boasting" {B}, as in 11:17.
32. Used only here. GK 564. Related to the word in v 3.
33. This is a participle, "your blessing having been previously promised". Some think Paul means "promised by you"; others, "promised by me" to the Macedonians, as in v 2. Elsewhere only as "promised beforehand" in Rom 1:2. GK 4600.
34. That is, your blessing for the poor in Jerusalem, the gift you promised to give as a blessing to them. Same word as four times in v 5-6, and as in Rom 15:29; 1 Cor 10:16; Gal 3:14; Eph 1:3; Heb 6:7; 12:17; Jam 3:10; 1 Pet 3:9; Rev 5:12, 13; 7:12. Elsewhere only as "flattery" in Rom 16:18. GK 2330. The related verb is in Lk 6:28.
35. That is, as an exhibit of your blessing upon the Jerusalem church, and not of your greediness in withholding what you promised. On this word, see "greed" in Eph 4:19.
36. Or, "Now as to this giving", or, "demonstration", or "gift".
37. Used 52 times. GK 5062. Related to "seed" in Heb 11:11.
38. Used only in this verse. GK 5768. Related to "spare" in Rom 11:21.
39. That is, "for the purpose of", or "on the basis of". GK 2093. "Blessings" is the same word as in v 5. Some take the phrase in an adverbial sense, "sow blessingly", that is, bountifully, generously.
40. Or, "has preferred, chosen for himself, deliberately purposed". Used only here. GK 4576. The root word is "choose" in 2 Thes 2:13. Some manuscripts say "chooses beforehand" {N}.
41. That is, from a heart grieving or pained over the loss of the money given, from a grudging heart. On this word, see 7:10. Related to the word in Deut 15:10.
42. Or, "necessity". On this word, see "necessity" in 1 Cor 7:26.
43. Or, "happy, merry, glad". Used only here. GK 2659. Related to "cheerfulness" in Rom 12:8.

- 2C. And God is able to cause all grace to abound^A to you in order that in everything, always having all sufficiency¹, you may be abounding for every² good work 8
- 1D. Just as³ it has been written [in Ps 112:9], “He scattered^B, he gave to the needy⁴ ones, his righteousness^C remains^D forever^E” 9
- 3C. And the One supplying⁵ seed⁶ to the one sowing, and bread for eating⁷, will supply⁸ and multiply^F your seed⁹, and will grow¹⁰ the fruits¹¹ *of*¹² your righteousness. “In everything¹³, you will¹⁴ be enriched^G for all¹⁵ generosity¹⁶— 10 11

1. Or, "self-sufficiency". Made of two words "self" and "to be enough, sufficient, content" (used in 12:9). It is freedom from circumstances based on contentment before God resulting in a self-sufficiency in Him which enables a generosity toward others. Elsewhere only as "contentment" in 1 Tim 6:6. GK 894.
2. There is a five-fold repetition of the root word "all, every" here, "every grace to abound to you in order that in everything, at every time having every sufficiency, you may abound for every good work".
3. Some think Paul means "God is able... just as", meaning God scatters and gives to the poor through His people abounding in good work, v 8. Others think he means "that you may be abounding... just as", meaning the human giver scatters and gives, and his righteousness, seen in his acts of generosity, will be remembered and rewarded here and hereafter (or, will continue as long as he lives).
4. That is, the working poor. Used only here. GK 4288. Related to the word in Lk 21:2. Compare the unrelated word "poor" in Gal 4:9.
5. Or, "providing, furnishing, giving, granting". Elsewhere only in Gal 3:5; Col 2:19; 2 Pet 1:5, 11. GK 2220. Related to the word in Eph 4:16. Some manuscripts have this as a prayer, "Now may the One supplying... supply and multiply... and grow..." {N}.
6. That is, physical seed to grow bread. Same word as later in the verse. Used 6 times. GK 5078. Some manuscripts have a different word here {N}, GK 5065 (the word related to "sowing" in v 6).
7. Or, "food". Some take "bread for eating" with what follows, so that it says "will both supply bread for eating and multiply your seed". On this word, see Mt 6:19.
8. Or, "provide". As God does in the physical realm with seed and its product (bread), so He will do in the spiritual realm with the seed you sow and its product (fruits of righteousness). Same root word as "supplying" earlier in the verse. Elsewhere only in 1 Pet 4:11. GK 5961.
9. Some think Paul means the resources sown for His kingdom. God will supply and multiply what you sow, the crop of seed you sow, the seed you scatter. Others think he means the resources able to be sown, the store of resources from which one can sow for Him. He will supply and multiply your ability to sow.
10. Or, "cause to grow, increase". Same word as "causing growth" in 1 Cor 3:6, 7. On this word, see Jn 3:30.
11. Or, "products". On this word, see Mt 26:29.
12. Some think Paul means "fruits consisting of righteousness" in your life. The seed you sow in His kingdom grows a crop of righteousness in you. Others think he means "fruits proceeding from your [act of] righteousness". From the seed you sow He will grow a harvest of blessings for you, in this life and the next; or, a harvest of blessings for others, taking whatever full-grown form He produces.
13. Some think Paul is referring to the financial ability to be generous; others, to the inward spiritual qualities that would lead one to be generous; others, to both, and the opportunities to express them.
14. Or, "righteousness—you being enriched in everything". The grammar is unusual. Some supply the "will be" time relation from the previous verbs, so that this restates v 10 for the specific case in view. Others render this as a participle giving the circumstance in which "your" sowing and growing takes place ("you being enriched by God"), continuing the general principle of v 10. Others link this to v 8, making all of v 9 and 10 a parenthesis, "that having all sufficiency, you may be abounding... being enriched".
15. Some think Paul means "every kind of"; others, "every occasion of, every opportunity for".
16. Same word as in 8:2 and 9:13. Others think Paul means "simplicity, singleness of mind" to serve God, the broad category of which generosity is one specific manifestation. On this word, see Rom 12:8.
17. That is, their generosity or singleness, as realized in the specific case in view.
18. The present tense verbs are given a future sense by the context, since the Corinthians' generous participation in this collection is still future, and it is the completion of this endeavor which results in the "producing" because of the "filling up" and "abounding" (v 12), and the "glorifying" God for the Corinthians (v 13). Thus this phrase means "which through our delivery of it will produce thanksgiving by those receiving it".
19. Same word as in Act 11:29 and 12:25, of another delivery of monetary relief. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:5.
20. That is, "the ministry consisting of this service". This word means "public service", and in this context, public service for God (for the believing public). It was also used of "priestly service", and some think Paul has this nuance in mind here. Same word as in Lk 1:23; Phil 2:17, 30. Elsewhere only as "ministry" in Heb 8:6; 9:21. GK 3311. Paul is referring to the Corinthians' ministry in performing this service by giving the money. Related to the verb "minister" in Rom 15:27, which refers to this collection.
21. Or, "supplying, replenishing, fill by adding to". Elsewhere only as "supplied" in 11:9. GK 4650. Not related to the two words rendered "supply" in v 10.
22. Or, "By", Occasioned by. This verse explains why the believers in Jerusalem will give thanks, v 12. GK 1328.
23. On this word, see 2:9. It means the approved quality of a thing having been tested. Some think Paul means "the approved nature of this ministry", which is in keeping with the Christian standard of love. Others think he means "the approved quality of your character which this ministry demonstrates", the "proof which this ministry provides as to your obedience and generosity". Compare the opposite case in Jam 2:14-16.
24. This sentence has the same unusual grammar as in v 11. The future sense is supplied from the context. Or, "They glorifying God through the approvedness...". "They" refers to the saints abounding with thanksgivings in v 12.
25. Or "submission, compliance". On this word, see "submission" in 1 Tim 2:11.
26. Some think Paul means the Corinthians' obedience to Christ "proceeding from" (motivated by) their confession of Christ; others, their obedience "to" their confession of Christ. Others change the word order to "the obedience to the good news of Christ which characterizes your confession". This word means "confession, public declaration, acknowledgment". Elsewhere only in 1 Tim 6:12, 13; Heb 3:1; 4:14; 10:23. GK 3934. Related to "confess" in 1 Tim 6:12.
27. Or, "with reference to". GK 1650.
28. Or, "sincerity, singlemindedness". Same word as in v 11.
29. Or, "sharing, fellowship". Some take this phrase in its narrower sense, "the generosity of your contribution for them and for all"; others in its broader sense, "the sincerity of your fellowship toward them and toward all". Same word as in Rom 15:26 (as is "for"), referring to this gift. On this word, see "fellowship" in 1 Cor 1:9.
30. That is, your contribution intended for the physical relief of the Jerusalem believers and for the spiritual benefit of all believers through the good will Paul hopes will result from this act.

1. Or, "longing for, desiring". On this word, see 1 Pet 2:2.
2. Elsewhere only in 3:10; Eph 1:19; 2:7; 3:19. GK 5650.
3. Used only here. GK 442. Related to "tell in detail" in Act 13:41.
4. Some think Paul is referring to the grace of God (v 8) which will enable the Corinthians to abound for this contribution, in which case this would be point 4C. Others think he means the great result of this contribution just described, the unity and good-will it will bring about between Jewish and Gentile believers. In this case, this would be point 2D. In both these views, Paul is thanking God in advance for the gift he anticipates God will give in relation to this endeavor. Others think he is referring to God's gift of His Son, the grand model for all our giving, as he closes the subject. On this word, see Rom 5:15.
5. In chapters 10-13, Paul is answering some opponents in Corinth who were saying that he was not truly an apostle, like the others. He was simply a human leader, with no more authority than any other traveling preacher. Paul wants to correct them, to prove his authority, to expose his detractors, but he is very reluctant to openly defend himself (12:19). The result is a very personal and emotional struggle by Paul with how much to say and how to say it. His opponents were probably the Judaizers (11:22), whom he calls false apostles, deceitful workers (11:13). Some think that having finished his basically positive words to the Corinthians, Paul now turns to pointedly address them about those among them who were speaking against him. Others think chapters 10-13 was a separate letter (see 2:3), suggesting several scenarios.
6. Or, "in relation to my presence". Same idiom as in Act 25:16. Paul is quoting his detractors here. Apparently some detractors were attempting to discredit Paul by saying "He talks big when he is not here!" Compare v 10-11. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between this phrase and the next.
7. The third and final use of this word in 2 Corinthians, and the third combination of it with "appeal". See 8:4.
8. Paul wants to be bold in speech now so that he does not have to be bold in action ("act severely", 13:10) when he comes. He prefers to remain "lowly among you". On "be bold" here and in v 1, see "be confident" in 5:6.
9. On this word, see 1:15. Paul's confidence was in the spiritual weapons God had granted him to use in this spiritual war (10:4), and in the authority granted him by God (10:8). Note 13:2, he will not spare them.
10. Or, "to be bold", "to be courageous" against. On this word, see 11:21.
11. This is supplied from 13:10.
12. That is, with mere human authority and power. These detractors questioned Paul's motives, and the authority of his ministry.
13. Or, "fighting". On this word, see "fight" in 1 Tim 1:18. Related to "warfare" in v 4; and "soldier" in Mt 28:12.
14. That is, pertaining to the flesh, physical. On this word, see 1 Cor 3:3.
15. Or, "for God". Or, "by God", meaning "divinely powerful".
16. Or, "destruction, demolition". This noun is elsewhere only in v 8; 13:10. GK 2746. The related verb is next.
17. The next three phrases refer to what Paul is doing with his powerful weapons. It is a military metaphor. When a rebellious city was conquered, first the walls and defenses were torn down and breached, then the people taken captive, and the offenders punished.
18. Or, "pulling down, destroying, demolishing". Same verb as in Lk 12:18; Act 19:27. Elsewhere only as "bring down" in Lk 1:52; Act 13:19; and "take down" in Mk 15:36, 46; Lk 23:53; Act 13:29. GK 2747.
19. Or, "reflections, thoughts, reasonings, calculations". Elsewhere only as "thoughts" in Rom 2:15. GK 3361. Same root word as "considering" in v 2, and rendered this way to show the connection.
20. Or, "elevation, barrier", raised up for defense against an attacker. Every obstacle of pride. Elsewhere only in Rom 8:39. GK 5739.
21. Or, "taking prisoner, captivating". Elsewhere only in Lk 21:24; Rom 7:23; 2 Tim 3:6. GK 170. Related to "captive" in Eph 4:8.
22. Or, "mind". On this word, see "minds" in 3:14.
23. That is, into the fortress of obedience to Christ (continuing the military metaphor).
24. This idiom is literally "holding in readiness". Related idiom in 12:14.
25. Or, "avenge". Elsewhere only as "avenge" in Lk 18:3, 5; Rom 12:19; Rev 6:10; 19:2. GK 1688. The related noun is in 7:11.
26. Or, "every refusal-to-listen". Elsewhere only in Rom 5:19; Heb 2:2. GK 4157. Related to "ignore" in Mk 5:36.
27. Or, "made full". After the full obedience of the majority, Paul will punish the disobedient, the "some" in v 2, the ministers of Satan in 11:15 and the Corinthians who follow them. Note 13:2.
28. This is a difficult sentence. The verb can be a statement, "you are looking"; a command, "look at"; or a question, "are you looking?". The "looking" could be at things "according to appearance"; "in your presence"; or "before your face" (similar to Gal 3:1, "before the eyes"). In any case, all imply the same thing—Look deeper! Same word as in 5:12, on which see "presence" in Lk 9:52.
29. Or, "anyone". That is, one of the "some considering" in v 2; such a one as mentioned in v 10-11.
30. In other words, in his own mind.
31. Some think Paul means "belongs to Christ"; others, more specifically, "is Christ's servant" or minister.
32. Some manuscripts add "Christ's" {K}.
33. Paul uses this word to assert his next point, as also in v 12. GK 1142.
34. This word occurs with the verb "boast" elsewhere only as "anything" in 7:14, and "bit" in 11:16. GK 5516.
35. Or, "further, more abundant, greater". That is, more than claiming to be Christ's servant, v 7. GK 4358. Same two words as in Lk 12:4, not having "anything more" to do.
36. Some manuscripts add "us" {N}.
37. That is, as these detractors say about Paul. Paul is sarcastically answering the assertion of his opponents (v 10). He will not be put to shame because his actions when he is present will match his words, proving that he was not merely trying to frighten them through his letters. Some smooth this out by saying "I say this (v 8) in order that I may not...".
38. Paul pauses to explain why he mentions his letters.
39. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
40. That is, the opponent alluded to in verse 2. Paul may be referring to their leader, or he may mean "one says" in a general sense. Perhaps this was these opponents' response to what Paul said in 1 Cor 5:3-5. Some manuscripts say "they say" {N}.
41. Or, "despised, disdained". This is a participle, "having been treated with contempt". Compare Act 17:32. Note the passive, "others disdain his speech". Yet see Gal 4:14, same word. On this word, see 1 Thes 5:20.

1. Used only here. GK 1605. There is a play on words with the next word (GK 5173). Both are from the root word "judge". The idea is, we do not "judge ourselves to be in" their class, or "judge ourselves with" them as the standard. Paul's sarcasm is evident here.
2. Same word as v 18.
3. If Paul did boast, it would not be in his accomplishments as compared to the accomplishments of others.
4. That is, understand that self-commendation means nothing. The reality is in v 18. In the light of an absolute standard of measure, our self-commendation means nothing. Some people commend themselves for their sin! On this word, see Mt 13:13.
5. Or, "things beyond measure, things without measure". Elsewhere only in v 15. GK 296.
6. Or, "in accordance with, based on". GK 2848.
7. Or, "rule, norm, sphere, province". That is, "consisting of the standard". This word refers to the criteria of measure, the standard or measuring rod by which God measures Paul's work. God's standard of measure for Paul is a length or extent of service reaching to Corinth and beyond. This word can also figuratively refer to the thing measured by the standard. In this case, it would refer to the measured-out "territory" of Paul's ministry, the "province" or "sphere" of work God allotted to him. Same word as in v 15, 16. Elsewhere only in Gal 6:16. GK 2834.
8. If Paul did boast, it would be in his own accomplishments as measured by what God gave him to do.
9. That is, in our boasting to you about what God has done through us. It is Paul's opponents who are overextending.
10. Or, "arrived-first". On this word, see "came" in 1 Thes 2:16.
11. As his opponents did. Since they built on another's foundation, their own contribution could not be measured. On this word, see "foreigners" in Heb 11:34.
12. Or, "magnified, made large". Elsewhere only as "lengthen" in Mt 23:5; and "magnify" in Lk 1:47, 58; Act 5:13; 10:46; 19:17; Phil 1:20. GK 3486.
13. Or, "among, by". That is, that in your growth, we might be enlarged beyond you, farther out into the sphere of measure given to us by God (which extends to Rome). A few months later, Paul wrote Romans from Corinth. GK 1877.
14. This is explained by what follows. Paul's hope as a pioneer is to produce the greatest geographical abundance of believers possible within his sphere, not to retrace the steps of others. On this word, see 8:2.
15. Or, "the ready things", the things someone else has already gotten ready, the "labors of others" (v 15). On this word, see Mk 14:15.
16. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:15. Paul has the Corinthians themselves as God's commendation of him, 3:2.
17. Or, this may be taken with what follows, "bear with my little bit of foolishness".
18. Or, "something". The same word as "anything" in 10:8. "Little bit" is also in 11:16.
19. Paul considers boasting about himself to be foolishness, 11:16, 17, 21; 12:11; and not beneficial, 12:1.
20. Instead of a command (like those in v 16), this may be a statement, "you are bearing with me". On this word, see v 4.
21. Or, "zealous-for", I am zealous for you with a zeal of God. Same word as "jealous" in Jam 4:2; "become-jealous" in Act 17:5; and "jealous-of" in Act 7:9. Elsewhere only as "zealous-for" in 1 Cor 12:31; 14:1, 39; "zealously-see" in Gal 4:17, 18; and "envy" in 1 Cor 13:4. GK 2420. Related to the next word; and to "zealot" in 1 Cor 14:12.
22. Or, "zeal". Same word as in Act 5:17; 13:45; Rom 13:13; 1 Cor 3:3; 2 Cor 12:20; Gal 5:20; Jam 3:14, 16. Elsewhere only as "zeal" in Jn 2:17; Rom 10:2; 2 Cor 7:7, 11; 9:2; Phil 3:6; Heb 10:27. GK 2419.
23. Some think Paul means "a God-kind of jealousy, godly jealousy"; others, a jealousy "from God".
24. Or, "promised in marriage". Like a bride's father, Paul promised the Corinthians to Christ. Used only here. GK 764.
25. See Act 5:26 on this idiom.
26. Some manuscripts say "so your..." {N}.
27. Or, "thoughts", as in 10:5. On this word, see 3:14.
28. Or, "ruined, spoiled". On this word, see "ruin" in 1 Cor 3:17.
29. Or, "simplicity". On this word, see "generosity" in Rom 12:8.
30. Some manuscripts omit "and purity" {C}. Elsewhere only in 6:6. GK 55. Related to "pure" in 1 Pet 3:2.
31. Or, "with regard to, towards, in". GK 1650.
32. Paul may mean "Spirit"; or something like a spirit of slavery to laws (Gal 5:1) versus a spirit of freedom (2 Cor 3:17).
33. That is, when we proclaimed the gospel to you.
34. Or, "endure, put up with". Same word as in 11:1, 19, 20; and Mt 17:17; Mk 9:19; Lk 9:41; Act 18:14; Eph 4:2; Col 3:13; 2 Thes 1:4; 2 Tim 4:3; Heb 13:22. Elsewhere only as "endure" in 1 Cor 4:12. GK 462. Some manuscripts have different grammar (like v 1), meaning "you would bear with" {N}.
35. Or, "well". Same word as in Mk 7:9, where it is also used sarcastically. Some think this is a second reason to bear with Paul, v 1. You bear with him, so keep bearing with me! Others make this 1 E., a sarcastic rebuke of them, continued in v 5-6. Consult the commentaries. On this word, see "well" in Act 10:33.
36. Or, "come behind, been inferior to, been less than". Same word as in 12:11, and as "in need" in v 9.
37. Elsewhere only in 12:11. GK 5663. Some think Paul is referring to the chief apostles—Peter, James and John. Bear with me (v 1), for I am not inferior to the most-eminent apostles, as seen in the signs I do (12:11-12). Like them, I am someone to whom you should listen. Others think Paul is referring to the "false apostles" (v 13), sarcastically calling them "[these] super apostles", and saying, listen to me, for I am certainly not their inferior. "Superlative" is intended to be a neutral translation, the tone of voice making it clear. "Super" and "most-eminent" are renderings that represent the two views.
38. More literally, "if I even am untrained", assuming that I even am untrained. On this idiom, see "if also" 1 Cor 7:21.
39. Or, "a layman". On this word, see "uninstructed" in 1 Cor 14:16. Paul was not a trained Greek orator.
40. In the one view, Paul means this in comparison to the "super apostles". In other words, this as an exception to "in no way". In the other view, he means this in comparison to his opponents who were saying this about him, not the most-eminent apostles. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
41. Some manuscripts say "ourselves" {N}.
42. Or, "known". This is a participle, "we are ones having made evident". Some manuscripts say "we were made evident" {N}, that is, "we are ones having been made evident". On this word, see 1 Jn 2:19.
43. Or, "among all people" instead of "in all things".

1. Paul brings up one way in which his opponents might have seen him to be inferior.
2. That is, by making tents in order to pay his own expenses. More sarcasm. Paul's opponents saw this as degrading. In the Greco-Roman culture, good teachers and philosophers charged for their teaching, and earned a living from it. So Paul's opponents took the fact that he did not do so as an indication that he was, or thought himself to be, inferior. "Humbling... exalted" could also be translated "Lowering... lifted up". The same two words are used in Mt 23:12; Lk 14:11; 18:14; Jam 4:10; 1 Pet 5:6. See also Phil 2:8-9.
3. Or, "as a gift, without payment". Paul did not allow the Corinthians to support him. This was not because he could not charge, but because he chose not to do so. He did not want to be seen as just earning a living like a philosopher, nor the gospel to be seen as just another teaching. On this word, see "without reason" in Gal 2:21.
4. Paul uses the verb and noun of the same word. See Gal 1:11.
5. Or, "took booty from, stripped off spoils, plundered, sacked". Used only here. GK 5195. It is figurative for accepting financial support. More sarcasm. I sinned by not accepting money from you (v 7), and I robbed others to make it possible!
6. Or, "wages". That is, money to live on. On this word, see "wages" in Rom 6:23.
7. That is, for my ministry to you. Paul allowed the Philippians to support him after he left them, Phil 4:15-16. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:5.
8. On this word, see Lk 15:14. Same word as "come short" in v 5.
9. Or, "lack, shortage". On this word, see "lack" in Phil 2:30. Same root word as "in need" earlier.
10. Same type of oath as in 1:18. Or, "It is the truth of Christ in me that this..."
11. See 1 Cor 9:1-27, especially v 15 where Paul says he would rather die than give up this boast.
12. Or, "opportunity to be found". GK 2671. This phrase defines the content of the opportunity the opponents wanted. They want the opportunity to be recognized as equal to Paul, to be found by people to be just like him. To attain this, they want Paul to accept pay just like they do. Paul cuts off their opportunity to be seen as his equal by refusing this right, thus striking at their money motive. There are other views of this clause. Consult the commentaries.
13. That is, outwardly. On this word, see Phil 3:21.
14. Same word as "transform" in v 13, 14, but here followed by "as". These people transform themselves to hide their true motives and intent; that is, they disguise themselves.
15. See Rev 20:12 on this.
16. Same word as in Lk 11:40; 12:20; Rom 2:20; 1 Cor 15:36; 2 Cor 12:6, 11; Eph 5:17; 1 Pet 2:15. Elsewhere only as "unwise" in v 19. GK 933.
17. This idiom, "otherwise indeed", is literally, "But if [this is] not indeed [the case]". This idiom is elsewhere only in Mt 6:1; 9:17; Lk 5:36, 37; 10:6; 13:9; 14:32. Related to the idiom "otherwise" in Jn 14:2.
18. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 5:12; 7:14; 9:2; 10:8, 13, 15, 16, 17; 11:12, 16, 18, 30; 12:1, 5, 6, 9; and Rom 2:17, 23; 5:2, 3, 11; 1 Cor 1:29, 31; 3:21; 4:7; 13:3; Gal 6:13, 14; Eph 2:9; Phil 3:3; Jam 1:9; 4:16. GK 3016. See 7:4 on the related noun.
19. Some give this word a subjective meaning here, "in this confidence I have about my status as God's apostle, about which I am boasting". Others give it an objective sense, "in this subject of boasting" forced upon Paul by his opponents; or "in this undertaking of boasting" Paul is about to begin in order to give the true foundation for understanding him and these opponents. On this word, see "assurance" in Heb 11:1.
20. Or, "in keeping with, in harmony with" how the Lord would speak. Or, "for, in relation to". GK 2848.
21. Same word as in v 1, 21. Elsewhere only in Mk 7:22. GK 932. Related to "foolish" in v 16.
22. Or, "based on, in keeping with" human standards. GK 2848.
23. Or, "gladly". On this word, see Mk 6:20.
24. Or, "foolish". It is the same word as "foolish" in v 16, but here there is a play on words—"with the unwise, being wise", or, "with the senseless, being sensible". More sarcasm.
25. On this word, used here and in v 19, see v 4.
26. Or, "reduces you to slavery or bondage". In v 20 Paul is describing how his opponents treated the Corinthians, and yet were still accepted. Elsewhere only in Gal 2:4. GK 2871. Related to "are slaves" in Rom 6:6.
27. Some think this refers to financial exploitation. Compare Mk 12:40; Rom 16:18; Phil 3:19. On this word, see Mk 12:40.
28. That is, take advantage of you. Same word as v 8, having "taken" support from other churches, and as 12:16. This is the common word meaning "take, receive", used 258 times in the NT. GK 3284.
29. Or, "lifts his hand" in a threat; "raises his voice" in anger (as in Act 22:22); lifts himself up into positions of authority; lifts himself up in pride and presumption. Same word as in Lk 24:50; Jn 6:5, 13:18; 17:1; Act 1:9; 1 Tim 2:8. Used 19 times. GK 2048.
30. Paul may mean this literally, as in Jn 18:22; Act 23:2. Or it may be a figurative reference to insulting, dishonoring treatment.
31. Or, "in relation to, with regard to; according to, based on; to, for the purpose of". GK 2848.
32. Or, "disgrace". You bear with the unwise (v 19), so bear with my dishonor, my weakness (as my opponents regard it). Others think Paul means "I speak to my dishonor", that is, I admit to my "dishonor" my "weakness" by comparison with them in this matter of boasting in the flesh. In either case, he is being sarcastic. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:20.
33. These two words, "how that" occur together elsewhere only in 5:19 and 2 Thes 2:2. They indicate that Paul is referring to something someone else said. Note 10:10.
34. More sarcasm. As they say, we have been weak by comparison to them in these matters. This is to my "dishonor"! On this word, see "sick" in 2 Tim 4:20. Some manuscripts say "we were weak" (B).
35. But in spite of my "weakness" in this matter, I will now boast also.
36. This word means to be daring, to have the courage to do something, to venture or be bold to do something. Same word as in 10:2, 12. Paul is reluctant to boast about himself (10:8), he thinks it to be foolish (11:17), yet he dares to do it (11:21) because he is compelled to do so by his opponents (12:11). Elsewhere only in Mt 22:46; Mk 12:34; 15:43; Lk 20:40; Jn 21:12; Act 5:13; 7:32; Rom 5:7; 15:18; 1 Cor 6:1; Phil 1:14; Jude 9. GK 5528.

1. Or, "deranged, beside myself, mad, irrational". Clearly Paul was very reluctant to boast these things. He has said something like this four times now, v 16, 17, 21, 23. Used only here. GK 4196. Related to "madness", 2 Pet 2:16.
2. Some manuscripts reverse this phrase and the next one, {N}, so that "in many-more beatings" comes first.
3. Paul could mean "many more in quantity" or "much greater in severity". Used only here. GK 5649. Related to "surpassing" in 9:14.
4. Though used 120 times, this is the only place where this word is plural. "In death situations many times". GK 2505.
5. The Law allowed a maximum of 40 lashes, Deut 25:3. To protect against a miscount, the Jews gave 39.
6. Once was in Act 16:22, the only other occurrence of this word. This was a Roman punishment.
7. This was at Lystra, recorded in Act 14:19.
8. This is not counting the one that came later in Act 27. The three here are unknown to us.
9. This is one word, a "night-day", a full day. Used only here. GK 3819.
10. Presumably, floating on debris after one of the shipwrecks. The incident is unknown to us. Used only here. GK 1113.
11. Or, "people, kind". That is, fellow Israelites. On this word, see "kind" in 1 Cor 12:28.
12. Or, "sleepless nights". Perhaps, "alerts". On this word, see 6:5.
13. That is, voluntary skipping of meals for spiritual purposes, as opposed to involuntary "hunger and thirst" previously. Elsewhere only in 6:5; Lk 2:37; Act 14:23; 27:9 (its only singular use). GK 3763. The verb is in Mt 6:16.
14. Elsewhere only in Rom 8:35; Rev 3:18. GK 1219. Related to "naked" in 1 Cor 4:11.
15. Or, "the things besides" these things just mentioned, meaning that apart from the other things of this nature that I have not included here, there is the daily pressure. Elsewhere only as "except for" in Mt 5:32; Act 26:29. GK 4211. Related to "outside" in 12:2.
16. Or, "onset, care, attention, oversight, stoppage, hindrance". On this word, see "onset" in Act 24:12. Some think this is an independent phrase, referring to the pressure of people coming to Paul, or people attacking him, etc. Others think the next clause explains this one.
17. That is, burn with concern or anger. Elsewhere only as "burning" with passion in 1 Cor 7:9; "flaming" in Eph 6:16; "set on fire" in 2 Pet 3:12; and "refined" in Rev 1:15; 3:18. GK 4792. The root word is "fire".
18. Or, "I must, I have to". On this idiom, see "must" in Mt 16:21.
19. Some manuscripts say "our" {K}.
20. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {K}.
21. Or, "the One who is blessed". "Blessed" is an adjective, not part of the verb. The grammar indicates this phrase refers to "the God and Father", not to "Lord Jesus". On this word, see Rom 9:5.
22. Some think Paul means "in what I am boasting here in v 22-33"; others think it refers to the preceding boasts; others, to the next boast in v 32-33.
23. That is, governor. Used only here. GK 1617. Some think Paul adds this because his opponents were distorting the incident against him, saying he ran away. Paul states the facts.
24. Aretas IV was king of Nabatea, a territory east of Damascus, from 9 B.C. to A.D. 40. He was the father-in-law of Herod Antipas (Mt 14:1). Herod divorced his daughter to marry Herodias, and Aretas went to war with him. Used only here. GK 745.
25. On this word, see Jn 11:57. Some manuscripts say "wishing to seize" {B}.
26. Same word as in Act 9:25 where this incident is recorded. On this word, see Act 27:17.
27. Same idiom as in 11:30. Some manuscripts instead have the word meaning "indeed, certainly, surely" here (see "indeed" in Mt 13:23 on it) {A}, so that it says "It is surely not beneficial to boast, but...".
28. Or, "profitable, advantageous". It does not benefit Paul, and exposes him to the charge of self-commendation. Perhaps for this reason, Paul puts what follows in the third person. It gives him some verbal distance from what he relates. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence. This is a participle, "being beneficial". Same word as in 1 Cor 6:12. Some manuscripts instead say, "It is not beneficial for me, but..." {A}.
29. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:22; 24:23; Act 26:19. GK 3965. Related to "appear" in Act 1:3; and "vision" in Act 10:3 and Rev 9:17.
30. That is, a Christian man.
31. This is an idiom, "before fourteen years".
32. Or, "caught up, seized, taken, carried off by force". This is a participle, was "having been snatched away". Same word as in v 4, and Mt 11:12; 12:29; 13:19; Act 8:39. Elsewhere only as "snatch up" in 1 Thes 4:17 (the rapture); Rev 12:5; "snatch" in Jn 10:12, 28, 29; Act 23:10; Jude 23; and "take away by force" in Jn 6:15. GK 773. Related to "seized" in Lk 8:29; and "plundering" in Heb 10:34.
33. Some think the first heaven is the "sky" (where the birds fly, as this word is used in Mt 6:26; 16:3; Rev 11:6), the second is space (where the sun, moon, and stars are, as in Mt 5:18; Rev 14:7; 21:1), the third is God's presence (as in Eph 6:9; Phil 3:20; Heb 8:1). Used 273 times. GK 4041.
34. Some think v 3-4 describes the same event as v 2; others, the second stage of that event; others, a separate event.
35. Some think this is the same thing as the third heaven; others, something different. Elsewhere only in Lk 23:43; Rev 2:7. GK 4137.
36. This word has two senses—unspeakable because it is beyond human ability, or, not to be spoken because it is too holy. Probably the latter meaning is intended here, in view of the next phrase. Not related to "speak" which follows. Used only here. GK 777.
37. This is a participle, "being permitted". On this word, see "lawful" in 1 Cor 6:12.
38. Paul seems to mean "man" in the sense of "mortal". Whatever it was, it was for Paul, no one else.
39. Some manuscripts say "my" {N}.
40. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "hears from me".

- 4D. And¹ for the excess² of the revelations^A— *for-this-reason*³, in order that I⁴ might not be exalted⁵, *a thorn*⁶ *in*⁷ the flesh was given to me, a messenger^B of Satan to⁸ beat⁹ me, in order that I might not be exalted¹⁰ 7

- 3E. Therefore most-gladly¹⁶ I will rather¹⁷ boast in my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell¹⁸ upon me
- 4E. For this reason I am well-pleased^G with weaknesses, with insults¹⁹, with constraints^H, with persecutions^J and²⁰ distresses^K for the sake of Christ. For whenever I am weak, at that time I am powerful²¹ 10
- 5B. I have become foolish²²— you compelled^L me! For I ought to be being commended^M by you! 11

- 2E. I urged⁴⁴ Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him.⁴⁵ Titus did not exploit you, *did he?*⁴⁶ Did we not walk^V in the same spirit? In the same footsteps?⁴⁷ 18

1. In this rendering, "And... revelations" is connected with what follows. Others connect it with v 5, "except in the weaknesses... and in the... revelations". Others link it to v 6, "credit to me beyond what... me, and [credit to me] by means of the excessive greatness of the revelations [I have received]".
2. Paul may mean the excess of quality, "excellence"; or, the excess of quantity, "abundance". Same word as in 4:7. On this word, see "beyond measure" in 1 Cor 12:31.
3. This is the Greek word order. Some manuscripts omit this word [C], so that it says "And in order that I might not be exalted for the excess of the revelations, ...", the phrase "for... revelations" being moved forward in the Greek word order for emphasis. Other arrangements of this unusual grammar have been suggested. Consult the commentaries.
4. Here it becomes clear that v 2-6 refer to Paul himself.
5. Or, "that I may not exalt myself". Elsewhere only in 2 Thes 2:4, of the Antichrist. GK 5643.
6. Used of any pointed piece of wood. Used only here. GK 5022.
7. Or, "for". For suggestions on what this thorn was, a centuries-old debate, consult the commentaries. Note Gal 4:15.
8. Or, "in order that it might"; or, "in order that he might". GK 2671.
9. Or, "strike". On this word, see 1 Cor 4:11.
10. Some manuscripts omit this second occurrence of "in order that I may not be exalted" {B}.
11. Or, "he", the messenger, instead of "it", the thorn. Perhaps if Paul was thinking of the thorn, he would have said "be taken away" to match "was given" in v 7. If so, then "he" would be correct here. But on "depart", compare Mk 1:42 and Act 19:12.
12. Or, "is enough, is adequate". Elsewhere only as "is enough" in Mt 25:9; Jn 6:7; 14:8; and "be content" in Lk 3:14; 1 Tim 6:8; Heb 13:5; 3 Jn 10. GK 758. Related to "sufficient" in Mt 6:34.
13. Some manuscripts include this word {A}.
14. Or, "brought to completion". On this word, see "finished" in Rev 10:7.
15. God's power is "brought to completion, consummation" in weakness. This statement is a key to understanding what God is doing in this world. Jesus Himself is the prime example of this. The greatness of God's power is seen in the weakness of the means He uses to accomplish His works. Thus, His greatest victory is found in the worst human defeat imaginable—the rejection, betrayal, and execution of the Son of God. On this word, see Mt 8:17.
16. Or, "with-the-greatest-pleasure". Same word as in v 15. On this word, see "with pleasure" in Mk 6:20.
17. Paul may mean "rather than ask God to remove the weaknesses"; or, "rather than anything else".
18. Or, "spread a tent" over me, "take up quarters" in me. Used only here. GK 2172. Related to "dwell" in Rev 7:15; and "tent" in 2 Cor 5:1.
19. Or, "violent mistreatment, outrages" committed against a person. Elsewhere only as "damage" in Act 27:10, 21. GK 5615. Related to "mistreat" in 1 Thes 2:2.
20. Some manuscripts say "with" {N}.
21. Or, "strong, mighty". Related to "power" in v 9, and rendered this way to show the relationship. Same word as in 10:4, and as "strong" in 13:9. On this word, see Lk 24:19.
22. Same word as in 11:16. Some manuscripts add "while boasting" {N}.
23. Same phrase as in 11:5. See there on the two views of this.
24. More literally, "If I even am nothing", assuming that I even am nothing. On this idiom, see "if also" in 1 Cor 7:21.
25. Or, "the signs indeed"; that is, "the true signs". Others take the grammar to mean "the signs of the apostle" ("the apostle indeed"); that is, "the true apostle". In either case, Paul means the signs that distinguish an apostle sent by Christ Himself (versus a church) as His apostle, that place one in or out of that elite group. Paul is in, those troubling the Corinthians are out. Others think the grammar implies a statement corresponding to this sentence which is left unsaid, "But you took no notice".
26. Or, "accomplished, worked, done". That is, by Christ, through Paul. Those taking "superlative" to mean "chief" take Paul to mean "just like they would have done". Those taking it sarcastically to mean "super" take him to mean "which those troubling you are unable to do, lacking the power". Same word as "accomplish" in Rom 15:18. On this word, see "work out" in Phil 2:12.
27. That is, "in the sphere of, in connection with". GK 1877. The signs were done in connection with Paul's enduring of such trials as he just described (not in great glory). Both are part of his ministry.
28. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10. Compare Rom 15:19; Gal 3:5. On "wonder", see 2 Thes 2:9. The same 3 words are in Heb 2:4.
29. Or, "inferior, less". Used only here. GK 2273. Related to "less" in v 15, not to "come short" in v 11.
30. Same word and thought as in 11:9. Elsewhere only in v 14. GK 2915.
31. On this word, see "unrighteousness" in Rom 1:18.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, so that it says "a third time".
33. The first visit was in Acts 18, prior to writing 1 Corinthians. Some think there was a second "sorrowful visit" not mentioned in Acts (based on 2 Cor 2:1; 12:14; 13:1), making this proposed visit after 2 Corinthians the third. Others think Paul means this is the third planned visit, the third time he was "ready to come". The second planned visit never occurred because Paul changed his plans, 2:1. Note how he says this in 13:1. See also 13:2 and 1:15.
34. This is an idiom, "I am holding myself ready", on which see 1 Pet 4:5.
35. Some manuscripts say "I will not burden you" {K}.
36. Same word as 1 Cor 16:2.
37. Or, "spent out, exhausted". Related to "spend". Used only here. GK 1682.
38. Some manuscripts say "even though" {B}.
39. Or, this may be a question, "am I loved less?". Some manuscripts say "...souls. If I love you more, am I loved less?" {C}.
40. This word, "weigh down" is used only here. GK 2851. Not related to "burden" in v 13, 14, but the same idea. Related to "burden-on" in 2 Thes 2:9, and to "very weighed down" in Mk 14:40.
41. Perhaps Paul's opponents accused him of this. Used only here. GK 4112. Related to "craftiness" in 11:3.
42. More sarcasm. Let this be your assertion—It was not you, Paul, it was the people you sent who did it! On this word, see Mt 26:4.
43. On this word, see 1 Thes 4:6. The grammar expects a "no" answer to this question.
44. Same word as in 8:6; 9:5.
45. Paul may mean he appealed to Titus to go on this trip, carrying this letter. That is, the trip described in 8:6, 16-23. In this case, he means "[to go back to you]". "Sent" is from the Corinthians' point of view upon receipt of this letter, as in 8:17. Or, Paul may be referring to the previous trip from which Titus returned in 7:6. In this case, he means "[to go to you last time]".
46. The grammar expects a "no" answer.
47. The grammar expects a "yes" answer for these last two questions.

1. Instead of "All this time", some manuscripts say "Again" {A}.
2. On this word, see "speak a defense" in Lk 21:14.
3. This could also be a statement, "All this time, you are thinking..."
4. See Act 5:26 on this idiom.
5. That is, fighting and bickering as described next, or living in immorality, as described in v 21.
6. That is, as a disciplinarian, handing out punishment from God (13:2), to people over whom he publicly mourns, 12:21.
7. On this word, see 11:2. Some manuscripts have these first two words as plural (like those that follow), "quarrels, jealousies" {N}.
8. Or, "fits of rage, outbursts of anger". It is plural only here and Gal 5:20. On this word, see "fury" in Rev 16:19.
9. Or, "gossipings, slanderings". Used only here. GK 6030. Related word in Rom 1:29.
10. Or, "conceits, [acts of] pride". Used only here. GK 5883. Related to "puffed up" in 1 Cor 4:6.
11. Or, "disturbances". On this word, see Jam 3:16.
12. Some think Paul means "having come, my God should again humble me before you", "again" being moved forward in the Greek word order for emphasis.
13. To have to face and deal with such sin among them would be a humbling, mournful experience. On this word, see Phil 4:12.
14. Or, "to, with regard to". GK 4639.
15. That is, in the process of "not sparing" them, 13:2. On this word, see Jam 4:9.
16. That is, previous to being exhorted by Paul in person or by letter. In others words, ones having been taught and warned who still did not repent. Some think Paul specifically means "previous to my second visit"; others, "previous to receiving my exhortations in 1 Corinthians". Elsewhere only in 13:2. GK 4579.
17. Or, "in relation to, at, concerning". GK 2093.
18. Note how Paul says this in 12:14, and the views of it there. Some think this clarifies 12:14, pointing to a third actual visit; others think 12:14 clarifies this, meaning Paul is referring to a third intended visit.
19. Or, "on the basis of". Same phrase as in Mt 18:16; Deut 19:15.
20. Some think Paul means "as when I was present the second time", confirming that a second visit occurred (the sorrowful visit of 2:1. See 12:14). Others think he means "as though now being present in the spirit the second time, and being absent in the body", as these words are used in 1 Cor 5:3, the first time Paul had to act in this way. Some manuscripts add "I write" {N}, so that it says "...second time, and I write being absent now..." {N}.
21. This is the Greek word order. Some think these two phrases go with the previous two verbs—"I have said before, as being present the second time, and I am saying beforehand, being absent now..." (dropping the second "and"). Others think both go with the last verb, "I am saying beforehand—as being present the second time, and being absent now".
22. Same word as in 12:21.
23. Paul delayed coming in order to spare (1:23, same word) the Corinthians, but will not spare them when he arrives. Paul struck a man with temporary blindness in Act 13:11, and handed over offend-
- ing believers to Satan in 1 Cor 5:5; 1 Tim 1:20. Here, he does not state explicitly what he has in mind. On this word, see Rom 11:21.
24. Or, "test", as in 8:2. On this word, see "approvedness" in 2:9. Same root word as "prove" in v 5; "disapproved" in v 5, 6, 7; and "approved" in v 7.
25. Some manuscripts say "For indeed although" {N}.
26. Or, "from, out of". The source of the crucifixion of Jesus was "weakness"—either our weakness (sin) or His weakness (His human body, His humiliation as a man). But He lives because of (same word) the power of God, as we will (same word). GK 1666.
27. That is, Paul himself is weak in his relations with the Corinthians, in the eyes of his detractors (in one sense), and in fact (in another sense, 4:7-12; 12:9-10).
28. Some manuscripts say "we also are" {K}.
29. Some manuscripts say "with" {A}.
30. That is, toward you and through us. Some manuscripts omit "toward you" {A}.
31. You are seeking a proof in me, v 3? I say test yourselves! On this word, see "tempted" in Heb 2:18.
32. Or, "Examine", as in 1 Cor 11:28. See if you are genuine. On this word, see "approve" in Rom 12:2.
33. Or, "recognize, understand". On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
34. Or, "failing the test". Same word as in v 6, 7. On this word, see 1 Cor 9:27.
35. Or, "know, understand, recognize". On this word, see Lk 1:34. Related to "know" in v 5.
36. Some manuscripts say "I am" {N}.
37. Or, "wrong, evil, harmful". That is, such as the things in 12:20-21, things harmful to the truth and yourselves. Paul would prefer not to find this, and not to have to exercise his authority in punishing them. On this word, see "evil" in 3 Jn 11.
38. That is, because you obeyed our commands and submitted to us. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:15.
39. That is, because we did not exercise our disciplinary power, thus "proving" ourselves before you (v 3), because your good response eliminated the occasion for us to use this power.
40. That is, we pray as in v 7 because we could never desire otherwise. It would be against the truth for us to desire that you would continue in evil so that we could exercise our power against you.
41. Or, "powerful, mighty". That is, when we appear to be weak because you are strong and we are not required to use our power. On this word, see "powerful" in Lk 24:19. Related to the word in v 3.
42. Some manuscripts say "And this..." {K}.
43. Or, "completion, maturation". Used only here. GK 2937. The related verb is used in verse 11.
44. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 5:3; 2 Cor 10:1, 11; 13:2; Phil 1:27; Col 2:5. GK 582.
45. Same word as in 1:17.
46. Or, "sharply, harshly". Elsewhere only in Tit 1:13. GK 705. Related to "severity" in Rom 11:22.
47. Or, "based on, in keeping with". GK 2848.

1. Or, "farewell". Same word as in v 9; Lk 1:14; 10:20; Act 5:41; 15:31; Rom 12:15; Phil 1:18; 3:1; 4:4; Col 1:24; 1 Pet 4:13; Rev 19:7. It means "greetings, hail" only in Mt 26:49; 27:29; 28:9; Mk 15:18; Lk 1:28; Jn 19:3; and with different grammar, in Act 15:23; 23:26; Jam 1:1; 2 Jn 10, 11. Paul uses it 29 times, all as "rejoice" except perhaps here. It is not used elsewhere in the NT to mean "farewell" (but it has this meaning), nor in a conclusion to a book as here. Here then, some think "farewell" best suits this context; others, "rejoice". Used 74 times. GK 5897. Related to "joy" in Lk 24:52.
2. Or, "made complete, put in order". Related to the word in v 9. Same word as in Gal 6:1, on which see "prepared" in Rom 9:22.
3. Or, "be encouraged, comforted". On this word, see Rom 12:8.
4. On this phrase, see Rom 12:16.
5. Verses 12-13 are numbered here as they are in the Greek versions. In English versions, this sentence is verse 13.
6. In English versions, this sentence is verse 14.
7. That is, the grace proceeding from or bestowed by Christ, the love originating from or produced by God.
8. Some think Paul means the fellowship among believers produced by the Holy Spirit; others, the fellowship of believers with the Holy Spirit.
9. Some manuscripts add "Amen" {N}.

Introduction	1:1-5
1A. I am marveling that you are so quickly turning away to a different gospel	1:6-7
1B. But even if we should, or anyone is announcing a contrary gospel, let him be accursed	1:8-10
2B. For I make known to you that I did not receive my gospel from humans, but by revelation	1:11-12
1C. For you heard of my former conduct in Judaism as a persecutor of the church	1:13-14
2C. But when God revealed His Son in me, I did not consult with humans	1:15-2:10
3C. And I rebuked Cephas for violating the principles of the gospel with the Gentiles	2:11-21
2A. O foolish Galatians, who bewitched you?	3:1
1B. Did you receive the Spirit by works or faith? Will you now perfect yourselves with the flesh?	3:2-5
2B. Know then that the ones of faith are the sons of Abraham	3:6-7
1C. The Scripture said all the Gentiles will be blessed in Abraham	3:8
2C. So then, the ones of faith are blessed with Abraham. Those of the Law are under a curse, and are not declared righteous. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law	3:9-14
3C. Brothers, the promises to Abraham were not nullified by the Law which came later	3:15-18
4C. Why then the law? It was added because of the transgressions, until Christ came	3:19-20
5C. Is the Law against the promises? No. It was our tutor leading to Christ. We are now not under a tutor, for we are sons of God, seed of Abraham, and heirs of the promise	3:21-29
3B. Now I say, when we were minors we were slaves to the elemental things. But when God sent His Son, He adopted you as sons and heirs. Why are you turning back to slavery?	4:1-11
4B. I beg you, become as I. Have I become your enemy for speaking the truth to you?	4:12-20
5B. Tell me, do you not hear the Law? They are of the slave woman, we are of the free woman	4:21-31
3A. Christ set us free for freedom. Therefore stand firm, and do not again be held in a yoke of slavery	5:1
1B. Behold—I say to you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing	5:2
2B. And I testify again that if you receive circumcision, you are a debtor to the whole law	5:3
3B. You who are trying to be justified by law were separated from Christ and grace	5:4-6
4B. You were running well, who hindered you? He will bear his judgment	5:7-10
5B. But I, brothers, if I am still proclaiming circumcision, why am I being persecuted?	5:11
6B. O—that the ones upsetting you would cut themselves off!	5:12
4A. For you were called for freedom, only do not use the freedom for an opportunity for the flesh	5:13
1B. But be serving one another through love. The whole Law is fulfilled in this	5:13-15
2B. And I say—be walking by the Spirit and you will never fulfill the desire of the flesh	5:16-25
3B. Let us not become conceited, challenging one another. Restore those who have fallen	5:26-6:5
4B. And let the one being instructed share all good things with the ones instructing	6:6
5B. We reap what we sow. Let us not grow weary while doing good. We will reap	6:7-10
Conclusion	6:11-18

- A. Paul—an apostle not from humans^A nor through a human, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, the One having raised^B Him from the dead—^{*}and all the brothers with me 1
- B. To the churches of Galatia¹
- C. Grace to you and peace from God our² Father and the Lord Jesus Christ—^{*}the One having given^C Himself for our sins so that He might rescue³ us out of the present⁴ evil age, according-to⁵ the will of our God and Father,^{*}to Whom be the glory forever and ever^D, amen 3-4
- 1A. I am marveling^E that you are so quickly⁶ turning-away⁷ from the One having called^F you by the grace^G of Christ⁸, to a different⁹ good-news^H—^{*}which is not another¹⁰ [good news], except¹¹ there are some disturbing¹² you, and intending¹³ to change¹⁴ the good-news of Christ 6
- 1B. But even if we or an angel from heaven should announce-a-good-news^I to you¹⁵ other-than¹⁶ what we announced-as-good-news^J to you, let him be accursed¹⁷. ^{*}As we have said-before¹⁸, I am also now saying again— if anyone is¹⁹ announcing-a-good-news-to^J you other-than what you received, let him be accursed 8
- 1C. For am I now²⁰ trying to win-approval-of²¹ humans^A, or God? 10
2C. Or am I seeking^K to please^L humans? If²² I were still²³ seeking to please humans, I would not be a slave^M of Christ
- 2B. For²⁴ I make-known^N to you, brothers^O, as to the good-news^H having been announced-as-good-news²⁵ by me, that it is not according to a human²⁶. ^{*}For I neither received²⁷ it from a human^A, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation²⁸ of Jesus Christ 11 12
- 1C. For you heard-of my former conduct²⁹ in Judaism 13
1D. That I was persecuting^P the church of God extremely^Q, and destroying³⁰ it 14
2D. And I was advancing^R in Judaism beyond many contemporaries³¹ in my nation^S, being far more a zealot^T for the traditions^U of my fathers³²
- 2C. But when God³³— the One having separated³⁴ me from my mother's womb³⁵, and having called^F me through His grace^G— was well-pleased^V ^{*}to reveal^W His Son in³⁶ me in order that I might be announcing Him as good news among the Gentiles 15 16
- 1D. I did not immediately^X communicate³⁷ with flesh and blood,^{*}nor did I go up to Jerusalem to the apostles before me, but I went away to Arabia³⁸, and returned^Y back^Z to Damascus³⁹ 17
2D. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit⁴⁰ Cephas⁴¹ 18
1E. And I stayed^{AA} with him fifteen days 19
2E. But I did not see another of the apostles^{BB} except James⁴², the brother of the Lord 20
3E. Now the things which I am writing to you, behold— I affirm in the sight of God that⁴³ I am not lying^{CC}
- 3D. Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia⁴⁴ 21
1E. And I was not-known⁴⁵ by face to the churches of Judea in Christ 22
2E. But they were only hearing that “the one once persecuting^P us is now announcing-as-good-news^I the faith^{DD} which he was once destroying^{EE}” 23
3E. And they were glorifying^{FF} God in⁴⁶ me 24

1. On the churches referred to, and when this book was written, see Act 14:28.
2. Some manuscripts say "God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ" {B}.
3. Or, "deliver, take out, set free". Same word as in Act 7:10, 34; 12:11; 23:27; 26:17. Elsewhere only as "tear out" in Mt 5:29; 18:9. GK 1975.
4. This is a participle, "having come, being present". On this word, see Heb 9:9.
5. Or, "in accordance with, based on, in keeping with". GK 2848.
6. Or, "soon, hastily". Some think Paul means quickly with reference to his last visit; others, to their conversion; others, to the appearance of these false teachers. Same word as in Lk 14:21; 16:6; Jn 11:31; 13:27; 2 Thes 2:2; 2 Tim 4:9; Heb 13:23. Elsewhere only as "soon" in Act 17:15; 1 Cor 4:19; Phil 2:19, 24; Heb 13:19; "hastily" in 1 Tim 5:22; and "faster" in Jn 20:4. GK 5441. Related word in Rev 1:1.
7. Or, "deserting, changing position, transferring yourself, taking yourselves away". On this word, see "removed" in Heb 11:5.
8. Some manuscripts omit "of Christ" {C}.
9. This word means "another of a different kind". Compare 2 Cor 11:4. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:9.
10. This word means "another of the same kind". It is not good news at all, but bondage, slavery to works of the Law. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:9.
11. Some think Paul means "I am marveling... except", providing Paul's explanation of why this is happening "so quickly"; others, "not another [good news], except" some are proclaiming it as such.
12. Or, "stirring up, troubling, throwing into confusion, agitating". Same word as in 5:10; Mt 2:3; Act 15:24; 1 Pet 3:14. Elsewhere only as "troubled" in Lk 24:38; Jn 11:33; 12:27; 13:21; 14:1, 27; "frightened" in Mt 14:26; Mk 6:50; Lk 1:12; and "stir up" in Jn 5:7; Act 17:8, 13. GK 5429. 16. Or, "against, contrary to, rather than". GK 4123.
17. This is the word anathema. On this word, see Rom 9:3.
18. Some think Paul is referring to the previous verse; others, to when he was present with these Galatians. On this word, see "spoken beforehand" in Jude 17.
19. Note the grammar. Verse 8 refers to what might happen in the future, "In the unlikely event that I or an angel should be saying it". Verse 9 refers to what is happening now, "Assuming that someone is in fact saying it".
20. That is, in saying v 8-9. Apparently Paul's opponents accused him of being a people-pleaser (a Gentile-pleaser), that is, of reshaping the gospel to appeal to Gentiles by dropping any requirement for circumcision.
21. Or, "persuade, convince"; or, "win over", as in Act 12:20. Paul states it as a challenge to them. On this word, see "persuade" in 1 Jn 3:19.
22. Some manuscripts say "For if..." {N}.
23. That is, as Paul did as a Pharisee; and as these false-teachers are now doing by trying to retain circumcision, 6:12-13.
24. Paul uses this word to assert his next point. GK 1142. Some manuscripts say "But" {C}.
25. Paul uses both the verb and the noun of the same word, as also in 1 Cor 15:1; 2 Cor 11:7; Rev 14:6. This same verb is in v 8, 9, 16, 23; 4:13, on which see Act 5:42.
26. Or, "according to mankind". Its content is neither based on nor in keeping with the teaching or authority of any human source.
27. Same word as 1 Cor 11:23; 15:3. Paul received the good news from Jesus. The Galatians received (same word) it from Paul (v 9). Paul next explains how this happened. Same word as in 1 Cor 15:1; Phil 4:9; Col 2:6; 1 Thes 2:13; 4:1; 2 Thes 3:6. On this word, see "taken" in Lk 17:34.
28. Same word as in 2:2; 1 Cor 14:26; Rom 16:25. On this word, see 2 Thes 1:7. That is, "from Jesus Christ".
29. Or, "way of life". On this word, see 1 Pet 1:15.
30. Or, "ravaging, pillaging". Elsewhere only in v 23, and in Act 9:21 by believers about Paul! GK 4514.
31. Or, "people of my own age". Used only here. GK 5312.
32. Or, "forefathers, ancestors". Or, "for my ancestral traditions". That is, the traditions handed down from my forefathers. Used only here. GK 4257.

40. This word means "to visit in order to get to know someone, to make the acquaintance of". Used only here. GK 2707. See Act 9:26-29 on this.
41. Some manuscripts say "Peter" {N}. Peter was the name more familiar to the Galatians, as to us. Peter is Greek. Cephas is Aramaic. Except for Gal 2:7, 8, Paul always calls him Cephas. Except for Jn 1:42, the Gospels and Acts always call him Simon or Peter. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 1:12; 3:22; 9:5; 15:5; Gal 2:9, 11, 14. GK 3064. See Lk 6:14 on Peter.

43. This oath is similar to the oaths in Rom 14:11; 2 Cor 1:18; 11:10. All four have this word (GK 4022) pointing to the content of the oath, though it is left untranslated in the other places.
44. This takes place in Act 9:30. Tarsus, Paul's hometown, is in the Roman province of Cilicia.

1. Some think Paul is referring to his third visit in Act 15:1-3, the trip regarding the controversy over the gospel. Acts 15 gives the public view of it, Gal 2 the private view. Others think he means his second visit, the humanitarian trip of Act 11:29-30; 12:25. "Again" could apply to either. Paul is listing the encounters relevant to his gospel.
2. Or, "according to, in accordance with, because of". GK 2848.
3. Same word as in 1:12.
4. On this idiom, see Mt 14:13. Those who think Paul is describing the visit in Act 15 think this occurred in Act 15:4, before the public meeting in Act 15:6.
5. Or, "seeming [to people in general] to be", and thus, "being recognized as", "being acknowledged as". That is, the recognized leaders of the church of Jerusalem. On this word, compare Mk 10:42 and "seems" in Lk 22:24. Some think Paul is referring to those in Act 15:6. He is politely referring to them as the leaders of the Jerusalem church, and is not being derogatory or sarcastic, or questioning their importance. Yet he does avoid calling them anything like "the apostles before me" (1:17), or giving the impression he submitted to them in any way. Paul is addressing them as equals. Same word as in v 6, 9. GK 1506. "Something" is taken from v 6. Paul calls them "pillars" in v 9, though a broader group may be intended in v 2, 6.
6. That is, running in my work, my proclamation of the gospel to the Gentiles. On this word, see 2 Thes 3:1.
7. Or, "for nothing, to no end or result or effect". Some render this phrase "— whether somehow I am running or have run in vain", expressing the topic to be discussed, the grammar implying that Paul expected a "no" answer. Others think Paul is expressing his personal fear or apprehension that his work might come to no effect because of the opposition of some in Jerusalem. His fear was not regarding his work or gospel, but regarding what might happen to his work if he allowed a rift to develop with those in Jerusalem over the issue of circumcision. In either case, Paul laid it before the leaders to help them see that what he was doing was from God. On this word, see "empty" in 1 Thes 2:1. Compare 1 Thes 3:5, which has similar grammar, and the same phrase "in vain".
8. As proof that the Jerusalem leaders supported Paul, the situation regarding Titus is given.
9. That is, nothing was required even in his particular case, much less in regard to my ministry in general.
10. Same word as used of the Judaizers "compelling" Gentiles to live like Jews, 2:14. On this word, see 6:12.
11. Or, "And, But".
12. Or, "it was". That is, this attempt to have Titus circumcised. Others supply "he was not compelled"; others, "he was not circumcised"; others "we went up". There are other views of the connection between v 4-5 and v 2-3. The problem is that we do not know the historical details to which Paul is alluding. Each view of the connection is based on a suggested scenario as to exactly what happened. Consult the commentaries.
13. Some think Paul is referring to what happened in Antioch in Act 15:1, and that Titus was taken to Jerusalem as a "test case". Others think he means the issue with Titus in particular arose in Jerusalem. This adjective is used only here. GK 4207. Related to "secretly bring in" in 2 Pet 2:1.
14. Or, "slipped in", with unworthy motives. On this word, see "came in beside" in Rom 5:20.
15. Used only here. GK 2945. Related to "spies" in Heb 11:31.
16. On this word, see 2 Cor 11:20. It has the prefix "under", "enslave us under them, reduce us to slavery".
17. Or, "gave way, drew back". Used only here. GK 1634.
18. Or, "remain continually". On this word, see Lk 22:28.
19. Notice that Paul does not finish this sentence. He leaves us expecting "I received nothing", but changes to "they communicated nothing to me".
20. Or, "formerly, once". Some think Paul is referring to these leaders' past standing before Jesus when He was on earth; others, to their standing as leaders in the church in Jerusalem when this took place. Used 29 times. GK 4537.
21. Paul took no note of the earthly status, rank, or position of these leaders. And neither does God. On this word, see "mattering" in Phil 1:10.
22. That is, God is impartial. On "receive the face", see Lk 20:21.
23. Or, "well, for". Some think Paul means it "makes no difference to me... for to me the ones... communicated nothing". The human position of these leaders was of no consequence in this matter to me or to God, for they added nothing to me. Others think this resumes what Paul began to say earlier, "from the ones having the reputation of being something... well, to me the ones...". GK 1142.
24. In the Greek word order, "to me" is the first word in this clause, receiving Paul's emphasis.
25. Or, "contributed, added". Same word as in 1:16.
26. That is, the proclamation of the good news to the Gentiles. On this word, see Rom 2:26.
27. On this word, used twice in this verse, and in 3:5, see 1 Cor 12:11. The miraculous powers of Peter and Paul objectively proved that God was empowering them both.
28. That is, the brother of the Lord (see 1:19). The apostle James was dead by this time (Act 12:2).
29. Some manuscripts say "Peter" {N}. On this name, see 1:18.
30. Or, "partnership". On this word, see 1 Cor 1:9. The "right hand of fellowship", a reference to the acceptance of Paul and Barnabas as full partners, is found only here.
31. That is, "keeping in mind". On this word, see Jn 16:21.
32. Or, "which indeed, I was eager to do this very thing". Some smooth this phrase by leaving out this word (considering it to be redundant), "which very thing I also was eager to do". Note 1 Cor 16:1.
33. Some manuscripts say "Peter" {N}.
34. On this city, see Act 11:19.
35. Or, "resisted, stood against". I stood against him face to face. On this word, see "resist" in Eph 6:13.
36. Or, "he had been condemned", literally, "he was having been condemned". Paul may mean that some believers in Antioch had condemned Peter's behavior; or, that Peter was self-condemned by his behavior. The grammar means Peter was in a state of condemnation, he was standing condemned. Elsewhere only in 1 Jn 3:20, 21. GK 2861.
37. Peter was fearing that the Jewish believers would accuse him of violating the Law of Moses by eating with the Gentiles. The issue here was not Gentiles keeping the Law (as in Acts 15), but Jewish Christians (like Peter) keeping the Law.

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. Used only here. GK 5347. Same root word as "hypocrisy" next.
3. That is, led astray. On this word, see "carried along with" in Rom 12:16.
4. Or, "insincerity". Elsewhere only in Mt 23:28; Mk 12:15; Lk 12:1; 1 Tim 4:2; 1 Pet 2:1. GK 5694. Related to "pretend" in Lk 20:20; "hypocrite" in Mt 6:2; and "sincere" in Rom 12:9.
5. More literally, "are", as the Greek typically phrases it.
6. Or, "being straightforward, walking a straight path". Used only here. GK 3980.
7. On this word, see 1:18. Some manuscripts say "Peter" {N}.
8. These two words, "Gentile-ly, in a Gentile manner" (GK 1619), and "Jewish-ly, in a Jewish manner" (GK 2680), are used only here. Paul simply turned the nouns "Gentile, Jew" into adverbs. If you as a Jew have moved from strict adherence to the Jewish laws to a partial freedom from the Law, why should Gentiles do the reverse? When Peter withdrew from eating with the Gentiles, his behavior said "you Gentiles must become like these Jews".
9. Some manuscripts say "why" {N}.
10. Or, "to live like Jews". Paul turned the word "Jew" into a verb. Used only here. GK 2678. The Judaizers taught that the Gentile Christians had to live like Jews— following their traditions and laws, especially circumcision (Act 15:1)— to be saved.
11. Some think Paul's quotation of what he said to Peter continues to v 21. Others think v 15-21 is Paul's present explanation of that event to the Galatians. In either case, v 15-21 may summarize the discussion that followed the challenge in v 14.
12. Or, "nations". On this word, see Act 15:23.
13. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
14. That is, "if he does not come through faith". The idiom "if not, unless, except" is used by Paul in Rom 10:15; 11:23; 1 Cor 8:8; 9:16; 14:6, 7, 9; 15:36; 2 Thes 2:3; 2 Tim 2:5. This is stated from the Jewish point of view, as an addition to their lifetime of obedience to God. We Jews who have faithfully obeyed God's Law all our lives know that we cannot be declared righteous if we do not come to Jesus by faith. Note that this implies that once they are declared righteous by faith, the Law-keeping is no longer relevant for salvation. They stand before God just like Gentiles. Paul takes up this inference in v 17.
15. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {N}.
16. This is an idiom, literally, "all flesh will not...", on which see Mt 24:22.
17. The grammar means "assuming it is true that".
18. That is, "in union with Christ", explained by v 16 as "by faith in Christ and not by works of the Law".
19. That is, ones equivalent in status to "sinners from the Gentiles", v 15; ones no longer living under the Law but outside the Law, and thus to some degree in violation of the Law. Some put the emphasis on the changed status at the time of salvation; others, on the conduct in violation of the Law thereafter, like Peter eating with these Gentiles. In the explanation below, both aspects are included.
20. There are several views on the exact meaning of this verse. Consult the commentaries. One way of stating Paul's full meaning may be expressed in three points. 1. If as is the case, we "Jews by nature" (v 15), while seeking to be justified "by faith in Christ and not by works of the Law" (v 16), turned to Him in faith, 2. And if as is the case, we were therefore then and thereafter rightly found or considered by the Law of Moses to be in the same class as "sinners from the Gentiles" (v 15), and violators of the Law of Moses whenever we lived "Gentile-ly and not Jewish-ly" (v 14), 3. Then are we to say that Christ is a servant of sin for turning us from our status and lifestyle as Jews living under the Law, to the status and partial-lifestyle of Gentiles living without the Law? If the Law is still in force as our rule of life, as the Jewish Christians in Antioch were saying by their behavior, then Jesus must have been wrong to turn us away from it in general, and a promoter in particular of Peter's sin of eating with these Gentiles. To illustrate this, if Peter ate roast pig (one food forbidden by the Law) with the Gentiles, then he did in fact violate the Law of Moses. If he did so under the leading of Christ, then Christ did in fact promote the violation of the Law of Moses. Does this mean Christ is a promoter of sin? No way! Because this violation of the Law of Moses is no longer a sin, because the Law is no longer in force as a rule of life for Christians. The fact is, the one who tries to "rebuild" the Law and put it in force is the real transgressor, v 18. For "I died to the Law", ending its reign over me forever, v 19. I now live by faith, v 20.
21. Or, "destroyed, abolished, nullified". On this word, see Mt 24:2.
22. Or, "showing, exhibiting". On this word, see Rom 5:8. Christ is not a minister of sin, for if as a Christian I am rebuilding these laws as a rule of life which as a Jew I tore down to be saved by faith, then I am the transgressor, not Him. It is the rebuilding and trying to obey them in addition to faith (as Peter did when he retreated), not the tearing them down in Christ and the violating them as a consequence of faith (as Peter did when he ate with them), that now makes one a transgressor of God's Law.
23. I am now the real transgressor of the Law because it is through the working of the Law itself that I died to the Law to become alive to God. By trying to rebuild the Law after dying to it, I show myself to be a transgressor of its very intent and work. And I am setting aside the grace of God, v 21.
24. By "through the Law", some think Paul means the Law's work in punishing sin with death. Through the Law's requirements which I failed to keep, I became subject to the penalty of death. Having died with Christ, that penalty is paid. Thus I died to the Law and its demands, and to rebuild it is to transgress the verdict of the Law itself. Others think he means the Law's work in leading us, and Paul in particular, to Christ. Through the Law, I came to learn that I could not keep the Law or be righteous. Thus the Law itself taught me to abandon it and to seek Christ for salvation. Having done so, I died with Him, and thus died to the Law. To rebuild it is to transgress what the Law itself taught me.
25. This phrase explains how "I died to the Law".
26. This phrase explains how it is Paul is now dead, yet "living to God". His pre-Christian self living under the Law is dead. Now Christ is living in him, creating life in him in a new realm. Note that Paul does not say "I am living in Christ" here, but "Christ is living in me", giving Paul a new kind of life. Paul is dead, crucified.
27. That is, as a Christian, justified by faith, with Christ living in me.
28. That is, in my continued human existence on earth.
29. Or, "in faith", in the sphere of faith, not law. I do not continue to live by the works of the Law as a way of life, in the sphere of the Law. I am crucified with Christ, dead to the Law, and living in the sphere of faith and the Spirit.
30. Instead of "Son of God", some manuscripts say "God and Christ" {A}.

1. Or, "nullifying, rejecting, declaring invalid". Same word as in Mk 7:9; 1 Cor 1:19; Gal 3:15; 1 Tim 5:12; Heb 10:28. Elsewhere only as "reject" in Mk 6:26; Lk 7:30; 10:16; Jn 12:48; 1 Thes 4:8; Jude 8. GK 119. Related word in Heb 7:18.
2. Some think Paul means "the grace of God in giving the Law to Israel", as Paul's opponents charged him, because he set aside the Law or "nullified" it (Rom 3:31) by preaching grace. In setting aside Law-keeping, I am not setting aside God's grace as you claim I do. Others think Paul means "the grace of God saving us", as Paul is charging his opponents, because they are setting aside the grace of God by trying to rebuild the Law as a rule of life. I am not setting aside grace to rebuild Law-keeping, as you are doing. In either case, if Law-keeping was the path to righteousness, Christ did not need to die.
3. Same word as in Jn 15:25. The word means "as a gift, freely, without payment", and then "without a reason". The root word is "gift". Elsewhere only as "freely" in Mt 10:8; 2 Cor 11:7; and "as a gift" in Rom 3:24; 2 Thes 3:8; Rev 21:6; 22:17. GK 1562.
4. Or, "senseless". Same word as in v 3. On this word, see Tit 3:3.

6. Some manuscripts add "to not obey the truth" {N}.
7. More literally "to whom, before the eyes".
8. Or, "placarded, posted in a public proclamation, publicly set forth or proclaimed". Used of a man "posting a proclamation" that he was no longer responsible for the debts of his son. Same word as in Jude 4. Elsewhere only as "write before" in Rom 15:4; Eph 3:3. GK 4592. Some manuscripts add "among you" {N}.
9. This is a participle, "having been crucified".
10. Or, "report". Some think Paul means "the act of obedient hearing proceeding from or characterized by faith", that is, believing the gospel. Was it by your works, or by your believing?; others, "the report concerning faith in Christ". Was it by your works, or by the preaching of the gospel to you? Same word as in v 5; Rom 10:17. On this word, see Heb 4:2.
11. Or, "begun-in, begun-by". That is, "in the sphere of the Spirit"; or, "by means of the Spirit". Likewise with "flesh" next. Elsewhere only as "begun in" in Phil 1:6. GK 1887.
12. Or, "completing, finishing yourselves". Or, "being perfected, being finished". On this word, see 2 Cor 7:1.
13. Some think Paul is referring to persecution. Others render this "Did you experience" so many benefits of the Spirit. The word is sometimes used this way outside the NT. Same word as in Mt 17:12; 27:19; Act 17:3; Phil 1:29; 1 Thes 2:14; 2 Thes 1:5; 1 Pet 2:20, 21; 4:19; Rev 2:10; etc. Used 42 times in the NT, always rendered "suffer". GK 4248.

19. That is, the ones originating in and living by faith, not works. Same phrase as in Rom 3:26.
20. Used 377 times, this word was used of male physical or adopted offspring; more broadly of physical or adopted "descendants, children", including males and females, as in "sons of Israel" in Rom 9:27; 2 Cor 3:7, and "sons of humans" in Mk 3:28; Eph 3:5; figuratively of spiritual descendants or children, as here (note that Paul changes to "seed" in 3:29), and "sons of God" in v 25; and more figuratively, of people characterized by or related to a quality, people whose identity is defined in some way by a relationship to a quality, as in "sons of disobedience" in Eph 2:2, and "sons of light" in 1 Thes 5:5. Reflecting modern sentiments, when both men and women are in view, some prefer to make this explicit by rendering this word "descendants" or "children". The explicit "sons and daughters" is found in 2 Cor 6:18; Act 2:17. GK 5626. Compare "daughter" in Lk 13:16.

- 3D. So then the Law has been³² our tutor³³ leading-to³⁴ Christ, in order that we might be declared-righteous^G by faith
- 4D. But the faith³⁵ having come, we are no longer under a tutor, *for you all are sons^H of God³⁶ through faith in Christ³⁷ Jesus
- 1E. For all you who were baptized³⁸ into Christ put-on³⁹ Christ. *There is no Jew nor Greek⁴⁰, there is no slave^I nor free^K, there is no male^L and female^M. For you all are one in Christ Jesus
- 2E. And if⁴¹ you are Christ's, then you are seed of Abraham — heirs⁴² according-to⁴³ the promise
- 3B. Now I say⁴⁴ — for as much time as the⁴⁵ heir^N is a child⁴⁶, he is no different^O from a slave. Being the [future] owner⁴⁷ of all, *nevertheless⁴⁸ he is under guardians^P and stewards⁴⁹ until the pre-appointed⁵⁰ day of the father

1. That is, the One who spoke the promises. Or, "it", the Scriptures.
2. That is, descendant. Paul was well aware that "seed" has a plural, collective sense, as he himself uses it in 3:29, "You (plural) are seed (singular, as here)". Here, Paul's point is that it also has a singular sense, which he applies to Christ. The promises were made to the near-term receiver (Abraham), and to the far-term fulfiller of them (Christ, v 19), for all his descendants. Same word as in v 19, on which see Heb 11:11.
3. The reference to 430 years comes from Ex 12:40, 41. Some think Paul means "after 430 years in Egypt", a period which began in Gen 46, the promises having been repeated to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. There are other views.
4. On this word, see "nullified" in Mt 15:6. Related to "having been previously ratified" later in the verse; and to "ratify" in v 15.
5. Used only here. GK 4623.
6. Some manuscripts add "in Christ" {A}.
7. Or, "nullify, make invalid, render inoperative". On this word, see Rom 6:6.
8. If the source of the inheritance has become the Law, then the promise no longer has any significance.
9. Or, "given as a gift". Related to "grace". On this word, see 1 Cor 2:12.
10. Or, "by means of". GK 1328.
11. It was not added to the covenant of promise, v 15. It was a distinct covenant added beside it, Rom 5:20. On this word, see "increase" in Lk 17:5.
12. Where there is no law, no requirement, there is no sin (Rom 4:15) or accountability (Rom 5:13). The Law made sin a violation, a transgression of God's requirements. The Law gave knowledge of sin (Rom 3:20). The Law taught the need for a Savior, Gal 3:23. On this word, see Rom 5:14.
13. That is, Christ, v 16. Thus the Law was in force from Moses "until" Christ came.
14. More literally, "to Whom it has been promised", that is, to Whom the promise was spoken, v 16.
15. Or, "ordained, set in order, arranged". On the Law and angels, compare Act 7:38, 53; Heb 2:2. On this word, see "directing" in 1 Cor 7:17. Related to "directions" in Act 7:53.
16. That is, Moses, who mediated the covenant of Law between God and the people of Israel. For the covenant of promise, God spoke directly with Abraham. On this word, see Heb 8:6.
17. That is, any mediator, a generic mediator. Literally, "the mediator", the one in general.
18. A mediator stands between two sides—for the Law, between God and Israel. The covenant of promise is superior to that of Law because God is the only party, Heb 6:13-18. There is no mediator, only God acting alone, promising something directly to Abraham. There are many interpretations of this verse. Consult the commentaries. Paul does not fully spell out his meaning here, but leaves a lot to be understood.
19. Some manuscripts omit "of God" {C}.
20. And in this case, the Law would have nullified the promise (v 18), and made Christ's death unnecessary (2:21). On this word, see Jn 8:36.
21. Or, "On the contrary, Rather", in contradiction to that theory. GK 247.
22. That is, God speaking in the Law, and in the promises made prior to the Law to Abraham.
23. Or, "enclosed, hemmed in, shut in on all sides". Same word as in v 23; Rom 11:32. Elsewhere only as "enclosed" in Lk 5:6. GK 5168.
24. As stated in Rom 3:9, and proved in Rom 3:10-20. "Under sin" is the same phrase as in Rom 3:9.
25. Or, "by the faithfulness of Jesus Christ". That is, the promise coming to us by means of faith in Jesus; or, by means of the faithfulness of Jesus to what God sent Him to do.
26. That is, the faith just mentioned, the faith in Jesus Christ, v 22. On this word, see Eph 2:8. Related to "believing" next.
27. Or, "guarded". Elsewhere only as "guard" in 2 Cor 11:32; Phil 4:7; 1 Pet 1:5. GK 5864.
28. Some manuscripts say "having been confined" {N}.
29. Or, "for, to". GK 1650.
30. That is, the one just mentioned, the faith in Jesus Christ.
31. This is a participle, "being destined, being about to be". Same word and grammar as in Rom 8:18. On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32.
32. Or, "become, come to be". GK 1181.
33. Or, "guardian, guide". This person was a slave who took the child to and from school, and supervised and guided his conduct. This implies that the Law is inferior and temporary, belonging to the period of childhood. The key thing the Law teaches is the knowledge of sin, and therefore the need for a Savior. Elsewhere only in v 25; 1 Cor 4:15. GK 4080.
34. Or, "until", as in v 23. On this word, see "resulting in" in Rom 5:16. GK 1650.
35. That is, the one mentioned, faith in Jesus Christ, v 22, 23.
36. That is, children of God. On "sons of God", see Rom 8:14.
37. Some think Paul means "through faith in Christ", the Greek word order; others, "sons of God in Christ Jesus through faith".
38. This construction is similar to Rom 6:3, except the verbs here call for "you" instead of "we". On this word, see Mk 1:8.
39. Or, "are wearing, dressed in". That is, put on like a garment. On this word see Rom 13:14.
40. That is, a non-Jew, a Gentile. It is paired with "Jew" like this 16 times. Used 25 times. GK 1818. In Christ there is no religious division of the world based on Judaism; no economic division based on slavery; no division based on gender.
41. The grammar means "Assuming you are".
42. Some manuscripts say "and heirs" {K}.
43. Or, "based on, in relation to". GK 2848.
44. Having mentioned being "sons of God" and "heirs", Paul now takes this up and applies it to the Galatians. Note that his starting point is an illustration spoken in accordance with human thinking, as in 3:15.
45. That is, the one in general, any heir.
46. That is, a minor. Same word as in v 3, on which see "infant" in 1 Cor 3:1.
47. Or, "master, lord". On this word, see "master" in Mt 8:2.
48. Or, "... from a slave, [though] being the [future] owner of all. But he is under...".
49. Or, "household managers". On this word, see 1 Pet 4:10.
50. Or, "fixed beforehand, pre-set, fixed in advance". Used only here. GK 4607.

- 1C. In this manner¹ also we², when we were children, were enslaved³ under the elemental⁴ things of the world 3
- 2C. But when the fullness^A of time came, God sent-forth⁵ His Son— 4

- 2D. Having come under *the Law*⁷ in order that He might redeem^B the ones under the Law 5

- 3C. So then you are no longer a slave,¹¹ but a son— and if a son, also an heir^F through God¹² 7

- 1D. How is it you are turning-back¹⁶ again to the weak^I and poor¹⁷ elemental things to which again you are wanting^K to be-slaves^L anew^M? 9
- 1E. You are observing^N days and months and seasons and years 10
- 2E. I am fearing for you, that¹⁸ I somehow have labored in-vain^O for you 11
- 4B. I beg^P you, brothers, become as I, because I also became as you¹⁹ 12
- 1C. You did me no wrong^Q. ^{*}And you know²⁰ that I first²¹ announced-the-good-news^R to you because of *a weakness*²² of the flesh 13
- 1D. And you did not treat-with-contempt²³ nor loathe²⁴ your trial²⁵ in-connection-with my flesh, but you welcomed^S me as *an angel*²⁶ of God, as Christ Jesus
- 2D. Where²⁷ then is your blessedness²⁸? For I testify^T concerning you that, if possible, you would have given your eyes²⁹ to me, having torn them out 14
- 2C. So then, have I become your enemy while speaking-the-truth^U to you? 16
- 3C. They are zealously-seeking^V you— not commendably³⁰, but they want to shut you out³¹ in-order-that³² you might be zealously-seeking them 17

- 1D. But I was [just now] wishing³⁹ to be present⁴⁰ with you now⁴¹, and to change^X my tone⁴², because I am perplexed⁴³ with you 20
- 5B. Tell me, the ones wanting to be under the Law, do you not hear the Law? 21
- 1C. For it has been written that Abraham had two sons— one by the slave-woman^Y and one by the free^Z woman. ^{*}But the one by the slave-woman has been born according to the flesh, and the one by the free woman through⁴⁴ the promise 22

1. That is, as future heirs under guardianship while children.
2. Some think Paul means "we Jewish Christians" in v 3-5; others, "all Christians, we and you" in v 3-7. In any case, the Jew-Gentile distinction is clearly not his main point in this section. Note the change in v 6 from "you" to "our".
3. Or, "we had been enslaved". This is a participle, we "were having been enslaved". On this word, see Rom 6:18.
4. This word refers to the basic components or fundamental principles of a thing, the ABCs of a thing. Some think Paul means the rudimentary knowledge of God available in the world before Christ, the elementary forms of religion, Jewish and Gentile; others, the physical and ritual aspects of such religions in particular; others, the elemental spiritual beings associated with pagan religions. Same word as in v 9; Col 2:8, 20; and as "elements" in Heb 5:12. Elsewhere only as physical "elements" in 2 Pet 3:10, 12. GK 5122. Related to "walk in line" in v 25.
5. Same word as in v 6, and as "sent out" in Act 12:11; 13:26; 22:11. Used 13 times. GK 1990. Related to "send out" in Mk 3:14.
6. Or, "come to be, come into being". Jesus "came into being" as a human, and in this sense was "born", from a woman and under the Law. The Son "came (same word) in the likeness of humans", Phil 2:7. John expresses this by saying "The Word became (same word) flesh". On this word, see 2 Pet 1:20.
7. Elsewhere only of Israel (Rom 9:4), and believers (Rom 8:15, 23; Eph 1:5). GK 5625.
8. Some render this "that", meaning, "and as proof that". GK 4022.
9. That is, children. On this word, see 3:7.
10. Some manuscripts say "your" {A}.
11. Referring to v 3.
12. Compare Rom 8:17. Some manuscripts say "of God through Christ" {A}.
13. That is, when you were a slave, not a son, v 7. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between then and now.
14. Or, "served as slaves". Same word as in v 9.
15. By nature, they were idols of stone and wood, or demons (1 Cor 10:20). On this word, see Eph 2:3.
16. The turning to Judaism and Law-keeping by the Galatians is called a turning back again to the elemental things to which they were enslaved as Gentiles. The rudimentary nature of these things is the same, though the form is different. On this word, see Jam 5:19.
17. This word means "poor, destitute, impoverished, a beggar". It is used of one dependent on begging for survival. These elemental things have nothing to offer. Elsewhere only in Mt 5:3; 11:5; 19:21; 26:9, 11; Mk 10:21; 12:42, 43; 14:5, 7; Lk 4:18; 6:20; 7:22; 14:13, 21; 16:20, 22; 18:22; 19:8; 21:3; Jn 12:5, 6, 8; 13:29; Rom 15:26; 2 Cor 6:10; Gal 2:10; Jam 2:2, 3, 5, 6; Rev 3:17; 13:16. GK 4777. Related to "poverty" and "became poor" in 2 Cor 8:9. Compare the unrelated word "needy" in 2 Cor 9:9.
18. On this idiom, see Act 5:26.
19. That is, become believers living by faith, not Jewish-ly, because as as such, I became like you, living Gentile-ly.
20. Paul reminds the Galatians that they had reason to treat him poorly when he first came, but they did not do so.
21. Or, "formerly, before". On this word, see 2 Cor 1:15.
22. Or, "sickness". On this word, see Mt 8:17.
23. Or, "reject with contempt". On this word, see 1 Thes 5:20.
24. Used only here, ekptuo even sounds like what it means—"to spit out, to spurn". GK 1746.
25. Or, "temptation". Paul's condition was a trial for the Galatians, or a temptation to reject him. Some manuscripts say "my trial" or "the trial" {A}. On this word, see Jam 1:2.
26. Or, "a messenger". On this word, see "messenger" in 1 Tim 3:16.
27. Some manuscripts say "What" {N}, so that it says "What then [happened to] your blessedness?". Used 48 times. GK 4544.
28. That is, your feeling of a sense of blessing in my work among you. You had it then, and expressed it in your response to me. Where is it now? Elsewhere only in Rom 4:6, 9. GK 3422. Related to "blessed" in Lk 6:20.
29. Some think Paul had some type of eye disease, and further, that this was his "thorn in the flesh", 2 Cor 12:7. However, this may simply be a hyperbole showing the extent of their devotion, as in the phrase "you would have given me the shirt off your back".
30. Or, "fitly, appropriately". On this word, see "well" in Act 10:33.
31. Or, "exclude you". Paul may mean his opponents want to position the Gentile believers as excluded from God's highest blessing—in particular, because they are uncircumcised—so that the Gentile believers must pursue them and the Jewish way of life (v 10) in order to gain or feel the acceptance and approval of God. Others think he means "exclude you from us" (ones like Paul), to isolate you from us. There are other views. Elsewhere only in Rom 3:27. GK 1710.
32. Or, "so that you will". GK 2671.
33. Since Paul is also zealously-seeking the Galatians, he adds this personal word (v 18-20), so they can see the difference between his motives and those of his opponents (which he spells out in 6:12-13).
34. Or, "good". It is fine to be pursued by me or anyone else, as long as the reason for it is commendable. Same word as "good" earlier in this verse, on which see 1 Tim 5:10a. Related to the word in v 17.
35. As Paul himself is doing even now, and not only when he is there with the Galatians. On this word, see "always" in 1 Thes 5:16.
36. Some start a new sentence here (making it 5C.), omitting the "But" beginning v 20. Some manuscripts say "little children" {N}.

- 1C. Then³⁸ the offense³⁹ of the cross^{DD} has been abolished⁴⁰

1. This word means to speak another meaning other than the literal meaning, "to speak figuratively, metaphorically; to interpret allegorically". Paul may mean that as written in Scripture these facts "contain an allegory" or a spiritual sense underlying the literal sense, almost like a type. Or, he may mean that he is now interpreting them in an allegorical fashion, drawing out a spiritual meaning from the literal events. Used only here. GK 257.
2. That is, one woman representing one covenant.
3. This is where Moses received the Law. Elsewhere only in v 25; Act 7:30, 38. GK 4982.
4. Some manuscripts say "for..."; others, "for Mount Sinai is in Arabia", omitting "Hagar" {C}. The grammar indicates that Paul means the word "Hagar" itself, or the concept of Hagar as representing a covenant, is identified with Mount Sinai. Some think Paul means that Mount Sinai was also called "Hagar" (or a word that sounds like "Hagar") in their day by the Arabians, thus supporting his identification with an etymological argument. Others think Paul is emphasizing that the Hagar-Mount Sinai-covenant concept under discussion is "in Arabia", that is, it is not in the promised land. Consult the commentaries.
5. That is, Hagar.
6. This word means "to be in the same series with", such as in the same line, rank, category, etc. Used only here. GK 5368.
7. Hagar is allegorically the Law Covenant, and corresponds to the present physical Jerusalem, and is the mother of slaves, and a slave herself.
8. Some manuscripts say "and" {K}.
9. That is, the present Jerusalem.
10. Or, "serves as a slave". On this word, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6.
11. Fully stated, this side of the comparison would be "The other is from the land of promise, bearing children for freedom—which is Sarah. She corresponds to the Jerusalem above. For she lives as a free woman with her children of promise". But Paul abbreviates and jumps right to the main points—she is free, and she is our mother.
12. Some manuscripts say "mother of us all" {A}. Sarah is allegorically the New Covenant, and corresponds to the heavenly Jerusalem, and is the free mother of free children.
13. This is given to prove that she is our mother.
14. That is, unable to bear children, referring to Sarah. On this word, see "wilderness" in Mt 3:1.
15. Some manuscripts say "we" {B}.
16. See Gen 21:9. The physical descendants of Abraham persecute the spiritual descendants of Abraham.

18. On "set free", see Rom 8:2. Same root word as "freedom" next.
19. That is, the freedom that belongs to us as children of the free woman, 4:31. On this word, see 5:13. Instead of "Christ... standing-firm", some manuscripts say "Therefore, stand-firm in the freedom in which Christ set us free" {B}.
20. Or, "caught in, entangled in, ensnared in, loaded down with, held subject to". Do not put your neck back in that yoke again. On this word, see "be hostile" in Mk 6:19.
21. Same word as in Act 15:10, "the yoke which neither we nor our fathers have been able to bear"; and 1 Tim 6:1; Mt 11:29, 30. Elsewhere only as "balance scale" in Rev 6:5. GK 2433.
22. Using this same word, the Judaizers said "you must be circumcised to be saved", Act 15:1, 5. Paul says that if a person tries to approach God through works, Christ cannot help him; he must keep all the Law. In Col 2:11, Paul says that we are spiritually circumcised in Christ. On this word, see "circumcise" in Lk 2:21.
23. Or, "affirm, bear witness", as a witness to the truth. On this word, see 1 Thes 2:12.
24. If you proceed with works, then you must keep the whole Law to be justified. Compare Jam 2:10.
25. Same word as "released" in Rom 7:2, 6, but with a more negative meaning, "estranged, cut off, separated". Their relationship with Christ is severed. On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6.
26. Or, "fell off". Same word as in 2 Pet 3:17. Elsewhere only as "fall off" in Act 12:7; Jam 1:11; 1 Pet 1:24; "fall away" in Act 27:32; "fail" in Rom 9:6; and "run aground" (fall off the sea) in Act 27:17, 26, 29. GK 1738.
27. We either come by grace and faith, or we come by our own works of obedience. These are mutually exclusive paths. If we choose the latter, Christ cannot help us and we will not receive His grace. On this word, see Eph 2:8.
28. Or, "in".
29. Or, "are eagerly awaiting the hope of righteousness by faith".
30. Or, "avails; has power, strength, ability, validity for". Compare 1 Cor 7:19. Same word as in Phil 4:13; Jam 5:16. Used 28 times, mostly as "be able, be strong, be strong-enough". GK 2710. Related to "strong" in Rev 18:8; and "strength" in Eph 1:19.
31. Or, "being in operation, being at work, producing an effect". On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
32. Or, "thwarted, cut in on". Elsewhere only in Act 24:4; Rom 15:22; 1 Thes 2:18; 1 Pet 3:7. GK 1601. Related to "hindrance" in 1 Cor 9:12.
33. Or, "be obeying the truth". This word is related to "persuasion" next, and is the same word as in v 10. It is rendered this way to show the relationship. On this word, see 1 Jn 3:19.
34. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
35. Used only here. GK 4282.
36. Or, "confident". Same word as in v 7, but different grammar.
37. Apparently some of these disturbers were saying that Paul is, or really meant to be, proclaiming circumcision. But their own behavior towards Paul proves that this is not true.
38. That is, if I were in fact proclaiming it.
39. Or, "trap, cause of falling". On this word, see "cause of falling" in Rom 11:9. The cross is the "trip-stick" in a trap set by God in Zion, Rom 9:33. Note Lk 2:34. This "trap" reveals what is in the heart. If one trips over it, he is caught in the trap. The cross is what makes the gospel offensive (1 Cor 1:23, same word), and God intends this to be so (1 Cor 1:18-25).
40. Or, "done away with, nullified". Note 6:12. On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6.

1. Or, "Would that". Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 4:8; 2 Cor 11:1; Rev 3:15. GK 4054.
2. Or, "disturbing, troubling". Same word as in Act 17:6. Elsewhere only as "cause an upset" in Act 21:38. GK 415.
3. Paul means either that they should "castrate themselves, make eunuchs of themselves" (a sarcastic response to their desire for circumcision), or "cut themselves off from the congregation". Same word as in "if your hand offends, cut it off" in Mk 9:43, 45. Elsewhere only in Jn 18:10, 26; Act 27:32. GK 644.
4. Paul uses this word to assert his next main point. It could be rendered "Indeed". GK 1142.
5. Or, "liberty". Same word as in Gal 2:4; 5:1; Rom 8:21; 1 Cor 10:29; 2 Cor 3:17; 1 Pet 2:16; 2 Pet 2:19. Elsewhere only as "liberty" in Jam 1:25; 2:12. GK 1800. Related to "set free" in Gal 5:1.
6. Or, "base of operations, occasion". On this word, see Rom 7:8.
7. On this word, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6.
8. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18. Some manuscripts say "is fulfilled" {N}.
9. Or, "like". See Mt 19:19 on this command.
10. Or, "destroyed, used up, squandered". Elsewhere only in Lk 9:54, call down fire to "consume" them. GK 384.
11. This is an emphatic negative, the strongest in Greek, meaning "never, by no means, in no way". Elsewhere in the Epistles only in Rom 4:8; 1 Cor 8:13; 1 Thes 4:15; 5:3; Heb 8:11, 12; 10:17; 13:5; 1 Pet 2:6; 2 Pet 1:10; and in Rev 2:11; 3:3, 5, 12; 9:6; 15:4; 18:7, 14, 21, 22, 23; 21:25, 27. See also Mt 5:20; Mk 13:2; Lk 9:27; Jn 8:50.
12. Or, "finish, bring to completion". On this word, see "finish" in Rev 10:7. The desire will be there enticing and drawing us away (Jam 1:14-15), but it can never conceive as long as we are fulfilling the desires of the Spirit. The two paths are mutually exclusive. As Christians, it is the ever-growing direction of our life to be walking on the Spirit's path, 1 Jn 3:9. But it is a choice, which is why Paul commands it here.
13. This word means "strong desire", both in a good and bad sense. When used of evil sexual desire, it can be rendered "lust". When used of desiring what is not ours, it can mean "coveting". It is singular here, referring to the category, a collective whole. This same word is singular also in Lk 22:15; Phil 1:23; Col 3:5; 1 Thes 2:17; 4:5; Jam 1:14, 15; 2 Pet 1:4; 1 Jn 2:16, 17; Rev 18:14; and plural in Mk 4:19; Jn 8:44; Rom 1:24; 6:12; 13:14; Gal 5:24; Eph 2:3; 4:22; 1 Tim 6:9; 2 Tim 2:22; 3:6; 4:3; Tit 2:12; 3:3; 1 Pet 1:14; 2:11; 4:2; 2 Pet 2:18; 3:3; Jude 16, 18. Elsewhere only as "coveting" in Rom 7:7, 8; and "lust" in 1 Pet 4:3; 2 Pet 2:10. GK 2123. See the verb in v 17.
14. This verse is intended to prove the "never" of v 16. It can never happen because the Spirit is against the flesh. The two are in opposition, preventing us from carrying out the flesh's desire when we walk in the Spirit.
15. Or, "covets, lusts, longs for". See Jam 1:14-15; 1 Jn 2:16; 1 Pet 2:11; Rom 13:14; etc. Same word as in Mt 5:28; 13:17; Lk 15:16; 16:21; 17:22; 22:15; 1 Cor 10:6; 1 Tim 3:1; Heb 6:11; Jam 4:2; 1 Pet 1:12; Rev 9:6. Elsewhere only as "covet" in Act 20:33; Rom 7:7; 13:9. GK 2121. The related noun is in v 16.
16. Some manuscripts say "And" {N}.
17. Or, "are opposed, are settled or fixed against". On this word, see "opposing" in Phil 1:28.
18. Paul is not saying that there is a battle of equals, only that they are opposing forces. They are not equal. Before Christ, the flesh was dominant, leading to death (Rom 7:5-6). Now the Spirit is dominant, leading us to conformity to Christ, Rom 8:5-14, 29; 2 Cor 3:18. The flesh has been crucified with Christ, v 24.
19. Or, "so that you will not". GK 2671.
20. That is, be doing the "desire of the flesh" (v 16) we may want to do. More literally, "in order that whatever you might be wanting—these things you might not be doing". Compare 1 Jn 3:9. The Spirit prevents us from living according to the flesh. He leads us to holiness. The opposite is not true. Though we can choose to obey it, the flesh cannot prevent us from "walking by the Spirit", otherwise v 17 disproves rather than proves v 16.
21. The grammar means "assuming that you are led", that is, that you are a Christian. Same word as in Rom 8:14. All Christians are "led by the Spirit" in this verse. All Christians are "not under the Law", that is, not living in the sphere of the Law, but in the sphere of the Spirit, as Paul explained in 2:19-20 and Rom 6:14. But the Galatians were wanting to be under the Law, 4:21. On this word, see Lk 4:1.
22. Paul put this sentence here to make clear that he does not mean that the flesh should be controlled by Law. As Christians we are no longer dominated by the flesh, v 16. Nor are we under the Law as a way of life, 5:1. We are on a third course, walking in the Spirit, being led by the Spirit, growing the fruit of the Spirit. Paul had to clearly make this point because the Judaizers said "Do not fulfill the desire of the flesh, walk in line with the Law as we do". We live a new life in the Spirit (Rom 7:5-6; 8:1-4), no longer mastered by sin or Law, but grace (Rom 6:14, 15).
23. Some manuscripts add next "adultery" {N}.
24. Some manuscripts say "quarrels" {N}, the plural of this word. On this word, see "quarrels" in 1 Cor 1:11.
25. On this word, see 2 Cor 11:2. Some manuscripts have this plural {N}.
26. Or, "fits of rage, [outbursts of] anger". Same word as in 2 Cor 12:20.
27. Or, "[acts of] envy", it is plural. On this word, see Mk 15:10. The related verb is in v 26. Some manuscripts next add "murders" {C}.
28. This word is plural, and may mean "episodes of drunkenness, drinking bouts". On this word, see Rom 13:13.
29. Fruit is produced by the life of God within us, 1 Jn 3:9. It is the natural product of our spiritual life. Note that Paul says "fruit" (singular), not "fruits". The "fruit" of the Spirit is the lifestyle that the He produces, which has the following nine qualities. In v 19, the "works" (plural) are the individual acts that the flesh produces.
30. Elsewhere only in Rom 15:14; Eph 5:9; 2 Thes 1:11. GK 20. Related to "good" in 1 Tim 5:10b.
31. That is, those who belong to Him. Some manuscripts omit "Jesus" {C}.
32. Compare Rom 6:6; Gal 2:19-20.
33. Or, "walking in order, following in line". That is, living in conformity and agreement with the Spirit. Elsewhere only in Act 21:24; Rom 4:12; Gal 6:16; Phil 3:16. GK 5123. Related to "elemental" in 4:3.

1. Others place this with the previous section (making it 7C.), and begin the new point with 6:1.
2. This adjective refers to ones acting based on "empty pride", "empty glory" (the root meaning of the word). It is clearly defined in 6:3. Used only here. GK 3030. Related to "conceit" in Phil 2:3. The correct kind of glory is seen in 6:4-5.
3. Or, "provoking, calling forth (to fight)". Used only here. GK 4614.
4. That is, even if it is an explicit case of sin, do not handle it based on the empty glory that you are superior or invincible, but with the attitude that follows.
5. Or, "detected, surprised, caught". GK 4624.
6. Or, "false step". On this word, see Mt 6:14.
7. That is, be engaged in the process of restoration. On this word, see "prepared" in Rom 9:22.
8. On this word, see Eph 4:2. Same word as in Gal 5:23.
9. Or, "weights". On this word, see "weight" in 1 Thes 2:7.
10. Or, "fill up". Instead of "you will fulfill", some manuscripts have this word as a command, "fulfill" {C}. On this word, see "fill up" in 1 Thes 2:16.
11. That is, the command to love one another, Jn 13:34; 1 Jn 4:21.
12. Used only here. GK 5854. It is made of the word "understanding" (in 1 Cor 14:20) and the word "deceive" (in 1 Tim 2:14). Such a person is deceived in his understanding. Related to "deceiver" in Tit 1:10.
13. Or, "test, examine, put to the test". That is, "prove by test". On this word, see "approve" in Rom 12:2.
14. That is, the content or matter of boasting, the thing to boast about. On this word, see Phil 1:26.
15. Or, "cargo, burden". With regard to the burdens of others, we should "be carrying" them, v 2. But with regard to reward, we each "will carry" our own load of "work" accomplished for Christ. We will be rewarded for our individual effort, not in relation to the work of others. Thus to think you are something because of your association with the work of another (v 3), to be conceited or envious in relation to the work of another (5:26), is self-deception (v 3). Elsewhere only as "burden" in Mt 11:30; 23:4; Lk 11:46; and "cargo" in Act 27:10. GK 5845. Related to "burden" in Mt 11:28.
16. Or, "taught, informed, made to understand". Same word as later in the verse; and in Lk 1:4; Act 18:25; Rom 2:18; 1 Cor 14:19. Elsewhere only as "informed" in Act 21:21, 24. GK 2994.
17. Compare 1 Cor 9:11.
18. This section is related to v 6, but extends beyond that subject into every area of life, as seen in Paul's conclusion in v 10. This is the general principle. This same phrase occurs in 1 Cor 6:9; 15:33; Jam 1:16. On this word, see "err" in Jam 5:19.
19. From the word for "nose", this word means "to turn up the nose at, to mock, to sneer at". Used only here. GK 3682. Related word in Lk 16:14. It mocks God to think we can act contrary to His will, and be rewarded for it.
20. Or, "corruption, destruction". On this word, see 1 Cor 15:42.
21. On this word, see "lose heart" in 2 Cor 4:1. Same word as in 2 Thes 3:13.
22. Or, impersonally, "in its own time". On this phrase, see 1 Tim 2:6.
23. Or, "fainting, giving out, giving up, coming undone, tiring out, becoming exhausted, failing" in our souls or hearts. Same word as in Heb 12:3, 5. Elsewhere only as "become exhausted" physically in Mt 15:32; Mk 8:3. GK 1725.
24. Or, "as". That is, "while you have the opportunity to do so in this life". There is a time for sowing and a time for reaping. Sow while you have the opportunity. Paul does not mean "when the circumstances happen to present themselves". We are to actively "take the lead in doing good works", Tit 3:8, 14. GK 6055.
25. Or, "time, an occasion". Same word as "time" in v 9. Compare Eph 5:16. On this word, see Mt 8:29.
26. Or, "kinsmen, relatives". Elsewhere only in Eph 2:19; 1 Tim 5:8. GK 3858.
27. Some think this means Paul wrote the whole letter; others, v 11-18 only, after an assistant wrote down the rest. Compare 1 Cor 16:21; Col 4:18; 2 Thes 3:17.
28. Or, "to make a good impression, to put on a good face". Used only here. GK 2349. Related to "face".
29. Or, "forcing". Same word as in 2:3, 14. Elsewhere only in Mt 14:22; Mk 6:45; Lk 14:23; Act 26:11; 28:19; 2 Cor 12:11. GK 337. Related to "compulsion" in 1 Pet 5:2; "necessary" in Tit 3:14; and "necessity" in 1 Cor 7:26.
30. Some manuscripts say "having received circumcision" {N}.
31. Or, "through Whom". Some think Paul is referring to the "cross"; others, to "Lord Jesus Christ".
32. Some manuscripts say "For in Christ Jesus, neither..." {A}.
33. Some manuscripts say "can do" {N}, as in 5:6.
34. Or, "a new creature". Same phrase as in 2 Cor 5:17. On this word, see Rom 8:39.
35. This "all who" is in contrast with those in v 12.
36. Same word as in 5:25. Some manuscripts say "who are walking in line" {N}.
37. Or, "rule, norm", referring to the principle in v 14-15. All who guide their path and live by this standard, by this measuring rod—boasting only in Christ, not in the flesh—peace on them. On this word, see 2 Cor 10:13.
38. Or, "even". "And" would mean Paul is addressing Jewish Christians separately. "Even" would mean he is addressing all Christians as "the Israel of God". GK 2779.
39. The contrast is with "Israel according to the flesh", 1 Cor 10:18. Used 68 times. GK 2702.
40. Or, "Finally". GK 3370.
41. On the phrase "cause troubles", see Lk 18:5.
42. That is, the marks of ownership of a slave. Paul is referring to his scars from persecution, in contrast to those in v 12. Used only here. GK 5116.
43. Some manuscripts say "Christ"; others, "the Lord Jesus"; others, "our Lord Jesus Christ" {N}.

- 1C. Having been predestined²⁷ according to the purpose²⁸ of the One working^X all things in accordance with the counsel²⁹ of His will^L 12
- 1D. So that³⁰ we, the *ones*³¹ having previously-hoped³² in the Christ³³, might be for the praise^M of His glory^N 12

1. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {N}.
2. Some manuscripts omit the words "in Ephesus" {C}. For this and other reasons, some think this letter was intended for several cities (including Laodicea, Col 4:16). Paul spent over two years in Ephesus in Act 19. On the writing of this letter, see Act 28:30.
3. Or, "Blessed is". On this adjective, see Rom 9:5. Related to the verb and noun later in this verse.
4. Or, "by means of". GK 1877.
5. On "heavenly places", see 3:10.
6. That is, prior to creation. Compare 2 Tim 1:9. On this phrase, see 1 Pet 1:20.
7. Same word translated "saints" in v 1. On this word, see 1 Pet 1:16.
8. Or, "in love" may be taken with what precedes, "in His presence in love, having predestined..."
9. Or, "based on; in accordance with, in harmony with". Same word as in v 7, 9, 11. GK 2848.
10. Or, "desire, good-will". Same word as in v 9; Phil 2:13. Elsewhere only as "well-pleasing" in Mt 11:26; Lk 10:21; "good-will" in Lk 2:14; Phil 1:15; and "desire" in Rom 10:1; 2 Thes 1:11. GK 2306. Related to "well-pleased" in Mt 17:5.
11. Or, "His grace with which He graced us", "His favor with which He favored us". Paul uses a verb related to the previous word "grace". Elsewhere only as "favored" in Lk 1:28. GK 5923. Instead of "which", some manuscripts have a phrase meaning "in which, by which, with which" {N}. This would allow this phrase to be rendered either from God's point of view, as "His grace in the sphere of which He favored us", or "with which He favored us"; or from our point of view, as "His grace in the sphere of which He made us accepted", as in the KJV. Related to "grace" in 2:8.
12. This is a participle, "the One having been loved", as in Col 3:12.
13. That is, Christ, v 3; Him, v 4; the Beloved One, v 6.
14. Or, "caused to overflow", and thus, "richly granted". On this word, see "abound" in 2 Cor 8:2.
15. That is, "In connection with, By means of". GK 1877. Or, this phrase may be taken with what precedes, "caused to abound to us in all wisdom and understanding". In addition, in both connections, some think Paul means "In all [our] wisdom and understanding" (which we possess in connection with the gospel); others, "In all [His] wisdom and understanding" (in the execution of His plan to cause His grace to abound, or in making known as He has done the mystery which He has kept silent until now, Rom 16:26; Col 1:26).
16. Or, "insight, intelligence". Elsewhere only in Lk 1:17. GK 5860. Related to "thinking" in Rom 8:5.
17. The mystery of God's will is that He redeems everyone (Jew and Gentile) through Christ's blood. This was hidden, but is now revealed (3:5-6), and accomplished (3:11).
18. Or, "set forth, planned", so that it says "which He set forth in Him", that is, Christ. On this word, see "set forth" in Rom 3:25. Related to "purpose" in 1:11; 3:11.
19. Or, "Him", Christ.
20. Or, "an arrangement, mode of operation, economy, dispensation, administration, government", as it is used in 3:9; Lk 16:2; 1 Tim 1:4. Elsewhere only in the sense of "the office or sphere of responsibility of a steward", the position of management responsibility, in 3:2; Lk 16:3, 4; 1 Cor 9:17; Col 1:25. Related to "steward" in 1 Pet 4:10. Paul was the "steward" initially given the "stewardship position" (3:2) to enlighten all the Gentiles about the "mode of operation" of the mystery (3:9). Here, he means "for an arrangement" for providing salvation to the world. GK 3873.
21. It is a stewardship "belonging to" the fullness of times; in other words, introduced for the fullness of times. When the "fullness (same word as here) of time" came, God sent forth His Son (Gal 4:4), and this stewardship is for His times. On this word, see Col 1:19.
22. Or, "gather together into one". Elsewhere only in Rom 13:9. GK 368. This is God's good pleasure which He purposed.
23. This word in this phrase is found only here. GK 2093. Elsewhere it always says "in" (GK 1877) the heavens, as in 3:15; Col 1:16, 20; 1 Cor 8:5. Some manuscripts do say "in" here; others say "both the things in..." {N}.
24. That is, Christ, v 3; Him, v 10.
25. Based on what follows in v 12, some think Paul means "we Jewish Christians" here. Based on what precedes in v 3-10, others think he means "all we believers".
26. This word means "to choose by lot, to assign, to allot, to obtain by lot". Used only here. GK 3103. The related noun means "lot, share" (see Col 1:12 on it). Some think Paul means we were "allotted, assigned an inheritance" by God, and thus "obtained an inheritance", which is mentioned in v 14, 18; Col 1:12; 1 Pet 1:4. Others think he means "allotted to God". That is, we were "the lot chosen by God, allotted by God to Himself", and thus "made an inheritance" to God, as possibly meant in v 18, and as said of Israel in Deut 9:29; 32:9. We would be His inheritance in the sense that in us, He inherits the praise of His people, v 12.
27. This word modifies "we". Same word as in v 5.
28. Or, "plan, design". Same word as in 3:11. On this word, see Rom 8:28. Related to "purposed" in v 9.
29. Or, "determination, decision, intention, resolution, purpose, plan". Used of God and people. Elsewhere only as "purpose" in Lk 7:30; Act 2:23; 4:28; 13:36; 20:27; "plan" in Lk 23:51; Act 5:38; 27:12, 42; "intention" in Heb 6:17; and "motive" in 1 Cor 4:5. GK 1087. Related to "will" in 1 Pet 4:3.
30. This is the same word translated "For" used at this same point in the other three stanzas (v 6, 10, 14b), but here it is used with the verb "to be". More literally, "For us to be for the praise of His glory, the ones having previously hoped in Christ".
31. Some think Paul means "we" Jewish Christians in contrast with "you" Gentile Christians, v 13. Compare 2:14-18; 3:6. The bringing together of these two groups in Christ (which is "the mystery", 3:6) is a theme of this book. Here, Paul wants to explicitly link both groups directly to the spiritual blessings in the heavens for which he is blessing God. Others think he means "all we Christians having hoped in Christ since our conversion" in contrast with "you" the readers in particular, who also have heard and believed.
32. Or, "hoped beforehand". Used only here. GK 4598. Some think Paul means "before the Christ came"; others, "before you Gentiles", who had no hope, 2:12.
33. Or, "in Christ". In Greek, "Christ" can have the article "the" (as it does here), and be understood either way (that is, as the name "Christ", or the title "the Christ, the Messiah").

1. That is, Christ, v 12.
2. This is the Greek word order of v 13-14. The main sentence is "In Whom also you... were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise... for the praise of His glory".
3. Or, "the message of the truth". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:8.
4. Or, "in Whom", so that this "in Whom" resumes the previous one, "salvation—in Whom also, having believed, you were sealed".
5. On the phrase "put faith in", see Jn 3:15. The punctuation in the previous note avoids this combination.
6. That is, given a mark of ownership, security, certification. Same word as in 4:30; Mt 27:66; Rom 15:28; 2 Cor 1:22; Rev 7:3, 4, 5, 8; 10:4; 20:3; 22:10. Elsewhere only as "certified" in Jn 3:33; 6:27. GK 5381.
7. That is, characterized as the One promised. The promised Spirit.
8. That is, the Spirit. Or, "Which", the sealing.
9. On this word, see 2 Cor 1:22. The down payment is the Spirit.
10. Elsewhere only in Mt 21:38; Mk 12:7; Lk 12:13; 20:14; Act 7:5; 20:32; Gal 3:18; Eph 1:18; 5:5; Col 3:24; Heb 9:15; 11:8; 1 Pet 1:4. GK 3100. Related to "heir" in Rom 8:17; and "inherit" in Gal 4:30.
11. Compare Rom 8:23; Eph 4:30. On this word, see Rom 3:24.
12. Or, "purchased possession, acquisition, obtaining". Some think Paul means "until the redemption of us as His possession". This word is used of Israel in the OT, and of the church in the NT, "a people for [God's] possession", 1 Pet 2:9. Others think he means "until the redemption, the obtaining of our inheritance". On this word, see "obtaining" in 1 Thes 5:9.
13. That is, because God has blessed us in this way (v 3-14), and you have responded.
14. The word "your" here is an idiom meaning "in relation to you, with respect to you". It occurs elsewhere only in Act 17:28; 18:15.
15. On this phrase, compare Rom 15:6; 2 Cor 1:3; 11:31; Eph 1:3; Col 1:3; 1 Pet 1:3; and Mt 27:46; Jn 20:17; Rev 3:2.
16. That is, characterized by glory. The glorious Father.
17. Or, "the Spirit". Paul could mean "the Spirit giving wisdom and revelation"; or a "spiritual gift" of wisdom and revelation (as this word is used in 1 Cor 14:12); or, a "disposition" based on wisdom and revelation (similar to Gal 6:1).
18. That is, "in the sphere of" or "in connection with" the knowledge of Him.
19. Some manuscripts say "understanding" (K). Some manuscripts say "the heart" (C).
20. Or, "illuminated". Same word as in 3:9. On this word, see Heb 6:4. The grammar is unusual (but similar to 3:18), so there are different views on exactly how this phrase connects to the context. In general, this phrase gives the result of the preceding and the basis of the following. Grammatically, Paul is putting emphasis on this phrase. May God give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in having the eyes of your heart enlightened so that you may know the spiritual truths of 1:18-2:10.
21. Some think Paul means the subjective hope which the calling works in our heart; others, the objective hope which belongs to the calling; everything to which we have been called in this life and the next. On "calling", see 2 Pet 1:10.
22. Some manuscripts say "And what" (N).
23. Some think Paul means the glorious riches belonging to the inheritance; others, the riches belonging to the glory belonging to the inheritance; others, the riches belonging to the glorious inheritance.
24. Or, "in". Some think Paul means God's inheritance which He gives to us; that is, the spiritual blessings now (1:3-14), and the fullness which we await (1 Pet 1:4). On "inheritance among", see Act 20:32; 26:18. Others think Paul means God's own inheritance in the saints, consisting of the saints, His possession. See "allotted" in v 11 for more on this view.
25. Or, "holy ones", angels and believers. Compare 1 Thes 3:13.
26. Or, "for". GK 1650.
27. Same word as "according to" in 1:5. This phrase makes a transition to what follows. What precedes is in accordance with the strength which God used to raise Christ from the [physically] dead, and to make us alive from the [spiritually] dead, 2:1-5. Some think Paul means "believing in accordance with"; others, "His power... [which is] in accordance with"; others, "the hope... the riches... the power... [which are] in accordance with"; others, "that you may know (v 18) ... in accordance with".
28. Or, "power, might". Same phrase as in 6:10. Elsewhere only in Mk 12:30, 33; Lk 10:27; 2 Thes 1:9; 1 Pet 4:11; 2 Pet 2:11; Rev 5:12; 7:12. GK 2709. Related to "strong" in Rev 18:8.
29. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:11. Related to "working" in v 19.
30. Some manuscripts say "And He seated" (N). Compare Ps 110:1.
31. Or, "dominion, authority", whether angelic, demonic, or human. On this word, see "authority" in 2 Pet 2:10. Similar words are used in 3:10; 6:12; Col 1:16; 2:10, 15; Rom 8:38; 1 Cor 15:24; 1 Pet 3:22.
32. That is, every ruling power by whatever name it is known. People are called "names" in Act 1:15.
33. This word means "give, grant". Used 414 times. GK 1443.
34. Used 142 times of the physical body (dead or alive) of a human or animal, and of the "body of Christ", the church, as in Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 12:13, 27; Eph 4:4, 12, 16; 5:23, 30; Col 1:18, 24; 2:19; 3:15. GK 5393. Related to "bodily" in Lk 3:22 and Col 2:9; and "fellow body members" in Eph 3:6.
35. Some think Paul means Christ's body is the "full number, full amount belonging to the One filling all"; others, His body is "that which is filled up by the One filling all", that is, the receptacle holding Christ's fullness; others, His body is "that which fills up the One filling all", that is, that which completes the "body" by forming the complement to the head. On this word, see Col 1:19.
36. Or, "with all". The One filling all is Christ. Some think Paul means "with all things", that is, filling all the universe with all His blessings or all the things that constitute it; others, "in all ways"; others, "in all [His people]". This same phrase "all in all" is used in 1 Cor 12:6; 15:28; and is similar to Col 3:11.
37. More literally, "you being dead", a participle. Some think Paul starts out to say "You being dead... God made alive", as in Col 2:13, but breaks off this sentence to detail the Gentile's sin, and lump Jews and Gentiles together as children of wrath. Then he starts over in v 4 and completes the thought, "We being dead... God made alive...". Others note that this is the same grammar as in Col 1:21, where no intervening thoughts occur.
38. That is, spiritually dead. Compare Col 2:13. The word is also used in this sense in 2:5; 5:14; Mt 8:22; 23:27; Jn 5:25; 1 Pet 4:6; Rev 3:1. On this word, see Mt 8:22.
39. Some think Paul means the aim or character of this age, and render this word "course". Same word as in 1:21; 2:7; 3:9. Also in Lk 16:8; Rom 12:2; 1 Cor 1:20; 2:6; 1 Tim 6:17; 2 Tim 4:10; etc. GK 172.

1. Or, "power". Same word as in 1:21; 3:10; 6:12. Used of demonic authority also in Lk 22:53; Act 26:18; Col 1:13; 2:15; 1 Pet 3:22. On this word, see Rev 6:8. Some take it here in a collective sense, as the "empire".
2. Some think this means "atmosphere"; others, the same general thing as "heavenly places" in 6:12. Elsewhere only in Act 22:23; 1 Cor 9:26; 14:9; 1 Thes 4:17; Rev 9:2; 16:17. GK 113.
3. The grammar naturally means that Satan is the ruler "of the authority... [and] of the spirit...", or "of the authority... [which is] the spirit...". Some think "spirit" has a collective sense here, meaning "the spirits" or "the spirit world"; others, that it means "the evil spiritual influence". Taking the grammar differently, others think Paul intends "the ruler... air" and "the spirit... disobedience" to be parallel descriptions of Satan.
4. That is, characterized by disobedience, or, belonging to disobedience as a child to a parent. Same phrase as in 5:6; Col 3:6. This disobedience results in unbelief. On this word, see Rom 11:30.
5. Some think Paul means "we Jews"; others, "we Jews and Gentiles". There is no distinction, Rom 3:22-23.
6. Or, "lived, behaved". Same word as in 2 Cor 1:12; 1 Tim 3:15; Heb 13:18; 1 Pet 1:17. Elsewhere only as "live" in Heb 10:33; 2 Pet 2:18; and "return" in Act 5:22; 15:16. GK 418. The related noun "conduct" is in 1 Pet 1:15.
7. Or, "desires, wishes". This word is plural elsewhere only as "desires" in Act 13:22. On this word, see "will" in Jn 7:17.
8. This word means "the natural constitution or condition inherited by birth; the natural disposition or character; the natural order of things, nature, and its creatures". Here, Paul may mean "by their condition as spiritually dead humans" (v 1); or, "by their character as sinners". Elsewhere only in Rom 1:26; 2:14, 27; 11:21, 24; 1 Cor 11:14; Gal 2:15; 4:8; Jam 3:7; 2 Pet 1:4. GK 5882.
9. That is, objects of wrath, belonging to wrath. On this word, see Rev 16:19.
10. Some think Paul means "as also the Gentiles"; others, "as also the rest who still are". On this word, see "other" in 2 Pet 3:16.
11. This is a participle, you "are having been saved", as also in v 8. On this word, see Lk 19:10.
12. Or, "display, show, give proof of, prove". Same word as in Rom 2:15; 9:17, 22; 2 Cor 8:24; 1 Tim 1:16; Tit 2:10; 3:2; Heb 6:10, 11. Elsewhere only as "show" in 2 Tim 4:14. GK 1892. Related to "demonstration" in Rom 3:25.
13. More literally, the ages "coming-upon us". On this word, see "coming upon" in Lk 21:26.

Used 155 times. GK 5927. Related to "freely give" in 1 Cor 2:12; "gift" in 1 Cor 1:7; and "graciously bestow on" in Eph 1:6.
15. This is a participle, you "are having been saved". The same phrase is in v 5.
16. Used 243 times, this word means "faith, trust", and sometimes "faithfulness". It sometimes refers to the "body of faith", the thing believed. It is rendered "proof" in Act 17:31, and "pledge" in 1 Tim 5:12. GK 4411. The related verb is "believe" in Jn 3:36.
17. Grammatically, "this" does not refer specifically to "faith" or "grace". It refers to the being "saved" (v 8), to all God has done for us as described in v 4-8, including the grace and faith.
18. Or, "out of, from, by". That is, originating in. GK 1666.
19. Or, "creation, piece of workmanship, thing made". We are the result of God's making. Elsewhere only as "the things made" in Rom 1:20. GK 4473. Not related to "works" in v 9.
20. Same word as in v 15. Related to the word in the phrase "new creation" in 2 Cor 5:17; Gal 6:15.
21. On "good works", see Rom 2:7; Tit 3:14.
22. We are not saved because of our good works, but in order that we may do them. Elsewhere only in Rom 9:23. GK 4602. Compare Phil 2:12-13; 3:12.
23. This is the first command of the book. Paul applies all he has said about what the blessed God did for us directly to the Ephesians. From a new and personal vantage point (the Ephesians' own memory of their former status), he proclaims their changed status based on the work of Christ. Eph 2:11-22 is Paul's positive statement of the status of the Gentiles. In Galatians, Paul defended this teaching against the Judaizers. On this word, see Jn 16:21.
24. Some manuscripts say "That you—formerly Gentiles" {K}, reversing the order of the two words.
25. Or, "uncircumcision". On this word, see Rom 2:26.
26. That is, by the Jew. The Jews called the Gentiles "uncircumcised", and therefore unlike us, outsiders, excluded.
27. Or, "circumcision". This word refers to "circumcised" people, as in Rom 3:30; 15:8; Gal 2:7; Col 3:11. It also refers to a state of "circumcision", as in Rom 2:25; 1 Cor 7:19; Phil 3:3; Col 4:11; Tit 1:10. In both cases, this word is sometimes used as another way of saying "Jew", as here. In some places, like here, either is appropriate. Used 36 times. GK 4364. Related to the verb in Lk 2:21.
28. On this word, see "made by human hands" in Act 17:24. Compare Col 2:11.
29. Or, "estranged, alienated". On this word, see 4:18.
30. Or, "state, body politic". That is, excluded from the condition and rights of a citizen. The Gentiles were excluded from participation in the government and worship that God established on earth in the nation of Israel. Elsewhere only in Act 22:28. GK 4486. In v 19, using the same root word, Paul says Gentile believers are now "fellow citizens".
31. Or, "Godless ones". That is, without the true God. This word also means "denying God". Our word "atheist" comes from this word. Used only here. GK 117.
32. Or, "became, came-to-be". GK 1181.
33. That is, both groups, Jews and Gentiles, into one group, v 15. Same word as in v 16, 18. On this word, see "all" in Act 23:8.
34. Used only here. GK 3546.
35. Or, "separation". That is, the wall dividing Jew and Gentile, and separating both from God. The wall is the Law. On this word, see "fence" in Lk 14:23.
36. Or, "hatred, enmity". Elsewhere only in v 16; Lk 23:12; Rom 8:7; Gal 5:20; Jam 4:4. GK 2397. Related to "enemy".

1. In this rendering, "in His flesh" has Paul's emphasis. Others also place "hostility" in this phrase, so that it says "Having abolished in His flesh the hostility, the Law". Others place "in His flesh" with what precedes, "and having broken down the dividing wall of partition, the hostility, in His flesh."
2. On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6.
3. Or, "regulations, decisions, ordinances". Elsewhere only in Lk 2:1; Act 16:4; 17:7; Col 2:14. GK 1504.
4. Elsewhere only in Mt 19:4; Mk 13:19; Rom 1:25; 1 Cor 11:9; Eph 2:10; 3:9; 4:24; Col 1:16; 3:10; 1 Tim 4:3; Rev 4:11; 10:6. GK 3231. Related to "creation" in Rom 8:39; and "creator".
5. Some think Paul means one new kind of individual, neither Jew nor Gentile; others, one new corporate body of mankind, the body of Christ, the church. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
6. That is, "one [corporate] body", parallel to "one new man".
7. Or, "on it", that is, the cross. Or, "in Himself". Same word as "Himself" in v 15.
8. Compare Isa 57:19. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
9. Or, "That". GK 4022.
10. Or, "introduction, admission". On this word, see Rom 5:2.
11. Or, "by". GK 1877.
12. Or, "kinsmen". On this word, see Gal 6:10.
13. Some think Paul means the foundation "consisting of the apostles and"; others, "laid by the apostles and". Compare 3:5.
14. That is, the twelve. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:28.
15. Some think Paul is referring to OT prophets; others, NT prophets. Same grammar as "shepherds and teachers" in 4:11. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:28.
16. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
17. Some render this "Christ Jesus being its cornerstone". Elsewhere only in 1 Pet 2:6. GK 214. See also Mt 21:42. Compare Isa 28:16.
18. Or, "framed together, joined together". In ancient buildings, stones were "fitted together". Elsewhere only in 4:16. GK 5274.
19. Some think Paul means "holy temple in the Lord"; others, "growing... in the Lord". That is, in connection with the Lord.
20. Thus, we Christians collectively are the spiritual temple where God dwells. Compare 1 Pet 2:5. GK 2999.
21. Some think Paul means "being built... by the Spirit"; others, "being built... in spirit", in a spiritual manner, spiritually; others, a "dwelling place for God in the Spirit".
22. That is, because God has made you Gentiles a part of His family through Christ.
23. Used of Paul also in Act 23:18; 25:14, 27; 28:17; Eph 4:1; 2 Tim 1:8; Phm 1:1, 9. Elsewhere only in Mt 27:15, 16; Mk 15:6; Act 16:25, 27; Heb 10:34; 13:3. GK 1300. Related to "imprisonment" in Phil 1:7.
24. Some manuscripts say "of the Lord Jesus"; others, "of Christ"; others, "of Jesus Christ" {C}.
25. Some think Paul does not finish this sentence. He starts to pray for them, then breaks off this sentence, and diverges to explain his commission. Then he returns to his prayer in v 14. Others render this, "... I, Paul am the prisoner", avoiding the break.
26. The grammar means "Assuming that you heard". "If indeed" is also in 4:21; 2 Cor 5:3; Gal 3:4; Col 1:23.
27. Having heard of this stewardship, the readers would understand why Paul says "for your sake" in v 1. Some think Paul means "the position of management responsibility" as apostle to the Gentiles; others, "the arrangement" in which he was a "steward" of the grace of God. On this word, see 1:10. It is the stewardship "with reference to" or "characterized by" God's grace which was given to Paul.
28. Grammatically, this word refers to grace, "the grace... having been given". Note v 7 and 8. It does not refer to "stewardship" here, "the stewardship... having been given", as it does in Col 1:25.
29. This begins Paul's description (v 3-12) of the content he assumes the readers heard about his stewardship. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
30. The mystery is defined in v 6. On this word, see Rom 11:25. Some manuscripts say "He made known the mystery to me" {N}.
31. Some think Paul is referring to what he just wrote, in 1:9-10; 2:11-22. You will be able to understand the mystery as stated in v 6 by reading what I just said. Others think he is referring to his earlier letters, or to a letter now lost.
32. Or, "insight". That is, my understanding in connection with the mystery concerning Christ. Same word as in Mk 12:33; Lk 2:47; Col 1:9; 2:2; 2 Tim 2:7. Elsewhere only as "intelligence" in 1 Cor 1:19. GK 5304.
33. This refers to "mystery", either in v 4 or v 3.
34. Some manuscripts say "His promise" {N}.
35. Some think Paul means the promise of the Spirit, as in 1:13; others, the promise of salvation, as in 2 Tim 1:1. On this word, see 1 Jn 2:25.
36. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
37. Or, "I became". Some manuscripts say "I became" {K}, using a different form of this word. GK 1181.
38. Or, "servant". On this word, see "servants" in 1 Cor 3:5.
39. Or, "in accordance with, based on, by way of". Same word as "by way of" next. GK 2848.
40. This word goes with "grace", as in v 2. In some manuscripts it goes with "gift" {N}. These amount to nearly the same thing, "the gift consisting of the grace given" vs. "the gift given consisting of the grace".
41. That is, the grace mentioned in v 7 or v 2.
42. Some manuscripts say "among" {N}.
43. Its dimensions cannot be traced out. On this word, see Rom 11:33.
44. Same word as in 1:18.
45. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "And bring to light what is the...".
46. Or, "arrangement, mode of operation". On this word, see 1:10. Some manuscripts say "fellowship" {K}.
47. On "past ages", see Lk 1:70.
48. Some manuscripts add "through Jesus Christ" {N}.
49. Or, "many-sided". Used only here. GK 4497.
50. The phrase "in the heavenly places" is elsewhere only in Eph 1:3, 20; 2:6; 6:12. This word is elsewhere only in Jn 3:12; 1 Cor 15:40, 48, 49; Phil 2:10; 2 Tim 4:18; Heb 3:1; 6:4; 8:5; 9:23; 11:16; 12:22. GK 2230.

1. Same word as in 2:18.
2. Or, "through His faithfulness" to what God gave Him to do.
3. Some think Paul means "that I not lose heart". In addition, some think he asks "you"; others, "God".
4. Same word as in v 1 and 6:20, on which see Col 1:24.
5. That is, inasmuch as it is your glory, seeing that it is your glory, since it is your glory. Paul generalizes. My situation, my imprisonment and afflictions, is for your glory. This may be simplified to "which are your glory".
6. Some manuscripts say "our" {A}.
7. Paul now resumes where he left off in v 1. Same phrase as 3:1, which is elsewhere only in Tit 1:5.
8. Some manuscripts add "of our Lord Jesus Christ" {B}.
9. Or, "every". Same word and grammar as in "the whole" building in 2:21. GK 4246.
10. Or, "clan, tribe, people, nation", a group whose identity is traced to a common father. Elsewhere only in Lk 2:4; Act 3:25. GK 4255. Related to "father" preceding. There is a play on words here, "the Father, from Whom the whole father-grouping... is named". The whole family of God directly fathered by Him is in view. Others render it "every family", meaning "every father-grouping", every group based on a father. All such groupings owe their name to the Father, who ultimately (or directly, in the case of angels) is their Father-creator. Others render it more abstractly as "all fatherhood". In any case, Paul's point is to focus us on the Father, creator of the new life in us.
11. Elsewhere only as "become strong" in Lk 1:80; 2:40; and "grow strong" in 1 Cor 16:13. GK 3194.
12. This phrase, "inner person", is elsewhere only in Rom 7:22; 2 Cor 4:16. Compare 1 Pet 3:4.
13. Instead of expressing the result, "strengthened... so that Christ", others see this as a second request, "might grant first, that you be strengthened, and second, that Christ might dwell". In the former case, a growing spiritual strength leads to a growing presence of Christ. In the latter case, the two requests are an impersonal and a personal way of saying the same thing.
14. Or, "settle down, have His home, reside", that is, be at home. Used mostly of dwelling or living in a place, as in Mt 2:23; 4:13; Act 1:19; 9:22, 35; 19:17; etc. Used of God in Mt 23:21; Act 7:48; 17:24; and of the fullness dwelling in Christ in Col 1:19; 2:9. Used 44 times. GK 2997. Related to "dwelling place" in 2:22; and "dwell" in Jam 4:5.
15. Or, "That", making this point 2C., a second primary request.
16. This phrase, "having been rooted and founded in love" has Paul's emphasis (in the Greek word order, it precedes "in order that", and concludes v 17). It gives the result of what precedes and the basis for what follows. The construction is similar to 1:18. In this arrangement (compare the view in notes 13, 15 and 23) Paul means "strengthened so that Christ may dwell in your hearts, resulting in you being rooted and founded in love in order that you may be strong enough to grasp and to know the love of Christ". This foundation of love flows from Christ, and leads to Christ. It is the goal of the strength prayed for, and the foundation for reaching the fullness of God. Living out His love, we come to know its dimensions.
17. Or, "established". This word means "to lay or establish a foundation". Same word as in Mt 7:25; Col 1:23. Elsewhere only as "laid the foundation of" in Heb 1:10; and "establish" in 1 Pet 5:10. GK 2530. Related to "foundation" in 2:20; 1 Tim 6:19.
18. Or, "be fully able". Used only here. GK 2015. Related to "strength" in 1:19.
19. Or, "comprehend, seize, lay hold of". On this word, see "overcome" in Jn 1:5.
20. Some think Paul is describing the dimensions of Christ's love—to grasp it mentally, and to know it experientially. Others think he is referring to "the multi-faceted wisdom of God" (3:10), seen in the mystery. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. Some manuscripts say "depth and height" {N}.
21. Paul is referring to experiential knowledge that includes, but exceeds mental knowledge. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
22. Or, "And to know Christ's knowledge-surpassing love". Some think Paul means the love surpassing what can be grasped intellectually, the love only known by personally living and experiencing it; others, the love that transcends knowledge in its greatness.
23. Or, "That", making this point 3C., a third primary request.
24. Some manuscripts say "in order that all the fullness of God may be filled up" {A}.
25. Or, "understand, perceive, imagine". That is, think about, think out, intend to ask. Elsewhere only as "consider" in 2 Tim 2:7; "understand" in Mt 24:15; Mk 13:14; Rom 1:20; 1 Tim 1:7; Heb 11:3; "perceive" in Mt 15:17; 16:9, 11; Mk 7:18; 8:17; Eph 3:4; and "comprehend" in Jn 12:40. GK 3783. Related to "mind" in 2 Cor 3:14 and in Rom 7:23.
26. Or, "in operation". Same word and grammar as in 2:2; 2 Cor 1:6; Col 1:29. On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
27. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
28. That is, in a manner worthy of. On this word, see 3 Jn 6. Here Paul details this worthy walk from our perspective as part of the Lord's body of believers.
29. On "calling", see 2 Pet 1:10. On the related word "called", see Rom 8:30. The same two words are in v 4.
30. Or, "lowliness of mind". Same phrase as in Act 20:19. On this word, see Phil 2:3. The opposite of this is in Rom 12:16; Gal 6:3.
31. Or, "meekness". Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 4:21; 2 Cor 10:1; Gal 5:23; 6:1; Col 3:12; 2 Tim 2:25; Tit 3:2; Jam 1:21; 3:13; 1 Pet 3:16. GK 4559. Related to the word in 1 Tim 6:11; and to "gentle" in 1 Pet 3:4.
32. Or, "making every effort, being eager, being earnest, hastening, doing your best". Same word as in 2 Tim 2:15; 4:9, 21; Tit 3:12; Heb 4:11; 2 Pet 1:10, 15; 3:14. Elsewhere only as "be eager" in Gal 2:10; 1 Thes 2:17. GK 5079. Related to "earnest" in 2 Cor 8:17; "diligently" in Tit 3:13; and "earnestness" in 2 Cor 8:16.
33. Or, "preserve, guard, protect". On this word, see 1 Jn 5:18.
34. Or, "oneness". Elsewhere only in v 13. GK 1942.
35. That is, the unity which the Spirit produces, the Spirit-given unity.
36. Some think Paul means "the bond which consists of peace"; others, "the bond which leads to peace", that is, love (as in Col 3:14).
37. The following defines seven points of the unity given by the Spirit, seven things all Christians share.
38. That is, the body of Christ, the church, 1:23; 5:23; Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 12:27; Col 1:24.
39. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
40. Compare 1:18. There is one hope belonging to our calling. On "called, calling", see v 1.

- 1E. By the trickery³³ of people^C

1. Some think Paul is referring to saving faith (as in Eph 2:8); others, to "the faith", the truth (as in Jude 3). Compare v 13.
2. Paul could be referring to the baptism of the Spirit by which all are placed in the body of Christ, 1 Cor 12:13; to our spiritual baptism into the death, burial and resurrection of Christ, Rom 6:4-5; Col 2:12; or to water baptism (one rite of initiation, irrespective of how it is performed). Some think he is referring to the one event of initiation, which includes all three of these.
3. For each "all" in this verse, some think Paul means "all believers", Jew and Gentile; others, "all things", the whole universe.
4. Some manuscripts say in "us all"; others, "you all" {A}.
5. Or, "But". Paul may mean "And", giving another point of unity. "One" is the first word in this Greek sentence, as in the phrases in v 4-6. There is unity in that each individual has received a measure of grace from Christ (Rom 12:6). Gifts are a mark of unity and diversity at the same time, 1 Cor 12. Or, Paul may mean "But", contrasting the unity in v 4-6 with the diversity seen in our gifts. He goes on to describe the giving in v 8-10; some of the gifts in v 11; and the purpose in v 12-16.
6. This word is used 82 times. GK 1667.
7. That is, to each individual, each single one. This word is the number "one", the same word as in "one" body, spirit, etc. On this phrase, see Mt 26:22. This word is used 345 times. GK 1651.
8. Some think that "gift" here means "spiritual gift". Thus grace was given proportionate to "the measure belonging to the spiritual gift given to each one by Christ". In other words, Christ gave differing gifts (some named in v 11) to His body, and with them grace and faith (Rom 12:3) of proportionate measure. The Spirit distributes them to each one, as He wills, 1 Cor 12:11. Others think that the gift is the grace. Grace was given according to "the measured gift of it given by Christ to each one". This grace is seen in one's spiritual gifts, opportunities, and much more. Compare Rom 12:3. On this word, see Rom 5:15.
9. That is, into heaven. On this word, see Lk 1:78. Paul quotes the psalm as a prediction that Christ would give gifts.
10. Or, "He took prisoner prisoners-of-war". The victor in battle takes prisoner his conquered foes. The verb means "to take captive, to make prisoners of war", and is used only here, GK 169. The noun means "captivity, prisoner of war" and is elsewhere only in Rev 13:10, GK 168. Related to "captive" in Lk 4:18; "take captive" in 2 Cor 10:5; and "fellow-captive" in Rom 16:7.
11. The Hebrew in Ps 68:18 says "received". Paul interprets or applies this to mean that Christ received them from God, and gave them to His people, who respond as in Ps 68:19. The victor takes or receives spoils, and gives them to his people. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. Some manuscripts say "and He gave..." {B}.
12. Elsewhere only in Mt 7:11; Lk 11:13; Phil 4:17. GK 1517. Same word as in the psalm.
13. Paul draws a further conclusion about the Messiah from the psalm. The psalm implies that He also descended.
14. On this word, see "is" in Mt 26:26.
15. Some manuscripts say "He also first descended" {A}.
16. Or, "to". GK 1650.
17. This phrase "lower parts of the earth" is used only here. Some manuscripts omit "parts" so that it says "to the lower things of the earth" {C}. "Lower" is used only here, GK 3005. Compare "under the earth" in Phil 2:10; Rev 5:3. Note the contrast between "lower" here, and "far above" in v 10.
18. The plural "parts" often means "regions, districts", as in Mt 2:22; 15:21; Act 2:10; 19:1; etc. The plural is used only here by Paul. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
19. Some think this refers to Christ's incarnation on earth— He descended to earth and died, then ascended to heaven leading as captive His conquered foes (sin and death and Satan) and gave gifts (the spiritual gifts of which Paul is speaking). Others think it refers to a descent into Hades after His death— He descended into the grave, into Hades, the holding place of the dead. He led those believers held captive there to heaven with Him. Then He gave gifts to His people. In either case, Paul's main point is that "He gave gifts", which he repeats in verse 11.
20. Some think Paul means "with His presence"; others, "with His working". There are other views.
21. This is from the noun "gospel" (see "good news" in 1 Cor 15:1). This person is a "gospel-izer", one who proclaims the good news of the gospel. Elsewhere only in Act 21:8 (Philip); and 2 Tim 4:5 (Timothy). GK 2296.
22. Used of shepherds of sheep, and metaphorically of Jesus. Elsewhere only in Mt 9:36; 25:32; 26:31; Mk 6:34; 14:27; Lk 2:8, 15, 18, 20; Jn 10:2, 11, 12, 14, 16; Heb 13:20; 1 Pet 2:25. GK 4478. Used only here in the sense of a spiritual gift and leader in the church. Only here has it been translated "pastor". The related verb, "to shepherd, to tend or feed the flock", is in 1 Pet 5:2 (where elders are to do it), and Act 20:28. Related to "flock" in 1 Pet 5:2.
23. Some think the grammar indicates that both these words— shepherds and teachers— refer to the same person in two roles, "shepherd-teachers"; others, to two people belonging to the same class (local church workers versus traveling workers like the first three) and sharing some responsibilities. Note that "apostles and prophets" has the same grammar in 2:20; 3:5.
24. Or, "With a view to". GK 4639. Not the same word as "for" in the next two phrases (GK 1650).
25. Or, "preparing, furnishing, training". This noun is used only here. GK 2938. Related to the verb "prepare" in Rom 9:22, which is rendered "fully trained" in Lk 6:40.
26. Or, "service". This work is where the gifts given to each one (v 7, 16) are put into action. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:5.
27. Or, "reach, arrive at, come to". On this word, see Act 26:7.
28. Same word as in v 3.
29. Or, "full knowledge". On this word, see Col 1:9.
30. Some think Paul means the unity of the faith in, and the knowledge of, the Son of God. That is, until the faith in and knowledge of Him is the same in all believers. Others think he means the unity consisting of the Son of God's faith and knowledge as the measure, similar to the lofty goal of the third phrase.
31. Or, "finished, complete, perfect". On this word, see "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10.
32. Or, "tossed up and down, back and forth", as by waves in the sea. Used only here. GK 3115. Related to "surge" in Jam 1:6.
33. Or, "cunning, sleight of hand". This word means "dice playing", from the word for "dice". Used only here. GK 3235.

2. Or, "scheming". Same word as in 6:11, the schemes of the devil. The planned system or method.
3. Or, "deception". On this word, see 1 Thes 2:3. Paul may mean the scheme characterized by error ("deceitful scheming"); or, leading to error; or, proceeding from error.
4. This is the verb related to "truth". Some think that here it means "adhering to the truth"; others, "living out the truth"; others, "speaking the truth of the gospel", in opposition to the error in v 14. Elsewhere only in Gal 4:16. GK 238. Related to "truth" in Jn 4:23.
5. Some take this with what follows, "truth, in love we may grow...", with "in" meaning "in the sphere of". Note that "in love" occurs again in v 16.
6. That is, into closer union with Him. Or, "to" Him as the goal. Or, "for" Him. GK 1650.
7. Same word as in 2:21.
8. Same word as in Col 2:19, and as "brought together" in Col 2:2. GK 5204.
9. Or, "support". That is, by what every joint supplies. Each Christian is a "joint" through which the life of Christ is "supplied" to the body as each joint "works" its "gift" according to the "measure" of "grace" given to it, producing the growth of the body. Elsewhere only as "provision" in Phil 1:19. GK 2221. The related verb is used in Col 2:19.
10. Same word as in 1:19; 3:7. On this noun, see Phil 3:21.
11. The body produces the growth of the body, like every other living organism.
12. Paul further details the worthy walk of 4:1 from the perspective of a departure from our former way of life.
13. Or, "affirm", as a witness to the truth. On this word, see 1 Thes 2:12.
14. Compare Act 15:23. Some manuscripts say "the rest of the Gentiles" [N].
15. This is a participle, "Being having been darkened", that is, being in a state of darkness. Or, "Having been darkened in their understanding, being excluded". Elsewhere only in Rev 9:2; 16:10. GK 5031. Related to "darkness" in Jn 3:19.
16. Or "alienated, estranged". Elsewhere only in Eph 2:12; Col 1:21, also of Gentiles. GK 558.

20. Or, "pursuit, business, working". Elsewhere only as "effort" in Lk 12:58; "business" in Act 19:24, 25; and "profit" in Act 16:16, 19. GK 2238. The root word is "work".
21. Or, "greediness". That is, with a desire for more and more. Related to "increase" in 2 Cor 8:15. Greed is a desire for increase. 27. Or, "deceit". Paul may mean the desires proceeding from deception, belonging to deception (deception's desires), or characterized by deception (deceptive or deceitful desires). On this word, see 2 Pet 2:13.
28. Or, "be becoming renewed, be getting yourself renewed". Used only here. GK 391. In the parallel passage in Col 3:10, Paul uses a different word.
29. Or, "wear" like a garment. On this word, see Rom 13:14. Same word as in 6:11, 14.
30. Or, "devoutness". Elsewhere only in Lk 1:75. GK 4009. Not related to the normal word for "holy". Related to "devoutly" in 1 Thes 2:10; and "holy" in Heb 7:26.
31. Some think Paul means "true holiness", holiness characterized by truth; others, "truth's holiness", holiness belonging to the truth. Compare "desires of deception" in v 22. In addition, some think "of truth" modifies "holiness" only; others, "righteousness and holiness".
32. Same word as in v 22.
33. Or, "falsehood". In this rendering, Paul is referring to the lie of their futile Gentile way of thinking and living, the falsehood about which they were darkened in their understanding. This introduces the commands given next. Or, this may only introduce the command to speak truth. In this case, point 4B. would be "Therefore", and point 1C. would be "Having laid aside falsehood, each...". On this word, see "falsehood" in Rev 14:5.
34. That is, we in the body of Christ. The whole body will suffer if you fail to speak truth.
35. This is the verb related to "anger" in v 31. This verse deals with the right kind of anger— anger against sin, evil, falsehood (v 25), not people (Mt 5:22, same word). Verse 31 deals with the wrong kind of anger. On this word, see Rev 11:18. Compare Ps 4:4.
36. This is a different word, but related to "be angry" earlier. It means the state of anger that results from provocation; the irritation, the exasperation, the angry mood. Used only here. GK 4240. Related to "provoke to anger" in 6:4.

11. Paul now forbids the opposites of God's kind of love.
12. That is, identified as part of your behavior. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:19.
13. Some manuscripts say "nor" here and next {N}, "nor filthiness, nor foolish talk, nor coarse joking".
14. Or, "indecentcy, obscenity, shamefulness" in word or deed. Used only here. GK 157. Related to "filthy language" in Col 3:8.
15. Or, "vulgar wittiness". Used only here. GK 2365.
16. Or, this may be a command, "know this". On this word, see 1 Jn 2:29.
17. Or, "knowing, understanding". Some think Paul means "you know to obey v 3-4, for you recognize that persons characterized by such things are not part of God's kingdom"; others, "you know this—recognizing [by your own experience]—that...". Others regard the repetition of "know" as similar (two different words are used here) to a Hebrew way of speaking which places emphasis on the knowing, "you know with certainty, you surely know". Others omit this word as redundant. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
18. Paul makes this connection also in Col 3:5. Some manuscripts say "who" {N}. "Idolater" is GK 1629.
19. In English, we prefer to say "that no sexually immoral... has".
20. Same phrase as in 2:2.
21. That is, of these sins. Elsewhere only in 3:6. GK 5212. The root word is "partakers" in Heb 3:1.
22. That is, characterized by light.
23. Some manuscripts say "Spirit" {A}.
24. Some think Paul means "in the sphere of"; others, "consisting in". GK 1877.
25. Or, "acceptable". Elsewhere only in Rom 12:1, 2; 14:18; 2 Cor 5:9; Phil 4:18; Col 3:20; Tit 2:9; Heb 13:21. GK 2298. Related to the words in 1 Thes 2:4 and Heb 11:5. On "approving", see Rom 12:2, where both these words also occur.
26. Or, "having fellowship with". On this word, see "co-partnered" in Phil 4:14.
27. Or, "rebuking, convicting, bringing to light". That is, expose them with a rebuke. "Expose" is used here to show the connection with what follows. Same word as in v 13; and in Mt 18:15; Jn 3:20. Elsewhere only as "rebuke" in Lk 3:19; 1 Tim 5:20; 2 Tim 4:2; Tit 1:13; 2:15; Heb 12:5; Rev 3:19; "convict" in Jn 8:46; 16:8; 1 Cor 14:24; Jam 2:9; Jude 15; and "refute" in Tit 1:9. GK 1794. Related to "rebuking" in 2 Tim 3:16.
28. This emphasizes why we should not participate in these works (v 11a). They are shameful to speak about, except in exposing them to God's light.
29. This explains why we should expose these works (v 11b).
30. Or, "are made visible". Or, "being exposed are made visible by the light". When we expose these works of darkness, they become visible to the person in God's light, visible for what they are in God's eyes. On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
31. This explains the value of making such works visible in God's light.
32. That is, as these works become visible in the light (v 13), they reflect the light, and become a light-source of God to the person. The light of God penetrates the darkness of such people by reflecting off their exposed deeds into their hearts, making it possible for them to respond to God. They either respond to this light, or run from it (compare Jn 3:19-21). There are other views on the flow and meaning of v 12-14. Consult the commentaries.
33. Or, "it says". Paul may mean that the one exposing the person's sin says this to the person. Thus the believer exposes the person's works, making them visible in God's light, which reflects into the heart. Here, the believer calls upon the person to respond to the light. Or, Paul may be quoting a written source unknown to us. Or, he may be paraphrasing from Isa 60:1. In any case, this is addressed to the spiritually dead one.
34. Or, "give light to, shine out to". Some render it figuratively, "enlighten". Used only here. GK 2213.
35. Through the light reflecting to this one from his exposed works of darkness, someone is able to call him to rise to new life and come out into the day. Respond to the light and receive a new life, and Christ will shine on you, transforming you now and forever. Compare Rom 13:11.
36. Paul further details the worthy walk with regard to our relationships in various spheres.
37. On this adverb, see "accurately" in Mt 2:8.
38. Some manuscripts reverse the words, "how carefully" {B}.
39. Or, "buying back, buying up" the time for the Lord. That is, making the most of the time, taking advantage of every opportunity, saving your time from being lost. Same phrase as in Col 4:5. Elsewhere only in Gal 3:13; 4:5. GK 1973. The root word is "buy".
40. Or, "opportunity, moment, occasion". Same word as "opportunity" in Gal 6:10.
41. Instead of a command, some manuscripts say "but ones understanding..." {N}. On this word, see Mt 13:23.
42. That is, "in connection with". GK 1877.
43. Or, "debauchery, profligacy". Elsewhere only in Tit 1:6; 1 Pet 4:4. GK 861. Related to the word used in Lk 15:13 of the prodigal son.

1. Or, "in, by means of". GK 1877. Some manuscripts omit this word, leaving it implied {C}.
2. Elsewhere only in Lk 20:42; 24:44; Act 1:20; 13:33; 1 Cor 14:26; Col 3:16. GK 6011. Our word "psalm" comes from this word.
3. Elsewhere only in Col 3:16. GK 5631. That is, a song of praise. The related verb is "sing praise" in Act 16:25. Our word "hymn" comes from this word.
4. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}. It is present in Col 3:16. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:1.
5. Elsewhere only in Col 3:16; Rev 5:9; 14:3; 15:3. GK 6046. Our word "ode" comes from this Greek word.
6. Elsewhere only in Col 3:16; Rev 5:9; 14:3; 15:3. GK 106. This is the verb related to "songs" preceding.
7. Or, "singing psalms, psalming, singing praise". Elsewhere only as "sing praise" in Rom 15:9; 1 Cor 14:15; Jam 5:13. GK 6010. This is the verb related to "psalms" preceding. Also used of "playing" the harp in the OT (as in 1 Sam 16:16, 17, 23). Paul may be referring to a distinction in the type of song, "singing-songs and singing-praises (or, psalms)"; or, to "singing and making melody (or, music)".
8. Or, "Submitting, Being subordinate, Subjecting yourselves". The root word means "to arrange, put in order" (see "establish" in Rom 13:1 on it). This word adds the prefix "under". Thus it means "to place under, to arrange under, to subordinate; to subject oneself, to submit voluntarily". This word is used of submission by Christ to the Father, 1 Cor 15:28, and His parents, Lk 2:51; of everything to Christ, 1 Cor 15:27, 28; Eph 1:22; Phil 3:21; of the church to Christ, Eph 5:24; of angels to Christ, 1 Pet 3:22; of Christians to one another, Eph 5:21; of Christians to the gospel, Rom 10:3; 2 Cor 9:13 (noun); of Christians to leaders, 1 Cor 16:16; of Christians to God, Jam 4:7; Heb 12:9; of demons to the apostles, Lk 10:17, 20; of people to government, Rom 13:1, 5; Tit 3:1; 1 Pet 2:13; of servants to masters, Tit 2:9; 1 Pet 2:18; of younger men to older, 1 Pet 5:5; of wives to husbands, Eph 5:24; 1 Cor 14:34; Col 3:18; Tit 2:5; 1 Pet 3:1, 5; 1 Tim 2:11 (noun); of children to parents, 1 Tim 3:4 (noun). Elsewhere only in Rom 8:7, 20; 1 Cor 14:32; Heb 2:5, 8. GK 5718. Related to "submission" in 1 Tim 2:11.
9. This word often means "fear" in the sense of "fright, terror", but also in the sense of "respect, awe, reverence", as in Lk 1:65; 5:26; 7:16; Act 2:43; 9:31; Rom 3:18; 13:7; 1 Pet 1:17. Used 47 times. GK 5832. The related verb is "respecting" in Eph 5:33.
10. Some manuscripts say "God"; others, "the Lord"; others, "Jesus Christ" {N}.
11. Some manuscripts say "Wives, be subject"; others, "Let wives be subject" {B}.
12. Using this same word, God is the head of Christ, 1 Cor 11:3; Christ is the head of the man, 1 Cor 11:3; the church, Eph 1:22; Col 1:18; all rule and authority, Col 2:10; and the husband is the head of the wife, 1 Cor 11:3. On this word, see Mk 12:10.
13. Some manuscripts say "and He Himself is the Savior..." {N}.
14. Or, "But, However". Although the husband is not the wife's savior, and therefore not her head in the same way as Christ is head of the church, she should act toward him as the church does toward Christ. Others render this word "Now, So, Even, Indeed", in which case Paul is emphasizing his point rather than giving a contrasting statement, making this point 2E. GK 247.
15. Some manuscripts say "their own" {K}.
16. That is, husbands must love their wives sacrificially, sacrificing themselves for the good of their wives. They are not saviors of their wives, but they should have the Savior's self-sacrificial love toward them.
17. Or, "make holy, set apart to God". On this word, see Heb 10:29.
18. Or, "cleansing", concurrently with the sanctifying. Some think this cleansing occurs prior to the sanctifying to present her holy, initiating it, and refers to the cleansing of salvation, or to water baptism in particular. Others think this cleansing occurs concurrently with the sanctifying, describing it; or is viewed from the standpoint of its final accomplishment. In this case, it is the lifelong cleansing work of the Word associated with sanctification. On this word, see Heb 9:22.
19. Or, "by, in".
20. Or, "bath", the washing place. Elsewhere only in Tit 3:5. GK 3373. Related to "wash" in 2 Pet 2:22.
21. Or, "with, in". This word means "in connection with, by means of, with the instrument of". GK 1877.
22. Some think Paul means "cleansed... by the word"; others, "the washing... by the word"; others, "sanctify... by the word". Some think this "word" is "the gospel", as this word is used in Rom 10:8, the "word of faith we proclaim"; others, the word of confession by the individual at baptism; others, the word of God, as this word is used in 6:17. On this word, see Rom 10:17.
23. That is, as a bride to a bridegroom, as in 2 Cor 11:2. On this word, see Rom 12:1. Some manuscripts say "in order that He might present her to Himself as the glorious..." {K}.
24. That is, "just as Christ", resuming from v 25— with sacrificial love for her. Just as Christ loved His body the church (v 25-27), husbands ought to love their wives as their bodies. The spiritual is the pattern for the earthly. Paul explains this in v 29-30. Others think this looks forward to the "as", "In this manner—as a person loves his own body— husbands should love their wives".
25. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
26. This is because she is his body. They are one flesh. Compare 1 Cor 7:3-4. Paul proves this in v 31-32.
27. Husbands "ought" to love their wives because this is how humans normally treat their bodies (v 29), and how Christ treats His body, the church (v 30). She is your body.
28. Some manuscripts say "the Lord" {N}.
29. On this concept, see Rom 12:4-5; 1 Cor 12:12-27. On this word, see Col 3:5.
30. Some manuscripts add "of His flesh and of His bones" {A}, that is, we are created from Christ as Eve was from Adam, Gen 2:23. We, the new creation, are the bride of the Last Adam, spiritually created from Him, and for Him.
31. Paul now quotes Gen 2:24 to prove the premise of v 28, that the wife is the husband's own body (compare 1 Cor 6:16). Some think this is quoted with reference to Christ, allegorically speaking of His first or second coming, making it point 1H.
32. So the one loving his wife is loving himself, v 28. The husband is the head of the wife, and the wife is the body of the husband. They are one. More literally, "be for one flesh", a Hebrew way of speaking.

- 4D. And fathers, do not be provoking your children to anger¹⁰, but be nourishing¹¹ them in the training¹² and admonition¹³ of the Lord 4

- 2C. And having put-on^O the breastplate of righteousness⁴⁰

1. Some think Paul is looking back to v 31. The mystery of this human one-flesh relationship is great, but I am applying it to Christ and the church. Others think this points forward to what follows in v 32. This mystery of which I am about to speak is great, but Christ and His church have a relationship similar to the human one. Note that v 32 relates to v 31 as v 30 does to v 29. Paul is linking the human (v 29 and 31) to Christ and the church (v 30 and 32). Thus he could have said here, "Just as Christ and the church, because the church is His bride" (to put it in the same form as v 30). They are one spirit, 1 Cor 6:17. He calls this a mystery because this relationship was not previously known, but has now been revealed by God. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
2. Note the emphasis on "I". This is not the primary meaning of Gen 2:24, "but I" am speaking of it in this way.
3. Some think Paul is referring to v 28. Husbands "ought to love" based on the reasons given, v 28-32. "Nevertheless", Paul now emphatically commands the husbands. Each of you personally and individually are to do this. It was a revolutionary idea to the men of that day. Others think he is referring to v 32, making this point 2G. The mystery is great, nevertheless, love your wives. Or, "I am speaking with reference to Christ, nevertheless you love your wives".
4. This idiom, "individually" is more literally "according to one", "in relation to one" (that is, a single one); "according to each". Elsewhere only in Jn 21:25; Act 21:19; Rom 12:5; 1 Cor 14:31. It is related to "one by one" in Mk 14:19.
5. This Greek construction giving the content of the command also occurs in 2 Cor 8:7.
6. This word is used 95 times, mostly to mean "fear, be afraid", as in Mt 2:22; Mk 5:33; Act 5:26. It is also used of "fear" in the sense of "reverence, respect, awe", as in Mt 9:8; Act 13:26; 1 Pet 2:17. Both meanings are found in Mt 10:28. Our "respect" for God should not contain any "fear, fright", 1 Jn 4:18; Rom 8:15 (noun). Only here is this word used of a wife to her husband. 1 Pet 3:2 uses the related noun of the wife, and 1 Pet 3:6 excludes "fear, fright" there as well. GK 5828. The related noun is "fear" in Eph 5:21.
7. That is, "obeying... in the Lord". Some manuscripts omit "in the Lord" {C}.

19. Compare Col 3:25. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b. Some manuscripts say "that whatever good thing each one does" {N}.
20. Or, "Abandoning, Deserting, Letting go". On this word, see "let go" in Heb 13:5.

It also means "ruling power, sovereignty", and is elsewhere only rendered "dominion" in 1 Tim 6:16; 1 Pet 4:11; 5:11; Jude 25; Rev 1:6; 5:13. GK 3197.

35. Or, "beings, hosts". Literally, "the spiritual ones".
36. Or, "stand against, oppose, withstand, set oneself against". Same root word as "stand" later in this verse. Same word as in Mt 5:39, "do not resist an evil person"; Lk 21:15; Act 6:10; Rom 9:19; 13:2; and in Jam 4:7 and 1 Pet 5:9, "resist the devil". Elsewhere only as "oppose" in Act 13:8; Gal 2:11; 2 Tim 3:8; 4:15. GK 468.
37. On this word, see "worked out" in Phil 2:12. Some think Paul means "having done, accomplished" all preparations for the battle; others, "having overcome" the enemy, having "worked him down" to the ground.
38. Or, "tied". That is, having prepared for work. People in that day tied up their garment around their waist to prepare for work. See 1 Pet 1:13 for a similar metaphor. Elsewhere only in Lk 12:35, 37; 17:8; and as "girded-with" in Rev 1:13; 15:6. GK 4322. The root word is "gird" in Act 12:8.
39. Some think Paul means objective truth, God's truth. Others think he means truthfulness, truth-speaking, truth-telling in the broadest sense; the state of living in harmony with God's truth in deed and word, intellectually and interpersonally, 4:15, 25. On this word, see Jn 4:23.
40. Some think Paul means objective, faith-righteousness, our unsailable position in Christ. Others think he means personal righteousness, character-righteousness, moral rectitude, devoutness, holy living, the state of living in harmony with God's holy character. Note 4:24; 5:9. 17. The idiom of "opening the mouth" to speak is elsewhere only in Mt 5:2; 13:35; Act 8:32, 35; 10:34; 18:14; Rev 13:6.
18. That is, consisting of the good news. Some manuscripts omit "of the good news" {A}.
19. Same word used of Paul in Act 28:20, when this letter may have been written (see Act 28:30).
20. Or, "in it". This word may modify "word" (meaning "with the word given"), or "mouth". In other words, pray that God would give me what to say, and that I would boldly speak it, as I ought. Or, rather than a second request, Paul may mean "In order that in connection with it [the mystery of the good news, v 19] I may speak boldly, as I ought", making this point 2F. Grammatically, it does not refer to "chain".
21. Or, "speak freely, speak openly". This word is used of Paul in Act 9:27, 28; 13:46; 14:3; 19:8; and of Apollos in Act 18:26. Elsewhere only as "speak openly" in Act 26:26; and "be bold" in 1 Thes 2:2. GK 4245. Related to "boldness" in v 19.
22. Paul's emphasis is on "you". Some think he means "you also, in addition to the Colossians". Compare Col 4:7. Some take this to mean that Colossians was written first.
23. See Act 20:4 on him. Compare Col 4:7-8.
24. Or, "come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
25. Or, "incorruptibility, immortality". On this word, see 1 Cor 15:42. This is the Greek word order. Some join this phrase with the first word, "Grace be... Christ, with immortality". Others link it to "loving". In this case some think Paul means "loving Him in a manner that is undecayable"; with a love that is undecaying, unfading, undiminishing, not growing cold. Others give this a positive meaning, "in sincerity", since a love that does not wane is a sincere love. Others think it refers to loving Christ "in union with immortality", that is, "forever". Some manuscripts add "amen" {A}.

4A. Finally my brothers, be rejoicing in the Lord	3:1
1B. Be watching out for the dogs. For we are the circumcision, the ones worshiping in the Spirit, and not putting confidence in flesh	3:2-4
1C. If any other person thinks he may have confidence in the flesh, I more	3:4-6
2C. But what things were gains to me, these I have regarded to be a loss for the sake of Christ	3:7
3C. I regard all things a loss, and I forfeited them for the sake of the knowledge of Christ	3:8
1D. In order that I might gain Christ and be found in Him with faith righteousness	3:9
2D. That I might know Him and His power, being conformed to His death and resurrection. Not that I have obtained it, but I press on to take hold of it	3:10-14
4C. Therefore, all who are mature— let us be thinking this	3:15-16
5C. Be imitators of me, brothers, for our citizenship is in heaven	3:17-21
6C. So then my beloved brothers, be standing firm in this manner	4:1
7C. I exhort Euodia and I exhort Syntyche to be thinking the same thing in the Lord	4:2-3
2B. Be rejoicing in the Lord always, again I will say, be rejoicing	4:4
3B. Let your kindness be known to all people	4:5
4B. Be anxious for nothing, but let your requests be made known to God	4:6-7
5B. Finally, brothers, be considering these things— the true, honorable, right, pure, lovely things	4:8
6B. Be practicing these things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me	4:9
5A. Now I rejoiced over your gift to me through Epaphroditus. My God will meet your needs	4:10-20
Conclusion	4:21-23

- A. Paul and Timothy, slaves^A of Christ Jesus¹ 1
- B. To all the saints^B in Christ Jesus being in Philippi,² together-with the overseers³ and deacons⁴
- C. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ 2
- 1A. I am giving-thanks^C to my God upon every remembrance⁵ of you—^{*}always in my every petition^D for you all⁶, making the petition with joy 3-4
- 1B. On-the-basis-of⁷ your partnership⁸ for⁹ the good-news^E from the first day until the present 5
- 2B. Being confident-of^F this very thing— that the One having begun a good^G work^H in you will perfect^{I0} it until the day of Christ Jesus^{I1} 6
- 1C. Just as it is right^I for me to think^K this^{I2} about^{I3} you all, because of my having you in my heart^{I4}— both^{I5} in my imprisonment^{I6}, and in the defense^L and confirmation^{I7} of the good-news— you all being my co-partners^{I8} of grace 7
- 1D. For God is my witness^M how I am yearning-for^N you all with the deep-feelings^{I9} of Christ Jesus 8
- 3B. And I am praying^O this— that your love may be abounding^P still more and more in²⁰ knowledge^Q and all perception²¹ 9
- 1C. So that you may be approving^R the things mattering²² 10
- 2C. In-order-that²³ you might be pure²⁴ and blameless²⁵ for²⁶ the day of Christ, ^{*}having been filled^S with the fruit^T of righteousness^U which comes through Jesus Christ 11
- 3C. To the glory^V and praise^W of God
- 2A. Now I want you to know, brothers^X, that the things concerning²⁷ me have come^Y rather²⁸ for the advancement²⁹ of the good-news^E 12

- 2B. And so that the majority of the brothers^X— being confident³³ in the Lord³⁴ *because-of*³⁵ my imprisonment— are more daring^Z to fearlessly speak the word³⁶ 14
- 1C. Some indeed speak because of envy^{AA} and strife^{BB}— but some also are proclaiming³⁷ Christ because of good-will^{CC} 15
- 1D. The³⁸ ones speak out of love, knowing that I am appointed³⁹ for the defense^L of the good-news^E 16
- 2D. But the others are proclaiming^{DD} Christ out of selfish-interest^{EE}, not purely⁴⁰, supposing⁴¹ to raise⁴² trouble^{FF} in my imprisonment⁴³ 17

1. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
2. Paul was in Philippi in Act 16:12-40 and 20:2, 6. On the writing of this letter, see Act 28:30.
3. Or, "superintendents, guardians". The Greek is episkopos, from which we get "episcopal". The KJV translates this word "bishop". Elsewhere only of leaders of the church (Act 20:28; 1 Tim 3:2; Tit 1:7); and of Jesus (1 Pet 2:25). GK 2176. These leaders were also called "elders" (Tit 1:5-7; 1 Tim 5:17). Related to "office-of-an-overseer" in 1 Tim 3:1; "exercising oversight" in 1 Pet 5:2; and "look after" in Heb 2:6.
4. Or, "servants, assistants, ministers". Our word "deacon" comes from this word, diakonos. Used of a leadership position only here and 1 Tim 3:8, 12; and perhaps in Rom 16:1 (of Phoebe). On this word, see "servants" in 1 Cor 3:5. Related to "serve" in 1 Tim 3:10.
5. Or, "on the basis of my entire remembrance".
6. This is the Greek word order. Or, "for you all" may be placed with what follows, "petition, making the petition for you all with joy".
7. Or, "For", in the sense of "Because of", as in 1 Thes 3:9. In any case, it is the reason for Paul's thanksgiving. GK 2093.
8. Or, "fellowship, contribution, participation, sharing". Same word as in 3:10; and as "fellowship" in 2:1. On this word, see "fellowship" in 1 Cor 1:9. Related to "partnered" in 4:15; "co-partners" in 1:7; and "co-partnered" in 4:14. Some think Paul is referring to the Philippians' partnership in the advancement of the gospel in general; others, to their partnership in providing financial support to Paul in particular, 4:15; others, both.
9. That is, "with reference to, regarding, in". Same word as in 2:22.
10. Or, "complete, accomplish, finish, bring to completion". On this word, see 2 Cor 7:1.
11. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {N}.
12. That is, to have this confidence in God with reference to you, since you are in my heart as partners of grace.
13. Or, "with reference to". GK 5642.
14. Some render this "because of your having me in your heart".
15. This is the Greek word order of this verse. Some think Paul means "having you in my heart both in... good news"; others, "You all being my co-partners of grace both in... good news".
16. This word means "bonds, bindings, fetters", and then "imprisonment". Same word as in Act 20:23; 23:29; 26:31; Phil 1:13, 14, 17; Col 4:18; 2 Tim 2:9; Phm 10, 13. Elsewhere only as "binding" in Mk 7:35; and "bonds" in Lk 8:29; 13:16; Act 16:26; 26:29; Heb 11:36; Jude 6. "Bond" does not specifically mean "chain", but it can refer to the more specific words like "chains and shackles", as in Lk 8:29. GK 1301. Related to "prisoner" in Eph 3:1, and "jailer".
17. Or, "establishment". Elsewhere only in Heb 6:16. GK 1012. Related to "confirmed" in 1 Cor 1:6.

19. Or, "heart, affections". This word means "bowels, inward parts" (as in Act 1:18), and then the "deep feelings" stirring there— feelings of compassion (Col 3:12), affection, mercy (Lk 1:78), anger (not in NT), etc. It is used of the home of these feelings (often translated "heart"), and of the emotions or feelings themselves. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:78; 2 Cor 6:12; 7:15; Phil 2:1; Col 3:12; Phm 7, 12, 20; 1 Jn 3:17. GK 5073. Related to "to have deep feelings" in Mt 9:36.
20. Some think Paul means "in the sphere of"; others, "with, by means of". GK 1877.

22. Or, "being worth more, more valuable, excellent, essential". Same phrase as in Rom 2:18. The word means "to differ" (as in 1 Cor 15:41; Gal 4:1); "to make a difference" (as in Gal 2:6). Here it refers to things that "differ" in that they "are better, more important, more valuable, superior, essential, excellent", or some think "right". Same word as "worth" in Mt 6:26. Used 13 times. GK 1422. Compare Eph 5:10. On the related adjective, "different, more excellent", see Heb 8:6.
23. Or, "That", making this a second request, parallel with "that your love" in v 9. GK 2671.
24. Purity of motive is the idea. Elsewhere only in 2 Pet 3:1. GK 1637. Related to "purity" in 2 Cor 1:12.
25. Or, "without an opportunity for stumbling". On this word, see 1 Cor 10:32.
26. Or, "in, until". Same word as "for" in Eph 4:30; 2 Pet 2:9; 3:7. GK 1650. Not the same word as "until" in v 6 (GK 948).
27. That is, my circumstances. On this phrase see "for my part" in Rom 1:15.
28. Or, "more". That is, rather than what you might think. Paul's circumstances have come not to hinder, but rather to advance the gospel.
29. Or, "progress, furtherance". Same word as in 1:25. Elsewhere only as "progress" in 1 Tim 4:15. GK 4620. Related to "advance" in 2 Tim 2:16.
30. That is, "in connection with". Others take this with what follows, so that it says "became known to be in Christ", the Greek word order.
31. Or, "known". On this word, see "evident" in Rom 1:19.
32. Or, "palace, governor's headquarters, governor's residence". That is, Caesar's palace or headquarters. This is a transliterated Latin word. 33. Or, "having confidence, putting confidence, trusting". On this word, see "persuade" in 1 Jn 3:19.
34. The Greek word order is "brothers in the Lord being confident". Some render it "brothers in the Lord— being confident".

- 1C). Through your prayer, and *the provision*⁶ of the Spirit of Jesus Christ
- 2C). According-to⁷ my eager-expectation⁸ and hope^D that I will in no way be put-to-shame^E, but that with all boldness^F, as always, even now Christ will be magnified⁹ in my body, whether by life or by death—^{*}for to me, the living is Christ, and the dying¹⁰ is gain¹¹ 20

- 2C). Because²⁷ to you was granted²⁸ the *thing*²⁹ for Christ's sake— not only the believing in Him, but also the suffering^{BB} for His sake,^{*} having the same struggle³⁰ such as you saw in me, and now are hearing to be in me 29
- 5B). If then³¹ *there is*³² any encouragement³³ in³⁴ Christ, if any consolation³⁵ of love³⁶, if any fellowship³⁷ of the Spirit, if any deep-feelings^{CC} and compassions³⁸, ^{*}fill-up³⁹ my joy⁴⁰— 2:1

1. This phrase, "except that" occurs elsewhere only in Act 20:23. Some manuscripts omit "that" {N}. Others render this "What then? Only that..."
2. Or, "false motive, pretext", a falsely-alleged motive hiding the true intent. Same word as in Mk 12:40; Lk 20:47; Act 27:30. Elsewhere only as "excuse" in Jn 15:22; and "pretext" in 1 Thes 2:5. GK 4733.

Elsewhere only as "announce" in Act 3:24. GK 2859. Related to "proclaimer" in Act 17:18. Compare the word in 2 Tim 4:2.
4. That is, the advancement of the gospel (v 12), through Paul (v 13), and through the brothers (v 14-18).
5. Or, "preservation". Same word as in Act 7:25. On this word, see "salvation" in Lk 19:9.
6. Or, "supply". On this word, see "supply" in Eph 4:16.
7. Or, "Based on". GK 2848.
8. Elsewhere only in Rom 8:19. GK 638.
9. On this word, see "enlarged" in 2 Cor 10:15.
10. Paul's grammar is referring to the moment of death, the end of this life associated with "death" earlier. One may substitute the previous nouns to which these participles refer, "life is Christ, death is gain". The reason death is gain is given in v 23.
11. Or, "advantage, profit". On this word, see 3:7.
12. That is, Paul has not yet gained knowledge of his own choice in the matter. Or, "make known" (as this word is used in its other 24 occurrences), "reveal, declare". GK 1192. In this case, Paul means he is not revealing his own choice between these two desires that grip him, but is convinced by outside factors that he must remain, v 25.
13. Some manuscripts say "for" {K}.
14. Or, "controlled, governed". On this word, see "controls" in 2 Cor 5:14. Same word as "held" in Lk 12:50.
15. On this word, see Lk 12:36. This is a euphemism for death. Related to "departure" in 2 Tim 4:6.
16. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
17. That is, the matter or content of your boast. Elsewhere only in 2:16; Rom 4:2; 1 Cor 5:6; 9:15, 16; 2 Cor 1:14; 5:12; 9:3; Gal 6:4; Heb 3:6. GK 3017. Related to "boasting" in 2 Cor 7:4.
18. That is, irrespective of "my presence again with you" (v 26), my deliverance (v 19). On this word, see "alone" in Jam 2:24.
19. Or, "conducting your citizenship, living your citizen-life, performing your duties as citizens" of heaven (see 3:20, same root word). The root word is "citizen". Elsewhere only in Act 23:1. GK 4488. Related to "citizen" in Heb 8:11; and "citizenship" in Eph 2:12.
20. This phrase, "the things concerning you" also occurs in 2:19, 20. See also 2:23; Col 4:8; Eph 6:22.
21. That is, as in an athletic contest. Elsewhere only in 4:3. GK 5254. Related to "compete" in 2 Tim 2:5.

23. Or, "the ones being hostile, contrary, in opposition, adversaries". Same word as in Lk 13:17; 21:15; 1 Cor 16:9; 2 Thes 2:4; 1 Tim 5:14. Elsewhere only as "is contrary to" in Gal 5:17; 1 Tim 1:10. GK 512.
24. Or, "a proof, a pointing to". On this word, see "demonstration" in Rom 3:25. Related to "evidence" in 2 Thes 1:5; and "demonstrate" in Eph 2:7.
25. Some manuscripts say "but to you of salvation" {N}.
26. Grammatically, this does not directly modify "salvation" or "sign". Some think it modifies the whole idea of a sign to you of salvation. This sign, seen in your behavior, comes from God. Others think it refers to the sign and destiny it points to for both groups. Others, connecting this phrase with a dash, think it refers to the standing firm, contending, and not being frightened. This confident response to the opposition, which is a sign to all, comes to you from God.
27. That is, I urge this (v 27-28) because you share my suffering and struggle. Others link this to "And this from God", making it point 1D. This sign of salvation seen in your response to opposition is from God because it indicates He has given you the double blessing of believing in Him and suffering for Him (Act 5:41).
28. On this word, see "freely give" in 1 Cor 2:12. The root word is "grace". Compare 1 Pet 4:13.
29. This is the Greek word order. Some think this points to the twofold phrase that follows, the believing and the suffering. It may be rendered "the following thing". Others think it refers to the suffering only, the "believing" being added to emphasize it by contrast. It may be rendered "the suffering".
30. Or, "conflict, fight". On this word, see "race" in Heb 12:1. Same word as the good "fight" of faith in 1 Tim 6:12.
31. Some think the connection is "If then as ones sharing in this struggle", 1:30; others, "If then as ones walking worthily", 1:27; others, "If then while awaiting my deliverance from prison", 1:13-19.
32. Grammatically, the "if" means "assuming that it is true that". Some think Paul means "If you have any of these things for me in my imprisonment, then fill up my joy (which I already have in the gospel being preached, 1:19) to overflowing by thinking and living with the same selfless love as Christ". Others think he means "If I have a relationship with you based on any of these things, let me exhort you to fill up my joy"; others, "If these things exist in you, then put them into action by filling up my joy".
33. Or, "comfort, exhortation". On this word, see Act 4:36.
34. That is, "in the sphere of Christ", Christian encouragement.
35. Or, "comfort". Used only here. GK 4172. Related to the word in 1 Cor 14:3; and "encourage" in 1 Thes 5:14.
36. That is, proceeding from love, originating in love. On this word, see 1 Jn 4:16.
37. Or, "partnership of spirit". Same word as "partnership" in 1:5.
38. Or, "acts of compassion". On this word, see Rom 12:1.
39. Or, "fulfill, make full, complete". Same word as in 4:18, 19. Used 86 times, but as a command only here, Eph 5:18 (which is passive, "be filled"), and Mt 23:32 ("fill up", same exact form). On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18.
40. Same root word as "rejoice" in 1:19. I am rejoicing, I will rejoice, so you make my rejoicing full. On this word, see Lk 24:52.

- 2D. Not each looking-out-for¹² your own things, but also¹³ each the things of others
- 2C. Be thinking¹⁴ this¹⁵ in you,¹⁶ which also was in Christ Jesus

- 2E. Having come²² in the likeness²³ of humans²⁴

1. The word "that" refers to the content of Paul's joy, just as in 1:9 it refers to the content of his prayer. GK 2671.
2. That is, that you may be likeminded, having the same mind. On this phrase, see Rom 12:16.
3. Others make these four separate items, in which case both the words "while" would be replaced by a comma.
4. Or, "harmonious, of one accord". This adjective is made of two words, "soul" and a prefix meaning "together". Used only here. GK 5249.
5. Or, "being intent on the one thing". We become harmonious by all focusing our minds on one thing. Some think the one thing is self-sacrificial love, as mentioned in the previous phrase, and further described negatively and positively in v 3-4, and exemplified by Christ in v 5-8. Others think this is another way of saying "being likeminded".
6. Or, "in keeping with, in accordance with, by way of, in relation to". GK 2848.
7. Or, "selfish-ambition". Same word as in 1:17.
8. Or, "empty glory", falsely thinking you are something. Used only here. GK 3029. Related to "conceited" in Gal 5:26.
9. Or, "lowliness of mind, humility". This word is made of two words, "humble" and "mind". Same word as in Act 20:19; Eph 4:2; Col 3:12; 1 Pet 5:5. Elsewhere only as "humility" in Col 2:18, 23. GK 5425. Related to "be humble" in v 8; "humbleminded" in 1 Pet 3:8; and "lowly" in Jam 1:9.
10. That is, taking the lead in thinking of one another this way. Same word as in v 6.
11. Or, "being superior, better than". Same word as in 3:8 and 4:7. Elsewhere only as "superior" in Rom 13:1; 1 Pet 2:13. GK 5660.
12. Or, "watching, keeping eyes on". Same word as "watching" in 3:17.
13. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
14. Or, "setting your mind on". Same word as twice in v 2; and in 1:7; 2:2, 5; 3:15, 19; 4:2, 10. On this word, see Rom 8:5. Some manuscripts begin this sentence with "For" {B}.
15. That is, that which was just described—selfless, self-sacrificial love.
16. That is, be thinking this in your hearts and minds, or setting your hearts and minds on this.
17. Or, "existing". Or, "although being". Paul is describing Christ's state before He became a man. This word is an alternative word for the common verb "to be", and is used in this sense 45 times. It is also used of things "belonging" to a person in Act 4:32, 37; "being present" in a person, 2 Pet 1:8; and as an idiom, "possessions" (see Heb 10:34). GK 5639.
18. Or, "shape, appearance". This is a clear statement that Christ existed as God before He took the "form" (v 7, same word) of a slave. Elsewhere only in Mk 16:12. GK 3671. An angel could appear in the "form" of a human. But no finite being could ever be said to exist in the "form" of the infinite God, or to be "equal" with Him.
19. Same word as in Jn 5:18 (where Jesus was calling God His own Father, "making Himself equal with God"), and as in Mt 20:12; Lk 6:34; Rev 21:16. Elsewhere only as "identical" in Mk 14:56, 59; Act 11:17. GK 2698.
20. Or, "a booty, a prize to be hoarded; a seizing, robbery". Used only here. GK 772. Related to "plunder" in Heb 10:34; and "snatch away" in 2 Cor 12:2. This word means actively "a seizing, a robbery", and passively, "the thing seized, the prize, the booty, the plunder". Some think Paul means Jesus did not regard His equality as a robbery, a usurpation, as something not His by right and nature. In other words, He emptied Himself of what was truly His. Others think He means Jesus did not regard His equality as a treasure to be grasped and held on to, but emptied Himself. In any case, the point of the context is self-sacrifice of rights.
21. This word means "to empty, to make void, to make of no effect". Same word as in 1 Cor 9:15. Elsewhere only as "be made empty" in Rom 4:14; 1 Cor 1:17; 2 Cor 9:3. GK 3033. Related to "empty" in 1 Thes 2:1. Compare Jn 1:14; 2 Cor 8:9.
22. Or, "come into being", and in this sense, "been born". On this word, see Gal 4:4.
23. Or, "outward appearance, form". Elsewhere only in Rom 1:23; 5:14; 6:5; 8:3; Rev 9:7. GK 3930. Related to "become like" in Mt 13:24.
24. Or, "men". Same word as "man" in v 8. Paul could be referring to the "male-ness" of Jesus here also, or he could be referring more broadly to His "human-ness". This word, anthropos, is used both ways. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
25. Or, "form, shape". That is, in contrast to His true inner nature. Elsewhere only as "form" in 1 Cor 7:31. GK 5386. Josephus used this word of a king who took off his kingly robes and put on sackcloth, taking on a humble "outward appearance".
26. Note that Jesus humbled Himself as God by becoming a man, and then humbled Himself as a man as well. On this word, see 4:12.
27. Some manuscripts say "a name" {B}.
28. Or, "so that every knee will bow... and every tongue will..." GK 2671.
29. Same word as in 3:19. Elsewhere only in Jn 3:12; 1 Cor 15:40; 2 Cor 5:1; Jam 3:15. GK 2103.
30. Used only here. GK 2973. This word refers to the netherworld, the world of the dead. Compare Rev 5:3.
31. Or, "openly acknowledge". Some do so by choice; others will find themselves with no other choice. Some manuscripts say "and every tongue will confess-out..." {C}. Same word as Rom 14:11. On this word, see Jam 5:16.
32. That is, obeyed God. On this word, see Act 6:7. Related to "obedient" in v 8.
33. Work out in action what God put inside. Work out the things for which you have been taken hold, 3:12; the works God has created for you, Eph 2:10. Same word as in 1 Pet 4:3. Elsewhere only as "work" in Eph 6:13; "accomplish" in Rom 15:18; "produce" in Rom 5:3; 7:8, 13, 15, 17, 18, 20; 2 Cor 4:17; 7:10, 11; 9:11; 12:12; Jam 1:3; "bring about" in Rom 4:15; "commit" in Rom 1:27; 2:9; 1 Cor 5:3; and "made" in 2 Cor 5:5. GK 2981.
34. This phrase "fear and trembling" is also in 1 Cor 2:3; 2 Cor 7:15; Eph 6:5. "Trembling" is elsewhere only in Mk 16:8, paired with "astonishment". GK 5571. The related verb is in Mk 5:33.
35. Some manuscripts omit this word {A}. Some think "not... absence" modifies the "obeyed" phrase; others, the "working-out" phrase. In the Greek word order, it stands between the two phrases.
36. Same word as later in this verse. Related to "work-out". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:11.
37. Or, "For the One working in you is God—both to will and to work..."
38. Or, "the willing, desiring". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
39. Some think Paul means that God is working in you "to carry out His will and work through you". Others think He means God is working in you "both that you may want and work"; that is, to create in you both the desire and the work. Note Eph 2:10. We must work this out in our lives with the utmost seriousness, Phil 3:13.

10. That is, for no result or purpose. On this word, see "empty" in 1 Thes 2:1. Paul hopes that their growth will be something he can boast about on that day, boasting that his work was fruitful, not empty.
11. After the exhortations, Paul now reflects further on his outlook stated in point 3B. This idiom means "assuming that I even am being poured out...., I am rejoicing". He is not questioning whether or not he is being poured out, but is stating his position even assuming this to be the case. On this grammar, compare Mk 14:29.
12. Or, "pouring-myself out". That is, as a sacrificial offering. On this word, see 2 Tim 4:6, where Paul says "I am being poured out".

31. Some think Paul is referring to the command to rejoice, which he already commanded the Philippians in 2:18. Others think this refers to the threefold repetition that follows; others, to some previous oral instruction; others, to the warning to stand firm against opponents already made in 1:27-28.

28. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between this phrase and the next.
29. Used only here. GK 2085. The root word is "stretch out" in Act 27:30.
30. On this word, see 1 Cor 9:24, run to win the prize.
31. Or, "above". Some think Paul means "for the prize belonging to my calling [from] above from God", that is, the "crown" due him for finishing his calling, the course God called him to, 2 Tim 4:7-8; others, "for the prize belonging to my calling [to salvation] [from] above from God", that is, my heavenly reward as a Christian; others, "for the prize consisting of the upward calling from God", that is, the prize of "departing and being with Christ" (1:23) at the end of his "pressing on" here. Same word as in Jn 11:41. Elsewhere only as "up" in Heb 12:15; "above" in Jn 8:23; Act 2:19; Gal 4:26; Col 3:1, 2; and "top" in Jn 2:7. GK 539.
32. This is the Greek word order. Some think Paul means "the prize... from God"; others, "the calling from God".
33. On this word, see "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10. Same root word as "perfected" in v 12.
34. Or, "having this mind". On this word, see Rom 8:5.
35. Or, "otherwise". Used only here. GK 2284.
36. If you are thinking something differently on this subject—and therefore less maturely than Paul—God will reveal this less mature thinking to you. Compare Jn 7:17. Nevertheless, keep walking in what you know, while pressing on.
37. Or, "arrived, reached". On this word, see "came" in 1 Thes 2:16.
38. Or, "following in order". On this word, see Gal 5:25. Live what you know. Compare Rom 14:6, 22. Some manuscripts say "by the same rule let us walk in line, let us think the same thing" {A}.
39. Or, "Become". GK 1181.
40. Used only here. GK 5213. Related to "imitator" in Eph 5:1.
41. That is, watching them as examples. On this word, see "look for" in 2 Cor 4:18.

43. Or, "setting their minds on". Same word as in v 15; 4:2.
44. Or, "commonwealth, state, community". Used only here. GK 4487. We are foreigners here, resident aliens, 1 Pet 2:11.

46. Or, "humiliation, humble condition". On this word, see Jam 1:10.
47. Or, "like-in-appearance". This adjective is elsewhere only in Rom 8:29. GK 5215. Related to "conform" in 3:10. The root word is "form" in 2:6-7, where Christ in the "form" of God took on the "form" of a slave. We will be "like" Jesus, says 1 Jn 3:2, using a different word.
48. Or, "based on, by way of". GK 2848.
49. Or, "operation, action". Elsewhere only in Eph 1:19; 3:7; 4:16; Col 1:29; 2:12; 2 Thes 2:9, 11. GK 1918. Related to "works" in 1 Cor 12:11; and "effective" in Heb 4:12.

1. Same phrase as in 2:2. Between exhortations to all his readers, Paul addresses these two women directly, individually, and publicly. The details are not given. He may be addressing them regarding the big issue just discussed. In this case, he means they each should be thinking the same thing as Paul on this matter, the same "mature thinking" he has just outlined. Perhaps they were hanging on to the things of Judaism and not pressing on like Paul. Or, he may mean they should be thinking the same thing as each other, be like-minded. In this case, Paul would be referring to some personal disagreement with no relation to the context here, and this would be point 2B. It would be an aside, somewhat like 1 Tim 5:23.
2. Some manuscripts say "And" {K}.
3. This word means "paired or yoked together", and is used of a wife or a "yoke-fellow". Used only here. GK 5187. The identity of this man is unknown to us. Some take this word as a name "Syzygus", though this name is not known elsewhere in Greek.
4. Used only here by Paul. Elsewhere in this sense only in Lk 5:7. "Be taking hold with them". On this word, see "concerned" in Lk 2:21.
5. That is, they fought in the battle alongside Paul. On this word, see 1:27.
6. On the "book of life", see Rev 3:5.
7. Here Paul returns to where he started in 3:1.
8. Or, "gentleness, graciousness, reasonableness, fairness". Elsewhere only as "kind" in 1 Tim 3:3; Tit 3:2; Jam 3:17; 1 Pet 2:18. GK 2117. Related to "kindness" in Act 24:4. Note "gentleness and kindness" in 2 Cor 10:1.
9. Some place this sentence with the next point. The motivation it provides fits in both places. "Near" can mean physically "close by" (as in Eph 2:13, 17; Act 1:12), or close in time (as in Rom 13:11; Rev 1:3). On this word, see Lk 21:30.
10. Or, "protect, keep". On this word, see "kept in custody" in Gal 3:23.
11. Or, "thoughts". On this word, see 2 Cor 3:14.
12. Or, "praiseworthy, attractive, favorable". Used only here. GK 2368. Related to "good report" in 2 Cor 6:8.
13. Or, "moral excellence". On this word, see 2 Pet 1:3.
14. Or, "doing, accomplishing; be engaged in, carrying out". Note that v 8 is what to think; v 9 is what to do. On this word, see Rom 2:1.
15. Or, "caused to bloom or blossom again". Used only here. GK 352.
16. Or, "with reference to, concerning, for". GK 5642. "Thinking about" is the same phrase as in 1:7. On "thinking", see 2:5.
17. Or, "upon whom". That is, upon the thing about me, upon my circumstance. On this phrase, see "for which" in 3:12.
18. Same word as in v 9. This is the common verb "to learn", whether from instruction, inquiry, or experience. Used 25 times. GK 3443.
19. Or, "independent, self-sufficient" in the Lord. Used only here. GK 895. Related to "sufficiency" in 2 Cor 9:8.
20. That is, in whatever my circumstances are at the time.
21. Or, "made low". Like Jesus, same word as 2:8. Same word as in Mt 18:4; 23:12; Lk 14:11; 18:14; 2 Cor 11:7; 12:21; Jam 4:10; 1 Pet 5:6. Elsewhere only as "made low" in Lk 3:5. GK 5427. Related to "lowly" in Jam 1:9.
22. Or, "I have been instructed, I have been initiated". Used only here. GK 3679. Paul may mean that he has "learned the secret [of how to be content in]", or "been instructed [in how to be content in]" both being filled and hungering. The secret is v 13. Or, he may mean that he "has been instructed", or "learned the secret [which is]" both to be filled and to hunger. The secret is being both filled and hungry at the same time—filled with food, hungry for the Lord; abounding in the Lord, in need of things. This would be similar to "having nothing yet holding on to all things", 2 Cor 6:10; "abundance of joy and down deep poverty", 2 Cor 8:2; "when I am weak, then I am powerful", 2 Cor 12:10; "a slave, but the Lord's freedperson", 1 Cor 7:22; "the lowly boasting in his height, the rich in his lowliness", Jam 1:9. The secret Paul learned was to look at life in both dimensions at the same time in any and all circumstances.
23. Or, "to be satisfied, to eat one's fill". Same word as in Mt 5:6; 14:20; 15:33, 37; Mk 6:42; 7:27; 8:4, 8; Lk 6:21; 9:17; 15:16; 16:21; Jn 6:26; Rev 19:21. Elsewhere only as "filled" in Jam 2:16. GK 5963.
24. Or, "come short, lack". On this word, see Lk 15:14. Same root word as "need" in v 11, and "lack" in 2:30.
25. Or, "am strong-enough for". GK 2710. Same word as in Gal 5:6.
26. Or, "in, in union with". GK 1877.
27. Some manuscripts say "Christ strengthening me" {A}.
28. Or, "making me strong". On this word, see "become strong" in 2 Tim 2:1.
29. Or, "acted commendably". On this idiom, see Act 10:33.
30. Or, "participated, shared-together". Elsewhere only as "participate" in Eph 5:11; Rev 18:4. GK 5170. Related to "co-partner" in 1:7, and "shared" in 4:15.
31. That is, on Paul's first journey to Achaia, when he left Macedonia for Athens in Act 17:14.
32. Or, "shared". That is, only the Philippians helped Paul financially to reach others. He did not accept support from those he ministered to, including the Philippians when he was there. They sent money to him to help him reach those in Thessalonica. On this word, see "share" in 2 Jn 11. Related to "co-partnered" in v 14; and to "partnership" in 1:5.
33. That is, even in the beginning, before I even left Macedonia; even in Thessalonica, before I went to Berea. Paul left them for Thessalonica in Act 17:1, went to Berea in Act 17:10, then left Macedonia in Act 17:14.
34. That is, once and again, more than once, several times. Same phrase as 1 Thes 2:18.
35. Same word as in Mt 12:39; 16:4; Lk 4:42; Act 19:39; Rom 11:7; Heb 11:14; 13:14. Elsewhere only as "seek after" in Mt 6:32; Lk 12:30; "search for" in Act 12:19; and "seek" in Act 13:7. GK 2118. The root word is "seek" in 2:21.

1. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
2. Or, "holy". On this word, see "holy" in 1 Pet 1:16.
3. Used 67 times, this adjective means "faithful, believing", and sometimes, "believer"; and "trustworthy" (see 1 Tim 1:15). GK 4412. The related verb is "believe" in Jn 3:36.
4. Paul did not minister in this city in the province of Asia (2:1). It was probably reached by his associate Epaphras (v 7) during Paul's ministry in Ephesus in Act 19:10. On the writing of this letter, see Act 28:30.
5. Some manuscripts add "and the Lord Jesus Christ"; others, "and Jesus Christ our Lord" {A}.
6. Some manuscripts say "to the God and Father..." {C}.
7. Some think Paul means "giving thanks always", as in 1 Cor 1:4; 1 Thes 1:2; 2 Thes 1:3. Others think Paul means "praying always", as in v 9. In the Greek, as in the English, "always" stands between the two phrases.
8. Some think Paul means the Colossians have this love because of the hope, as the fruit of the hope. The Christian life is faith working through love (Gal 5:6), energized by hope. Others think he is referring back to both faith and love. Others think he means "we are giving thanks... because of".
9. Same word as in v 23, 27; Act 23:6; Rom 5:2; 8:24; 1 Cor 13:13; 2 Cor 1:7; Eph 1:18; 2:12; Phil 1:20; 1 Tim 1:1; Tit 1:2; 2:13; Heb 6:11; 1 Jn 3:3. Used 53 times. GK 1828. The related verb is in Jn 5:45.

13. On this word, see Jn 3:30. Same word as in v 10. Some manuscripts omit "and growing" {N}.
14. Or, "among". GK 1877.
15. This is an idiom, literally, "from which day". Same phrase as in v 9. See Rev 16:18 on it.
16. Or, "fully understood, knew, fully knew, recognized, acknowledged". Used elsewhere by Paul only as "understand" in 2 Cor 1:13, 14; "know" in Rom 1:32; 2 Cor 13:5; 1 Tim 4:3; "fully know" in 1 Cor 13:12; 2 Cor 6:9; and "acknowledge" in 1 Cor 14:37; 16:18. Used elsewhere 32 times, mostly as "know, recognize, learn". GK 2105. The related noun is "knowledge" in v 9.
17. Paul may mean "in reality, truly". Or he may mean "in its true form" vs. the false teaching there. On this word, see Jn 4:23.
18. Paul ties the Colossians' faith directly to Epaphras. Paul is showing them that what they heard from Epaphras is the truth of the gospel, the same gospel that is bearing fruit in all the world. It was faithfully delivered by Epaphras. The false teaching they are now hearing, and which he addresses in this book, did not come from Epaphras.
19. Some manuscripts add "also" {N}.
20. Epaphras is also mentioned in 4:12, and Phm 23. Paul takes pains here to establish his reliability. GK 2071.
21. Or, "minister". On this word, see 1 Cor 3:5.
22. Some manuscripts say "our" {B}.
23. That is, having heard of their growing faith and love, v 4. Compare Col 1:4, 9 with Eph 1:15-17.
24. Or, "full knowledge, recognition, understanding, acknowledgment". Same word as in Rom 1:28; 3:20; 10:2; Eph 1:17; 4:13; Phil 1:9; Col 1:10; 3:10; 1 Tim 2:4; 2 Tim 2:25; 3:7; Tit 1:1; Phm 6; Heb 10:26; 2 Pet 1:2, 3, 8; 2:20. Elsewhere only as "full knowledge" in Col 2:2. GK 2106. The related verb is "understand" in v 6.

29. Or, "based on, in accordance with". GK 2848.
30. That is, belonging to His glory; or, characterized by His glory, His glorious might. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:10.
31. Or, "all". On this phrase, see "total pleasing" in v 10.
32. This is the Greek word order. Some take "with joy" with what precedes, so that it says "... and patience with joy, giving thanks...".
33. Or, "made fit, competent, adequate, sufficient". Elsewhere only as "made sufficient" in 2 Cor 3:6. GK 2655. Some manuscripts say "called" {B}.
34. Some manuscripts say "us" {B}.
35. Or, "portion, share", that which results from a division. Same word as in Lk 10:42; Act 8:21. Elsewhere only as "share" in 2 Cor 6:15; and "district" in Act 16:12. GK 3535. "Part" and "share" are used together also in Act 8:21, "you have no part nor share in this matter".
36. Or, "portion, allotment", that which is assigned by lot. Here, the context gives it the idea of "inheritance", the share we inherit from our Father. Same word as in Act 1:17; 8:21; 26:18. Elsewhere only of casting "lots" in Mt 27:35; Mk 15:24; Lk 23:34; Jn 19:24; Act 1:26; and of an assigned "lot" of people in 1 Pet 5:3. GK 3102. Related to "allotted" in Eph 1:11; "allotted to" in Act 17:4.
37. Some think Paul means "qualified you... by the light" (the gospel); others, "the share... in the kingdom of the light"; others, "of the saints who are in the light", that is, in heaven, in the presence of God; others, "of the holy ones [angels] who are in the light".
38. Or, "rescued, saved". Elsewhere only in Mt 6:13; 27:43; Lk 1:74; Rom 7:24; 11:26; 15:31; 2 Cor 1:10; 1 Thes 1:10; 2 Thes 3:2; 2 Tim 3:11; 4:17, 18; 2 Pet 2:7, 9. GK 4861.
39. Or, "jurisdiction, dominion, power". On this word, see Rev 6:8.
40. That is, the Son who is the object of His love, His beloved Son. Compare 3:12. Same word as in v 4.
41. On this word, see Rom 3:24. Some manuscripts add "through His blood" {A}, as in Eph 1:7.
42. Or, "release, pardon, cancellation". Same word as in Mt 26:28; Mk 1:4; 3:29; Lk 1:77; 3:3; 24:47; Act 2:38; 5:31; 10:43; 13:38; 26:18; Eph 1:7; Heb 9:22; 10:18. Elsewhere only as "release" in Lk 4:18. GK 912. The related verb also means "let go, abandon, send away".

1. Or, "likeness, form". Used in the NT of the portrait imprinted on a coin in Mt 22:20; Mk 12:16; Lk 20:24; of idols (false images of God) in Rom 1:23; of the image of the beast in Rev 13:14, 15; 14:9, 11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4; of the image of Christ to which we will be shaped in Rom 8:29; 1 Cor 15:49; 2 Cor 3:18; Col 3:10; of the image of God in which mankind was created in 1 Cor 11:7; of the image of Adam which we share in 1 Cor 15:49; of Christ as the image of God in 2 Cor 4:4; Col 1:15; and elsewhere only of the reality of which the Law was a shadow in Heb 10:1. GK 1635. Jesus is the likeness of the invisible God imprinted in human flesh; "the exact representation of His essence", Heb 1:3; the "form" of God in outward appearance as a man, Phil 2:6-8; the "Word" in flesh, Jn 1:14.
2. That is, God's firstborn (and "only born", Jn 1:18) human Son, the preeminent one, first in rank; the one having firstborn status and rights. When Jesus became a man, He became part of His creation, but not just any part. He is first over all, the preeminent One over all creation and created beings, Phil 2:9-11. Paul gives four reasons for this in verse 16-18. This word is used of Christ also in 1:18; Lk 2:7; Rom 8:29; Heb 1:6; Rev 1:5. Elsewhere only in Heb 11:28; 12:23. GK 4758. Note Ps 89:27.
3. Or, "in" Him. GK 1877.
4. On these four "invisible things", compare Eph 1:21. On this word, see "authority" in 2 Pet 2:10.
5. Or, "by" Him, "in connection with" Him. GK 1328.
6. That is, the Son existed before any created thing existed.
7. Or, "hold together". The Son is the cause of the continued existence of the universe. On this word, see 2 Pet 3:5.
8. That is, the new creation.
9. Or, "ruler". This word means "beginning" in various senses in Mt 19:4, 8; 24:8, 21; Mk 1:1; 10:6; 13:8, 19; Jn 1:1, 2; 2:11; 6:64; 8:25, 44; 15:27; 16:4; Act 11:15; Phil 4:15; Heb 1:10; 2:3; 3:14; 5:12; 6:1; 7:3; 2 Pet 3:4; 1 Jn 1:1; 2:7, 13, 14, 24; 3:8, 11; 2 Jn 5, 6; Rev 3:14; 21:6, 13; "first" in Lk 1:2; 26:4; and "corner" in Act 10:11; 11:5 (the beginning of the sheet). Elsewhere only as "rulers" in Lk 12:11; Rom 8:38; Eph 3:10; 6:12; Col 1:16; 2:15; Tit 3:1; and "rule" in the sense of "power, dominion", in Lk 20:20; 1 Cor 15:24; Eph 1:21; Col 2:10; and in the sense of "domain" (sphere of authority) in Jude 6. GK 794. Jesus is the firstfruit of the resurrection (1 Cor 15:20-23), the beginning of the new creation, the founder of a new humanity, the first cause of all creation (Rev 3:14), the ruler of all. A related word is used of Jesus in Rev 1:5, the "ruler" of the kings of the earth. On the related verb, which usually means "begin", see "rule" in Rom 15:12.
10. Or, "be". GK 1181.
11. Or, "being first, being preeminent, being first in rank". Used only here. GK 4750. This is the verb related to the word "first".
12. That is, the fullness of God, as in 2:9. Others render this "because all the fullness of God was well pleased to dwell in Him". Same word as in 2:9; Mt 9:16; Mk 2:21; Jn 1:16; Rom 11:12, 25; 15:29; 1 Cor 10:26; Gal 4:4; Eph 1:10, 23; 3:19; 4:13. Elsewhere only as "fillings" in Mk 6:43; 8:20; and "fulfillment" in Rom 13:10. GK 4445.
13. Elsewhere only in v 22 and Eph 2:16. GK 639. See the related word in Rom 5:10.
14. Some manuscripts omit "through Him" {C}. This phrase expands "reconcile all things through Him".
15. Paul applies this reconciliation directly to the Colossians.
16. Or, "alienated, estranged", that is, from God. The Colossians were living in this condition. On this word, see Eph 4:18.
17. Some think Paul means "regarded as enemies" by God, Rom 5:10; others, "living as enemies, hostile to God".
18. Some think Paul means God reconciled; others, Christ. Some manuscripts say "you were reconciled" {C}.
19. That is, His fleshly body.
20. Or, "without defect, blameless". Elsewhere only in Eph 1:4; 5:27; Phil 2:15; Heb 9:14; 1 Pet 1:19; Jude 24; Rev 14:5. GK 320.
21. Or, "firm". Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 7:37; 15:58. GK 1612. Related to "support" in 1 Tim 3:15.
22. Or, "servant". Same word as in v 25.
23. Some manuscripts instead say "I who now..." {K}, connecting this more closely with the preceding phrase.
24. Same preposition ("for the sake of") as in similar statements in Eph 3:1, 13; 6:20; Phil 1:29; Col 2:1; 2 Thes 1:5. GK 5642.
25. Or, "filling-up-on-my-part", or simply "filling up". That is, filling up my part of what is lacking from Christ's afflictions. Used only here. GK 499. Related to "filled" in Eph 5:18.
26. Same grammar as in 1 Thes 3:10. That is, lacking from the afflictions of Christ remaining to be accomplished.
27. Christ continues to suffer and be humiliated by people until He returns in glory. He suffers when the people in His body the church suffer (note Act 9:4). In this sense, the measure of His afflictions is not yet full. Compare Act 14:22; 2 Cor 1:5. Thus in Paul's own bodily sufferings, he is enduring afflictions which Christ is also enduring. This continues even today, until they are "filled up". Peter says we are to rejoice to the degree that we share in the sufferings of Christ, 1 Pet 4:13. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
28. Or, "based on, by way of". Same word as in v 29. GK 2848.
29. That is, the position of management responsibility. On this word, see Eph 1:10.
30. Or, "complete". Paul's stewardship was to fulfill the word of God by proclaiming the mystery hidden in the past, but now revealed through him; that is, by taking the gospel to the Gentiles, Eph 3:8, 9. Same word as "complete" in Rom 15:19.
31. The word of God in view is specified here as the mystery hidden but now revealed. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
32. On "from the past ages", see Lk 1:70.
33. Or, "desired, wanted, wished". On this word, see Jn 7:17.
34. The verbs "revealed" and "make known" also occur in Rom 16:26. On this word, see "know" in Phil 1:22.
35. That is, the hidden mystery (v 26) which was now revealed (v 27), which Paul now defines. Compare Eph 3:2-11.
36. Or, "warning, advising, instructing". Elsewhere only in Act 20:31; Rom 15:14; 1 Cor 4:14; Col 3:16; 1 Thes 5:12, 14; 2 Thes 3:15. GK 3805. Related to "admonition" in Eph 6:4.
37. Or, "complete, finished, full-grown, perfect". On this word, see "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10.
38. Some manuscripts add "Jesus" {N}.
39. That is, "To which end".
40. Or, "striving, fighting". On this word, see 1 Tim 4:10.
41. Same noun as in 2:12. On this word, see Phil 3:21. Related to the verb "at work" which follows.
42. Or, "in operation". Same grammar as in 2 Cor 1:6; Eph 3:20. On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.

1. Paul expands on his reference to his "sufferings" (1:24) and his "struggle" (1:29) for the Colossians' sake.
2. This may imply that Paul did not know most of them.
3. Paul may specifically mean this in reference to the false teaching disturbing them. On this word, see "exhorting" in Rom 12:8.
4. Or, "united, joined, knit together". Same word as "held together" in Eph 4:16; Col 2:19. Or, "instructed", as in 1 Cor 2:16; Act 19:33. GK 5204. This word refers back to the "they" in "their hearts"; that is, to the people, rather than specifically to the "hearts".
5. That is, brought together in the sphere of love, and for the purpose of having what follows, thus giving two aspects of God's aim in bringing these people together. Others link this to "encouraged", putting "having been brought together in love" in a parenthesis, thus giving two aspects to Paul's purpose—their encouragement in love, and their knowledge of Christ.
6. That is, that these people might have or attain to what follows; for the purpose of or toward the goal of sharing in what follows. On this word, see "resulting in" in Rom 5:16.
7. Same word as in 1:9, on which see Eph 3:4 (where it is also linked to the mystery of Christ).
8. Same word as in the previous phrase. Some think it has the same meaning here, this phrase explaining or expanding the previous one, in parallel to it. Others think here it means "leading to, resulting in". In this case, the previous fullness of understanding (the means) leads to or results in what follows (the end).
9. On this noun, see "knowledge" in 1:9. It is rendered "full knowledge" here because Paul has just said "full assurance". He uses the related word "knowledge" in v 3.
10. Some manuscripts say the mystery "of God"; others, "of God, which is Christ"; others, "of God the Father of Christ"; others, "of the God and Father of Christ"; others, "of the God and Father and of Christ" {B}.
11. Or, "In which", referring to "mystery". The sense is the same, because the mystery is Christ.
12. This is the Greek word order. On this adjective, see Mk 4:22. Some link this with the verb, "in Whom all the treasures... are hidden-away"; others with the noun, "in Whom are all the hidden treasures of...". Others leave it here as a second fact. In this case, the treasures are in Christ, and they are hidden-away, as treasures usually are. They are not lying on the surface. One must look beyond any initial impression of a crucified one. They are hidden away as treasures to be discovered. Some take "hidden away" in the sense of "stored up, treasured up".
13. Some manuscripts say "And I" {N}.
14. Some think Paul is looking back to 2:1-3, or 1:24-2:3, or even 1:9-2:3. He may mean he is saying this which he wants them to know (v 1) about himself and his ministry (1:24-2:3), so no one will be deluded about him, as happened in Corinth. This explains why he has included these personal words about himself. Or he may be referring to his words about Christ (1:24-2:13), so no one will be deluded by false teaching, about which he speaks in detail beginning in v 6. Others think this is looking forward to what Paul begins to say in v 6, and begin the next main point (3A.) here.
15. Or, "plausible, probable, credible argument". Used only here. GK 4391.
16. Literally, "For if I even am...". This idiom means, "accepting that I even am absent, nevertheless...". See "if also" in 1 Cor 7:21 on it.
17. Same word as in 1 Cor 14:40, properly and in "order". GK 5423.
18. Used only here. GK 5106. Related to "firm" in 2 Tim 2:19; and "made firm" in Act 16:5.
19. Or, "Christ Jesus as Lord".
20. Elsewhere only in Eph 3:17. GK 4845. Related to "root" in Lk 8:13; Heb 12:15.
21. Note that Paul uses three words different from 1:23 (rooted, built up, established), but with the same idea. On this word, see "confirm" in 1 Cor 1:6.
22. Or, "in your faith". On this word, see Eph 2:8.
23. On this word, see 1 Tim 4:3. Some manuscripts say abounding "in it [the faith] with thanksgiving"; others "in Him with thanksgiving" {B}.
24. Or, "carrying you off as booty or plunder" from the truth to the slavery of error. Used only here. GK 5194.
25. The Greek word is philosophia, meaning "love of wisdom". Used only here. GK 5814. Related word in Act 17:18. Paul is referring to the human pursuit of wisdom apart from God's revelation.
26. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:13.
27. Or, "based on, by way of, in harmony with, in accordance with". Used three times in this verse. GK 2848.
28. Same word as in v 20. On this word, see Gal 4:3.
29. Or, "the divine nature". Used only here. GK 2540. This is an abstract noun for "God", related to "God". All the fullness of the divine essence dwells in Christ, not just a certain divine quality. This is a clear statement of Christ's deity.
30. That is, "in bodily form", in His incarnate body. Or, more abstractly, "in concrete reality" versus in mere appearance. This word is an adverb related to "body" (see Eph 1:23). Used only here. GK 5395.
31. This is a participle, you "are having been made complete" or "full". You stand full and complete. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18. Related to "fullness" in v 9.
32. Or, "every ruler". On this word, see "beginning" in 1:18.
33. Or, "removal, stripping off as of clothes". It is called the "body" of (sinful) flesh in contrast to the physical foreskin removed by human hands. In this view, this phrase further describes our spiritual circumcision. Others take "the body of flesh" to refer to Christ's flesh, and this whole phrase ("the taking off... circumcision of Christ") as a symbolic reference to His violent death. Consult the commentaries. Used only here. GK 589. Related to "stripped" in v 15.
34. Compare Rom 6:6. On this word, see Eph 1:23. Some manuscripts say "body of the sins of the flesh" {N}.
35. Or, "by". Paul may mean "in the circumcision that belongs to Christ", that is, spiritual circumcision in contrast to that in the flesh by hands. Or he may mean "by the circumcision performed by Christ" spiritually, on our heart. In either case, he goes on to say it is the spiritual circumcision that corresponds to our being buried with Him in baptism.
36. Or, "In Whom", in which case some link this to v 12 as point 1D., "buried-with Him... in Whom you also were raised-together"; and others make it point 4C., parallel to the "In Whom you also" phrase in v 11.

1. This is the same point Paul makes in Eph 2:1, 4. Note also Col 1:21-22.
2. Some think Paul means "God", from v 12; others, "Christ", rendering "with Him" next as "with Himself".
3. Some manuscripts omit this word. Others say "us" {B}.
4. The verb "make alive together" is elsewhere only as "make alive with" in Eph 2:5 (where "with" is not separately expressed, as it is here). GK 5188.
5. Some manuscripts say "you" {A}.
6. Or, "blotted out, smeared out, rubbed out, erased", and therefore "cancelled, removed". Same word as in Act 3:19; Rev 3:5. Elsewhere only as "wipe away" in Rev 7:17; 21:4. GK 1981.
7. This word means "hand-written document", and was often used of a certificate of debt. Some think Paul is referring to the Law, as in Eph 2:15; others, to a formal written document containing the charges against us, backed up by the decrees of the Law. There are other views. Used only here. GK 5934.
8. Some take this with what follows, "against us, which by its decrees was opposed to us"; others, with what precedes, "with its decrees against us"; others, as "written document... with its decrees". On this word, see Eph 2:15. The related verb is in 2:20.
9. Or, "set against, hostile, contrary". This adjective is elsewhere only as "adversary" in Heb 10:27. GK 5641.
10. That is, out from between us and God. On this word, see "midst" in 2 Thes 2:7.
11. Used only here. GK 4669. Related to "nail" in Jn 20:25.
12. This word means "take off of, strip off of, strip away from". Some think Paul means God "stripped off their power", or "disarmed" these rulers; others, that Jesus "stripped them away from Himself" in their attempt to conquer Him. Elsewhere only as "stripped off" in 3:9. GK 588. Related to "taking off" in v 11; and to "taken off" in 2 Cor 5:3.
13. Or, "publicly disgraced". Same word as in Mt 1:19, of Joseph not wanting to "publicly-expose" Mary.
14. Or, "in it", "by it", the cross, v 14. Instead of the cross being a public stripping of the clothes, exposure, and disgraceful death for Christ (as crucifixions were considered to be), it was in fact a stripping off of the power and authority of these rulers, and a public exposure of their end, as proven by His resurrection.
15. Some manuscripts say "or" {N}.
16. Or, "food and drink", as these same two nouns are used in Jn 6:55. Same two words as in Rom 14:17. Paul is referring to ritual observances regarding eating, aesthetic dietary rules, lists of approved and disapproved foods, etc. Used only in the three places noted here. GK 4530.
17. Or, "festival". Used of Jewish feasts. On this word, see Jn 13:29. Religious festivals and pilgrimages.
18. Compare Num 10:10; 28:11; 1 Sam 20:5, 18; Ps 81:3. Used only here. GK 3741. Note the progression from yearly or periodic festivals, to monthly celebrations, to weekly observances. All three of these terms are used in 1 Chron 23:31; 2 Chron 2:4; 31:3; Neh 10:34; Hos 2:11; etc.
19. Or, in a figurative sense, the "substance", the "reality". The OT rituals are shadowy pointers to the coming of the future realities in Christ. Said in reverse, Christ is the body that casts the shadows contained in the rituals of the Law. He is the reality. On this word, see Eph 1:23.
20. Or, "belongs to Christ".
21. Or, "umpire against you, declare you the loser, disqualify you from winning the prize, rob you of the prize". This is a word from the games. Used only here. GK 2857. Related to "arbitrate" in 3:15, which is the same root word without the prefix "against". Related to "prize" in 1 Cor 9:24.
22. Or, "by".
23. Or, "Desiring to do so in connection with humility...". This word is used in the sense of "delight" also in Mk 12:38 and Lk 20:46, of scribes "delighting" in walking around in robes; perhaps in Mt 27:43; and in 1 Sam 18:22; 2 Sam 15:26; Ps 22:8; 111:2; etc. On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
24. Some think Paul means "false humility", or what some regard as humility; others, "aesthetic humility", aesthetic behavior which these teachers termed "humility". Same word as in v 23. On this word, see "humble-mindedness" in Phil 2:3.
25. Or, "veneration". This word refers to the external observances of religious worship. On this word, see "religion" in Jam 1:26.
26. Or, "angel's worship", a mystical worship of God with the angels.
27. This word means "to step into" or "stand on". Paul could mean "dwelling upon", "entering into", "taking a stand on", "delving into", "intruding into", "entering at length upon". Such people focus on their visions. Some think Paul means "things which he has seen while entering-in" a mystical or heavenly experience. Used only here. GK 1836. Some manuscripts say "things he has not seen" {B}, the difference lying in whether he has seen false visions, or has not seen true visions.
28. Thus, some think these are Paul's descriptions of these false teachers. Others think Paul is quoting their terminology. In this case, this could be rendered "Delighting in 'humility' and 'angel's worship', things which he has seen while 'entering in'".
29. This word can mean "without cause, without result, without purpose". Elsewhere only in Rom 13:4; 1 Cor 15:2; Gal 3:4; 4:11. GK 1632.
30. That is, the mind characterized by his flesh, controlled by his flesh. Such people are following a self-created religion, not the true God.
31. Or, "holding tight, holding firm, keeping hold of". On this word, see Heb 4:14.
32. Or, "supported". On this word, see 2 Cor 9:10.
33. Or, "ligaments". Elsewhere only in Eph 4:16. GK 913.
34. Or, "fasteners". On this word, see "bond" in Act 8:23.
35. That is, the growth which God produces. Compare 1 Cor 3:6.

1. Some manuscripts say "Therefore, if you..." {N}.
2. Or, "away-from". Your burial in Christ was a burial away from these things; a separation from these things. GK 608.
3. Same word as in v 8.
4. Used only here. GK 1505. Related to "decree" in 2:14.
5. Or, "eat". On this word, see Heb 6:4.
6. Grammatically, this begins a new phrase describing the things forbidden by the previous commands. It is Paul's judgment about the objects of their prohibitions. Others render this as sarcasm, "(things which are all leading-to [spiritual] ruin by the consumption of them, according to the commandments and teachings of humans!)"
7. That is, for the purpose of, destined for, intended for. On this word, see "resulting in" in Rom 5:16. Or, "leading to".
8. Or, "destruction, ruin". On this noun, see "decay" in 1 Cor 15:42.
9. Or, "using up, consumption". Paul shows the folly of these false-teachers' decrees by giving God's view of any foods they might forbid. Their decrees concern things like foods, which are all designed by God to be destroyed by their consumption and consumed in their use—things which have no spiritual or eternal value! Paul does not bother to specifically refute any of their other decrees. He just gives this one example. Compare Mt 15:17-18 and 1 Tim 4:3-4. Used only here. GK 712.
10. Or, "based on". Same word as in v 8.
11. Elsewhere only in Mt 15:9; Mk 7:7; where Jesus also refers to these words from Isa 29:13. GK 1945.
12. This refers to the decrees according to the commandments and teachings of humans, v 21-22.
13. Or, "word, report, reputation". But such teachings do not have the reality. They result in a self-discipline and an adherence to rules that have no value with God, that "will not bring us near to God", 1 Cor 8:8. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
14. Or, "in the sphere of". GK 1877.
15. Or, "self-imposed, self-made worship", do-it-yourself religion, worshiping the dictates of your own will. Used only here. GK 1615. This word may have been coined by Paul. The worship of such people is based on the self-disciplined adherence to their self-created rules, based on their self-created beliefs.
16. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "and humility with harsh treatment of the body".
17. Or, "harshness, severity". Used only here. GK 910. The root word is "to spare" in Rom 11:21; this word means "unsparing". Paul is referring to self-denying asceticism as an act of the will, based on the teachings of humans.
18. Same word as "price" in 1 Cor 6:20; 7:23; and "precious-value" in 1 Pet 2:7. On this word, see "honor" in 1 Tim 5:17.
19. Or, "for"; or "leading to" as in Jn 11:4. This word could imply to "restrain" or to "promote". Either meaning is possible here. GK 4639.
20. Or, "gratification". This word means "fullness, being filled up". It is used in a positive sense, "filled to satisfaction", and in a negative sense, "over-fullness, satiety, indulgence". Either meaning is possible here. Used only here. GK 4447.
21. Flesh may mean "body" or "human nature", as in Mt 19:5; Rom 1:3; 2 Cor 4:11; 7:5; 12:7; Gal 2:20; Eph 2:11; 5:29; Phil 1:22, 24; Col 1:22, 24; 2:1, 5; 1 Tim 3:16; etc. Or it may mean "sinful nature" or "old man", as in Rom 7:5; 8:3-13; 13:14; Gal 5:13; Eph 2:3; 2 Pet 2:10, etc. Either meaning is possible here. Used 147 times. GK 4922.
22. That is, religious asceticism regarding foods and festivals and other outward things has no ability to restrain sensual indulgence. Compare Mt 15:17-20. Self-discipline is of value against the sins of the flesh and is taught by Jesus (Mt 5:29) and Paul (1 Cor 9:27; 1 Tim 4:7). What Paul is rejecting as having only the talk of wisdom is self-discipline with regard to human rules. Others think Paul makes two separate statements here, "with no value" (the rules have no real value) and "for the indulgence of their flesh" (they teach these things for their own gratification, indulging the puffed up mind of their flesh, v 18). Another view translates it "not in any honor for satisfaction of the flesh". That is, they harshly deny the body, giving no honor to satisfying the legitimate physical needs of the body. There are other views.
23. Paul now turns from the false and wrong path to the true one. A focus on the things above, on Christ and our life with Him, leads us to put to death the sinful indulgence of the flesh on earth—the very things adherence to man-made religion and rituals have no value against, 2:23.
24. Or, "setting your mind on". Same word as in Phil 2:5. On this word, see Rom 8:5.
25. That is, hidden safely away, like a treasure. On this word, see Jn 8:59.
26. Or, "is revealed". Same word as later in the verse. On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
27. Some manuscripts say "our" {B}.
28. Or, "members, limbs". That is, the things carried out or accomplished by the "parts" of the body, defined by what follows; not the physical parts themselves, but the sinful uses to which the body is "presented" (Rom 6:13, 19). In other words, "the old person with his practices", v 9. Same word as in Rom 6:13, 19; and Mt 5:29, 30; Rom 7:5, 23; Jn 3:5, 6; 4:1. Elsewhere only in the context of the body of Christ in Rom 12:4, 5; 1 Cor 6:15; 12:12-27 (13 times); Eph 4:25; 5:30. GK 3517.
29. Or, "lustfulness". On this word, see Rom 1:26.
30. On this phrase, see Eph 2:2. Some manuscripts omit "upon the sons of disobedience" {C}.
31. This same preposition is used in the phrase beginning and ending this verse, "In which things... in these things". It means "in, among". So Paul could also mean "In which [sins] you walked while living among these [sons of disobedience]"; or, "Among whom you walked while living in these [sins]". GK 1877.
32. In v 7, the Colossians' conduct had been "also" with the disobedient ones. Now, it is "also" with believers.
33. That is, the desire to cause pain and distress in others. On this word, see "badness" in 1 Pet 2:1.
34. Or, "shameful language, dirty talk, obscene speech". Used only here. GK 155. Related to "filthiness" in Eph 5:4. The root word is "shame" in Heb 12:2.
35. Same word as "stripped" in 2:15.
36. Or, "for, toward". GK 1650. Not "in the sphere of".
37. Or, "full knowledge, true knowledge". On this word, see 1:9.
38. Some think Paul means "a knowledge in accordance with"; others, "renewed... in accordance with". Compare Eph 4:23. Same word as in Eph 4:22, 24. GK 2848.

1. That is, a non-Greek-speaking, uncivilized person, from the Roman and Greek perspective. Our word "barbarian" comes from this word. Plato divided the world into two groups, "Greeks and barbarians", just as the Jews divided it into "Jew and Gentile". The Romans included themselves with the Greeks, but the Greeks considered the Romans to be barbarians! Same word as in Rom 1:14; 1 Cor 14:11. Elsewhere only as "natives" in Act 28:2, 4. GK 975. It could be translated "foreigner", but there is a certain amount of arrogance in the term.
2. Scythians were legendary for their fierceness, savagery, and brutality. They came from the East 600 years before Christ and brutalized Palestine. Their name lived on in memory, and referred to the feared, savage enemy from the East. In Christ, these are meaningless distinctions. Used only here. GK 5033.
3. Or, "elect, selected". On this word, see Rom 8:33.
4. Or, "saints". On this word, see 1 Pet 1:16.
5. Paul uses the participle here, as in 1 Thes 1:4; 2 Thes 2:13. Some render this "beloved" here, as in Eph 1:6. On this word, see "devotedly-love" in Jn 21:15. Paul uses the related adjective "beloved" in Col 1:7; 4:7, 9, 14; and the noun "of His love" in 1:13.
6. Or, "Wear". That is, put on like a garment. Same word as in v 10. On this word, see Rom 13:14.
7. Or, "a heart". On this word, see Phil 1:8.
8. Some manuscripts instead say "Christ"; others, "God" {C}.
9. Or, "upon, in addition to". That is, like a final cloak put on over everything. GK 2093.
10. Some think Paul means "the bond characterized by perfection, the perfect bond" for the church; others, "the bond binding together the virtues of v 12-13 in perfection. On this word, see "maturity" in Heb 6:1.
11. That is, the peace Christ gives, Jn 14:27. Some manuscripts say "God" {N}.
12. Or, "deciding, umpiring, judging, ruling". Let this peace sit as governor, administrator, in your hearts. Used only here. GK 1093. Related to "decide against" in 2:18.
13. That is, the peace of Christ.
14. Some manuscripts say "God" {A}.
15. Elsewhere only of God (2 Cor 6:16); the Spirit (Rom 8:11; 2 Tim 1:14); and faith (2 Tim 1:5). GK 1940.
16. Some take this phrase with the preceding one, "dwell within you richly in all wisdom".
17. This is the Greek word order. Some take "with psalms... songs" with the next phrase, "with gratitude, singing with psalms... songs in your hearts". On this word, see Eph 5:19. Some manuscripts say "psalms and hymns and spiritual songs" {N}, as in Eph 5:19.
18. Same word as in Lk 17:9.
19. Or, "in". This is the Greek word order. Or, "with gratitude in your hearts, singing to God".
20. Some manuscripts say "to the Lord" {A}, as in Eph 5:19.
21. Not the same grammar as in v 23, which does not have this word. The phrase "whatever thing" is elsewhere only in Mk 6:23; 1 Cor 16:2; and is nearly the same as the phrase in Lk 10:35; Jn 2:5; 14:13; 15:16. It is usually simplified to "whatever". It is similar to "what thing" in Jn 8:25. This word is GK 5516.
22. Some manuscripts say "to our God and Father" {B}.
23. On this word, see Eph 5:21. Note that Col 3:18-4:1 parallels Eph 5:21-6:9.
24. Some manuscripts say "your own husbands" {N}, as in Eph 5:22.
25. Or, "be embittered". Elsewhere only as "make bitter" in Rev 8:11; 10:9, 10. GK 4393. Related to "bitterness" in Act 8:23; "bitter" in Jam 3:14; and "bitterly" in Lk 22:62.
26. Or, "stirring up, arousing, irritating". Elsewhere only as "stir up" in 2 Cor 9:2, in a good sense. GK 2241. Some manuscripts have the same word as in Eph 6:4, "provoke to anger" {B}, which is not related to this word.
27. Or, "disheartened, dispirited, despondent". Used only here. GK 126.
28. Or, "with respect to, in relation to". GK 2848. That is, your human masters.
29. That is, serving only when your master is watching. Elsewhere only in Eph 6:6. GK 4056.
30. Some manuscripts say "fearing God" {N}.
31. Some manuscripts say "And everything— whatever thing you may do" {N}, as in v 17.
32. Or, "reward". Used only here. GK 502. Related to "retribution" in Rom 11:9, and "repay" in 2 Thes 1:6.
33. That is, consisting of the inheritance. On this word, see Eph 1:14.
34. Or, "You are a slave to the Lord Christ". On this word, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6. This could also be translated as a command, "Be serving the Lord Christ". Both renderings make good sense. Some manuscripts say "For you are serving" {N}.
35. Some manuscripts say "But" {K}.
36. Some think Paul is referring to the master; others, to the slave; others, to both. Compare Eph 6:8. On this word, see Act 7:24.
37. On this word, see 2 Cor 5:10. "You will reap what you sow" is the idea, Gal 6:8.
38. Or, "right, righteous". On this word, see "righteous" in Rom 1:17.

42. On this word, see 1 Cor 7:27. Related to "imprisonment" in v 18.
43. Or, rather than a second request, this may be point 1D., "In order that I might make it clear...". In this case, Paul means "In order that by means of this open door, I might be able to make it clear". Without an open door, he could not make it clear and speak it as he would like to speak it.
44. Or, "make it known, reveal it". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.

- H. The greeting of Paul by my own hand— remember²³ my imprisonment²⁴. Grace be with you²⁵ 18

1. See Act 20:4 on him. Compare Eph 6:21-22.
2. Or, "come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
3. Compare Eph 6:22. Some manuscripts say "that he may know the things concerning you" {B}.
4. Same word as in Eph 6:22.
5. This is the man about whom the book of Philemon was written. He and Tychicus probably carried this letter to the Colossians.
6. Same word as in Lk 15:29; Jn 11:57; Act 17:15. On this word, see "commandment" in Mk 12:28.
7. That is, Jewish Christians, as this word is used in Act 10:45; Gal 2:7, 8, etc. On this word, see "circumcised" in Eph 2:11.
8. That is, these only of that class—the circumcision, Jews. These were the only fellow Jews serving with Paul at this time. This is the Greek word order, which reflects Paul's broken heart over the rejection of Christ by his people, Rom 9:1-2.
9. Or, "were, became". GK 1181.
10. Or, "consolation, assuagement". Used only here. GK 4219.
11. That is, a resident of Colossae. Same phrase as in v 9.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
13. Or, "striving, fighting". On this word, see 1 Tim 4:10.
14. Or, "that", giving the content of the prayers of Epaphras instead of the purpose of them. GK 2671.
15. Or, "be caused to stand". GK 2705.
16. Or, "complete". Same word as in 1:28.
17. On this word, see "fulfilled" in Lk 1:1. Related to "full assurance" in 2:2. Some manuscripts instead say "and having been completed" {N}, a related word.
18. That is, Epaphras knows the ache that results from serious toil and struggle on their behalf. Elsewhere only in Rev 16:10, 11; 21:4. This word also means the "toil, exertion" that produces the pain. GK 4506. Compare Rom 9:2. Some manuscripts say "zeal"; others, "labor" {N}.
19. These two cities were near Colossae.
20. This is a woman. Some manuscripts have this as a man, and the church at "his house"; others say "and their house" {C}. Used only here. GK 3809.
21. The idiom "cause that" is also in Jn 11:37; Rev 13:15. GK 2671.
22. Some think this is a reference to the book of Ephesians (see Eph 1:1); others, to some letter unknown to us.
23. That is, keep in mind. Do not forget it before the Lord. On this word, see Jn 16:21.
24. Or, "bonds". On this word, see Phil 1:7.
25. This word is plural. Some manuscripts add "amen" {A}.

Introduction	1:1
1A. We are giving thanks to God always for you all	1:2
1B. Unceasingly remembering your work of faith, labor of love, and endurance of hope	1:3
2B. Knowing, brothers, your election, because	1:4
1C. Our good news came to you in power, and in the Spirit, and in great conviction	1:5
2C. And you became imitators of us and the Lord, accepting the word in much affliction	1:6-10
2A. For you yourselves know our entrance to you, brothers— that it has not been empty	2:1
1B. But we spoke the good news to you while conducting ourselves in a blameless manner	2:2-12
2B. And for this reason we are giving thanks unceasingly— because you accepted the message from us as the word of God. For you became imitators of the churches of Judea	2:13-16
3A. And we, brothers, were very eager to see you again, and Satan hindered us	2:17-18
1B. For who is our hope or joy or crown of boasting? Is it not even you?	2:19-20
2B. Therefore, bearing it no longer, we sent Timothy to encourage you and know your faith	3:1-5
3B. And Timothy having just now returned with good news about you, we were encouraged	3:6-10
4B. Now may God direct our way to you and cause you to abound in love	3:11-13
4A. Finally brothers, we ask that as you received from us how to walk, that you be abounding more in it	4:1-2
1B. For this is the will of God— your holiness, that you be abstaining from sexual immorality	4:3-8
2B. But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that anyone write, for you are God-taught	4:9-12
5A. And we do not want you to be unaware, brothers, concerning the ones falling asleep	4:13
1B. For if we believe Jesus arose, God will bring with Him the ones having fallen asleep	4:14-18
2B. But concerning the times and seasons, you have no need to be written, for you know it	5:1-11
6A. And we ask you, brothers, to be esteeming those who labor among you superabundantly in love	5:12-13
7A. Now we exhort you, brothers	5:14
1B. Admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, hold on to the weak, be patient to all	5:14
2B. See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but be pursuing the good	5:15
3B. Rejoice always, pray unceasingly, give thanks in everything. For this is the will of God	5:16-18
4B. Do not quench the Spirit, do not treat prophecies with contempt, but be testing all things	5:19-21
5B. Be holding on to the good, be abstaining from every form of evil	5:21-22
Conclusion	5:23-28

- A. Paul and Silvanus¹ and Timothy 1
- B. To the church of the Thessalonians² in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ
- C. Grace to you and peace³
- 1A. We are giving-thanks^A to God always for you all, making mention of you⁴ in our prayers 2
- 1B. Unceasingly⁵ *remembering your work^B of faith⁶, and labor^C of love^D, and endurance^E of hope^F in our Lord⁷ Jesus Christ, before⁸ our God and Father 3
- 2B. Knowing, brothers having been loved^G by God, your election⁹, *because¹⁰— 4-5
- 1C. Our good-news^H did not come to you in word^I only, but also in power^K, and in the Holy Spirit, and with great fullness-of-conviction¹¹— just as you know what-kind-of men we proved-to-be¹² among you for your sake
- 2C. And you became imitators¹³ of us and of the Lord, having accepted^L the word^J in much affliction^M with the joy of the Holy Spirit, *so that you became an example¹⁴ to all the ones believing^N in Macedonia and in Achaia 6-7
- 1D. For from you the word^I of the Lord has sounded-forth¹⁵— not only in Macedonia and in¹⁶ Achaia, but¹⁷ in every place your faith toward God has gone-out¹⁸— so that we are having no need^O to speak anything! 8
- 1E. For they themselves¹⁹ are reporting^P about us as to what-sort-of^Q entrance²⁰ we had with you, and how you turned^R to God from idols^S 9
- 1F. To be serving²¹ the living and true^T God
- 2F. And to be awaiting His Son from the heavens, Whom He raised^U from the dead— Jesus, the One delivering^V us from the coming wrath²² 10
- 2A. For²³ you yourselves²⁴ know our entrance to you, brothers^W— that it has not been²⁵ empty²⁶ 2:1
- 1B. But²⁷ having previously-suffered and been mistreated²⁸ in Philippi²⁹, as you know,³⁰ we were bold^X in our God to speak the good-news^H of God³¹ to you in a great conflict³² 2
- 1C. For³³ our exhortation³⁴ is not from error³⁵, nor from impurity³⁶, nor in deceit³⁷. *But just as we have been approved^Y by God to be entrusted-with^N the good-news^H, so we speak— not as pleasing³⁸ people^Z, but God, the One testing³⁹ our hearts 3-4

1. Silvanus is mentioned elsewhere only in 2 Cor 1:19; 2 Thes 1:1; 1 Pet 5:12. GK 4977. He is called "Silas" in Acts (see Act 15:40). He was a prophet, and Paul's companion when they came to Thessalonica.
2. Paul was at this city in the Roman province of Macedonia in Act 17:1-10, and wrote this letter in Act 18:5, when Timothy returned to him (1 Thes 3:6).
3. Some manuscripts add "from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ" {A}.
4. Some manuscripts include "of you" {N}.
5. Some take this with what precedes, "making mention... unceasingly". On this word, see Rom 1:9.
6. That is, work proceeding from faith, or belonging to faith (faith's work), or characterized by faith. Likewise with labor and endurance.
7. Some think Paul means "hope in our Lord"; others, "faith, love, hope in our Lord".
8. This is the Greek word order of this verse. Some think Paul means "remembering... before our God"; others, that the work, labor and endurance are "before our God".
9. Or, "selection, choosing". On this word, see "choosing" in Rom 11:5. Some take "by God" with this phrase, "loved, your election by God".
10. Or, "that". Some think Paul means knowing "how God chose you before the foundation of the world, because..."; others, "how God chose you when we were with you—that...".
11. Or, "fullness of certainty, fullness of assurance" on our part, as ones "fully-convicted" (the related verb in Rom 14:5). This is the opposite of "in word only". The word "great" is separately expressed here. The root word is "full". Elsewhere only as "full-assurance" in Col 2:2; Heb 6:11; 10:22. GK 4443.
12. Or, "became, were". This same word is used in a further statement about Paul's behavior in 2:7. On this word, see "comes" in 2 Pet 1:20.
13. The sense in which Paul means this is described next, and repeated in 2:14—you believed and suffered. On this word, see Eph 5:1.
14. Or, "pattern". On this word, see "pattern" in 1 Pet 5:3. Some manuscripts have it plural {N}.
15. Used only here. GK 2010. Related to "sounding" brass in 1 Cor 13:1; and trumpet "blast" in Heb 12:19.
16. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
17. Some manuscripts say "but also" {N}.
18. Some punctuate the verse "... place. Your faith toward God has gone out, so that..."; others, "...sounded forth. Your faith toward God has gone out not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place so that...".
19. This is in contrast to "we" in the last phrase of v 8.
20. Or, "entering, coming". Some think this word refers to the manner of Paul's "coming" to the them. Paul described his "entrance" in v 5, and does so again in detail in 2:1-12. Others think it refers to the kind of "reception" the Thessalonians gave him. Same word as in 2:1; 2 Pet 1:11. Elsewhere only as "coming" in Act 13:24; and "entering" in Heb 10:19. GK 1658.
21. On this word, see "are slaves" in Rom 6:6. Note the opposite in Gal 4:8.
22. Note 5:9. On the wrath of God, see Rom 1:18.
23. In 2:1-12, Paul turns from proving the election of these Thessalonians based on their genuine response to his ministry, to a vindication of the motive and manner of his ministry to them. He has alluded to this in 1:5, "what kind" of men, and 1:9, "what sort" of entrance. 2:1-12 expounds on his ministry ("what sort of entrance" in 1:9a), and 2:13-16 expounds on their reception of it ("how you turned to God" in 1:9b). Many think Paul's purpose in giving this detailed vindication of his ministry was to defend against false charges made against him by the Jews, charges that can be seen behind his statements.
24. Paul may mean that while "we" know the truth about you (v 4), "you yourselves" know the truth about us and our ministry to you. Others think he means "they themselves" (1:9) report about our entrance, but "you yourselves" know about it. Others think he means "you yourselves" versus others in general, and those opposing in particular.
25. Or, "become, proved to be". The grammar implies "has not and still is not". These same two words are used also in 3:5 ("prove to be in vain") and 1 Cor 15:10 ("become empty"). GK 1181.
26. Or, "in vain, futile; without result, effect, or content". Some think that here Paul means empty of content, purpose, earnestness on his part; others, empty of results or effect in the Thessalonians, v 13-14. Same word as in Lk 1:53; 1 Cor 15:10, 14, 58; Eph 5:6; Col 2:8; Jam 2:20. Elsewhere only as "in vain" in 2 Cor 6:1; Gal 2:2; Phil 2:16; 1 Thes 3:5; "futile" in Act 4:25; and "empty-handed" in Mk 12:3; Lk 20:10, 11. GK 3031.
27. Some manuscripts say "But even" {K}.
28. Or, "insulted, treated in an arrogant manner". Same word as in Mt 22:6; Lk 18:32; Act 14:5. Elsewhere only as "insult" in Lk 11:45. GK 5614. Related to "insult" in 2 Cor 12:10; and "violent" in 1 Tim 1:13.
29. This occurred in Act 16:9-40. From Philippi Paul went to Thessalonica, Act 17:1. Both are in Macedonia.
30. They may have treated Paul's wounds, like the jailer in Act 16:33.
31. That is, the "good news from God". It was not empty, but full of the boldly spoken good news from God.
32. Or, "struggle". Some think Paul is referring to an external "conflict, fight, opposition"; others, to his internal "struggle, strain, exertion (like an athlete)". On this word, see "race" in Heb 12:1.
33. Paul explains why he did this even amid such opposition. He brings God's message by God's commission.
34. Or, "appeal, urging". On this word, see "encouragement" in Act 4:36.
35. Or, "deception, delusion, a going astray, a wandering". The exhortation is not from error or false doctrine, but truth. Same word as in Rom 1:27; Eph 4:14; 2 Thes 2:11; Jam 5:20; 2 Pet 2:18; 3:17; 1 Jn 4:6; Jude 11. Elsewhere only as "deception" in Mt 27:64. GK 4415. Related to "deceitful" in 1 Tim 4:1.
36. The exhortation does not originate in impure desire, but holiness. This word is usually used of sexual impurity, as in 4:7, and some give it this meaning here. The religious worship of their day was rooted in sexual impurity. Others give this word a more general meaning, including greed and glory-seeking from v 5-6. Elsewhere only in Mt 23:27; Rom 1:24; 6:19; 2 Cor 12:21; Gal 5:19; Eph 4:19; 5:3; Col 3:5. GK 174.
37. The exhortation is not given in connection with deceitful methods, including flattery (v 5), but in simple sincerity. On this word, see Mt 26:4.
38. Elsewhere only in Mt 14:6; Mk 6:22; Act 6:5; Rom 8:8; 15:1, 2, 3; 1 Cor 7:32, 33, 34; 10:33; Gal 1:1; 1 Thes 2:15; 4:1; 2 Tim 2:4. GK 743. Related to the words in Jn 8:29; Col 1:10; Eph 5:10.
39. Or, "proving by test, examining". Same word as "approved" earlier.

A. Mt 26:27 B. Mt 26:10 C. 1 Cor 3:8 D. 1 Jn 4:16 E. Jam 1:3 F. Col 1:5 G. Jn 21:15, devotedly love H. 1 Cor 15:1 I. 1 Cor 12:8 K. Mk 5:30 L. Mt 10:40, welcome M. Rev 7:14 N. Jn 3:36, believe O. - 1D. For neither did we at-any-time^A come with a word^I of flattery, as you know 5
- 1E. Nor with a pretext^B for greed^C— God is witness^D
- 2E. Nor seeking^E glory^F from people^G— neither from you, nor from others, [although]* 6-7 being able to be with weight² as apostles of Christ
- 2D. But we proved-to-be child-like³ in your midst^H
- 3D. As when *a nurse*⁴ cherishes⁵ her children^I, *in this manner longing-affectionately⁶ for 8 you, we were well-pleased^K to impart^L to you not only the good-news^M of God, but also our own lives⁷, because you became beloved^N ones to us
- 2C. For you remember, brothers, our labor^O and hardship— working⁸ by night and by day⁹ so-as 9 not to be *a burden-on*¹⁰ any of you, we proclaimed^P to you the good-news^M of God
- 3C. You and God are witnesses^D how devoutly¹¹ and righteously^Q and blamelessly^R we were *with*¹² 10 you, the ones believing— *just-as you know how each one of you, as a father his own children 11
- 1D. *We were*¹³ exhorting^S you¹⁴ and encouraging^T and testifying¹⁵ so-that¹⁶ you might walk^U 12
worthily^V of God, the One calling¹⁷ you into His own kingdom^W and glory
- 2B. And¹⁸ for this reason¹⁹ we are indeed²⁰ giving-thanks^X to God unceasingly^Y— because²¹ having 13 received^Z the word of God heard²² from us, you accepted^{AA} not the word of humans^G, but— as it truly^{BB} is— the word of God, which also is at-work²³ in you, the ones believing
- 1C. For you became imitators^{CC}, brothers, of the churches of God existing^{DD} in Judea in Christ 14
Jesus, because you also suffered^{EE} the same things by your own countrymen as they also by the Jews—
- 1D. The ones also²⁴ having killed^{FF} the Lord Jesus and the prophets²⁵ 15
- 2D. And having driven us out²⁶
- 3D. And not being pleasing^{GG} to God
- 4D. And being contrary²⁷ to all people^G— *forbidding²⁸ us to speak to the Gentiles in order 16 that they might be saved^{HH}
- 5D. So that they fill-up²⁹ the measure of their sins always. But the wrath³⁰ came³¹ upon them to the uttermost³²
- 3A. And we, brothers— having been orphaned³³ from you for a season^{II} *of an hour*³⁴ in face, not in heart— 17 were more eager³⁵ with great desire^{KK} to see your face. *Because³⁶ we wanted³⁷ to come to you— I³⁸, 18
Paul, both once and twice³⁹— and Satan hindered^{LL} us

1. Or, "speech", that is, "flattering speech", speech characterized by flattery. "Flattery" is used only here, GK 3135.
2. This word means "weight or burden". Some think Paul means "weight of influence, dignity, authority". Others think Paul is referring to the weight or burden of financial support, as in v 9. Same word as in 2 Cor 4:17. Elsewhere only as "burden" in Mt 20:12; Act 15:28; Gal 6:2; Rev 2:24. GK 983. Related to "burden-on" in 2:9.
3. Or, "children, minors, innocent ones". That is, as opposed to "with weight", relating to you based on our authority. It is the word "child, baby" used in a metaphorical sense, "innocent ones", without adult self-confidence, as in 1 Cor 2:3. On this word, see "infant" in 1 Cor 3:1. The related verb is in 1 Cor 14:20. Some manuscripts say "gentle" {B}. Making a single metaphor, "gentle in your midst, as when a nurse cherishes her children. In this manner..." (on "gentle", see "kind" in 2 Tim 2:24).
4. Or, "feeder". This word refers to one who feeds or rears a child, including the mother. Paul may be referring to himself as the mother, as he does in Gal 4:19, or simply as the nurse of the children put in his care. Used only here. GK 5577. Related to "feed" in Lk 23:29.
5. Or, "gives warmth to, warms in one's bosom". Elsewhere only in Eph 5:29. GK 2499. The root word is "warm".
6. Used only here. GK 3916. This word was found on a gravestone of parents "longing" for their dead child.
7. Or, "souls". Some think Paul means "to expend our own lives for you". We poured out our lives for you. Others think he means "to impart our own souls to you", joining souls with you in love. On this word, see "soul" in Jam 5:20.
8. Same word as in 2 Thes 3:8. On this word, see Mt 26:10. Some manuscripts add "for" {N}, so that it says "hardship. For working..."
9. On "by night and by day", see Rev 7:15.
10. Or, "be burdensome, put a weight on, weigh heavily on". That is, put a financial burden on you. Elsewhere only in 2 Thes 3:8; 2 Cor 2:5. GK 2096. Related to "weight" in v 7; and "burdened" in 2 Cor 1:8.
11. Used only here. GK 4010. Related to "holy" in Heb 7:26.
12. Or, "to, toward, for".
13. This is supplied from v 10. Others suggest "how we dealt with each one of you as... children, exhorting..."; others change it to "how... we exhorted, and encouraged...". There are other views.
14. This is the Greek word order of verse 11-12. Some smooth it out by omitting this word, "how we were exhorting and encouraging and imploring each one of you as a father his own children, so that..."
15. Or, "affirming", as witnesses to the truth. Same word as in Gal 5:3; Eph 4:17. Elsewhere only as "bear witness" in Act 20:26; 26:22. GK 3458. Related to "witness" in v 10, on which see Act 1:8.
16. This clause gives the purpose of these actions. Or, "that you walk", giving the content of the exhorting, encouraging and testifying. The idiom is literally "for you to walk".
17. Some manuscripts say "having called" {B}. See Rom 8:30 on "called".
18. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
19. This looks forward to the "because" phrase next. Others think it looks backward, "Because we spoke the gospel of God to you in this way and for this purpose", v 2-12; or, "because God is the One calling you into His kingdom", v 12. In this case, Paul says "And for this reason, we are indeed giving thanks to God unceasingly that having received..."
20. Or, "also", along with you.
21. Or, "that", so that it says "giving thanks unceasingly that...", giving the content of the thanksgiving.
22. Or, "having received from us the word heard from God". This idiom is literally, "received the word of hearing from us of God", that is, the word or message consisting of what was heard from us, which is from God. On this noun, see "hearing" in Heb 4:2.
23. Or, "in operation". Same word as Eph 3:20; and "working" in Phil 2:13. On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
24. Or, "both", so that it says "the ones having killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets".
25. As Jesus said, Mt 23:31, 37; Lk 11:47-51. As Stephen said, Act 7:52. Some manuscripts say "their own prophets" {A}.
26. The word "drove out" is the word "persecuted" with the prefix "out" added. Used only here. GK 1691.
27. Or, "hostile, opposite, opposed". Same word as in Mt 14:24; Mk 6:48; Act 26:9; 27:4; 28:17; Tit 2:8. Elsewhere only as "opposite" in Mk 15:39. GK 1885.
28. Or, "hindering, preventing". On this word, see 1 Cor 14:39.
29. The Jews fill the measure of their sins fuller at all times. Compare Gen 15:16. Others think Paul is expressing the purpose of God, "so that they might fill up". Compare Mt 23:34-35. Same word as in 1 Cor 16:17; Phil 2:30. Elsewhere only as "fulfill" in Mt 13:14; Gal 6:2; and "filling" in 1 Cor 14:16. GK 405. Related word in Mt 23:32.
30. Some think Paul means the wrath of God appropriate to Israel's sin (Rom 1:18). The kingdom was taken from them (Mt 21:43; 23:38); the truth hidden from them (Lk 19:42); their hearts hardened by God (Rom 11:7). Others think he means the end-time wrath of the Messiah, the "coming wrath" (1 Thes 1:10; 5:9), beginning with their hardening, but looking forward to the destruction of Jerusalem and the wrath associated with the Second Coming. On this word, see Rev 16:19. Some manuscripts add "of God" {A}.
31. Same word as Mt 12:28; Lk 11:20. Elsewhere only as "attain" in Rom 9:31; Phil 3:16; "arrive" in 2 Cor 10:14; and "precede" in 1 Thes 4:15. GK 5777. Some manuscripts say "has come" {N}.
32. This phrase means "to the end, to the full extent, to the completion", as to the content of it. Or, "to the end, at last, finally, continually", as to the time of it. Elsewhere only as "to the end" in Mt 10:22; 24:13; Mk 13:13; Jn 13:1; and "continually" in Lk 18:5. Here, Paul could mean "fully", in its full manifestation, to the extreme. Or he could mean "at last, finally". On this word, see "end" in Rom 10:4.
33. Or, "made orphans". The idea is that Paul was unwillingly and abruptly separated from those he loved, as seen in Act 17:5-10. Used only here. GK 682. Related to the word in Jam 1:27.
34. That is, for a short time.
35. Or, we "made more effort". On this word, see "being diligent" in Eph 4:3.
36. Or, "For, Therefore". Paul's desire to see the Thessalonians was increased by Satan's prevention of it (compare 3:5). On this word, see Rom 1:21.
37. Or, "intended, desired". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
38. Paul uses grammar that emphasizes this word. He may be clarifying the editorial "we" in "we wanted" as referring to himself; or if that "we" includes Silvanus and Timothy, he means "especially me".
39. That is, repeatedly. Same phrase as in Phil 4:16.

1. Or, "who". This word is used both ways. GK 5515.

6. This word is plural, going with "we". Some think it is an editorial "we", referring to Paul alone. On this word, see Jam 2:24.
7. On this word, see Rom 16:3. Instead of "fellow-worker", some manuscripts have a word meaning "servant" or "minister". Others have both words, "minister and fellow-worker". Others say "and minister of God and our fellow-worker..." {B}.
8. Or, "in connection with". GK 1877.
9. Or, "stabilize, support, fix, set, confirm, strengthen". Same word as in v 13; Lk 22:32; Rom 1:11; 16:25; 2 Thes 2:17; 3:3; Jam 5:8; 2 Pet 1:12; Rev 3:2. Elsewhere only as "set" in Lk 9:51; "fixed" in Lk 16:26; "support" in 1 Pet 5:10. GK 5114. Related to "steadfastness" in 2 Pet 3:17.
10. Some manuscripts include this word {N}.
11. Or, "shaken, moved". Used only here. GK 4883. Some think Paul means "deceived". The root word means "to shake".
12. Paul was concerned about the Thessalonians' reaction to the persecution they all experienced. On this word, see Rev 7:14.
13. Or, "destined". Same word as in Phil 1:16. Paul was destined to proclaim the gospel to the Gentiles. The flip side of this destiny was suffering and persecution at the hands of his countrymen.
14. More literally, "are", as the Greek typically phrases it.
15. That is, to explain the afflictions, v 3.
16. More literally, "did tempt... prove to be", as the Greek typically phrases it.
17. Or, "become". Same word as in 1:5.
18. That is, without lasting result. Same word as "empty" in 2:1.
19. As recorded in Act 18:5. This was the occasion for writing this letter.
20. Or, "and that you have a good remembrance of us, always yearning to see us".
21. Or, "constraint". On this word, see "necessity" in 1 Cor 7:26.
22. On this word, see Rev 7:14. Some manuscripts say "affliction and distress" {K}.
23. Or, "repay, give back". On this word, see "repay" in 2 Thes 1:6.
24. This is the verb related to "joy", so Paul is saying "for all the joy with which we are joyful...". On this word, see 2 Cor 13:11.
25. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {K}.
26. Same grammar as in 1 Cor 1:8.
27. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {K}.
28. Some think Paul means redeemed ones, "saints", as seen in 4:14; others, "angels", as seen in 2 Thes 1:7; Mk 8:38; others, both. On this word, see 1 Pet 1:16.
29. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
30. Or, "urge". Same word as in v 10. On this word, see Rom 12:8.
31. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, so that it says "Lord Jesus—just as you received...".

35. This word refers to sexual immorality of all kinds, before marriage (1 Cor 7:2), and during marriage (Mt 5:32). On this word, see 1 Cor 5:1.
36. Or, "get, obtain, procure, gain". Same word as in Mt 10:9; Act 1:18; 8:20; 22:28. Elsewhere only as "get" in Lk 18:12; and "gain" in Lk 21:19. GK 3227. Related to "property" (the thing acquired) in Mt 19:22; and "owner" in Act 4:34.
37. Since the earliest times, opinion has been divided over whether Paul uses "vessel" here to refer to "body" (as in 2 Cor 4:7), or "wife" (as in 1 Pet 3:7). Thus he may mean "to acquire his own wife" in holiness, referring to premarital purity and to pursuing marriage in order to avoid immorality (1 Cor 7:2-5). This is a Hebrew way of speaking, as seen in Ruth 4:10. "Each of you" would then be limited to "all the unmarried". Or Paul may mean "to acquire mastery of his own body", "each of you" then meaning "all of you". This is a very general word, also meaning "container, instrument, object, thing, gear". Used 23 times. GK 5007.

40. Or, "go beyond, transgress". Used only here. GK 5648.
41. Or, "take advantage of, cheat, defraud". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 2:11; 7:2; 12:17, 18. GK 4430. Related to "greed" in Eph 4:19. The idea is, "take advantage of someone for our own selfish purposes, self-seeking fraud".

1. That is, love expressed toward your Christian brothers and sisters. On this word, see Heb 13:1.
2. Or, "taught-by-God". This adjective is used only here. GK 2531. God is love, and as He abides in us, He teaches us to be like Himself.
3. That is, toward the end or goal that you be loving one another. God Himself teaches you to this end. Others think Paul means "so that you are loving one another", giving the result of God's teaching.
4. Or, "and to make it your ambition to be quiet". On this word, see Rom 15:20.
5. Or, "to lead a quiet life". Same word as in Lk 14:4; Act 11:18; 21:14. Elsewhere only as "rest" in Lk 23:56, describing Sabbath behavior. GK 2483. Related to "quietness" in 1 Tim 2:11; and "quiet" in 1 Pet 3:4.
6. That is, tending to your own affairs. On this phrase, see Jn 19:27.
7. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
8. Or, "no one". GK 3594.
9. Some manuscripts say "I" {N}.
10. Or, "sleeping". That is, dead; or, ones dying from time to time. Same word as in v 14, 15. Not the same word as in 5:6, 7. This word is used as a euphemism for "death" also in Mt 27:52; Jn 11:11; Act 7:60; 13:36; 1 Cor 7:39; 11:30; 15:6, 18, 20, 51; 2 Pet 3:4. Used 18 times. GK 3121. Some manuscripts say "having fallen asleep" {N}.
11. Or, "so that" you will not grieve. GK 2671.
12. Christians do not grieve over the eternal loss of the dead one, as do those without hope. Both grieve over the temporal, earthly loss of a loved one.
13. Or, "in this manner also". For clarity, some add next "we believe that".
14. Or, "by means of Jesus". In the Greek word order, "through Jesus" stands between "falling asleep" and "will bring". Some think Paul means "through Jesus (by His agency) God will bring with Him the ones..."; others, "the ones having fallen asleep through Jesus", which some think means "having fallen asleep into the presence of God through what Jesus has done", having entered into rest through Jesus. "In Jesus" is a paraphrase representing this view. From this rest Jesus will bring them with Him. GK 1328.
15. Or, "the ones being left-behind". Used only here and v 17. GK 4335. The root word means "to leave". Paul is referring to those remaining alive at that time, those who have not yet fallen asleep. We, like Paul, hope we are in this group.
16. Same word as in 2:19; 3:13; 5:23. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:8.
17. Or, "never". This is an emphatic negative, on which see "never" in Gal 5:16.
18. Or, "That", a second thing Paul says to you by the word of the Lord, v 15.
19. Or, "signal-call, word of command, command". Used only here. GK 3026. Related to "order" in Mt 14:28.
20. That is, a ruling or chief angel. On this word, see Jude 9.
21. That is, a trumpet sound. Elsewhere only in Mt 24:31; 1 Cor 14:8; 15:52; Heb 12:19; Rev 1:10; 4:1; 8:2, 6, 13; 9:14. GK 4894.
22. Our word "rapture" comes from the Latin translation of this word. The timing of this event in relation to the coming of Christ is a subject of debate. On this word, see "snatched away" in 2 Cor 12:2.
23. Or, "at the same time". Same word as in Mt 13:29; 20:1; Rom 3:12; 1 Thes 5:10. Elsewhere only as "at the same time" in Act 24:26; 27:40; Col 4:3; 1 Tim 5:13; Phm 22. GK 275. The resurrection of the Christian dead and the living Christians are consecutive events ("first"... "then"), which occur at the same time, so that we will all meet Jesus together in the air. See also 1 Cor 15:51-52.
24. Some think Paul means "in the clouds", as the place where the returning believers are; others, "in clouds" or "on clouds", by means of clouds, enveloped in clouds, into the clouds. GK 1877.
25. This is an idiom, literally "for a meeting of the Lord". On this, see Mt 25:6.
26. Or, "comforting". Same word as in 5:11. On this word, see "exhorting" in Rom 12:8.
27. On this word, see "time" in Mt 8:29. The phrase "the times or the seasons" is also in Act 1:7.
28. This phrase, "day of the Lord", occurs in the NT only in Act 2:20; 1 Cor 1:8; 5:5; 2 Cor 1:14; 2 Thes 2:2; 2 Pet 3:10. Related "day" phrases that refer to end-time events occur in Mt 7:22; 10:15; 12:36; 24:36; Mk 13:32; Lk 17:24, 30; Jn 6:39; 11:24; 12:48; Rom 2:5, 16; 1 Cor 3:13; Eph 4:30; Phil 1:6, 10; 2:16; 2 Thes 1:10; 2 Tim 1:12, 18; 4:8; 2 Pet 2:9; 3:7, 12; 1 Jn 4:17; Jude 6; Rev 6:17; 16:14; etc.
29. That is, unexpected and unwelcome. Same word as in Mt 24:43; Lk 12:39; 2 Pet 3:10; Rev 3:3; 16:15. Used 16 times. GK 3095.
30. Some manuscripts say "For when" {N}.
31. Or, "sudden, unforeseen". Same word as in Lk 21:34, which brings out another aspect of this for Christians. This adjective modifies "destruction". It is a destruction which may be described as "unexpected, sudden, unforeseen" by such people. When their expectation is for peace and safety, it comes upon them. It is not sudden in the sense of "instantaneous", but in its onset. Many prefer to render this as an adverb, "suddenly, with unexpectedness".
32. On this word, see Lk 21:34. It is used here in the sense of "come upon suddenly or by surprise, spring upon".
33. Some think the main point of comparison is the "sudden unexpectedness" with which both begin. While the mother goes on as normal, the birthpains suddenly begin. Other think the main point is that both start small and relentlessly build to an inevitable conclusion. Other secondary nuances of the analogy have also been suggested.
34. Elsewhere only in Mt 24:8; Mk 13:8; and in as "pains" in Act 2:24. GK 6047. Related words in Gal 4:19 and Rom 8:22.
35. The phrase "having a child in the womb" is also in Mt 1:18, 23; 24:19; Mk 13:17; Lk 21:23; Rev 12:2. Same word as in Lk 1:31. Elsewhere only as "glutton" in Tit 1:12, one living for their belly. GK 1143.
36. That day will not, or should not (Lk 21:34-36; Mt 24:42-25:13; etc.) come unexpectedly to Christians, because we are watching for it.
37. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
38. That is, belonging to the light. Same phrase as in Lk 16:8. Compare Eph 5:9.
39. Or, "staying alert, keeping awake". Elsewhere only in v 10; and in Mt 24:42, 43; 25:13; 26:38, 40, 41; Mk 13:34, 35, 37; 14:34, 37, 38; Lk 12:37; Act 20:31; 1 Cor 16:13; Col 4:2; 1 Pet 5:8; Rev 3:2, 3; 16:15. GK 1213.
40. Compare the breastplate and helmet in Eph 6:14, 17.

1. Or, "make, destine". Same word as in Jn 15:16; Act 1:7; 1 Tim 1:12; 2:7; 2 Tim 1:11; Heb 1:2; 1 Pet 2:8. On this word, see "put" in Act 19:21.
2. Some think Paul is referring in particular to the wrath of the tribulation as described in Revelation. Others think he is referring in general to the opposite of salvation, the destiny of the unbelievers. Compare 1:10.
3. Or, "possession". Same word as in 2 Thes 2:14. Elsewhere only as "possession" in Eph 1:14; 1 Pet 2:9; and "preserving" in Heb 10:39. GK 4348. Related to "obtain" in 1 Tim 3:13.
4. Same word as in 5:6, 7. Not related to "fallen asleep" in 4:13, 14, 15. Some think Paul means whether we are physically alive (living, remaining, 4:15) and therefore "keeping watch", or dead (fallen asleep, 4:15). Others think he means "sleep" in the same sense as in v 6, where believers are commanded not to do it. Believers sleeping in an unprepared state, similar to the unbelievers, will be overtaken by the event, but saved nevertheless. Used 22 times. GK 2761. Compare Lk 21:34-36.
5. This is an idiom, literally, "one the one". These two words are the numeral "one". On "one", see Eph 4:7.
6. That is, in the sense of "to stand in close relationship with, to recognize, respect". On this word, see 1 Jn 2:29.
7. Or, "regarding, considering". On this word, see "regard" in Jam 1:2. It is a play on words, because this word also means "to lead, rule", as in Heb 13:7. Take the lead in thinking of your leaders superabundantly in love.
8. Or, "immeasurably, surpassingly, beyond all measure". Elsewhere only in Eph 3:20; 1 Thes 3:10. GK 5655. Related word in Rom 5:20.
9. Used only here. GK 864. Related words are used in 2 Thes 3:6, 7.
10. Or, "consoling". Same word as in 2:12. Elsewhere only as "console" in Jn 11:19, 31. GK 4170. Related to "consolation" in 1 Cor 14:3; Phil 2:1.
11. Or, "clinging to, being devoted to, helping, supporting". Do not abandon the weak. Same word as in Tit 1:9. Elsewhere only as "be devoted to" in Mt 6:24; Lk 16:13. GK 504.
12. Or, "sick". The context seems to point to spiritual weakness. The word is used of both physical (as in Act 5:15, 16) and spiritual (as in 1 Cor 8:7; 9:22) sickness or weakness. Used 26 times. GK 822. Related to "weakness" in Mt 8:17.
13. Same word as in Rom 12:17; 1 Pet 3:9. On this word, see "render" in Mt 16:27.
14. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
15. Or, "at all times". Used 41 times, 27 being by Paul. GK 4121.
16. Same word as in 1:2; 2:13. On this word, see Rom 1:9.
17. Or, "stifling, suppressing, extinguishing". Same word as in Mt 12:20; Mk 9:48; Eph 6:16; Heb 11:34. Elsewhere only as "go out" in Mt 25:8. GK 4931.
18. That is, in all His gifts, manifestations, and promptings.
19. This word "treat with contempt" also means "disdain, despise, reject with contempt". Same word as in Lk 18:9; 23:11; Act 4:11; Rom 14:3, 10; 1 Cor 1:28; 16:11; 2 Cor 10:10; Gal 4:14. Elsewhere only as "be of no account" in 1 Cor 6:4. GK 2024. Related word in Mk 9:12.
20. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
21. Or, "proving by testing". On this word, see "approve" in Rom 12:2. Compare 1 Jn 4:1; 1 Cor 14:29.
22. Some take these two phrases with what precedes, "but be testing all things, holding on to the good, abstaining from every form of evil", so that they refer specifically to the spiritual manifestations. Others pair them as separate exhortations, with a broad reference, similar to Phil 4:8. On this word, see "hold down" in Rom 1:18.
23. That is, that which is commendable, beautiful, praiseworthy. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10a.
24. Or, "outward appearance". This word also means "species, kind, class, sort", and some prefer this meaning here. On this word, see "appearance" in 2 Cor 5:7.
25. Or, "make you holy, set you apart [to Himself]". On this word, see Heb 10:29.
26. Or, "through and through, in every way, altogether". Used only here. GK 3911. This adjective is made of two words, "whole" and "complete". May God "make you holy through and through", in every aspect of your life.
27. This adjective is related to "wholly". It is made of two words, "whole" and "parts", meaning "complete in all its parts, entire, complete"; and thus, "intact, sound, undamaged". Elsewhere only in Jam 1:4, where it is explained as "lacking in nothing". GK 3908. Related to "wholeness" in Act 3:16. Here, some think Paul means "whole", and modifies the nouns, "whole spirit and soul and body". Others think he means "complete, sound", and link it to the verb "be preserved complete", or sound. In this case, the Greek word order would indicate that this word is emphatic.
28. This threefold division occurs only here. "Soul and spirit" is in Heb 4:12; "soul and body" in Mt 10:28; "heart and soul and mind" in Mt 22:37; and "spirit and body" in Jam 2:26. "Soul" is our immaterial part that relates to this earth. "Spirit" is our immaterial part that relates to God. Some think we have three parts. Others think we have two parts, with the immaterial part being viewed from two different viewpoints.
29. Or, "kept, guarded, protected". On this word, see "keeping" in 1 Jn 5:18.
30. That is, in such a way as to incur no blame on yourself. This adverb is elsewhere only in 2:10. GK 290. Related to "blameless" in Phil 3:6.
31. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
32. That is, I make you swear, I put you under oath by the Lord, that it will be done; I command you as if under oath. Used only here. GK 1941. Related to "make swear" in Act 19:13, and some manuscripts have that word here {N}. Related to "oath" in Jam 5:12; and "put under oath" in Mt 26:63.
33. Some manuscripts say "holy brothers" {A}.
34. Some manuscripts add "amen" {A}.

1. This letter was written in Act 18:11.
2. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "God the Father".
3. Or, "a plain indication, a proof". The evidence is the Thessalonians' growing faith, love, and endurance amidst their afflictions. Used only here. GK 1891. Related to "demonstrate" in Eph 2:7, and "sign" in a similar statement in Phil 1:28.
4. Some think Paul is referring to God's present judgment of the Thessalonians as seen in their trials, His evidence-producing testing of them now. Others think he is referring to the future judgment God will make about them, His considering them worthy on that future day; others, to the present judgment He makes about them, His present considering them worthy, which will also be experienced by them on that future day. Their behavior now (the "fruit" in their lives) is evidence that His judgment of them (and their persecutors) will be (or is and will be) righteous. On this word, see Jn 3:19.
5. This idiom is literally "for you to be considered worthy". Some think it gives the purpose of the testing or evidence, or of God's future judgment of the Thessalonians ("... God, so that you may be considered worthy"); others, the result of His judgment of them ("... God, so that you will be [or, are] considered worthy"); others, the content of His judgment about them ("... God that you will be [or, are] considered worthy").
6. Elsewhere only in Lk 20:35; Act 5:41. GK 2921. Related to the word in v 11.
7. Or, "indeed". Some think Paul means "also", along with us (note v 7).
8. Or, "If as is the case". On this word, see Rom 8:9.
9. Or, "before, in the sight of". GK 4123.
10. Or, "return, give back, requite". Same word as in Rom 12:19 and Heb 10:30, "vengeance is mine, I will repay"; and in Lk 14:14; Rom 11:35. Elsewhere only as "return" in 1 Thes 3:9. GK 500. Related to "payback" in Col 3:24; and "retribution" in Rom 11:9.
11. The "affliction" is the punishment of v 8-9. Same word as in v 4.
12. Or, "relief, refreshment". On this word, see 2 Cor 8:13. The "rest" is the kingdom of God of v 5. It will be rest, relief from their suffering.
13. Or, "disclosure". That is, the second coming of Christ. Same word as in Rom 2:5; 8:19; 1 Cor 1:7; 1 Pet 1:7, 13; 4:13. Elsewhere only of truth revealed by God in Lk 2:32; Rom 16:25; 1 Cor 14:6, 26; 2 Cor 12:1, 7; Gal 1:12; 2:2; Eph 1:17; 3:3; Rev 1:1. GK 637. See the related verb in 2:3.
14. That is, angels in possession of God's power. Or, "His angels of power", or, "His powerful angels".
15. Elsewhere only as "flame" in Lk 16:24; Act 7:30; Heb 1:7; Rev 1:14; 2:18; 19:12. GK 5825.
16. More literally, "in a fire of flame", a fire characterized by flame, an expression found only here. Some manuscripts say "in a flame of fire" {N}, a flame belonging to a fire (as in the other uses of the word "flame").
17. Or, "vengeance". Grammatically, "the Lord Jesus" is the subject of this word. Same word as in 2 Cor 7:11; 1 Pet 2:14. Elsewhere only as "vengeance" in Lk 18:7, 8; 21:22; Act 7:24; and in Rom 12:19 and Heb 10:30, "Vengeance is mine". GK 1689. Related to "punish" in 2 Cor 10:6; and "avenger" in Rom 13:4.
18. Or, "even". Some think the two groups named here refer to Gentiles and Jews; others, that this is another description of the first group.
19. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {K}.
20. Or, "punishment". Same word as in Jude 7. Related to the word "punishment" in v 8.
21. Same word as in 1 Thes 5:3. On this word, see 1 Cor 5:5.
22. Some think Paul means "away from"—such ones will be separated "away from" His presence. Others think he means "proceeding from"—the penalty proceeds from the Lord. Others think he means "because of". GK 608.
23. That is, the glory originating in or emanating from His strength. On this word, see Eph 1:19.
24. Returning to Jesus as the subject, Paul concludes his description of what will take place at His "revelation". Others make this point 2G., "who will pay the penalty... when He comes to be glorified".
25. Elsewhere only in v 12. GK 1901. Related to the word in Rom 8:30.
26. Or, "admired, wondered at". On this word, see "caused to marvel" in Rev 17:8.
27. Both "among" here and "in" earlier in the verse are the same word, and can be translated "in, by, among". GK 1877.
28. Some manuscripts say "the ones believing" {N}.
29. This is the Greek word order. Some render this "believed—because our testimony to you in connection with that day was believed".
30. Or, "To which end". In this rendering Paul is referring to v 3-4, their faith and love; or to v 5, their worthiness ("I am praying that you continue to grow in faith and love [or, worthiness], in order that God may indeed consider you worthy now, and fulfill your efforts for Him"). Others think he is referring to v 5-10, their participation in the blessed event of that day, their salvation, making this point 2D. ("I am praying that you will be among those receiving His rest and glorifying the Lord on that day, specifically, that even now God might consider you worthy"). Others think this is a general reference to that future day, making this point 3F. ("Aiming at which blessed day for us all, I am praying that God might even now consider you worthy"). Others think this refers to their believing in v 10, making this point 1G. ("I am praying that you believe our testimony, in order that God..."). Consult the commentaries.
31. Or, "indeed". Some think Paul means in addition to giving thanks for it, v 3.
32. Paul may be giving the purpose of his prayer ("in order that"), or the content of it ("that"). GK 2671.
33. This word "consider worthy, deserving, fitting" is related to the word in v 5. Same word as in Lk 7:7; 1 Tim 5:17; Heb 3:3; 10:29. Elsewhere only as "consider fitting" in Act 15:38; 28:22. GK 546. Related to "worthy" in Rev 16:6; and "worthily" in 3 Jn 6.
34. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:10. Related to "called" in 2:14.
35. Or, "good pleasure". On this word, see "good pleasure" in Eph 1:5.
36. Some think Paul means your "every desire for goodness"; others, "all the good pleasure of [God's] goodness" (that is, His will for you). On this word, see Gal 5:22.
37. That is, works proceeding from faith, or characterized by faith. Compare 1 Thes 1:3; Gal 5:6.
38. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {N}.
39. Some think Paul means glorified now, in your goodness and works fulfilled with power; others, on that day, v 10.
40. Or, "based on, in accordance with". GK 2848.

1. Or, "assembling, meeting". Elsewhere only in Heb 10:25. GK 2191. The related verb is used in Mt 24:31 and Mk 13:27 of gathering together Christ's elect at the end. See 1 Thes 4:15-17.
 2. Or, "frightened, troubled". Elsewhere only in Mt 24:6 and Mk 13:7, "do not be alarmed, it is not yet the end". GK 2583.
 3. Or, a "spiritual gift or manifestation", such as a prophecy (see 1 Cor 14:12 on this use of this word).
 4. Compare "word" and "letter" in 2:15 and 3:14.
 5. Some think "as if through us" applies to all three; others, to the last two; others, to the letter only.
 6. On "how that", see 2 Cor 11:21. This phrase indicates Paul is quoting what someone else said.
 7. On "the day of the Lord", see 1 Thes 5:2. Some manuscripts say "day of Christ" {N}.
 8. Or, "has come, is here". On this word, see Heb 9:9.
 9. This is supplied from the end of v 2. Others supply "it will not come".
 10. Or, "abandonment, rebellion, falling away". Elsewhere only in Act 21:21. GK 686. Related to "depart", 1 Tim 4:1. Some have identified this with a first-century religious or political event; others, with such an event in history. Others think Paul is referring to a religious apostasy future to him, and still future to us.
 11. Some think Paul means that these two things—the apostasy and the man of lawlessness—must occur before the day of the Lord comes. Others think he means they are among the first events of the day of the Lord.
 12. On this word, see 1 Jn 3:4. Some manuscripts say the "man of sin" {B}. Some think this refers to a first-century person like Nero; others, to various other people in history. Others think it is not a man, but a personification of evil. Others think this is a man yet to be revealed, the still future Antichrist.
 13. Or, "disclosed, made known". Elsewhere only in Mt 10:26; 11:25, 27; 16:17; Lk 2:35; 10:21, 22; 12:2; 17:30; Jn 12:38; Rom 1:17, 18; 8:18; 1 Cor 2:10; 3:13; 14:30; Gal 1:16; 3:23; Eph 3:5; Phil 3:15; 2 Thes 2:6, 8; 1 Pet 1:5, 12; 5:1. Some think Paul means the Jewish temple (Mt 24:15), and that it will be rebuilt prior to the tribulation. Others think it is an abstract term for the visible church on earth. This man demands worship. There are other views.
 20. Or, "showing, attesting, exhibiting, proving". Same word as in 1 Cor 4:9. Elsewhere only as "attest" in Act 2:22; and "prove" in Act 25:7. GK 617. Related to "demonstration" in 1 Cor 2:4.

- Some think the restrainer is the Holy Spirit, making this "the One restraining". Others think this refers to some agent of God restraining evil, such as government, or the church (the body of Christ). Others think it is God's action of binding Satan; or granting dominance to the Gentiles, Lk 21:24; or waiting for the gospel to be proclaimed to the world, Mt 24:14. There are many other views.
22. That is, the time belonging to him. Compare "your hour" in Lk 22:53. Compare the similar phrase in 1 Tim 2:6.

 24. Or, "in operation, working". On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
 25. Paul changes from the "thing" restraining, to the "one" restraining. Some think this points to the identity of the restrainer as the Holy Spirit, since the neuter word "spirit" refers to the person of the Spirit. Others think it refers to the personal head of a government system. There are other views.
 26. Or, "at this moment". Used by Paul only as "now" in 1 Cor 4:13; 8:7; 13:12; 15:6; 16:7; Gal 1:9, 10; 4:20; "present" in 1 Cor 4:11; and "just now" in 1 Thes 3:6. On this word, see "now" in Rev 12:10.
 27. Or, "becomes, comes to be". GK 1181. This is a common word used 669 times, but rendered "taken" only here (NIV). 12. Or, "questionings". Used only here. GK 1700. Related to "seek out" in Heb 11:6. Here, the questionings are not seeking out God, but useless things like genealogies, which do not aid faith, and may even harm it (see 6:4-5). Related to "controversies" in 6:4, which some manuscripts have here {B}.
13. Or, "arrangement, mode of operation". On this word, see Eph 1:10. Some manuscripts instead say "edification from God" {N}.
14. Or, "in the sphere of, in connection with". That is, by faith in what God has revealed, not human speculation. The grammar indicates this modifies "stewardship". GK 1877.
15. Or, "end, aim". On this word, see "end" in Rom 10:4.
16. Or, "instruction, order". Same word as in Act 5:28; 16:24; 1 Thes 4:2. Elsewhere only as "instruction" in 1 Tim 1:18. GK 4132. Related to the word in v 3.
17. The grammar indicates that the goal is love proceeding from the following three sources, not just any love.
18. Or, "genuine, without hypocrisy". On this word, see Rom 12:9.
19. Or, "missed the mark, deviated". Elsewhere only as "miss the mark" in 6:21; 2 Tim 2:18. GK 846. Or, "From which, having departed, some turned aside". Same construction as in 1:19; 6:10, 21.
20. This word is plural, referring to the clean heart, good conscience and sincere faith.
21. Or, "turned away". Same word as in 5:15; 6:20; 2 Tim 4:4. Elsewhere only as "dislocated" in Heb 12:13. GK 1762.

25. Or, "confidently asserting, insisting". Elsewhere only in Tit 3:8. GK 1331.

27. Or, "set in place, given; does not exist". On this word, see "lying" in Mt 3:10.
28. The Law is for the instruction and punishment of Law-breakers, not for those who are righteous by faith in Christ. These people have missed the mark on this and are still attempting to teach and live by the rule of law instead of love. On this word, see Rom 1:17.
29. Or, "worldly, godless, irreligious". That is, one who lives by material, earthly values, without regard for spiritual things. Elsewhere only in 4:7; 6:20; 2 Tim 2:16; Heb 12:16. GK 1013. Related to "profane" in Mt 12:5.
30. Both words are used only here, and have as their root word the word "thresh" in 5:18. Paul could mean "ones treading-on-parents" or "thrashing" or "abusing" them in the broadest sense—physically, verbally, financially, emotionally, socially, etc. In this case, "thrashing" is the opposite of "honoring" them. Or, the meaning could be restricted to physical abuse, "assaulting, thrashing", as the root verb is used in the Greek OT in Judg 8:7 (thresh, NASB), 16 (disciplined, NASB). The Law is for "parent-strikers", "parent-bashers". Or, he could mean "crushing" to the point of death, "parent-killers". Paul is figuratively referring to the violation of the fifth commandment, the only question being the scope of the violation he has in mind. GK 4260 and 3618.
31. That is, murderers. The word "slayer" is related to the word in the sixth commandment, "You shall not murder", on which see Jam 4:2. Used only here. GK 439. With regard to women, this word meant "husband-killers". Compare the unrelated word "murderer" in 1 Jn 3:15.

34. Or, "opposes". On this word, see "oppose" in Phil 1:28.
35. Or, "sound, correct". This is a participle, "teaching being healthy". Used of "teaching" in 1 Tim 1:10; 2 Tim 4:3; Tit 1:9; 2:1; of "words" in 1 Tim 6:3; 2 Tim 1:13; of "faith" in Tit 1:13; 2:2. Elsewhere only in Lk 5:31; 7:10; 15:27; 3 Jn 2. GK 5617. Related to "healthy" in Mt 12:13.
36. Or, "based on, in accordance with". Some instead link this phrase with v 8, "using it lawfully... in accordance with"; or, with v 9, "knowing this... in accordance with". GK 2848.

1. Sparked by "entrusted" in v 11, how natural it is for Paul to think back with gratitude for his own ministry just before he begins to "deposit" his instructions on ministry with Timothy. On "have gratitude", see Lk 17:9. Some manuscripts say "And I have gratitude" {N}.
2. Or, "faithful". That is, a faithful or trustworthy one who would fulfill the ministry to which God was appointing him. Same word as in v 15.
3. Or, "having put" into service. Same word as in 2:7; 2 Tim 1:11; 1 Thes 5:9; Jn 15:16; Act 1:7; Heb 1:2. On this word, see "put" in Act 19:21.
4. Or, "ministry". On this word, see "ministries" in 1 Cor 12:5.
5. Some manuscripts say "service—the one formerly being..." {N}.
6. That is, one who slandered or spoke against God and His people. Elsewhere only in Act 6:11; 2 Tim 3:2; 2 Pet 2:11. GK 1061. Related to "blasphemy" in 6:4; and "to blaspheme" in 6:1.
7. Or, "insolent". Elsewhere only in Rom 1:30. GK 561/6. Note 1 Cor 15:9. Related to "insult" in 2 Cor 12:10; and "mistreat" in 1 Thes 2:2.
8. Same word as in Mt 13:58; Mk 6:6; 9:24; 16:14; Rom 4:20; 11:20, 23; Heb 3:12, 19. Elsewhere only as "faithlessness" in Rom 3:3. GK 602.
9. The grammar indicates this modifies "faith and love".
10. Or, "faithful". Same word as in 3:1; 4:9; 2 Tim 2:11; Tit 3:8; Rev 21:5; 22:6. On this word, see "faithful" in Col 1:2.
11. Or, "complete, total, entire, all". Acceptance without reservation. This common word is normally rendered "all, every". GK 4246.
12. Or, "chief, first, the leading one". Compare 1 Cor 15:9; Eph 3:8. Yet Paul also says 2 Cor 12:11. On this word, see "first" in 1 Cor 15:3.
13. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {N}.
14. Or, "show, display, give proof of". On this word, see Eph 2:7.
15. Or, "sketch, outline". Elsewhere only in 2 Tim 1:13. GK 5721. Related to "pattern" in 1 Pet 5:3.
16. On "put faith upon", see Rom 4:5.

18. Some manuscripts add "wise" {N}, the only wise God.
19. Or, "placing before, entrusting, committing, setting before". Same word as in 2 Tim 2:2. On this word, see "put before" in Act 17:3. Related to "deposit" in 6:20.
20. Or, "command". That is, the following set of instructions, directives, commands, regarding men, women, elders and deacons, which Paul wants to "deposit" with Timothy "in order that by them he may fight the good fight". This makes v 18-20 the beginning of the next section. Others think Paul is referring back to v 3 or v 5, the "command" to turn the Ephesians from pursuing bad teaching to the goal of love. Others think the command is "that you fight the good fight". In both these cases, v 18-20 is viewed as the conclusion of what precedes, a new main point beginning in 2:1. Compare 3:14. Same word as "command" in v 5. Related to the word in Mt 10:5, where Jesus "instructed" them.
21. On this word, see "going ahead" in 2 Jn 9. That is, the prophecies preceding Timothy's ministry, having to do with what God would do through him. Compare 4:14.
22. Paul may mean "by following the contents of this instruction", the "instruction" now being viewed as individual "instructions". Or he may mean "in the sphere of the prophecies, in connection with the prophecies"; that in living out the prophecies, you may fight the good fight with the help of this instruction.
23. This word means "fight in war, serve as soldier". It is the same root word as the words for soldier, army, warfare, captain. Elsewhere only as "serve as a soldier" in Lk 3:14; 1 Cor 9:7; 2 Tim 2:4; and "wage war" in 2 Cor 10:3; Jam 4:1; 1 Pet 2:11. GK 5129.
24. Same root word as the previous verb. Or, "War the good warfare". Elsewhere only as "warfare" in 2 Cor 10:4. GK 5127.
25. Or, "rejected". On this word, see "reject" in Rom 11:1. Or, "which having pushed aside, some suffered shipwreck". Same construction as in 1:6.
26. This is singular, and refers to the "good conscience".
27. Or, "were shipwrecked". Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 11:25. GK 3728.
28. Or, "their faith". Paul may mean these men ran "the Christian faith, the truth" into the rocks as they ignored their conscience. Or, having ignored their conscience, they ran their personal faith aground, suffering a disaster.
29. Some think this is the same person as in 2 Tim 2:17. Some think Alexander is the one in Act 19:33, or the one in 2 Tim 4:14. Others reject both of these conjectures. GK 5628.
30. This same phrase occurs in 1 Cor 5:5.
31. Or, "disciplined". On this word, see "disciplined" in 1 Cor 11:32.
32. On this word, see 6:1. Perhaps Paul means "speak against the word of God", as in 6:1; Tit 2:5.

40. That is, such prayer. Some manuscripts say "For this..." {N}.
41. Or, "pleasing". Or, this may be punctuated "good and acceptable" to God. Elsewhere only in 5:4. GK 621. Related to "welcome" in Act 2:41; and "acceptance" in 1 Tim 1:15.
42. This word is used 208 times, meaning "wish, want, will, desire". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17. Compare 1 Tim 4:10; 2 Pet 3:9 (different word); 1 Jn 2:2.
43. Some think Paul means "every individual"; others, "all kinds of people". Compare 4:10.

1. Used only here. GK 519. Same root word as "redemption". On this word group, see Rom 3:24.
2. Or, impersonally, "in its own times", "at the proper times". Same phrase as in 6:15; Tit 1:3; and Gal 6:9 (singular). Some think Paul means "given in God's own times"; others "given in the gospel's own times"; others, "given at the proper times to all people". Consult the commentaries. On "own", see Act 20:28. On the testimony, compare 1 Jn 5:9-12.
3. Some manuscripts add "in Christ" {A}. That is, when I say that God appointed me an apostle.
4. Or, "in connection with". GK 1877.
5. Compare Tit 1:1, the faith of the chosen ones and the knowledge of the truth.
6. Used 85 times. GK 4667. Related to "prayer" in 2:1.
7. On this word, see "thoughts" in Jam 2:4. Some manuscripts have it plural {N}.
8. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
9. Or, "putting in order, arranging, decorating". Same word as in Mt 23:29; Lk 21:5; Tit 2:10; 1 Pet 3:5; Rev 21:2, 19. Elsewhere only as "put in order" in Mt 12:44; 25:7; Lk 11:25. GK 3175. Related to "adornment" in 1 Pet 3:3.
10. Or, "modest, respectable" in the sense of "appropriate, balanced". Elsewhere only as "respectable" in 3:2. GK 3177. This is the same root word as "adorn" earlier. The phrase could be translated, "to put themselves in order in well-ordered apparel". It is modesty with reference to what is respectable and honorable in one's culture.
11. Or, "clothing, deportment, attire". Used only here. GK 2950.
12. That is, along with. GK 3552.
13. Or, "a sense of shame, bashfulness, respect, regard for others". Used only here. GK 133.
14. Or, "good sense, moderation, discretion, self-control". Elsewhere only in v 15; Act 26:25. GK 5408. On this word group, see 3:2.
15. Some manuscripts say "or" {N}.
16. Or, "by means of, with". GK 1328. Adorn yourself through your good works, not through your wardrobe. The Greek word order is "But, which is fitting... godliness, through good works".
17. That is, works characterized by inner moral goodness, fittingly reflecting that of the women. On this word, see 5:10b.
18. Or, "proper, suitable". On this word, see 1 Cor 11:13.
19. Or, "promising". Elsewhere in this sense only in 6:21. Elsewhere 13 times meaning "to promise". GK 2040.
20. Or, "reverence, worship of God, piety". Used only here. GK 2537. Related to "God-fearing" in Jn 9:31; and "godliness" in 1 Tim 2:2.
21. This word means "woman" or "wife", based on the context. Used 215 times. It occurs also in 2:9, 10, 12, 14; 3:2, 11, 12; 5:9. The Greek is gune from which we get "gyne-cology". GK 1222.
22. Elsewhere only in v 12; Act 22:2; 2 Thes 3:12. GK 2484. Related to "quiet" in v 2; and "be quiet" in 1 Thes 4:11.
23. Same word as in 3:4; Gal 2:5. Elsewhere only as "obedience" in 2 Cor 9:13. GK 5717. Related to "be subject" in Eph 5:21.
24. Or, "allow". Same word as in 1 Cor 14:34; and as Mt 8:21; 19:8; Jn 19:38; Act 21:40; 26:1; Heb 6:3. Used 18 times. GK 2205.
25. Since women teach younger women (Tit 2:4) and prophesy (1 Cor 11:5), Paul cannot mean this absolutely. Some note "man" in the next phrase and think women are not to teach men. Others note the context and think women are not to teach in the public worship services. Just how far this exclusion might extend is debated. Others apply the underlying principle—women are not to teach outside the authority relationships God has created, meaning here the authority granted them by the elders. Others think the issue is similar to "veils" in 1 Cor 11:1-16; and the "kiss" in Rom 16:16. See also 1 Cor 14:34-35. On this word, see Rom 12:7.
26. Or, "domineer, play the master, lord it over, be ruler over, have power over, dictate to, give orders to". Used only here. GK 883. The main idea is "to have independent rule over". The related noun means "master, ruler, autocrat, self-doer".
27. Or, "husband", translated based on the context. Used 216 times. It occurs also in 2:8; 3:2, 12; 5:9. GK 467.
28. Or, "misled". Elsewhere only in Eph 5:6; Jam 1:26. GK 572. Related to "deception" in 2 Pet 2:13. This is the word used by Eve in Gen 3:13.
29. Same word as "deceived" in 2 Cor 11:3, of Eve. It is a strengthened form of the word "deceived" just used, which some manuscripts have here {N}.
30. Or, "has come" into. GK 1181.
31. Adam came-to-be in transgression by deliberate choice; Eve, by deception. On this word, see Rom 5:14.
32. That is, the woman referred to in verse 11. Others think Paul is referring to Eve, making this verse point 1F.
33. This word means "to save, preserve, keep safe". It is related to "savior" and "salvation". It must refer to spiritual salvation here because "continuing in faith" has no impact on physical preservation through childbearing. On this word, see Lk 19:10.
34. Or, "through her childbearing". Used only here. GK 5450. The related verb is in 5:14. Women will be saved through Christ's birth if they (the women) continue. Though the woman is to be submissive, she is saved directly and independently through Christ, just like the man, Gal 3:26-29. Perhaps Paul refers to the Savior in this unusual way to emphasize the unique role wives played in the human descent of Jesus from Eve to Mary, as promised in Gen 3:15. Others think Paul means the woman will be saved through (meaning "while living in") her allotted sphere as childbearer, if they (the women) continue. Thus man will be saved in his "toil", woman in her "childbearing", Gen 3:16-17.
35. That is, the women, the class represented by "she" earlier in the verse. Some think Paul means the husband and wife of v 12-14. They will both be saved in the same way, if they continue.
36. Or, "remain, abide". On this word, see "abide" in Jn 15:4.
37. Or, "sanctification". On this word, see Heb 12:14.
38. Same word as "office" in Act 1:20. Elsewhere only as "visitation" in Lk 19:44; 1 Pet 2:12. GK 2175. Related to "overseer" in v 2.
39. Or, "without blame, beyond criticism, unable to be laid hold of or attacked, irreproachable". Elsewhere only in 5:7; 6:14. GK 455.
40. Or, "husband of one wife". See 2:11, 12 on these words. This phrase also occurs in 3:12; Tit 1:6. See 5:9 for the reverse, "woman of one man". "Man of one woman" points to character. "Husband of one wife" points to marital status. One can meet one of these and fail the other. Paul is not referring to polygamy (5:9 would then refer to polyandry, which was not an issue). Some think Paul means elders must be married, and married only once. Since this would exclude men who remained single or who remarried as Paul advised (1 Cor 7:7-8, 15, 39), others make exceptions for widowers, single men, men divorced before they were Christians, etc. Where to draw the line is debated. Others think Paul means "not divorced". Others think he means they must be sexually loyal to their wife, excluding men who sought sexual satisfaction from others, making this the only direct reference to sexual purity in the list. This was a major issue in the early church (Eph 5:3-8; 1 Cor 6:12-20; 1 Thes 4:3-6, etc.), and is so today.

1. Or, "Temperate". That is, "serious, sober in judgment", as the related verb is used in 1 Pet 1:13. Elsewhere only in 3:11; Tit 2:2. GK 3767. The word also means physically sober, not drunk, which Paul addresses in v 3.
2. Or, "prudent, discreet, self-controlled, moderate, temperate". Elsewhere only in Tit 1:8; 2:2, 5. GK 5409. Related to "sound-mindedness" in 2:9; "be sound-minded" in Rom 12:3; "soundmind" in 2 Tim 1:7; "sound-mindedly" in Tit 2:12; and "train" (make sound-minded) in Tit 2:4.
3. Or, "honorable", or "well-ordered" (as this word is used in 2:9).
4. Elsewhere only in 2 Tim 2:24. GK 1434. Related to "teacher". This is the only "ability" (or, "gift") in the list. Compare Tit 1:9.
5. Or, "one who is quarrelsome due to his wine". Elsewhere only in Tit 1:7. GK 4232. Related Greek words mean "drunken violence or frolic", "to mistreat like a drunken man", "to play drunken tricks", "to behave badly due to wine". The elder must not be one with a reputation for drunken behavior and exhibitions.
6. Or, a "striker, bully, belligerent one"; figuratively, "quarrelsome, combative". Elsewhere only in Tit 1:7. GK 4438. Related to "wound" in Rev 13:3; and "strike" in Rev 8:12. Some manuscripts add after this "not fond of shameful gain" (N), the word in v 8.
7. Or, "disinclined to fight, not a fighter, peaceable". Elsewhere only in Tit 3:2. GK 285.
8. Elsewhere only as "without love of money" in Heb 13:5. GK 921. Related to "love of money" in 6:10.
9. Or, "Directing, Ruling, Managing". Same word as in v 5, 12; 5:17. On this word, see Rom 12:8.
10. Or, "commendably". Same word as in v 12, 13; 5:17. On this word, see Act 10:33.

12. Or, "seriousness, respect-worthiness, reverence". Some think Paul means the elder must direct his house and children with all dignity. Others think he means the children must have the dignity or respectfulness. Same word as in 2:2. Elsewhere only in Tit 2:7. GK 4949. Related to "honorable" in v 8. Note Tit 1:6 on the elder's children.
13. Elsewhere only in Lk 10:34, 35, of the good Samaritan. GK 2150. Related to "care" in Act 27:3; and "carefully" in Lk 15:8. This word also means "to have charge of, to have the management of".
14. Or, "novice, newly planted one". The Greek word is neophutos from which we get "neophyte". Used only here. GK 3745.
15. Some think Paul means "the kind of judgment made by the devil", that is, accusing the believers, a judgmental spirit. Others think he means "the condemnation pronounced by God upon the devil". On this word, see Jn 9:39.

16. Or, "clouded with pride". On this word, see 6:4.
17. That is, outside the church. Compare Col 4:5; 1 Thes 4:12.
18. Or, "Worthy of respect, Dignified, Noble". Elsewhere only in v 11; Tit 2:2; Phil 4:8. GK 4948. Related to "dignity" in 1 Tim 3:4.
19. Or, "insincere". More literally, "double-worded", saying one thing and meaning another, or one thing to some and another to others. Used only here. GK 1474.
20. Or, "giving heed to, devoting themselves to", and therefore "being addicted to". In Tit 2:3 Paul uses the word "enslaved" in this phrase. Same word as in 1:4; 4:1, 13; Tit 1:14; Act 8:6, 10, 11; 16:14; Heb 2:1; 2 Pet 1:19; and as "take heed to" in Lk 12:1; and "beware of" in Mt 10:17. Used 24 times. GK 4668.
21. Or, "approved, approved by testing". On this word, see "approve" in Rom 12:2.
22. Or, "be serving as deacons, be deacons". Related to "deacon". Same word as in v 13. On this word, see "ministering" in 1 Pet 4:10.
23. Or, "unaccused". That is, "being [found] blameless". On this word see Tit 1:6.
24. Or, "Wives". On this word, see "woman" in 2:11. Some think Paul means "Women deacons"; others, "Their wives", the wives of the deacons. Compare Rom 16:1.
25. Same word as in 2 Tim 3:3; Tit 2:3. Elsewhere it is the word "devil" ("slanderer") 34 times, as in v 7. GK 1333.

29. Or, "boldness". On this word, see Heb 4:16.
30. Or, "in the faith which is in".
31. That is, the following exhortations. This is the second part of Paul's "deposit" with Timothy, 1:18. Others think this looks back to 2:1-3:13, making this the conclusion of that section. In this case, the next main section begins in 4:1.
32. More literally, "if I should be slow, if I delay". That is, if for any reason Paul chooses to proceed slowly, to slow his travel. It is not passive ("am delayed"). Elsewhere only in 2 Pet 3:9. GK 1094. Related to "slow" in Lk 24:25; Jam 1:19; and "slowness" in 2 Pet 3:9.
33. Or, "how one ought to conduct oneself". On this idiom, see Act 25:10.
34. Or, "live, behave". On this word, see Eph 2:3.

36. Elsewhere only in Gal 2:9; Rev 3:12; 10:1. GK 5146.
37. Or, "foundation, mainstay". Used only here. GK 1613. Related to "steadfast" in Col 1:23. Some take these words with what follows, "The mystery of godliness is the pillar and support of the truth and confessedly great".

1. Having mentioned the "truth", Paul now reflects on this truth and Timothy's responsibility to it. On this word, see 2:2.
2. Or, "undeniably, indisputably, by common confession". This adverb is used only here. GK 3935. Related to "confess" in 6:12.
3. That is, Christ. Some manuscripts say "Which" (referring to "mystery"); others, "God" {A}.
4. Or, "Appeared, Was made known, Was made visible". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
5. Or, "vindicated, proved righteous". On this word, see Rom 3:24. We are "declared righteous" by grace. Jesus received this verdict because He was in fact perfect.
6. Some think Paul means "in His human spirit", as a man; others, "by the Holy Spirit"; others, "in His divine spirit", as the God-man. In any case, this is the divine verdict on Christ's life, on the person who "was revealed in the flesh". He is internally righteous and perfect, not merely externally (as the Pharisees conceived of it, Phil 3:6).
7. Or, "appeared to", as this word is used in 1 Cor 15:5-8. Some think Paul means "during His whole life"; others, "after His resurrection"; others, "in heaven after His ascension". On this word, see "see" in Lk 2:26.
8. Or, "angels". That is, by the apostles and others who then proclaimed Him. This word is rendered "messenger" in Mt 11:10; Mk 1:2; Lk 7:24, 27; 9:52; 2 Cor 12:7; Jam 2:25. It is indeed a great mystery that God chose to reveal Himself in such a way. Note Act 10:41; 13:31. Or, "angels", as in its other 168 uses. GK 34. In this case, some think Paul means that the Word was seen by angels in human form, but by contrast, His message of salvation was proclaimed to humans by human witnesses. Others arrange the six statements in groups of three, so that Jesus was seen by angels in heaven after His ascension, as the climax of the first group of three. There are other views of the connection with "angels". Note that most render this "angels".
9. Or, "Gentiles". This is one of the two parts of Paul's message in Act 26:23, and the commission in Lk 24:47. On this word, see "Gentiles" in Act 15:23.
10. Same word as in Mk 16:19 and Act 1:2, 11, 22, when Jesus ascended.
11. Or, "withdraw". The root words mean "to stand away from". The context can give it a more negative meaning, "desert, revolt, apostatize", as here. Same word as in Lk 2:37; 4:13; 8:13; 13:27; Act 12:10; 19:9; 2 Cor 12:8; 2 Tim 2:19; Heb 3:12. Elsewhere only as "withdraw" in Act 15:38; 22:29; and "draw away" in Act 5:37, 38. GK 923. Related to "apostasy" in 2 Thes 2:3.
12. Or, "deceiving". Elsewhere only as "deceiver" in Mt 27:63; 2 Cor 6:8; 2 Jn 7. GK 4418. Related to "error" in 1 Thes 2:3.
13. Or, "false speakers". People will pay attention to spirits and teachings of demons which are proclaimed to them by means of human liars. Used only here. GK 6016.
14. Or, "branded with a red hot iron", from the word for "branding iron". Used only here. GK 3013.
15. Or, "sharing". Used only here. GK 3562. Related to "share-in" in Heb 12:10.
16. Or, "gratitude, thankfulness". Used 15 times. GK 2374. Related to "give thanks" in Mt 26:27.
17. Or, "believing". On this adjective, see "faithful" in Col 1:2.
18. The grammar is unusual, and elsewhere only in 5:5; Tit 1:15; and Jn 10:12. Paul combines an adjective and a participle in a twofold description of a single group of people. Literally, "by the believers and ones who know (or, 'ones having known') the truth", two descriptions of a Christian. Here it is simplified in English to avoid giving the false impression that Paul is speaking of two different groups. Others simplify this further to "the ones who believe and know".
19. Or, "understand, acknowledge". The grammar of this participle means "having come to know in the past, and continuing to know". Rendered "know", the emphasis is on the continuing state of knowing, corresponding to "believers". Rendered "and ones having known the truth", the emphasis is on the completed action in past time, in contrast to these false teachers. On this word, see "understood" in Col 1:6.
20. Or, "thrown off, thrown away", as worthless. Used only here. GK 612. Related to "throw away" in Heb 10:35; and "rejection" in Rom 11:15.
21. Or, "made holy, consecrated". On this word, see Heb 10:29.
22. Or, "intercession" (as in 2:1). Rather than any food making a believer unholy, it is the believer who makes the food holy. Anything one can thank God for is permissible to eat.
23. That is, 3:16-4:5, regarding truth, those deceiving others to depart from it, and correcting their false teachings.
24. Or, "minister". On this word, see 1 Cor 3:5.
25. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
26. Or, "brought up, nurtured, reared, trained". As Timothy is teaching things like 3:16-4:5, the true and false about Christ, these words will serve his hearers and nourish Timothy himself. Used only here. GK 1957. Related to "feed" in Lk 23:29.
27. Or, "refusing". Same word as in 5:11; Tit 3:10. On this word, see "refuse" in Heb 12:25.
28. Used in two other commands like this one, 1 Tim 6:20; 2 Tim 2:16. On this word, see 1 Tim 1:9.
29. That is, belonging to or characteristic of old women. Used only here. GK 1212. The root word is "old woman".
30. Or, "exercising". On this word, see Heb 5:14. Related to "training" in v 8.
31. That is, pertaining to the body. On this word, see Lk 3:22.
32. Some think Paul means physical training, gymnastic training. Others think he means "Christian asceticism". Used only here. GK 1215. Related to the word in Heb 5:14.
33. Paul may mean "to a small degree"; or, "for a little while". On this word, see "small" in Act 12:18.
34. Or, "competing, fighting, striving". Same word as in Col 1:29; 4:12. Elsewhere only as "strive" in Lk 13:24; "fight" in Jn 18:36; 1 Tim 6:12; 2 Tim 4:7; and "compete" in 1 Cor 9:25. GK 76. It is an athletic term, like "train, exercise" in v 7, 8. Related to the noun "race" in Heb 12:1; "struggle with" in Rom 15:30; "contend" in Jude 3; and "agony" in Lk 22:44. Some manuscripts say "suffering reproach" instead of "struggling" {C}.
35. That is, to experience God's promise for this life and the one coming.

1. Or, "treating with contempt". On this word, see "disregard" in Rom 2:4.
2. Timothy was 28-32 years old at this time. Train yourself to be a pattern for others, so that such "looking down on you" does not become the characteristic way you are viewed.

19. Used 26 times. GK 5939.
20. Same word as in 5:5, 16; 6:19. On this word, see "really" in Jn 8:36. That is, widows dependent on God alone, in contrast with widows who have relatives, are of marriageable age, or whose character and deeds have not demonstrated a dependence on God and His family members.
21. Or, "show devotion, respect, godliness". Elsewhere only as "worship" in Act 17:23. GK 2355. Related to "godliness" in 2:2. The children should show piety toward the widow in their household by supporting her.
22. Or, "recompense, repayment". Used only here. GK 304.
23. In this context, Paul means their living mother or grandmother. Elsewhere only in 2 Tim 1:3. GK 4591.
24. Or, "pleasing". On this word, see 2:3. Some manuscripts say "good and acceptable" {N}.
25. Same unusual grammar as in 4:3, joining an adjective and a participle in a twofold description of this woman. Literally, "the real widow and one having been left alone". Here, the second phrase explains what Paul means by "real" from the church's perspective. She is left alone in two senses—by husband, and by relatives.
26. Or, "made alone". Used only here. GK 3670. This is a participle, literally, "having been left alone".
27. And therefore she deserves the loving assistance of God's family.
28. Or, "living for pleasure, living riotously". Elsewhere only in Jam 5:5. GK 5059. This widow is physically alive, but spiritually dead.
29. Some think this refers only to v 5-6, so that "they" next refers to the widows, making this point 2E. Others think Paul is referring to v 3-6, the duties of children and widows in the church.
30. Or, "think of beforehand, have regard for". Planning is included. On this word, see 2 Cor 8:21.
31. Or, "kinsmen, relatives". On this word see Gal 6:10.
32. That is, because an unbeliever makes no claim to godliness, or to being a child of the God who is love.
33. Or, "enrolled, enlisted". Used only here. GK 2899. The historical detail behind this is uncertain. Some think this refers to a list of widows financially supported by the church. Thus, these are the requirements to be supported, expanding on v 5. Others think this refers to a list of official widow-deaconesses serving the church. Thus all "real" widows in the church should be honored as charity, v 3-8. Widows "on the list" then have these further qualifications because they are servants of the church, v 9-15.
34. Or, "wife of one husband" This is the same phrase as in 3:2 except for the reversal of gender. The same question must be faced as in 3:2. If Paul means married only once, then the very widows who follow his command to remarry in v 14 would thereby exclude themselves later in life.
35. Or, "borne witness". On this word, see Act 6:3.
36. This word means "good" in the sense of outwardly good, beautiful, fine, commendable, praiseworthy, pleasing. Same word as in Mt 7:17; 13:8; Mk 9:50; Jn 10:32; Rom 7:18; 1 Cor 7:26; 1 Tim 2:3; 3:1, 7, 13; 6:12; Tit 3:14; "beautiful" stones in Lk 21:5; "fine" pearls in Mt 13:45; "commendable" in Gal 4:18. Used 100 times. GK 2819.
37. What follows are examples of good works, of sources to attest the widow's character, not a list of qualifications. For example, Paul probably does not mean to exclude childless widows. But if she had children, they could attest to her character.
38. Or, "showed hospitality to strangers, welcomed strangers". Used only here. GK 3827. Made of two words, "to receive, accept" and "strangers". Note Mt 25:35, "I was a stranger and you invited me in". Related to "lodge" in Act 10:6; and "reception" in Lk 5:29.
39. Footwashing was an act of hospitality in ancient culture, normally performed by the servants. Jesus did this in Jn 13:3-17.
40. This word means "good" in the sense of meeting a high standard of worth or value; possessing intrinsic goodness; useful, beneficial; inner goodness; morally right. Same word as in Mt 5:45; 7:17;

- 19:16; 20:15; Mk 10:18; Jn 5:29; Rom 2:7; 7:18; 13:3; Gal 6:6; 1 Thes 5:15; Tit 2:5; 1 Pet 2:18; 3:16; and "fertile" in Lk 8:15. Used 102 times. GK 19. Compare the synonym in point 3D., with which this word often overlaps in meaning.
1. Or, "refusing". Same word as in 4:7. Paul probably means "decline to put them on the list", not "decline to honor them". A young "real" widow with several young children would be among the most needy of the church, 1 Jn 3:17.
 2. Some take this to mean "younger than sixty", v 9. Others think Paul means "young widows" such as would bear children, v 14.
 3. That is, they desire the pleasures of marriage, material and sexual. Young widows desire children and a home of their own. This desire leads them into pursuing marriage rather than the service to which they pledged themselves. Used only here. GK 2952. Related to "luxury" in Rev 18:3; and "live luxuriously" in Rev 18:7, 9. In Revelation, it is sinful sensuality/luxury versus the commands of God; here, it is a normal desire for marriage versus their pledge to serve Christ as a widow.
 4. Or, "judgment [against them]". Paul could mean condemnation by God; by others; by herself; or all of these. Same word as "judgment" in 1 Cor 11:29; Gal 5:10, on which see Jn 9:39.
 5. Or, "that", "having the condemnation that they set aside their first pledge".
 6. Or, "nullified, invalidated, rejected". On this word, see Gal 2:21.
 7. Or, "faith, conviction". That is, such widows fall under incrimination for leaving their work of faith, for setting aside their former pledge to serve Christ in this way. On this word, see "faith" in Eph 2:8.
 8. Or, "lazy, unproductive". On this word, see "useless" in Jam 2:20.
 9. Or, "wandering around". These women are going, but doing nothing. Elsewhere only in Act 19:13; Heb 11:37. GK 4320.
 10. Or, "silly, trifling, nonsense talkers; prattlers". Used only here. GK 5827. Related to "talking nonsense" in 3 Jn 10.
 11. GK 4319. Related to the word in 2 Thes 3:11.
 12. More literally, "not being necessary", based on what is fitting or proper. On this idiom, see "ought to" in Act 25:10.
 13. Or, "be master of the house". Used only here. GK 3866. Related to "house-master" in Mt 20:1; and "master" in Jude 4.
 14. Or, "occasion, base of operations". On this word, see Rom 7:8.
 15. Or, "insult, abuse". That is, of the church, or of the Lord. On this word, see 1 Pet 3:9.
 16. Or, "behind". That is, "[to follow] after". GK 3958.
 17. Some manuscripts say "believing-man or believing-woman" {B}.
 18. Some think Paul means "[younger] widows" in need of support. Others think he means "[non-family] widows" in her household, such as servants or friends. Others think he means "[family-member] widows", repeating v 8 explicitly for this case.
 19. Or, "helping, assisting, supplying". Used twice in this verse and elsewhere only in v 10. GK 2064.
 20. That is, the church leaders with leadership responsibility, especially teaching. Called "overseers" in 3:2. "Elders" is used of the Jewish leaders 30 times; of the church leaders in Act 11:30; 14:23; 15:2, 4, 6, 22, 23; 16:4; 20:17; 21:18; 1 Tim 5:17, 19; Tit 1:5; Jam 5:14; 1 Pet 5:1; and possibly 1 Pet 5:5; 2 Jn 1; 3 Jn 1; twelve times of the 24 elders in Revelation; five times meaning "older" (see 1 Tim 5:1); and once meaning "Old Testament saints" in Heb 11:2. GK 4565. Related to "council of elders" in 1 Tim 4:14. See also "overseer" in Phil 1:1.
 21. Or, "directed, ruled, been at the head". Same word as in 3:4, 5, 12. On this word, see Rom 12:8.
 22. Or, "commendably". That is, measured by God-blessed results and effectiveness, not good intentions. Same word as in 3:4.
 23. Or, "twofold, twice as much". Elsewhere only in Mt 23:15; Rev 18:6. GK 1487. Some think Paul means twice as much as someone else, perhaps widows, deacons, other elders, or the average congregation member. Others think he means the honor of financial support in addition to the respect due this man as an elder. Enable such an elder to serve more, perhaps full time, in view of his proven performance and God's blessing on his ministry.
 24. Or, "esteem, value, price, honorarium". All elders are honored as such, based on their position. Some are worthy of additional honor based on their good performance in the task of "ruling". What is this honor? Compensation or double the esteem? The word "honor" can mean either. It means "price" in Mt 27:6; 1 Cor 6:20; 7:23; "value" in Col 2:23; and "honor" in 1 Tim 6:1; Heb 3:3. Used 41 times. GK 5507. The related verb is used in 5:3 referring to the financial support of widows. Since Paul's justification for this in v 18 concerns the payment of wages, the second or double honor in his mind seems to be financial support from the church.
 25. The ability to teach is a qualification to be an elder (3:2; Tit 1:9), so all elders teach and lead in varying degrees. But the elders excelling ("leading well") in word and teaching are "especially" worthy of double honor, as compared with elders excelling in other forms of leadership and oversight.
 26. Paul could mean "the Word and teaching", or, "speech and teaching". The word "teaching" usually means "that which is taught, doctrine" as in 1:10; 4:1, 6; Eph 4:14; 2 Tim 4:3; but also means "the act of teaching", as in 4:13. Same word as in Mt 15:9; Mk 7:7; Rom 12:7; Col 2:22; 1 Tim 4:16; 6:1, 3; 2 Tim 3:10, 16; Tit 1:9; 2:1, 7, 10. Elsewhere only as "instruction" in Rom 15:4. GK 1436. Related to "teacher".
 27. Same word as in 2 Tim 2:15, where Paul also refers to laboring in the "Word of truth". Used 16 times. GK 2239. Related to "work" in Mt 26:10.
 28. Paul is quoting Jesus (Lk 10:7).
 29. Literally "except unless", meaning "with this exception, unless...". On this idiom, see 1 Cor 14:5.
 30. Compare Mt 18:15-17. This is based on Deut 19:15.
 31. Or, "exposing, convicting". On this word, see "expose" in Eph 5:11.
 32. That is, the elders shown to be sinning based on the process in v 19.
 33. Some think Paul means all the other elders; others, the whole church.
 34. Same word as in 2 Tim 4:1. That is, testify in the form of a command. Elsewhere only as "solemnly-testify" in Act 2:40; 8:25; 18:5; 20:21, 24; 23:11; 28:23; Heb 2:6; and "solemnly-warn" in Lk 16:28; Act 10:42; 20:23; 1 Thes 4:6; 2 Tim 2:14. GK 1371. Related to "testify" in Jn 1:7; and in 1 Thes 2:12.
 35. Some manuscripts say "the Lord Jesus Christ" {N}.
 36. Some think Paul means these matters of pay and discipline, v 17-20; others, strictly the matters about discipline (v 19-20), making this point 2D.
 37. Or, "judgment beforehand, advance judgment". Used only here. GK 4622. Do not begin with the answer.
 38. Or, "based on, by way of". GK 2848.
 39. Or, "bias, partisanship, inclination (toward someone)". Used only here. GK 4680. Related to "join up" in Act 5:36.

1. On this concept, see Heb 6:2. Some think this refers strictly to the commissioning of new elders; others, to any new "leaders"; others, strictly to the restoring of elders who repented from sin, v 20.
2. Or, "quickly". On this word, see "quickly" in Gal 1:6.
3. If Timothy appoints a man unqualified by sin or restores one too quickly, he shares in his sin as an elder. On this word, see "foreigners" in Heb 11:34.
4. That is, from the sins of others. On this word, see 1 Pet 3:2.
5. That is, one who exclusively drinks water. Used only here. GK 5621. The grammar implies "stop being a water drinker". Some think this is strictly a personal remark for Timothy, brought to Paul's mind by his exhortation to purity. Others think Paul includes this personal remark also to make clear that he is not referring to any kind of ascetic abstinence when he says "keep yourself pure".
6. That is, fermented grape juice. There is another word for unfermented grape juice (not used in the NT), but the word here can be used in this sense when "new" is added (as in Mt 9:17). Same word as in Lk 1:15; 10:34; Jn 2:10; Rom 14:21; Eph 5:18; 1 Tim 3:8. Used 34 times. GK 3885. Related to "drunkenness" in 1 Pet 4:3.

8. Or, "known beforehand", or simply "clear, evident, obvious". Same word as in v 25. Elsewhere only as "clear" in Heb 7:14. GK 4593.
9. The sins of these people are known by others, and are already awaiting them at judgment. Others' sins will not be known until that judgment. This is certainly true of God's future judgment. In this context, some think Paul means "your judgment", regarding their qualifications for laying on of hands, v 22. Act on what is known. For some, their sins are not discovered until later—whether after their appointment, or at the judgment seat, 1 Cor 4:5.
10. That is, not clear beforehand. The good deeds of a person are also obvious to all, and those not obvious cannot remain hidden upon examination. Good character is verifiable. Make your decision based on openly known character, good and bad, specifically looking also for good works not openly known. Used only here. GK 261.
11. Or, "kept secret". On this word, see Jn 8:59.
12. On this word, used also in v 2, see Jude 4.

 - 1C. Not according-to²² our works^T, but according to His own purpose^U and grace^V having been given to us in Christ Jesus before eternal^W times²³, *but now having been revealed²⁴ through the appearance²⁵ of our Savior^X Christ Jesus²⁶— 10
 - 1D. Having abolished²⁷ death— and brought-to-light²⁸ life^Y and immortality^Z through the good-news^P, *for which I was appointed^{AA} a proclaimer²⁹ and apostle^A and teacher³⁰ 11

2. On the writing of this letter, see Act 28:30.
3. On "have gratitude", see Lk 17:9.
4. Or, "worship". On this word, see "worship" in Heb 12:28.
5. Or, "forefathers". That is, as Paul's ancestors did. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:4.
6. Elsewhere only in Rom 9:2. GK 89. Related to "unceasingly" in Rom 1:9.
7. Or, "recalled". On this word, see Lk 1:54. Related to "remembrance" in v 3; "reminder" in v 5; and "reminding" in v 6.
8. Paul does not say what this reminder was. Perhaps a letter or some news reminded Paul of Timothy's faith. Or, he may mean "having called to mind", without reference to an external reminder. Elsewhere only in 2 Pet 1:13; 3:1. GK 5704. Related to "remind" in Jn 14:26, and to the word in v 6.
9. Or, "genuine, without hypocrisy". On this word, see Rom 12:9.
10. Timothy's mother is referred to in Act 16:1.
11. Or, "be fanning to a flame, kindling, keeping in full flame". Some take this to mean "restart what has died down in your life"; others, "keep your gift burning full flame". Used only here. GK 351.
12. Compare the similar statement in 1 Tim 4:14. On the laying on of hands, see Heb 6:2.
13. Or, "Spirit"; or, "a spiritual gift", referring to v 6, as this word is used in 1 Cor 14:12.
14. Or, "timidity, cowardice" in a bad sense. That is, characterized by fearfulness. This word refers to the fear to act, as opposed to the fear in response to circumstances. It is fear resulting from a lack of moral courage. See the related word "afraid" in Mk 4:40. Some think Paul is thinking of Timothy as one who was being fearful or timid. Others think he is thinking of himself as one who was not being fearful amidst his circumstances. Used only here. GK 1261.
15. Or, "self-discipline, self-control, moderation, prudence". Used only here. GK 5406. See the related words in 1 Tim 3:2.
16. Paul begins his reminding, which he introduced in v 6 as the purpose of this letter.
17. Same word as in v 12, 16. The grammar means "do not become ashamed", not "stop being ashamed". Do not start feeling shame because of my imprisonment, like those in v 15. On this word, see Rom 1:16.
18. That is, the testimony about our Lord; the gospel Paul proclaimed; the healthy words (v 13).
19. Elsewhere only in 2:3. GK 5155. The same word without the prefix "with" occurs in 2:9; 4:5.
20. Or, "based on, by way of". GK 2848.
21. Or, "to a holy calling". On this word, see 2 Pet 1:10.
22. Same word as in v 8.
23. That is, before time began in eternity past. "Eternal times" is also in Rom 16:25; Tit 1:2. Compare Eph 1:4. The word "times" is GK 5989, and is used 54 times.
24. On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19. Same word as in Tit 1:3; Rom 16:26.
25. Same word as in 4:1, 8. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:8.
26. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {N}.
27. Or, "done away with, rendered powerless". On this word, see "done away with" in Rom 6:6. Same word as in 1 Cor 15:26. Paul uses grammar here that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
28. Or, "having illuminated, having lit up, shined the light on". On this word, see "enlightened" in Heb 6:4.
29. Or, "herald". Elsewhere only in 1 Tim 2:7; 2 Pet 2:5. GK 3061. Related to "proclaim" in 2 Tim 4:2.

31. That is, because I was appointed proclaimer, apostle and teacher of the gospel of Christ.
32. Same word as in v 14. Some think Paul means "what Christ has deposited or entrusted with me"; that is, the gospel or Paul's ministry or gifts, as in v 14; 1 Tim 6:20. Others think he means "what I have deposited or entrusted with Christ"; that is, his reward or soul or life. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:20. Related to the word in 2:2.
33. Or, "for". GK 1650.
34. Or, "model, outline, sketch". On this word, see 1 Tim 1:16.
35. This is a participle, "of words being healthy". On this phrase, see 1 Tim 1:10.
36. Or, "in connection with". This is the Greek word order. Some think Paul means "Be holding... in the faith and love"; others, "which you heard from me in the faith and love".
37. Paul may be referring to the "healthy words" in v 13 (note 2:2); or, to the "gift of God" in v 6; or, to both.
38. This is one reason or basis for these exhortations. The response of others to Paul's imprisonment is fresh in his mind. Some turned away from Paul after his arrest. One sought him out and refreshed him.
39. Or, "all the ones in connection with Asia". Asia is the Roman province of which Ephesus was the capital. Paul probably means that all the witnesses to his work in Asia who could have come to his aid at his trial in Rome failed to do so. He may be implying that they never came to Rome, or that having come to Rome for this purpose, they deserted him and went home. Compare 4:16.
40. This man is mentioned elsewhere only in 4:19. GK 3947. Some think Paul's words imply that he was now dead.
41. Used only here. GK 434. Related to "refreshing" in Act 3:20.

12. Or, "to share in". On this word, see "share in" in Heb 12:10.
13. Some think the fruits are "rewards", as if Paul said the laboring farmer (as opposed to the idle one) "will" be first to partake of the reward for his work. Others think Paul means this farmer must or ought to be first to practice what he preaches, to partake of the faith and love and endurance amidst trials he labors to produce in others. One fruit of preaching the gospel is hardship, suffering, even persecution, 3:12. Timothy, the Christian farmer, must be first to partake of this, as Paul did to the point of imprisonment (v 9). There are other views.
14. Some manuscripts say "I am saying. For may the Lord give" {N}, making it a prayer.
15. That is, be keeping in mind. On this word, see Jn 16:21.

20. Or, "Because of this". Some think this refers backward, "Because the Word of God is not bound, I am enduring... in order that"; others, forward, "For this reason I am enduring—in order that they also...".
21. Or, "gain, find". On this word, see "attain" in Lk 20:35.
22. Some think Paul is looking back to "that they may obtain salvation in Christ". Others think he is referring to what follows in v 11-13. This phrase occurs in 1 Tim 1:15; 3:1; 4:9; Tit 3:8; but only in 1 Tim 4:9 is it also followed by "for".
23. Some manuscripts say "if we are denying" {N}.
24. Same word as in v 13; and in Mt 10:33; Act 3:13; 4:16; 1 Tim 5:8; 2 Tim 3:5; Tit 1:16; 2 Pet 2:1; 1 Jn 2:22; etc. Used 33 times. Used of Peter in Mt 26:70, 72, and the other Gospels. GK 766.
25. Or, "without faith, unfaithful". Same word as in Rom 3:3. Elsewhere only as "not believe" in Mk 16:11, 16; Lk 24:11, 41; Act 28:24; 1 Pet 2:7. GK 601. Related to "unbelief" in 1 Tim 1:13. Some think Paul means "if we are unbelieving". Others think he means "if we prove unfaithful in a trial", as Peter did.
26. Some think Paul means "He remains faithful to us, He will uphold us", as He did Peter, Phil 1:6. Others think he means "He will remain faithful to Himself, He will be holy and just, He will punish or deny us", Heb 2:3. Compare Mk 8:38. Same word as in v 2.
27. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
28. That is, v 11-13. Some begin the next main point (4B.) here.
29. Some manuscripts say "the Lord" {B}.
30. Used only here. GK 3362. The related noun is in 1 Tim 6:4.

37. Or, "not having a cause for shame". Used only here. GK 454. Related to the verb "ashamed" in 1:8.
38. Used only here, this word is made of the words "to cut" and "straight". It is a rare word, found elsewhere only in Prov 3:6; 11:5. If it has the same sense here, it means "cutting a straight path for the word of truth", as one would cut a path for a road, avoiding detours such as empty chatter (v 16), youthful desires (v 22), and foolish controversies (v 23). Others think the metaphor is agricultural here since "worker" often means "farm laborer"—"plowing straight rows for the word". Others think the metaphor is of a stonecutter "cutting straight" the word. Others take "straight" in the sense of "right", and translate "rightly dividing" or "accurately handling". The sense is clear, though the precise metaphor is not certain. GK 3982.
39. Some think Paul is referring to the gospel, the word given to and through the apostles; others to the OT Scriptures, from which Apollos showed that the Christ is Jesus (Act 18:28) and Paul showed that the Christ must suffer and be raised (Act 26:22-23).

10. Some think Paul means some are honored house members (true believers), others are dishonored (false believers and false teachers). The latter are thrown out of the house. We can be for honor if we separate ourselves from them. Others think he means some teachers serve honorable purposes; others serve dishonorable or common purposes, like a clay pot for washing dishes. Every house has both. We can be useful for honorable purposes if we cleanse ourselves from "these things". Elsewhere only in Rom 1:26; 9:21; 1 Cor 11:14; 15:43; 2 Cor 6:8; 11:21. GK 871. 12. Some think Paul means from the profane, empty chatterings. If we cleanse ourselves of the worthless talk which Paul addresses often in 1, 2 Timothy, and Titus, we can be useful to the Master for honorable things. Otherwise, we can only be of common use. Others think "these things" refers to the other vessels, the ones made of wood or earth. We must cleanse ourselves of these dishonorable teachers, like those of v 18, to be a vessel for honor.

Some think it has a sense derogatory of the women described by the next three phrases, such as "weak-women, silly-women, foolish-women, gullible-women". Others think it is derogatory of the creepers, who prey on and captivate "helpless-women, vulnerable-women". Used only here. GK 1220. 2. Or, "loosing up, breaking up". That is, Paul's death. Used only here. GK 385. This word was used of soldiers "breaking" camp, of a ship weighing anchor. The related verb is in Phil 1:23.
3. Or, "has stood by, is imminent, is impending". On this word, see "suddenly come upon" in Lk 21:34.
4. On this word, see "struggle" in 1 Tim 4:10. Compare this same phrase in 1 Tim 6:12.
5. Or, "racecourse". Elsewhere only in Act 13:25; 20:24. GK 1536. Related to the verb "to run".
6. Some think Paul means "I have been loyal to the faith"; others, "I have preserved the gospel entrusted to me".
7. That is, consisting of or belonging to righteousness. On this word, see Rom 1:17.
8. Or, "laid away". On this word, see Col 1:5.
9. Or, "Make haste, Make every effort". Same word as in v 21. On this word, see Eph 4:3.

16. That is, scrolls made from animal skins, which were more expensive than papyrus scrolls. Used only here. GK 3521.
17. Or, "blacksmith, metalworker". The root word is the word meaning "copper, brass, bronze" (GK 5910). But this word was also used of "metalworkers" in general, so "coppersmith" may be too specific. Used only here. GK 5906.
18. Or, "displayed, declared, demonstrated, exhibited, informed, charged". On this word, see "demonstrate" in Eph 2:7. Some think this took place at Paul's trial, where Alexander "informed against" Paul; others think it was more personal, perhaps physical harm. Some suggest this is the same Alexander as in 1 Tim 1:20, or the one in Act 19:33.

26. Some think this is a general reference, meaning "great danger". Paul was not immediately executed. Others think it is a specific reference to his accuser, or to the magistrate, or to Satan. If there was insufficient evidence, Paul would be bound over to a later trial. At the final trial he was condemned and executed. This is why he asks Timothy twice to make every effort to come quickly, before winter, v 9, 21.
27. Some manuscripts say "And the Lord..." {N}.
28. Or, "preserve, deliver". On this word, see Lk 19:10.

Conclusion	21-25

- A. Paul, a prisoner^A of Christ Jesus¹, and Timothy our brother 1:1
- B. To Philemon,² our beloved^B one and fellow-worker^C
1. And to Apphia our sister³ 2
2. And to Archippus⁴ our fellow-soldier⁵
3. And to the church at your house
- C. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ 3
- 1A. I am giving-thanks^D to my God always⁶ 4
- 1B. Making mention of you in my prayers^E while hearing-of your love^E and faith⁷ which you have toward the Lord Jesus and for all the saints^F 5
- 1C. So that⁸ the fellowship⁹ of your faith^G may become¹⁰ effective¹¹ by¹² the knowledge^H of every good^I thing¹³ in us¹⁴ for¹⁵ Christ 6
- 2B. For I had¹⁶ much joy^K and encouragement^L in¹⁷ your love, because the deep-feelings^M of the saints have been refreshed¹⁸ through you, brother 7
- 2A. Therefore, [although] having much boldness^N in Christ to be commanding^O you to do the fitting¹⁹ thing, for the sake of love I am rather appealing^P— being such a one as²⁰ Paul, an old-man²¹, and now also a prisoner^A of Christ Jesus²²— *I am appealing to you concerning my child^Q Onesimus²³ 8
- 1B. Whom I fathered^R in my imprisonment^S 9
- 2B. The one formerly useless²⁴ to you, but now useful²⁵ both²⁶ to you and to me 11
- 3B. Whom I sent-back^T to you— him²⁷, that is, my own deep feelings²⁸! 12
- 4B. Whom I was wishing^U to hold-back^V with myself, in order that on behalf of you, he might be serving^W me in my imprisonment²⁹ for the good-news^X 13
- 1C. But without your consent^Y, I wanted^Z to do nothing, in order that your good³⁰ deed should not be as-if based-on³¹ compulsion³², but based-on willingness³³ 14
- 2C. For³⁴ perhaps for this reason he was separated³⁵ for an hour— in order that you might receive him in full³⁶ forever 15
- 1D. No longer as a slave^{AA}, but beyond a slave— a beloved^B brother^{BB} 16
- 1E. Especially to me
- 2E. But how much more to you— both in the flesh^{CC}, and in the Lord!³⁷
- 3A. Therefore if you hold me as a partner^{DD}, accept^{EE} him as me³⁸. *And if as to anything³⁹ he wronged⁴⁰ you 17-18 or owes^{FF} you, charge this to my account⁴¹. *I, Paul, wrote it with my own hand— I will repay⁴² 19
- 1B. In order that I may not be saying to you that you indeed owe⁴³ yourself to me⁴⁴

1. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
2. Philemon is not mentioned elsewhere. Apphia is probably his wife.
3. Some manuscripts say "And to the beloved Apphia" {A}.
4. This man is also mentioned in Col 4:17. He was a leader in the church at Philemon's house in Colossae. Some think he was also a relative of Philemon— perhaps his son, or a friend of the family.
5. Elsewhere only in Phil 2:25. GK 5369.
6. In the Greek word order, this word stands here. Some take it with "I am giving thanks"; others with "making mention". The same issue arises in Col 1:3.
7. Or, "faithfulness". Only here does Paul say "love and faith" instead of "faith and love". This is the Greek word order. Some think both "love and faith" are toward the Lord and for the saints, viewing faith toward the Lord as "spiritual" faith, and faith toward the saints as "practical" faith in action, or as faithfulness. Others regroup these phrases as "love for all the saints" and "faith toward the Lord Jesus", as Paul says in Col 1:4; Eph 1:15.
8. What follows is the content and goal of Paul's prayer for Philemon.
9. Or, "contribution, participation, partnership, sharing". Some think Paul means "that the partnership of your faith with ours (or, the faith which you share in common with us) may be the source of effective service in you". Others think he means "that the contribution or sharing of your faith toward the needs of others may become effective", both toward spiritual and material needs. Others think he means "that the fellowship or participation that others have in your faith may become effective in them". On this word, see 1 Cor 1:9.
10. Or, "prove to be". GK 1181.
11. Or, "active". On this word, see Heb 4:12.
12. Or, "in". Some think this gives the means by which the faith becomes effective; others, the sphere in which it is to become effective. GK 1877.
13. Some manuscripts say "every good work" {N}.
14. That is, us Christians. Some manuscripts say "in you" (plural) {B}, that is, "in you" or "among you" there.
15. Or, "in". Some think Paul means "become effective... for Christ"; others, "every good thing... for Christ"; others, "in us for Christ". Some manuscripts say "Christ Jesus" {N}. GK 1650.
16. Some manuscripts say "For we have" {N}.
17. Or, "on the basis of, in reference to". GK 2093.
18. Or, "revived, given rest". Same word as in v 20; 1 Cor 16:18; 2 Cor 7:13. Elsewhere only as "give rest" in Mt 11:28; and "rest" in Mt 26:45; Mk 6:31; 14:41; Lk 12:19; 1 Pet 4:14; Rev 6:11; 14:13. GK 399. Related to "rest" in Mt 12:43.
19. Or, "proper, right". This is a participle, "the thing being fitting". Elsewhere only in Eph 5:4; Col 3:18. GK 465.
20. Some start a new sentence here. "... being such a one [as prefers to appeal rather than command]. As Paul—an old man, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus—I am appealing to you". Others take this whole phrase with what follows, "... rather appealing. Being such a one as... I am appealing to you".
21. Paul was in his fifties. On this word, see Tit 2:2. Some think Paul means "ambassador", as the related verb means in Eph 6:20.
22. Some manuscripts say "Jesus Christ" {K}.
23. This man was a runaway slave belonging to Philemon. He is mentioned elsewhere only in Col 4:9. GK 3946.
24. This is a play on words because his name, Onesimus, means "useful". Used only here. GK 947. Related to "unprofitable" in Mt 25:30.
25. Elsewhere only in 2 Tim 2:21; 4:11. GK 2378.
26. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
27. This is the Greek word order of this verse. That is, not just him, but my own deep feelings as well; him— nay, my own deep feelings! Some manuscripts say for verse 12, "I sent him, that is, my own deep feelings, back to you"; others, "I sent him back. Now you receive him, that is, my own deep feelings" {B}. There are other variations.
28. Onesimus represents Paul's deep feelings, which he sent back to Philemon hoping that Philemon would refresh them (v 20), as he had others (v 7). Same word as in v 7.
29. Paul abandoned this wish and sent Onesimus back.
30. Some think Paul is referring to Philemon's theoretical good deed toward Paul had Paul kept Onesimus for service. Others think he is referring to Philemon's future "goodness" in general, however he might choose to display it. Paul is not directly asking or expecting him to send Onesimus back. He simply did not want any goodness by Philemon to be forced. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b.
31. Or, "according to, by way of". GK 2848.
32. Or, "force, necessity". That is, because you were forced to approve of it because I kept him here. On this word see "necessity" in 1 Cor 7:26. Related to "by compulsion" in 1 Pet 5:2.
33. Or, "voluntary choice". That is, "not as if by force, but by voluntary choice", "not as if forcibly, but voluntarily". Used only here. GK 1730. On related words, see 1 Pet 5:2.
34. This is a second reason Paul did not keep Onesimus. Perhaps what follows is God's purpose for them in all this.
35. Notice Paul does not say "ran away, fled". He makes no mention of the culpability of either slave or master.
36. That is, receive in full and close the account. On the word "receive in full", see Phil 4:18.
37. That is, a slave in the flesh, a brother in the Lord.
38. This is the content of Paul's appeal. That is, receive Onesimus back with joy and thankfulness, as if I myself came back to you; not with punishment.
39. Some think Paul means "assuming that he is indebted to you for the loss associated with his running away, or for secondary losses resulting from it". Had Onesimus stolen things when he left, Paul would have explicitly addressed it here. Others think Paul is implying that Onesimus stole from Philemon.
40. Or, "harmful". On this word, see Act 7:24.
41. Charge my child's debt to his father. This word, "charge to the account", is used only here. GK 1823. Related word in Rom 5:13.
42. Or, "make compensation, pay the damages, repay the debt". Used only here. GK 702.
43. Or, "still-owe". Used only here. GK 4695.
44. In other words, I am personally guaranteeing what Onesimus owes you. Accept him based on our partnership and my personal guarantee, so that I will not be forced to remind you of your even greater debt to me as a reason for doing what I ask. Paul had apparently led Philemon to Christ.

things which I am saying
- B. And at the same time also, prepare^C lodging⁶ for me. For I hope^D that through your prayers, I shall 22 be granted^E to you
- C. Epaphras^F, my fellow-captive^G in Christ Jesus, greets^H you, as do Mark^I, Aristarchus^K, Demas^L, 23-24
Luke⁷, my fellow-workers^M
- D. The grace of the⁸ Lord Jesus Christ be with your⁹ spirit 25

1. Having appealed for the sake of Onesimus, Paul now appeals for his own sake. Note Paul's emphasis on "I". He phrases this as a personal wish (the grammar is similar to a prayer request), thus presenting it to Philemon as a polite request.
2. Or, "may I be favored by you, may I benefit from you". That is, may I have the profit of joy and thankfulness which I will gain when you accept him as me. Used only here. GK 3949.
3. Same word as in v 7.
4. Some think Paul means obedience to God; others, to Paul. On this word, see Rom 16:26.
5. Paul leaves it to Philemon to be generous. This could be taken to mean, "show him even more kindness", or, "send him back to me", or, "set him free". Paul does not directly ask.
6. On this word, see Act 28:23, which may have been the "lodging" from which Paul wrote this letter.
7. Luke is mentioned elsewhere by name only in Col 4:14; 2 Tim 4:11. The writer of Luke and Acts. Some think he is the "Lucius" in Rom 16:21. GK 3371.
8. Some manuscripts say "our" Lord {B}.
9. This word is plural. Some manuscripts add "amen" {A}.

| 1A. God, having spoken long ago by the prophets, spoke to us in these latter days by a Son | 1:1-2 |
| 1B. Who— being the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His essence, and upholding all things by His word— having made purification of sins, sat down on high | 1:3 |
| 1C. Having become better than the angels, as the Son, Ruler, Creator they worship | 1:4-14 |
| 2B. For this reason, we must pay attention to what we have heard, that we may not drift away | 2:1-4 |
| 3B. For God did not subject to angels the coming world— but we see Jesus crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death | 2:5-9 |
| 4B. For it was fitting for God to perfect the Author of our salvation through sufferings. He partook of humanity that by His death He might free us, and be our merciful High Priest | 2:10-18 |
| 5B. Hence, brothers, consider Jesus as faithful to God. He is worthy of more glory than Moses | 3:1-6 |
| 6B. Therefore, “Today, do not harden your hearts against God as Israel did in the wilderness” | 3:7-11 |
| 1C. Watch that there will never be an evil heart of unbelief in you in departing from God | 3:12-19 |
| 2C. Let us fear lest any of you should seem to have come short of entering His rest | 4:1-10 |
| 3C. Let us be diligent to enter that rest. For the word of God is living and effective | 4:11-13 |
| 2A. Therefore having a great High Priest— Jesus, the Son of God— let us be holding on to the confession | 4:14 |
| 1B. For we have One tempted like us, without sin. So let us be approaching to receive grace | 4:15-16 |
| 2B. For every human priest is appointed on behalf of people to offer gifts and sacrifices for sin | 5:1-4 |
| 3B. So also, Christ was appointed by God and learned obedience through His suffering | 5:5-8 |
| 4B. And having been perfected, He became the cause of eternal salvation to all obeying Him, having been designated by God as High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek | 5:9-10 |
| 1C. Concerning whom, our message is great and hard to explain to you | 5:11 |
| 1D. For although you ought to be teachers, you again need to be taught the milk | 5:12-14 |
| 2D. Therefore let us be carried on to maturity, not again laying the foundation | 6:1-2 |
| 3D. And this we will do if God permits. For it is impossible to renew to repentance those having fallen aside, crucifying Him again and publicly disgracing Him | 6:3-8 |
| 4D. But concerning you, we are convinced of better things, of your salvation. But we desire you to be imitators of those who inherit the promises through faith | 6:9-20 |
| 2C. For this Melchizedek remains a priest perpetually, greater than Abraham and Levi | 7:1-10 |
| 3C. Now indeed, what need was there for another priesthood? It indicates a setting aside of the old one, and a bringing in of a better hope through which we draw near to God | 7:11-19 |
| 4C. And His priesthood has God’s oath-swearing, so Jesus guarantees a better covenant | 7:20-22 |
| 5C. And unlike Levitical priests, He remains forever. Hence He can save completely | 7:23-25 |
| 6C. For such a High Priest was fitting for us— having offered Himself once for all | 7:26-28 |
| 5B. The main point is— we have such a High Priest, minister in the true tabernacle built by God | 8:1-2 |
| 1C. For a high priest is appointed to offer sacrifices. Jesus must also have something to offer | 8:3 |
| 2C. Now indeed, if He were on earth He would not be a priest according to the Law | 8:4-5 |

3C. But He has obtained a more excellent ministry as mediator of a better covenant enacted on better promises	8:6
1D. For if that first covenant was faultless, God would not have made a second	8:7-13
2D. Now indeed, the first covenant had its ministry, which is unable to perfect us	9:1-10
3D. But Christ as High Priest entered the heavenly tabernacle once for all through His own blood, having obtained eternal redemption	9:11-14
4D. And for this reason He is mediator of a new covenant, so that we may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance, a death having occurred for redemption	9:15-28
5D. For the Law is never able to perfect us through the yearly sacrifice. Therefore Jesus came and God did so through the offering of His body once for all	10:1-10
6D. And every priest has stood, daily offering sacrifices unable to take away sins. But Jesus offered one sacrifice for all time and sat down, having perfected us	10:11-14
7D. And the Spirit also testifies to us, for there is no longer an offering for sin	10:15-18
6B. Therefore brothers, having confidence to enter by His blood and a great High Priest	10:19-21
1C. Let us be approaching with a true heart in full assurance of faith	10:22
2C. Let us be holding on to the confession of our hope without wavering	10:23
3C. And let us be considering one another for the provoking to love and good works	10:24-25
4C. For if we disregard Jesus, no sacrifice for sin remains, only fearful judgment	10:26-31
3A. Now remember the former days when you endured a great struggle of sufferings	10:32-33
1B. For indeed you accepted your plundering with joy. Do not throw away your confidence	10:34-35
2B. For you have need of endurance by faith, in order that you may receive the promise	10:36-39
3B. Now faith is the assurance of the things being hoped. For in this the elders were attested. They lived by faith, and died not receiving the promise, looking away to the reward	11:1-40
4B. So therefore, let us run our race with endurance, looking to Jesus who endured the cross	12:1-2
1C. For consider the One having endured such opposition, that you may not lose heart	12:3-4
2C. And have you forgotten the Lord's discipline? You are enduring discipline as sons	12:5-11
3C. Therefore, straighten up your feeble knees. And be making straight paths for your feet	12:12-13
1D. Be pursuing peace and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. For you have approached Mount Zion. Be watching out that you do not refuse Him	12:14-29
2D. Let brotherly love continue	13:1
3D. Do not be forgetting hospitality	13:2
4D. Remember the prisoners, the ones being mistreated	13:3
5D. Let marriage be honored by all	13:4
6D. Let character be without the love of money	13:5-6
7D. Remember the ones leading you	13:7-8
8D. Do not be carried away by strange teachings. We have a spiritual altar	13:9-16
9D. Be obeying the ones leading you	13:17
10D. Be praying for us	13:18-19
5B. Now may the God of peace prepare you in every good thing so that you may do His will	13:20-21
Conclusion	13:22-25

- 1A. God, having spoken long-ago^A in-many-portions¹ and in-many-ways² to the fathers by the prophets^B, *spoke 1-2 to us at *the last*³ of these days by⁴ a Son⁵, Whom He appointed^C inheritor⁶ of all things, through Whom also He made the worlds⁷
- 1B. Who— being *the radiance*⁸ of His glory and exact-representation⁹ of His essence¹⁰, and upholding¹¹ 3 all things by the word^D of His power¹²— having made purification^E of sins¹³, sat-down at the right hand of the Majesty¹⁴ on high¹⁵
- 1C. Having become so-much better¹⁶ than the angels, *by-as-much-as*¹⁷ He has inherited^F a more- 4

- 1D. For to which of the angels did He ever say, “You are my Son. Today¹⁸ I have fathered^H 5 you”? [Ps 2:7]; and again, “I will be¹⁹ a father to Him, and He will be a son to Me”?
[1 Chron 17:13]
- 2D. And again²⁰, when He brings the Firstborn^I into the world²¹ He says [in Deut 32:43], 6
“And let all the angels of God give-worship²² to Him”
- 3D. And with regard to the angels²³ He says [in Ps 104:4], “The One making His angels 7

- 1E. “Your throne^M, God,²⁴ is forever and ever^N. And the scepter^O of straightness²⁵ is the 9 scepter of Your²⁶ kingdom. *You loved^P righteousness and hated lawlessness²⁷. For this reason, God²⁸, your God anointed^Q You with the oil^R of gladness^S beyond Your companions²⁹” [Ps 45:6-7]
- 2E. And, “You³⁰, Lord, laid-the-foundation-of^T the earth at the beginnings. And the 10 heavens are works of Your hands. They will perish^U, but You continue³¹. Indeed they will all become-old^V like a garment, *and You will roll them up^W as-if a cloak³². 11
They will indeed be changed³³ like a garment³⁴. But You are the same, and Your years will not end³⁵” [Ps 102:25-27] 12
- 4D. And with regard to which of the angels has He ever said “Be sitting on My right side until 13
I put Your enemies as a footstool of Your feet”? [Ps 110:1] *Are they not all ministering³⁶ 14 spirits being sent-forth^X for service^Y for the sake of the ones going to inherit^F salvation³⁷?
- 2B. For this reason,³⁸ we must^Z pay more attention to^{AA} the things having been heard,³⁹ that we may not- 2:1
ever⁴⁰ drift-away⁴¹
- 1C. For⁴² if the word^{BB} having been spoken through angels⁴³ proved-to-be⁴⁴ firm⁴⁵, and every 2 transgression^{CC} and disobedience⁴⁶ received a just^{DD} penalty⁴⁷, *how shall we escape^{EE}, having 3 neglected⁴⁸ so great a salvation^{FF}?— which

1. Or, "many parts, many shares". God's revelation came piece by piece, over the centuries. Used only here. GK 4495.
2. Or, "many manners, methods". In types, symbolic actions, dreams, visions, etc. Used only here. GK 4502.
3. Or, "end". "Last" is singular, "days" is plural. Same phrase as in Num 24:14; Jer 23:20; 49:39; Dan 10:14. A similar phrase with "last" plural is in Gen 49:1; Deut 8:16; Josh 24:27; Jer 30:24; Ezek 38:16; Dan 2:28, 29, 45; Hos 3:5; Mic 4:1. Some think the writer means "in these last days", the days which have now begun with the appearance of the Messiah, Messiah's days. Compare Heb 9:26. Others think he means "at the last of these days to which I just referred", the OT age in which the fathers and the prophets lived. Same word as in "at the last of times" in 1 Pet 1:20; "in the last time" in 1 Pet 1:5; Jude 18; "the last days" in Act 2:17; 2 Tim 3:1; Jam 5:3; 2 Pet 3:3; "the last day" in Jn 6:39; 40, 44, 54; 11:24; 12:48; and "the last hour" in 1 Jn 2:18. Used 52 times. GK 2274.
4. Or, "in". Same word as just used with "prophets". GK 1877.
5. Or, "by His Son". That is, by One whose essential quality is that He is God's Son (as in 3:6; 5:8; 7:28), not merely a prophet.
6. On this word, see "heir" in Rom 8:17. Compare Ps 2:8.
7. Or, "the ages", the universe of time and space. Some think this means the visible and invisible worlds. Same word as in 11:3; and as "age" in 6:5; 9:26; Act 15:18; Rom 12:2; 1 Cor 10:11; 2 Cor 4:4; Eph 1:21; 1 Tim 6:17. GK 172.
8. Or, "reflection". God is light. Jesus is the brilliance or reflection of that light beaming forth. Used only here. GK 575.
9. Or, "exact imprint". As the imprint matches the die, so Christ matches God in the very "essence" of His being. Used only here. GK 5917.
10. Or, "substance, actual being, reality". Whatever the essence of the Father is, the Son is also, as is true of all fathers and sons. Compare Jn 5:18; Col 2:9; Jn 12:45; 14:9. On this word, see "assurance" in 11:1.
11. Or, "carrying, bearing". Compare Col 1:17. On this word, see "carried" in 2 Pet 1:17.
12. That is, Christ's word characterized by power, His powerful word.
13. Some manuscripts add "through Himself" {B}. Some manuscripts say "our sins" {N}.
14. Or, "Greatness". Elsewhere only in 8:1; Jude 25. GK 3488.
15. Or, "in high [places]", that is, heaven. GK 5734. Related to "on-high" in Lk 1:78; and "highest" in Mt 21:9.
16. This is a key word in Hebrews, found also in 6:9; 7:7, 19, 22; 8:6; 9:23; 10:34; 11:16, 35, 40; 12:24. Used 19 times. GK 3202.
17. Or, "to the degree that". These two words "so much... by as much as" occur together also in 10:25. A similar phrase occurs in Heb 7:20, 22; Rev 18:7. Jesus is better to the degree that His name, Son, is better.
18. Some think "today" refers to Christ's birth or incarnation, Lk 1:35; others, His baptism, Lk 3:22; others, His resurrection, Act 13:33; others, His exaltation to His throne, Heb 1:3, 8. Used 41 times. GK 4958.
19. More literally, "be for a father... be for a son", a Hebrew way of speaking. This quote is also in 2 Sam 7:14.
20. Or, "And when again He brings...", the Greek word order. Some take this as introducing another point, the word order being changed to separate it from the preceding point; others, as meaning "And when God again brings", referring to the Second Coming.
21. Some think the writer means the earthly world at Christ's first coming; others, at His second coming; others, the "invisible world" of His Father when Christ was enthroned at His right hand. On this word, see 2:5.
22. On this word, see Mt 14:33. The Septuagint is being quoted.
23. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between the angels and the Son.
24. The Son is addressed as "God" here, as with "Lord" in v 10. The writer is comparing angels who serve God, to the Son who rules eternally from the throne of God as the Son of God. Some render this "God is Your throne forever...".
25. That is, moral straightness, uprightness. The Son's rule will be characterized by moral straightness. Used only here. GK 2319. Related to "straight" in Act 8:21.
26. Some manuscripts say "His" {B}.
27. Some manuscripts say "unrighteousness", {N} ("iniquity" in KJV).
28. Some think the Son is being addressed as God again; others, that it is referring twice to God as the anointer, as might be paraphrased "the God who is Your God anointed You".
29. Some think this refers to angels; others, to humans; others, to believers, to all the Son's brothers (2:12) who rule with Him.
30. That is, the Son, who is addressed as "Lord" next. The writer compares the created angels to the eternal Son of God who created the universe and will end it.
31. Or, "remain continually". On this word, see Lk 22:28.
32. Or, "mantle", an outer covering "thrown around" the body, a robe. On this word, see "covering" in 1 Cor 11:15.
33. Or, "exchanged", as in Rom 1:23.
34. Some manuscripts omit the words "like a garment" {B}.
35. Or, "come to an end". On this word, see "fail" in Lk 16:9.
36. This adjective is related to "ministers" in v 7; and "ministry" in 8:6. Used only here. GK 3312.
37. Here, salvation is viewed in its future sense, as yet to be inherited in its fullness, for which we await the Son (9:28).
38. That is, because God spoke by His Son (1:2), and because of who He is (1:3-14). Because the Son sat down on the highest seat of power (1:3), having made purification for our sins (1:3), as the Son of God (1:5), worshiped by angels (1:6), as the eternal ruler over what He created (1:8-12), awaiting the subjection of His enemies (1:13), we must pay attention to Him. His glory requires it.
39. We must pay more attention to what God said and did through His Son, and spoke about Him in the OT, so as to understand and obey. After justifying this statement in v 2-4, such paying attention begins in v 5.
40. Or, "that not at any time, that not perhaps". Same word as "not ever" in 3:12; and "at any time" in 4:1. GK 3607.
41. Or, "float by, glide by, slip away", as in a boat floating by its anchorage. Used only here. GK 4184.
42. This explains why we must pay attention.
43. That is, the Law of Moses, Act 7:38, 53; Gal 3:19.
44. Or, "was". GK 1181.
45. Or, "sure, steadfast". On this word, see 2 Pet 1:10.
46. Or, "refusal to hear". On this word, see 2 Cor 10:6.
47. This word means "wages given back", whether a "penalty" as here, or a "reward" as it is elsewhere only used in 10:35; 11:26. GK 3632.
48. Elsewhere only as "pay no concern" in Mt 22:5; "be careless" in 1 Tim 4:14; and "not care for" in Heb 8:9. GK 288.

- 1D. Having begun to be spoken¹ by the Lord²
- 2D. Was confirmed³ to⁴ us by the ones having heard—*God testifying-with both signs and wonders,⁵ and various miracles^A, and distributions⁶ of the Holy Spirit, according to His⁷ will 4
- 3B. For⁸ He did not subject^B to angels⁹ the coming¹⁰ world¹¹ concerning which we are speaking¹² 5
- 1C. But¹³ one solemnly-testified^C somewhere saying, “What is man¹⁴ that You remember¹⁵ him, or the son of man¹⁶ that You look-after¹⁷ him? *You made him lower than angels¹⁸ for a little while¹⁹. 6
You crowned him with glory and honor²⁰. *You subjected^B all things under his feet” [Ps 8:4-6] 8
- 1D. For²¹ in the subjecting^B all things to him²², He left nothing not-subject²³ to him
- 2D. But²⁴ now we do not yet see all things having been subjected^B to him²⁵
- 3D. But we²⁶ see the One having been made lower than angels²⁷ for a little while— Jesus²⁸— 9
having been crowned with glory and honor because-of²⁹ the suffering^D of the death
- 1E. So-that³⁰ by the grace^E of God³¹ He might taste death³² for everyone

1. This is an idiom, literally, "having received a beginning to be spoken". What the Lord began, He continued through the apostles.
2. This salvation was not spoken through angels (v 2), but through God's Son Himself, and borne witness by God Himself.
3. Related to "firm" in v 2. On this word, see 1 Cor 1:6.
4. Or, "for" us. GK 1650.
5. On "signs and wonders", see 2 Thes 2:9. "Signs, wonders, miracles" is also in Act 2:22; 2 Cor 12:12.
6. Some think this refers to gifts or manifestations given by the Spirit; others, to distributions consisting of the Spirit, given by God. Elsewhere only as "division" in 4:12. GK 3536. Compare Gal 3:5; Jn 3:34; 1 Cor 12:11; Act 5:32.
7. Some think the writer means "God's" will, taking this with all three phrases, or the last only; others, the "Spirit's" will, taking this with the last phrase only.
8. The writer now continues his description of the Son, paying more attention to the relationship between His glory and His death. Here, he explains that His glory as Ruler in the coming world was obtained through His death. It is as a man, because of His death, that He has been crowned with this glory and honor. There are other views on the flow. Consult the commentaries.
9. The rulership of the coming world was not promised to angels.
10. Same word as in 6:5 (coming age); 13:14 (coming city); 10:1 (coming good things). On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32.
11. Or, "inhabited earth". Some think the writer means Messiah's kingdom, inaugurated by Christ, presently ruled by Him, and to be fully manifested in His future reign of glory. It was "coming" from the OT or the divine decree point of view. It is the world of salvation, present and future, the same thing as "so great a salvation", v 3. Others think he means the world after Christ comes again, the future fullness, and that it is "coming" from the Christian's point of view. It is the salvation we are "going to inherit", 1:14. Compare 6:5; 9:28; 10:37. Elsewhere only in Mt 24:14; Lk 2:1; 4:5; 21:26; Act 11:28; 17:6, 31; 19:27; 24:5; Rom 10:18; Heb 1:6; Rev 3:10; 12:9; 16:14. This word refers to the earth as an inhabited place, to its inhabitants, and sometimes to the "world" from the Roman point of view (the Roman world). GK 3876. Related to "house".
12. Some think the writer is referring back to 1:14 (inherit salvation), and 2:3. Others think he means speaking "in the subject at hand", including what follows; others, more generally, "in this book".
13. The writer quotes Ps 8 to prove the coming world is not subjected to angels.
14. Or, "mankind, humanity". That is, Adam's race. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
15. That is, keep him in mind, for his benefit. On this word, see Lk 1:54.
16. Or, "the Son of Man". Some think this means what it means in the psalm. It is a Hebrew parallelism, and means the same thing as "man" earlier, "humanity, or the offspring of humanity". Thus the writer means "not to angels. But it is as someone said, to man". Others think the writer is applying this to Jesus, and means "the Son of Man", and that each "him" that follows down through v 8 also refers to Christ. Thus he means "not to angels. But it is as someone said of man with reference to the Messiah who would fulfill it". In either case, Adam failed, but Christ fulfilled this. The difference between the two views is that the first thinks the writer quotes the psalm here and makes this application to Christ in v 9; the second applies it to Him all the way through, resulting in a different understanding of point 3C. On "a son of man", see Jn 5:27.
17. Or, "visit, care for". Same word as in Mt 25:36, 43; Jam 1:27. Elsewhere only as "visit" in Lk 1:68, 78; 7:16; Act 7:23; 15:14, 36; and as "look-for" in Act 6:3. GK 2170. The root word is "to look".
18. This quote is from the Septuagint, which says "angels". The Hebrew has a word here meaning "God" or "gods, heavenly beings", which the Septuagint took in the latter sense and rendered "angels".
19. Or, "a little bit lower than angels". In the one case, it is "a little bit lower (in physical status, being mortal)"; in the other case, it is "lower (in status) for a little while" (where "a" is the word rendered "bit". GK 5516), expressing the temporary nature of this status. The same phrase is in v 9, and is elsewhere only in Jn 6:7, "a little bit". The word "little" is elsewhere only meaning "a little while" in Act 5:34; "a short time" in Lk 22:58; "short" in Act 27:28; and "a few" in Heb 13:22. GK 1099.
20. Some manuscripts add "And You set him over the works of Your hands" {B}, from the psalm.
21. Here, the writer draws out his point from the psalm. God did not subject the coming world to angels (v 5), for this psalm says all things are subjected to man (or, Jesus), leaving nothing not subject to him, including the coming world.
22. Some manuscripts omit the words "to him" {C}.
23. Or, "independent, rebellious". On this word, see "rebellious" in Tit 1:6. Related to "subjecting" earlier.
24. But this subjection is not yet seen in this world.
25. If the writer means "son of man" (mankind) in v 6, then this means that even though God made man to be crowned with rulership, it is not yet true of him because of sin. But we do see it is true of Jesus (v 9), who became a man to fulfill this, and has been crowned with this glory and honor. The coming world is subject to Him, and we will reign with Him. He contrasts its present lack of fulfillment in man (v 8), with its present fulfillment in Jesus (v 9). If he means "Son of Man" (Jesus) in v 6, then this means that we do not yet see it fulfilled in Jesus. He is on the throne while His enemies are being subdued (1:13), but we will not see all things subject to Him until He returns. But we do see Him crowned with glory and honor by God (v 9), fulfilling that part of the psalm. He contrasts the present lack of fulfillment in Jesus (His enemies are not yet subdued) with the partial fulfillment we do see, the glory and honor (v 9).
26. We, represented by the eyewitnesses, saw this at Christ's resurrection and ascension (1:3), and see it now.
27. That is, having been made a man, Phil 2:7.
28. Note how the writer puts "Jesus" in a similar emphatic position in 3:1; 4:14; 6:20; 12:2.
29. Or, "for the sake of". In this rendering, this phrase gives the reason for Christ's crowning with glory. Others render this "But we see Jesus—the One having been made lower... for the sake of the suffering of the death—having been crowned..." this phrase giving the reason for His incarnation. There are other views.
30. Some think this phrase gives the purpose of the death just mentioned; others, of the being made lower; others, of everything in v 9, Christ's incarnation, suffering, death, and glorification.
31. Some manuscripts instead say "so that apart from God" {A}, meaning either "apart from His divine nature", or that He tasted death "for all, apart from God" (like 1 Cor 15:27), or that God forsook Him on the cross, Mk 15:34.
32. The phrase "taste death" occurs also in Mt 16:28; Mk 9:1; Lk 9:27; Jn 8:52. On "taste", see Heb 6:4.

- 4B. For¹ it was fitting² for Him for-the-sake-of Whom are all things and through Whom are all things, that in bringing³ many sons⁴ to glory⁵, He should perfect⁴ the Author⁵ of their salvation⁶ through sufferings⁶ 10

1. Now the writer explains why Jesus left His heavenly glory to become a man and die.
2. Or, "suitable, proper". Same word as in 7:26. On this word, see 1 Cor 11:13.
3. Or, "leading". Some render this "having brought", referring to those brought prior to Christ in the OT age. Others render it "bringing", so that the "bringing to glory" occurs at the same time as the "perfecting" of the Author, and includes all believers. That is, "when He brought", coincident in time with when "He perfected". It cannot mean "while in the process of bringing". Others take this with "Author", "... are all things, to perfect through sufferings the Author of their salvation having brought many sons to glory". On this word, see "led" in Lk 4:1.
4. Or, "complete, finish, bring to its goal". God brought His human Son to proven moral perfection as a man and fully qualified Him to be mankind's Savior and High Priest. In 5:8, Jesus "learned obedience" through suffering. "Perfected" is used again of Him in 5:9. Same word as in 7:19, 28; 9:9; 10:1, 14; 11:40; 12:23; Jn 17:23; Jam 2:22; 1 Jn 2:5; 4:12, 17, 18. Elsewhere only as "make perfect" in Phil 3:12; "finish" in Act 20:24; "complete" in Lk 2:43; "come to the end" in Lk 13:32; and "accomplish" in Jn 4:34; 5:36; 17:4; 19:28. GK 5457. Related to "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10; "perfection" in Heb 7:11; "perfecter" in Heb 12:2; "finish" in Rev 10:7.
5. Or, "Prince, Pioneer, Leader, Originator, Founder, Captain". The root word is "to begin", so this word basically means "the beginner, the starter" in various senses. Elsewhere only in 12:2; Act 3:15; and as "leader" in Act 5:31. GK 795.
6. Jesus and those He makes holy all call God "Father".
7. Or, "sanctifying". On this word, see "sanctified" in 10:29.
8. Some think "Father" is implied; others, "ancestor", Adam, as in Act 17:26; others, "ancestor", Abraham; others, "nature", blood and flesh, as in v 14.
9. Or, "putting confidence, relying". On this word, see "persuade" in 1 Jn 3:19.
10. The Messiah shares our trust in the Father.
11. This order of words is elsewhere only in Eph 6:12. Some rearrange it as "flesh and blood". The phrase "flesh and blood" is only in Mt 16:17; 1 Cor 15:50; Gal 1:16. Some think "blood and flesh" puts the emphasis on us as mortal, with life derived from our parents. Some manuscripts say "flesh and blood" {K}.
12. That is, by being "born of a woman", Gal 4:4. Used only here. GK 4181.
13. Or, "shared in", but not related to the word earlier. Elsewhere only in 5:13; 7:13; and 1 Cor 9:10, 12; 10:17, 21, 30. GK 3576. Related to "partaker" in 3:1.
14. Or, "render powerless". On this word, see Rom 6:6.
15. Or, "free". On this word, see Act 19:12.
16. Or, "held in, caught in". On this word, see "guilty" in 1 Cor 11:27.
17. That is, during their entire lifetime.
18. That is, with a view of helping. Same word as in 8:9, where God "took hold of" Israel's hand to lead them from Egypt, freeing them from slavery. Here, Jesus takes hold of slaves of sin to free them, v 15. On this word, see Lk 20:20.
19. That is, the "many sons" of v 10; Abraham's spiritual descendants by faith, Gal 3:29; Rom 4:11-12.
20. Here the writer draws the conclusion of v 10-16—Jesus was obligated to become a man, suffer and die. It had to be this way to fulfill the Father's will. This word is used also in 3:1; 7:25; 8:3; 9:18; and as "from which" in 11:19. Used 15 times. GK 3854.
21. Or, "He was obligated to". Same word as "obligated" in 5:3, 12. On this word, see "ought" in 1 Jn 4:11. Only here is it used of what Christ was obligated to do. He was obligated by the Father's will, by what the Father thought "fitting" (v 10).
22. That is, in blood and flesh, suffering, death, living in obedience to God, being tempted. Compare 4:15; 5:7-8; 7:26.
23. Some think the writer means "faithful" to God (as this word is used in 3:2) as High Priest; others, "trustworthy" to believers, as well as merciful. On this word, see Col 1:2.
24. The subject of Jesus as our High Priest is taken up in detail in the second division of the book, beginning at 4:14.
25. Or, "make propitiation, propitiate, satisfy". That is, to make a sacrificial offering to satisfy God's wrath against sin, to gain His mercy. He offered Himself, 7:27, 9:26. God's response to this is to be "merciful", the related word in 8:12. Elsewhere only as "be merciful" in Lk 18:13. Some think it means "to expiate", on which see Rom 3:25. GK 2661. See Rom 3:25 on this word group.
26. Or, "tested". Same word as in Mt 4:1, 3; Mk 1:13; Lk 4:2; 1 Cor 7:5; 10:13; Gal 6:1; 1 Thes 3:5; Heb 4:15; Jam 1:13, 14. Elsewhere only as "test" in Mt 16:1; 19:3; 22:18, 35; Mk 8:11; 10:2; 12:15; Lk 11:16; Jn 6:6; 8:6; Act 5:9; 15:10; 1 Cor 10:9; 2 Cor 13:5; Heb 3:9; 11:17; Rev 2:2, 10; 3:10; and "try" in Act 9:26; 16:7; 24:6. GK 4279. Related to "trial, temptation, test", on which see "trial" in Jam 1:2.
27. Or, "in that, because".
28. Or, "For having been tempted in what He Himself has suffered".
29. This gives the conclusion and application of the foregoing. Some start a new A. point here.
30. Or, "partners, sharers". That is, sharers in God's call to the world to come. Same word as in 3:14; 6:4; 12:8. Elsewhere only as "companions" in Heb 1:9; Lk 5:7. GK 3581. Related to "partook" in 2:14; and "partnership" in 2 Cor 6:14.
31. Or, "contemplate, think carefully about". Same word as in 10:24. This is a similar idea to "pay more attention" in 2:1.
32. This word is used of Jesus only here. He was "sent forth" from God with an authoritative message. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:28.
33. Some think the writer means "Whom we confess"; others, "belonging to our objective confession of faith". Same word as in 4:14.
34. Some manuscripts say "Christ Jesus" {K}. The writer is placing emphasis on "Jesus" (see 2:9).
35. Jesus did not die an unfortunate death. He was faithful to the task God appointed Him, just like Moses. On this word, see Col 1:2.
36. Or, "made Him such". Same word as in Mk 3:14, 16. On this word, see "does" in Rev 13:13.
37. Some connect this to Moses; others, to Jesus, placing a comma after Moses. This is the Greek word order.
38. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
39. That is, God's household, the nation of Israel. God said this about Moses in Num 12:7.

- 3E. And to whom did He swear^M that they will not enter³⁹ into His rest, except to the ones having disobeyed^W? 18
- 4E. And we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief^R 19

1. Or, "by as much as". Same phrase as in 7:20.
2. Or "one". Some take this as a general maxim giving the magnitude of Christ's glory by comparison; others, as meaning that Christ is the builder of the house of which Moses was a part.
3. The Greek simply says "it", "he has more honor than the house, the One having built it". Since English is dependent on word order, we need to express "the house" at this point in the sentence.
4. Or, "and".
5. Some think this refers to the Father, who is working through the Son (1:2) to build all things. Others think this refers to the Son, thus naming Him as God, the builder of the house (v 3). In either case, the writer is referring to the exalted role of Christ versus Moses.
6. Both Moses and Christ were faithful (v 2) to the responsibilities God gave them in the building of His house (v 5-6)—but Moses as a "servant" "in" God's house, Christ as "Son" "over" God's house.
7. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between Moses and Christ.
8. Or, "his". Some think the writer means "God's" house in v 2, 5, and 6; God's house as it existed under Moses (its OT form), and as it exists under Christ (its NT form). Others think he means Moses' house (Israel) here, and Christ's house (the church) in v 6.
9. Or, "assistant", a freely serving assistant (not a slave). The writer is not depreciating Moses, but is respectfully using the word God used of him in Num 12:7, "My servant Moses". Used only here. GK 2544.
10. Or, "for evidence". On "for a testimony", see Mk 1:44.
11. Some think the writer means the things later (after Moses) to be spoken about Christ. Moses foreshadowed in word and type, and became a testimony to the things spoken later about Christ, many of which are detailed in this book. Moses was faithful as "a shadow of the coming good things", 10:1. Others think he is referring to Num 12:8, and Moses' work at that time in history. Moses was faithful to testify of all the things which God would later speak to him on the mountain.
12. Same word as in v 14; 6:3. Some manuscripts instead say "if we hold on to..." {C}.
13. Same word as in v 14; 10:23. It is also used in this sense in Lk 8:15, describing the good soil, which holds on to the word they hear with endurance. On this word, see "hold down" in Rom 1:18.
14. That is, the content of our boast, consisting of that for which we hope. On this word, see Phil 1:26.
15. Some manuscripts add "firm until the end" {B} as in v 14.
16. The writer concludes the first main section of the book by quoting from Ps 95, and then expounding and applying it in 3:12-4:13. "So do not be like that generation in Moses' day. Enter into the rest that they never did". There are other views on the flow. Consult the commentaries.
17. Or, "trial, temptation". On this word, see "trials" in Jam 1:2. Related to "tested" next.
18. Or, "tempted". On this word, see "tempted" in 2:18.
19. Or, "by way of a proving, a putting to the test". Used only here. GK 1508. Related to "approved" in Rom 12:2. Not related to "testing" or "tested". Some manuscripts say "fathers tested Me, proved Me, and saw" {N}, using the verb in Rom 12:2.
20. Elsewhere only in v 17. GK 4696.
21. Some manuscripts say "that" {N}.
22. Literally, "If they will enter into My rest". This is the conclusion of a Hebrew oath, "May [?] happen to me if they will enter into My rest". See Ruth 1:17 for an example. The same idiom is in 4:3, 5; Mk 8:12.
23. In Moses' day, this meant the promised land (Num 14:28-30; Deut 12:9), the physical inheritance, an earthly picture of our spiritual rest and inheritance, which we enter when we cease from our works as God did (4:10), by faith. Because the psalmist says it is still available in his day, the writer argues in 4:3, 10 that it refers to a spiritual rest with God that has existed from the seventh day. Elsewhere only in 3:18; 4:1, 3, 5, 10, 11; Act 7:49. GK 2923. The verb is in 4:4, 8, 10.
24. Or, "withdrawing, falling away, deserting". On this word, see 1 Tim 4:1. Related to "apostasy" in 2 Thes 2:3. Jesus used this word in the parable of the sower (Lk 8:13) of those who believe for a while and then "depart". The warnings throughout Hebrews address this group, exhorting them to "hold on to the word with endurance" (Lk 8:15).
25. Or, "one another".
26. This is an idiom, literally "according to each day". It is stronger than "daily" in 7:27 and 10:11, a similar phrase.
27. Or, "deception". On this word, see "deception" in 2 Pet 2:13.
28. The grammar of this word means "we have become and continue to be". On this word, see "comes" in 2 Pet 1:20.
29. On this word, see 3:1.
30. Some think the writer means "with Christ"; others, "in Christ".
31. Same words, "if-indeed we hold-on-to", as in v 6.
32. Or, "of the reality". On this word, see 11:1. Some give this a subjective sense, our initial "assurance" in Christ; the "confidence" we had since the beginning; our confident "frame of mind" described in v 6. Others give it an objective sense, "the reality" of God we experienced at the beginning; the "objective hope" in which we boasted and had confidence in v 6.
33. On "until the end", see 6:11.
34. More literally, "in the being said", meaning either "in light of what is said", or, "while it is being said". This idiom is similar to 8:13. We must hold on until the end because the psalm says that as long as it is "today" we must not harden our hearts. We need endurance, 10:36. Others connect this to v 13, treating v 14 as a parenthesis, "hardened by the deceitfulness of sin... while it is being said...". Others start a new sentence here, making this point 2D., and render "For" in v 16 as "indeed", so that it says "In that it is said, 'Today... rebellion', who indeed, having heard, rebelled?"
35. Some render this word "some", and take both parts of this verse as statements, not questions. GK 5515.
36. The danger of unbelief is not abstract. Israel heard the message, but failed to enter due to unbelief.
37. Or, "provoked Him, embittered Him". Used only here. GK 4176. Related to "be bitter" in Col 3:19; and "rebellion" in Heb 3:8, 15.
38. The grammar expects a "yes" answer to this and the next question.
39. All males over 20 years old at the time of the Exodus, except for Joshua and Caleb, failed to enter the promised land, Num 14:29-30.

- 2C. Therefore, let us fear^A that¹ at any time while a promise to enter into His rest^B is left-remaining² 4:1

- 1E. For we, the ones having believed^G, enter into the⁹ rest¹⁰ 3
2E. Just as He has said, “As I swore in My wrath, they shall never enter into My rest” [Ps
95:11]
- 2D. And-yet¹¹, His works^H have been done¹² since the foundation^I of the world

2E. And¹⁴ in this [Ps 95:11] again, “They shall never enter into My rest^B” 5
- 3D. Since¹⁵ then it remains¹⁶ that some may enter into it, and the ones formerly^L having had-

- 1E. For the one having entered into His rest, also himself rested from his works,²² just 10
as God did from His own
- 3C. Therefore,²³ let us be diligent²⁴ to enter into that²⁵ rest, in order that no one may fall²⁶ in²⁷ the

- 1E. And sharper than any double-edged sword^T
2E. And piercing as-far-as the division^U of soul^V and spirit, and joints and marrows
3E. And able-to-judge the thoughts³⁰ and intentions³¹ of the heart
- 2D. And there is no creation³² hidden³³ in His sight, but all things are naked^W and having

1. This construction expresses fear that a negative result may occur. It is similar to Act 5:26.
2. Related to "remain" in v 6, 9. The writer proves this rest has been open since the seventh day in v 3-10. On this word, see "left behind" in Act 6:2.
3. Or, "missed, failed to reach" it. That is, that any individual among you should come short of entering like Israel did, due to unbelief (3:19), an evil heart of unbelief (3:12), deception by sin (3:13); that any should come short of receiving the promise due to a lack of genuine faith. Stated positively, let us be diligent that every person among you may enter, v 11. Same word as in 12:15 and Rom 3:23. On this word, see "be in need" in Lk 15:14.
4. That is, the word God spoke about His Son (1:2), to which we must pay attention (2:1). Our "good news" was spoken by the Lord and "confirmed to us by the ones having heard" (2:3). Israel's came through Moses. It is the promise of "rest". This is a participle, "we are ones having had good news announced". Same word as in v 6.
5. The writer compares those to whom he is writing (compare 2:3) with the generation in Moses' day who fell in unbelief (3:15-19).
6. That is, the message they heard, the subjective hearing. Or, "the message of the report", the objective message. This word means the ear, the faculty of hearing, the act of hearing or listening, and the message heard (the report, rumor, fame, account, news etc.). Same word as in Mt 13:14; Lk 7:1; Act 28:26; 1 Cor 12:17; Gal 3:2, 5; 2 Tim 4:3, 4; Heb 5:11; 2 Pet 2:8. Elsewhere only as "report" in Jn 12:38 and Rom 10:16 ("who has believed our report"); Mt 4:24; 14:1; Mk 1:28; and as "rumor" in Mt 24:6; Mk 13:7; "report-hearing" in Rom 10:17; "ear" in Mk 7:35; Act 17:20; 1 Cor 12:17; and "heard" in 1 Thes 2:13. GK 198.
7. It did not profit Moses' generation because they refused to unite in faith with the ones hearing God's promise in faith (Moses, Joshua, Caleb). These three believed God's promise, and so believed they could and would enter, in spite of the obstacles. The others did not believe God, and so doubted they could defeat the enemies. The application is that in the same way, the gospel will not profit you if you do not unite in faith with those believing God. On this word, see "blended together" in 1 Cor 12:24.
8. "Those ones" were not united in faith with "the ones who heard" in faith. Same word as in 2:3. Some manuscripts say "the word of hearing" was not united with "faith"— "but the word of hearing, not having been united with faith in the ones having heard, did not profit those ones" {B}. The point is the same in either case—they did not have faith in God.
9. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
10. Then as now, we enter by faith. We are excluded by unbelief.
11. The writer calls to the attention of the reader that God entered His rest on the seventh day. This proves that the concept of "rest" in Ps 95 is not limited to the promised land in Moses' day, but refers to something existing since the seventh day of creation. Elsewhere only in Act 14:17. GK 2792. Related to "although" in Jn 4:2.
12. This is a participle, "are having been done". GK 1181.
13. Genesis is quoted to prove when God's rest began.
14. The psalm is quoted again to prove that the rest was already existing when those in Moses' time failed to enter it.
15. Having proven that the "rest" has existed since creation, the writer now proves that it still remains open (v 1). It remains open as long as it is called "Today" (note the phrase in 3:13).
16. God's promise will not go unfulfilled. On this word, which is also in v 9, see "left behind" in Jude 6.
17. Or, "declares, fixes, determines, appoints". That is, in Psalm 95. On this word, see Rom 1:4.
18. Or, "in David", that is, in the Psalms.
19. That is, God, speaking by David in this psalm.
20. The "rest" cannot be the physical rest in the promised land under Joshua, otherwise David's psalm would not have offered it "Today". It refers to a spiritual rest, a sharing in the rest God entered on the seventh day.
21. Used only here. GK 4878.
22. Some think the writer means "having entered salvation by faith", resting from works. Others think he means "having died and entered the presence of God", resting from our works on earth. There are other views.
23. Having made two negative applications of Ps 95, the writer now makes a positive one. Thus his applications are "Do not actively fall away", 3:12; "Do not passively come short", 4:1; and "Be diligent to enter". Some make this point 5D., and start a new point with v 12, making it 7B. or 3C.
24. Or, "make every effort". On this word, see Eph 4:3.
25. That is, the rest mentioned in v 1, proven to exist in v 3-10.
26. That is, perish. Same word as in 3:17, on which see Rom 11:11.
27. Or, "by". That is, by following the same example. GK 1877.
28. That is, God's spoken and written word; His word Israel disobeyed; His word now proclaimed to us; His word of examination when we stand before Him; this word from the Psalms that is speaking to the heart.
29. Or, "active, at-work, operative", accomplishing His will, Isa 55:11. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 16:9; Phm 6. GK 1921. Related to "working" in Phil 3:21.
30. Or, "reflections". Elsewhere only in Mt 9:4; 12:25; Act 17:29. GK 1927. Related to "pondered" in Mt 1:20.
31. Or, "designs, resolutions, insights". The point is that God will be able to discern genuine faith from dead faith and unbelief. He will flay open the heart and reveal truth of the matter for every person, separating action from motive, 1 Cor 4:5. Elsewhere only in 1 Pet 4:1. GK 1936.
32. Or, "creature". On this word, see Rom 8:39.
33. Or, "unseen, invisible, unnoticed". Used only here. GK 905. Related to "disfigure" in Mt 6:16.
34. Or, "exposed, laid bare". This word means "to take by the throat, to bend back the neck (to slit the throat), to expose for the kill". Thus, all things are naked and exposed for God's judgment. Used only here. GK 5548. The root word is "neck".
35. Same word as in 13:17; Mt 12:36; Lk 16:2; Act 19:40; 1 Pet 4:5. More literally, "to Whom is the account for us", to Whom our account must be given. On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.

1. Verses 14-16 are a transition to the next major section of the book. Some place it as the end of the first section. Note the similarities to the transition to 3A. in 10:32-35.
2. First mentioned in 2:17, this term looks forward to the second major section of the book, which concerns Jesus as our great High Priest, and the implications of this for us, and for the priestly system established under the Law of Moses.
3. That is, back to His throne, 1:3. Compare 7:26; Eph 4:10.
4. This term looks backward, to the ground covered in the first main section of the book.
5. Or, "keeping hold of, grasping firmly on to, taking hold of". Used 47 times, it also means "seize, arrest, hold back, hold fast". Same word as in Mk 7:3; Col 2:19; 2 Thes 2:15; Rev 2:13, 15, 25; and as "take hold of" in Heb 6:18. GK 3195.
6. Same word as in 10:23; 3:1. On this word, see 2 Cor 9:13.
7. Or, "tested". On this word, see 2:18.
8. Or, "in all respects". Same phrase as in 2:17; Col 3:20, 22; Act 17:22.
9. Elsewhere only in 7:15. GK 3928. Related to "become like" in 2:17.
10. Or, "apart from". The writer may mean "without any sin on His part", or, that Jesus was tempted in all things "apart from sin"—He was not tempted by His own sin like we are, because He had no sin. On this word, see Jam 2:18.
11. Or, "boldness, freedom of speech". Same word as in Act 2:29; 2 Cor 7:4; 1 Tim 3:13; Heb 3:6; 10:19, 35; 1 Jn 2:28; 3:21; 4:17; 5:14. Elsewhere only as "boldness" in Act 4:13, 29, 31; 28:31; 2 Cor 3:12; Eph 3:12; 6:19; Phil 1:20; Phm 8; "openness" in Mk 8:32; Jn 7:13; "public" in Jn 7:4, 26; 11:54; 18:20; Col 2:15; and "plainness" in Jn 10:24; 11:14; 16:25, 29. GK 4244. Related to "speak boldly" in Eph 6:20.
12. Or, "strategic, opportune, seasonable". On this word, see "opportune" in Mk 6:21.
13. On this word, see "support" in Act 27:17. Related to the word in Rev 12:16.
14. Same word as in 7:28; 8:3. GK 2770. On this word, see "put in charge" in Act 6:3.
15. Or, "for the sake of, on behalf of". GK 5642.
16. Or, "beset, clothed". Same word as in 12:1, the witnesses "surrounding" us. Elsewhere only as "lie around" in Mk 9:42; Lk 17:2; and "wear" in Act 28:20. GK 4329.
17. That is, his weakness. Some manuscripts say "this" {N}.
18. Christ fulfills these two characteristics of a high priest. He too was appointed by God; and He too is qualified to minister to the people based on His life experience. Yet His qualifications are of a different order than theirs.
19. On this quotation, see 1:5.
20. Or, "in His days of the flesh". That is, during His life on earth.
21. Or, "brought to Him". Same word as in v 1, 3. Also in 8:3, 4; 9:7, 9, 14, 25, 28; 10:1, 2, 8, 11, 12; 11:4, 17. Used 47 times. GK 4712.
22. Or, "pleas, pleadings". Used only here. GK 2656. This word also means the olive branch brought by the pleader coming to plead. On "petition", see 1 Tim 2:1.
23. Or, "shout, cry". Elsewhere only as "shout" in Mt 25:6; Lk 1:42; "clamor" in Act 23:9; Eph 4:31; and "crying" in Rev 21:4. GK 3199. Related to "shout" in Act 22:23, and "cry out" in Mt 8:29.
24. Or, "out of". Some take this to mean "from dying"; others, "from the peril of death"; others, "out of death" through resurrection. Note that it is not said here what Jesus prayed for or when, only to whom He prayed and that He was heard, and that in the process, He learned obedience. Some think that this is referring to Gethsemane, Luke 22:41-44; others, that it has a wider reference. GK 1666.
25. Or, "piety, godly fear, devotion". Elsewhere only in 12:28, where we are to exercise it. GK 2325. Related to "reverent" in 11:7 and Lk 2:25. The root words mean "to take hold well" with reference to the commands of God.
26. Some take this phrase with what precedes (praying and being heard... although); others, with what follows (learned obedience, although). The main sentence is "Who... learned obedience".
27. That is, one whose essential quality is that He is God's Son. Compare 1:2.
28. Jesus learned obedience to the Father's will from undeserved suffering, not from personal sin like the high priests of 5:2. Same concept as in 2:10. "Suffered" in v 8 (see Gal 3:4 on it) is the verb related to "sufferings" in 2:10. Compare Phil 2:8.
29. That is, by sufferings. On this word, see 2:10.
30. Or, "source, grounds". On this word, see "guilt" in Lk 23:4.
31. Compare Rom 16:26. On this word, see Act 6:7.
32. Or, "called, addressed, named". Used only here. GK 4641.
33. That is, Melchizedek, 5:10; 7:1. Or, "which", referring to Christ as High Priest, the main subject in 7:1-10:18.
34. Or, "word, message, discourse". It is rendered this way to show its relationship to the related word "speak" later. More literally, "concerning whom the message for us is great and hard-to-interpret to speak". On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
35. Same word as "long" in Act 15:32. It can mean great in quantity ("lengthy"), or in quality.
36. That is, difficult for me to explain to you, to put in words you will understand, given your spiritual condition. Used only here. GK 1549. The root word is "translate" in 7:2.
37. Or, "lazy, dull". Elsewhere only in 6:12. GK 3821.
38. Or, "ears". Same word as in 4:2, and related to "obedience" in 5:8.
39. That is, enough time has passed in your Christian life so that you ought to be teachers, not babes.
40. Or, "the fundamentals, the basics, the ABCs of a thing". On this word see "elemental" in Gal 4:3. These things are named in 6:1-2, and are next called "milk". Some manuscripts say "need that someone be teaching you what are the elements..." {C}. The difference is an accent mark.
41. Or, "sayings, declarations, pronouncements". Thus the whole phrase means "the basics consisting of the first things taught regarding the oracles of God". Elsewhere only in Act 7:38; Rom 3:2; 1 Pet 4:11. GK 3359. Related to "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
42. That is, continuing to have.
43. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
44. In this context, solid food refers to the teaching about Christ as High Priest. On this word, see Mt 24:45.
45. Or, "unaccustomed, unacquainted with". This is versus "trained" in the next verse. Used only here. GK 586.
46. That is, characterized by, or leading to, or about righteousness.

1. That is, the full-grown, the adult. On this word, see "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10.
2. Or "practice, constant use". Used only here. GK 2011. It refers to a state or condition of body or mind, to something one "has", sometimes as the result of practice. The root word is "to have". The immature are inexperienced in the word. The mature, by the habit which they have of using it, have trained their moral faculties.
3. Or, the "senses" or "abilities to perceive or discern" morally. Used only here. GK 152. Related to "perception" in Phil 1:9.
4. Or, "exercised". This is a participle, "having their faculties having been trained". Elsewhere only in 12:11; 1 Tim 4:7; 2 Pet 2:14, "trained in greed". GK 1214. Related to "training" in 1 Tim 4:8.
5. Or, "distinguishing". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10.
6. Or, the "word, doctrine". On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
7. Same word as in 5:12. That is, the message consisting of the first things taught about Christ. Some think this means "the basic teaching about Jesus as the promised Messiah"; others, the foundational things mentioned next. On this word, see Col 1:18.
8. Or, "brought, moved, borne along, driven". Same word as in Act 27:15, 17. On this word, see "carried" in 2 Pet 1:17.
9. Or, "perfection, completeness". Elsewhere only as "perfection" in Col 3:14. GK 5456. Related to "perfect" in 2:10; and "mature" in 5:14.
10. Same phrase as in 9:14. Works without faith are dead, just as faith without works is dead (Jam 2:26). Thus some think the writer means "faithless works, works devoid of life", Jewish rituals and works of the law performed apart from faith. Others think he means more generally "works leading to or producing death"; that is, sinful works.
11. Or, "faith upon God". This phrase is used only here. It is related to "put faith upon" in Rom 4:5.
12. Or, "washings, baptisms". Same word as in 9:10 and Mk 7:4, where it is also plural. Elsewhere only as singular in Col 2:12, buried with Him in "baptism". GK 968. Related to the usual word "baptism" in Mk 1:4, which is never plural. The word "baptize" means "cleanse" in Mk 7:4. Some think the writer means teachings regarding the Christian view of Jewish cleansings, certainly a foundational item for the Hebrew believers. All six items here refer to their Jewish foundation, from which they must move on to Christian maturity. If he means "baptisms", some think he means Jewish washings/baths (and perhaps John's baptism and pagan baptisms) versus Christian baptism; others, that the plural stands for the singular, and simply means Christian "baptism". There are other views.
13. This noun is elsewhere only in Act 8:18; 1 Tim 4:14; 2 Tim 1:6. GK 2120. The related verb (see Lk 10:30) is used in this sense twelve times to heal, as in Mt 9:18; Mk 16:18; Lk 4:40; Act 28:8; twice to pray a blessing (Mt 19:13, 15); three times to commission leaders (Act 6:6; 13:3; 1 Tim 5:22); and four times to bestow the Spirit (Act 8:17, 19; 9:17; 19:6).
14. That is, carry you on to maturity, v 1. Some manuscripts say "And let us do this" {A}.
15. Elsewhere only in 3:6, 14. GK 1570.
16. Compare 10:29. Same phrase as in 6:18; 10:4; 11:6. Same word as in Mt 19:26; Mk 10:27; Lk 18:27; Rom 8:3. Elsewhere only as "powerless" in Act 14:8; and "not strong" in Rom 15:1. GK 105.
17. Or, "restore". In the Greek word order, "it is impossible" is the first word in v 4, "to renew again to repentance" is in v 6 (preceding "crucifying"), placing emphasis on it. Used only here. GK 362. On the related words "renewal" and "renew", see Tit 3:5.
18. That is, one time, not "formerly". This is in contrast with "again" crucify and "again" (a second time) repent. Some link this only with "enlightened"; others, with all four verbs, enlightened, tasted, made, tasted. It is used eight times in Hebrews. On this word, see "once for all" in Jude 3.
19. Or, "illuminated, lit up, given light". Some think this refers to their initial turning to Jesus, and their baptism. Compare 10:26, "having received the knowledge of the truth". Same word as in 10:32; Eph 1:18; 3:9. Elsewhere only as "illuminate" in 1 Cor 4:5; Rev 18:1; 21:23; "give light" in Lk 11:36; Jn 1:9; Rev 22:5; and "bring to light" in 2 Tim 1:10. GK 5894.
20. This is not the same word as the "and" beginning the next three phrases. It is the same word as in the middle of v 5. For this reason, these two items are grouped together, like the two in v 5. However, it may also be rendered "enlightened—both having tasted... and having been made...", the latter two phrases explaining "enlightened".
21. This word is used both in the sense of "experienced" and of "partaken". It is used of a spiritual "tasting" in Heb 6:4, 5; 1 Pet 2:3; of "tasting" death (see Heb 2:9); and elsewhere only of "eating" (Act 10:10; 20:11; 23:14) or "tasting" (Mt 27:34; Lk 14:24; Jn 2:9; Col 2:21) food. GK 1174. Some think the "gift" is salvation or forgiveness. Others think it is Christ (Jn 4:10); others, the Lord's Supper.
22. Or, "having come-to-be, become, been". GK 1181.
23. Or, "partners, sharers". On this word, see 3:1. Note 10:32-34. This could mean sharers in the Spirit's person, gifts, or work.
24. Or, "miracles", as in 2:4.
25. Or, "fallen aside". Used only here. GK 4178. Related to "trespass" in Mt 6:14. The root word is "fall" in 3:17; 4:11.
26. Or, "re-crucifying". This phrase defines the sense in which such ones have fallen away—publicly turning away and denouncing Jesus—and the reason they cannot be renewed to repentance. Thus, it means "since they are crucifying-again". This is the word "crucifying" with the prefix "again". Used only here. GK 416.
27. Or, "making an example of, holding up for contempt, making a show of, putting to shame". Used only here. GK 4136. The noun (not used in the NT) means "a precedent, an example, a proof from example, a lesson, a warning". The picture here is of one who publicly renounces Christ, rejoining the group crying "Crucify Him".
28. Or, "grass", any kind of small green plant. Used only here. GK 1083. Our word "botany" comes from this word.
29. Or, "receives a share of". Such ones can be led on to maturity, by God's blessing. The writer's grammar may mean "receives a share of blessing", or, "receives blessings". On this word, see "share in" in 12:10.
30. Or, "rejected, failing to meet the test". On this word, see 1 Cor 9:27.
31. That is, is facing a curse, near to being cursed. On this word, see Gal 3:10.
32. Or, "outcome". This kind of land has only one destiny. The writer is referring to judgment, as in 10:29. On this word, see Rom 10:4.
33. Used only here in this book. On this word, see Mt 3:17.
34. Some manuscripts say "labor of love" {N}.
35. Or, "showed". Same word as in v 11. On this word, see Eph 2:7.
36. Note 10:32-34. On this word, see "ministering" in 1 Pet 4:10.

2. On this word, see 10:22. On this verse, compare 10:36.
3. That is, the end of life, or Christ's return. This phrase "until the end" is also in Rev 2:26, and is similar to the phrase in Heb 3:14. On related phrases, see Mt 10:22.

6. Some think this means when God promised, He swore at the same time, in Gen 22; others, having previously promised since Gen 12, He swore in Gen 22. The grammar permits either.
7. On this word, see Jam 5:12. It is used seven times in Hebrews.
8. This is a literal translation of a Hebrew way of speaking, meaning, I will surely bless, I will surely multiply.
9. On this word, see "is patient" in 1 Cor 13:4. Some think this refers to the 25 years between the promise and the birth of Isaac.

Used of fleeing to a city of refuge in Deut 4:42; 19:5; Josh 20:9. The picture is that we have fled from sin to a city of refuge in order to lay hold of the hope of life, eternal life.
16. That is, by God. Or, "lying before". On this word, see 12:1.
17. That is, encouragement to wait patiently (like Abraham) in order to obtain the promises. On this word, see Act 4:36.
18. Or, "certain, safe, firm". On this word, see "certainty" in Act 21:34.
19. That is, into the true Holy of Holies. On this word, see 9:3.
20. This is the fourth mention of Melchizedek, 5:6, 10; 6:20. Chapter 7 is exposition of the meaning of this person. Here the writer draws his points from Gen 14:17-20. In v 14 he takes up Ps 110, the only other place Melchizedek is mentioned. GK 3519.
21. Or, "continues, abides". In the Greek word order, v 1-3 is one long sentence with the subject ("this Melchizedek") coming first, and this phrase held until the very end (after "Son of God"), for emphasis. The writer returns to this point in v 23-25. On this word, see "abide" in Jn 15:4.
22. Or, "continually" and in this sense, "for all time, forever". On this idiom, see "for all time" in 10:12.

Melchizedek was "copied from" the Son of God. Note that the writer does not say made like "Jesus", who had a mother and a genealogy, but "the Son of God", who does not.

32. This word literally means "the top of the heap"; and regarding the harvest it meant "firstfruits". Used only here. GK 215.
33. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this statement, between "the ones" and "the one" in v 6.
34. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:9. GK 2632. Related to "priesthood" in v 11.
35. Elsewhere only as "to give a tenth of" in Mt 23:23; Lk 11:42; 18:12. GK 620. Related to "tenth" in v 4; and to the verb in v 6. "Tithe" is an Old English word meaning "tenth".
36. See Num 18:21-26. The Levites received it for their service as priests, but did not receive a portion of the land.
37. The point is that the Levitical priests had a commandment authorizing them to collect a tenth, even though collecting it from their own brothers. Melchizedek had no commandment, yet collected it from Abraham, to whom he was no relation! Melchizedek is greater than Abraham, and by extension, the Levitical priests. This is a participle modifying "brothers", "even though having come out".
38. Or, "reproductive organs, groin". Same word as in v 10; and Act 2:30, where Jesus is a fruit of David's loins. It is a Hebrew way of speaking, as in Gen 35:11; 2 Chron 6:9; etc. We would say "although they were descendants of Abraham". This word also means the "waist", where one ties a belt or ties up his garments to prepare for work. Elsewhere only as "waist" in Mt 3:4; Mk 1:6; Lk 12:35; Eph 6:14; 1 Pet 1:13. GK 4019.

1. Or, "naming his genealogy, being genealogized". This is the verb related to "genealogy" in 1 Tim 1:4. Used only here. GK 1156.
2. Same word as in v 5, but without the prefix "from", which is implied. Elsewhere only as "paid a tenth" in v 9. GK 1282. Melchizedek took a tenth from Abraham and blessed him. Therefore he is the greater of the two.
3. Or, "without any argument". On this word, see "opposition" in 12:3.
4. This is a key word in Hebrews. On this word, see 1:4.
5. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
6. That is, priests from the sons of Levi.
7. That is, Melchizedek. He "remains a priest perpetually", v 2-3. His death is not recorded.
8. This is an idiom, literally, "And so as to say a word". It was used to limit a startling statement. Used only here. GK 2229.
9. That is, the tenths from the people according to the Law, v 5.
10. That is, Levi was represented by Abraham when Abraham gave the tenth to Melchizedek, v 2. The point is that Levi, representing the entire Aaronic priesthood under the Law of Moses, is therefore shown to be inferior to Melchizedek.
11. This phrase "Now indeed, Now, So, Then" resumes the argument. It occurs also in 8:4 and 9:1. Each time, it introduces a comparison between the Levitical system and the priesthood/ministry of Christ. Here, having proven the personal superiority of Melchizedek to Abraham (v 6-7), and therefore to Levi (v 9-10), the writer now demonstrates the superiority of this priesthood predicted in Ps 110 to the Levitical priesthood. He does this by drawing inferences from three aspects of Ps 110. First, from the new order, v 11. Then from "swore", v 20. Then from "forever", v 23.
12. Or, "completeness", the attainment of everything required before God. Later the writer will say the yearly sacrifice proves this was not attained, 10:1-2. Elsewhere only as "fulfillment" in Lk 1:45. GK 5459. Related to "perfect" in 2:10.
13. Elsewhere only in v 12, 24. GK 2648.
14. That is, the priesthood. The Law rests upon the priesthood, which administers it. Thus the writer means "If the priesthood—and the Law they ministered to the people—had perfected them".
15. Though Melchizedek was mentioned in Genesis, the new priestly order is mentioned in Ps 110, long after the establishment of Aaron's priesthood. This implies that the Levitical priesthood and law was imperfect and temporary. The new will replace the old, and do what it could not do. If this were not so, if the Levitical system was God's final plan leading to perfection, what need would there be for the new one? Thus the very existence of this statement in Ps 110 proves that the Levitical system, like Levi, is inferior, and that something better was coming.
16. Since the Psalm proves that there is a change in priesthood, the writer now extends this by stating and proving (in v 13-17) the necessary corollary, that there is a change of law. He shifts from discussing the priesthood to the law. By proving the corollary, he further proves the main point of v 11. Others think this verse is parenthetical (making it part of 3C.), and that v 13 and v 15 (which would become 1D. and 2D.) are proving that a change in priesthood has in fact taken place, replacing the inferior Levitical one. Consult the commentaries.
17. On this word, see "removed" in 11:5.
18. Same word as in 7:27; 9:16, 23. On this word, see 1 Cor 7:26.
19. Or, "takes place, occurs". GK 1181.
20. Or, "changeover". On this word, see "removal" in 11:5. Related to "changed" earlier.
21. The historical fact that Jesus, as the Priest of Ps 110, is from Judah (in fulfillment of Gen 49:10) in violation of the Law of Moses, proves that He also brings a change of law.
22. That is, Ps 110:4.
23. Same word as in 2:14, where Jesus "partook" of blood and flesh.
24. That is, served as priest. Only the sons of Levi can be priests under the Law of Moses. On this word, see "pay attention to" in 1 Tim 3:8.
25. Or, "sprung up". Elsewhere only of the sun rising in Mt 5:45; 13:6; Mk 4:6; 16:2; Jam 1:11; the clouds in Lk 12:54; a light in Mt 4:16; and the morning star in 2 Pet 1:19. GK 422.
26. Some manuscripts say "priesthood" {N}.
27. The writer piles up the words here. It is even more clear that a change of law must occur since not only is Jesus of a different tribe than the priests, but human lineage is not even a qualification! It is not based on the lineage of Melchizedek at all (he has none), but on his continuing to "live" forever. Used only here. GK 2867. Related to "clear" in v 14.
28. Or, "Different". The word means, "another of a different kind". Same word as in v 11 and 13. On this word, see "different" in 1 Cor 12:9.
29. Or, "according to". GK 2848.
30. Or, "made of flesh". That is, the laws regarding the priest's physical descent. On this word, see "made of flesh" in 1 Cor 3:1.
31. Used only here. GK 1186. This is another way of saying "a priest forever" as in v 17.
32. Or, "witnessed, testified". On this word, see Act 6:3. Some manuscripts say "He attests" {N}.
33. The writer now concludes by plainly stating the meaning of "a change of law" in v 12, and thus the meaning of Ps 110. Ps 110 predicts a new Priest in a new priesthood, which requires a new Law. This means Jesus brings a setting aside of the Law and the Levitical system, which was not able to perfect (v 11), as He brings in better hope.
34. Or, "annulment, abolishment, abrogation". The new High Priest brings an end to the old system. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between the setting aside and the bringing in. Elsewhere only in 9:26, of sin. GK 120. Related to the verb "set aside" in 10:28.
35. The setting aside takes place in the establishment of the new priesthood, in fulfillment of the psalm.
36. Or, "uselessness". The Law could not save those approaching, v 25; 10:1-4. Elsewhere only as "unprofitable" in Tit 3:9. GK 543. Related to "profit" in Rom 2:25.
37. Or, "introduction". Used only here. GK 2081. The root word is "bring-in".

1. Continuing the exposition of Ps 110, the writer now draws an inference from "swore".

3. This noun is elsewhere only in v 21, 28. GK 3993. Related to "oath" in 6:16.
4. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between the ones (the Levitical priests) and the One (Christ).
5. This is a participle, "are having become". The Levitical priests have become and continue to be priests apart from an oath-swearing. GK 1181.
6. That is, the Father.
7. Some manuscripts add "according to the order of Melchizedek" {A}.
8. This construction "to the degree that... to that degree" (or, "by as much as... by so much") is used only here. Similar to Rev 18:7. Related to the construction in 1:4; 10:25. The first component ("to the degree") is also used in 3:3; 9:27 ("just as").
9. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
10. Or, "pledge, security". Used only here. GK 1583.
11. Continuing the exposition of Ps 110, the writer now draws an inference from "forever".
12. Or, "the more", more than one. Many were needed in succession, since they died. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between the many and the One.
13. Many have been and continue to be priests, because of death. This is a participle, "are having been". GK 1181.

17. Now the writer summarizes and concludes this point, and hints at the next one in v 27.
18. Same word as in 2:10.
19. Or, "devout". That is, holy in character, pleasing to God, pure. Elsewhere only in Act 2:27; 13:34, 35; 1 Tim 2:8; Tit 1:8; Rev 15:4; 16:5. GK 4008. Related to "holiness" in Eph 4:24; "devoutly" in 1 Thes 2:10; and "unholy" in 1 Tim 1:9; 2 Tim 3:2.

27. Or, "Holy Places". This sense occurs only in Hebrews— of the heavenly Holy Place in 8:2; 9:12; 10:19; of the whole earthly Holy Place, the Tabernacle in 9:1; of and its two parts, the outer Holy Place, 9:2; and the inner Holy of Holies, 9:3, 24, 25; 13:11; and in 9:8. "Holy Place" occurs in Mt 24:15; Act 6:13; 21:28, but in these cases the Greek word "Place" is expressed. Normally this word is translated "holy" (as in "Holy" Spirit), or "saints" ("holy" ones). On this word, see 1 Pet 1:16.
28. Or, "and". GK 2779.
29. Or, "genuine", the one in heaven, not the copy on earth. Same word as in 9:24. On this word, see Jn 7:28.
30. Same word as in 8:5; 9:2, 3, 6, 8, 11, 21; 13:10. It means "tent, dwelling place". The "tent" which served as the Lord's dwelling place in the OT, later reproduced in the temple, is called the "tabernacle". On this word, see "dwelling" in Lk 9:33.
31. Or, "set up, erected". This is the verb used of pitching a tent. Used only here. GK 4381.
32. Some manuscripts say "and not" {N}.
33. Or, "was". Some take this as a general statement of principle, like the first half of the verse, and supply is. Others think it refers specifically to the cross, and supply was.
34. Compare 5:1-2. Since Jesus was appointed High Priest in the order of Melchizedek, this means that He must have something to offer to God on behalf of people. He offered Himself, 7:27.
35. See 7:11 on this phrase. This begins a comparison that is completed in v 6. Some manuscripts say "For indeed" {N}.
36. Some manuscripts say "there being priests offering" {N}.
37. Or, "based on, in accordance with, in harmony with". That is, as the Law required. GK 2848.
38. Or, "divinely instructed". On this word, see "revealed" in Lk 2:26.
39. That is, to make or build it. On this word, see "perfecting" in 2 Cor 7:1.
40. Same word as in 1:4. Elsewhere only as "different" in 9:10; Rom 12:6. GK 1427. Related to "mattering" in Phil 1:10.
41. Or, "priestly service". On this word, see "service" in 2 Cor 9:12. Related to "minister" in v 2.
42. This word is used only of Moses in Gal 3:19-20; and of Christ in 1 Tim 2:5; Heb 8:6; 9:15; 12:24. GK 3542.
43. Same word as in 7:22; 8:8, 9, 10; 9:4, 15, 20; 10:16, 29; 12:24; 13:20; and in Mt 26:28; Mk 14:24; Lk 1:72; 22:20; Act 3:25; 7:8; Rom 9:4; 11:27; 1 Cor 11:25; 2 Cor 3:6, 14; Gal 3:15, 17; 4:24; Eph 2:12; Rev 11:19. Elsewhere only as "will" in Heb 9:16, 17. GK 1347. The related verb is in v 10.
44. The writer is referring to the new covenant quoted next, and to the promises in v 10-12.
45. On this word, see "blameless" in Phil 3:6. Related to "finding fault with" in v 8.

1. Or, "blaming" them. On this word, see Rom 9:19. The problem was with "them", not with the covenant. Some manuscripts say "For finding fault, He says to them..." {B}.
2. Or, "accomplish, complete, execute". On this word, see "accomplished" in Mk 13:4.
3. This is a participle, more literally, "on the day of my having taken hold of their hand". On this word, see Lk 20:20.
4. The verb and noun of the same word are used. Same word as in Act 3:25; Heb 10:16. Elsewhere only as "made the will" in Heb 9:16, 17; and as "confer" in Lk 22:29. GK 1416. On the noun, see 8:6.
5. On this word, see "thought" in Lk 1:51. The Septuagint is being quoted here. In 10:16, this is changed to "upon their heart... upon their mind".
6. Same construction as in 1:5. It is a Hebrew way of speaking. More literally, "I will be for God to them, and they will be for a people to Me".
7. Elsewhere only as "citizen" in Lk 15:15; 19:14; Act 21:39. GK 4489. Some manuscripts say "neighbor" {A}.
8. Or, "Come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
9. Or, "little". That is, insignificant. Some think the sense of these words here is "least, greatest". Same phrase as in Act 8:10. Some manuscripts say "their small one" {N}.
10. Or, "propitious, gracious". Elsewhere only in Mt 16:22. GK 2664. Related to "make an offering for satisfaction" in 2:17.
11. This word is normally translated "unrighteousness" (see Rom 1:18). It is plural only here. Related to "wronged" in Act 7:24.
12. Or, "call to mind, keep in mind". That is, I will forget them. Same word as in Lk 1:54.
13. Some manuscripts add "and their lawless-deeds" {N}, as in 10:17.
14. The writer summarizes his point from Jeremiah. Literally, "In the saying". Same idiom as in 3:15, except there it is passive.
15. This word is used of the new covenant also in Lk 22:20; 1 Cor 11:25; 2 Cor 3:6; Heb 8:8; 9:15. It means new in the sense of "fresh, recent, unused" versus "stale, worn out, obsolete". Compare 12:24. Same word as in Mk 2:21; 14:25; Jn 13:34. Used 42 times. GK 2785.
16. That is, made it obsolete. He replaced the old with the new. This word "made old" is elsewhere only in 1:11 and Lk 12:33 in the sense of "worn out"; and as "becoming old" here in this verse, with different grammar. GK 4096. Related to "old" in Mk 2:21, which is used of the "old" covenant in 2 Cor 3:14.
17. That is, old in years. On this word, see "become old" in Jn 21:18.
18. Having quoted the new covenant of which Christ is the minister, the writer now begins a comparison of the two ministries. First he describes and comments on the old, 9:1-10. Then he turns to the new, 9:11. On this phrase, see 7:11.
19. Or, "even". The writer may mean that both the second (8:10-12) and the first covenant have divinely ordained content. Or, he may be referring to this as the next matter regarding the first covenant which he will discuss and compare. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
20. Or, "worship". That is, the service of divine worship as prescribed by God. Same word as in v 6. On this word, see "worship" in Rom 12:1.
21. Or, "worldly", that is, "pertaining to this world". Elsewhere only as "worldly" in Tit 2:12. GK 3176. The root word is "world".
22. On this term, see "Holies" in 8:2. This is the only place where the singular is used of the Holy Place in Hebrews. Here it refers to the whole thing.
23. That is, the first "room" of the two-room tabernacle tent, the part the priests entered, v 6. Same word as in 8:2.
24. Or, "built, erected, made ready, furnished". Same word as in 9:6; 11:7; 1 Pet 3:20. Elsewhere only as "build" in 3:3, 4; and "make ready" in Mt 11:10; Mk 1:2; Lk 1:17; 7:27. GK 2941.
25. Or, "setting before". On this word, see Mk 2:26.
26. That is, the Holy Place. The word is plural, not singular as in v 1. On this word, see 8:2. For the detail on all this, see Ex 24-27.
27. Or, "veil". Elsewhere only of the curtain that was torn when Christ died in Mt 27:51; Mk 15:38; Lk 23:45; and in a different sense in Heb 6:19; 10:20. The first veil kept the people (except the priests) out of the Holy Place. The second veil kept the priests (except the high priest once a year) out of the Holy of Holies. GK 2925.
28. That is, the Holy of Holies. The Septuagint uses both phrases to refer to the Most Holy Place, "Holies of Holies", and "Holy of Holies". It is the second room, where only the high priest entered, v 7. On this word, see 8:2.
29. Or, "censer". See Ex 30:1-10 regarding the altar of incense, which was outside the veil, but associated with the Holy of Holies on the Day of Atonement, Ex 30:10. Note that the writer says "having", as opposed to "in which" (as with the lampstand, v 2, and the jar, v 4). Some think he means "having" in the sense of "associated with" (as in 6:9), for the altar and the ark. For other views, consult the commentaries. See Lev 16:12-13 for the censer used inside the veil on the Day of Atonement. It was not kept inside the veil, but taken in once a year. Used only here. GK 2593. Related words in Lk 1:9, 11.
30. Or, "box, chest". That is, the gold-covered box containing God's covenant written on stone. The ark of the covenant in heaven is in Rev 11:19. Elsewhere only of Noah's ark (boat) in Mt 24:38; Lk 17:27; Heb 11:7; 1 Pet 3:20. GK 3066.
31. That is, the ark.
32. See Ex 16:32-34. It was placed "before the Testimony" at the time of Moses. This jar of manna is not mentioned elsewhere in Scripture. On "manna", see Rev 2:17.
33. The rod was placed "before the Testimony" at the time of Moses (Num 17:1-11), and is not mentioned again in the OT.
34. See Ex 25:16; 31:18; Deut 10:5. 1 Kings 8:9 says that at that time, only the tablets were inside the ark. The other items were probably lost in 1 Sam 4:10-11. The ark itself was destroyed or taken in 2 Kings 25:8-10.
35. That is, winged creatures. This is a transliterated Hebrew word, from Ex 25:18-22. There were two cherubs, made of gold. Used only here. GK 5938. Same word as in Gen 3:24; 1 Sam 4:4; 2 Sam 22:11; 1 King 6:23-35; Ezek 10:1-20, etc. They are called "living creatures" (the word in Rev 4:6) in Ezek 10:15, 20.
36. Or, "shadowing down upon". Used only here. GK 2944.
37. Or, "the place of propitiation" where the blood of the sacrifice was offered to satisfy the justice of God. It was on top of the ark. Used of the place and the offering. Same word as in Ex 25:17, 21-22; Lev 16:14-16. On this word, see "that which satisfies" in Rom 3:25.
38. More literally, "according to part", or "part by part".
39. Or, "through all times", meaning all through the year as opposed to once per year for the high priest. On this idiom, see 2 Thes 3:16.
40. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.

- 1G. Which he offers^A for himself and the ignorances¹ of the people^B
- 2F. The Holy Spirit making this clear^C— that the way of the Holies² has not yet been made-known³ while the first tabernacle⁴ was⁵ still having^D a standing⁶ 8
- 1G. Which⁷ is⁸ a symbol⁹ for the present¹⁰ time, according to which¹¹ both gifts and sacrifices are¹² offered^A 9
- 11I. Not being able to perfect^E the one worshiping^F in relation to the conscience^G
- 21I. Being only— in-addition-to¹³ foods^H and drinks and different^I cleansings¹⁴— regulations¹⁵ of flesh¹⁶ being imposed¹⁷ until the time of reformation¹⁸ 10
- 3D. But Christ, having arrived¹⁹ as High Priest of the good^K things having come²⁰, entered²¹ once-for-all^L into the Holies^M 11
- 11I. Through the greater and more-perfect²² tabernacle²³ not made-by-human-hands^N— that is, not of this creation^O
- 21I. And not through²⁴ the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood²⁵ 12
- 31I. Having obtained²⁶ eternal^P redemption²⁷
- 11I. For if the blood of goats and bulls²⁸ and the ashes of a heifer²⁹ sprinkling^Q the ones having been defiled^R sanctifies³⁰ for the cleansing³¹ of the flesh 13
- 21I. By how much more will the blood of Christ, Who through the eternal^P Spirit³² offered^A Himself without-blemish^S to God, cleanse^T our³³ conscience^G from dead works³⁴, so that we may worship³⁵ the living God! 14

1. That is, sins of ignorance. See Num 15:27-31. Used only here. GK 52. Related to the word in Rom 10:3.
2. On this word, see 8:2. That is, the way into the Holies. Some think the writer means the earthly "Holy of Holies", the second tabernacle in v 7, as this word is used in v 3, 25; 13:11; others, the true, heavenly Holy Place, as this word is used in v 12; 8:2; 10:19.
3. Or, "revealed". No one had open access, or confident entrance (10:19). The people were excluded; the priests restricted. On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
4. This meant the "outer" room of the tabernacle in v 2 and 6, the only other places this phrase occurs. Some think it means this here also. As long as the outer tabernacle had a standing before God, the way in was not revealed. Others think the writer now means first in time, the human-built earthly tabernacle as a whole, the sanctuary of the first covenant, including the current temple (note 13:10). As long as the tabernacle and temple had a standing before God, the way in was not revealed. Thus some think the contrast is between the physical Holy Place and Holy of Holies; others, the physical outer Holy Place and the heavenly one; others, the earthly sanctuary as a whole, and the heavenly one. These views differ on the physical reference of the words, but the symbolic meaning is the same for them all. As long as the Levitical system was in place, the way-in to the presence of God was not revealed.
5. Or, "is". Whichever tense is supplied, it ceased having a standing before God when Christ died and the veil was torn. Though it continued to physically stand for a time, the way-in to the true Holies had then been made known.
6. Some think the writer means "physically standing, existing"; others, "having a standing, status, appointed place" in the divine order. Before Christ died, both views come to the same thing.
7. This refers to the "first tabernacle" in v 8. Thus some think the writer means "which outer Holy Place"; others, "which earthly OT tabernacle and temple". Both views include the worship that took place there, and the separation from the presence of God implied.
8. Or, "was".
9. Or, "analogy, illustration". This is the word "parable", but it is not used here of a story with a spiritual point, as in the Gospels. Here it is used of a real, existing thing with a symbolic meaning. The first tabernacle, with its sacrifices and regulations that cannot perfect, is symbolic of the fact that access to God has not been gained thereby. Compare 10:1-3. Same word as in 11:19. On this word, see "parable" in Mt 13:3.
10. This is a participle, "having come, being present". Some think this "was a symbol" for Israel, "for the [then] present" OT times before the "reformation" (v 10), a symbol of the fact that the Levitical system could not gain them free access to God; others, that it "is a symbol" for us, "for the [now] present" NT times after the "reformation" (v 10), a symbol pointing to the better reality Christ brought (v 11-12). Elsewhere only in Rom 8:38; 1 Cor 3:22; 7:26; Gal 1:4; 2 Thes 2:2; 2 Tim 3:1. GK 1931.
11. Some manuscripts say "throughout which", referring to the "present time" {N}.
12. This present tense is from the point of view of the symbol, which refers to when the tabernacle still had a standing. Thus this could be rendered "were offered". However, it could also indicate that the sacrifices were still going on in the temple, dating this letter before the temple's destruction in A.D. 70.
13. Or, "on top of, in the matter of". Same word as in 2 Cor 7:13. GK 2093. In this rendering, gifts and sacrifices for sin are things in addition to the three things mentioned next, all five being in the category of "regulations of flesh". Others render this "Relating only to foods and drinks...". In this case, the gifts and sacrifices had no value to cleanse sin, only to cleanse in matters relating to "regulations of flesh" like foods, drinks, and different cleansings. There are other views.
14. Or, "washings, baptisms". See Mk 7:4. On this word, see Heb 6:2.
15. Some manuscripts say "and regulations..." {A}. Same word as in v 1. On this word, see Rom 1:32.
16. That is, for the flesh. The symbol can best be understood by comparing v 13-14. The symbol (v 9) is that the first tabernacle concerned gifts and sacrifices unable to bring internal, heart cleansing, but only an external, transitory, ritual purification of the flesh. The Levitical regulations for gifts, sacrifices, foods, drinks, and cleansings did not clear the conscience. Thus they could never open the way to God. They brought a cleansing of the flesh, but not life. On this word, see Col 2:23.
17. Or, "laid upon" them. On this word, see "pressing upon" in Lk 23:23.
18. Used only here. GK 1481. Related to "reform" in Act 24:2. The root word is "make straight".
19. Or, "having appeared, having come". That is, in heaven. Related to "come" next. GK 4134.
20. GK 1181. Using a different word (the one in 10:1), some manuscripts say "of the coming good things" {B}.
21. In the Greek word order, "entered... Holies" is in v 12, just before "having obtained...". It is held until then for emphasis.
22. On this word, see "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10. The comparative form, "more perfect", is used only here.
23. Some think the writer means passing "through" the heavenly tabernacle, which is described in 9:24 as "heaven itself"; others, "by means of" His resurrection body, as the word "through" is used twice in v 12. There are other views.
24. Or, "with, by means of". GK 1328.
25. Christ offers His own blood as the sacrifice. He is both Priest and Lamb. On this word, see 1 Jn 1:7.
26. Or, "Obtaining" at the time He entered. GK 2351. Same word as "find" in 4:16; Mt 11:29. On this word, see "found" in 2 Pet 3:10.
27. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:68; 2:38. GK 3391. See the related word in Rom 3:24.
28. Some manuscripts say "bulls and goats" {K}, as in 10:4. On the Day of Atonement, the goat was offered for the people, the bull for the high priest.
29. See Num 19:1-22. The ashes were mixed with water and sprinkled on the defiled one.
30. Or, "consecrates". On this word, see 10:29.
31. Or, "purity, cleanness". Used only here. GK 2755. Related to "cleanse" in v 14.
32. Or, "His eternal spirit". Some manuscripts say "the Holy Spirit" {A}.
33. Some manuscripts say "your" {C}.
34. On "dead works", see 6:1.
35. Or, "serve". On this word, see 12:28.

- 1E. For where there is a will⁵, it is a necessity¹ that the death of the one having made-the-will⁶ be brought-forth⁷ 16
- 1F. For a will over dead ones is firm^K, since it does not ever have [legal] power⁸ when the one having made-the-will is living 17
- 2E. Hence, not even the first covenant has been inaugurated⁹ without blood¹⁰ 18
- 1F. For every commandment^L having been spoken to all the people^M by Moses according-to¹¹ the Law— 19

- 2G. And¹³ he likewise sprinkled^N with the blood both the tabernacle^P and all the objects^Q of the ministry^R 21
- 3E. Indeed according-to¹⁴ the Law almost¹⁵ everything is cleansed¹⁶ with blood, and forgiveness^S does not take-place¹⁷ apart-from^T blood-shedding¹⁸ 22
- 4E. Therefore it was a necessity¹ that the copies¹⁹ of the things in the heavens be cleansed with these²⁰ things— but the heavenly^U things themselves with better^V sacrifices^W than these 23

- 1H. For a second time
- 2H. Without reference to sin³⁸
- 3H. To the ones eagerly-awaiting^{FF} Him
- 4H. For salvation^{GG}

1. That is, because Christ entered the Holies having obtained redemption by the offering of Himself, v 11-14.
2. That is, Christ's. He is now the mediator of our eternal inheritance. But He is also the one who died so that we could receive the inheritance. His blood redeemed us from sin, and it ratifies the covenant.
3. That is, "at the time of", before Christ. GK 2093.
4. The sacrificial system only "covered" sins, it did not remove them. It never could, 10:4. Jesus did.
5. On this word, see "covenant" in 8:6. The same Greek word is used in both senses in this context, a "covenant" in v 15, 20; and a "will" in v 16, 17. The writer gives a human illustration, a will, which is a special kind of covenant. The will promising an inheritance cannot be enforced until the death of the one making it. In the same way, the new covenant could not be put in force and we could not receive the promise of the eternal inheritance until a death occurred—the death of our Substitute. A death is required.
6. The verb and noun of the same word are used here, and in v 17. On this verb, see "covenant" in 8:10.
7. One must "bring forth, present, produce" evidence that the maker of the will has died. On this word, see "carried" in 2 Pet 1:17.
8. On this word, "have power", see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
9. Or, "ratified, dedicated". Elsewhere only in 10:20. GK 1590. Moses and Christ inaugurated covenants with blood.
10. Blood was required for the ratification of the covenant, although the blood of a substitute, not of the one having made it.
11. Or, "based on, in harmony with, with respect to". GK 2848.
12. Some manuscripts omit "and the goats" {C}.
13. This happened at a later time. Some of the details in v 19-21 are not specifically mentioned in Exodus.
14. Or, "based on". GK 2848.
15. Or, "nearly". Elsewhere only in Act 13:44; 19:26. GK 5385.
16. Or, "purified". Same word as in v 14, 23; 10:2; Act 15:9; 2 Cor 7:1; Eph 5:26; Tit 2:14; 1 Jn 1:7, 9. Used of "cleansing" lepers (as in Mt 8:2); and foods (Mk 7:19). Used 31 times. GK 2751. Related to "purification" in 2 Pet 1:9; "cleansing" in Heb 9:13; and "clean" in Tit 1:15.
17. Or, "come about, come to pass, happen". Or, "and there is no forgiveness". On this word, see "comes" in 2 Pet 1:20.
18. Or, "blood-pouring" on the altar. This noun is formed from "blood" and "to pour out". Used only here. GK 136.
19. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence; between the copies and the heavenly things themselves. Same word as in 8:5. All the earthly things were "copies and shadows" of the heavenly. On this word, see "example" in Jn 13:15.
20. That is, the things mentioned in v 18-22, the application of the sprinkled blood of sacrificed animals.
21. That is, the "Holy of Holies", as in v 25. Christ's action as High Priest is in view. Others think the writer means the earthly Holy Place as a whole. On this word, see 8:2.
22. That is, a "copy, imprint, antitype" corresponding to an original, example, type. On this word, see "corresponding-thing" in 1 Pet 3:21. Related to "pattern" in 8:5. Not related to "copies" in 9:23.
23. Or, "to become visible". Same word as in Mt 27:53. GK 1872.
24. Or, "would have-had to suffer". On "had-to-have", see "should have" in Mt 25:27.
25. If Christ had to offer Himself often because His offering of Himself had only temporary strength, He would have to be born, suffer, and die over and over again since the world began.
26. This phrase, "since the foundation of the world", occurs elsewhere only in Mt 13:35; 25:34; Lk 11:50; Heb 4:3; Rev 13:8; 17:8. On "before the... world", see 1 Pet 1:20. "Foundation" is GK 2856.
27. Or, "has been made known, revealed". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19.
28. Or, "once", one time. On this word see Jude 3.
29. Or, "end, consummation, close, completion". The past ages before Christ were all brought to a consummation or conclusion in Him. On this word, see Mt 24:3. Note the plural "ages" here.
30. This word refers to sacrificial offerings made to God. Used of animal sacrifices in Mt 9:13; Lk 2:24; 1 Cor 10:18; Heb 5:1; 9:9. Used of spiritual sacrifices in Rom 12:1; Phil 4:18; Heb 13:15, 16; 1 Pet 2:5. Used 28 times. GK 2602. Related to "slaughter" in Act 10:13; and "altar" in Rev 8:3.
31. Or, "through His sacrifice".
32. The writer now turns from Christ's entering the true Holy of Holies to His return from it with salvation for His people.
33. Or, "to the degree that, by as much as, according as". Just as there are two steps for us, so for Him. Just as one follows the other for people, so one will follow the other for Christ. As certain as judgment follows death for us, so certain is His second appearance for us. On this phrase, see "degree" in 7:22.
34. Or, "reserved, laid away". It is reserved as something certain. On this word, see "reserved" in Col 1:5.
35. For Christ's side of the comparison begun in v 27, the writer does not merely say He died and was favorably judged by God. He gives the deeper significance of each event, in keeping with the previous context. Christ's death was as an offering to bear sin. And since this offering was accepted (favorably judged), He will appear again for salvation to those awaiting Him. Behind the latter point is the similar case of the high priest on the Day of Atonement. Just as his coming out of the earthly Holies signified that God had accepted the sacrifice and temporarily covered sin, so Christ's return signifies that God has accepted His sacrifice and granted a permanent salvation. Just as the people eagerly awaited the high priest, so we eagerly await Jesus.
36. Or, "take up, take upon Himself". This phrase is related to Isa 53:12. Same word as in 1 Pet 2:24. Jesus took these sins upon Himself for us. Elsewhere only as "offer" (in the sense of "bring up, carry up" to God) in Heb 7:27; 13:15; Jam 2:21; 1 Pet 2:5; "bring up" in Mt 17:1; Mk 9:2; and "carry up" in Lk 24:51. GK 429.
37. Or, "be seen". On this word, see "see" in Lk 2:26. Thus, the writer uses three different words in the same sense in v 24, 26, 28.
38. Or, "apart from sin". When Christ is seen again by those awaiting Him, it will be with the inheritance, v 15.

1. Or, "likeness, form". That is, it is a shadow, not the true likeness, the reality. On this word, see Col 1:15.
2. Or, "continually". That is, year after year for as long as the temple stands, and in this sense, "forever". Same idiom as in 7:3, and as "for all time" in 10:12. Some connect this to "perfect", as it is in v 14, "is never able to perfect for all time the ones approaching year by year with the same sacrifices which they offer".
3. The grammar indicates a "yes" answer is expected. This may imply the temple was still in use.
4. That is, in the sacrifices. The yearly sacrifices themselves are not a cure for sin, but a reminder that sin is still present. They do not open the way to God. Rather, they are a reminder that the way is not open.
5. On this word, see "remembrance" in 1 Cor 11:24 (the bread and cup).
6. The writer quotes the psalm in v 5-7, and applies the quote in v 8-10.
7. The Septuagint is being quoted, which says "you prepared a body for me". The Hebrew says "you opened my ears".
8. Same word as in v 9; 10:37. On this word, see "am here" in Jn 8:42.
9. That is, in the scrolls of the Old Testament, in the "book-roll", "book's scroll". I have come to take the body You prepared for Me and offer it as the sacrifice You desired, as it is written in Your book, the OT. On this word, see "scroll" in Rev 5:1.
10. Some manuscripts have these two words singular, "sacrifice and offering" {N}, as in v 5.
11. Or, "based on, in keeping with". GK 2848.
12. The sacrifices offered under the Mosaic Law, and offered correctly under the terms of the Law, were not pleasing to God. They were not sufficient. They were a temporary covering of sin until the perfect sacrifice came.
13. Some manuscripts add "God" {N}, as in v 7.
14. Or, "abolishes, kills". On this word, see "kill" in Mt 2:16. When used of laws, it meant "to abolish". When used of wills, it meant "to revoke".
15. Or, more simply, "first to establish the second". GK 2671.
16. Or, "make stand". GK 2705.
17. God takes away the Levitical system of animal sacrifices (v 8), to establish His will (v 9a).
18. Same word as in v 14. Note the change of tenses, "have been" here, "are being" in v 14. This is a participle, we "are having been made holy". On this word, see "sanctify" in 10:29.
19. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this statement; between what every priest does vs. this One in v 12. Some manuscripts say "high priest" {A}.
20. Same idiom as in v 14. Elsewhere only as "perpetually" in 7:3; 10:1. GK 1457. This word means "uninterrupted, continuous, unbroken, unceasing, carried through for the whole span, perpetual", and in this sense, "for all time, forever". The root word is "carry through". The priests "offer" sacrifices continually and perpetually, because they have no lasting value, 10:1. Jesus "offered" one sacrifice which is continually and perpetually effective, which "carries through" in effectiveness for the whole span of existence, so He sat down. Some think this goes with what follows, He "sat down for all time", demonstrating that His priestly work of offering a sacrifice was done.
21. Some manuscripts have this word plural {N}.
22. A glance at the full quotation in 8:10-12 makes clear that the writer skips all the words between "write them..." and here. For this reason, and because this statement is the one he speaks of in v 18, many add something like "Then He says" here, and some manuscripts include it {N}. Others break the quotation at "days", and use "says the Lord" to make the separation, so that it says "having said, 'This is... after those days', the Lord says, 'While giving My laws... mind. And I will never remember... again'".
23. The grammar of the verb "I will remember" differs slightly from 8:12, which quotes the Septuagint precisely.
24. Or, "lawlessnesses". On this word, see "lawlessness" in 1 Jn 3:4.
25. Or, "release, pardon". Same word as in 9:22. On this word, see Col 1:14.
26. No further sacrifice is needed because sin has been removed forever.
27. The writer closes the second section of the book with exhortations, just as he did the first section, 3:7-4:13. Note the similarity to 4:14-16. There he introduces Jesus as High Priest, here he applies it. Some think this closing section extends to v 39, making v 26 point 7B. (a warning), and v 32 point 8B. (a comfort, softening the warning, as 6:9-12 did for its warning). Then 11:1 becomes point 3A. Others begin the final section of the book here, making this point 3A. (see the note on 10:32).
28. That is, confidence to use the entrance, boldness and freedom to enter. On this word, see "entrance" in 1 Thes 1:9.
29. That is, the heavenly Holy Place. On this word, see 8:2.
30. Or, "new, recent". Used only here. GK 4710. This word also meant "freshly slaughtered". Related to "recently" in Act 18:2.
31. Some think the writer means "leading to life"; others, "alive and abiding forever"; others, that it is living because the way is Jesus Himself.
32. This is related to "entering" earlier, which is a "way-in". Here it is the "way" into the Holies.
33. Or, "with, by means of". GK 1328.
34. Or, "veil". On this word, see 9:3.
35. Some think the writer means the "way... that is, His flesh", so that Christ's body on the cross is the way through the curtain into the Holies for us. Others think he means "the curtain, that is, His flesh", so that Christ inaugurated the way "through" in the sense of "by means of" the curtain on His true identity, His flesh. Others think He inaugurated the way "through" the curtain into the Holies, "by means of" His flesh, applying the word "through" in a different sense to "flesh". In any case, His body on the cross is a curtain to unbelievers, a way in for believers. On this word, see Col 2:23.
36. That is, approaching God on His throne of grace in the Holies, using the way Jesus inaugurated. Same word and exhortation as in 4:16. Same word as in 10:1. It means "come to, go to, approach". Used 86 times. GK 4665.
37. Same word as in 6:11. On this word, see "fullness of conviction" in 1 Thes 1:5.

1. As the priests sprinkled animal blood on bodies and things to cleanse them, so Christ sprinkled His blood on our hearts. Same idea as in 9:13-14. Elsewhere only in 9:13, 19, 21. GK 4822. The related noun is in 12:24.
2. As the high priest was to bathe before entering the Holy of Holies (Lev 16:4), so we have been spiritually bathed so as to enter the heavenly Holies with Jesus. Some think the writer is referring to baptism; others, to what baptism represents. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:22. Related to the word in Eph 5:26. Compare Ezek 36:25-26.
3. Same word as in 4:14. That is, the hope we confess.
4. On "hope", compare 3:6; 6:11, 18, 19; 7:19. Some manuscripts say "faith" {K}, but no Greek manuscripts.
5. Or, "unbending, unswerving". Used only here. GK 195.
6. That is, thinking carefully about, fixing your spiritual eyes upon. Same word as in 3:1 where the writer exhorted his readers to consider Jesus; and Mt 7:3; Lk 6:41; 12:24, 27; Rom 4:19; Jam 1:23, 24. Elsewhere only as "look closely (at)" in Act 7:31, 32; 27:39; "observe" in Act 11:6; and "perceive" in Lk 20:23. GK 2917.
7. Or, "inciting, stirring up". Elsewhere only as "disagreement" in Act 15:39. GK 4237. The related verb is in 1 Cor 13:5, "Love is not provoked". This is a graphic word to use here.
8. On "good works", see Tit 2:14.
9. On this word, see 2 Thes 2:1. It is related to "synagogue".
10. Or, "encouraging". Same word as in 3:13; 13:22. On this word, see Rom 12:8.
11. Or, "so much more to the degree that...". This phrase "so much... by as much as", occurs elsewhere only in 1:4.
12. This participle "while sinning" may be rendered as a conditional statement, "For if we continue-sinning".
13. Or, "voluntarily, by our own choice, willingly, deliberately". On this word, see "willingly" in 1 Pet 5:2.
14. The nature of the sinning in view is seen in v 28-29— rejection of Christ and His sacrifice. If we turn away from Christ and His final once-for-all sacrifice of Himself, what other sacrifice can be offered for sins? None. On this word, see Act 25:8.
15. Or, "waiting-for, looking-for, reception". Used only here. GK 1693. Related to "wait for" in 11:10. All that remains is to look for and wait to receive judgment from an avenging God. Better to repent!
16. That is, avenging zeal. The writer is alluding to Isa 26:11. Compare 2 Thes 1:7-9.
17. Or, "rejected". On this word, see Gal 2:21.
18. Or, "acts of compassion". On this word, see Rom 12:1.
19. This word means "vengeance, retribution" for one who has been wronged, the wrong being described next. Used only here. GK 5513. Related to "punish" in Act 22:5.
20. Same word as in Mt 5:13; Lk 8:5. Elsewhere only as "trample" in Mt 7:6; Lk 12:1. GK 2922.
21. Or, "common". Same word as in Mk 7:2, 5; Act 10:14, 28; 11:8; Rom 14:14; Rev 21:27. Elsewhere only as "common" (in the sense of "shared") in Act 2:44; 4:32; Tit 1:4; Jude 3. GK 3123. Related to "defile" in Mk 7:15; and "share" in 2 Jn 11. Thus the writer could mean "unclean, defiled" vs. "holy"; or, "common", no different than any other blood.
22. This word modifies "blood".
23. Or, "set apart to God, consecrated, made holy, hallowed, treated as holy". This word means to make holy or treat as holy in both a moral and a ritual sense. Same word as in Mt 23:17, 19; Act 20:32; 26:18; Rom 15:16; 1 Cor 1:2; 6:11; 7:14; Eph 5:26; 1 Thes 5:23; 1 Tim 4:5; 2 Tim 2:21; Heb 9:13. Elsewhere only as "treat as holy" in Mt 6:9; Lk 11:2; "set apart" in Jn 10:36; 17:17, 19; 1 Pet 3:15; and "make holy" in Heb 2:11; 10:10, 14; 13:12; Rev 22:11. GK 39. Related to "holiness" in Heb 12:14 and Rom 1:4. The root word is "holy" (set apart to God) in 1 Pet 1:16.
24. Or, "arrogantly treated". Used only here. GK 1964. Related to "mis-treat" in 1 Thes 2:2.
25. Instead of a question, some take this as a statement, or an exclamation.
26. On this word, see 2 Thes 1:6. Some manuscripts add, "says the Lord" {N}.
27. Or, "But, And". The third section is an exhortation to endurance by faith. Note the similarities of the transition here in v 32-35 to the one in 4:14-16. There is a command (4:14, 10:32), followed by a reason (4:15, 10:34), followed by a quick application/conclusion (4:16, 10:35), then the main exposition begins (5:1, 10:36). As with that section, the writer first introduces the subject (in 4:14-16, High Priest; here, endurance by faith), then follows with the exposition of the subject (5:1-10:18; here, 10:36-11:40), then concludes with exhortations. Those who start point 3A. in 10:19 would then make this 5B. (a softening of the warning in 10:26, similar to 6:9-12), and would then make 11:1 point 6B. Others think 10:19-39 closes the second section of the book, and make 11:1 point 3A. (see 10:19). There are other views. These different views arise because there is clearly a change of subject matter, but neither 10:32 nor 11:1 have the language of a clear, explicit lead point. 10:32 makes a gentle opening, leading into the subject from their own past endurance of suffering; 11:1 makes an abrupt lead point. 10:19 is an excellent lead point, but does not seem to carry all the weight of chapter 11. Strictly as exhortations, 10:39 could connect with 12:1, omitting 11:1-40. Chapter 11 is closely connected to 10:32-39 and to chapter 12. No view is without its problems, but the one taken here may more simply allow the words themselves to carry the thought. Be aware, however, that most commentaries take one of the other views.
28. Or, "given light, illuminated". On this word, see 6:4.
29. On this verb, "to endure", which is also in 12:2, 3, 7, see Jam 1:12. "Endurance" occurs in 10:36, 12:1.

1. Instead of "the prisoners", some manuscripts say "the bonds"; others, "my bonds" {B}, a related word.
2. Same word as in 11:35. On this word, see "wait for" in Act 24:15.
3. Or, "robbery, seizing". Elsewhere only in Mt 23:25 and Lk 11:39, where Jesus accused the Pharisees of it. GK 771.
4. Or, "belongings, property". This is a participle, "the things belonging, being present" to one, "being at one's disposal, being at hand". Used in this sense only in Mt 19:21; 24:47; 25:14; Lk 8:3; 11:21; 12:15, 33, 44; 14:33; 16:1; 19:8; 1 Cor 13:3. Same word as "belonging" in Act 4:32, 37. Elsewhere only as "is" (see "being" in Phil 2:6). The related noun is used next in this verse.
5. Some manuscripts say "knowing that you have for yourselves a better..."; others, "knowing in yourselves that you have a better" {A}.
6. On this noun, see Act 2:45. Some manuscripts add "in heaven" {N}.
7. Hold on to it (3:6) with endurance. On this word, see 4:16.
8. That is, remember when you endured (v 32), for you have need of endurance (v 36).
9. Same word as in 12:1. Endurance by faith is what links together chapters 10-12. On this word, see Jam 1:3. Related to "endure" in v 32.
10. God's will is that we live by faith, as the writer goes on to say in v 38, loosely quoting Hab 2:3-4 from the Septuagint.
11. More literally, "For yet in how how little time". This idiom, "how how little", is also in Isa 26:20. The word "how" is repeated for emphasis. It may be rendered "how how", "how very", or simply "very" (GK 4012).
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}, so that it says "But the righteous one will live..."
13. Or, "shrinks back, withdraws". On this word, see Act 20:20. Related to the word in v 39.
14. Or, "takes no pleasure" in him. On this word, see Mt 17:5.
15. That is, we are not characterized by a drawing back in unbelief, but by a going on in faith. Used only here. GK 5714. Related to the word in v 38.
16. Now the writer takes up and proves by example that God's people have always endured by faith (10:36-39).
17. The root word means that which "stands under". Outside the NT, this word is used of the "reality, essence" of God behind the physical universe; the "title-deed" guaranteeing ownership of a property; the "resolution, determination" of the soldier seen in battle; the "foundation" supporting the building; the "plan, purpose" behind an endeavor, etc. Thus, its meaning in Heb 1:3 ("essence") is clear and common. In all its other NT uses ("confidence" in 2 Cor 9:4; 11:17; and "assurance" in Heb 3:14; 11:1), it is debated whether it refers to the subjective reality in the person, the frame of mind serving as the ground or basis of action; or to an objective reality outside the person on which action is based. Thus, here some think faith is the subjective "assurance" we have about what hope sees in the future; the "firm confidence" in these hoped-for things that forms the basis of our actions in keeping with them. So for example, faith is the inner assurance God gives us that Jesus will return, which results in our living in anticipation of that event. Others think faith is God's gift in us which gives a present "substance" or "objective reality" to the things hoped-for, making them real things to us. So, faith makes the return of Christ an objectively real thing to us, to which we respond with confidence and appropriate action. Others think this means faith is the objective "title deed" guaranteeing for us the hoped-for things. In any case, the key thing in this portion of Hebrews is that the readers need endurance (10:36), and faith is the basis of it, which the writer now proves with examples. By a faith seeing Him who is unseen and looking to the reward, Moses left Egypt. By a faith having seen the promises from afar, Abraham lived as a pilgrim, awaiting a heavenly country. The writer exhorts the readers to respond similarly in 12:1-2— not to have faith, but to live by faith with endurance. GK 5712.
18. That is, "about, regarding".
19. This phrase reinforces the first phrase in whichever sense is adopted there. Thus subjectively, faith is the inner "conviction, certainty", "the being convinced" about things not seen. So for example, faith is the conviction that heaven exists. Objectively, faith is the "proof, evidence", "the thing convincing" and bringing conviction about things not seen. So faith provides the proof that heaven exists. Used only here. GK 1793. The related verb is "expose" in Eph 5:11. In summary, faith is our inner confidence and certainty about these things, leading to action; or, faith is what makes these things real and proves them to us, leading us to place our confidence in them and act in accordance with them.
20. By this phrase, the writer includes present and past unseen realities with the future realities "hoped-for". One or the other of these two statements about faith can be substituted for "by faith" in chapter 11. By conviction of things not seen, Noah built the ark; by assurance of things hoped for, Moses refused to be called...; etc.
21. 11:1 is what God means by faith, for in this He attested those of old. In this kind of faith in His promise they endured, doing His will, 10:36-38.
22. That is, in faith (11:1); living by faith (10:38); enduring by faith while awaiting God's promises (10:36).
23. That is, the OT saints described in chapter 11. Similar to "the fathers" in 1:1. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:17.
24. Or, "borne witness", by God in His word. Same word as in v 4, 5, and 39. On this word, see Act 6:3.
25. The enumeration begins in Genesis 1, and continues with "by faith" examples through Joshua 6 (Rahab, v 31).
26. Or, "perceive". On this word, see "think" in Eph 3:20.
27. Same word as in 1:2.
28. That is, by His commands in Genesis 1, like "Let there be light".
29. Some manuscripts say "the things being seen have" {N}.
30. More literally, "has come-into-being not from things being visible". Some render this, "has come from things not being visible". Some think the "not visible things" are "words of God". Others think the phrase means "from nothing".
31. Or, "come, been made". Same word as in Jn 1:3.
32. The eternal invisible One made the visible things. When the chain of cause and effect is followed back to the beginning, the first material effect proceeds from an invisible cause, from a different reality. On this word, see "shine" in Phil 2:15.
33. See Gen 4:4-5.
34. As with "it" later in the verse, this refers either to "faith", or to Abel's "sacrifice", the expression of his faith.
35. Or, "bearing witness". Same word as "attested" in v 2.
36. Some think Abel speaks to the importance of faith to please God; others to the importance of blood sacrifice. Others think the writer is referring to Gen 4:10— Abel's blood is still crying out from the ground for God's vengeance upon those who kill God's righteous ones. Compare Heb 12:24.

8. Or, "divinely-instructed". Same word as in 8:5.
9. That is, fearing God. Used only here. GK 2326. Related to "reverence" in 5:7.
10. Or, "deliverance", physical salvation. On this word, see Lk 19:9.
11. This could refer to "faith", or the "ark" constructed by faith. Noah believed God, the world did not.
12. Or, "based on, by way of". GK 2848.
13. This is the Greek word order. Some render it "called to go out..., obeyed". On this word, see Act 6:7. Related to the "obedience" of faith in Rom 16:26.
14. More literally, "is", as the Greek typically phrases it.
15. Or, "lived as a foreigner, stranger". Elsewhere only in Lk 24:18. GK 4228. Related to "stay" in 1 Pet 1:17; and "foreigner" in 1 Pet 2:11.

21. This phrase shows the extent of Abraham's faith. His faith was in spite of "his own body having become lifeless... and the deadness of Sarah's womb", Rom 4:19. The latter was the greater—she was barren and post-menopausal, Gen 18:11. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:7, 36; 23:29; Gal 4:27. GK 5096.
22. Or, "by faith also, barren Sarah herself received power for the foundation of a seed even beyond the time of maturity, since she regarded...". Some manuscripts make this rendering explicit by adding "gave birth" {N}, so that it says "... seed and gave birth beyond the time...". Whether the subject of "received" is Abraham or Sarah has been debated from early times. In Genesis, the promise, the faith in it, and the seed that was founded were Abraham's. Some suggest the grammar was misconstrued by early copyists, and that the writer simply meant "By faith he also, with barren Sarah herself, received". Consult the commentaries.
23. Or, "beginning", but not "conception". Abraham received power to begin the seed (posterity) God promised when God empowered him to father a child through Sarah. If "seed" is taken in the sense of "sperm", then this word means "depositing, sowing, laying down". It is used in Greek of the male part of procreation, depositing seed in the female, not of the female conceiving. Elsewhere only in the phrase, "foundation of the world" (see 9:26). GK 2856.
24. The writer either means "the deposit of seed (sperm)", or, "the foundation or beginning of a seed (a posterity)". With Sarah as the subject, some render this "power in connection with his deposit of a seed". The Greek is sperma from which we get "sperm", meaning "descendants, posterity" (as in 2:16; 11:18) and "seeds" of plants (as in Mt 13:24). It has the meaning of "sperm" also, but not in the NT, unless here. Used 43 times. GK 5065. Related to "sow" in 2 Cor 9:6.
25. Or, "the season of age". That is, beyond the childbearing time of life for both of them, Rom 4:19. On this word, see "life span" in Mt 6:27.
26. Or, "dead, lifeless". Same word as in Rom 4:19.
27. That is, his powers of procreation.
28. Or, "fathered". On this word, see 1 Jn 2:29. Some manuscripts say "came" {N}.
29. This refers to those mentioned in v 8-12, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Sarah.
30. Some manuscripts add "and having been convinced" {N}, so that it says, "a distance, and having been convinced of them, and having greeted...".
31. This is the word used in the greetings at the end of the NT letters, as in 13:24. On this word, see Mk 15:18.
32. Or, "temporary residents, sojourners". On this word, see 1 Pet 1:1. This is referring to Gen 23:4.
33. Or, "making known, revealing". GK 1872.
34. Or, "a fatherland, a land of one's fathers". Same word as in Jn 4:44. Elsewhere only as "hometown" in Mt 13:54, 57; Mk 6:1, 4; Lk 4:23, 24. GK 4258. They did not look to this earth as their homeland, but to heaven, v 16. They dwelt in tents, awaiting the city God would build for them, v 9-10. They were enduring by faith, awaiting the promise—the point of this chapter.
35. The writer uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this statement.
36. That is, if they had in mind their former homeland when they said they were strangers and pilgrims, they could have returned at any time. But they meant it with reference to their heavenly homeland.
37. Or, "but now", in a logical sense. On this idiom, see 1 Cor 5:11.
38. That is, to be called "the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob", as God called Himself in Ex 3:15.

1. Or, "calculated, accounted". On this word, see Rom 3:28. Abraham had the promise, and the command to offer Isaac. He obeyed, trusting based on the promise that God would work it out— by raising Isaac from the dead if necessary.
2. That is, from the dead. Or, "dead. Hence, ...", making this point 2D. In this case the writer means "Hence, by his faith, he received him back". On this word, see "hence" in 2:17.
3. On this word, "received back", see 2 Cor 5:10.
4. Or, "analogy, illustration". Same word as in 9:9. Some think the writer means "in an illustration of the Father and Christ". Others think he means "in a figure of speech, so to speak".
5. The Septuagint is being quoted. The Hebrew says "bed". Originally, only the Hebrew consonants were written, the vowels being supplied verbally. The difference between "bed" and "staff" is which vowels are supplied.
6. Or, "while dying", but a different word than verse 21. This is a euphemism for death. This is the same word used in the Septuagint in Gen 50:26. On this word, see Mk 9:48.
7. The word implies that Joseph "called to mind and spoke of" this. On this word, see Jn 16:21.
8. Or, "exodus". That is, from Egypt. On this word, see Lk 9:31. The Greek word is exodos.
9. At the Exodus, Joseph's bones were taken along (Ex 13:19), and buried in Shechem (Josh 24:32).

Or, it could mean great in status in Egypt, versus the plight of the Jews. This common word means "great", with the specific sense of it determined by its context: "large, long, high, loud, old, intense, important, profound". Used 194 times. GK 3489.

20. Moses fled Egypt for Midian because he was afraid Pharaoh would kill him, Ex 2:14-15. Some think this is the reference here, so that verse 28 follows in chronological order, explaining his fear in various ways. Others think this verse is referring to the second time Moses left Egypt, the Exodus, and all the events associated with it from the ten plagues to the drowning of the army. "Not fearing the wrath of the king" is an appropriate description of Moses in this period, especially regarding his personal confrontations of Pharaoh during the plagues, which were before the Passover.
21. Or, "endured, persisted, was steadfast". Used only here. GK 2846. Related to "perseverance" in Eph 6:18.
22. Some think the writer means "as though he saw"; others, "in as much as he saw, as one who saw".
23. Having made reference to the entire event of leaving Egypt, the writer now speaks of one crucial and enduring aspect of it. The grammar implies that Moses kept or performed it, and that it continues to be performed (it is established). On this word see "does" in Rev 13:13.
24. Or, "pouring". Used only here. GK 4717. This is referring to Ex 12:7, 22.

Then Christ returned to His place of glory and sat down. Others render this "instead of the joy", meaning Christ turned away from potential human joys to the cross; or, from His actual heavenly joys as the Son to the work God gave Him to do on earth. GK 505.
16. Or, "cared nothing for". On this word, see Rom 2:4. Christ looked to the joy and turned away from the shame.

While enduring your trials, as in 10:32-34, pursue both peace with your persecutors and holiness with God. Others think he means peace "with" all believers, so as not to harm the cause of Christ, as in Rom 14:19. 23. That is, later on when Isaac was blessing his two sons, Jacob and Esau, Gen 27:30-40.
24. This word means "rejected as the result of a test; rejected as unfit, unqualified, unworthy". Some think it is God who rejected Esau. Isaac wanted to bless him (Gen 27:4), and thought he was doing so. Others think the writer means that Isaac rejected Esau in that he refused to withdraw his blessing of Jacob. Elsewhere only of Christ rejected by people in Mt 21:42; Mk 8:31; 12:10; Lk 9:22; 17:25; 20:17; 1 Pet 2:4, 7. GK 627. Related to "approve" in Rom 12:2.

- 1G. Whose voice shook^E the earth at that time¹⁴ 26
- 2G. But now He has promised, saying [in Hag 2:6]— “I will shake¹⁵ once¹⁶ more not only the earth, but also the heaven”
- 1H. And the phrase “once more” indicates¹⁷ the¹⁸ removal¹⁹ of the things being shaken^E— as of things having been made— so that the things not being shaken^E may continue²⁰ 27
- 2F. Therefore while receiving^F an unshakable kingdom^G, let us have gratitude²¹, through which we may worship²² God pleasingly²³, with reverence^H and awe²⁴. For indeed our God is a consuming fire²⁵ 28
- 2D. Let²⁶ brotherly-love²⁷ continue^I 13:1

- 1E. For He Himself has said [in Deut 31:6], “I will never⁴⁶ let you go⁴⁷, nor will I by any means forsake⁴⁸ you”

1. This is the Greek word order and normal way of translating. It also fits the pattern of 1F., 2F., and 6F. Others render it "to God, the judge of all".
2. That is, the OT believers mentioned in 11:40. On this word, see 2:10. The writer says "spirits" because they still await the resurrection. His point is that all those righteous ones from Jewish history are with Jesus.
3. Used only here with "covenant". This word means "new" in the sense of "young" as opposed to "aged". See Mk 2:22 on it. A different word for "new" is used in 8:13.
4. See 9:19-28 on this. On this word, see 1 Pet 1:2. The related verb is in 10:22.
5. On this word, see 1:4. Some manuscripts have this plural, "better things" {N}.
6. Abel's blood called out for vengeance. Christ's blood speaks forgiveness.
7. Same word and form of exhortation as in 3:12.
8. Or, "decline, reject, shun, beg off". Same word as "begged" in verse 19. Same word as later in this verse; and in Act 25:11. Elsewhere only as "decline" in 1 Tim 4:7; 5:11; 2 Tim 2:23; Tit 3:10; "excuse" in Lk 14:18, 19; and "request" in Mk 15:6. GK 4148.
9. Same word as in 2:3.
10. That is, God, v 19. This word refers to a divine warning. Same word as in 8:5.
11. That is, on Mount Sinai, but phrased more broadly here to contrast with heaven next.
12. Same word as in Mt 5:42; Lk 23:14; Act 3:26; Rom 11:26; 2 Tim 1:15; 4:4; Tit 1:14. Elsewhere only as "return" in Mt 26:52. GK 695.
13. As God revealed Himself to Israel at Mt Sinai through Moses, so now He is revealing Himself to the world from heaven through Jesus and the Holy Spirit. In both cases, the one turning away from what God reveals will suffer the consequences. And God's warning is clear, He will judge the world through Jesus, Jn 5:21-27; Acts 10:42; 17:31. We who turn away will not escape. Next, the writer proves this. When God keeps His promise to shake all creation (v 26), only those not being shaken will remain (v 27), those part of His kingdom (v 28). The others will be "removed".
14. See Ex 19:18.
15. On this word, see Mt 21:10. Some manuscripts say "I am shaking" {N}, in a prophetic sense.
16. Or, "one-time more, yet one-time, still one-time". That is, one more time. On this word, see "once for all" in Jude 3.
17. Or, "makes clear, reveals, shows". On this word, see "make clear" in 1 Cor 3:13.
18. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "a removal".
19. Or, "change". On this word, see 11:5.
20. Or, "remain". Some think the writer means that the visible manifestation of God's kingdom (the temple and OT economy begun at Sinai) will be removed and His unshakable kingdom established. Others think he is referring to the end-time, when Christ returns. On this word, see "abide" in Jn 15:4.
21. On "have gratitude", see Lk 17:9.
22. Or, "serve". This may also be rendered "through which let us worship". This word refers to giving religious service or worship to God. Same word as in 9:9, 14; 10:2; and Act 7:7, 42; 24:14; 26:7; Phil 3:3. Elsewhere only as "serve" in 8:5; 13:10; and Mt 4:10; Lk 1:74; 2:37; 4:8; Act 27:23; Rom 1:9, 25; 2 Tim 1:3; Rev 7:15; 22:3. GK 3302. Related to "worship" in Rom 12:1.
23. Or, "acceptably", to God. Used only here. GK 2299. Related to the verb "to please" in 11:5.
24. Or, "fear". Used only here. GK 1290.
25. This is alluding to Deut 4:24.
26. Just as the writer broadened his exhortation from our relationship to God to our relationship with others in 10:24, so he does here in what follows. He broadens out from the pursuit of holiness and God (12:14-29) to commands regarding our personal relationships.
27. That is, the love of fellow Christians. Made of the word "brother" and "love". Elsewhere only in Rom 12:10; 1 Thes 4:9; 1 Pet 1:22; 2 Pet 1:7. GK 5789. Related word in 1 Pet 3:8.
28. Or, figuratively, "be neglecting, overlooking". Elsewhere only in 6:10; 13:16; and Mt 16:5; Mk 8:14; Lk 12:6; Phil 3:13; Jam 1:24. GK 2140. Related to "forgetful" in Jam 1:25.
29. Or, "love of strangers". Elsewhere only in Rom 12:13. GK 5810. Related to "hospitable" in Tit 1:8.
30. Or, "lodged, received as guests". Same word as in Act 28:7. On this word, see "lodging" in Act 10:6.
31. Or, "were unaware [of it]". This is referring to Abraham in Gen 18-19. On this word, see "escape notice" in 2 Pet 3:5.
32. That is, in the sense of "keep in mind, do not forget". Same word as in 2:6; 8:12. Related to the word in v 7.
33. Or, "bound with". Used only here. GK 5279. Related to "imprisonment" in Phil 1:7.
34. That is, as though you yourself were suffering their mistreatment, walking in their shoes. Or, "as also yourselves being in a body", exposed to the same potential for mistreatment. In this case, the word "as-though" has a different sense here than in the previous phrase.
35. Or, "respected". Same word as in Act 5:34. Some take this as a statement, "Marriage is honored among all". The verb must be supplied. Note that this is in a list of nine other commands, and that v 5 has the same grammar. On this word, see "precious" in 2 Pet 1:4.
36. Or, "among all" or "in all things", in every respect.
37. That is, the marriage bed, sexual relations. Elsewhere only in Lk 11:7; Rom 9:10; 13:13. GK 3130. Related to "bedroom" in Act 12:20. The root word is "lying" in Mt 3:10.
38. Or, "unstained, unsoiled". Same word used of Jesus in 7:26. Elsewhere only in Jam 1:27; 1 Pet 1:4. GK 299.
39. Some manuscripts say "But" {N}.
40. That is, those not honoring marriage, but pursuing sex outside of marriage. On this word, see 1 Cor 5:9.
41. That is, those defiling the marriage bed by committing adultery.
42. Or, "way of life, manner of living". Used only here in this sense. On this word, see "way" in Act 27:25.
43. On this word, see "not a money lover" in 1 Tim 3:3.
44. Or, "satisfied". On this word, see "sufficient" in 2 Cor 12:9.
45. This is a participle, "the things being present". That is, with what you have now.
46. Or, "by no means", as in the next phrase. This is an emphatic negative, on which see Gal 5:16.
47. Or, "turn you loose, give you up". Elsewhere only as "unfasten" in Act 16:26; 27:40; and "give up" in Eph 6:9. GK 479.
48. Or, "desert, abandon". On this word, see 2 Cor 4:9.

- 2E. So that while being confident^A we say, "The Lord is a helper for me and¹ I will not fear^B. What² will a human^C do to me?" [Ps 118:6] 6
- 7D. Remember³ the ones leading⁴ you, who spoke the word of God to you, whose faith⁵ be imitating^D while looking-carefully-at^E the result⁶ *of their way-of-life*⁷ 7
- 1E. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever⁸ 8
- 8D. Do not be carried-away⁹ by various¹⁰ and strange¹¹ teachings^F 9
- 1E. For it is good^G for the heart to be established¹² by grace^H, not by foods¹³ in-connection-with¹⁴ which the ones walking¹⁵ were not profited^I 10
- 2E. We¹⁶ have an altar¹⁷ from which the ones serving¹⁸ in the tabernacle^K have no right¹⁹ to eat²⁰ 10
- 1E. For²¹ of animals^L from which the blood is brought into the Holies²² by the high priest for sin— the bodies of these are burned-up outside of the camp^M 11
- 2E. Therefore²³ Jesus also— in order that He might make the people holy²⁴ with His own blood^N— suffered^O outside of the gate²⁵ 12
- 3E. So-indeed²⁶, let us go-out²⁷ to Him outside of the camp, bearing^P His reproach^Q. For here²⁸ we do not have an abiding^R city, but we are seeking-for²⁹ the one coming³⁰ 13

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. Others punctuate this, "and I will not fear what a human will do to me".
3. That is, keep in mind. This word is used with reference to past (Lk 17:32) and current (Gal 2:10; Col 4:18; 1 Thes 1:3) things. On this word, see Jn 16:21.
4. Or, "ruling". Because of the past tense of "spoke", and the word "result", some think the writer is referring to leaders who had died. Remember and imitate the example of their life. In this case, the time relation of this word is taken from "spoke", so that he means "Remember the ones who were leading you". Others think he is referring to "the ones who are leading you", meaning the same thing as in 1 Thes 5:12-13. Thus, this command is complementary to v 17. This verse focuses on their teaching and example, v 17 on their leadership. Same word as v 17, 24; Lk 22:26; Act 14:12; 15:22; and as "ruling" in Mt 2:6; Act 7:10. On this word, see "regard" in Jam 1:2. GK 2451. Related to "being governor" in Lk 2:2.
5. Or, "faithfulness". On this word, see Eph 2:8.
6. Or, "end, outcome". GK 1676.
7. Or, "behavior, conduct". On this word, see "conduct" in 1 Pet 1:15.
8. Jesus will produce the same outcome in your lives that He did in theirs. Others take this with v 9, Jesus is the same, so do not follow strange teachings. On "forever", see Rev 20:10.
9. Or, "taken away". On this word, see "remove" in Lk 22:42. Some manuscripts say "carried around" {N}.
10. Or, "diversified", as in 1 Pet 4:10. This word also means "intricate, riddling, ambiguous, cunning", and this more negative meaning may be intended here.
11. Or, "foreign". On this word, see "host" in Rom 16:23.
12. Or, "strengthened, confirmed". On this word, see "confirmed" in 1 Cor 1:6.
13. That is, to be established by grace, not by what we eat or do not eat; by spiritual means, not physical; by spiritual worship, not physical; by teachings such as those in Hebrews, not teachings about foods. The Jews gained no spiritual benefit from the physical foods. The writer does not make his point any more specific, so there are several views regarding what the more specific nature of these teachings may have been. Consult the commentaries. Same word as 9:10; 1 Tim 4:3. On this word, see Mk 7:19.
14. Or, "by means of". GK 1877.
15. This word means to physically "walk" (Mt 4:18; 9:5); "walk around" (Mk 5:42; 12:38); and to figuratively walk in the sense of "live, behave, conduct one's daily life" (as in Rom 6:4; 8:4; 13:13, 14, 15; 2 Cor 5:7; Gal 5:16; 1 Jn 1:6). Used 95 times. GK 4344. Some manuscripts say "having walked" {N}.
16. Verses 10-14 are rich with OT allusions and possible inferences. Consult the commentaries. The writer is giving the basis for his statement that it is good to be established by grace not foods, and drawing an application from it for his readers.
17. That is, a spiritual altar or place of sacrifice and worship. The writer does not make this any more specific, and says nothing more about it. Because of this, there are several views on what more specific meaning might be found here. Some think the altar is the cross; others, Jesus; others, the true altar in heaven (8:2; 9:11); others, the Lord's Supper. Note that the general meaning alone is sufficient for the writer's own actual conclusion in v 15. Through Jesus, let us offer up spiritual sacrifices of praise on our spiritual altar of worship to God. On this word, see Rev 8:3.
18. Or, "worshipping", as in 12:28. That is, the Jewish priests, representing all the people in the Levitical system.
19. Or, "authority". The reason they have no right is explained in v 11-12. On this word, see 1 Cor 8:9.
20. To "eat from the altar" means to eat the meat of the sacrificial animal leftover after the blood was offered. In the Law, God gave the priests the right to eat this meat. Thus, the one bringing the sacrifice gained a spiritual benefit. The priests gained a physical benefit from the altar—the food. But they gained no spiritual benefit from eating it, v 9. We have an altar from which no such physical benefit can be gained. The writer explains why next. Some think he is implying that we spiritually eat from our altar and the Jews do not; others think he is not implying that anyone eats from it. Note that he says nothing more about "eating", and makes no application of this to the Lord's Supper. This is probably because he has in mind the Day of Atonement, as seen in v 11, and no "eating" took place from that sacrifice.
21. In the Law, the priests were commanded to burn the body of the sacrifices on the Day of Atonement outside the camp, Lev 16:27. There was nothing left to eat. They had no right to this meat from their altar. Note that the writer's point is not where the animals died (it was in the temple), but that their bodies were burned outside the camp and not eaten.
22. That is, the Holy of Holies. On this word, see 8:2.
23. First the writer applies this to Jesus. Jesus offered His own blood in the heavenly temple. But He is similar to the Day of Atonement sacrifices in that He suffered "outside the camp".
24. On this word, "make holy", see "sanctify" in 10:29.
25. Looking backward to v 9, the implication of this is that there is nothing to eat. The body is gone. There is no eating associated with His sacrifice. We are established by the grace that comes through His sacrifice, not by any physical connection to His sacrifice, or any kind of association with foods or eating. We have a spiritual altar. So do not be carried away by teachings linking physical eating to any spiritual benefits. The physical did not profit the priests spiritually, and will not profit you. Looking forward to v 13, the writer takes another step. He drops the "not eaten" aspect and applies the "outside the camp" aspect in a way with much broader implications than foods alone. GK 4783.
26. Now the writer applies this to his readers. On this word, see 1 Cor 9:26.
27. The readers must go out to Jesus where He was sacrificed for sin, and identify themselves with Him there, and bear the reproach He bears as a result of being that sacrifice. Worship there is spiritual, not physical. Some think this is also implying that they must leave the Levitical, Jewish system. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
28. That is, in this world, this age.
29. Same word used of Abraham in 11:14. On this word, see Phil 4:17.
30. That is, the city coming, the heavenly Jerusalem, 12:22.

- 3E. Therefore¹ through Him let us be continually^A offering^B a sacrifice^C of praise² to God—that is, the fruit^D of lips praising³ His name. *And do not be forgetting^E good-doing⁴ and sharing⁵. For with such⁶ sacrifices God is pleased⁷ 15 16

1. It is good to be established by grace, not foods. We have a spiritual altar outside of the Levitical system, not one with physical associations with foods like the one in the camp. Therefore let us offer up spiritual sacrifices through Him. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. That is, consisting of praise. Peter likewise refers to "spiritual sacrifices" in a spiritual temple, 1 Pet 2:5. Used only here. GK 139. The related verb is in Rom 15:11. Not related to "praising" next.
3. Or, "confessing His name". This phrase is used only here in the Greek Bible. It means "giving praise/thanks to His name" or "confessing/acknowledging His name". It has the same grammar as used with the related word in Mt 11:25 ("I praise You"), and in the OT as "give thanks" to the Lord or to His name (Ps 7:17; 18:49; 44:8; 45:17; 52:9; 54:6; 92:1; 99:3; 106:47; 122:4; 140:13; 142:7), and "confess" Your name (1 King 8:33, 35). On this word, see "confessed" in 1 Tim 6:12.
4. This noun is used only here. GK 2343.
5. On this noun, see "fellowship" in 1 Cor 1:9.
6. Note that expressions of love for God and neighbor are combined as spiritual sacrifices pleasing to Him.
7. This is in direct contrast to animal sacrifices, which were not well-pleasing (10:5-7, an unrelated word). On this word, see 11:5.
8. Or, "Be persuaded by". On this word, see "persuade" in 1 Jn 3:19.
9. Or, "giving way, deferring, withdrawing". Used only here. GK 5640.
10. That is, leading and keeping watch over you.
11. Used only here. GK 269. This is a compound word indicating that it would not release the intended result for you.
12. Or, "rightly, honorably". Same root word as "good" earlier. This could be rendered "commendable conscience... conduct ourselves commendably". On this word, see Act 10:33.
13. Or, "in all respects, among all people".
14. Or, "in, by, with, by means of". GK 1877.
15. Or, "Equip, Furnish, Complete". On this word, see Rom 9:22.
16. On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10b. Some manuscripts say "in every good work" {A}.
17. Some manuscripts say "you" {A}.
18. This may be referring to "God", the main subject of the sentence. Or, it may be referring to "Jesus Christ", the nearest possibility, making this point 1D.
19. On this idiom, see Rev 20:10. Some manuscripts just say "forever" {C}.
20. Same word as 2 Tim 4:3, of bearing with healthy teaching. On this word, see 2 Cor 11:4.
21. Or, "sent in a letter to". Elsewhere only in Act 15:20; 21:25. GK 2182. This is the verb related to "letter" in 2 Thes 3:17.
22. The writer may mean he wrote briefly, compared to what he might have said about the subject. Or, this may be an understatement, meaning he wrote at length. On this word, see "little" in 2:7.
23. Or, this may be a statement, not a command, "You know of". On this word, see "know" in Lk 1:34. It is used in this sense only here.
24. Or, "having departed", as in Act 28:25. Some think the writer means "having been released" from prison; others, "having departed" on a journey. On this word, see "sends away" in Mt 5:31.
25. Same word as "sooner" in v 19. The writer could mean more quickly than Timothy's progress so far would indicate; or, sooner than he himself plans to depart. But we know nothing of the circumstances. Or, simply "quickly, soon", dropping the comparative aspect. On this word, see Jn 13:27.
26. Some take this to mean this letter is being written to Italy, and the ones that are with the writer from Italy send their greetings back; others, that it is being written from Italy, and the ones there join the writer in greeting the readers.
27. Some manuscripts add "Amen" {A}.

Introduction	1:1
1A. Regard it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various trials, knowing endurance is produced	1:2-3
1B. And let endurance be having its complete work, that you may be complete, lacking nothing	1:4
2B. And if anyone is lacking wisdom, let him ask from God and it will be given to him	1:5-8
3B. And let the lowly brother be boasting in his height, and the rich one in his lowliness	1:9-11
4B. Blessed is the man who endures the trial, because he will receive the crown of life	1:12
5B. Let no one say God is tempting him to do evil, for God tempts no one. Do not be deceived	1:13-16
2A. My beloved brothers, every good giving and perfect gift comes down from the Father of lights	1:16-17
1B. He brought us into being by the word of truth to be a kind of firstfruit of His creatures	1:18
2B. You know this, but be slow into anger. For anger does not work the righteousness of God	1:19-20
3B. Therefore receive with gentleness the implanted word being able to save your souls	1:21
4B. But be doers of the word, not hearers only, deluding yourselves with worthless religion	1:22-27
3A. My brothers, do not be holding your faith with respect of persons	2:1-13
4A. My brothers, what is the profit if someone claims to have faith, but does not have works?	2:14
1B. If one is lacking and you give words only, what is the profit? So faith is dead by itself	2:15-17
2B. But "You have faith, I have works". Faith without works is mere belief, like demons	2:18-19
3B. But do you want to know it is useless? Look at Abraham and Rahab	2:20-25
4B. For just as the body without spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead	2:26
5A. Do not become many teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive a greater judgment	3:1-2
1B. If one does not stumble in speech, he is a perfect man, for the tongue is small but powerful	3:2-6
2B. The tongue is the world of unrighteousness, staining the whole body, setting our life on fire	3:6-10
3B. My brothers these things ought not to be so. The tree is known by its fruit	3:10-12
4B. Who is wise among you? Let him show it in his works done in the gentleness of wisdom	3:13
1C. But if you have selfish interest in your heart, do not lie against the truth. This is not wisdom from above. This produces disorder and every bad thing	3:14-18
2C. From what source are fights among you? Are they not from your pleasures?	4:1-3
3C. Adulterous ones, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God?	4:4-5
4C. But He gives greater grace. Therefore submit to God, draw near, mourn, be humbled	4:6-10
5B. Do not speak against one another, brothers. There is one Judge, but who are you?	4:11-12
6A. Come now, ones making plans apart from God. You boast in your pretensions. This is evil	4:13-17
7A. Come now, rich ones, weep over your miseries coming upon you.	5:1-6
8A. Therefore be patient, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Do not be groaning. Do not be swearing an oath. Be praying. Be singing praise. Pray for the sick. Turn back ones wandering	5:7-20

1. Some think this is the half-brother of Jesus, leader of the church in Jerusalem. See Mt 13:55 on him. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
2. On this word, see 1 Pet 1:1. Some think James is addressing Jewish Christians dispersed outside of Judea; others, that he is referring metaphorically to the true people of God.
3. Or, "Deem, Consider, Think", take the lead in thinking, lead out in thinking. Same word as in Act 26:2; 2 Cor 9:5; Phil 2:3, 6, 25; 3:7, 8; 2 Thes 3:15; 1 Tim 1:12; 6:1; Heb 10:29; 11:11, 26; 2 Pet 1:13; 2:13; 3:9, 15. Elsewhere only as "esteem" in 1 Thes 5:13; and "leading" (see Heb 13:7). GK 2451.
4. The Hebrews did this, Heb 10:34 (same word). Related to "rejoice" in the similar statements in Act 5:41; Col 1:24; 1 Pet 4:13.
5. Or, "encounter". Elsewhere only in Lk 10:30, "fell into robbers"; Act 27:41. GK 4346.
6. Or, "testings, temptations". Same word as in Lk 22:28; Act 20:19; Gal 4:14; Jam 1:12; 1 Pet 1:6; 4:12; 2 Pet 2:9. Elsewhere only as "testing" in Lk 8:13; Heb 3:8; Rev 3:10; and "temptation" in Mt 6:13; 26:41; Mk 14:38; Lk 4:13; 11:4; 22:40, 46; 1 Cor 10:13; 1 Tim 6:9. GK 4280. The related verb is "tempted" in v 13.
7. Some think James means "the process-of-testing, the proving-by-test"; others, "the means-of-testing", so that he means "knowing that this means-of-testing your faith"; others, "the genuineness", the result-of-testing, the being-proven-genuine, as this word is used in 1 Pet 1:7, its only other occurrence. GK 1510. On the related words, see "approve" in Rom 12:2. Not related to "trials".
8. Or, "perseverance, steadfastness, patience, fortitude". Same word as in Rom 5:3, 4. Elsewhere only in Lk 8:15; 21:19; Rom 2:7; 8:25; 15:4, 5; 2 Cor 1:6; 6:4; 12:12; Col 1:11; 1 Thes 1:3; 2 Thes 1:4; 3:5; 1 Tim 6:11; 2 Tim 3:10; Tit 2:2; Heb 10:36; 12:1; Jam 1:4; 5:11; 2 Pet 1:6; Rev 1:9; 2:2, 3, 19; 3:10; 13:10; 14:12. GK 5705. On the verb, see Jam 1:12. This is a key Christian virtue.
9. Note how James uses words in pairs here—endurance, complete, lacking, ask, give, doubt, lowly, tempt, desire, sin, etc. The pairs link the flow of thought. This is a characteristic of his style.
10. Or, "perfect, finished". Same word as later in the verse. On this word, see 1 Cor 13:10. The related verb is used of Christ perfected by sufferings in Heb 2:10; 5:9.
11. That is, let endurance produce its complete work in you. Let it finish its work, attain its end, complete its job. Its end is proven character. Compare Rom 5:3-5. On this word, see Mt 26:10.
12. Or, "falling short". That is, lacking wisdom to handle the trial. Elsewhere only in 1:4; 2:15; and Lk 18:22; Tit 1:5; 3:13. GK 3309.
13. Or, "simply, openly, without reservation, sincerely". Used only here. GK 607. Related to "generosity" in Rom 12:8.
14. Or, "reprimanding, scolding". God does not scold us when we ask for wisdom. On this word, see 1 Pet 4:14.
15. In this sense, this word means "to be divided in the mind, to waver, to dispute with oneself". Same phrase as in Act 10:20. Same word as in Mt 21:21; Mk 11:23; Rom 14:23; Jude 22; and as "waver" in Rom 4:20. Elsewhere only as "to dispute" in Act 11:2; Jude 9; "to make distinctions" in Act 11:12; 15:9; Jam 2:4; "to discern" in Mt 16:3; 1 Cor 4:7; 6:5; 14:29; and "to rightly judge" in 1 Cor 11:29, 31. GK 1359. Related to "discernment" in 1 Cor 12:10. The doubter is called "double-minded" in v 8. This indicates that the doubting in view is not uncertainty about how God might choose to answer, but the kind proceeding from dual commitments, part to God and part to self or the world. Doubters are not single-hearted in their asking.
16. Or, "wave, billow". The sense is defined by the rest of the verse. Doubters are driven by outside circumstances, not internal faith. They are unstable and inconsistent in their faith. Elsewhere only in Lk 8:24. GK 3114. Related to "tossed about" in Eph 4:14.
17. Elsewhere only in 4:8. GK 1500.
18. Or, "poor, humble", whether regarding the spirit, or the material circumstances (as here). Same word as in Lk 1:52; Rom 12:16; 2 Cor 10:1. Elsewhere only as "humble" in Jam 4:6; Mt 11:29; 1 Pet 5:5; and "downcast" in 2 Cor 7:6. GK 5424. Related to "humble-mindedness" in Phil 2:3; "lowliness" in Jam 1:10; "humble-minded" in 1 Pet 3:8; and "be humble" in Phil 4:12.
19. Or, "humiliation". In other words, focus on your spiritual realities, not your material circumstances. This perspective is essential for joy and endurance, and is exemplified in Heb 10:32-34. The poor focus on their spiritual wealth; the rich on the lowly path to true wealth. Some think James is not referring to the rich one here as a Christian brother, but in contrast to the poor Christian brother. In this case, he is sarcastically telling the rich one to boast in what will be his source of humiliation at the judgment. Same word as in Lk 1:48; Phil 3:21. Elsewhere only as "humiliation" in Act 8:33. GK 5428.
20. The poor will also pass away (4:14), but the rich need the reminder not to focus on this life. Rich people's glory is only temporary. True riches, or poverty, awaits when they give an account of their use of God's gifts to them. Compare 1 Tim 6:17-19.
21. Elsewhere only in Mt 20:12; Lk 12:55. GK 3014.
22. Or, "wither, die off, waste away". Used only here. GK 3447.
23. Or, "journeys, goings, undertakings, ways". Elsewhere only as "journey" in Lk 13:22. GK 4512.
24. On this adjective, see Lk 6:20.
25. This is the verb related to "endurance" in v 3. Same word as in Mt 10:22; 24:13; Mk 13:13; Rom 12:12; 1 Cor 13:7; 2 Tim 2:10, 12; Heb 10:32; 12:2, 3, 7; Jam 5:11; 1 Pet 2:20. Elsewhere only as "stay" in Act 17:14; and "stay behind" in Lk 2:43. GK 5702.
26. Or, "temptation". Same word as in v 2.
27. Or, "proved to be, been". GK 1181.
28. On this adjective, see 2 Tim 2:15.
29. That is, consisting of life.
30. Some manuscripts say "the Lord"; others, "God" {A}.
31. Or, "tested". Same root word as "trial" in v 2, 12. God may bring a test to strengthen our faith and endurance, but James clarifies that God never tempts us to do evil. That comes from within. On this word, see Heb 2:18.
32. Or, "from". That is, that it is coming from God, that He is the source of the temptation.
33. Or, "untempted". God cannot be tempted. He can be "tested, tried", as in Heb 3:9-10. Used only here. GK 585.
34. This is the Greek word order of this sentence. It could also be rendered "but each one is tempted while being drawn away and enticed by his own desire". Our own desire for the bait makes it a temptation. On this word, see Gal 5:16.
35. Or, "dragged away, pulled out". Used only here. GK 1999. Related to "draw" in Jn 6:44.
36. Or, "lured, baited, entrapped". Elsewhere only in 2 Pet 2:14, 18. GK 1284.

1. Or, "having been brought to completion, having run its course". On this word, see "performing" in Lk 13:32.
2. Or, "gives birth to", but not the same word as preceding. Elsewhere only as "brought into being" in v 18. GK 652.
3. Ending this section with a command like this is not found elsewhere in James, but it is not ungrammatical. Standing alone, it is an even stronger point. On this word, see "err" in 5:19.
4. The flow of thought in v 16-22 is not certain. There is clearly a change of subject in the second half of the chapter, but where to make the break is not clear. The clues are conflicting, and require a choosing between two traits of James's style, and a deviation from his style. In this rendering, the deviation is letting "Do not be deceived" stand alone, ending that point. This allows the new main point to begin with a "My brothers" as normal for James (and exactly like 2:1; 5:19), and yields a simple, natural flow to v 22. Many others keep "Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers" together as normal, joining it to "every good gift..." as point 2C. In this case James means not to be deceived about temptation because temptation does not come from God, but rather good gifts come from above—thus giving a negative and a positive argument for this. This means the new main point (2A.) begins in v 19 with "Know this.... But...", which is the deviation from normal this view must accept (see v 19), along with a less simple flow to v 22. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
5. Or, "act of giving". Elsewhere only as "giving" in Phil 4:15. GK 1521. It is a gift considered as an act of giving by the giver.
6. Same word as "complete" in v 4.
7. Elsewhere only as "given-gift" in Rom 5:16. GK 1564. It is a gift considered as the result of the act of giving in the previous word, which is related to this one. The gift of salvation is the greatest of the good and perfect gifts from above.
8. That is, the creator of the heavenly bodies—sun, moon and stars. The word "light" is plural elsewhere only in Act 16:29. See Jn 1:5 on it.
9. Or, "change". Used only here. GK 4164. God does not change like His creation. His relationship to us does not change.
10. This refers to a "shadow from" something, as light shines upon it. Used only here. GK 684.
11. James may mean a shadow characterized by turning, a "turning shadow" (like "forgetful hearer" in v 25), like the shadow turns on a sundial as the sun moves. Or, a shadow caused by turning. God's changing creation does not cause any change of perspective in Him. Used only here. GK 5572. Some manuscripts say "variation of a turning shadow" {B}.
12. Or, "wanted, desired, intended, wished". Used 37 times, mostly of the wants and intentions of people. Used of God only as "willing" in Mt 11:27; Lk 10:22; 22:42; 1 Cor 12:11; "intending" in Heb 6:17; and "wishing" in 2 Pet 3:9. GK 1089. Related to "counsel" in Eph 1:11.
13. Or, "He gave us birth", that is, spiritual birth, through the gospel. Same word as "brings-forth" in v 15.
14. That is, the sacred part, the part consecrated to God. Some think James is referring to these early believers as the firstfruit of the church, like 2 Thes 2:13; others, to all believers as a firstfruit of the coming change in the universe, Rom 8:20-21. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:20.
15. Or, "understand". This same word and form is elsewhere only in Eph 5:5; Heb 12:17. James uses a different form of this word in the question in 4:4; and an unrelated word for "know" in the clear command in 5:20. Some render this as a command, "Know this"; others, as a statement. Some manuscripts say "So then my beloved brothers, let every person be quick..." {B}, a reading also linking v 19 to v 17-18. On this word, see 1 Jn 2:29.
16. Some think James is referring to what precedes. You know or are to know that the gift of salvation comes down from God, who brought us forth by the word of truth. Exhortations to actions in keeping with this gift then follow next. Note the repetition of "word" in v 18, 21, 22, and the "receive" in v 21 following the giving in v 17-18. Others, beginning the new point (2A.) here, take this as a command to know what follows. James commands his readers to know a command, which he then begins with "but" or "and". "Know this—and let every person be quick to listen..." To explain the "but, and" that follows (which this view omits in translation), it is suggested that James is quoting a well-known proverb (to the readers) from an unknown source (to us), and that he retains this word from that source. Some then regard v 19b-21 as a kind of introduction or transition to what James commands us to know in v 22.
17. A command precedes "brothers" in 1:2, 16; 2:5; 3:1; 4:11; 5:7, 9, 10; and follows it in 2:1; 5:12, 19. "Brothers" is connected with a question in 2:14; 3:12; and a statement in 3:10. Only here is it followed by "but". "My beloved brothers" is also in 1:16; 2:5.
18. James makes clear that the "anger" is his point. Do not receive the word of truth in anger, but in gentleness. His point is true in the broadest sense, but some think he has in mind the over-aggressive zeal so often displayed by the Jews in Acts. Do not receive your salvation with the same kind of anger-driven fanaticism displayed by the Jews—anger, clamor, hatred of those opposing, violence; the fights and battles of Jam 4:1. This will not bring about God's result.
19. Or, "work, accomplish, bring about". On this word, see Mt 26:10.
20. Some think James means the righteousness God requires; others, the righteousness God is working.
21. That is, moral dirt or contamination. Used only here. GK 4864. Related to "filthy" in 2:2; Rev 22:11; and "dirt" in 1 Pet 3:21.
22. On this word, see 2 Cor 8:2. Some think James means the abundance of badness overflowing from the heart; others, the remainder, residue, leftovers of badness. There are other views.
23. Or, "evilness", moral badness. On this word, see 1 Pet 2:1.
24. Or, "accept". On this word, see "welcome" in Mt 10:40.
25. This is in contrast with "anger" in v 20. Same word as in 3:13. Used of Christ in 2 Cor 10:1. On this word, see Eph 4:2. James himself displayed this gentleness in handling the problem in Acts 15, and was a victim of such anger (see the note on Act 24:27).
26. That is, the word of the gospel implanted within you. Used only here. GK 1875. This is probably a reference to the parable of the sower who sows the gospel seed, Lk 8:5-15.
27. This may be thought of as the opposite extreme of the angry fanaticism in v 19-21, if that is what James has in mind there. Do not receive the word with anger or badness. But neither receive it in word only. To receive it in word only as a mere hearer is to delude yourself that you even have the gift.
28. Or, "prove to be, become". GK 1181.
29. Or, "deceiving, defrauding" by false reasoning. Elsewhere only in Col 2:4. GK 4165. Mere hearers are deluding themselves by thinking they are saved. That kind of faith cannot save a person, 2:14. It is worthless, 1:26.

1. Or, "looking closely at". On this word, see Heb 10:24.
 2. Or, "existence, origin". That is, his natural, physical face. On this word, see "existence" in 3:6.
 3. This man saw his face reflected, but took no action. It had no permanent effect on him. He heard the facts about himself and salvation, and may even intellectually believe them (2:14), but he did not obey the gospel (Rom 10:16).
 4. Or, "complete", as in v 4. Some think James means "perfect" because it is able to give life, which the Law could not do. Others think he means "complete", brought to completion in Christ, Mt 5:17. There are other views.
 5. Or, "freedom". That is, leading to liberty. Same phrase as in 2:12. On this word, see "freedom" in Gal 5:13. James is referring to the gospel, the "word of truth" (v 18), the "implanted word" (v 21).
 6. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 16:6; Phil 1:25; Heb 7:23. GK 4169.
 7. More literally, "a hearer of forgetfulness". James means a hearer characterized by forgetfulness; next, a doer characterized by work.
 8. Same adjective as in v 12.
 9. That is, in what he is doing. This is another word pair. Related to the word "doer". Used only here. GK 4474.
 10. Some manuscripts add "among you" {N}.
 11. This word refers to one who keeps religious observances, the externals of religion. Used only here. GK 2580.
 12. Or, "restraining, controlling". On this word, see 3:2. This verse illustrates "hearers"; the following, "doers".
 13. Or, "worship, religious service". Same root word as "religious" earlier. Same word as in v 27; Act 26:5. Elsewhere only as "worship" in Col 2:18. GK 2579.
 14. Or, "futile, pointless". On this word, see "futile" in 1 Cor 15:17.
 15. Elsewhere only in Jn 14:18. GK 4003. The Greek is orphanos, from which we get "orphan". The related verb is in 1 Thes 2:17.
 16. Or, "you are not holding... respect of persons, are you?", expecting a "no" answer. On this word, see "have" in 1 Jn 1:8.
 17. Some think James means the faith "in our Lord"; others, "originated by our Lord" (the objective faith, Jude 3).
 18. This is the Greek word order of this phrase. Some think James means "our glorious Lord Jesus Christ" (our Lord characterized by glory); others, "our Lord Jesus Christ, [the Lord] of glory"; others "our Lord Jesus Christ, the Glory [of God]"; others, "our Lord Jesus Christ from glory" (heaven).
 19. Or, "partiality, favoritism, acceptance of faces". This word is based on a Hebrew way of speaking, "to receive the face", which is in Lk 20:21; Gal 2:6. Elsewhere only in Rom 2:11; Eph 6:9; Col 3:25. GK 4721. The related verb is in v 9. Related words occur in Act 10:34 and in 1 Pet 1:17.
 20. Or, "synagogue, congregation, meeting". Used elsewhere only of the Jewish synagogue. It means "gathering", and is used of the place, the congregation who meets there, and the meeting. On this word, see Act 13:43. Related to "gather together" in Heb 10:25.
- James may be referring to the "church assembly" of these Jewish Christians, using their familiar term "synagogue". James uses the word "church" in 5:14.
21. That is, look with favor upon. Elsewhere only in Lk 1:48; 9:38. GK 2098.
 22. Some manuscripts add "to him" {N}.
 23. Or, "beautifully, splendidly, appropriately". Sit here in a good seat. On this word, see Act 10:33.
 24. Some manuscripts say "You stand or be sitting there under...", others, "You stand there or be sitting here under..." {B}.
 25. That is, "at". Same word as in Ex 19:17, "at" the foot of the mountain. "Under" its shadow. GK 5679.
 26. Or, "waver" from the truth. On this word, see "doubting" in 1:6. The grammar expects a "yes" answer.
 27. Or, "reasonings, thinking". More literally, "judges of evil thoughts", judges characterized by evil thoughts. Same word as in Mt 15:19; Mk 7:21; Lk 2:35; Rom 1:12; 1 Cor 3:20. Elsewhere only as "reasoning" in Lk 5:22; 6:8; 9:47; "opinion" in Rom 14:1; "argument" in Lk 9:46; Phil 2:14; 1 Tim 2:8; and "doubt" in Lk 24:38. GK 1369. Related to "reason" in Lk 5:21.
 28. Both this question and the next one expect a "yes" answer.
 29. Some manuscripts say "of this world" {N}. Compare 1 Cor 1:26-29.
 30. That is, in the sphere of, in connection with. GK 1877.
 31. Same word as in Act 16:19, where this happened to Paul.
 32. Or, "named" upon. Same idiom as in Act 15:17. That is, the good name your Owner has given you, "Christian". Related to the word in Lk 2:21.
 33. Or, "If however, If truly".
 34. That is, the law of love, quoted next. "Royal" is related to "king, kingdom". Some think it is royal in that it originated with the King; others, in that it is the king of laws relating to our conduct toward one another; others, in that it is the law of His kingdom. There are other views. On "royal", see Act 12:20.
 35. Or, "like". On this command, see Mt 19:19.
 36. That is, you are acting commendably, rightly; doing a good thing. On this idiom, see Act 10:33.
 37. Used only here. GK 4719. Related to the word in v 1.
 38. Same word as "produce" in 1:20.
 39. Or, "exposed, rebuked". On this word, see "exposing" in Eph 5:11.
 40. That is, violators of the Law. Elsewhere only in v 11; Rom 2:25, 27; Gal 2:18. GK 4127. Related to "transgression" in Rom 5:14. You have violated the royal law just quoted.
 41. On "law of liberty", see 1:25.
 42. This is another word pair. "Do" in the previous verse is the same word. That is, "shown mercy", as this idiom is rendered in Lk 1:72.
 43. As Jesus often said, Mt 5:7; 6:14-15; 7:1-2; 9:13; 18:33-35; 25:41-46.
 44. Some manuscripts say "And mercy..." {N}.
 45. Or, "boasts over". On this word, see Rom 11:18. Mercy triumphs and exults over judgment like a defeated foe.

- 1C. In this manner also, faith, if it does not have works, is dead^G by⁷ itself 17

- 1C. Show^H me your faith without¹⁰ the¹¹ works,¹² and I will show you the¹³ faith by my works
- 2C. You believe^I that God is one^{14?} You do well¹⁵. Even the demons^K believe¹⁶ and shudder! 19

1. Or, "says that he has". Such a person says he has true faith, but only has the demons' kind of faith, v 19. On this word see "say" in Jn 12:49.
2. Or, "actions, deeds". James is referring to works as the fruit of faith, not as the means of salvation. The discussion that follows is not about whether faith saves, but about the kind of faith that saves—living faith (which shows itself or "is perfected" in our daily actions and choices) versus dead faith (which is merely having correct beliefs, an intellectual faith or allegiance that has no effect on behavior). On this subject, see Mt 7:21; Jn 15:2; Rom 2:7; Eph 2:10; Rev 20:12. On this word, see Mt 26:10.
3. Or, "That faith". That is, "the" faith without works just mentioned. The grammar expects a "no" answer.
4. That is, without adequate clothing, poorly clothed. Based on the context, this word can also mean "unclothed, wearing undergarments only, bare naked". Same word as in Mt 25:36, 38, 43, 44; Mk 14:51, 52; Jn 21:7; Act 19:16; 2 Cor 5:3; Heb 4:13; Rev 3:17; 16:15; 17:16. Elsewhere only as "bare" in 1 Cor 15:37. GK 1218. The related verb is in 1 Cor 4:11.
5. That is, by someone else. Or, "warm yourselves and fill yourselves". That is, take care of it yourself. On this word, see "filled to satisfaction" in Phil 4:12.
6. Words without corresponding actions are of no value. Same word as in v 14.
7. This is the Greek word order. Some move this phrase forward, "faith by itself"; others add a verb here, "is dead, being by itself". As to this phrase, some think it means "by itself", that is, alone; others, "in accordance with itself, in harmony with itself". That is, it is outwardly dead in accordance with its inner nature. GK 2848.
8. Some think James means "But in objection to your argument, James"; others, "But in contradiction of your claim in v 14 to have faith, O man". This phrase "But someone will say" is elsewhere only in 1 Cor 15:35.
9. Exactly who this is and what he says is not easy to see. Some think James puts his argument in the mouth of this third party. "You have faith [alone], and I [like James] have [faith with] works. Show me...". The response is also part of the quotation, which extends to the end of v 18 or v 19. It is as if James said "And someone like me will say 'You claim to have faith, and I have works. Show me...'. Others think this is an objector asserting that both are correct. "You have faith [alone], and I [like James] have [faith with] works". Both are acceptable to God. God has called some to have faith with works and some to have faith alone. It is as if James said "But someone like you will say, 'One has faith and another has works'". James defeats this logic by addressing the one claiming a faith without works. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. It comes down to which unusual phraseology is more acceptable—to say "But someone will say", not referring to an objection but to your own next argument; or to say "You... I" here, when you mean "One... another". In either case, the main point (v 18b-19) is the same, and is clear and powerful.
10. Or, "apart from". Same word as in v 20, 26. Used 41 times. GK 6006.
11. Or, "your". Some manuscripts say "your" {N}.
12. The only way one could do this would be to point to his beliefs, which James answers next in 2C.
13. Or, "my". Some manuscripts say "my" {N}.
14. Or, this may be a statement. Compare Deut 6:4. Some manuscripts say, "There is one God" {B}.
15. On this phrase, see Act 10:33.
16. Even demons have that kind of faith. "Believe" and "faith" are the same root word. Intellectual agreement to and confession of correct theological doctrines alone is not the saving kind of faith. Compare Tit 1:16.
17. Or, "But are you willing to recognize", or "acknowledge". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
18. That is, empty of understanding, senseless. On this word, see 1 Thes 2:1.
19. Or, "inactive, unproductive, idle". Literally, "not-working", a play on words. Same root word as "works". This word is also used of land "lying fallow"; of men "unemployed, idle". Same word as in Mt 12:36; 2 Pet 1:8. Elsewhere only as "idle" in Mt 20:3, 6; 1 Tim 5:13; and "lazy" in Tit 1:12. GK 734. Some manuscripts say "dead" {B}.
20. James means "faith with works", the subject under discussion. We are saved "not of works" (Eph 2:9), but "for good works" (Eph 2:10). James is dwelling on the works side of it whereas Paul focuses on the faith side. God declared Abraham righteous by faith in Gen 15:6, and Paul emphasizes this point in Rom 4:1-5. James is referring to Abraham's faith as "perfected" or "completed" (v 22) by his works in the offering of Isaac in Gen 22. For James, Abraham's actions in Gen 22 demonstrate that the faith he had in Gen 15 was genuine, saving faith.
21. The grammar expects a "yes" answer.
22. Or, "notice". The "you" refers to the empty person. Or, this may be a statement, "You see...". On this word, see Rev 1:11.
23. Or, "completed, brought to its goal, fulfilled". Related to "complete" in 1:4. On this word, see Heb 2:10. Living faith reaches its living completion in the corresponding actions flowing from it like fruit from the vine. Dead faith, faith alone, is not "fulfilled" by corresponding actions flowing from it, Rev 3:2.
24. When God declared Abraham righteous by faith in Gen 15:6, it was a prediction of Abraham's future behavior. His future works in Gen 22 were contained in his faith in Gen 15. His faith "continued", becoming a "doer of work", 1:25.
25. "You" here is plural. James turns from addressing the empty person in v 22, to addressing us all, as he applies the case of Abraham.
26. Or, "perceive". Or, this may be a statement, "You see...". On this word, see Lk 2:26. Not related to the word in v 22. Some manuscripts begin this sentence with "So-indeed" {N}, using the word found in 1 Cor 9:26.
27. Or, "only". "Faith alone" is the faith of "hearers only" and of demons. It is defective faith, dead faith. "Faith with works" for James (that is, living faith with works after salvation) is equivalent to "faith" for Paul (examine the notes on Rom 2:7 and Tit 2:14 to see his emphasis on "good works"). Just as the vine bears its fruit, so living faith bears works. Works are not added on to living faith any more than apples are added on to trees. The life within flows out by nature. "Faith apart from works of the Law" for Paul (that is, faith apart from works done before salvation to earn salvation) is a subject not addressed by James. Same word as "only" in 1:22. Used 114 times as GK 3667, 3668.
28. That is, "received into her house". On this word, see Lk 10:38.
29. Or, "breath". GK 4460.

1. Or, "be". The grammar may mean "Stop becoming, Stop being", or, "Do not engage in the process of becoming". Same word and grammar as in 1 Cor 14:20, "Do not be children"; Rom 12:16, "Do not be wise"; 1 Cor 7:23, "Do not become slaves"; Eph 5:17, "Do not be foolish", etc.; and as Jam 1:22, "Be doers". GK 1181.
2. Some take this with the command, "Do not many of you become teachers", that is, not many of you should become teachers; others, with the noun, "Do not become many teachers", that is, a multitude of teachers.
3. Some think James means official church teachers; others, unofficial teachers in a broad sense. Compare Act 15:24; Rom 2:19-20; 1 Tim 1:6-7; Tit 1:11; and 1 Cor 14:1; Heb 5:12.
4. These words on speech are directed to "my brothers", to everyone. James exhorts his readers to think twice about becoming teachers because of the serious effects of the tongue. In what follows, he details the power of the uncontrolled tongue, and exhorts those causing divisions and arguments based on self-interest and earthly wisdom. Spiritually unqualified teachers, or even unbelieving teachers, were certainly one source of this. On this word, see Act 16:40.
5. That is, we teachers.
6. This is because teachers have greater knowledge, Lk 12:47, 48. To whom much is given, much is required.
7. That is, all of us, including the teachers.
8. Or, "many times, often, greatly". On this word, see Mt 13:52.
9. This is another word pair. On this word, see 2 Pet 1:10.
10. Same word as "complete" in 1:4.
11. This word means "to lead or guide as with a bridle, to restrain, to hold in check". It means "to bridle" in the sense of "to control". Elsewhere only in 1:26. GK 5902. It is made of two words, "bit or bridle" (the word in v 3) and "to lead".
12. This is because to do so, one would have to have control of his heart, for the mouth speaks what is in the heart, Mt 12:34; 15:18.
13. Instead of "Now if", some manuscripts say "Look, we put" {C}.
14. This word can mean "bit" or "bridle", but James seems to have the whole bridle in view here, including the reins. The bit goes into the mouth of the horse, and the rider "guides" the horse with the reins. Another word pair. Elsewhere only in Rev 14:20. GK 5903.
15. Or, "that they might obey us".
16. This word, "to declare boastfully, to boast, loudly declare" is used only here. GK 902. The small part— the bridle, rudder, tongue— has a great effect on the whole horse, ship, body.
17. Literally, "what-sized fire kindles what-sized forest". The same word is used twice, another word pair. It means "how great" or "how small" depending on the context. Elsewhere only in Col 2:1. GK 2462.
18. The tongue causes negative effects on us and on those around us all out of proportion to its size, or our intentions.
19. Others punctuate this, "fire, the world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our body parts as the thing staining...". Some manuscripts say "So the tongue..." {N}.
20. Or, "constituted, set". It is made such by sin in our hearts, Mt 15:19. Or, "makes itself, renders itself". This word with this grammar is elsewhere only in Jam 4:4, ("makes himself ") and Rom 5:19 (twice). On this word, see "put in charge" in Act 6:3.
21. That is, the sphere in which unrighteousness works; or, a world characterized by unrighteousness, an unrighteous world.
22. Used only in this verse. GK 5824. Related to "flaming" in 2 Thes 1:8.
23. Used only here. GK 5580. Used of a running course. The root word is "run". Or it may be a different word meaning "wheel, circle".
24. Or, "birth, origin". Elsewhere only as "birth" in 1:23; Mt 1:18; Lk 1:14; and "genealogy" in Mt 1:1. GK 1161. That is, the course of our lives from birth to death.
25. Or, "hell". On this word, see Mt 5:22. Used only here outside the Gospels.
26. Same word as earlier in the verse. In both cases, James may mean it in the sense of "natural disposition", or in the sense of "kind, species". On this word, see Eph 2:3.
27. On this phrase, see Mk 11:2.
28. Or, "unstable". Elsewhere only as "unstable" in 1:8. GK 190. Related to "disorder" in 3:16. Some manuscripts say "unruly" {B}, that is, uncontrollable.
29. Some manuscripts say "God" {A}.
30. Or, "must". Our tongue ought not to be the world of unrighteousness in our life, setting on fire our course of life, giving forth blessings and cursings from the same opening. It is true for mankind in general, but not for those born from above, speaking the wisdom from above, led by the Spirit. Control of the tongue is a characteristic of the doer of the word, 1:26. Used only here. GK 5973.
31. The grammar expects a "no" answer to this question and the next. The tree is known by its fruit. The fruit reveals the heart.
32. Some manuscripts say "Thus no spring is able to make salty water and sweet water" {B}.
33. Elsewhere only in v 11; Rev 10:9, 10. GK 1184.
34. Now James applies this to ones causing problems among his readers. What follows applies to teachers, but is written broadly so as to also include their hearers and followers, those influenced by the teachers, who reflect the same kind of negative behavior. Because of the breadth of the application that develops, some begin a new A. point here; others at 4:1; others, at 4:4.
35. Or, "expert, well-instructed, skilled, learned, acquainted with a thing". Used only here. GK 2184. Related to "know-about" in Act 18:25; and "master" in Lk 5:5.
36. Who claims the wisdom and knowledge to become a teacher, or to be one? It is ones claiming to have knowledge and using it to direct or correct others who are causing the problems among them. James now begins to examine their fruit. What does that which comes from you say about the source of your wisdom? God is not producing the jealousy and disorder (3:14-16), or the fights and quarrels (4:1-3). These come from you, from your own worldly self-interests (4:1-5). You need to submit to God, cleanse yourselves, humble yourselves, 4:7. Note the change of tone. James does not call them "brothers", but "adulterous ones, sinners". He calls them to repent.
37. Same word as in 1:21.
38. Wise teachers are not seen in their claims, boasts or knowledge, but in their own actions and in the actions they produce in their listeners. A tree is known by its fruit. The fruit reveals the source of the wisdom.

32. Same phrase as in 1 Pet 4:8. Some think James means "especially"; others, "before everything else", do this first; others, that he says this because he is repeating what the Lord Himself said.
33. That is, swearing an oath to guarantee your word, such as "I swear by heaven I will do this". Some think oaths in everyday conversation are in view. Compare the Lord's words in Mt 5:34-37. To understand the scope of this command, other verses must be considered alongside it. For example, note Heb 6:16. God swore in Heb 6:13. The angel swore in Rev 10:6. Paul swore, 1 Cor 15:31; 2 Cor 1:23; Gal 1:20; and called God as a witness, Phil 1:8. Jesus was put under oath in Mt 26:63, and Paul put his readers under oath in 1 Thes 5:27. GK 230. Some see this as medicinal here, as in Lk 10:34, which uses a different verb. Others see it as symbolic of the Spirit, as perhaps in Mk 6:13. There are other views.
37. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.

2. Or, "acknowledging openly, admitting". This is the word "confess" (see 1 Tim 6:12) with the prefix "out" added. Same word as in Mt 3:6; Mk 1:5; Act 19:18; Rom 14:11; Phil 2:11. 4. Same word as in Phil 4:13, "I can do all things".
5. Or, "at work". This word modifies "prayer", and comes last in the sentence, as seen in this rendering. Some think James means "[in its] working, operating". That is, in the result the prayer produces while it is working, such as stopping the rain. Others think he means "while [it is] working, while at work" (that is, while the prayer is being answered by God, which for Elijah extended for three and one half years); others, "while being worked, put in operation [by the one praying]" (that is, while the person is praying); others, "while being worked, energized [by the Spirit]" (that is, while the Spirit is energizing the prayer, working it in him); others, "the working prayer, the effective prayer" (that is, the prayer that works, the prayer that God answers). In any case, it does not mean "the strong prayer, the earnest prayer", as if its working was dependent on how strongly the person prays. On this word, see "works" in 1 Cor 12:11.
6. Elsewhere only in Act 14:15. GK 3926.
7. The idiom "prayed with prayer" is a Hebrew way of speaking, meaning "He prayed earnestly". On this word, see 1 Tim 2:1.

Related to "error" in v 20 (another word pair), and rendered this way to reflect this.

Used 36 times. GK 2188. Related to "conversion" in Act 15:3.
11. That is, the one who turns him back. Some manuscripts say "you know that" {B}.
12. Or, "wandering". On this word see 1 Thes 2:3.
13. That is, the wandering sinner's soul (or life). Some manuscripts say "will save a soul from death itself"; others, "will save a soul from death" {C}.

- 1C. Because thus¹⁹ is the will of God, that while doing-good^T, you may be silencing²⁰ the ignorance^U of foolish^V people^W 15
- 8B. As²¹ free²² ones— and not having the freedom^X as a covering²³ of evilness²⁴, but as slaves^Y of God— honor²⁵ everyone. Be loving^Z the brotherhood²⁶, be fearing^{AA} God, be honoring^{BB} the king²⁷ 16 17

1. Or, "race, people, nation". That is, Abraham's spiritual family, Gal 3:29. On this word, see "kind" in 1 Cor 12:28.
2. In using these descriptions, Peter is alluding to Ex 19:5-6; Isa 43:20-21, etc. On "possession", see Eph 1:14.
3. Or, "send out, proclaim". Elsewhere only in Mark's short ending. GK 1972.
4. Or, "moral excellencies". On this word, see 2 Pet 1:3. Some render this "praises" here, or "miracles" (manifestations of His divine power).
5. Peter is alluding to Hosea 1:6-10; 2:23, as Paul does in Rom 9:25.
6. Peter continues with his exhortations regarding Christian living. Others make this a new A. point. Same word as in 4:12.
7. Or, "resident aliens". Elsewhere only in Act 7:6, 29; Eph 2:19. GK 4230. Related to "stay" in 1:17.
8. On this word, see 1:1. The concept of "foreigners and pilgrims" flows from v 9. We are God's nation, residing temporarily among earthly nations.
9. Or, "serve as soldier". On this word, see "fight" in 1 Tim 1:18.
10. Or, "commendable, praiseworthy, outwardly good". On this word, see 1 Tim 5:10a. Same word as later in the verse.
11. Or, "criminals". Christians were rebels against the Emperor for failing to worship him. Because they were regarded as criminals, they were punished by the State; that is, they suffered for Christ, 4:16. Elsewhere only in v 14; 4:15. GK 2804. Related to "do evil" in 3:17.
12. Same word as in Lk 19:44. Some think Peter means the day of God's judgment; others the day of human judgment; others, the day when God visits them with the opportunity for salvation. In Lk 19:44, Christ's ministry was the day of visitation for Israel, which they rejected. On this phrase, note Isa 10:3. On this word, see "office of overseer" in 1 Tim 3:1.
13. Same word as in 2:18; 3:1; 5:22; 5:5. On this word, see Eph 5:21.
14. Or, "creation, created thing". Used only here in this sense. On this word, see "creation" in Rom 8:39.
15. Those who are citizens of God's nation must still know how to behave regarding human institutions. Peter's answer is to live in such a manner that this is a non-issue. Such an understanding as follows in 2:13-3:12 is crucial to avoiding trials (1:6) based on the unnecessary violation of societal norms.
16. Same word as in Rom 13:1.
17. Some think Peter is referring to "the king"; others think he means "Him", the Lord, as in Rom 13:1-4.
18. Used only here. GK 18. Related to the word in v 15, 20.
19. Some think this refers to what precedes, being good-doers; others, to what follows, silencing them through good-doing.
20. Or, "muzzling". On this word, see Mk 4:39.
21. Some make this point 2C., "As free ones... God", some making it a command, "[Live] as free ones". Then "Honor everyone... king" becomes point 3C., and "Servants" point 4C. This allows "being subject" in v 18 to be linked with "be subject" in v 13, rather than with "honor everyone" in v 17, as here.
22. We are all free in Christ, servants of no human, but slaves of God, equal before Him. There are no human distinctions, Gal 3:28. But we live in two realms. In the earthly human realm, we choose as free ones to submit to the human responsibilities under which we live. We do this so as not to bring unnecessary attacks upon us as Christians, so that we can peacefully pursue Christ's spiritual goals, which are independent of these human relationships. We serve Him in a spiritual kingdom that transcends human society, but lives within its bounds for the sake of expediency. On this word, see Mt 17:26.
23. Used only here. GK 2127. Related to "veil" in 2 Cor 3:13-16; and "cover" in 1 Pet 4:8; and in Rom 4:7. Compare Gal 5:13.
24. Or, "badness", as in 2:1. Same word as the "evil" in "evil-doer" in v 12, 14.
25. The grammar of the next three commands is different.
26. That is, the community of believers. Elsewhere only in 5:9. GK 82.
27. These are general commands for everyone. Peter next details "honor everyone" for specific groups.
28. Or, "Slaves". That is, honor everyone—servants, being subject. Peter continues with his commands, using different grammar. On this word, see "household-servant" in Rom 14:4.
29. That is, "with all respect", or "in all fear [of God]". On this word, see Eph 5:21.
30. Or, "dishonest, unscrupulous". Elsewhere only in Lk 3:5; Act 2:40; Phil 2:15. GK 5021. That is, dishonest or crooked toward you, as seen in v 19.
31. That is, with God, v 20. Same word as in Lk 1:30; 2:52; Act 7:46. On this word, see "grace" in Eph 2:8. Some manuscripts add "with God" {B}.
32. Or, "conscience toward God". Some manuscripts say "for the sake of a good conscience" {B}. On this word, see "conscience" in Act 23:1.
33. On this word, see "endure" in 1 Cor 10:13.
34. This word is plural only here. On this word, see "grief" in 2 Cor 7:10.
35. Or, "fame, glory". Used only here. GK 3094.
36. Or, "remain under". On this word, see Jam 1:12.
37. That is, to bear up under unjust suffering for Christ.
38. On this word, see Gal 3:4. Some manuscripts say "died" {A}.
39. Some manuscripts say "for us, ... pattern for us" {A}.
40. Or, "model". Used of a tracing or sketch. Jesus left behind a pattern for us to fill in with our own lives, an exemplar for us to copy. Used only here. GK 5681.
41. This verse is referring to Isa 53:7.
42. On this word, see 1 Cor 4:12. Related to "revile in return" next, which is used only here (GK 518). Related word in 3:9.
43. Or, "delivering". On this word, see "hand over" in Mt 26:21.
44. Some think Peter means "Himself", as in Lk 23:46; others, "them", as in Lk 23:34; others, "it", meaning "His cause" or "His unjust suffering".
45. On this word, see Heb 9:28. Same word as in Isa 53:11, 12.
46. Or, "tree, wood". This is not the normal word for "cross" (place of crucifixion), which Peter never uses (though he does use "crucify"). This word means "cut wood, timber, tree", and was used of anything made of wood, like "beam, post, bench, stocks, gallows, stake, cross", etc. It is used to refer to the "cross" also in Act 5:30; 10:39; 13:29; and as "tree" in Gal 3:13. Elsewhere it means "tree" (of life) in Rev 2:7; 22:2, 14, 19; "wood" in Lk 23:31; Act 16:24; 1 Cor 3:12; Rev 18:12; and "club" in Mt 26:47, 55; Mk 14:43, 48; Lk 22:52. GK 3833.
47. Or, "being dead". This word means "die" in the sense of "depart from, be removed from". Used only here. GK 614.

1. Or, "welt, wound". Used only here. GK 3698. Same word as in Isa 53:5.
2. Peter is referring to Isa 53:6.
3. On this word, see Eph 4:11. Used of Christ also in Heb 13:20; Jn 10:2. The related verb is in 1 Pet 5:2.
4. Used only here of Christ, but four times of the church leaders. On this word, see Phil 1:1. Related to "exercising oversight" in 1 Pet 5:2.
5. That is, proceeding from 2:17, "honor everyone— wives, being subject". On this word, see Eph 5:21.
6. On this word, see Rom 11:30. Compare 2:8; 4:17; Rom 2:8; Jn 3:36.
7. Same word as in Mt 18:15; 1 Cor 9:19-22. On this word, see Mk 8:36.
8. Or, "watched". Elsewhere only in 2:12. GK 2227. Related to "eyewitness" in 2 Pet 1:16.
9. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 7:11; 11:2; Phil 4:8; 1 Tim 5:22; Tit 2:5; Jam 3:17; 1 Jn 3:3. GK 54. Related to "purity" in 2 Cor 11:3; "purely" in Phil 1:17; "purity" in 1 Tim 4:12; 5:2; and "purify" in 1 Jn 3:3.
10. That is, your pure behavior carried out respectfully, or in the fear of God. "With fear" goes with "your conduct", not with "observing". Same word as in 1:17; 2:18; 3:16. On this word, see Eph 5:21. The related verb is used of the wife in Eph 5:33 ("respecting").
11. Peter simply says "let it be". Others supply "their adornment" from what follows, "let their adornment be".
12. Used only here in this sense. On this word, see "world" in 1 Jn 2:15. Our word "cosmetic" comes from this Greek word, kosmos. Related to "adorn" in v 5.
13. Or, "clothing, apparel". It is also used more specifically of outer clothing, "cloak, robe". Used 60 times. GK 2668.
14. That is, dressed in, as this word is used in Jam 2:2. GK 1877.
15. Or, "meek". Elsewhere only in Mt 5:5; 11:29; 21:5. GK 4558. Related to the words in 1 Tim 6:11 and Eph 4:2. A review of the usage of this word group makes clear that this is a key Christian virtue, not just a female virtue.
16. Elsewhere only in 1 Tim 2:2. GK 2485. Related to "be quiet" in 1 Thes 4:11.
17. Or, "highly valuable". Same word as in Mk 14:3. Elsewhere only as "very expensive" in 1 Tim 2:9. GK 4500.
18. Or, "sir", referring to Gen 18:12. Sarah treated Abraham with respect, in his terms. On this word, see "master" in Mt 8:2.
19. That is, of Sarah.
20. Or, "were made, came-to-be". GK 1181.
21. As to the nuance implied by these two participles (doing good, fearing), some think Peter means "by doing good"; others, "as long as you are doing good" or "if you are doing good"; others, "since you are doing good" or "as ones doing good". It could be rendered "of whom you doing good and not fearing any terror became children".
22. That is, doing good as wives. Same word as 2:20, doing good as servants. On this word, see Lk 6:33.
23. Or, "intimidation (from outside), fright (from within)". Compare 4:19. Such women fear no consequence stemming from their doing what is right, but entrust themselves to God. Used only here. GK 4766. Related to "frighten" in Lk 21:9.
24. Or, "dwelling with". That is, proceeding from 2:17, "honor everyone— husbands...". Used only here. GK 5324. The root word is "house".
25. Or, "in accordance with, in harmony with, based on". GK 2848.
26. Some think Peter means Christian knowledge, the knowledge that a wife is God's creation, equal in Christ, as opposed to what the pagan world thought of her. Others take this more generally, "in an understanding way", "knowledgeably", with consideration. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:8.
27. Or, "assigning, portioning out, according". Used only here. GK 671.
28. On this noun, see 1 Tim 5:17. Related to the verb in 2:17.
29. This word means "belonging to the woman, womanly". Used only here. GK 1221. Some take it as an abstract equivalent to "female, wife, woman". This adjective has the same relationship to "woman" as "royal" (2:9) does to "king"; as "earthly" (2 Cor 5:1) does to "earth"; as "divine" (2 Pet 1:4) does to "God". It is rendered in the OT as the "manner of women" in Gen 18:22; "woman's" clothing in Deut 22:5; the "women's" court in Est 2:11; and the "woman's" (that is, the queen's) crown in Est 2:17. Peter means husbands must show their wives honor not simply as a wife (a male perspective), but as feminine. That is, honor her in relation to her God-created feminine nature, her value and contribution as a woman, the characteristics belonging to her as a woman. Honor her in her terms.
30. In the Greek word order, "as to the weaker vessel, to the feminine one" precedes "showing". Some take both phrases with "living with", as "living with them according to knowledge, as with a weaker vessel, the feminine one", or "living with the female according to knowledge, as with a weaker vessel". Others take both with "showing", as here. It is also possible to split them, "living with them according to knowledge, as with a weaker vessel, showing honor to the feminine one".
31. That is, "lacking power" relative to the male vessel. The woman is weaker physically, which has resulted in her being weaker societally in ways that vary by culture, time, and the intervention of law. The word is used of Paul vs. others, 1 Cor 9:22; of weaker Christians, 1 Cor 8:9; of Christians with less prominent gifts, 1 Cor 12:22; of Christians vs. the world, 1 Cor 1:27. On this word, see 1 Thes 5:14.
32. This word is used of Paul in Act 9:15 ("instrument"); of ministers in 2 Tim 2:21; of people as vessels of wrath or mercy in Rom 9:21-23; of the human body in 2 Cor 4:7. The term "vessel" puts the emphasis on the woman as a creation of God, as opposed to using a word that views her from the husband's point of view, such as "partner, helper". On this word, see 1 Thes 4:4.
33. Or, "also".
34. Some manuscripts say "As indeed being their fellow heirs..." {B}.
35. Regardless of the woman's relative weakness to the male, however manifested in any particular culture, spiritually before God she is equal, a fellow-heir of God's promises. Christian husbands must treat their wives as such. On this word, see Rom 8:17.
36. That is, the grace-gift of spiritual life, which all Christians equally possess. On "grace", see Eph 2:8.
37. Some think Peter means the husband's prayers; others, their prayers together.

1. That is, proceeding from 2:17, "honor everyone—everyone...". Peter continues his commands, changing the grammar once again.
2. Or, "harmonious". Used only here. GK 3939.
3. Or, "brother-lovers". That is, loving fellow Christians. Used only here. GK 5790. Related to "brotherly love" in Heb 13:1.
4. Or, "good-hearted". Elsewhere only in Eph 4:32. GK 2359. It is made of "good" and "deep feelings" in Phil 1:8.
5. Used only here. GK 5426. Related to "humblemindedness" in Phil 2:3. Some manuscripts say "courteous" {A}.
6. Or, "insult, abuse". Elsewhere only 1 Tim 5:14. GK 3367. Related to "reviled" in 2:23.
7. Some manuscripts say "Knowing that" {N}.
8. Some think this refers back to "blessing them"; others, forward to "inherit a blessing".
9. Or, "wanting, intending". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
10. Or, "harm; mistreat you". Related to "evil things" in v 12, and rendered this way to show this. Elsewhere only as "mistreat" in Act 7:6, 19; 12:1; "harm" in Act 18:10; and "embitter" in Act 14:2. GK 2808.
11. Or, "zealous". On this word, see 1 Cor 14:12.
12. Or, "if you even should suffer... you would be blessed ones". Regardless of the possibility that you might suffer for righteousness, you are blessed ones. Such suffering does not indicate God's displeasure with you, but His blessing. Compare Act 5:41.
13. Or, "fortunate". On this word, see Lk 6:20.
14. Peter may mean the fear such people generate, their intimidation. Or, he may mean do not fear what they fear.
15. On this word, see Gal 1:7. Peter is paraphrasing from Isa 8:12-13.
16. Some manuscripts say "set apart the Lord God in your hearts" {A}.
17. Or, "regard holy the Lord Christ", "hallow Christ as Lord". On this word, "set apart", see "sanctify" in Heb 10:29.
18. Same word as in 1:5. On this word, see "prepared" in Mk 14:15.
19. That is, to speak a defense. Elsewhere only in Act 22:1; 25:16; 1 Cor 9:3; 2 Cor 7:11; Phil 1:7, 16 (Paul's job!); 2 Tim 4:16. GK 665. The related verb is in Lk 21:14.
20. Or, "word, speech, message, statement, account". On this word, see "word" in 1 Cor 12:8.
21. On this word, see Eph 4:2. Related to "gentle" in 3:4.
22. Some think this means "respect"; others the fear of God. On this word, see Eph 5:21.
23. Or, "slandered, spoken evil of". Elsewhere only in 2:12; Jam 4:11. GK 2895. Related to "slanders" in 2:1; and "slanderer" in Rom 1:30. Some manuscripts say "in what they speak against you as evildoers" {A}.
24. Or, "speaking spitefully of, insulting, verbally abusing". Elsewhere only as "mistreating" in Lk 6:28. GK 2092.
25. As in 2:21, Peter now gives Christ as our example to follow when suffering, making it explicit in 4:1. Here he adds a focus on His glory after suffering to the fact of His suffering.
26. We must set Christ apart (v 15), because He also suffered (v 18). Some manuscripts say "died" {B}. Same word as in v 14, 17; 4:1.
27. Or, "once", one time. On this word, see Jude 3.
28. Some manuscripts say "us" {C}.
29. Peter uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence. On this word, see Rom 7:4.
30. Or, "given life". On this word, see "give life to" in Jn 5:21.
31. Some think Peter means "in [His human] spirit" in contrast to His flesh; others, "in the sphere of the spirit"; others, "by [the Holy] Spirit". The spirit is not "made alive", but remains alive after death. But Jesus could be said to be made alive as a human spirit in the realm of the spirit, that is, to have entered the realm of the spirit in His human spirit, like all others who die. "Made alive" naturally refers to His resurrection, for the body must be "made alive".
32. Or, "In which". Some think Peter means "in His spirit" after He died; others, "in the state of being dead in the flesh and alive in (by) the spirit"; others, "by means of the Holy Spirit".
33. Or, "even", meaning "He even proclaimed".
34. Or, "made a proclamation". Some think Jesus proclaimed the gospel to the people; others, His victory over sin and Satan to either the people or the angels. There are other views on these verses, and all views raise unanswered questions. Consult the commentaries. Peter seems to be describing a sequence of events. Christ was put to death, made alive, went to the prison, proclaimed. His main point is not what He proclaimed, but that He proclaimed, and then went into heaven to the right hand of God, v 22. On this word, see 2 Tim 4:2.
35. It is clear that the spirits are in prison, and that their disobedience occurred during the days of Noah as explained in v 20. Some think these are the spirits of people who died in the flood. Others think they are angels who sinned during the time of Noah, as possibly referred to in 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6; Gen 6:1-4. "Spirits" is used both ways, as seen in Heb 1:14; 12:23.
36. Some think this refers to Hades (see Rev 1:18), and is referred to in 2 Pet 2:4. On this word, see Act 5:22.
37. That is, as described in Gen 6:3. On this word, see Rom 8:19.
38. That is, the ark.
39. Compare Gen 7:13. On "souls", see Jam 5:20.
40. On this word, "to bring safely through", see Act 27:43. Here, the preposition "through" is repeated. Related to "saves" next.
41. Or, "brought-safely-through by means of the water".
42. This is the Greek word order of "which... baptism". Some think this refers back to the "water", making this point 1F. As Noah was saved by means of the water, so also you by means of the water of baptism. Others think it refers to the event, to Noah being "brought safely through the water". Just as God brought Noah safely through the water (representing death) to a new physical life, so also Christ brings you through the water of baptism (representing death) to a new spiritual life. There are other views.
43. Some manuscripts say "us" {N}.
44. This word is used of the "antitype, echo, reflection, copy" of the "pattern" (on which see 5:3). Thus in Heb 9:24, Moses' tabernacle is a "copy" of the heavenly pattern (Act 7:44). If taken this way here, baptism would be a copy of the flood, the reality, which is not likely. It is also used outside the NT in the opposite sense, of the fulfillment, the finished product made from a discarded pattern. Some take it this way here, "which also as a fulfillment, baptism now saves you". Others take it in a broader sense, meaning "corresponding to", without any formal type-antitype meaning, "which also, corresponding to baptism, now saves you". Others think Peter means baptism and the flood are both reflections of the spiritual reality of death to sin and new life in Him, "which also as a copy, baptism now saves you". Elsewhere only as "copy" in Heb 9:24. GK 531. Some manuscripts simplify the grammar to "corresponding to which, baptism now saves you" {A}.

1. Peter makes sure we understand that he is not saying that baptism itself, a ceremony, the water, saves us.
2. Or, "removal". Elsewhere only in 2 Pet 1:14. GK 629.
3. Or, "request, question". Used only here. GK 2090. Related to "to question" in Lk 9:18. Or, "pledge, answer", rendered either as "the pledge to keep a good conscience toward God", or "the pledge to God from a good conscience". In any case, Peter is talking about the spiritual commitment to God that took place at the ceremony.
4. Or, "from, of".
5. Thus, Peter says that both being born again (1:3), and being saved (3:21), are through the resurrection of Jesus.
6. Same word as in v 19.
7. Same word as in 3:18. Some manuscripts add "for us"; others, "for you" {A}.
8. Or, "prepare, equip yourselves". Used only here. GK 3959. It is a military term. Related to "fully armed", "full armor" in Lk 11:21-22; and "weapons" in Rom 13:12. Other related words outside the NT mean "arm for war", "armament", "heavily armed", "bear arms", "army", etc.
9. Or, "thought, insight, way of thinking". That is, the intention to "suffer for righteousness" (3:13), like Christ (3:18). On this word, see Heb 4:12, "intentions" of the heart.
10. Some think "Because... sin" refers to Christ, and then "so as to live... God" continues on from "arm yourselves". Others think it refers to Christians, continuing on from the command. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
11. Or, "stopped". That is, because the one having suffered for righteousness is one who has ceased living for the sinful desires the world lives for, and is living for the will of God. Such people have taken a stand for righteousness and suffered as a result. They have committed themselves to live for the will of God, whatever the cost. Same word as "stop" in 3:10.
12. Some think this gives the purpose and goal of the ceasing; others, the result, "so that he lives". Used only here. GK 1051.
13. Or, "in, by", as also later in the verse.
14. On this word, see 2 Tim 1:9. Some manuscripts add "of life" {N}.
15. Some manuscripts add "for us" {N}.
16. Or, "purpose". Same word as in Rom 9:19. Elsewhere only as "intention" in Act 27:43. GK 1088. That is, to be doing what the unbelievers choose to do.
17. Or, "proceeded, lived". Some manuscripts say "walking" {N}. The grammar indicates that this verb refers to the unexpressed subjects (it is plural) of "worked out" (that is, to Peter's readers), not to "Gentiles". "For you" is added earlier to reflect this. On this word, see "gone" in Mt 28:19.
18. Same word as "desires" in v 2.
19. This word is plural, "[episodes of] drunkenness". Used only here. GK 3886. Related to "wine" in 1 Tim 5:23.
20. Used only here. GK 4542. The root word is "drink".
21. Or, "forbidden, lawless". That is, contrary to the Law of God. Elsewhere only in Act 10:28. GK 116.
22. That is, the "sensualities... idolatries".
23. Or, "are surprised". Same word as in 4:12, and as "being strange" in Act 17:20. On this word, see "lodging" in Act 10:6.
24. Or, "flood, pouring-out". Used only here. GK 431.
25. The grammar indicates that this is a further description of "they" who are "thinking it strange". "They continue" is added to reflect this. In addition, Peter may mean blaspheming "you", or "God", or both. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.
26. Literally, "holding Himself ready", an idiom elsewhere only in Act 21:13; 2 Cor 12:14; and similar to 2 Cor 10:6. GK 2290.
27. Compare Act 10:42; 2 Tim 4:1.
28. Or, "For this purpose". Same phrase as "to this" in 2:21; 3:9; "for this" in Mk 1:38; Act 26:16; Rom 14:9; 2 Cor 2:9; 1 Tim 4:10.
29. Or, "Christ", taking the subject from v 1.
30. Used 54 times in the NT, this verb is passive elsewhere only in Mt 11:5; Lk 7:22; 16:16; Gal 1:11; Heb 4:2, 6; 1 Pet 1:25. Only here in 1 Pet 4:6 is it used with no subject expressed (unless "Christ" is the subject). On this word, see Act 5:42.
31. Same word as in v 5. Some think Peter means spiritually dead ones, as described in v 3. Thus he uses "dead" in two senses, like Jesus did in Mt 8:22, "Let the [spiritually] dead bury the [physically] dead". It "was announced" to formerly dead ones like you (Eph 2:1) so that like Christ, they might suffer the judgment of people in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit. This positive reason is added to the negative one in v 3 as a reason to so arm yourselves. Others think Peter means the gospel was announced to the physically dead, like the "spirits in prison" in 3:19. Others think he means it was announced to departed Christians while they were still alive, so that after their physical death at the hands of people they might live like God in spirit. In these last two views, this would become point 1F., explaining "judge the dead". On this word, see Mt 8:22.
32. Peter uses grammar that emphasizes the contrast between the two halves of this sentence.
33. Or, "in accordance with, by way of, in keeping with". GK 2848.
34. That is, in accordance with human standards and verdicts. Once people become Christians, they are called to suffer for doing good as Christ did, as He gave us the example (2:21), as He warned (Jn 15:18-21), as Paul also stated (2 Tim 3:12). The suffering is limited to this life, as with Christ. The world judges them on earth even to the point of physical death. But they live both now and forever in the spirit for God. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
35. That is, "in the sphere of the flesh", our human existence on earth. Same word as in v 1, 2.
36. That is, in accordance with God's standards, verdict, will. "According to God" is also in 5:2, and elsewhere only in Rom 8:27; 2 Cor 7:9, 10, 11; Eph 4:24. Those who think verse 6 is referring to physically dead people take this to mean "according to the likeness or nature of God". Such people were judged in accordance with all mankind's human fleshly nature, and now after death they live in accordance with God's spiritual nature.
37. Or, "Spirit". Since our "spirit" lives in the realm of the "Spirit", it is difficult to separate these two ideas. That is, "in the sphere of the spirit".
38. Peter gives a further motive to arm yourselves to suffer, 4:1. James makes the same connection in 5:8-11. Others place this in point 4B. as a motive for what follows, in which case this word would be rendered "Now". As with "The Lord is near" in Phil 4:5, it fits in both places.
39. Or, "for, for the purpose of". GK 1650.

3. On this word, see Tit 1:8. It is a qualification for elders.
4. Some manuscripts have this noun plural {N}. On this word, see Phil 2:14.
5. In the Greek, "each" is singular, and "ministering" is plural. Peter thus individualizes the case for every person. This kind of grammar occurs also in Mt 18:35; Jn 7:53; Act 2:6, 8; Heb 8:11; Rev 5:8; 20:13.
6. This word is rendered this way to show its relationship to "grace" following. This is the word used for spiritual gifts by Paul. Some think these are in view here. Others think all God's gifts to us are in view. Peter groups them in two categories, speaking and serving. On this word, see "gift" in 1 Cor 1:7.
7. Or, "serving". This word means "to serve, help, attend to, take care of" in any sense. Same word as in Mt 4:11; Mk 1:13; Act 19:22; 2 Cor 8:19, 20; 2 Tim 1:18; 1 Pet 1:12. 11. Same word as "ministering" in v 10.
12. Some think this refers to "Jesus Christ", the nearest choice; others, to "God", the main subject of the sentence.
13. Or, "be being surprised at". Same word as in v 4. Related to "strange" later in this verse.
14. Elsewhere only as "burning" in Rev 18:9, 18. GK 4796. Here it is used figuratively to mean "painful" or "intense".
15. Or, "test". On this word, see Jam 1:2. Compare Rev 2:10.
16. This is the same counsel given in Jam 1:2, "Regard it all joy". "Joy" is the same root word as "rejoice". On this word, see 2 Cor 13:11.

Introduction	1:1-2
1A. Since His divine power has granted us all things for life and godliness by His own glory and virtue	1:3
1B. Through which qualities He has granted us the promises through which we share in His nature	1:4
2B. And indeed for this very reason you having applied all diligence	1:5
3B. Supply virtue, knowledge, self control, endurance, godliness, brotherly love and love	1:5-7
4B. For these qualities make you neither useless nor unfruitful in the knowledge of Christ	1:8
5B. For the one in whom these qualities are not present is blind, having forgotten his purification	1:9
6B. Therefore brothers, be more diligent to be making your calling and election firm	1:10-11
2A. Therefore, I will always remind you about these things, even though you have known the truth	1:12
1B. And I regard it right to be arousing you with a reminder as long as I am in this bodily tent	1:13-14
2B. And I will be diligent that after my departure you may be able to remember these things	1:15
3B. For we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus as eyewitnesses	1:16-18
4B. And we have the prophetic word more firm, to which you are doing well to pay attention	1:19-21
5B. But there will also be false teachers among you who will bring in destructive heresies	2:1
1C. And many will follow their sensualities, because of whom the truth will be blasphemed	2:2
2C. And in greed they will exploit you with fabricated words	2:3
3C. For whom the judgment is not idle, for God will judge them and protect the godly	2:3-10
4C. Daring, self-willed ones— they blaspheme dignities. But they will be destroyed	2:10-13
5C. They are spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions, trained in greed	2:13-14
6C. Children of a curse— they went astray in the way of Balaam	2:14-16
7C. They are waterless springs, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved	2:17-22
3A. Beloved, I am writing this to arouse you to remember the words of the prophets and apostles	3:1-2
1B. Knowing this first— that mockers will come denying the coming of the day of the Lord	3:3-7
2B. But do not let it escape your notice, beloved, that one day with God is like a thousand years	3:8
1C. The Lord is not slow about the promise, but is patient, not wishing any to perish	3:9
2C. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, so what kind of people should you be?	3:10-12
3C. But in accordance with His promise, we are looking for a new heavens and new earth	3:13
3B. Therefore beloved, while looking for these things, be diligent to be found unspotted	3:14-16
4B. You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand	3:17
1C. Be guarding yourselves in order that you may not fall from your own steadfastness	3:17
2C. And be growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ	3:18

GK 3275.

Others render it "our God and the Savior Jesus Christ". The issue is whether Peter is using "God" here as a proper name as in v 2 (making this two persons), or as a title like "Lord" (making this two titles or descriptions of one person). 37. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10. More literally, "every prophecy of Scripture does not come".
38. Same word as "came" in 2:1; "become" in 1:4; "made" in 1:16. GK 1181. Used 669 times, it means "to become", mostly in the sense of "come to be, come into being, originate, arise, be made", or in the sense of "come about, happen, take place". Peter could be referring to a prophecy's origin—"no prophecy [as written] comes into being from [the prophet's] own interpretation" of events. God is the author, v 21; Jer 23:16; Ezek 13:3. Or, he could be referring to its fulfillment—"no prophecy [as fulfilled] comes to pass from [one's] own interpretation" of it. Fulfillment originates with the Author, v 21. To understand the Messianic prophecies like Isa 53, the key is how God fulfilled them, not how a human interprets them. Thus Peter had the prophetic word more firm (v 19), because he heard and saw firsthand God's fulfillment of it. Or he could be referring to a prophecy's interpretation—"no prophecy comes [to be understood] from personal interpretation", because God is the author, v 21. A Spirit-filled guide (like Jesus, Lk 24:27, 45; or we apostles who have it more firm, v 19) is needed to "open" the OT Scriptures. False teachers bring in heresies, 2:1. The untought "twist" the Scripture, 3:16.
39. Or, "personal, private". Same word as in 1:3; 2:16, 22; 3:3, 16, 17. On this word, see Act 20:28.

41. That is, "carried" out of heaven, as this word is used in v 18; or, "brought" to the prophet, as it is used in 2:11. Same word as later in this verse; and as "carried along" in Heb 6:1. See v 17 on it.
42. Same word as "human". Some manuscripts say "holy people" {A}.

19. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:14. Same word as in Gen 19:29. Some manuscripts omit this word "by an overthrow" {C}.
20. Some manuscripts have the verbal form of this word here (there is one letter difference), resulting in the translation "having made an example of the ones intending to live ungodly" {C}. Both words are in Jude 15.
21. This word means "to be worn out by toil or suffering". Elsewhere only in Act 7:24. GK 2930.

33. Or, "scorning, disregarding". On this word, see "disregard" in Rom 2:4.
34. Or, "lordship, dominion". Same word as in Jude 8. Elsewhere only as "lordship" in Eph 1:21; Col 1:16. GK 3262. The root word is "lord". Some think Peter means "authority" in general; others, the "lordship" of Christ (2:1, denying the Master); others, the rule of angels (Col 1:16); others, the authority of church leaders.

36. Or, "dignities, majesties". Same word as in Jude 8. Some think Peter means human dignities; others, angelic dignities. Some think Jude 8-9 explains this. 1. Others do not add this word, making v 12-13 all one sentence, "But these ones, like... ignorant, will also be destroyed".
2. Or, "creatures-of-nature". This is the Greek word order. Some punctuate it "... animals, creatures-of-instinct, born for..."; others, "unreasoning natural animals", making a single description. This word means "natural, belonging to nature, pertaining to the natural order of things". Some think Peter means "as ones living in the manner pertaining to the natural world", that is, in a purely physical and instinctual manner. They live like animals led by their physical appetites to their destruction. Others think he means "as ones belonging only to the natural order", that is, as only physical creatures of nature, devoid of a spirit. They are like part of the animal kingdom, and share their fate. Elsewhere only as "natural" in Rom 1:26, 27. GK 5879. Related to the word in Jude 10.
3. That is, "in connection with, in the sphere of". GK 1877.
4. Same word as in Jude 10. This is the sense in which they are like the animals. Related to "destruction".
5. Some think Peter means "the animals' destruction", they will share their fate; others, "their own destruction", the destruction belonging to them as people; others think it is a Hebrew way of speaking meaning, "they will surely be destroyed"; others give it a different sense, "destroyed in their corruption".
6. Same word as earlier in the verse, and as "corruption" in v 19.
7. Or, "unrighteousness", as in Act 1:18. That is, "for wrong-doing". Or, "being harmed as the wages of harm, being defrauded as the wages of fraud". The same phrase, "wages of wrong", is in v 15, and some think the same meaning must be given in both places. Others do not, and render this "harm" here, and "wrong" or "unrighteousness" there. Same word as in 2 Cor 12:13; Heb 8:12. Some manuscripts say "receiving the wages of wrong" {B}.
8. Or, "stains". Some place the points from here through v 16 at the "E." level, as examples of their wrong-doing. Elsewhere only in Eph 5:27. GK 5070. Related to the word in Jude 12. "Spots and blemishes" is the opposite of Jesus, whom Peter says is "without-blemish and without-spot" in 1 Pet 1:19 (same words with a negative prefix). In 2 Pet 3:14, Peter exhorts us to be unspotted and unblemished.
9. "Regarding" is a participle, like those in the D. points that follow. In the Greek word order, "regarding... pleasure" comes first in this sentence. Some take it with the preceding point (1D.), and then take "They are spots and blemishes" as beginning the new sentence.
10. This noun is elsewhere only as "luxury" in Lk 7:25. GK 5588. Related to the verb that follows.
11. This verb is used only here. GK 1960. Related to "live in luxury" in Jam 5:5.

15. Or, "unceasing, not resting" from sin. This modifies "eyes". Peter could mean eyes "restless to continue sinning", or eyes "never resting from their sinning". Used only here. GK 188. Related to "rest" in Heb 3:11, which has no negative prefix.
16. Or, "Luring, Entrapping, Baiting". Same word as in v 18. On this word, see Jam 1:14.

24. Same word as in Jude 12. GK 536.
25. Some manuscripts say "... springs, clouds being..." {N}.
26. Or, "gust, gale, whirlwind". Elsewhere only in Mk 4:37 and Lk 8:23 as a "storm" of wind. GK 3278. Some think Peter means that they are "waterless", never providing rain, as in Jude 12; others, that they drift along obscuring the truth; others, that they are unstable and fleeting.
27. On this word, see 2:4. This phrase "for whom... reserved" is also in Jude 13.
28. Or, "kept". Same word as in 1 Pet 1:4; 2 Pet 2:4, 9; 3:7; Jude 13; and as "kept" in Jude 6. On this word, see "keeping" in 1 Jn 5:18. Some manuscripts add "forever" {N}.

38. That is, freedom from the Law, from holy standards. Peter calls them "lawless" in 3:17. Some people taught that salvation is of the spirit, and it does not matter what one does with the body. Perhaps something like this is in view here. On this word, see Gal 5:13.

1. Some think this refers to the false teachers, continuing the subject of v 17, and of "entice" and "promising". Others think this refers to the victims mentioned in v 18b-19. Others think this is a general principle referring to all.
2. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, making it "the Lord" or "our Lord".

1. Or, "What". Some think this refers to the person of Christ; others, to the message of life He brought; others, to both.
2. Some think John means "What was from the beginning of the ministry of Christ", as in Jn 15:27; 16:4; others, "What was God's plan from the beginning of creation", as in Jn 1:1; Gen 1:1. There are other views. On this word, see Col 1:18.
3. Some think this refers to the apostles; others to John himself (a literary plural). There are other views.
4. Or, "message". Some think John means "concerning the Word" (the person, as in Jn 1:1); others, "concerning the message", which includes all aspects of Christ's person and work. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:8.
5. Some think John means Who or which "gives life"; others, Who or which "is life"; others, which is "about life"; others, "about the Life" (Jesus). "Life" is elsewhere in 1 Jn only in 1:2; 2:25; 3:14, 15; 5:11, 12, 13, 16, 20. On this word, see Rom 8:10.
6. Or, "And". Same word as in v 3. Before John completes the thought that he is declaring his eyewitness testimony, he leaps ahead to exclaim the result produced by the Christ he personally witnessed—eternal life was made known! This could routinely have been stated if v 3 and v 2 were reversed, "That which was from the beginning... concerning the word of life (v 1), we are announcing also to you in order that you may have fellowship with us. And indeed our fellowship is with... Christ (v 3). Indeed life was made known! And we have seen, and are testifying, and are announcing to you the eternal life... made known to us (v 2)". However, John moves this forward for emphasis. Verse 2 is parenthetical to v 1 and 3, but it is an emphatic thought, not a parenthetical one. GK 2779.
7. Or, "the Life", "this life" (the one just mentioned).
8. Or, "appeared, was revealed, was manifested". Some think this is a personal reference to Jesus, who "appeared"; others, to the eternal life that was "made known" in Him. This verb is used both ways. On this word, see "made evident" in 2:19.
9. In this rendering, this verb is referring forward to "eternal life", as do the next two verbs. Others think this verb refers back to "life", and thus render it "we have seen it".
10. Or, "bearing witness, attesting". Same word used for the Baptist in Jn 1:7, 8, 15, 32, 34.
11. Or, "Life". Some think this is a reference to the incarnate Christ; others, to eternal life, as in Jn 17:2, 3.
12. Or, "appeared". Same word as earlier in the verse.
13. This resumes from v 1, after the emphatic placement of v 2.
14. Or, "reporting, declaring". Same word as in v 2. Used 45 times. GK 550. Related to "declare" in v 5.
15. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
16. Or, "partnership, communion". Same word as in v 3, 6, 7. On this word, see 1 Cor 1:9.
17. Some think John is referring to this letter as a whole; others, to v 1-3 in particular. There are other views. Some manuscripts say, "And we are writing these things to you" {B}.
18. Some manuscripts say "your" {A}. John could mean "our" in the sense of "my", or, "yours and mine".
19. Or, "complete". John's joy is made full by hearing of his children walking in the truth, 3 Jn 4. He writes to help accomplish this. This is a participle, "may be having been made full". On this phrase, see Jn 16:24.
20. Elsewhere only in 3:11. GK 32. Related to "declaring" later in this verse.
21. Or, "reporting, proclaiming". On this word, see Jn 16:13. Related to "announcing" in v 2, 3.
22. On "doing the truth", compare "doing sin" in Jn 8:34.
23. As children of the God who is light, we are children of light walking toward the light, Jn 3:21; 8:12; 12:35, 36, 46; Rom 13:12; Eph 5:8; 1 Thes 5:5; 1 Pet 2:9; 1 Jn 2:8. This is our pattern of life.
24. Elsewhere of Christ's blood only in Mt 26:28; 27:4, 6, 24, 25; Mk 14:24; Lk 22:20, 44; Jn 6:53, 54, 55, 56; 19:34; Act 5:28; 20:28; Rom 3:25; 5:9; 1 Cor 10:16; 11:25, 27; Eph 1:7; 2:13; Col 1:20; Heb 9:12, 14; 10:19, 29; 12:24; 13:12, 20; 1 Pet 1:2, 19; 1 Jn 5:6, 8; Rev 1:5; 5:9; 7:14; 12:11; 19:13. Used 97 times. GK 135. Jesus is the sacrificial offering, the spotless Lamb of God whose blood is offered in our place as a satisfaction (see 2:2), reconciling us to God. See Rom 3:23-25.
25. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {N}.
26. Or, "purifies". Same word as in v 9, on which see Heb 9:22.
27. This is the common word "have, hold", used 708 times. GK 2400.
28. On "have sin", compare Jn 9:41; 15:22, 24; 19:11. Some think John means we claim we have no guilt, no need for cleansing, no need for a Savior; others, no sin nature or inclination to sin.
29. Some think John means "God's truth, objective reality"; others, the gospel. Same word as in v 6, on which see Jn 4:23.
30. Or, "admitting, agreeing about". On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12.
31. Or, "just, right". God is righteous to forgive because of 2:2. On this word, see Rom 1:17.
32. More literally, "that He might forgive"; that is, to carry out His purpose to forgive us. GK 2671.
33. That is, that we have not personally committed a sin in the past.
34. Others make this point 2E., John's answer to 1:10 (similar in function to 1:7 and 1:9, though different in form). Then 2:3 continues on as point 2B. The precise flow of thought of this book is difficult to be certain of in places because there are so many repetitions and possible connections of thought, word, and phrase. Though it has the easiest Greek, this is the hardest book in the NT to follow the connections of thought. Yet the message of the book is clear and powerful, because it is found in John's boldly absolute sentences and brief paragraphs, and is not dependent on how the book as a whole is arranged. Consult the commentaries for other suggestions on how to arrange the book.
35. Jesus used this word of the disciples in Jn 13:33. Elsewhere only in 1 Jn 2:12, 28; 3:7, 18; 4:4; 5:21. GK 5448. Related to "children" in 3:1. Not related to "children" in 2:14.
36. Some think John is referring to 1:5-10 or 1:5-2:17, the things regarding sin and walking in the light; others, to the whole letter.
37. That is, commits a sin, an act of sin. As in 1:6-7 and 8-9, John joins both sides of the coin, the not sinning and the sinning. John addresses living in sin as a pattern of life in 3:9.
38. Only here is this word used of Jesus—our "Advocate, Defender, Intercessor". On this word, see "Helper" in Jn 14:16.
39. Or, "propitiation", the means of removing God's wrath. Elsewhere only in 4:10. GK 2662. See Rom 3:25 on this word group.
40. Or, "those of the whole world". Jesus paid the price for all. Compare Jn 3:16; 12:47; Rom 5:18; 1 Tim 4:10; 1 Jn 4:14.

- 2C. And by this¹ we know^A that we have come-to-know² Him³— if we are keeping^B His commandments⁴ 3
- 1D. The one claiming^C that “I have come-to-know Him” and not keeping^B His commandments^D is a liar, and the truth⁵ is not in this one 4

- 4B. Yet-again¹⁶ I am writing a new^L commandment to you, which¹⁷ is true¹⁸ in Him and in you, because¹⁹ the darkness²⁰ is passing-away²¹ and the true²² Light²³ is already shining²⁴ 8
- 1C. The²⁵ one claiming^C to be in the light and hating^M his brother²⁶ is in the darkness until now²⁷ 9
- 1D. The one loving^N his brother is abiding^H in the light, and there is no cause-of-falling^O in him²⁸ 10
- 2D. But the one hating his brother is in the darkness, and is walking^K in the darkness, and does not know^P where he is going because the darkness blinded his eyes 11
- 5B. I am writing²⁹ to you, little-children³⁰, because³¹ your sins have been forgiven^Q you for-the-sake-of³² His name 12
- 1C. I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known^A the One from the beginning³³ 13
- 2C. I am writing to you, young-men³⁴, because you have overcome³⁵ the evil^R one

1. "By this" is a key phrase in 1 John, occurring 12 times. John wants us to know how to know spiritual truth. Compare 2:3, 5; 3:10, 16, 19, 24; 4:2, 9, 13, 17; 5:2; and Jn 13:35; 15:8; 16:30.
2. Or, "have known". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
3. Those who make this point 2B. (see the note on "My" in v 1) link this to "God" in 1:5, rather than "Jesus" in 2:2.
4. We cannot claim to know Jesus if we do not do what He says. Jesus said so, Mt 7:21-23; Lk 6:46.
5. That is, God's truth is not at work in him.
6. Some think John means God's love in us, as in 4:12. This person does know God because God's love is in him. Others think he means our love for God, as in 5:3. This person's love for God has been brought to completion in true knowledge of Him.
7. Or, "brought to completion, reached its goal". Here this comes by keeping His word; in 4:12, by loving one another. On this word, see Heb 2:10.
8. In this arrangement, the "by this we know" statements (2C. and 3C.) are paralleled. "This" points forward to what follows, and, "in Him" points to "abiding in Him". Others think "this" refers back to "keeping His word" or "love perfected" in v 5. In this case, "By this..." would be part of point 2D. Then "The one claiming..." would be point 3D., paralleling v 4.
9. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, leaving "... ought also himself to be walking just as that One walked".
10. On this word, see Mt 3:17. Some manuscripts say instead "Brothers" {N}.
11. Some think John means "in what I just said" (do not sin, v 1; keep His commandments, v 3; walk as He walked, v 6); others, "in what I am about to say" about loving your brother (v 9-11). He may mean both, "in what I am writing you here in 1:5-2:17", or in this book.
12. Some think John means it is old in that it was contained in the Law of Moses; others, that it is old from John's point of view. That is, it was spoken by Jesus Himself. Both "keep my commands" (2:3-6; Jn 14:15, 21, 23, 24) and "love one another" (2:9-11; Jn 13:34; 15:12) are commands of Jesus. Others think he means it is "old" from the readers' point of view. That is, it is a command they have had since they first became Christians. On this word, see Mk 2:21.
13. That is, from when you first heard, from the beginning of your Christian life. On this word, see Col 1:18.
14. Or, "message". That is, His word (v 5), the gospel. This "old word" contained all the thoughts in this book. John merely expands on certain aspects of it. "I am not writing some new thing to you, but what you already know". On this word, see 1 Cor 12:8.
15. Some manuscripts add "from the beginning" {N}.
16. Or, "On the other hand". Most think the new command is implied in v 9-11, "love one another". Compare 3:11; 2 Jn 5, 6. It is new in that it is Christ's new command (Jn 13:34) which John's readers newly received at salvation. Yet perhaps John simply means that he is writing all of this to them as a new command. He is commanding them anew with a fresh statement of the old command. The old command is the word you heard from the beginning, the new command is the word he is writing here. Both include righteousness and love. On this word, see "again" in Mk 15:13.
17. The grammar indicates this does not refer to "new" or "commandment". Some think it refers to the whole concept, to "what I am writing"; others, to the newness of it, "the newness of which". There are other views.
18. Or, "genuine, real". Some think John means the content of the command is "truly seen, genuinely present" in Him and them, though to a different degree; others, that the newness is truly seen in Him (as the giver of it) and you (as the ones now doing it). There are other views. Used elsewhere by John in 2:27; Jn 3:33 ("truthful"); 4:18; 5:31, 32; 6:55; 7:18; 8:13, 14, 17, 26; 10:41; 19:35; 21:24; 3 Jn 12. On this word, see Jn 6:55.
19. Some think John is explaining why it is new, because it is from Christ, the true light; others, why it is true in Him and in you, because His light is already shining in you; others, why he is writing it, as in v 12-14.
20. That is, spiritual darkness. Same word as in 1:5; 2:9, 11. On this word, see Jn 1:5. Related to the word in 1:6.
21. Same word as in v 17; 1 Cor 7:31. GK 4135.
22. Related to "true" earlier. Used elsewhere by John in 5:20; Jn 1:9; 4:23, 37; 6:32; 7:28; 8:16; 15:1; 17:3; 19:35; Rev 3:7, 14; 6:10; 15:3; 16:7; 19:2, 9, 11; 21:5; 22:6. On this word, see Jn 7:28.
23. Some think John means Jesus, as in Jn 1:9; others, God's truth, His word, the gospel. There are other views.
24. The true light is dispelling the darkness. On this word, see Phil 2:15.
25. This is the statement, or the continuation of the statement, of what is not new but old, yet is new.
26. That is, fellow believer. On this word, see Act 16:40.
27. Such a person has been, and continues to be in the darkness, in spite of whatever may be claimed.
28. Or, "it". Some think John means there is nothing "in him", the loving brother, to cause his brother to fall; others, to cause himself to fall. Others think he means there is nothing "in it", the light, to cause him to fall.
29. John continues to explain his writing of this section or the whole book. Others think that v 12-14 strictly point forward to the writing of the command in v 15. Same word as in 1:4; 2:1, 7, 8, 13, 14. Used 191 times. GK 1211.
30. Some think "little children, fathers, young men" each refer to all Christians, from three viewpoints; others, that "little children" refers to everyone (as elsewhere in the letter, see 2:1), and that John then divides everyone into two groups, "young men" and "fathers"; others, that John is referring to three groups of Christians. In the last two views, some think the groups represent stages of spiritual growth; others, tenure as a Christian; others, physical age. On this word, see v 1.
31. Some render this word "that", and likewise in the next five statements, giving the content of John's writing rather than the reason for it.
32. Or, "because of". GK 1328.
33. Some think John is referring to the Father; others, the Son. Some think he means from the beginning of time or creation (as in Jn 1:1); others, from the beginning of His ministry.
34. As to physical age, this word refers to those in the physical prime of life, about 24-40 years old. Used 11 times. GK 3734. Related to the word in Act 7:58.
35. Or, "conquered". On this word, see Rev 2:7.

1. Some think "wrote" refers to a former letter; others, that "writing" is from John's point of view, "wrote" is from the readers' point of view; others, that "wrote" refers to what is already written, "writing" to the whole letter; others, that "wrote" refers to the letter as complete, "writing" as in process; others, that the change of tense is merely stylistic. Perhaps John means "I am writing this with a view to your future", because of the present status you have already attained in Christ, and "I wrote it on the basis of your past", for the same reason. In other words, I am writing hoping to build upon your present status, I wrote based on it. In this case, the change of tense gives a different sense to "because". Some manuscripts say here "I am writing" {A}, causing the KJV and other English translations since then to include this sentence in v 13 as the third group.
2. Same word as in v 18, its only other use in this book. Used 52 times. GK 4086. Not related to "little children" in v 12.
3. The grammar can mean "Stop loving", or, "Do not be in the habit of loving". On this word, see "devotedly love" in Jn 21:15.
4. This is the first command of this book. John concludes this section with a specific or focused application of what he meant in v 1 when he said "that you may not sin". The message is "God is light" (1:5), John is writing that you may not sin (2:1), so do not love the world.
5. John is not referring to the people in the world (as this word is used in Jn 3:16; 1 Jn 4:14), but to the world system, the world ruled by Satan (as in 1 Jn 5:19); to human existence, desires, and purposes apart from God. This word, kosmos, is used 186 times. GK 3180. It is used of the physical "world, universe"; of humanity, the people of the world; and of the world order and system of human existence. It means "adornment" in 1 Pet 3:3. The related verb means "to adorn" (see 1 Tim 2:9), "put in order".
6. Some think John means "our love for the Father". One cannot love the world and the Father, Jam 4:4. Others think he means "the Father's love in us", as in 4:16. If one loves the world, God's love is not dwelling in him. Some manuscripts say "of God" {N}.
7. On this word, see Gal 5:16. It should not be narrowed to sexual desires here, but taken broadly.
8. That is, belonging to or proceeding from the flesh, the eyes, life. On this word, see Col 2:23.
9. Or, "arrogance, pretension". Elsewhere only as "pretension" in Jam 4:16. GK 224. Related to "boaster" in Rom 1:30; 2 Tim 3:2.
10. Or, "means of life, goods, property, livelihood, mode of life, manner of living", the externals of life. It is pride flowing from the things one has, the externals of the way one lives, the living one enjoys. Same word as in Lk 8:14; 1 Tim 2:2; 2 Tim 2:4. Elsewhere only as "goods" in 1 Jn 3:17; "property" in Lk 15:12, 30; and "living" in Mk 12:44; Lk 8:43; 21:4. GK 1050. Related to "live" in 1 Pet 4:2; "manner of life" in Act 26:4; and "pertaining to life" in Lk 21:34.
11. Some think John means this in the same sense in which the darkness is passing away in 2:8 (same word). It is being supplanted. Others think he means it is transitory. Others think he is emphasizing that it will be done away with when Christ returns. It is not just transitory, it is contradictory to His interests. It will be judged.
12. A "last hour" is mentioned only here. The KJV renders this "time", which gives the sense of it here. Same word as in Jn 4:21, 23; 5:25, 28; 16:2, 32; Rom 13:11; Rev 3:10; 9:15. On this word, see Lk 2:38.
13. Elsewhere only in 1 Jn 2:18; 22; 4:3; 2 Jn 7. GK 532. Some manuscripts say "the Antichrist" {B}. Paul calls him the "man of lawlessness" in 2 Thes 2:3. See there for the views on the meaning of this.
14. Or, "come-to-be, come". GK 1181. Not the same word as "is coming" earlier in the verse.
15. The last or final hour (period of time) extends from the predicted appearance of antichrists until Christ returns.
16. Or, "from". That is, part of us, belonging to us, originating with us.
17. Or, be "made known, revealed, shown, made visible". This word means "revealed" in the sense of "made visible, made open" (compare "revealed" in 2 Thes 2:3). Same word as in Rom 1:19; 2 Cor 4:10, 11; 7:12; 11:6. Elsewhere only as "make known" in Jn 7:4; 2 Cor 2:14; 3:3; 5:11; Heb 9:8; 1 Jn 1:2; 4:9; "reveal" in Jn 1:31; 2:11; 17:6; Rom 3:21; 16:26; 1 Cor 4:5; Col 1:26; 1 Tim 3:16; 2 Tim 1:10; Tit 1:3; Rev 3:18; 15:4; "manifest" in Jn 21:1, 14; "make visible" in Mk 4:22; Jn 9:3; "become visible" in Jn 3:21; Eph 5:13, 14; "make clear" in Col 4:4; "appear" in Mk 16:12, 14; 2 Cor 5:10; Col 3:4; Heb 9:26; 1 Pet 1:20; 5:4; 1 Jn 2:28; 3:2, 5, 8. GK 5746. Related to "evident" in Rom 1:19; "clearly" in Act 10:3; and "manifestation" in 1 Cor 12:7.
18. That is, that none of them are from us. Others render it "made evident, because they are not all of us". That is, not all the people in church are part of us (compare the parable of the wheat and the darnel in Mt 13:24-43).
19. Some think John means the Holy Spirit, the Helper (Jn 14:26), who teaches us all things; others, the Word of God, as in v 14, an anointing of truth. Elsewhere only in v 27, where John expands on this. GK 5984. The related verb is in Lk 4:18.
20. That is, Christ, as in Lk 4:34; Jn 6:69; Act 3:14.
21. Or, "you all know the truth", supplying "truth" from v 21. John is emphasizing the fact of knowing here, not the content of what is known. Because of this fact, which is true because they have the Anointing, they can discern the truth with regard to the content of knowledge proposed by these deceivers. John expands on this next, in v 21-26. Some manuscripts say, "and you know all things" {B}. On this word, see "know" in 2:29a.
22. That is, in this matter, v 18-27.
23. That is, you know the truth about Jesus.
24. Or, "because", depending on whether this is another reason John wrote, or another thing they know.
25. Or, in smoother English, "no lie is from the truth". It does not originate in or belong to the truth. On this word, see Jn 4:23.
26. In keeping with English idiom, some render this "a".
27. Some manuscripts omit this sentence {N}.
28. Or, "declaring". Same word as in 4:15. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12.
29. Or, "You— let what you heard...". Some manuscripts say "Therefore let" {N}.
30. That is, the truth, v 21.
31. This noun is used 52 times, but only here by John. GK 2039.
32. This verb is used 15 times, but only here by John. GK 2040.
33. Some manuscripts say "you" {A}.
34. Or, "And you— the Anointing which you received...".
35. That is, you do not need human wisdom or "new" teachings. The Spirit will teach you, Jn 14:26; 16:12-15.

- 1D. As His¹ Anointing^A is teaching^B you about all things, and is true² and is not a lie
 2D. And just as it³ taught you
 3D. Be abiding⁴ in it⁵
- 3B. And⁶ now, little-children^C, be abiding⁷ in Him, so that if⁸ He appears⁹, we may have confidence¹⁰, and not be put-to-shame¹¹ by¹² Him at His coming^D 28
- 1C. If you know¹³ that He¹⁴ is righteous^E, you know¹⁵ that everyone also¹⁶ doing^F righteousness¹⁷ has been born¹⁸ from¹⁹ Him²⁰ 29
- 1D. See what-kind-of²¹ love^G the Father has given to us— that we should be called²² children²³ of God! And we are!²⁴ 3:1
- 1E. For this reason²⁵ the world does not know^H us, because it did not know Him²⁶
- 2D. Beloved^I, we are now children of God, and what we will be has not yet appeared²⁷. We²⁸ know^K that if He appears²⁹, we will be like^L Him, because we will see Him just as He is 2
- 3D. And everyone having this hope^M in³⁰ Him is purifying³¹ himself, just as that One is pure^N 3
- 1E. Everyone doing^F sin³² also is doing lawlessness. Indeed sin is lawlessness³³. *And you know^K that that One appeared in order that He might take-away³⁴ sins³⁵ 4-5
- 2E. And there is no sin in Him³⁶
- 1F. Everyone abiding^O in Him is not sinning³⁷ 6
- 2F. Everyone sinning has not seen Him, nor known^H Him
- 4D. Little-children³⁸, let no one be deceiving^P you— 7
- 1E. The one doing^F righteousness is righteous^E, just as that One is righteous^E
- 2E. The one doing^F sin is of the devil, because the devil is sinning³⁹ from the beginning 8
- 3E. The Son of God appeared for this— that He might destroy^Q the works^R of the devil⁴⁰

1. Some manuscripts say "the same" {N}, "As the same Anointing..."
2. Some think John means that the Anointing is real, genuine; others, that the teaching is true. Same word as in 2:8.
3. Or, "He". Some think John means "just as His Anointing is teaching you now, and it taught you from the beginning"; others, just as His Anointing is teaching you now, and He (Jesus) taught you during His earthly ministry".
4. Or, this may be a statement, "you are abiding". Some manuscripts say "you will abide" {N}.
5. Or, "Him". Some think John means "in it", the teaching about all things (as in v 24); others, "in Him", Christ (as in v 28), the subject of the teaching.
6. Some make v 28 the conclusion of the previous section, and begin the new section at 2:29 or 3:1.
7. John turns from abiding in Christ's truth as taught by His Anointing, to abiding in His character—righteousness (2:29-3:9), and love (3:10-24). Thus 2:29-3:24 defines what John means here by "abide in Him". This section expands on what John briefly stated earlier, when he said the one walking as He walked (in righteousness, 2:6, and love, 2:10) is abiding in the light. On this word, see Jn 15:4.
8. That is, if Jesus appears now. It is the timing that is uncertain. Some manuscripts say "when" {N}.
9. Or, "is revealed", referring to His second coming, as in 3:2; Col 3:4; 1 Pet 5:4. On this word, see "made evident" in v 19.
10. Or, "boldness". Same word as in 3:21; 4:17; and 5:14. On this word, see Heb 4:16.
11. Or, "disgraced, ashamed". Same word as in 2 Cor 10:8; Phil 1:20. Elsewhere only as "ashamed" in Lk 16:3; 1 Pet 4:16. GK 159. Related to "be ashamed" in Rom 1:16.
12. John is referring to the objective result of Christ's judgment, 2 Cor 5:10. Or, "from, away from, because of", so that it says "shrink in shame from Him". In this case, John is continuing the reference to our subjective state at that time, giving the opposite of "confidence". An objective putting to shame would produce a subjective shrinking in shame, so John may have had both in mind. Compare Mk 8:38. GK 608.
13. Or, "recognize, understand". Not the same word as next, but they are often used interchangeably. Used 318 times. GK 3857.
14. Some take both "He" and "Him" in this verse to refer to Jesus; others, to the Father. Others take "He" as Jesus and "Him" as the Father—if you know that Jesus (the One having been fathered by God, 5:18) is righteous, you know that everyone doing righteousness like Jesus has also been fathered by God, because of the family resemblance.
15. Or, "understand". Or, this could be a command, "Know that...". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
16. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
17. Same phrase as in 3:7, 10. Compare "doing sin" in Jn 8:34.
18. Or, "fathered, begotten". God is our Father when we are born again. Same word as in 3:9; 4:7; 5:1, 4, 18; Jn 1:13; and Jn 3:3-8, "born" again. This is the old word "begat" used in genealogies. It is used of the man "fathering, becoming the father of, begetting", as in Mt 1:2-16; 1 Cor 4:15; Phm 10; of the woman "bearing", as in Lk 1:13; 23:29; Jn 16:21; and of the child as "born, being begotten, being fathered", as here. Used 97 times. On its use with reference to Christ, see 5:18. GK 1164. Related word in 1 Pet 1:3.
19. Or, "of", "fathered by". Same word as "by" in Mt 1:18. GK 1666.
20. John explains this concept next, connecting our being born as God's children to our living like Jesus in righteousness. We do righteousness because we are born from Him. Therefore we are like Him now, and will also be like Him when He comes.
21. Or, "what sort of". Same word as in Mt 8:27; Lk 1:29; 7:39; 2 Pet 3:11. Elsewhere only as "what" in Mk 13:1. GK 4534. Based on the context here, John means "how great, how wonderful".
22. That is, by God Himself!
23. Same word as in 1 Jn 3:2, 10; 5:2; 2 Jn 1, 4, 13; 3 Jn 4; and Jn 1:12; Rom 8:16, 17, 21; Eph 2:3; 5:1, 8; Phil 2:15. Used 99 times. GK 5451. Related to "little children" in 2:1.
24. Some manuscripts omit "And we are" {A}.
25. Some think this looks back, "because we are His children"; others, forward, "because it did not know Him".
26. Some think John means the Father, as Jesus taught in Jn 15:21; 16:2-3; others, Jesus, as in Jn 1:10.
27. Or, "been made known, been revealed". On this word, see "made evident" in 2:19. More literally, "did not yet appear" or "was not yet revealed". In English idiom, we prefer to say "has not". Some render this verse "Beloved, we are now children of God, and He has not yet appeared. We know what we will be, because if He appears, we will be like Him..."
28. Some manuscripts say "But we know" {N}.
29. Or, "is revealed". Same word as earlier in the verse, v 5, and v 8.
30. That is, "[fixed] on Him".
31. That is, doing righteousness, 2:29. As God's children looking forward to the fullness of what we shall be, we strive now to be holy as He is holy. We strive to become like our Father. Those living this way will have confidence when He comes, 2:28. Same word as in Jam 4:8; 1 Pet 1:22. Elsewhere only in Jn 11:55; Act 21:24, 26; 24:18. GK 49. Related to "pure" in 1 Pet 3:2; and "purification" in Act 21:26 (GK 50).
32. On "doing sin", see Jn 8:34.
33. That is, rebellion against law. Same word as in Mt 7:23; 13:41; 23:28; 24:12; Rom 6:19; 2 Cor 6:14; 2 Thes 2:3, 7; Tit 2:14; Heb 1:9. Elsewhere only in the plural, as "lawless-deeds" in Rom 4:7; Heb 10:17. GK 490.
34. Same word as in Jn 1:29, "takes away the sins of the world". Some manuscripts say "our sins" {A}. GK 149.
35. Doing sin is contradictory to Christ's mission. How can you have your hope in Him (v 3) who came to take away sins, and be doing sin?
36. More literally, "And sin is not in Him".
37. Or, "continuing to sin". That is, continuing in sin as a pattern of life. See v 9. The same word is used of the devil in v 8. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
38. On this word, see 2:1. Some manuscripts say "children" {N}, using the word in 2:14.
39. Or, "is continuing to sin since the beginning". In English idiom, we say "has been sinning". John is not making an historical statement about the devil (he "has sinned"), but is describing his habitual course of action (he "is sinning") from the beginning.
40. Compare Jn 8:41. On this word, see Rev 12:9.

- 4E. Everyone having been born¹ from God is not doing^A sin— because His seed² is abiding^B in him, and he is not able³ to be sinning,⁴ because he has been born from God 9
- 5E. By this, the children^C of God and the children of the devil are evident⁵ 10
- 2C. Everyone not⁶ doing^A righteousness^D is not from God⁷— and⁸ the one not loving^E his brother⁹
- 1D. Because this is the message¹⁰ which you heard from the beginning¹¹— that we should be loving^E one another 11
- 1E. Not as Cain. He was of the evil^F one, and he slew¹² his brother 12
- 1E. And for what reason did he slay him? Because his works^G were evil^F, but the ones of his brother were righteous^H
- 1G. And¹³ do not be marveling¹⁴, brothers¹⁵, if the world hates^J you! 13
- 2D. We know^K that we have passed from death into life¹⁶, because we are loving^E the brothers 14
- 1E. The one not loving¹⁷ is abiding^B in death¹⁸
- 2E. Everyone hating^J his brother is a murderer¹⁹. And you know^K that every murderer does not have²⁰ eternal life abiding^B in him 15
- 3D. By this we have come-to-know²¹ love^L— because that One laid-down His life²² for us. And we ought^M to lay-down our lives^N for the brothers^O 16
- 1E. But whoever has the goods²³ of the world^P, and sees²⁴ his brother having a need^Q, and shuts^R his deep-feelings^S from him, how is the love^L of God²⁵ abiding in him²⁶? 17
- 4D. Little children,²⁷ let us not be loving^E with word^T nor tongue^U, but in deed^G and truth^V. And²⁸ by this, we will know²⁹ that we are of the truth³⁰, and we will persuade³¹ our heart³² before Him³³ 18
- 1E. Because³⁴ if our heart is condemning³⁵ us, we know that God is greater³⁶ than our hearts, and He knows^W all things 20
- 2E. Beloved^X, if our³⁷ heart is not condemning *us*³⁸, we have confidence³⁹ before God. And⁴⁰ whatever we are asking, we are receiving from Him, because we are keeping^Y His commandments^Z, and doing^A the pleasing⁴¹ things in His sight 21
- 1E. And this is His commandment^Z— that we believe^{AA} in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and that we be loving^E one another, just as He gave us the commandment⁴² 23
- 2E. And the one keeping^Y His commandments is abiding^B in Him, and He in him⁴³ 24
- 3E. And by this we know^W that He is abiding in us— from the Spirit⁴⁴ Whom He gave to us
- 4B. Beloved^X, do not be believing^{AA} every spirit,⁴⁵ but be testing⁴⁶ the spirits to see if they are from God, because many false-prophets^{BB} have gone out into the world 4:1

1. Or, "fathered". The same word occurs later in this verse. On this word, see 2:29.
2. We have been fathered by God. His life implanted in us changes us from within just as the life flowing in the vine produces fruit. If His life is in us, we cannot continue living contrary to His nature. If we have His life we will be growing in accordance with that life, as all living things do. In this view, His "seed" is the divine nature (2 Pet 1:4). Others think the seed is the Holy Spirit; others, His word; others, Christians ("because His offspring is abiding in Him").
3. Or, "he cannot". This word means "can, is able, is capable, has the power or ability to". Used 210 times. GK 1538. Related to "power" in Mk 5:30; "powerful" in Lk 24:19; and "empower" in Col 1:11.
4. John does not mean that God's children never sin, as he made clear in 1:8-10, but that they cannot continue to live in sin as a pattern of life. Same concept as in v 6. The children of God and the devil are seen in their pattern of life. This is similar to 1:6-7. God's children are walking in the light, not walking in the darkness. They are living like their Father. By this we can tell the difference, v 10. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
5. Or, "known, manifest, clear". On this word, see Rom 1:19. Related to the verb in 1 Jn 2:19.
6. Note that what John stated positively in 2:29, he states negatively here. Others join this to point 5E., and start the new point here with v 11.
7. That is, belonging to God, born from God, originating in God.
8. With this, John makes a transition from righteousness to love as the character quality of abiding in Christ (2:28). He begins with a negative statement instead of a positive one (as in 2:29).
9. That is, his fellow Christian. On this word, see Act 16:40.
10. On this word, see 1:5.
11. That is, the beginning of your Christian life.
12. Same word as "slay" next. Elsewhere only in Rev 5:6, 9, 12; 6:4, 9; 13:3, 8; 18:24. GK 5377. Related to "slaughter" in Act 8:32.
13. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
14. The grammar implies "stop marveling". This incident should cause us to expect the world to hate us, as Jesus Himself said in Jn 15:19-20. Righteous living before God brings hate from the world. Compare 2 Tim 3:12. On this word, see Rev 17:8.
15. Some manuscripts say "my brothers" {N}.
16. This phrase was used by Jesus in Jn 5:24.
17. Some manuscripts add "his brother"; others, "the brother" {A}.
18. This is such a person's natural state. He remains in death and darkness, Jn 12:46; 1 Jn 2:9.
19. As Jesus taught in Mt 5:21-26. Literally, a "person-killer", like Cain. Elsewhere only in Jn 8:44. GK 475.
20. In English, we prefer to say "no murderer has". Compare Rev 21:8.
21. Or, "have known". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
22. This phrase was used by Jesus in Jn 10:11, 15, 17; 15:13.
23. Or, "means, livelihood, living, what it takes to live". On this word, see "life" in 2:16.
24. Or, "observes, looks at, perceives". Used only here in this book. On this word, see Lk 10:18.
25. Some think John means "love for God" as in 4:20; others, "God's love", as with eternal life in v 15; others, the God-kind of love.
26. As James said, Jam 2:15-17. God's love is not in him.
27. Some manuscripts say "My little children" {N}.
28. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
29. Some manuscripts say "we know" {A}.
30. That is, that we belong to the truth, and originate in it.
31. Or, "convince". This word can also mean "conciliate, pacify, set at ease, assure", and some prefer this nuance here. By loving in deed and truth, we will have confidence and not be ashamed if He appears, 2:28. With differing grammar, this word means "convince, persuade, win over, put confidence, have confidence, trust, obey". Used 52 times. GK 4275.
32. Some think John is referring to our conscience (a word John never uses). On this word, see Rev 2:23.
33. Both now, and when He comes, 2:28.
34. Instead of "because if... that", some punctuate the Greek words so that they mean "whatever thing" (the same idiom as in Col 3:17). In this case, John means "we will persuade our heart before Him—whatever thing our heart is condemning—because God is greater...". Others render this verse "Because if our heart is condemning us, because God is greater", the second "because" resuming the first. Since it is redundant, it is omitted in translation, as in the KJV. There are other views.
35. Or, "blaming, laying a charge against, passing judgment on, convicting". We persuade our heart that we are from or of the truth, that we are God's children, in spite of that for which our heart is still condemning us. Same word as in v 21, on which see Gal 2:11.
36. We persuade ourselves by our love in action, because it proves we are His. We know He sees more than what our hearts are saying. He sees our pattern of life as His children. God's love working in us and through us gives us confidence when our hearts point us to a failure. In addition, as ones walking in the light, we respond to what our heart is saying, 1:9. For the one walking in the light, the fact that God knows us absolutely is a source of comfort and assurance, because the light exposes our works, Jn 3:21. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
37. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, leaving it implied.
38. Some manuscripts include this pronoun {B}.
39. Or, "boldness". Same word as in 2:28, and pointing back to that verse. Doing righteousness (3:1-9) and loving the brothers (3:10-24) gives us this confidence, because it proves our mutual relationship (v 24) is genuine.
40. This verse gives one aspect of that confidence. Compare 5:14-15.
41. On this adjective, see Jn 8:29.
42. That is, in Jn 15:12.
43. This explains why this person's requests are answered, Jn 15:7.
44. That is, the Spirit promised in Jn 14:16-17, 23-26; 15:26; 16:13-15.
45. That is, as a spirit presents itself in the teachings of a human being. John now gives a warning regarding the "antichrists" mentioned in 2:18-19.
46. Or, "examining, putting to the test, proving by testing". On this word, see "approve" in Rom 12:2.

- 1C. By this you know¹ the Spirit of God²— 2
- 1D. Every spirit³ that is confessing^A Jesus Christ as having come⁴ in the flesh^B is from God
- 2D. And every spirit that is not confessing Jesus⁵ is not from God 3
- 1E. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist^C— which, you have heard that it is coming, and now it is already in the world
- 2C. You are from God,⁶ little children, and you have overcome^D them⁷. Because greater is the *One*⁸ in you than the one in the world⁹ 4
- 3C. They¹⁰ are from the world.¹¹ For this reason they are speaking from the world, and the world is listening-to them 5
- 4C. We¹² are from God. The one knowing^E God is listening-to¹³ us. He who is not from God is not listening-to us. From this¹⁴, we know^E the Spirit¹⁵ of truth¹⁶ and the spirit of error¹⁷ 6
- 4A. Beloved^F, let us be loving^G one another 7
- 1B. Because the love¹⁸ is from God! And everyone loving has been born¹⁹ from God, and knows^E God
- 1C. The one not loving did not know^E God, because God is love²⁰ 8
- 2B. By this²¹ God's love²² was made-known²³ among²⁴ us— that God has sent-forth²⁵ His only-born²⁶ Son into the world in order that we might live^H through Him 9
- 1C. In this is love²⁷— not that we have loved²⁸ God, but that He loved us, and sent-forth His Son to be the satisfaction²⁹ for our sins 10
- 3B. Beloved^F, if God loved^G us in-this-manner³⁰, we also ought³¹ to be loving^G one another³² 11
- 1C. No one has ever seen³³ God; if we are loving one another,³⁴ God is abiding^I in us, and His love³⁵ has been perfected³⁶ in us 12
- 1D. By this we know^E that we are abiding in Him, and He in us— because He has given to us of His Spirit³⁷ 13
- 2D. And we have seen³⁸, and are testifying³⁹ that the Father has sent-forth the Son to be Savior^K of the world^L. *Whoever confesses⁴⁰ that Jesus is the Son of God,⁴¹ God is abiding in him, and he in God 14
- 3D. And we⁴² have come-to-know⁴³ and have believed⁴⁴ the love which God has in⁴⁵ us 15

1. Or, "recognize". Or, this may be a command, "By this, know...". This word is used twice in v 6. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
2. Or, "the spirit from God", maintaining the same sense as in "every spirit" in v 1 and next.
3. That is, as presented in a human being.
4. Or, "Jesus as Christ having come", or, "Jesus Christ having come in the flesh". Compare 2:22; 5:1; 2 Jn 7; Rom 10:9. That is, confess the person we know as Jesus Christ (including all that He is and did) as having come from the Father in genuine human flesh. All this is summed up in the next verse in one word, "Jesus".
5. Some manuscripts add "as having come in the flesh" {A}.
6. That is, you belong to Him, and originate in Him, being born from Him.
7. That is, the false prophets (v 1) who are not confessing Jesus (v 3).
8. That is, the God you are from, whom we know abides in us from the Spirit He gave us, 3:24. He leads us to hear Him and His messengers, instead of continuing to hear the world. By this we know He abides in us.
9. That is, the evil one, 5:19.
10. That is, the false prophets, v 1.
11. That is, they belong to the world which is passing away, and originate in it.
12. Some think John means "We apostles"; others, "We Christian apostles and teachers"; others, "We Christians"; the same group as "you" in v 4.
13. That is, listening and obeying.
14. Some think this refers to v 6a, the second test; others, to all of v 1-6, to both tests. John usually says "by (GK 1877) this", as in v 2. This is the only place in this book he says "from (GK 1666) this".
15. Or, "spirit", in the same sense as "every spirit" in v 1-3.
16. John may mean "belonging to the truth", or, "speaking truth". Likewise with "error" next.
17. Or, "deception". On this word, see 1 Thes 2:3. Related to "deceive" in 1:8; 2:26; 3:7.
18. Or, "this love"; or, "love". Some think John means the love just mentioned; because the Christian love we express to one another comes from God. Others think he means "love" in an abstract sense.
19. Or, "fathered". This love indicates we have a living relationship with God. Christian love flows from our being born from God, and our growing knowledge of God. On this word, see 2:29.
20. The one not loving in this manner could not have known the One who is love.
21. This is how we came to know this love—by what God did for us.
22. Or, "the love of God".
23. Same word as in 1:2.
24. Or, "in connection with us"; or, "in us", in the new life He has given us. GK 1877.
25. Same word as in Jn 5:36, 38; 6:29; 7:29; 8:42; 11:42; 17:3, 8, 18, 21; 20:21; 1 Jn 4:10, 14; etc. On this word, see "send out" in Mk 3:14.
26. Or, "one and only, unique, only begotten". On this word, see Jn 1:18.
27. God's love defines what love really is. True love is defined not by what we do, by how we conceive of it, by our devotion, but by what God has done in sending His Son. Compare 3:16.
28. Some manuscripts say "we loved" {B}.
29. Or, "propitiation". On this word, see 2:2.
30. Or, "if God so loved us", that is, loved us to such an extent. On this word, see Jn 3:16.
31. This word is used to express an obligation or debt. Same word as in Jn 13:14; Rom 15:1; Eph 5:28; 2 Thes 1:3; 1 Jn 2:6; 3:16; 3 Jn 8. It also means "have to" in Heb 2:17; "obligated" in Lk 17:10; Heb 5:3, 12; "indebted" in Lk 11:4; and "owe" in Mt 18:28; Rom 13:8; Phm 18. Used 35 times. GK 4053. Related to "debtors" in Rom 1:14; "due" in 1 Cor 7:3; and "debt" in Rom 4:4.
32. We expect John to say "loving God", as he does in v 20, 21. Fully stated, this should be "we ought to be loving God. And if we love God, we ought to be loving one another (His children)". What explains this jump? What justifies drawing this command to love one another from God's love for us? Four answers follow.
33. First, we cannot see God, but we do see His children. If we are loving them, then God is abiding in us. Thus the jump in v 11 is from what we cannot see to what we can see in ourselves. The love we express to one another demonstrates not only that we love God, but that He is abiding in us and loving through us. The command is justified because such love demonstrates that God is dwelling in us.
34. That is, with the love from God (v 7), made known to us in His Son (v 9).
35. Literally, "the love of Him". Some think John means "His love for us"; others, "our love for Him"; others, both, the love that characterizes Him which we express to one another.
36. Or, "brought to completion, brought to its goal, brought to full development". This is a participle, meaning it "is having been perfected", it stands perfected. Same word as in v 17, 18; and in 2:5, where keeping His word is the subject. On this word, see Heb 2:10.
37. Or, "from His Spirit". Love does not and cannot stand alone as a witness that God is abiding in us. The love in view here is inseparably linked to two other witnesses. The Spirit is the second witness.
38. Our confession of Christ is the third witness. Some think the emphatic "we" here refers to John and the eyewitnesses. Our confession of Jesus (v 15) is then in response to their eyewitness testimony. Others think the "we" refers to all Christians. We all see and confess Him, using "see" in the sense of Spirit-directed sight. Same word as in v 12 and 1:1; Jn 1:14, 32; 11:45. Used 22 times, all rendered "see" except Lk 7:24; Jn 4:35, "look-at". GK 2517.
39. Both "seen and 'testifying'" are the same words as in 1:1-2.
40. The grammar indicates that an act of confession is in view. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12.
41. Note how John links together Christ's person (Son of God) and His work (Savior of the world).
42. John's and each Christian's personal testimony is now added to the previous three witnesses.
43. Or, "have known". Same word as in 2:3, 4; 3:16.
44. Some manuscripts say "and believe" {N}.
45. Some think John means "in connection with us", as seen in the cross; others, "in us", abiding in us, as "has in" is used in 5:10 and in 3:15. We know He is abiding in us because we have personally experienced His love in us.

- 2C. God is love¹; and the one abiding^A in the love² is abiding in God, and God is abiding³ in him
- 1D. By this,⁴ the love⁵ has been perfected⁶ with⁷ us in-order-that⁸ we may have confidence⁹ 17 on the day of judgment^B, because¹⁰ just as that One is, we also are,¹¹ in this world
- 1E. Fear¹² is not in¹³ love¹⁴— rather, perfect¹⁵ love throws¹⁶ fear out¹⁷, because fear has¹⁸ 18 punishment¹⁹— and the one fearing has not been perfected in love
- 2E. We²⁰ are loving²¹ because He first loved us 19
- 3C. If²² someone claims^C that “I love God” and is hating^D his brother^E, he is a liar. For the one not 20 loving^F his brother whom he has seen, cannot²³ be loving^F God Whom he has not seen
- 4C. And we have this commandment^G from Him— that the one loving^F God should be loving his 21 brother also
- 4B. Everyone believing^H that Jesus is the Christ has been born²⁴ from God. And everyone loving^F the 5:1
One having fathered²⁵ is loving also²⁶ the one having been born²⁷ from Him
- 1C. By this we know^I that we are loving^F the children²⁸ of God— when²⁹ we are loving God and 2
doing³⁰ His commandments³¹
- 1D. For this is the love of God³²— that we be keeping^K His commandments³³ 3
- 1E. And His commandments are not burdensome³⁴

1. Now John moves from what we cannot see (v 12) to what we do know. Thus the jump in v 11 is from what we do know about God to what we can see in ourselves. We know that God is love because of v 9. Loving one another demonstrates that we are in a mutual abiding relationship with Him. The command is justified because such love demonstrates a personal relationship with God. This is the word agape. Same word as in Mt 24:12; Jn 13:35; 15:10; Rom 5:5; 8:35; 13:10; 15:30; 1 Cor 13:4; 2 Cor 5:14; Gal 5:6; Eph 3:17; Phil 1:9; 1 Thes 5:13; 1 Tim 1:5; Heb 10:24; 2 Pet 1:7; 1 Jn 2:15; 3:16; 5:3; Jude 21. Used 116 times. GK 27. Related to “devotedly-love” in Jn 21:15.
2. Or, “this love”; or, “love”. That is, the love just mentioned; the love that God is, and inspires in us.
3. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
4. Some think this refers to the preceding verse, “By this mutual abiding”, as here, NIV, NASB. By means of this mutual abiding, this love has been brought to its goal with us, that we may have confidence. Others think this refers to the next clause, “In this the love has been perfected with us— that we have confidence”, as in NKJV, NRSV. This love is brought to its goal in our confidence regarding the day of judgment, in the casting out of fear. There are other views.
5. That is, the love just mentioned, God’s love in which we are abiding, v 16. Some place the emphasis on its being God’s love ; others, on our abiding in it, on its being our love; others on both, on the mutual relationship of love.
6. Same word as in v 12.
7. Some link this to the noun as “the love with us”, taking this to mean “our love”. Most take it with the verb, “perfected with us”. In this case, some think John means “together with us”, with our cooperation, in company with us; others, “among us”, in our mutual love as Christians. Used elsewhere in this book only of fellowship “with” in 1:3, 6, 7; and remaining “with” in 2:19. Used also in 2 Jn 2, 3, “will be with us”. GK 3552.
8. Or, “so that we will have confidence”. GK 2671.
9. Same word as in 2:28. God’s love has been perfected with us now, in our behavior, because we love as He does. This results in confidence before Him both now and regarding that future day, as John also said in 3:18-21.
10. This explains why we have this confidence. On this word, see Eph 5:21.
11. Some think John means “because just as Jesus is abiding in the Father’s love, we also are abiding in it”, reflecting what Jesus said in Jn 15:9-10. Others think he means “because we are like Jesus in character”. If he specifically means “because just as Jesus is loving, we are loving”, then v 19 explains this phrase. There are other views.
12. This explains with a negative argument why such love produces confidence. The love that comes to us as God’s gift and is perfected in a mutual abiding relationship brings no fear with it. Quite the opposite.
13. This reflects the Greek word order and grammar. In English, we prefer to say “There is no fear in love”, where “in” means “in connection with, in the sphere of, within”. GK 1877.
14. More literally “the love”, as also later in the verse. John could mean specifically the love under discussion here in v 16-17, “Fear is not in this love”. Or he could be making his specific point by referring here to a universal truth about love.
15. Or, “complete, fully developed”. Related to the verb “perfected” in v 12, 17, 18. On this word, see “complete” in 1 Cor 13:10.
16. Or, “puts, casts, drives”. On this word, see Rev 2:22.
17. Fear is part of a relationship based on performance, with punishment for failure. A mutual relationship of love not based on performance eliminates all fear.
18. Some think John means fear has to do with punishment; others, that fear brings or contains punishment by anticipating it.
19. Elsewhere only in Mt 25:46. GK 3136. The related verb is in 2 Pet 2:9.
20. This explains with a positive argument why such love produces confidence. Our love is a result of the relationship, not a cause of it. It is the visible result of our relationship with the invisible God.
21. Both God and others are in view. Some manuscripts add “God”; others, “Him” {A}.
22. John now makes the same point from the negative side. The failure to love the brother who is seen demonstrates that no relationship with the loving God exists, no matter what is claimed. The command to love one another is justified by the fact that no other course is possible for those who know Him. If God’s love is not flowing through us to others, then we have no relationship with Him.
23. Some manuscripts say “how can he...” {A}, as in 3:17. John gives the rhetorical question in 3:17; the categorical denial here.
24. Or, “fathered”. Same word as later in the verse, and as “fathered” next. On this word, see 2:29.
25. There is a change in the grammar of this word here, reflected in the change from “born” to “fathered”.
26. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
27. That is, “everyone loving the [God] having fathered [us] is loving also the [brother] having been born from Him”. Or, “... having been fathered from Him”.
28. This refers back to “the one having been born from Him” in v 1.
29. That is, when the loving the children is occurring together with the loving God and obeying.
30. On this word, see Rev 13:13. Some manuscripts say, “keeping” {B}.
31. We know we are loving our brothers, God’s children, with love from God (4:7) when our love is part of our full family relationship with God and them. Human affection, friendship, and philanthropy alone are not “the love which God has in us”. For John, loving the brothers cannot be separated from, and does not exist apart from the three other aspects of the family relationship— loving God, keeping His commandments, believing in His Son. For John, these four things exist together, or not at all. He has already said we cannot claim to love God and leave out one of the other three. Here he is saying we cannot claim to love the brothers and leave out one of the other three. In v 2-5, John binds together the four concepts, along with faith, being born from God, and victory over the world, into one inseparable unit.
32. That is, love for God.
33. Since these commandments include “believe in His Son” and “love one another” (3:23), the four ideas are linked together again.
34. Or, “heavy”. Compare Mt 11:30. Same word as “heavy” in Mt 23:4, of the load imposed by the Pharisees. On this word, see “weighty” in Act 25:7.

- 2D. Because everything¹ having been born^A from God is being-victorious-over² the world³ 4
- 1E. And this is the victory⁴ having been-victorious-over⁵ the world— our faith^B!
- 3D. And⁶ who is the one being-victorious-over the world if not the one believing⁷ that Jesus is the Son of God! 5
- 1E. This *One*⁸ is the One having come⁹ by¹⁰ water and blood¹¹— Jesus Christ (not in¹² the water only,¹³ but in the water and in¹⁴ the blood). And the Spirit is the One testifying¹⁵— because¹⁶ the Spirit is the truth^C 6
- 2E. Because¹⁷ the ones testifying are three¹⁸— *the Spirit and the water and the blood¹⁹— 7-8 and the three are for the one²⁰ thing. *If we receive^D the testimony of humans²¹, the 9

- 3E. Because²² this is the testimony of God— that²³ He has testified about His Son
- 1E. The one believing^E in the Son of God has the testimony in himself 10
- 2E. The one not believing^E God²⁴ has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony which God has testified about His Son²⁵
- 4E. And this is the testimony²⁶— that God gave us eternal^F life^G, and this life is in His Son 11
- 1E. The one having the Son has the life 12
- 2E. The one not having the Son of God does not have the life
- 2C. I wrote these²⁷ things to you, the ones believing in the name of the Son of God, in order that you may know^H that you have eternal life²⁸ 13
- 3C. And this is the confidence²⁹ which we have before Him— 14
- 1D. That if we request³⁰ anything according to His will,³¹ He hears us. *And if we know that He hears us— whatever we request— we know that we have the requests³² which we have requested from Him 15

1. John is stating a universal principle in the broadest generic terms. Whatever is born of God overcomes. He uses this idiom also in Jn 3:6; 6:37, 39; 17:2, 7, 24; 1 Jn 2:16.
2. Or, "overcoming". On this word, see "overcoming" in Rev 2:7. It is related to "victory" in this verse, and is rendered this way to show the relationship.
3. Those who love God will keep His commandments because they are born from God, and as His children, are overcoming the world and the sin in it. Love and obedience are inseparable; being victorious is inevitable.
4. That is, the means of victory or overcoming, the power that overcomes. The Greek word is nike. Used only here. GK 3772. Related to the preceding verb; and "victory" in 1 Cor 15:57.
5. Or, "having overcome". Some think John is referring to the victory that took place when we were born again. Others give it a present sense, "that overcomes", referring to the victory occurring at the same time as our "keeping His commands". There are other views.
6. John further defines the victorious one. Note the opposite question in 2:22. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
7. Or, "having faith". Related to "faith" in v 4. On this word, see Jn 3:36.
8. That is, Jesus the Son of God. Who is the one overcoming if not the one believing Jesus is the Son of God, because Jesus has a threefold divine witness to His identity.
9. That is, the One who came. This word points to His historical coming from God as Messiah and Savior. This "coming" corresponds to the "sending forth" in 4:10.
10. That is, "by means of, through". GK 1328.
11. The water and blood are two of the three witnesses testifying to Jesus the Son of God, the Spirit being the third, v 7. Some think they refer to His baptism (which was accompanied by His Father's witness, "This is My beloved Son"), and His death (which was a real death, and was accompanied by the witness of the resurrection). Others think they refer to His birth (note Jn 3:5), where He came in real flesh, and His dying a real death. Others think they refer to the "blood and water" that came from His side on the cross, proving the reality of His death, Jn 19:34. On "blood", see 1:7. There are other views. Consult the commentaries. Some manuscripts add "and Spirit" {A}.
12. Some think John means "in connection with"; others, "by, by means of"; others, "with, accompanied with". Some think no difference of meaning is intended between "by" earlier and "in" here, rendering all four "by". GK 1877.
13. Some were apparently teaching Jesus came in water only, which John denies here. The precise nature of this false teaching is uncertain, but it clearly involved some kind of denial of the death of Jesus the Son of God. Some think it involves the nature of the person Who died; others, the significance of His death. A denial that God truly took on human flesh and died would be in keeping with the emphasis in 4:2; 2 Jn 7. Some think John is refuting a heresy at that time which accepted that Jesus was God's Messiah who began His mission at His baptism, but denied that His death had any significance, the divine Christ having left the human Jesus in Gethsemane. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
14. Note that earlier John referred to the water and blood as if they were a single concept, "by water and blood". Here and in v 7 he refers to each one independently. Some think the unified concept refers to His life or ministry as a whole, the individuality to the separate historical events that begin and end it. There are other views.
15. Or, "bearing witness". This verb is in v 6, 7, 9, 10. The related noun "testimony" is used 6 times in v 9-11. See Jn 1:7 on both.
16. The Spirit is presently adding His testimony to the two historical witnesses because the Spirit is the truth. It is His nature and His ministry to testify to the truth about Jesus. Compare Jn 15:26; 16:13.
17. Here John gives the significance of these three witnesses to his point. They are three divine witnesses to Jesus. Who is the one overcoming (v 5), if not the one believing the three divine witnesses?
18. Some manuscripts add at this point, three "in heaven— The Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. And the ones giving testimony on the earth are three"— the Spirit.... {A}.
19. Some give the water and blood a different meaning here than in v 6. Several symbolic meanings are suggested. Others think they mean the same thing in both places.
20. That is, the three witnesses are in agreement. They testify to one and the same thing, in keeping with Deut 19:15.
21. That is, if the testimony of human witnesses is accepted as sufficient evidence for a matter, how much more the testimony of divine witnesses! John appeals to our general human practice of believing three witnesses. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
22. Here John emphasizes the finality of this testimony. God's testimony is that He has spoken on this matter. The one believing Jesus is the Son of God is overcoming because He is believing what God said.
23. Same construction and meaning as in v 11, 14. Compare 2:25; 3:11, 23; 5:4. Some manuscripts say "which" {N}, so that it says "Because this is the testimony of God which He...".
24. Some manuscripts say "the Son" {A}.
25. God said, "This is My beloved Son", Mt 3:17; 2 Pet 1:16-18. To not believe this is to call Him a liar. Note the reverse in Jn 3:33, and the similar statement in Jn 3:18.
26. Now John states the content of the testimony God has given. His testimony is regarding both the person of Jesus (He is God's Son) and the mission of Jesus (God gave us eternal life in Him). Thus the one believing Jesus is the Son of God overcomes the world because there is a threefold witness to His identity, because God Himself has testified concerning His Son, and because God's testimony is that He gave us eternal life in His Son.
27. That is, the things regarding loving God, loving one another, being born from God, keeping His commands, and believing in His Son concerning whom God has testified and in whom is eternal life. This is the conclusion of chapter 5. Others give this a narrower focus as point 5E., concluding v 5-12 only; others, a broader focus as point 5A., concluding the whole book.
28. Some manuscripts add "and that you may believe in the name of the Son of God" {N}. Compare John 20:31.
29. That is, what we know with confidence, picking up from v 13. Same word as in 2:28.
30. This word means "ask, ask for, request". Used four times in v 14-16. Used 70 times. GK 160. Related to the noun in v 15.
31. As Jesus did in Lk 22:42. Compare 3:22.
32. Elsewhere only in Lk 23:24; Phil 4:6. GK 161.

- 1E. If anyone sees¹ his brother² sinning^A a sin^B not *leading*³ to death⁴, he shall request, 16 and He⁵ will give him life⁶— for the ones sinning a sin not leading to death
2E. There is a sin leading to death.⁷ I am not saying that he should pray⁸ about that
3E. All unrighteousness^C is sin, and there is sin not leading to death 17
- 2D. We know^D that everyone having been born⁹ from God is not sinning¹⁰ 18
- 1E. But the One having been fathered¹¹ from God is keeping¹² him¹³
2E. And the evil^E one is not touching¹⁴ him
- 3D. We know^D that we are from God, and the whole world^F lies^G in¹⁵ the evil^E one 19
4D. And we know^D that the Son of God has come^H, and has given us understanding^I in order 20 that we might know¹⁶ the true¹⁷ One
5D. And we are in¹⁸ the true One, in His Son Jesus Christ
- 1E. This¹⁹ One is the true God and eternal life
2E. Little-children^K, guard²⁰ yourselves from idols²¹ 21

1. That is, observes an outward sinful action about which one might pray that God would forgive—such as Peter denying the Lord; the people crucifying Christ (Lk 23:34); stoning Stephen (Act 7:60); hating a brother (1 Jn 3:15); not meeting the physical need of a brother (3:17); loving the world (2:15); sinning (3:6); etc. John moves from prayer in general (v 14-15) to prayer for a brother in need in particular. On this word, see Lk 2:26.
2. Some think John means a professing Christian; others, a genuine Christian; others, a non-Christian, “a neighbor”. The question arises due to the uncertainty regarding the meaning of “death” and “life” later.
3. Same idiom as a “sickness leading to death” in Jn 11:4.
4. Some think John means “spiritual, eternal death”; others, “physical death”, as in 1 Cor 11:30.
5. Some think John means God. We request, God gives. Others think he means the one requesting, “he will give...”, as in Jam 5:20.
6. Some think John means physical life; others, spiritual vitality and fellowship; others, salvation.
7. What is this sin? The answer depends on whether John is referring to physical death or spiritual, eternal death. If the former, it could be any sin leading to this level of discipline from God, as in Act 5:5, 10; 1 Cor 11:30. If the latter, some think it is the same thing as the blasphemy of the Spirit in Mk 3:30. Some define it as the sin of apostasy. The ones in 1 Jn 2:19, 22 who went out from us teaching lies about Jesus are an example. Others define it as knowing and deliberate rejection of Christ, as in Heb 6:4-6; 10:26-29. There are other views. Consult the commentaries.
8. Or, “ask, question”. Used only here in 1 John. On this word, see Jn 17:9. Some think it is synonymous with “request” in v 16. Others think that it implies “that he should not question God on this”. In any case, this sin is different than the one in v 16, and is not a matter for us to ask about. This is the Father’s matter, which He will deal with based on His own will.
9. Same word as “fathered” next. These same two renderings also occur together in v 1.
10. As John said in 3:9.
11. Or, “born”. Same word as “born” earlier in the verse, but there is a change of grammar here. Some think John means Jesus. This word is used of Jesus in the sense of being “born” in Mt 2:1, 4; Lk 1:35; Jn 18:37; and in the sense of being “fathered” by God in Mt 1:20; Act 13:33; Heb 1:5; 5:5. Others render it “the one having been born from God keeps himself” from sin, referring to the Christian. On this word, see “born” in 2:29.
12. Same word as in Jn 17:11, 12, 15; and 1 Jn 2:3, 4, 5; 3:22, 24; 5:3. It means “keep” in the sense of “guarding” (Mt 27:54); “keeping watch over” (Act 12:6); “preserve” (1 Thes 5:23); “reserve” (see 2 Pet 2:17); and “obey, observe”. Used 70 times. GK 5498. Related to “jail” (the place of keeping) in Act 5:18.
13. Some manuscripts say “himself” {B}, in keeping with the latter of the two views on “fathered” in note 11.
14. That is, to bring him harm. On this word, see 1 Cor 7:1.
15. Or, “in the sphere of, in the domain of, in union with”. Some extend this to mean “in the power of, under the authority of”. GK 1877.
16. Some render this “so that we know”, giving the result rather than the purpose, a rendering further supported by some manuscripts {N}. On this word, see Lk 1:34.
17. That is, the real, genuine God. Used three times in this verse. Same word as the “true” God in Jn 17:3; 1 Thes 1:9; and as the “true” Light in 1 Jn 2:8. On this word, see Jn 7:28. Some manuscripts say “the true God” {A}.
18. Same word as “in” in v 19. We originate from God (v 19), and live in union with Him.
19. Grammatically this could refer to “Jesus Christ”, or “the true One”. Some think it would be redundant to say that the true One is the true God. John says here what he also says in Jn 1:1. Others think John repeats his reference to the Father to add emphasis to it and to prepare for his command regarding idols.
20. Or, “keep, protect”. Used only here in 1 John. On this word, see “keep” in Jn 12:25. Not related to “keep” in v 18.
21. Or, “images”. Some think John means literal idols, false gods, and the worship associated with them; others, anything that takes the place of God in one’s life, including false teachings (2:22-23; 4:3) and improper desires (2:15). Compare Col 3:5; Eph 5:5. There are other views. Elsewhere only in Act 7:41; 15:20; Rom 2:22; 1 Cor 8:4, 7; 10:19; 12:2; 2 Cor 6:16; 1 Thes 1:9; Rev 9:20. GK 1631. Some manuscripts add “amen” {A}.

But I hope to come-to-be³⁷ with you and to speak mouth to mouth³⁸, in order that our³⁹ joy may be full⁴⁰
- B. The children of your chosen sister greet^T you⁴¹ 13

1. This word is used in the sense of "older" (see 1 Tim 5:1); and "church leader" (see 1 Tim 5:17). Peter also referred to himself as an "elder" in 1 Pet 5:1. John could intend either meaning here. The same opening occurs in 3 Jn 1.
2. Same word as in v 13. On this word, see Rom 8:33.
3. Some think this is an individual, turning one or the other of these words into a person's name—"the chosen Kuria" (a known proper name), or the "lady Electa". Others think John is referring to a local congregation, and he is writing from another "sister" congregation, v 13. Elsewhere only in v 5. GK 3257. This is the feminine form of the word "lord, master, sir" (see "master" in Mt 8:2).
4. John could be referring to a lady and her biological children; a lady and her spiritual children (possibly a church meeting in her home); or a church and its congregation. On this word, see 1 Jn 3:1.
5. This word is plural, referring to the lady and her children.
6. Or, "in the truth", "in connection with the truth". GK 1877.
7. Paul made a similar statement about Prisca and Aquila in Rom 16:4.
8. Some manuscripts say "from the Lord Jesus Christ" {A}.
9. Some manuscripts say "you" {N}.
10. Or, "in truth". Same phrase as in 3 Jn 3.
11. Same word as in v 5, 6. Used 14 times in 1 John. The command we received is to believe in Jesus and love one another, 1 Jn 3:23. On this word, see Mk 12:28.
12. Some manuscripts say "I am writing" {N}, rendered "I wrote" by some.
13. Just as in 1 John, love, keeping His commandments (v 6), and confessing Christ (v 7-11) are inseparably linked.
14. Some manuscripts say "that just as..." {N}.
15. This word is plural, as is the next "you" in this verse. John turns from the lady to address them all.
16. Some think John means "love", the main subject in view; others, "commandment", the nearest choice; others, "truth" (v 4).
17. Same word as in 1 Jn 2:19; 4:1. Some manuscripts say "entered" {N}.
18. Same word as in 1 Jn 2:23; 4:3. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12.
19. That is, that Jesus truly became a man to become the satisfaction for sin. See 1 Jn 2:2; 4:2. On this word, see Col 2:23.
20. This exhortation is addressed to them all. All the pronouns and verbs in v 8 and v 10 are plural.
21. Some manuscripts say "we" {A}.
22. Or, "ruin, destroy, waste". Same word as in Jn 6:12, 39; 12:25; 18:9; etc. On this word, see "perish" in 1 Cor 1:18.
23. Some manuscripts say, "you" {B}. Thus the manuscripts present three variations, "we may not lose the things which we accomplished"; "you may not lose the things which you accomplished"; and "you may not lose the things which we accomplished".
24. Same word as in 3 Jn 5.
25. Or, "compensation". Paul also focused on this goal using the same word, 1 Cor 3:8, 14; 9:17, 18. See also Col 3:24; 2 Tim 4:8. On this word, see "recompense" in Rev 22:12.
26. Or, "leading forth, going before, advancing". Perhaps the deceivers used this word of their teaching—it is going ahead to a more advanced doctrine than that taught by the apostles. Same word as in Mt 2:9; 14:22; 21:9, 31; 26:32; 28:7; Mk 6:45; 10:32; 11:9; 14:28; 16:7; 1 Tim 5:24. Elsewhere only as "precede" in Lk 18:39; 1 Tim 1:18; Heb 7:18; "bring forth" in Act 12:6; 17:5; "bring before" in Act 25:26; and "bring" in Act 16:30. GK 4575. The root word is "bring, lead". Some manuscripts say "transgressing" {N}.
27. This could mean "the teaching about Christ"; or, "Christ's teaching".
28. Some manuscripts add "of Christ" {A}.
29. Some think John is referring to a false teacher coming to the church. An itinerant teacher/prophet who claims to speak for God but who denies Christ comes seeking to address the church meeting in your home. He comes "to you" (plural), the chosen lady and her children, v 1. The following verbs are plural. Others think that in addition, this is also an individual responsibility.
30. That is, this teaching about Christ.
31. Or, "take". That is, do not extend your hospitality to him, as you would to fellow Christians. On this word, see "taken" in Rom 7:8.
32. This word is used both of the initial greetings (the welcome) and the final greetings (the farewell), and John could have either in mind here. Either official or private greetings may be in view. On this word, see "rejoice" in 2 Cor 13:11. Not the same word as in v 13.
33. Or, "takes part with, participates in, takes a share with, partners with". Elsewhere only in Rom 12:13; 15:27; Gal 6:6; 1 Tim 5:22; Heb 2:14; 1 Pet 4:13; and as "partnered" in Phil 4:15. GK 3125. Related to "fellowship" in 1 Cor 1:9; and "sharer" in 2 Pet 1:4; and "common" in Jude 3.
34. This word is plural both times in this verse.
35. That is, a leaf of paper made from the separated layers of the papyrus plant. Used only here. GK 5925.
36. On this word, see 3 Jn 13, where John says "black and reed".
37. Or, "be". Same phrase as in 1 Cor 16:10. GK 1181.
38. We would say, "face to face" (as Paul does in 1 Cor 13:12). This same phrase occurs in 3 Jn 14.
39. Some manuscripts say "your" {B}.
40. This is a participle, "may be having been made full". Same idiom as in Jn 16:24.
41. This word is singular, referring to the lady. Some manuscripts add "Amen" {A}.

1. On this word, see 2 Jn 1.
2. Nothing is known of this man. This name is used elsewhere of three individuals, Act 19:29; 20:4; Rom 16:23 and 1 Cor 1:4. GK 1127.
3. Or, "in the truth". Same phrase as in 2 Jn 1.
4. In the Greek word order, "with respect to all things" comes first, before "I pray". Some take it with both verbs following; others, with "prosper" only, "that you may prosper with respect to all things, and be healthy".
5. Or, "succeed, go well". Same word as later in the verse. On this word, see Rom 1:10.
6. Or, "well, sound". Used of physical health and of doctrinal health or sound doctrine. On this word, see 1 Tim 1:10. May your life and health prosper as your soul prospers spiritually.
7. Same phrase as in 2 Jn 4.
8. That is, the truth characterizing your life. The same idiom is used in v 6 regarding Gaius's love.
9. Same word as in Act 15:14, in a similar context. Or, "just as, even as". GK 2777.
10. Or, "in truth". Same phrase as in 2 Jn 4.
11. Some manuscripts say, "grace, favor" {A}, meaning no greater favor from God.
12. Some manuscripts have this word singular, "this" {N}.
13. That is, a thing characterized by faith. On this word, see Col 1:2.
14. Or, "work, carry out, perform". Same word as 2 Jn 8. John is referring to showing hospitality to these brothers, and assisting them on their way. On this word, see "work" in Mt 26:10.
15. That is, for brothers who are strangers to you! It was remarkable then as it is now. Compare 1 Cor 6:6, 8. On this word, see "host" in Rom 16:23. Some manuscripts say "and for strangers" {N}.
16. That is, the love characterizing Gaius's life.

28. Perhaps it was a letter of recommendation for "the brothers". If so, Diotrephes ignored it and refused to accept them.
29. Or, "loving to have preeminence". Used only here. GK 5812.

42. Or, "borne witness". On this word, see Act 6:3. Same word as "testifying" next, with different grammar.
43. John is referring to himself.

Introduction	1-2
1A. Beloved, I had the necessity to write exhorting you to be contending for the faith delivered once for all. For certain ungodly ones sneaked in changing grace into sensuality	3-4
2A. Now I want to remind you that God judges unbelief and immorality	5-7
3A. Yet these dreaming ones defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme glories. Woe to them	8-11
4A. These ones are spots, waterless clouds, fruitless trees, wild waves, wandering stars. But Enoch prophesied their judgment	12-15
5A. These ones are grumblers, faultfinders, proceeding according to their own desires. But you, beloved, remember that the apostles said mockers would come	16-18
6A. These ones are the ones causing divisions— natural ones, not having the Spirit. But you, beloved keep yourselves in the love of God	19-23
7A. Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, God our Savior, be glory forever	24-25

- 1B. That the Lord²³, having once²⁴ saved²⁵ the people^S out of the land of Egypt, afterwards²⁶ destroyed^T the ones not having believed^U
- 2B. And He has kept²⁷ angels— the ones not having kept their own domain²⁸, but having left-behind²⁹ their own dwelling³⁰— in eternal³¹ bonds³² under gloom³³, for the judgment^V of the great day 6
- 3B. As³⁴ Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities³⁵ around them in like manner³⁶ to these³⁷— having indulged-in-sexual-immorality³⁸, and having gone after other³⁹ flesh— are set-forth^W as an example, undergoing the penalty⁴⁰ of eternal^X fire 7

1. Or, "Judah, Judas". This is the younger brother of James, and half-brother of Jesus. See Mt 13:55 on him.
2. That is, the leader of the church in Jerusalem, on whom, see Mt 13:55.
3. On this word, see "devotedly love" in Jn 21:15. Some manuscripts say "sanctified" {A}.

9. That is, the body of doctrine, the "apostles' teaching" about Christ, Act 2:42.
10. Or, "once, one time". Jesus delivered it one time only, but some are creeping in trying to change it. Same word as in Heb 9:26; 10:2; 1 Pet 3:18. Elsewhere only as "once" in 2 Cor 11:25; Phil 4:16; 1 Thes 2:18; Heb 6:4; 9:7, 27, 28; 12:26, 27; Jude 5. GK 562. Related word in Heb 7:27.
11. Or, "crept in, came in by the side". Used only here. GK 4208.
12. Or, "long ago, already, all this time". Elsewhere only as "long ago" (centuries ago) in Mt 11:21; Lk 10:13; Heb 1:1; "already" (hours ago) in Mk 15:44; "former" (your lifetime prior to Christ) in 2 Pet 1:9; and as "all this time" (in this letter) in 2 Cor 12:19. GK 4093. Related to "old".
13. Or, "written-of-beforehand". On this word, see Gal 3:1. Some think Jude means portrayed in 2 Pet 2-3. Note v 18. Others, in Paul's letters; others, in the book of Enoch mentioned in v 14-15; others, in the OT.
14. To what is Jude referring? Some think he means the sneaking in as false teachers; others, the judgment described in the remainder of the letter; others, the judgment contained in the faith once delivered, v 3. Others think the judgment described in 2 Pet 2:3 was in his mind.
15. This is the Greek word order. Or, this may be punctuated "the ungodly ones formerly having been...". Same word as in v 15.
16. Or, "altering" or more negatively, "perverting". On this word, see "removed" in Heb 11:5.
17. Same word as in 2 Tim 3:5; Tit 1:16; 2 Pet 2:1; 1 Jn 2:22, 23. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:12.
18. Or, "owner, sovereign lord, absolute ruler". Used of God or Christ in Lk 2:29; Act 4:24; 2 Tim 2:21; 2 Pet 2:1; Rev 6:10. Elsewhere only of human masters in 1 Tim 6:1, 2; Tit 2:9; 1 Pet 2:18. GK 1305. Some manuscripts say "denying the only Sovereign-Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ" {A}.
19. Some manuscripts say "Therefore" {N}.
20. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "remind you knowing all things".
21. Some think Jude means "although you are knowing"; others, "since you are knowing".
22. Instead of "all things", some manuscripts say "this" {D}.
23. Instead of "the Lord", some manuscripts say "Jesus"; others, "God" {D}.
24. That is, one time. Same word as "once for all" in v 3. Some manuscripts have this word in the previous phrase, "you are knowing all things once for all" {D}.
25. Or, "delivered, rescued". On this word, see Lk 19:10.
26. Or, "subsequently, next, secondly". The root word is "second" in 2 Cor 1:15.
27. Or, "reserved". Compare 2 Pet 2:4; 1 Pet 3:19. Same word as "reserved" in v 13.
28. Or, "rule", their sphere or position of rule or authority. This word often means "beginning" in various senses. Some think Jude means that these angels did not keep their "beginning", the state in which God created them. They rebelled. Others think he is referring to the place or position of rulership assigned to them by God. On this word, see "beginning" in Col 1:18.
29. Or, "abandoned". Same word as in 2 Tim 4:13, 20; Tit 1:5. Elsewhere only as "remain" in Heb 4:6, 9; 10:26. GK 657.
30. Or, "home, dwelling place, abode, habitation". Some think this means these angels came down from heaven to earth, and are the sons of God in Gen 6:2. Elsewhere only in 2 Cor 5:2. GK 3863.
31. Elsewhere only in Rom 1:20. GK 132.
32. Or, "bindings". On this word, see "imprisonment" in Phil 1:7.
33. Same word as in v 13. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:4.
34. Or, "Just as". By this word Jude moves on to a third example. Note the tenses, "destroyed" (v 5), "has kept" (v 6), "are set forth" (v 7). These cities stand as an example, still visible to all who go to see. On this word, see "as" in Mt 19:19.
35. That is, Admah and Zeboiim, Deut 29:23.
36. Some think Jude means "in like manner... having indulged", implying the angels in v 6 also went after "other" flesh. The similarity is in the sin. Others think he means "in like manner... are set forth", meaning all three illustrations in v 5-7 are examples of the punishment of sin, as in 2 Pet 2:6. The similarity is in their fate. There are other views.
37. This is the Greek word order of this verse. Some think Jude means "These angels" (v 6) who also sinned this way; others, "these Israelites and angels" (v 5-6) who were also judged by God. There are other views.
38. Used only here. GK 1745. Related to the verb in 1 Cor 6:18, "to commit sexual immorality". It is the word "go-a-whoring, play the harlot" in Gen 38:24; Ex 34:16; Lev 19:29; 21:9; Num 25:1; etc.
39. Or, "different". These two phrases modify "Sodom and Gomorrah", and refer to the homosexual intercourse recorded in their case, Gen 19:4-5. Those who think Jude means that this also describes the sin of angels find this in Gen 6:2, where the sons of God (taken to mean angels) took wives ("other flesh") from among humans. In this view, Jude 6; 2 Pet 2:4, 10; and 1 Pet 3:19 all refer to this event in Gen 6. On this word, see "different" in 1 Cor 12:9.
40. Or, "punishment". Same word as in 2 Thes 1:9. Elsewhere only as "justice" in Act 28:4. GK 1472.
41. These false teachers support their teachings with pretended prophetic revelations, visions they have in dreams. Elsewhere only in Act 2:17. GK 1965.
42. Same word as in Tit 1:15. Related to the words in 2 Pet 2:10, 20.
43. Or, "lordship, dominion". Same word as in 2 Pet 2:10, and same views as to the meaning.
44. Same word as in 2 Pet 2:10, and same views as to the meaning.

1. Elsewhere only in 1 Thes 4:16. GK 791. Made of two words, "angel", and a word meaning "beginning, first, preeminent, chief, ruler" (see "beginning" in Col 1:18). Thus it means, "the ruler of angels" or "the chief angel".
2. Or, "reasoning". On this word, see "reasoned" in Act 17:2.
3. Or, "pronounce, bring a charge against, assail, inflict". Michael did not dare to charge the devil with blasphemy, speaking against God. He left the pronouncing of that judgment to God. Note 2 Pet 2:11. Elsewhere only as "inflict" in Rom 3:5. GK 2214.
4. This incident is contained in a Jewish tradition outside the OT. Even angels superior to us do not blaspheme others, even when such ones are wrong. It may or may not imply that the "glories" in v 8 are angels.
5. Or, "naturally". Used only here. GK 5880. Related to the word in 2 Pet 2:12; and "nature" in Eph 2:3.
6. Same word as in 2 Pet 2:12. Elsewhere only as "unreasonable" in Act 25:27. GK 263.

9. Compare Gen 4:3-8; 1 Jn 3:12. Jude may mean "murdering people's souls" or "hating the righteous".
10. That is, they "poured themselves into, gave themselves to, rushed into". Used only here in this sense. On this word, see "poured out" in Act 2:17.
11. This is the same example used in 2 Pet 2:15. Elsewhere only in Rev 2:14. GK 962. On the sin of Balaam, see Rev 2:14.

15. Used only here in this sense. Only here is it plural. On this word, see "love" in 1 Jn 4:16.
16. This is the Greek word order. Some place this word with the next phrase, "tending themselves without-fear".
17. Or, "shepherding, pasturing, feeding". On this word, see "shepherd" in Rev 19:15.
18. They died twice because they are fruitless and uprooted. They are dead in sin and cut off from the source of life, Christ.

26. That is, works characterized by ungodliness, and thus, ungodly works. On this word, see Rom 1:18.
27. Used only here. GK 814. This is the verb related to the previous word, "ungodliness". It means "to live in an ungodly manner".

1. Or, "disclosure, unveiling, uncovering". Used only here in this book, and the related verb is not used in this book. On this word, see 2 Thes 1:7. The interpretation of this book, especially chapters 4-20, depends on what it is one thinks is being revealed. The book is interpreted in light of this decision. In general, there are three approaches to this question today, each with several variations in the details, and each often held in some combination with one of the others. The Past View (or the Preterist View) thinks Jesus is revealing the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, or that combined with the judgment of the Roman Empire. All the details are interpreted in this light. Thus, the prophecies have been fulfilled. The book is not giving a chronological sequence of events, but repeated symbols of that historical judgment and the victory of the early church over the enemies persecuting it. The Spiritual View (or the Idealist, Symbolic, Allegorical View) thinks Jesus is revealing timeless spiritual principles regarding the victory of the kingdom of God over the forces of evil. These principles are fulfilled repeatedly throughout the church age. Thus, the prophecies are being fulfilled. The book is not giving a sequence of events, nor events that have a single fulfillment in history, but a picture of what will repeatedly occur in history until the end. Every generation expects to see and does see the principles symbolized in this book fulfilled in the persecutions, triumphs, and judgments of its own day. The Future View thinks Jesus is revealing what will take place at the end of the age, just before He returns. Thus, the prophecies are yet to be fulfilled. The book gives a sequence of actual events that will occur at that time. Every generation since the first hopes He will come immediately, and looks for possible precursors of the fulfillment of the book. As each Jewish generation anticipated the Messiah, and young maidens dreamed of being the one to give Him birth, so the church anticipates His return, and considers how this prophecy might be fulfilled in its day, and prepares itself (1 Jn 3:3). These three approaches are also taken to the other prophetic passages in the NT, such as Mt 24. The reader should consult commentaries holding the various views in order to understand in context how those views handle the book and the details. The TransLine can only highlight the views, and "this view thinks" does not mean all adherents of that view hold that position. Most issues noted should be considered to imply the statement "There are other views. Consult the commentaries".
2. Some think John means "the revelation given by Jesus Christ"; others, "the revelation about Jesus Christ".
3. That is, believers. Same word as in 2:20; 6:15; 7:3; 10:7; 11:18; 13:16; 15:3; 19:2, 5, 18; 22:3, 6. On this word, see Rom 6:17.
4. Or, "come to pass, happen". GK 1181. This phrase, "to show... quickly", is also in 22:6. See also 1:19; 4:1.
5. This idiom means "with quickness, speed, haste, swiftness", and thus "quickly, at once, without delay, speedily, shortly, soon". Some think John means quickly in the sense of "soon, imminently", whether by our clock (the Past View), or by God's clock (the Future View); others, in the sense of "rapidly, swiftly, without delay" once these events begin. Same word as in 22:6; Lk 18:8; Act 12:7; 22:18; 1 Tim 3:14. Elsewhere only as "shortly" in Act 25:4; Rom 16:20. GK 5443. Related to "quickly" in Rev 22:7 and Gal 1:6.
6. Or, "showed by signs, signaled, indicated, made known". Elsewhere only in Jn 12:33; 18:32; 21:19; Act 11:28; 25:27. GK 4955. This is the verb related to the word "sign".
7. Same word as in 22:6. On this word, see "send out" in Mk 3:14.
8. Or, "even"; that is, the word given by God, even (more specifically), the testimony of Jesus Christ.
9. The angel "testified to... the testimony", or, he "bore witness to... the witness" (the declaration) of Jesus. Some think John means "the testimony given by Jesus"; others, "the testimony about Jesus". On this word, see Jn 1:7.
10. Some manuscripts add "and" {K}, "and to all".
11. Same word as in 11:6; 19:10; 22:7, 10, 18, 19. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10.
12. That is, the one reading the book aloud in public, and the ones hearing and keeping it. On this word, see 1 Jn 5:18.
13. Same phrase as in 22:10. "Near" is also in Mt 24:32, 33; Rom 13:11; Phil 4:5. On this word, see Lk 21:30.
14. This number is used 55 times in Revelation, 33 times elsewhere in the NT. GK 2231.
15. That is, the Roman province of Asia, present-day western Turkey.
16. That is, the Father. Same phrase as in v 8; 4:8. Similar phrase in 11:17; 16:5.
17. Or, "spirits". "Seven spirits" also occurs in 3:1; 4:5 (as seven lamps, as in Zech 4:2); and 5:6 (as seven eyes, as in Zech 4:10). Some think John means the Holy Spirit, the sevenfold fullness of the Spirit of God, the imagery coming from Zech 4:1-10; Isa 11:2. Others think these are angels (as in 1 Tim 5:21; Lk 9:26), or some other spirit beings.
18. These words may be rendered as a single description, as in 3:14; or, separately, "the Witness, the Faithful One", as in 2:13.
19. Same phrase as in Col 1:18. On this word, see Col 1:15. That is, the preeminent one, first in rank.
20. Used only here of Christ. Elsewhere of human rulers, officials, or princes, and of the ruler of demons. Used 37 times. GK 807. Related to "beginning" in Col 1:18. Both "firstborn" and "ruler" were used with reference to the Messiah in Ps 89:27.
21. Some manuscripts say "having loved" {N}. On this word, see "devotedly love" in Jn 21:15.
22. Or, "loosed, freed". Same word as in 9:14, 15; 20:3, 7. On this word, see "break" in Mt 5:19. Some manuscripts say "washed" {A}.
23. On this word, see Mt 3:2. Some manuscripts say "...us kings and priests to..." {N}.
24. On this idiom, see 20:10. Some manuscripts omit "and ever" {C}.
25. This verse gives the theme of the book. Some think it refers to Christ's second coming; the Past View thinks it refers to His coming in judgment in A.D. 70 using the Roman army.
26. Compare Mt 24:30; 26:64; 1 Thes 4:17; and Dan 7:13. The Past View thinks these are not literal clouds, but a symbol of Christ's power and judgment, as in Ps 18:9; Isa 19:1; etc.
27. Or "and".
28. On this word, see Jn 19:37, where John is quoting Zech 12:10.
29. Same statement as in Mt 24:30. Same word as in Rev 5:9; 7:9; 11:9; 13:7; 14:6. Used of the tribes of Israel in 5:5; 7:4-8; 21:12. Used 31 times. GK 5876.
30. Or, "land". The Past View thinks this refers to Israel in A.D. 70.
31. Or, "strike themselves, beat themselves, mourn greatly". Same word as in Mt 11:17; 24:30; Lk 8:52; 23:27; Rev 18:9. Elsewhere only with different grammar as "cut" in Mt 21:8; Mk 11:8. GK 3164. Related to "lamentation" in Act 8:2. Some think John means these people will do this "in repentance" (as in Zech 12:10). Others, "in despair" (as in Rev 6:16; 18:9).

12. Some manuscripts say "and because of the testimony..." {N}. On "the testimony of Jesus", see 19:10.
13. By these two phrases, some think John means he was on Patmos "in order to receive this revelation given by Jesus"; others, "because I was preaching the gospel there"; others, that he was exiled there "because of preaching about these things". Some manuscripts add "Christ" {N}.
14. Or, "was, became". Same word as in v 9; 4:2. GK 1181.
15. Or, "spirit". This phrase, "in the Spirit", is also in 4:2; 17:3; 21:10. John may mean "in a trance" (Act 10:10; 22:17); or, "outside the body" (2 Cor 12:2). Or he may mean "in the Spirit", that is, under the power of the Spirit.
16. That is, the day belonging to the Lord. Some think John means Sunday. Others think he means the future "day-of-the-Lord" to which John went in this vision (though this is not the usual expression for this). Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 11:20. GK 3258.
17. Some think this is the voice of an angel. Compare v 2; 4:1. The person amidst the lampstands has a different voice, v 15. Others think both descriptions are of the voice of the One amidst the lampstands.
18. Some manuscripts say "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, and write..." {N}.
19. Used 132 times meaning "see, look (at), watch". GK 1063.
20. Some manuscripts add "in Asia" {K}.
21. Some manuscripts say "spoke" {N}.
22. That is, stands on which lamps were placed or hung. Not candlesticks. Used 12 times. GK 3393.
23. Some manuscripts say "seven lampstands" {N}.
24. Or, "like, similar to". This word occurs with this grammar elsewhere only in 14:14, in this same phrase. John uses this word elsewhere only as "like" in Jn 8:55; 9:9; 1 Jn 3:2; Rev 9:7, 10, 19; 13:4, 11; 18:18; and as "resembling" in Rev 1:15; 2:18; 4:3, 6, 7; 9:7; 11:1; 13:2; 14:14; 21:11, 18. Used 45 times. GK 3927. Related to "likeness" in 9:7.
25. Or, "the Son of Man". Some think John is implying that the One before him is the person described by this phrase in Dan 7:13; others, that this is simply a description functioning like the one in Dan 7:13, and meaning "like a human". As in Dan 7:13, He is like a human in appearance, but others factors (there, the coming on the clouds, etc.; here, the items noted next) indicate this One is no mere human. In either case, this person is later identified as the Son of God, Rev 2:18. The same person is described in 19:11-16. On this phrase, "a son of man", see Jn 5:27.
26. Some think this clothing is symbolic of Jesus being High Priest; others, more generally, of His dignity and high rank. Compare Dan 10:5-6. Same word as in 15:6 and 19:14. On this word, see "put on" in Rom 13:14.
27. Elsewhere only in Mt 3:4; 10:9; Mk 1:6; 6:8; Act 21:11; Rev 15:6. GK 2438. Related to "gird" in this verse, and in Act 12:8.
28. This is a mark of dignity, not a belt at the waist as normal. Elsewhere only in Lk 11:27; 23:29. GK 3466. Similar to the seven angels with the seven bowls in 15:6 (which uses the word "chest").
29. Elsewhere only in Mt 28:3, also of the appearance of Jesus. GK 5946. Compare Dan 7:9.
30. Or, "metal". It is not known what specific metal John is referring to. The root word means "copper, brass, bronze" (GK 5910), but also "metal" in general. Compare Dan 10:6. Elsewhere only in 2:18. GK 5909.
31. Or, "fired, made fiery hot". Same word as in 3:18. This word means "to burn, to make fiery hot, to set on fire". It is the verb related to "fire". Some think John means "gleaming brass, as refined in a furnace". Others think he means "glowing brass, as made red-hot in a furnace". The grammar links this word to "something" in the furnace. In some manuscripts, it is linked to "brass", as "brass, like brass having been refined...". In others, it is linked to "feet"—"His feet... as though having been made fiery hot..." {C}. On this word, see "burn" in 2 Cor 11:29.
32. On "many waters", see 14:2.
33. Some think this is symbolic of Christ's power and authority over the churches; others, of His protection.
34. Or, "proceeding, going out". Same word as in 4:5; 9:17, 18; 11:5; 19:15. Used 33 times. GK 1744. Note 2:12, 16; Isa 11:4; 2 Thes 2:8.
35. Or, "outward appearance". Note Dan 10:6. Same word as in Jn 11:44. Elsewhere only as "appearance" in Jn 7:24. GK 4071.
36. That is, his face shined as bright as the noon-day sun, like the sun at its full strength. Compare Mt 17:2. On this word, see Mk 5:30.
37. Some manuscripts add "to me" {K}, though no Greek manuscripts.
38. This phrase "first and last" is elsewhere only in 1:17; 2:8; 22:13; all of Jesus. Compare Isa 41:4; 44:6; 48:12.
39. On this idiom see 20:10. Some manuscripts add "Amen" {N}.
40. Keys are symbolic of authority over something.
41. This phrase "death and Hades" is elsewhere only in 20:13, 14. "Hades", meaning "unseen", is where the dead go; the place of the dead. Elsewhere only in Mt 11:23; 16:18; Lk 10:15; 16:23; Act 2:27, 31; Rev 6:8. GK 87.

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
2. Or, "even". This verse gives an outline of the book. Some think Jesus means the things which you saw (chapter 1), which are (chapters 2-3), which are destined to take place (chapters 4-22). Others think He means the things which you saw, even the things which are (Chapter 1-3), and the things destined to take place (chapters 4-22). Others think it refers to the whole book, the things which you saw (chapters 1-22), even the things which are and the things destined after. Others think Jesus means the things you saw and what they are (chapter 1), and the things going to happen after these (chapters 2-22).
3. Or, "about to". Used with this grammar elsewhere only as "about to" in 3:16; 12:4; and "destined to" in Rom 8:18; Gal 3:23. Compare Rev 1:1; 4:1; 22:6. On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32.
4. That is, on His open palm or in contact with His hand. Note that in 1:16, John said "in His hand". GK 2093.
5. Or, "messengers". Some think Jesus means "angel", as elsewhere in the book. Perhaps they are a kind of guardian angel. He addresses the angel as if it were the church. Others think He means a human messenger (as the word is used in Mt 11:10; Lk 7:24; 9:52; Jam 2:25; etc.), either a representative sent to John, or the chief teacher or overseer. Compare 2:20. Others think He is simply personifying the churches themselves. On this word, see "messengers" in 1 Tim 3:16.
6. Some manuscripts add "which you saw" {N}.
7. The seven churches were actual first-century churches. In addition, they represent churches existing at all times until Christ returns, and by application, the individuals in them. In addition, some holding the Future View (see 1:1) think they are symbolic of periods of church history.
8. Or, "holding firm, keeping hold of". Same word as in 2:13, 14, 15, 25; 3:11, on which see Heb 4:14. Not the same word as in 1:16.
9. Or, "even", so that it says "your works— even your labor and endurance". The same issue arises in 2:9, 19. Some manuscripts add "your" {N}, so that it says "your labor and your endurance" {N}.
10. Some think these are the same evil ones described again next and in v 6; others take this more generally here.
11. Same word as in v 2.
12. Same word as "bear-with" in v 2.
13. Same root word as "labor" in v 2. Thus, this is the third repetition from v 2. On this word, see Mt 11:28.
14. Or, "left behind, abandoned, let go". Some think Jesus means the believers have fallen into a cold orthodoxy; others, that He is referring to ones among the new generation who were not yet believers, who had not yet "overcome" (v 7), although they adhered to orthodox doctrine (v 6). Same word as "neglected" in Mt 23:23. On this word, see "forgive" in Mt 6:12.
15. Some think Jesus means the fervency of love you had when you were first saved; others, the love your church had at the first, among the first generation of Christians, the former generation.
16. Some place the emphasis of these words on the inward devotion to Christ (their love for Him has diminished); others, on the outward expression of that devotion in acts of love (they have become lazy in loving others). On this word, see 1 Jn 4:16.
17. Or, "keeping in mind". On this word, see Jn 16:21.
18. This is an idiom, literally, "But if [you do] not", on which see Jn 14:2.
19. Some manuscripts add "quickly" {N}, as in 2:16; 3:11. Some think Jesus is referring to a special coming in judgment; others, to the Second Coming, that is, "Otherwise when I come, I am coming to you for judgment". On "coming", see Mk 16:2.
20. Or, "arouse, shake, remove". Some think Jesus will move their lampstand from a place of blessing to a place of discipline. He will hit it like an earthquake, shaking it down to the foundation, arousing them to action. Others think He means that He will move it away, remove it, from being a church. Same word as in 6:14; Mt 23:4; Act 17:28. Elsewhere only as "shake" in Mt 27:39; Mk 15:29; and "set in motion" in Act 21:30; 24:5. Our word "kinetic" comes from this word. GK 3075. A related word is in Col 1:23.
21. That is, the followers Nicholas. Elsewhere only in v 15. GK 3774. Their views are described in v 14.
22. Note the plural. In each letter, both this and the overcomer statement are addressed to all the churches.
23. Or, "conquering, prevailing, vanquishing, being victorious". Same word as in Lk 11:22; Jn 16:33; Rom 12:21; 1 Jn 2:13, 14; 4:4; Rev 2:11, 17, 26; 3:5, 12, 21; 5:5; 11:7; 12:11; 13:7; 15:2; 17:14; 21:7. Elsewhere only as "conquer" in Rev 6:2; "be victorious over" in 1 Jn 5:4, 5; and "prevail" in Rom 3:4. GK 3771. Related to "victory" in 1 Jn 5:4; and in 1 Cor 15:57.
24. Or, "the right" (same Greek word). Compare 22:14. This word is expressed in 6:8; 9:3.
25. The tree of life is also mentioned in 22:2, 14, 19. The next word ("which") modifies "tree". On "tree", see "cross" in 1 Pet 2:24.
26. Some manuscripts say "in the midst of the paradise..." {N}.
27. Some manuscripts say "My God" {A}, as in 3:2, 12.
28. This description comes from 1:18, but note the change in tense from "am living" to "came to life" or "became alive". Jesus is referring to His death and resurrection.
29. On this word, see 7:14. Some manuscripts say "your works and affliction" {N}.
30. Or, "even", so that it says "I know your affliction— even the poverty...". Same issue as in 2:2.
31. Some think this poverty is a result of persecution by, or caused by the ones mentioned next. On this word, see 2 Cor 8:9.
32. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:4. That is, the evil-speaking against them, and God.
33. Regardless of their culture or lineage or religion, these people are not Jews because they are not following Christ.
34. The grammar implies, "Stop fearing. Do not continue fearing".
35. Some manuscripts say "Do not be fearing the things which..." {N}.
36. That is, that your faith might be tested. On this word, see "tempted" in Heb 2:18.
37. Or, "you will have an affliction of ten days". Some think Jesus means ten literal days; others, ten periods of time; others, a brief period of time.
38. Or, "Become faithful ones", "Prove-to-be faithful ones". GK 1181.
39. Or, "as far as, to the extent of". This does not mean that the Smyrnans will all actually be martyred. Same phrase as in 12:11; Act 22:4. Same word as in 2:25, 26. GK 948.
40. Some think Jesus means the crown consisting of life, as in Jam 1:12. Your persecutors will think you are defeated, but I will give the victor's crown to you. Others think Jesus means a special martyr's crown, should they be martyred.
41. The second death is also mentioned in 20:6, 14; 21:8.

1. Some manuscripts say "your works, and where..." {N}.
2. Some think Jesus is referring to the fact that this city was a major center for emperor worship; others, that it had an altar to Zeus; others, that it was the seat of worship for Asclepius, a serpent god. There are other views.
3. Same word as in v 14, 15, and 2:1.
4. Jesus may mean this in the sense of refusing to say "Lord Caesar".
5. Some think Jesus means "your faith in Me". Others, "My gospel", the objective content of the faith.
6. Some manuscripts say "days in which Antipas was My witness..." {N}. Nothing is known about this man with certainty beyond what is here. Consult the commentaries for the various speculations.
7. This word came to be used of one who witnessed to the point of death, a "martyr". Some give it this meaning here, and in 17:6; Act 22:20. On this word, see Act 1:8.
8. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, so that it says "My faithful witness".
9. On this word, see Rom 11:9. Jesus is referring specifically to the two activities mentioned next. These two issues are mentioned in Num 25:1-2; 31:15-16, and they were also the problem here in Pergamum.
10. On this word, see 1 Cor 8:1. Same word as in v 20. Jesus is referring to eating at pagan feasts and temples, sharing socially in their worship events. Compare 1 Cor 10:14-22.
11. On this word, see 1 Cor 6:18. Same word as in v 20. These same two issues are prohibited in Act 15:29. Some think sexual sin was a problem in Pergamum; others, that in their case it refers to spiritual adultery. Sexual activity was part of pagan worship.
12. This is the Greek word order. The relationship of "so...also...likewise" is difficult. Some think Jesus means "So (following a false teacher) you also (like Israel) have ones holding on to the teaching of the Nicolaitans [to do] likewise (to continue their pagan practices of idolatry and immorality)". Others think, "So (in a manner similar to the Balaamites) you also (in addition to the Balaamites, as a second group) have ones likewise (teaching these two pagan practices) holding on to...". The first view sees the Nicolaitans as illustrated by Balaam, the second view sees two separate groups with teachings that are similar at least with regard to these immorality and idolatry issues. There are other views. Some manuscripts say "which thing I hate" {N}, in place of "likewise".
13. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
14. That is, repent of tolerating these people, or else I will come to "you" (singular, referring to the church) and make war with "them". On this word, see Act 26:20.
15. On this word, see 2:5.
16. Or, "soon". On this word, see 22:7.
17. Or, "wage war, battle". Same word as in 12:7; Jam 4:2. Elsewhere only as "wage war" in 13:4; 17:14; 19:11. GK 4482. Related to "war" in 12:7.
18. By "them", some think Jesus means "the Nicolaitans"; others, "those holding on to their teaching"; others, the church.
19. This word is mentioned also in 1:16; 2:12; 19:15, 21. Elsewhere only in 6:8; Lk 2:35. GK 4855. Some think Jesus is referring to a special coming in judgment; others, to the Second Coming, as in 2:5.
20. Some manuscripts add "to eat" {N}.
21. This is a participle, "having been hidden". On this word, see Jn 8:59.
22. Manna was the name Israel gave to the perishable daily bread from heaven given them by God for forty years in the wilderness, Ex 16:4-36. Some was saved in a jar and placed before the ark, Ex 16:34. Some think Jesus is referring to this jar of manna, "hidden" in the sanctuary. Others think He means "spiritual food" nourishing eternal life. Symbolically, manna is the heavenly God-given sustenance of eternal life (like the "fruit" of the tree of life or the "water" of the river of life) hidden from mankind since the garden of Eden. There is a sense in which Christ Himself is this "bread of life", Jn 6. "Manna" is elsewhere only in Jn 6:31, 49; Heb 9:4. GK 3445.
23. Elsewhere only as "vote" in Act 26:10. GK 6029. Some think Jesus is referring to the stones used to cast a vote, a black pebble meaning "guilty", a white one meaning "acquitted"; others, to the white stone used as an "admission ticket" to a banquet; others, to a symbol of being counted as included. There are other views.
24. Or, "One". Some think Jesus is referring to Himself, and the new name is the one in 3:12; 19:12; others, to the recipient, and the new name is that person's own new name.
25. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
26. Or, "even", "your works— even your love and faith and service and endurance". Same issue as in 2:2.
27. Or, "faithfulness". On this word, see Eph 2:8.
28. On this word, see "ministries" in 1 Cor 12:5. Some manuscripts say "service and faith" {K}. Some think "service" describes "love", and "endurance" describes "faith".
29. Either greater in quantity, "more"; or, greater in quality, "superior, better".
30. Some manuscripts add "a few things"; others, "much" {N}, in which case, what follows would be "against you, because you...".
31. Or, "allowing, letting go on". Used in this sense also in Jn 11:48. On this word, see "forgive" in Mt 6:12.
32. Some manuscripts say "your" woman {B}, leading some to think Jesus means "your wife", and that this implies that the "angel" of the church is actually a human "messenger". On this issue, see "angel" in 1:20. On this word, see 1 Tim 2:11.
33. Jezebel was the wife of King Ahab, who led Israel into idolatry, 1 Kings 16:31; 2 Kings 9:22. Here, some think this was a literal woman in the church, this being her actual name, or a symbolic name for her; others, that it is personifying a heresy, perhaps referring again to the Nicolaitans, based on her teachings. Used only here. GK 2630.
34. On this word, see "say" in Jn 12:39. Some manuscripts say "who calls herself" {N}.
35. This is the feminine form of "prophet" in 1 Cor 12:28, found elsewhere only in Lk 2:36. GK 4739.

2E. "Therefore if you do not keep-watch, I will come⁴² like a thief⁴³. And you will never know^G at what hour I will come^O upon you" 3
- 3D. "But⁴⁴ you have a few names⁴⁵ in Sardis who did not stain⁴⁶ their garments^P. And they will walk^Q with Me in white⁴⁷ garments, because they are worthy^R" 4
- 4D. "The one overcoming^J will in-this-manner⁴⁸ clothe *himself*⁴⁹ in white^S garments^P" 5

1. Or, "putting", as in Mt 8:6. This word means "to throw, cast, put". Used 122 times. GK 965. Some manuscripts say "I will throw" {N}.
2. Some think Jesus means "a bed" of sickness; others, a bed of judgment and death. This bed is in contrast with her bed of adultery. GK 3109. Some manuscripts say "prison" {A}.
3. As in v 14, 20, some think Jesus means spiritual adultery; others, physical adultery. On this word, see Mt 5:32a.
4. On this word, see 7:14. Some think this refers to the great tribulation prior to the Second Coming (compare 2:5); others, to a special judgment.
5. That is, the works she teaches, models, and leads her followers to commit, v 20. Some manuscripts say "their" {A}.
6. That is, the followers of her teachings. On this word, see 1 Jn 3:1.
7. This is the normal word for "death". Some think Jesus means "pestilence" (an epidemic of disease) as in 6:8, based on Hebrew usage like Ezek 33:27; others, "I will surely kill", in imitation of a Hebrew idiom (compare Mt 15:4).
8. Or, "will come to know". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
9. Or, "investigating, examining". On this word, see 1 Cor 2:10.
10. Or, "inward parts". Used only here. GK 3752. It also means "kidney", as in Lev 3:4, etc. Same word as in Ps 7:9; 16:7; 26:2; 73:21; 139:13; Jer 11:20; 12:2; 17:10; 20:12; Lam 3:13.
11. Used 156 times, this word refers to the seat of all aspects of a person's inner life. GK 156. God is the "heart-knower" in Act 15:8.
12. See 20:12 on this.
13. Some manuscripts say "you and to the rest..." {N}.
14. Some think Jesus means as the faithful Christians sarcastically call the teachings of those following Jezebel; others, as those following her actually call their own teachings.
15. Or, "throwing", as in v 22, possibly a play on words. I have no other command for you, just hold on where you are, resisting her. Some manuscripts say "I will not put" {N}.
16. Some link this to the decree in Act 15:28, where the same word is used, and where the two issues mentioned in v 20 are forbidden. Others think Jesus means "any other weighty command". On this word, see "weight" in 1 Thes 2:7.
17. Or, "Only, But, Nevertheless, Yet". Used only here by John. On this word, see "nevertheless" in Mt 11:22.
18. Same word as in 2:1; 3:11.
19. That is, the things mentioned in v 19.
20. This word is used with "until" only here, emphasizing the indefinite time reference. Or, "until which time", leaving this word unexpressed. "Until" is used 49 times (GK 948).
21. Or, "even", so that what follows explains "overcoming".
22. That is, as opposed to "her works", v 22.
23. That is, the end of one's life, or Christ's return, whichever comes first. On "until the end", see Heb 6:11.
24. Or, "rule". In this context, the overcomer will rule with force, crushing opposition, and leading them to their destiny. "Shepherding with an iron rod" is mentioned also in 12:5; 19:15. Compare Mt 25:32. Jesus is quoting Ps 2:9. Jesus also shepherds believers, leading them to their destiny, 7:17 (same word), but no iron rod is required. On this word, see 19:15.
25. Or, "made of iron". Elsewhere only in Act 12:10; Rev 9:9; 12:5; 19:15. GK 4971.
26. Or, vessels "made of clay, belonging to a potter". Used only here. GK 3039. Our word "ceramic" comes from this word.
27. In other words, the overcomer will share in the event described in Rev 19:15. Some manuscripts have this word in the future tense, creating a separate sentence, "iron rod. Like clay vessels, they will be broken to pieces, as" {N}. On this word, see "bruised" in Mt 12:20.
28. This phrase is elsewhere only in 22:16, of Christ. Some think Jesus means "Myself"; others, "the light of a new day" (meaning eternal life). Compare 2 Pet 1:19 (a different word). There are other views.
29. Or, "spirits". See 1:4 on this. The seven stars are in 1:20.
30. That is, a reputation.
31. Or, "are living", spiritually. On this word, see "came to life" in 20:4.
32. That is, spiritually. What others think about these people does not match what Jesus knows to be true. On this word, see Mt 8:22.
33. Or, "Become ones who are keeping watch". GK 1181.
34. Or, "staying alert, keeping awake". On this word, see 1 Thes 5:6.
35. Or, "stabilize". On this word, see 1 Thes 3:2.
36. Or, "the other things, the rest". That is, the persons and things that are part of your church, whatever still has some life and is part of your living foundation. Some put the emphasis on the qualities and graces; others, on the people. Same word as in 8:13. On this word, see "other" in 2 Pet 3:16.
37. This word with this grammar is elsewhere only in Act 12:6. On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32. Some manuscripts say "are about to" {K}.
38. Or, "completed". This is a participle, "having been fulfilled". Same word as "completed" in 6:11; and also used of fulfilling or completing a service (Act 12:25; Col 4:17); a course (Act 13:25), a work (Act 14:26; 2 Thes 1:11); righteousness (Mt 3:15); etc. Jesus has not yet found their faith fulfilled in their actions. The works that proceed from genuine faith are not there, indicating they are about to wither and die (Lk 8:13, 14). They claim to live, but bear no fruit. Compare Tit 1:16; Jam 2:22, 26. On this word, see "filled" on Eph 5:18.
39. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}. Compare v 12; Eph 1:17.
40. That is, "be keeping in mind". Same word as in 2:5.
41. Some think Jesus means "in what way or manner"; others think He is referring to the content of what these people received and heard, as when we say "remember how I said that..." GK 4802.
42. Same word as in the next sentence. Some manuscripts add "upon you" {N}.
43. This phrase, "like a thief", is also in 16:15. On this concept, see 1 Thes 5:2. Some think Jesus is referring to the Second Coming; others, to a special coming in judgment.
44. Some manuscripts omit this word, and add "even" {K}, "You have a few names even in Sardis..."
45. People are referred to as "names" also in 11:13; Act 1:15. Here, it is in contrast with "name" in v 1. On this word, see 2 Tim 2:19.
46. Same word as in 14:4. That is, did not soil by sin. They are "unspotted by the world", Jam 1:27. There are other views suggesting a more specific reference than this. On this word, see 1 Cor 8:7.
47. On this concept, see "white garments" in 4:4.
48. Or, "thus". That is, like those in v 4, walking with Me. Some manuscripts say "The one overcoming—this one will cloth himself..." {B}.
49. Compare 19:8.

- 1E. And I will never¹ wipe-out² his name from the book^A of life³
 2E. And I will confess⁴ his name before My Father and before His angels

 2E. "And I will write upon him
- 1E. "The name of My God

1. Or, "by no means". This is an emphatic negative (see Gal 5:16).
2. Or, "smear out, blot out, erase". In other words, the overcomer will live forever, he will remain. On this word, see Col 2:14. Same word as in Ex 32:32-33; Ps 69:28. Some think this implies the names of all who have lived on earth are written in the book, and Jesus will erase the non-overcomer; others do not think it implies that non-overcomers are written in the book of life and must be erased. It is a statement about what Jesus will not do to overcomers, not what He will do to non-overcomers. Others think it is a list of professing believers (ones claiming to be alive, v 1), from which their name can be erased.
3. This book is also mentioned in 13:8; 17:8; 20:12, 15; 21:27; Phil 4:3. Compare Lk 10:20; Dan 12:1.
4. Or, "declare, acknowledge". Same word as in Mt 10:32; Lk 12:8. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:12.
5. That is, the authority to open and close David's house, the Messiah's kingdom, and the city of David, the heavenly Jerusalem. Compare Isa 22:22.
6. Some manuscripts say "shuts" {N}.
7. Some manuscripts say "will open" {N}.
8. The content of these works is detailed in the two "because" statements (2D. and 3D.).
9. Some think this is a door of opportunity and service, as in 1 Cor 16:9; 2 Cor 2:12; Col 4:3. Others think Jesus means a door of salvation, of entrance into His kingdom, which no one can shut so as to keep them out, especially their Jewish adversaries in v 9. This is a participle, "having been opened", standing open. GK 487.
10. Some manuscripts say "opened door, and no one..." {N}.
11. Or, "That". In this arrangement, their works are the reason for the action that follows in v 9, just as in v 10 and 17. This view parallels the "Because" statements. Others think this continues from "I know" after a parenthesis containing the "Behold" statement—"I know your works... that you have a little power...". This becomes point 2E., and verse 9 point 2D. Others think Jesus is giving the reason for having given them the opened door, making the "Behold" statement above point 2D., and this point 1E., and verse 9 point 3D. This view parallels the "Behold" statements.
12. Some think Jesus means "you have little power", meaning "hardly any". He means "you have little power, yet you kept My word". Others think He means "you have a little power", meaning "some, which you are using effectively".
13. Or, "strength". Some think Jesus is referring to their numbers; others, to their spiritual power, or their ability to influence the community.
14. Because you have a little power, I will exercise My power for you. Some think Jesus means He will give them some Jewish converts from among their enemies. Others think this does not mean they are converts, only that the church in Philadelphia will be exalted over them in some way. On this word, see "lie to" in Act 5:3.
15. Same grammar as in 13:12, to "make... so that they will...". Others simplify this to "make them come and worship... and know". This phrase defines the sense in which Jesus is "giving" them.
16. Or, "prostrate-themselves, pay homage". On this word, see "give worship" in 4:10. It is used with "before" elsewhere only in 15:4; Lk 4:7. As to the internal attitude behind this act, some think Jesus means "worship [Me]", indicating a conversion. Others think He means "prostrate themselves [to you]", as an act of submission.
17. The word "so that" is followed by a "will" verb and a "may" verb like this also in 22:14. Some think no distinction is intended.
18. Or, "understand, recognize". On this word, see Lk 1:34.
19. Punctuated this way, this means the message proceeding from My endurance. In this case, the endurance is Christ's. Compare 2 Thes 3:5. Others punctuate this as "My word of endurance", My command to endure. In this case, the endurance is ours. In the Greek word order, "My" is the last word. On this word, see Jam 1:3.
20. Or, "preserve, protect, guard". Same word as "kept" in the previous phrase. On this word, see 1 Jn 5:18.
21. Some think that this, along with the promises and warnings at this point in all seven letters (2:5, 10, 16, 22-23; 3:3, 9-11, 16-20), refers to the first-century church, but can be applied to all believers. Others think this, along with those in the other letters, refers to the Second Coming, which has been imminent to all believers since the first century, and so speaks directly to all believers until then.
22. Or, "out of, away from". "Keep from" is elsewhere only in Jn 17:15, "keep from the evil one", where it is contrasted with "take out of the world". A similar phrase, "saved from the hour", occurs in Jn 12:27. Some think Jesus means "preserve you through" the hour of testing, like Israel during the plagues of Egypt. Some holding the Future View (see 1:1) think He means "keep you from entering" the hour itself, by means of the rapture (1 Thes 4:17).
23. That is, "period". This hour is, or includes, all the judgments described later in this book. The Future View thinks this refers to the final period of tribulation before Christ returns. The Past View thinks it is the hour of judgment on Israel in A.D. 70. The Spiritual View thinks it is symbolic of the crisis point in the trials that come upon people and nations throughout history. Compare Dan 12:1; Mt 24:21; Mk 13:19; 2 Thes 2:8-10. On this word, see Lk 2:38.
24. Or "trial". On this word, see "trials" in Jam 1:2. Related to "test" later in this verse.
25. Or, "being about to". This participle modifies "hour". On this word, see Mk 10:32.
26. This word means "whole, all, entire". Used 109 times. GK 3910.
27. This phrase "whole world" is elsewhere only in Mt 24:14; Act 11:28; Rev 12:9; 16:14. On this word, see Heb 2:5. A similar phrase using a different word for "world" is in Mt 16:26; 26:13; Rom 1:8; 1 Jn 2:2; 5:19. Some think this means this hour of testing is universal, worldwide in scope, affecting all humans. The Past View takes "world" in the sense of the civilized world, the Roman Empire, as it is used in Lk 2:1; Act 24:5.
28. Or, "land". This phrase, "the ones dwelling upon the earth" is elsewhere only in 6:10; 8:13; 11:10; 13:8, 14; 17:8. A similar phrase using this word is in 13:12 and 17:2. Some think it refers in particular to the unbelievers living on the earth. The Past View (see 1:1) renders it "upon the land", and takes it to refer to apostate Israel.
29. Some manuscripts say "Behold—I am..." {N}.
30. The phrase "I am coming" occurs seven times in this book (see 22:20). On "quickly", see 22:7.
31. That is, a permanent part, something firmly planted and never moving. The sense is defined by what comes next, "will never go outside again". Many ancient pillars still stand today. On this word, see 1 Tim 3:15.
32. This word is used metaphorically, like "pillar". The overcomer will be permanently in the presence of God. On this word, see Rev 11:1.
33. On "My God", see 3:2.

1. The new Jerusalem is mentioned again in 21:2, 10.
2. Compare 19:12 and 22:4.
3. Some manuscripts say "of the Laodiceans" {K}.
4. Compare 1:5; 19:11. That is, to all God has revealed through Him.
5. Related to "ruler" in 1:5. On this word, see Col 1:18. Jesus may mean "Ruler of creation". Or, He may mean "the Beginning", as this word is used in Rev 21:6; 22:13 ("the Beginning and the End"), that is, the origin or first cause of creation, as in Jn 1:1-3.
6. Some think Jesus means "unbelievers or believers"; others prefer to leave it indefinite. Others think He means they are "useless, good for nothing, barren", neither cold refreshing water, nor hot medicinal water. "Hot" is related to "boiling" in Act 18:25.
7. Some think Jesus means clearly and openly in one group or the other. The hardest group to reach are the self-deceived who think they are right with God, but are not. Others think He means "of some use or value".
8. Some manuscripts say "cold nor hot" {N}, as in v 15.
9. Judgment is coming, but there is still time for v 19.
10. Or, "vomit". Used only here. GK 1840. Not related to "spit" (Mk 7:33).
11. That is, to reject them, and separate them from Himself.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, which serves to introduce the quotation.
13. Some think Jesus means rich with spiritual riches they in fact do not have; others, rich with material riches blinding them to the true spiritual riches they do not have. On this adjective, see 1 Tim 6:17.
14. On this word, see Rom 7:24. Compare 1 Cor 4:8.
15. Or, "miserable". Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 15:19. GK 1795.
16. Or, "destitute, beggarly, impoverished". On this word, see Gal 4:9.
17. Same word as in 1:15. That is, pure gold. Some think this refers to true spiritual riches; others, to something more specific like faith or righteousness.
18. Some think these symbolize righteousness, or purity, or holiness, as in 4:4.
19. Or, "made evident, visible". On this word, see "made evident" in 1 Jn 2:19. Some think Jesus means "at My coming". Compare 16:15; 1 Jn 2:28. Others think He is referring to a special judgment upon their church.
20. Some think this is symbolic of the word of God; others, the Holy Spirit. Used only here. GK 3141.

23. Used only here. GK 2418. Related to the word in 1 Cor 14:1.
24. That is, as a friend who loves you. Some think Jesus means the door of their heart; others, the door of His return, His second coming (like Mt 24:33; Jam 5:9); others, at the door of their church, as an outsider to it.
25. Jesus is calling on them to respond. He desires entrance to their lives, and their authentic salvation.
26. What follows is dependent on their response.
27. Or, "indeed". Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
28. Compare Jn 14:23. Jesus will come in and share in such a person's life. On "come-in to", see Act 16:40.
29. Or, "have supper, eat the main meal". Some think this illustrates the fellowship they will have once such a person opens the door. They will share spiritual food. Others think this refers to the banquet at Christ's coming in 19:9. On this word, see "dining" in 1 Cor 11:25. Related to "banquet" in Rev 19:9. Compare Lk 12:37.
30. This word is taken from 6:8, etc.
31. This is a participle, "having been opened". John did not see it open up. He saw it standing open.
32. That is, set in the sky.
33. That is, the voice in 1:10. As there, some think this is the voice of Christ; others, of an angel. Note both in 1:1-2.
34. Some who hold the Future View (see 1:1) think this symbolizes the rapture.

45. Rev 3:5, 18 also mentions "white garments". "White" clothing is mentioned in 3:4; 6:11; 7:9, 13, 14; 19:14. Suggestions for the symbolic meaning of white include purity, holiness, righteousness, glory, and victory. On this word, see Jn 4:35.
46. Some manuscripts add "they had" {K}.
47. Or, "wreaths". A "golden crown" is also mentioned in 14:14. "Crown" is also in 2:10; 3:11; 4:10; 6:2; 9:7; 12:1. It is the victor's crown, not the king's crown (a diadem, 13:1). Same word as in 1 Cor 9:25; Phil 4:1; 1 Thes 2:19; 2 Tim 4:8; Jam 1:12; 1 Pet 5:4. Elsewhere only of the crown of thorns, Mt 27:29; Mk 15:17; Jn 19:2, 5. GK 5109.
48. John may mean bolts of lightning, or flashes of lightning. Same word as in 8:5; 11:19; 16:18. Used 9 times. GK 847.
49. Or, "sounds". Used 55 times in Rev, both of voices (like 5:2) and sounds (like 9:9; 14:2; 18:22). On this word, see Mk 1:26. Some manuscripts reverse these, so that it says "thunders and voices" {K}.
50. That is, crashes or peals of thunder. These three things also occur in 8:5; 11:19; 16:18. Used 12 times. GK 1103.
51. Or, "lamps". Same word as in 8:10. On this word, see "lamp" in Mt 25:1.
52. Or, "spirits". On the seven Spirits, see 1:4.

1. Some manuscripts omit "something like" {N}.
2. That is, made of glass. On this word, see 15:2. Compare Ex 24:10; Ezek 1:22, 26.
3. That is, bright or clear or shining like rock-crystal. Elsewhere only in 22:1. GK 3223. Related word in 21:11.
4. That is, on all four sides. In front and behind and the right and the left.
5. Or, "living-beings, living-ones". The root word is "living". These beings are also referred to in 4:7, 8, 9; 5:6, 8, 11, 14; 6:1, 3, 5, 6, 7; 7:11; 14:3; 15:7; 19:4. Elsewhere only meaning "animal" in Heb 13:11; 2 Pet 2:12; Jude 10. GK 2442. Compare "cherubim" in Heb 9:5. There are many suggestions as to what their symbolic meaning might be. Some think they are angels similar to those in Ezek 10 and Isa 6. Some think they represent the animal kingdom.
6. Elsewhere only in v 8; 5:8; 15:7; 17:3 ("being full-of", reflecting different grammar); 4; 21:9; and Mt 23:25, 27; Lk 11:39; Rom 3:14. GK 1154. Related to "fill" in Mk 4:37.
7. Elsewhere only in Lk 15:23, 27, 30, the fattened calf; and Heb 9:12, 19, the sacrificial calf. GK 3675.
8. Or, "human". On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
9. This is an idiom, literally "one by one of them". On this idiom, see "one by one" in Mk 14:19.
10. This may mean around their bodies and under their wings.
11. Or, "a stopping, a cessation from activity". Same phrase as in 14:11. On this word, see Mt 12:43. Related to the verb in 14:13.
12. That is, the living creatures repeatedly say this without stopping to sleep. It does not mean they say it over and over without pause, one sentence after another. It means they say it repeatedly, daytime and nighttime. On this phrase, see 7:15.
13. On this word see 1:8. On the next description, see 1:4.
14. The grammar indicates this is something repeatedly done. Verse 8 indicates how often.
15. Same word as in 3:9; 5:14; 7:11; 9:20; 11:1, 16; 13:4, 8, 12, 15; 14:7, 9, 11; 15:4; 16:2; 19:4, 10, 20; 20:4; 22:8, 9. On this word, see Mt 14:33.
16. Or, "throw, put". On this word see "throwing" in 2:22.
17. Some manuscripts say "You are worthy, Lord, to receive..." {N}.
18. On this word, see "is" in Mt 26:26. Some manuscripts say "they exist" {A}.
19. Or, "on account of". That is, by reason of. GK 1328.
20. Or, "over". That is, on His open palm, or up-facing hand. Same word, but different grammar than 1:20.
21. Or, "book". Some think this scroll contains all the details of the judgments and revelations of chapters 6-22, of the plan of God. Jesus does not read the scroll, but He "signifies" (1:1) its contents in the signs and pictures that follow. Others think that chapters 6-19 represents the content of the seven seals, not the scroll itself. This means the contents of the scroll are not revealed. In this case, some suggest it is Christ's title deed to the earth; others, the book of life; others, the will assuring and detailing our inheritance; others, the sentence against Jerusalem; others, the redemptive plan of God; others, the New Covenant. This word is used 32 times meaning "book, scroll", and twice as "certificate" (see Mt 19:7). GK 1046. Related to "book" in Mt 1:1 and "little scroll" in Rev 10:2.
22. Or, "behind". That is, a scroll written on both sides. Scrolls normally had writing only on one side—the inside as you rolled it between your two hands. This one is so full it is written on both sides.
23. Used only here. GK 2958. Related to "sealed" in 7:3, and "seal" in chapters 5-6.
24. Some think John means the leading edge has seven seals on it, all of which must be opened before the scroll can be read. This was the common way of sealing. Others think the seals are on the rolled edge, down through the scroll, so that when a seal is opened, the contents of the scroll become known up to the next seal. On this word, see Rom 4:11.
25. That is, in the world of the dead, called Hades in 1:18. "Under the earth" is elsewhere only in v 13. It is not related to the word in Phil 2:10.
26. That is, to look at its contents. On this word, see "see" in 1:11.
27. Whatever the reason, clearly John took it personally. Some think he wept because the promise made to him in 4:1 to see the future was in danger of not being fulfilled; others, because it appeared God's purposes would not be accomplished now, but delayed. Perhaps he wept at the unworthiness of all, including himself. On this word, see Jn 11:33.
28. This is the Greek word order. John could also mean "no one was found to be worthy..."
29. Some manuscripts add "and read" {N}.
30. On this word, see 2:7. On the Lion of Judah, see Gen 49:9-10. On the Root of David, see 22:16; Isa 11:1-10.
31. Or, "so that He might open", for the purpose of opening it.
32. Some manuscripts add "to break" {N} from v 2.
33. Some manuscripts add "and behold" {N}.
34. Some think John means between the living creatures and the elders; others, at the throne, surrounded by the living creatures and elders.
35. Or, "Little-lamb". This reflects the symbolism of Isa 53:7, and of Christ's sacrificial death as the Passover lamb. Used of Christ also in Rev 5:8, 12, 13; 6:1, 16; 7:9, 10, 14, 17; 12:11; 13:8; 14:1, 4, 10; 15:3; 17:14; 19:7, 9; 21:9, 14, 22, 23, 27; 22:1, 3. Elsewhere only in Jn 21:15; Rev 13:11. GK 768.
36. The Lamb is standing alive, even though it has the marks of having been slain. For a lamb, this would mean that its throat was cut, and it was bloodied. On this word, see 1 Jn 3:12.
37. The horns symbolize power and strength.
38. Some think this symbolizes Christ's fullness of knowledge and wisdom.
39. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. See 1:4 on the seven Spirits.
40. Or, "eyes (which are the seven Spirits of God) having been sent...". Thus, some think John means "eyes... sent"; others, "Spirits... sent". Compare Zech 4:2, 10.
41. Some manuscripts say "the book" {N}.
42. Some think this applies only to the 24 elders.
43. On this word, see 15:2. Some manuscripts say "harps" {N}.
44. Some think these are prayers in general; others, prayers for justice and vindication, as in 6:10; 8:3-4.
45. Some think John means all the believers of all ages. All their unanswered prayers in this matter are remembered, and will soon be answered. Others think he means the believers on earth (or in the land) undergoing persecution during the tribulation there who are currently praying about this matter.
46. Or, "purchased". Some manuscripts add "us" {A}. Same word as in 14:3, 4; Mt 14:15; 1 Cor 6:20; 7:23; 2 Pet 2:1. Used 30 times. GK 60. Related to "marketplace".

- 8C. And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living-creature saying, "Come" 7
 1D. And I saw, and behold— there was a pale-green³⁶ horse, and the one sitting on³⁷ it. Death was the name for him. And Hades^R was following with him 8

1. Some manuscripts say "us" {A}.
2. Compare 1:6. Some manuscripts say "kings" {N}.
3. Some manuscripts say "they are reigning"; others, "we will reign" {A}. In either case, the Past and Spiritual Views (see 1:1) think this refers to a present spiritual reign in Christ's spiritual kingdom on earth as described in 20:5; the Future View, to a future visible reign on earth, as described in 20:5. On this word, see 19:6.
4. Or, "over". GK 2093.
5. Or, "praise". Same word as in v 13 and 7:12. Note that seven things are named. On this word, see 2 Cor 9:5.
6. Same phrase as in v 3.
7. Same word as "on" earlier in "on earth". Some manuscripts say "in" {K}. Some manuscripts say "and is on..."; others, "and which are on..." {B}. GK 2093.
8. Or, "sea"—even all the creatures in them—saying". That is, in all the places mentioned. Compare Ps 146:6.
9. Some manuscripts say "the twenty four elders" {K}. See 4:4.
10. On this word, see 4:10. Some manuscripts add "Him who lives forever and ever" {K}.
11. Same word as in 9:12. On this word see "one" in Eph 4:7.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
13. Some think the seals correspond to the "beginning of birth-pains" in Mt 24:6. 7, 9. The Past View (see 1:1) thinks the seals symbolize non-sequential things regarding the tribulation for Jerusalem in A.D. 70; the Future View, sequential things regarding the end-time tribulation. Within these views, some think the seals occur prior to the tribulation, and that once the scroll is opened, the tribulation begins with the trumpets in chapter 8; others, that the tribulation begins here. The Spiritual View regards the seals as things that occur repeatedly throughout history, with the last three specifically focused on, or intensifying during, the end time.
14. Or, "Go". Some think the command is addressed to the horseman; others, to John. Some manuscripts say "Come and see" here and in v 3, 5 and 7 {B}, which would clarify that the commands are addressed to John. On this word, see Mk 16:2.
15. Some manuscripts omit "And I saw" here, in v 5, and in v 8 {B}.
16. Some think this symbolizes holiness; others, victory. On this word, see 4:4.
17. Some think the four horsemen are the unfolding of a single event—conquest leads to killing and to famine and to death. Others think they are separate events. Compare Zech 1:8; 6:1-8.
18. Some think this refers to the victorious conquest by the gospel, and the rider is Christ; others, to wars between nations, militarism. The Past View sees it as war in Israel, and the rider as the Roman general going forth to conquer Jerusalem. Some holding the Future View think the rider is the Antichrist.
19. Some think the bow symbolizes military power. Some think the fact that arrows are not mentioned is significant. Used only here. GK 5534.
20. Some think this symbolizes victory; others, royalty. On this word, see 4:4.
21. Or, "even". This phrase explains the previous one. This rider went out conquering in order that he might be victorious. He went out vanquishing in order that he might prevail.
22. Some think this symbolizes bloodshed. Elsewhere only in 12:3. GK 4794. Related to "fire".
23. Some think the rider represents the antichrist forces opposing the advance of the gospel by the first horse, and persecuting those spreading it. Some holding the Future View think the rider is the end-time Antichrist. Some think none of the riders are intended to be a specific person, but are personifications of the content of the seal.
24. This word is taken from v 8.
25. Some think John means "the peace" following the first seal; others, "peace" in general. Some holding the Future View think this removal of peace happens at the mid-point of the tribulation, based on Dan 9:27; others, early in the tribulation, as part of the birthpains (Mt 24:6-8). The Past View thinks John means "peace from the land" of Israel. On this word, see Act 15:33.
26. Or, "even". This phrase is explaining the previous. Note the change of subject.
27. Same word as in 5:6; 6:9.
28. Some think John is referring to war; others, to personal, criminal violence, civil disorder.
29. Or, "large knife" carried in a sheath. Some think this symbolizes great bloodshed; others, awesome killing power. Elsewhere in Revelation only in 13:10, 14. On this word, see Eph 6:17.
30. Some think this symbolizes mourning. The rider personifies famine (but not to the point of starvation).
31. Some manuscripts omit "something like" {N}.
32. Literally, a "choenix", a Greek dry measure used for grain, equivalent to about a quart or liter. This was the daily allowance for a slave. Used only in this verse. GK 5955.
33. This was a worker's daily wage. In other words, a one-day supply of wheat for one person will cost the entire daily wage of a laborer. This proclamation is setting market prices during a famine. On this word, see Mt 20:2.
34. Barley was the poor people's food. It took more of it to be equal in nourishment. Used only here. GK 3208. Related word in Jn 6:9.
35. Some think this is limiting the effect of the famine. It harms field crops, but not orchards (oil) and vineyards (wine). Others think it is indicating who will suffer. The poor (who eat the wheat and barley) will suffer, versus the rich (who will still be able to buy the luxuries of oil and wine). Whether oil and wine were considered luxuries or staples is a matter of debate.
36. Used of a "pale", unhealthy person. It is the look of death. Elsewhere only of grass as "green" in Mk 6:39; Rev 8:7; 9:4. GK 5952.
37. Or, "over, above". Not the same word as in v 2, 4, 5. Used 19 times. GK 2062.

1. Or, "power, capability, freedom to act". Same word as "right" in 1 Cor 8:9. It is also used of "authorities", human and angelic. Used 102 times. GK 2026. Related to "having authority" in Lk 22:25.
2. Or, "land". John may mean this as a geographical limit, to kill those living over a fourth of the land, or a fourth of the globe. Or, he may mean it as a numerical limit, to kill a fourth of mankind. The Past View thinks he means one fourth of Israel, a portion of the nation, prior to the final destruction.
3. Not the same word as in v 4. On this word, see 2:16.
4. That is, an epidemic of disease. This word is used in this sense only here and perhaps in 2:23; 18:8. It is the normal word "death", used earlier in this verse. On this word, see 2 Cor 11:23. These four "deaths" are also mentioned in Ezek 14:21.
5. This word was used of all kinds of wild animals, especially those hunted for game. They kill the wounded and defenseless. On this word, see "beast" in 13:1.
6. Some think John means the altar of incense, as in 8:3-5; others, an altar of sacrifice, based on their martyrdom. On this word, see 8:3.
7. John is referring to those martyred during the first four seals, which to the Future View means during the final tribulation, and to the Spiritual View means throughout history. Same word as in v 4. The persecutors, or their successors, are still on earth, v 10.
8. Or, "even", explaining the previous phrase. On the combination of "word" and "testimony", see 20:4.
9. Or, "having". Some think John means "their testimony which they had"; others, "His testimony which they held", the testimony of Jesus. 12:17; 19:10. On this word, see "have" in 1 Jn 1:8.
10. On this idiom, see Mt 17:17.
11. Same word as in 19:2. On this word, see "punish" in 2 Cor 10:6. Related to "vengeance" in Rom 12:19, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay". How long will You withhold it? Compare Lk 18:7-8.
12. A "white robe" is also in 7:9, 13, 14; Mk 16:5. "Robe" is elsewhere only in 22:14; Mk 12:38; Lk 15:22; 20:46. GK 5124. See "white garments" in 4:4. Some manuscripts have this plural, "white robes were given" {K}.
13. Or, "that they should rest, so that they will rest", or more simply, "to rest". GK 2671. This grammar is like 9:4.
14. Some think this means "rest from their labors", as in 14:13. Others, "rest from crying for vengeance". On this word, see "refreshed" in Phm 7.
15. Some think this time of delay ends with the seventh trumpet, based on 10:6 (same word). The prayers begin to be answered in 8:3-5 and the trumpets. Others think it ends with this verse, and begins to be answered in the next seal. See 8:2 on the relationship of seals and trumpets. "Short time" is also in 20:3, and elsewhere only in Jn 7:33; 12:35. On "short", see "least" in Mt 11:11.
16. The judgment of this seal is vengeance for their deaths in answer to their prayers. But it is delayed.
17. Or, "until the number of both their fellow slaves and their brothers".
18. Or, "even", explaining "fellow slaves". Some think there is one group here, their fellow Christian martyrs; others, two groups, their "fellow slaves" who are not martyred, and their "brothers" who will also be martyred.
19. Or, "filled up, filled full". Some manuscripts say "until also their fellow-slaves... may complete [their course]" {N}, dropping the idea of a quantity filled full. On this word, see "filled" in Eph 5:18.
20. Some manuscripts say "And behold" {K}. Some take the following things as symbolic of political and national upheavals and dissolutions. Some holding the Future View (see 1:1) take them as literal end-time events. The Past View takes them as symbolic of the dissolution and destruction of Israel. Some, especially the Spiritual View, think these are general apocalyptic symbols representing catastrophic end-time events, and are not intended to represent anything more specific. Also, some think these things are the same event as described in 16:17-21; others, the beginning of what concludes there. See 8:2 on the relationship of the seals, trumpets and bowls. These descriptions are also found in the OT prophets, and in Mt 24:29.
21. Some think the sun, moon, and stars symbolize levels of governmental power and authority. Note there are seven components named here, earth, sun, moon, stars, heaven, mountain and island. It signifies completeness.
22. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
23. This word is also used in 1:16, 20; 2:1, 28; 3:1, 8:10, 11, 12; 9:1; 12:1, 4; 22:16. In some of these places, stars are angelic beings. Note 9:1 and 12:4. Used 24 times. GK 843.
24. This word is used of the late figs which never ripen and fall off in a spring wind. Used only here. GK 3913.
25. Or, "separated, parted". John may mean "split in two like a scroll sometimes splits in two when being rolled up". Or, he may mean "parted from earth, rolled up like a scroll is rolled up". Elsewhere only as "separate" in Act 15:39. GK 714.
26. Elsewhere only in Heb 1:12, like a garment. GK 1813.
27. On this word, see 2:5. Some think this is the same as 16:18; others, a precursor to it.
28. Note that there are seven categories of persons listed here.
29. Or, "great ones, nobles, magnates". Elsewhere only in Mk 6:21; Rev 18:23. GK 3491.
30. On this word, see Act 21:31. Some manuscripts say "the rich and the commanders" {N}.
31. On this word, see Mt 17:26. Some manuscripts say "every free one" {N}.
32. Or, "presence". On this word, see "presence" in Lk 9:52.
33. Some think this "great day" is Christ's return, Mt 24:29-31. Others think it is the end-time "tribulation" or some point within it. The Past View thinks it is the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, the end of the nation of Israel. A "great day" is spoken of in 16:14; and Jn 7:37; 19:31; Act 2:20; Jude 6. Note also Joel 2:11, 31; Zeph 1:14.
34. Some manuscripts say "His" {A}.
35. The verb "came" is the same word and grammar as in 5:7; 8:3; 11:18; 14:7, 15; 17:1, 10; 18:10; 19:7. That is, it is here, it has arrived. These people are trying to hide themselves from what is happening, and what is about to happen next. This is the common word for "come, go", on which see Mk 16:2.

- 11C. After¹ this² I saw four angels standing at the four corners^A of the earth, holding-back^B the four winds³ of the earth in order that a wind might not blow⁴ on the land⁵, nor on the sea, nor against any tree⁶ 7:1

1. Some manuscripts say "And after..." {N}.
2. Within the vision itself, some think the question of 6:17, "who is able to stand", is now answered, both for those on earth (7:1-8) and in heaven (7:9-17). Some holding the Future View think these next two scenes are in proper time sequence within the seven seals, occurring either at some point during or at the end of the tribulation; others, that they are not in time sequence, the sealing occurring before the opening of the first seal in 6:1, and the praises after the tribulation. Thus some think "after this" means "the next thing to happen"; others, "the next thing I saw". The Spiritual View thinks these two scenes describe the situation of believers on earth and in heaven during the seals; that is, during the entire church age. Some manuscripts say "these things" {N}.
3. These winds are not mentioned again in this book.
4. Or, "no wind might blow". Within the vision itself, some think the "blowing" looks forward to the catastrophes of the coming trumpets and bowls, the destruction yet to come. Others think the four winds refer back to the four horsemen of chapter 6. Some holding the Future View take the winds literally. The Spiritual View thinks they are symbolic of God's judgments throughout the church age.
5. Same word as "earth" earlier in the verse. This word means "earth" versus heaven (Mt 24:35; Mt 13:27; Rev 1:5; 5:6; 14:15; 16:1; 21:1); "land" versus sea (Mk 4:1; Jn 21:8; Rev 10:2); the "land" of Israel, Sodom, Egypt, etc. (Mt 2:6; Lk 4:25; 21:23; Act 7:3; 13:17); "ground" (Mt 15:35; 25:18; Jn 8:6; Act 9:4); and "soil" (Mt 13:5; Lk 13:7). Used 82 times in Revelation in the first and second scenes, and the Past View thinks in the third sense in some of those places (the "land" of Israel). Used 250 times in the NT. GK 1178.
6. Some think the sea and tree symbolize the nations and their leaders.
7. That is, from the east, from a new day. Same phrase as in 16:12.
8. A seal is a mark of ownership, security. The sealing is for protection, as seen in 9:4. Compare Ezek 9:4-11. Same word as in v 4, 5, 8; 10:4; 20:3; 22:10. On this word, see Eph 1:13.
9. This group is referred to again in 9:4; 14:1. The mark is the name of the Lamb and His Father, 14:1. Note also 3:12; 22:4. The beast also does this (13:16), and note 17:5. Some think it means they are protected from divine judgments only, not from the beast or other people (13:7, 15; 20:4); others, from death from any source; others, from demonic attack (as in 9:4). In addition, some think they are eventually martyred. Some think they are sealed to be martyred, this giving the full number of 6:11. Some holding the Future View think they are sealed in order to live and enter the earthly kingdom of 20:4.
10. Some think this number is symbolic of the totality of these people. Others think it is a literal quantity.
11. Some holding the Spiritual View or the Future View take this symbolically, as representing Christian believers, spiritual Israel, the church on earth. They are numbered to show that all are accounted for, none are lost. Others holding the Future View take it literally, as representing Jewish believers during the tribulation. The Past View sees them as representing the Jewish Christian remnant who escaped Jerusalem.
12. Or, "Out of". Some, not all. There are several different arrangements of the names of the tribes in the Bible. The significance of John's arrangement of names here, if there is any, is not known. Consult the commentaries.
13. Some manuscripts have "having been sealed" after all twelve phrases {K}.
14. The sons of Jacob are listed in Gen 35:22-26. In Gen 48:5-22, Jacob claims Joseph's sons Ephraim and Manasseh and blesses them. Then in Gen 49, Jacob blesses all his twelve sons. Here in Rev 7:8, Dan (Jacob's son) is omitted, and Manasseh (Joseph's son) is included. Some think Dan was omitted because he fell into idolatry; others, because the Antichrist would come from his tribe.
15. This multitude is identified in v 14. On this word, see Mk 2:13.
16. John switches from the singular (nation) to the plural (tribes).
17. Or, "having put on white robes". On "white robes", see 6:11. Verse 14 says they are whitened in His blood.
18. Some think these are a symbol of rejoicing or triumph. Some think they reflect the Feast of Booths. On this word, see "palm trees" in Jn 12:13.
19. Or, "Salvation is in our God". Some think this means "the deliverance, the victory" from the tribulation. Others, "the salvation from sin and all its consequences", v 14. Same word as in 12:10; 19:1, on which see Lk 19:9.
20. The grammar makes clear that the angels were surrounding all three; that is, the throne, elders and four creatures.
21. Note that the 24 elders are distinct from the great multitude. This may imply that one or the other of these two groups is not the church.
22. Note that there are seven items named.
23. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}. By "lord", John means "sir", a term of respect (see "master" in Mt 8:2).
24. Those who think the "great affliction" refers to the trials of the entire church age think that this is the whole church. Those who think it is the end-time tribulation think these are all the believers who died during that event, or the martyrs only. Some think this is the same group described in v 3-8, now described in heaven. The Past View thinks this is a view of heaven given to encourage those suffering persecution in Israel.
25. Some take this to mean that this scene occurs in heaven during the great affliction, with people still coming out. Others take this to mean "those who came out", and think this scene occurs after the end of the great affliction during the millennium on earth (note v 15-16), or on the new earth (note the similarities to chapter 21), or in heaven.
26. Or, "tribulation, oppression, trouble, distress". The phrase "great affliction" also occurs in Mt 24:21; Act 7:11; Rev 2:22. The word "affliction" may also be used of an end-time event in Mt 24:9, 29; Mk 13:19, 24; 2 Thes 1:6. The Future View (see 1:1) thinks the elder is referring to the final period of wrath on unbelievers and persecution of believers at the end of the age, culminated by the return of Christ, and described in chapters 6-19 (some think it is seven years long, based on Dan 9:27). The Spiritual View thinks it is the affliction and persecution experienced by believers from the first century until Christ returns. The Past View thinks it is the time of Israel's destruction. Same word as in Rev 1:9; 2:9, 10, 22; and in Mt 13:21; Mk 4:17; Jn 16:21, 33; Act 7:10; 11:19; 14:22; 20:23; Rom 2:9; 5:3; 8:35; 12:12; 1 Cor 7:28; 2 Cor 1:4, 8; 2:4; 4:17; 6:4; 7:4; 8:2, 13; Eph 3:13; Phil 4:14; Col 1:24; 1 Thes 1:6; 3:3, 7; 2 Thes 1:4; Heb 10:33; Jam 1:27. Elsewhere only as "trouble" in Phil 1:17. GK 2568. The related verb is in 2 Cor 4:8.
27. Same word as in 22:14. Elsewhere only in Lk 5:2. GK 4459.
28. Or, "whitened them". On this word, "made white", see Mk 9:3.

1. Some think this indicates these people are "in heaven", before the throne of chapters 4-5. Others think they are "on earth" because of the things that follow—day and night, the sun falling on them, etc.
2. Or, "worshiping". This word is used of serving God in the temple. Same word as in 22:3. On this word, see "worship" in Heb 12:28.
3. This phrase "by day and by night" is elsewhere only in 4:8; 12:10; 14:11; 20:10; Lk 18:7; Act 9:24. It means "both during the day and during the night". The phrase "by night and by day" is only in Mk 5:5; 1 Thes 2:9; 3:10; 2 Thes 3:8; 1 Tim 5:5; 2 Tim 1:3. A related phrase ("night and day", meaning "continually") using the same words but different grammar is in Mk 4:27; Lk 2:37; Act 20:31; 26:7.
4. Some think the elder means the temple in heaven, chapters 4-5; 11:19; others, the temple on the new earth, which is the Lord God and the Lamb, 21:22. Some holding the Future View think he means a temple on earth during the millennium of 20:4.
5. Or, "live, take up residence, encamp, pitch a tent". Elsewhere only in Jn 1:14; Rev 12:12; 13:6; 21:3. GK 50/2. This is the verb related to the word "tent". Note that here God dwells "over" them, protecting them from harm. In 21:3 He dwells "with" them. Jesus dwelt "among" us, Jn 1:14.
6. Some think this is a symbolic way of saying they will have every need met.
7. Or, "between" the throne and all the others. This idiom is elsewhere only as "between" in Mt 13:25; 1 Cor 6:5; and "in the midst" in Mk 7:31.
8. Used of Christ also in Mt 2:6; Rev 12:5; 19:15. On this word, see 19:15.
9. Same phrase as in 21:6. On this word, see Rom 8:10. Some manuscripts say "living springs of waters" {N}.
10. Same word as in 21:4. On this word, see "wipe out" in Col 2:14.
11. Or, "whenever". This is a different word than with the other six seals, and grammar elsewhere only in Mk 11:19. Here, it may indicate repetition, "and when in repetition of past seals He opened". Or, it may indicate an indefiniteness about the exact time the seal was opened, since only silence followed, "and whenever He opened...". GK 402/0.
12. Some think this silence signals a break in the continuity before the trumpets recapitulate the seals in greater detail. Others think this is a dramatic pause signifying the fearful nature of the terrible events to come. Elsewhere only in Act 21:40. GK 496/8.
13. This is a new heavenly scene, angels and trumpets. Some think the seventh seal, trumpet and bowl each represent the end. The first six seals, trumpets and bowls either overlap to some degree, or recapitulate the same ground in greater detail, or cover subsequent periods prior to the end. Others think the seventh seal is made up of the seven trumpets, and the seventh trumpet is made up of the seven bowls. In this case, some holding the Future View think this means they are sequential in time. Others think that this is simply a literary device, a way of "signifying" (:1) it. In the TransLine, the trumpets begin a new point at the "B" level without regard to any of these views, simply as a subject-grouping of this heavenly scene.
14. Because the angel symbolically mediates prayers from believers to God, some think he represents Christ, our High Priest. Others think this is simply "another angel".
15. Or, "in order that he might give", or simply "to give". GK 267/1.
16. Or, "for". John could mean "with", either along with their prayers or along with the bowls of incense representing their prayers mentioned in 5:8. Or, he could mean "for", as representing or assisting the prayers. In this case, the incense represents the prayers, as in 5:8. In the former case, it is offered with the prayers. In either case, it symbolizes the fragrant aroma and acceptability they have to God.
17. Some think these represent the prayers for vengeance in 6:10.
18. Some think this means all saints of all time; that is, "all" who left vengeance to God, asking Him to repay according to deeds, like Paul in 2 Tim 4:14; Rom 12:19. Some holding the Future View think this means all the saints from the end-time tribulation.
19. Some think this is a different altar from the one mentioned earlier and in v 5; others think there is only one altar. Thus some think this is the altar of incense, and the other is the altar of burnt offerings. Same word as 6:9; 8:5; 9:13; 11:1; 14:18; 16:7. Used 23 times. GK 260/3. Related to "sacrifice" in Heb 9:26.
20. When the incense is poured from his hand on to the coals, smoke rises "from his hand", so to speak.
21. Or, "land". This represents God's answer, detailed in the trumpets next.
22. Or, "took place, were". GK 118/1. Same word as in v 7.
23. These are the same three things as in 4:5, coming from His throne.
24. The Future View (see 1:1) takes what follows as literal (or as symbolic of) supernatural events at the end of the age, like the plagues on Egypt. The Spiritual View treats them as symbols of God's repetitive judgments on sinful people throughout the ages. The emphasis here is that they are from God, and they are partial, aimed at repentance. The Past View takes them as symbolic of God's judgments on Israel by means of the Roman army.
25. Some manuscripts add "angel" {N}.
26. The combination of hail and fire is also in Ex 9:24. It indicates supernatural hail.
27. Some think this is symbolic of the destruction of life. Some holding the Future View think John means literal blood; others, a red rain.
28. Or, "earth". It is rendered "land" here in contrast with "sea" in v 8. On this word, see 7:1.
29. The trumpets are a warning meant to lead to repentance, 9:20. They are partial ("one third"), whereas the bowls (chapter 15) are final ("all"). Literally, it is "the third" down through v 12. The Greek thinks of it as "the third part", English as "a third". Likewise with a fourth in 6:8, a tenth in 11:13, etc. Some manuscripts omit "And a third of the land was burned up" {N}.
30. The land and the trees were protected in 7:3.
31. Some think this is symbolic of people and leaders and nations; others, part of a general apocalyptic symbol not expected to interpreted in detail. Some holding the Future View think this is literal vegetation, and that John means "all the green grass on one third of the land", where it is in season perhaps; others, "all green grass worldwide". Compare 9:4.
32. Some think this symbolizes a kingdom or nation's destruction; others, a meteor; others, that it is simply an apocalyptic symbol.
33. The sea was protected in 7:3.
34. Some holding the Future View think John means "became real blood"; others, "became blood-red". Compare Ex 7:17-18. Compare Rev 6:12; 11:6; 16:3-6.
35. On this word, see 6:13. Some think John means a meteor; others, an angel (as in 1:20; 9:1); others, that this is symbolic of a great leader.
36. Or, "Bitter". This is a bitter herb, known as absinth today (which comes from this Greek word). Used only in this verse. GK 95/2.

- 7E. And they have tails like scorpions, and stingers^V 10
- 8E. And their authority^J to harm^K people^A for five months is in their tails
- 4D. They have a king over them²³— the angel of the abyss.²⁴ The name for him in Hebrew is Abaddon. And in Greek he has the name Apollyon²⁵ 11
- 5D. The first woe passed-away²⁶. Behold— two woes are still coming after these things 12
- 8C. And²⁷ the sixth angel trumpeted 13

1. This is not the same grammar as "became blood" in v 8. It is a Hebrew way of speaking, as in Jn 16:20; Act 5:36; 1 Cor 15:45; Heb 1:5; etc. Literally, "came-to-be for wormwood". Some think John means it became literal wormwood; others, "as bitter as wormwood"; others, "mixed with wormwood".
2. Or, "hit" with a blow. Used only here. GK 4448. Related to "wound" in 13:3. This word was used of being "struck" by lightning, love, fear, misfortune. The sun, moon and stars were already mentioned in the sixth seal, 6:12. Some think this is symbolic of government and leaders; others, of the light of the truth (spiritual darkness). Some holding the Future View (see 1:1) take it literally.
3. Or, "So that... were darkened, and... did not shine". GK 2671.
4. This breaks the trumpets into a group of four and three (three woes), as the four horsemen did for the seals.
5. Or, "vulture", as in Mt 24:28; Lk 17:37. Elsewhere only as "eagle" in Rev 4:7; 12:14. GK 108. Some manuscripts say "angel" {N}.
6. That is, mid-air, where the birds fly, as in 19:17. Some think it is a literal eagle; others, an angel as in 14:6.
7. That is, the unbelievers, as seen in 9:4. On this phrase, see 3:10.
8. Or, "from". GK 1666.
9. Some think this "star" is one of God's angels, perhaps the one in 20:1; others, Satan or one of his angels, taking "fallen" in a theological sense; others, some human leader. On this word, see 6:13.
10. Besides v 1-2, this word is elsewhere only as "well" in Lk 14:5; Jn 4:11, 12. GK 5853. It refers to an opening into a deep hole in the ground. Here, an opening to those "under the earth", 5:13.
11. Elsewhere only in Lk 8:31 (where demons feared being sent here); Rom 10:7; and Rev 9:2, 11; 11:7; 17:8; 20:1, 3. GK 12. Note 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6. The word means "without [known] depth", and is rendered by some "bottomless".
12. Elsewhere only in v 7; Mt 3:4; Mk 1:6. GK 210. Some think the locusts are demons. Others think they symbolize false teachings, errors, delusions, and moral corruption. Others think they symbolize human armies, the forces of evil (some holding the Past View think they represent the army of Rome against Israel). Some holding the Future View think they are literal, but special locusts. Compare Joel 2.
13. Or, it was told to them "not to harm, that they should not harm, so that they will not harm". GK 2671.
14. Same word as in 8:7 where it was burned up. Some holding the Future View think the grass referred to here is the other 2/3 not destroyed in 8:7; others, that this indicates time has passed and the grass has grown back. Others think these are not sequential in time, or are apocalyptic symbols not intended to be interpreted at this level of detail.
15. This either implies that there are no other believers on earth except those so sealed, or that believers who were not sealed will also be tormented by this. This seal was placed on their foreheads in 7:3-4.
16. Note the change of subject.
17. Five months is the life span of ordinary locusts, May to September. Some take this literally; others, symbolically of a limited period of time.
18. This verse explains the extent of the torment. People will wish they could die from it, but they will not die from it.
19. Or, "resemblances, outward appearances". On this word, see Phil 2:7.
20. Same word as "resembling" next, and in 1:13. Related to the word earlier. Or, "the resemblances were resembling".
21. Or, "men". John may mean like human faces; or, like a man's face in particular (bearded?). Same word as in v 6.
22. Some think this means that they have long hair.
23. This is unlike regular locusts, Prov 30:27. Some think this is God's angel. Others, Satan's, or Satan himself.
24. Some think John means the angel who opened the abyss in 9:2; others, "the angel from the abyss", and in charge of these ones.
25. Both these names are used only here. Both mean "Destroyer". GK 3 and 661.
26. Same word as in 11:14. GK 599.
27. Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it says "two woes are still coming. After these things, the sixth angel trumpeted" {N}.

- 11D. And I heard one voice from the four¹ horns of the golden altar² before God * saying to the sixth angel— the one having the trumpet— “Release^A the four angels³ having been bound^B at the great river Euphrates⁴” 14
- 11E. And the four angels⁵ were released— the ones having been prepared^C for the hour and day and month and year⁶— in order that they might kill a third of mankind⁷ 15
- 2E. And the number^D of the troops^E of cavalry⁸ was two hundred million⁹. I¹⁰ heard the number of them 16

- 1E. Having¹² breastplates [the color] of-fire and of-hyacinth¹³ and of-sulphur¹⁴
- 2E. And the heads of the horses are like heads of lions. And fire and smoke and sulphur¹⁵ is coming-out¹⁶ of their mouths¹⁷

- 2E. And they did not repent^I from their murders^M, nor from their sorcerer’s-potions²³, 21
nor from their sexual-immorality^N, nor from their thefts
- 21D. And²⁴ I saw another²⁵ strong angel coming down from heaven,²⁶ having been clothed-with²⁷ a cloud²⁸. And the rainbow²⁹ was over³⁰ his head, and his face was like the sun³¹, and his feet were like pillars^O of fire³² 10:1
- 11E. And he was holding³³ in his hand an opened³⁴ little-scroll³⁵ 2

- 1E. And when he cried-out, the seven thunders³⁷ spoke their voices
- 2E. And when the seven thunders spoke³⁸, I was about to write. And I heard a voice from heaven saying,³⁹ “Seal^Q the things which the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them” 4
- 31E. And the angel whom I saw standing upon the sea and upon the land lifted-up his right⁴⁰ hand to heaven * and swore⁴¹ 5
- 1E. By the One living forever and ever^R— Who created^S the heaven and the things in it, and the land and the things in it, and⁴² the sea and the things in it

1. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
2. That is, the one in 8:3, on which the incense was burned. This may symbolize a link to the prayers offered there.
3. Some think these are good angels; others, demons. Some think they are the same ones as in 7:1.
4. Elsewhere only in 16:12. This is a 1700 mile river beginning in eastern Turkey, running southwest into northern Syria, and then turning southeast and running through central Iraq into the Persian Gulf just north of Kuwait. It is one of the borders of the land promised to Abraham, Gen 15:18. The Garden of Eden was here, Gen 2:14. It was also the eastern border of the Roman Empire. GK 2371.
5. Though it is not stated, John seems to mean the four angels are the leaders of the horsemen mentioned next.
6. That is, for that specific moment in history.
7. That is, unbelievers (note v 20; as in 9:4). The purpose changes from tormenting (9:5), to killing. On this word, see Mt 4:4.
8. Literally, the troops "pertaining to a horse". Used only here. GK 2690. Related to "horsemen" in Act 23:23, and "horse". These are the troops led by the four angels to kill a third of mankind. Some think these troops are angels or demons. Others think they represent human armies. The Past View thinks it is symbolic of the Roman Army, the Tenth Legion that destroyed Israel.
9. Literally, "twenty-thousand ten-thousands", that is, 20,000 times 10,000. Some take this literally; others, symbolically. On the word for 10,000, see "myriad" in Act 21:20. The word for 20,000 is used only here, GK 1490.
10. Some manuscripts say "And I heard" {K}.
11. Same word as in Act 2:17. Elsewhere only as "appearance" in Rev 4:3. Related to "vision" in Act 10:3. GK 3970.
12. Some think this refers to the rider and the horse; others, to the rider only.
13. This precious stone also mentioned in 21:20 is either dark blue or dark red. GK 5610.
14. That is, yellow. Used only here. GK 2523. John could mean the breastplates are tri-colored; or, that there are ones of each color.
15. Same word as in v 18. On this word, see 14:10. Related to "of-sulphur" preceding.
16. Same word as in 1:16.
17. John could mean all three come from each horse; or, that one plague comes from each horse.
18. On this word, see "wound" in 13:3. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
19. Some manuscripts repeat "by" with the next two {N}, "and by the smoke and by the sulphur".
20. Some manuscripts say "For their authority is in" {K}.
21. This phrase modifies "tails". Their tails have heads. This is the sense in which they resemble snakes.
22. Or, "not". GK 4028. Not the same word as in v 21. Some manuscripts do have the same word as v 21 {N}.
23. This word refers to the potions, drugs, charms, and poisons used in sorcery. Used only here. GK 5760. Related to "sorcerer" in 21:8; and "sorcery" in 18:23, the broader word (which some manuscripts have here {N}).
24. Some would place 10:1-11:14 at the "C" level in the outline, between the sixth and seventh trumpet, in a similar manner to the two points in chapter 7. In the TransLine, it is placed here because John does not begin with "After these things" (indicating a change of subject) as in chapter 7, and because John specifically closes the sixth trumpet (the second woe) in 11:14. Some think the sixth trumpet, the second woe, extends from 9:13 to 11:13. Others think it extends from 9:13 to 9:21, and that chapters 10-11 are unrelated visions, similar to the two visions in chapter 7.
25. Some think this is symbolic of Christ, due to similarities in the description; others think it is another strong angel, as in 5:2.
26. John's perspective for the visions in 10:1-11:14 is from earth. Note v 1, 4, 8, 11:12.
27. Or, "having put on a cloud".
28. Elsewhere in this book only in 1:7; 11:12; 14:14, 15, 16. On this word, see 14:14.
29. Some think this is an emerald rainbow like the one in 4:3. Others think it is like the well-known multi-colored rainbow.
30. Or, "upon". GK 2093.
31. Compare 1:16; 18:1.
32. Compare 1:15.
33. Or, "having". Some manuscripts say "And he had" {N}.
34. This is a participle, "having been opened". Same word as in v 8. GK 487.
35. Elsewhere only in v 9, 10. GK 1044. Note also v 8. Some think this is the scroll of 5:1, which is now open. Others think its contents are chapter 11; or 11-22, the prophecies yet to be given to John. Others think it is John's commission, v 11, emphasizing the magnitude of what is coming. Others think it is the gospel, or the Word of God.
36. Some think this symbolizes that this angel's message is for the whole world; some think the land and sea symbolizes the land of Israel and the Gentile nations. Others think it symbolizes the angel's authority over the whole world.
37. Some think these are spoken by angels; others, by God.
38. Some manuscripts add "their voices" {K}, as in v 3.
39. Some think this is the voice of God; others, Christ; others, an angel. Some manuscripts add "to me" {K}.
40. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
41. Same word as in Jam 5:12. The angel raises his right hand and swears a solemn oath. Similar to Dan 12:7.
42. Some manuscripts omit "and the sea and the things in it" {A}.

2E. That there will be no more time¹ [of delay], *but during the days of the sound² of the seventh angel— when he is about-to³ trumpet⁴— the mystery⁵ of God⁶ was indeed⁷ finished⁸ 7

1G. As He announced-as-good-news-to^A His slaves^B, the prophets⁹

3D. And the voice which I heard from heaven¹⁰ was again speaking with me, and saying “Go, take the opened scroll¹¹ in the hand of the angel standing upon the sea and upon the land” 8

1E. And I went to the angel, telling him to give¹² me the little-scroll¹³ 9

2E. And he says to me, “Take, and eat it up¹⁴. And it will make your stomach bitter. But in your mouth it will be sweet^C like honey¹⁵”

3E. And I took the little-scroll¹⁶ out of the hand of the angel, and I ate it up. And it was like sweet honey in my mouth. And when I ate it, my stomach was made-bitter^D 10

4E. And they¹⁷ say to me, “You must^E prophesy^F again¹⁸ for¹⁹ many peoples^G and nations and tongues and kings²⁰” 11

4D. And *a measuring-rod*²¹ resembling^H *a staff*²² was given²³ to me, saying²⁴ 11:1

1E. “Arise^I, and measure²⁵ the temple²⁶ of God,²⁷ and the altar^K, and the ones worshiping^L in it. *And put^M the court^N outside of the temple on-the-outside²⁸, and do not measure it, because it was given to the Gentiles²⁹” 2

2E. And they will trample³⁰ the holy city³¹ for forty and³² two months³³

1. This answers the question of 6:10, "how long?". No more time will intervene. Similar to Dan 12:6-7. Some think this means "time" in an absolute sense. On this word, see 2 Tim 1:9.
2. Or, "blast" as in 8:13, the "blast" of the trumpet.
3. Or, "going to". This word and grammar, "when... about to", is elsewhere only in Mk 13:4; Lk 21:7, "the sign when these things are about to take place". On this word, see "going to" in Mk 10:32.
4. This phrase is meant to clarify the last. This could mean "when he is about to begin to trumpet", or, "when he shall trumpet". Some think it means that when he raises the trumpet to blow it, the delay will be over, God's final judgment is here. Others think he means that the delay will end with the content of the seventh trumpet. Note 16:17.
5. Same word as in 1:20; 17:5, 7. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
6. Some think this means the mystery of God carrying out His wrath toward sin; others, of God's whole purpose in human history, His plan of redemption and judgment. Note what is said after the seventh trumpet is blown, 11:15-18.
7. Or, "also".
8. Or, "completed, accomplished, fulfilled". The angel vividly states this future event as if it had already occurred, pointing to its certainty. A similar statement is made with the seventh bowl in 16:17, using a different word and tense, "It is done". Same word as in 11:7; 15:1, 8; 17:17; 20:3, 5, 7; Mt 7:28; 10:23; 11:1; 13:53; 19:1; 26:1; Lk 2:39; Jn 19:28, 30; 2 Tim 4:7. Elsewhere only as "accomplished" in Lk 12:50; "perfected" in 2 Cor 12:9; "fulfilled" in Lk 18:31; 22:37; Act 13:29; Rom 2:27; Gal 5:16; Jam 2:8; and "pay" in Mt 17:24; Rom 13:6. GK 5464. Related to "perfect" in 2 Cor 7:1 and in Heb 2:10; "complete" in 1 Cor 13:10; and "end" in Rom 10:4.
9. Some think this means the OT prophets; others, the NT prophets; others, both. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:28.
10. That is, the voice in v 4. The focus shifts from the angel to John.
11. Some manuscripts say "little-scroll" {N}, as in v 2. On this word, see 5:1.
12. Some manuscripts have this as a command, "... him, 'Give me the little scroll'" {N}.
13. Some manuscripts say "scroll" {N}, as in v 8.
14. Or, "devour it, consume it". Same word as in 10:10; and "devour" in 11:5; 12:4; 20:9. On this word, see "devour" in Mk 12:40. Similar to Ezek 2:8-3:3, where eating symbolized "filling your body" with God's words.
15. Some think this means the prophecies of God's righteous wrath are sweet at first, but also bitter once pondered; others, that the gospel is sweet for believers, but includes a bitter message regarding unbelievers.
16. Some manuscripts say "scroll" {N}, as in v 8.
17. That is, the voice from heaven and the angel, v 8. Or, an indefinite "they", meaning "it was said to me". Some manuscripts say "he says" {N}, referring to the angel.
18. Some think this is referring to the prophecy of chapter 11, in which case this could be combined with the next sentence in point 4D.; others, to chapters 11-22. Some think John sat down or laid down (note 11:1, "Arise, Get up") due to his bitter stomach. In other words, "you are not finished yet, you have much more to prophesy in addition to what has been prophesied to this point. Rise and measure...".
19. Some think this means John must prophesy "for" them, prophesy things destined to occur to them (as this word is used in Jn 12:16; Rev 22:16); others, "against" them (as it is used in Lk 12:53); others, "about" them; others, "before" them. GK 2093.
20. Similar to the phrase in 11:9; 13:7; 14:6; 17:15. "Nations" is used 3 times in Revelation before this verse, 19 times after. "Kings" is used 3 times in Revelation before this verse, 17 times after.
21. This is similar to Ezek 40:3; Zech 2:1; Rev 21:15. Same word as "rod" in 21:15, 16. On this word, see "stick" in Mk 15:36.
22. John may mean a walking stick or a shepherd's rod. On this word, see "rod" in 1 Cor 4:21.
23. By whom? The only candidate in the context is the angel of 10:9. Otherwise, John does not tell us.
24. Some manuscripts say "to me. And the angel stood, saying, Rise..." {A}. Some think the one speaking is the voice of the angel in 10:1, 5, 8; others, the voice from heaven in 10:4, 8.
25. John measures to identify and mark off what is God's (the temple and its worshipers). The things that do not belong to God are not measured. Some think this is symbolic of marking believers for God's protection during the wrath that falls in v 13, or in the bowls, or in the book. Some think it is the same thing as the sealing in 7:4.
26. That is, the inner sanctuary, the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies, as opposed to the rest of the temple complex included in what is mentioned in v 2. Used in Revelation only in 3:12; 7:15; 11:1, 2, 19; 14:15, 17; 15:5, 6, 8; 16:1, 17; 21:22. This word is used of the temple, the sanctuary of the temple, the body as a temple (as in 1 Cor 6:19), and the church as a temple (Eph 2:21). Used 45 times. GK 3724. See also the unrelated word in Act 19:27.
27. Some holding the Future View think John means a future temple on earth in Jerusalem, 2 Thes 2:4; Dan 9:27; Ezek 40-48. Others think the temple, altar, worshipers and holy city all symbolize "the church", and "trampling" its persecution. Others think this refers to the temple in Jerusalem in the first century to illustrate the separation of this age.
28. That is, leave it out, omit it, exclude it, do not include it on the inside. The word "outside" is repeated twice, and the verb also includes it. More literally, "throw-out the outside court of the temple outside" your measurement.
29. Or, "nations". On this word, see Act 15:23.
30. Or, "tread". Same word as in Lk 21:24, where Jerusalem will be trampled until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. On this word, see Lk 10:19. The Past View (see 1:1) thinks this is the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans; the Spiritual View and some holding the Future View, a symbol of the persecuted church. Others holding the Future View think it is a persecution of end-time Israel by the Gentile nations.
31. The "holy city" is mentioned in Mt 4:5; 27:53, Jerusalem; and in Rev 21:2, 10; 22:19, the New Jerusalem.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
33. Forty-two months is also mentioned in 13:5. It is equivalent to 1260 days, 11:3; 12:6. See also 12:14, time, times, and half a time. Some take the time indicated literally; others, as symbolic (half of seven) of a limited time, the limited time of the wicked's triumph. Some think the periods are concurrent. Some holding the Future View think the two witnesses (11:3) and the protection of the woman (12:6, 14) are in the first half of the seven-year tribulation, and the beast (13:5) and this trampling of Jerusalem (11:2) are in the second half of it. Others holding the Future View think they all refer to the second half of the tribulation.

1. Some holding the Future View (see 1:1) think these are Enoch and Elijah, because they did not die (Heb 11:5; 2 Kings 2:11; Mal 4:5), or Moses and Elijah, because they appeared on the mountain at the transfiguration of Christ (Mt 17:4). The Spiritual View thinks they are symbolic of the church, or its martyrs in particular. Some holding the Past View think they are literal prophets in Jerusalem during that time. On this word, see Act 1:8.
2. That is, regarding the judgment about to fall, and what people should do in light of it. On this word, see 1 Cor 14:1.
3. Or, "having put on sackcloth".
4. Compare Zech 4:3, 12-14.
5. Some manuscripts say "of God" {N}.
6. Or, "wanting, willing, desiring". Same word as later in the verse. On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
7. Those who identify the two witnesses as the church thinks this symbolizes the future judgment of God. Those who think they are two individuals take it literally, or as a symbol of immediate destruction caused by their pronouncement.
8. Fire going out from the mouth is also mentioned in 9:17, 18.
9. The first sentence states the fact, this one states the warning.
10. They have the same power and resources as Moses and Elijah. On this word, see 6:8.
11. Or, "so that no rain falls". GK 2671.
12. That is, the days of their prophetic activity, the 1260 days. Note Jam 5:17. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:10.
13. Or, "land". On this word, see 7:1.
14. The beast is mentioned in this manner again in 17:8. On "beast", see 13:1. On "abyss", see 9:1.
15. Some think that "make war" implies that these are not simply two individuals, but symbolic of many witnesses; others, that one does not simply "kill" these two, v 5. This speaks of the effort required to accomplish it. On the phrase "make war", see 13:7.
16. Some think that the singular "corpse" implies they are symbolic. It is plural in v 9b. On this word, see Mk15:45.
17. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 2:14. GK 4462. Related to "spiritual" in 1 Cor 14:1.
18. Some think these names symbolize moral corruption, and spiritual oppression of believers.
19. Some manuscripts say "our" {N}.
20. Those who think the two witnesses are the church think John is referring to Jerusalem as symbolic of all the cities of the world, as perhaps also in 18:24. Others accept the literal reference of the words. On this word, see Mt 27:35.
21. Same phrase as in 3:9; and "some of" in 2:10.
22. On this word, see "see" in 1:11. Some manuscripts say "will look at" {K}.
23. On this word, see "forgive" in Mt 6:12. Some manuscripts say "will not permit" {N}.
24. Or, "land". On this phrase, see 3:10.
25. On this word, see 2 Cor 13:11. Some manuscripts say "will rejoice... and will celebrate" {N}.
26. Some manuscripts say "they send" {N}.
27. Or, "spirit". Same word as in 13:15.
28. After all, what can they do besides kill them? The fear proceeds from the witnesses' clearly unstoppable power, and their killers' impotence.
29. Some manuscripts say "I" {B}.
30. Same idiom as in 3:4.
31. Compare 6:16; 9:20. Some think this indicates a genuine repentance. Others, think it is due to terror. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:10.
32. Same word as in 9:12; and as 21:1, 4. GK 599.
33. Or, "soon". On this word, see 22:7. That is, the seventh trumpet.
34. Some think the woeful content is seen in the seven bowls in chapter 16. Here the heavenly rejoicing is given. See the note on 8:2.
35. Same word as in 8:5 and as "become" next.
36. Note that here, John's perspective returns to heaven. Compare 10:1.
37. That is, the kingdom presently ruled by Satan, Eph 2:2; 1 Jn 5:19. On this word, see Mt 3:2. Some manuscripts have this word plural {N}.
38. Or, "was made". GK 1181. The moment has arrived. This is stated as if it were already accomplished. Some holding the Spiritual and Past Views (see 1:1) think this is referring to Christ's present reign in His spiritual kingdom over His own subjects. Others think it refers to His future reign in full glory over everyone, including His enemies.
39. Some manuscripts add "and Who is coming" {B}, as in 1:4. Some think John omits it because God has now come. His coming is here. Note 16:5, where the same issue arises.
40. Or, "You reigned, became king". Same word and tense as in 19:6. God began to visibly reign over His enemies.
41. Or, "became wrathful". God asserted His rule, took control of this world, and the nations became angry and wrathful, not repentant. Elsewhere only in Mt 5:22; 18:34; 22:7; Lk 14:21; 15:28; Eph 4:26; Rev 12:17. GK 3974. Related to "wrath" in 16:19.

1. Same root word as "angry". They became angry and Your anger came; their wrath was provoked and Your wrath came. On this word, see 16:19.
2. On this word, see 6:17.
3. That is, all the dead, resulting in reward for believers, and the punishment for others described in 20:11-15. The time has arrived. The details of this are given later in the book.
4. Or, "even". This could refer to two groups, "Your slaves the prophets, and the saints, even the ones fearing..." Compare 10:7. Or, "Your slaves—the prophets and the saints—even the ones fearing..." Compare 16:6, 18:20. Others punctuate it to indicate three groups—prophets, saints and ones fearing (as perhaps in 18:24).
5. Or, "corrupting". Same word as earlier, and as in 8:9. On this word, see 2 Cor 4:16. Related to "corrupted" in 19:2.
6. Or, "land". On this word, see 7:1.
7. Some think this verse is the conclusion of the seventh trumpet (making it point 3D.), and begin the new section with 12:1 (either as point 4B. or 4D.). Some holding the Past View (see 1:1) think what follows continues to depict the destruction of Israel; others, that it moves on to describe the destruction of the Roman Empire. In the TransLine, this opening of the temple is taken as introducing the next heavenly scene, the next subject-grouping, which through three signs in heaven gives a panoramic view of history from the ark Moses copied to the end of the age. The progression of heavenly scenes at the B. level is, the seals are opened, the trumpets blow, the temple is opened here. Then the temple of the tabernacle is opened in 15:5, heaven is opened in 19:11, heaven and earth disappear in 20:11, the new heaven and earth appear in 21:1.
8. That is, the box containing the covenant. This ark is mentioned only here and Heb 9:4 in the NT. The heavenly ark symbolizes God's commitment to the covenant, and its enduring force. He keeps it in a safe and honored place. This is the heavenly ark Moses copied (Heb 8:5). The earthly ark was kept in the tabernacle (in the Holy of Holies), and the heavenly tabernacle may be the "temple" in view here (called the "tabernacle of testimony" in 15:5). Some manuscripts add "of the Lord" {N}. On this word, see Heb 8:6.
9. Or, "was seen". Same word as in 12:1, 3, on which see "see" in Lk 2:26.
10. These three things occurred when John entered heaven in 4:5, and prior to the trumpets in 8:5. Here some think they mark the beginning of a new scene. They occur once more at the beginning of the seventh bowl in 16:18.
11. An earthquake occurs prior to the trumpets (8:5), and the heavenly signs (11:19). A great earthquake occurs in the sixth seal (6:12), and in the sixth trumpet (11:13). The greatest earthquake occurs in the seventh bowl (16:18). Used 14 times. GK 4939.
12. This woman is not Mary alone, as v 17 makes clear. Some think she represents believing Israel; others, the whole believing community, including Israel (which gives Jesus birth) and the church (her persecuted seed, v 17).
13. These may represent the twelve tribes of Israel. Note Gen 37:9, where Jacob is the sun, Rachel the moon. On this word, see 6:13.
14. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, so that it says "And having a child in her womb, she is crying out".
15. On this word, see Mt 8:29. Some manuscripts say "cried out" {N}.
16. Or, "being in torture, anguish". On this word, see 14:10.
17. Same word as in 6:4. Some think this symbolizes Satan's murderous character. He kills through deception.
18. That is, Satan, 12:9; 20:2. Elsewhere only in 12:4, 7, 13, 16, 17; 13:2, 4, 11; 16:13. GK 1532.
19. That is, king's crowns. See 13:1; Dan 7:7-8. Some think the heads, horns and crowns symbolize Satan's great power; others suggest a more specific meaning in keeping with the explanation given in 17:9-12.
20. Elsewhere only as "drag" in Jn 21:8; Act 14:19; 17:6; and "drag away" in Act 8:3. GK 5359. It may imply an unwillingness to go.
21. Some think this refers to angels who rebelled with Satan. See "stars" in 6:13. Note that this is some time prior to the birth of the Child.
22. GK 2705. Or, "was standing" (GK 5112), which would be followed later by "when she gave birth".
23. On this phrase, "shepherd with an iron rod", see 2:27.
24. Or, "snatched away". Note the jump from Christ's birth to His ascension. On this word, see "snatched away" in 2 Cor 12:2.
25. The Spiritual View (see 1:1) thinks this is symbolic of the preservation of believers through the trials and persecutions of this world. The Past View thinks it refers to the flight of Christians from Israel before A.D. 70. The Future View thinks this jumps forward to the end time and a flight to safety during the tribulation, the next thing to say about her. Compare Mt 24:15-28. On this word, see 1 Cor 6:18.
26. Or, "desert". Same word as in v 14. On this word, see Mt 3:1.
27. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
28. Or, "provide for, feed". Who "they" are is not stated. Same word as in v 14; and as "provided for" in Act 12:20. On this word, see "feed" in Lk 23:29.
29. On this time period, see "forty and two months" in 11:2.
30. Some think this explains why the woman had to flee, and that v 6 is resumed in v 13-14.
31. Or, "battle, fight". This word may mean an extended war, or a single battle. Same word as in Mt 24:6; Mk 13:7; Lk 21:9; and in the phrase "make war", on which see 13:7. Elsewhere only as "battle" in Lk 14:31; 1 Cor 14:8; Heb 11:34; Rev 9:7, 9; 16:14; 20:8; and "fight" in Jam 4:1. GK 4483. Related to the verb "fight" next.
32. Some think this occurred at the original fall of Satan; others, at the Cross (Lk 10:18; Jn 12:31; 16:11); others, at Christ's ascension in v 5. Some holding the Future View think it will occur before the future tribulation, or at its midpoint, Dan 9:27; 12:1, 7.
33. This angel is the guardian of Israel in Dan 10:13, 21; 12:1. Mentioned elsewhere only in Jude 9. GK 3640.
34. This verb is supplied from the first sentence, GK 1181.
35. The grammar is of this sentence is unusual. Supplying "were", this gives the purpose of Michael, and may imply that Michael initiated the war to force Satan out of heaven. Others think that Satan initiated it, and the task of forcing him out was given to Michael. Without supplying "were", the grammar is unclear. Consult the commentaries. On this word, see 2:16.
36. Some manuscripts say "they" {N}.
37. Or, "he was not strong-enough, he was not able". On this word, see "can do" in Gal 5:6.
38. That is, they lost their place in heaven. Their place is now on earth, for a short time, v 12.

1. Or, "snake", referring to Gen 3. Satan is called this in 2 Cor 11:3; Rev 12:14, 15; 20:2. Used 14 times. GK 4058.
2. This word means "slanderer". Used in this sense 34 times, and as "slandrous" three times (see 1 Tim 3:11). GK 1333.
3. This is a transliteration of a Hebrew word meaning "adversary". Used 36 times. GK 4928.
4. On this "whole world", see 3:10.
5. Note that here Satan is thrown out of heaven. In 20:3 he is thrown into the abyss. In 20:10 he is thrown into the lake of fire.
6. Or, "At this moment, At this time". Elsewhere by John only Jn 2:10; 5:17; 9:19, 25; 13:7, 19, 33, 37 ("right now"); 14:7; 16:12, 24, 31; 1 Jn 2:9; Rev 14:13. See "right now" in 2 Thes 2:7 for Paul's uses of this word. Used 36 times. GK 785.
7. Or, "deliverance". Same word as in 7:10; 19:1, on which see Lk 19:9.
8. Or, "came about, took place, came to pass". Some think this took place at the Cross and is experienced now spiritually. Others think it is a still future event. GK 1181.
9. Used only here. GK 2992. Related to the verb following.
10. This is why Jesus is interceding for us, Heb 7:25.
11. On the idiom "by day and by night", see 7:15.

13. Or, "were victorious over". On this word, see 2:7.
14. Or, "by reason of". This word is used twice in this verse. GK 1328. Same word as in 1:9; 4:11; 6:9; 13:14; 20:4. John uses the word "by" in 1:5 (GK 1877).
15. Some think John means "the Word of God (the gospel) to which they bore testimony". Compare "testimony of Jesus" in 19:10. On this word, see Jn 1:7.
16. John does not mean these believers did not love to live. Rather, they did not choose to focus and direct their love toward life on this earth, but toward life with Jesus. On this word, see "devotedly love" in Jn 21:15.
17. Or, "as far as, up to". Same word as in 2:10, "be faithful until death". These believers loved Jesus more than their life, until they died, as Jesus directed in Jn 12:25.
18. This could refer to a martyr's death; or, more broadly, to the end of their lives, however they died.
19. Or, "be glad, be cheered, make merry, enjoy yourself". It is used of festive rejoicing and celebration with others. Same word as 11:10; 18:20; and as Lk 15:23, 24, 29, 32; Act 7:41; Rom 15:10; Gal 4:27. Elsewhere only as "enjoy oneself" (without a specific object of celebration) in Lk 12:19; 16:19; and as "cheer" in Act 2:26; 2 Cor 2:2. GK 2370. Related to "gladness" (the joy of celebration) in Act 2:28.
20. Or, "earth". On this word, see 7:1.
21. Same word as in 17:10.
22. Some think that this verse picks up from v 6, with v 14 repeating v 6, and resuming from that point. The same views of the timing of v 6 are found here.
23. Or, "persecuted", but v 14 may indicate he could not catch her. This word is used both ways, as "pursue" in 1 Cor 14:1; and as "persecute" in 2 Tim 3:12. GK 1503.
24. This time notation is equivalent to 1260 days in v 6, which is three and one half years. It is found elsewhere only in Dan 7:25; 12:7. On this time notation, see "forty and two months" in 11:2.
25. This is the common word "throw, cast", used 122 times. Not related to "spew" in 3:16, or "spit" in Mk 7:33. Same word as "thrown-down" in v 9.
26. Some think this is symbolic of an army or some overwhelming force; others think it could be literal; others take it as a flood of false teachings in contrast to the water of life.
27. Or, "river-borne". This adjective is used only here. GK 4533. Related to "river" earlier.
28. Or, "gave aid to, came to the aid of". Elsewhere only in Mt 15:25; Mk 9:2, 24; Act 16:9; 21:28; 2 Cor 6:2; Heb 2:18. GK 1070. Related to "help" in Heb 4:16; and "helper" in Heb 13:6.
29. That is, her spiritual descendants, Gal 3:29. The sign moves from the Child, to the woman, to her children. John clearly means Christians, but some think he means Gentile Christians as distinct from the Jewish mother church; others, Jewish Christians; others, the 144,000; others, all Christians. On this word, see Heb 11:11.
30. A similar phrase occurs in 14:12. This could mean "the testimony given by Jesus", or, "the testimony concerning Jesus". In either case, it is the gospel. Some manuscripts add "Christ" {K}.
31. Some manuscripts say "And I stood" {B}, referring to John in 13:1.
32. The word "beast" means "wild animal". Same word as in 11:7; 13:2, 3, 4, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17, 18; 14:9, 11; 15:2; 16:2, 10, 13; 17:3, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 16, 17; 19:19, 20; 20:4, 10. Daniel's four beasts also came out of the sea, Dan 7:3. Some think the beast is the Roman Empire (and its heads, the emperors); others, a symbol of anti-Christian government throughout history; others, the final world empire; others, the end-time Antichrist. Many hold a combination of these views. Elsewhere only as "wild beast" in Mk 1:13; Act 11:6; Rev 6:8; 18:2; "beast" in Act 28:4 and 5 (a snake); Tit 1:12; and "wild animal" in Heb 12:20; Jn 3:7. 34. The dragon has seven heads and ten horns, 12:3; the beast has ten horns and seven heads, his mirror image. The beast and the seven heads (kings) and ten horns (kings) are explained in 17:7-18. Daniel's fourth beast also had ten horns, Dan 7:7. Some manuscripts say "seven heads and ten horns" {K}.
35. Elsewhere only of the dragon's seven diadems in 12:3; and Christ's "many" in 19:12. GK 1343. A diadem is a king's crown, as opposed to the victor's crown or wreath mentioned in 4:4. Here only are they on the horns, not the heads, which is why there are ten instead of seven. They are on the horns to indicate that the horns are kings, 17:12.
36. Some manuscripts say "a name" {C}. John seems to mean one name on each head, as with the diadems on the horns. Both "names" and "name" could mean a different name on each, or the same name on each.
37. That is, names characterized by blasphemy, blasphemous names. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:4.

- 2E. And they gave worship to the beast saying, “Who is like the beast, and who can wage-war⁸ against him?”
- 5E. And a mouth was given to him speaking great *things*⁹ and¹⁰ blasphemies^B. And authority^A to act¹¹ for forty and¹² two months was given to him 5
- 1E. And he opened his mouth for blasphemies^B against God— to blaspheme^C 6
- 1G. His name
- 2G. And His dwelling¹³— the ones dwelling¹⁴ in heaven
- 2E. And *authority*¹⁵ was given to him to make war¹⁶ against the saints^D, and to overcome¹⁷ them 7
- 3E. And authority was given to him over every tribe and people¹⁸ and tongue and nation
- 6E. And all the ones dwelling upon the earth¹⁹ will worship^E him— each whose name²⁰ has not been written in the book of life²¹ of the Lamb having been slain^F since the foundation of the world²² 8
- 1E. If anyone has an ear, let him hear²³— 9
- 1G. If anyone is for captivity²⁴, he is going into captivity 10
- 2G. If anyone is to be killed²⁵ with a sword, he is to be killed with a sword
- 3G. Here²⁶ is the endurance^G and the faith²⁷ of the saints²⁸
- 7D. And I saw another beast²⁹ coming-up out of the land³⁰. And he had two horns like a lamb. And he was speaking like a dragon 11
- 1E. And he exercises all the authority^A of the first beast in his presence 12
- 2E. And he makes the earth and the ones dwelling^H in it so that³¹ they will worship^E the first beast³² whose³³ wound of death was cured
- 3E. And he does³⁴ great signs,³⁵ so that he even makes fire to come-down out of heaven³⁶ to the earth in the presence of the people^I 13

1. This is the same phrase used of the Lamb in 5:6, "as-if having been slain" (compare 13:8). This head has the marks of death.
2. Or, "resulting in, leading to". GK 1650.
3. This word means "blow, stroke", and its result, the "wound, bruise, beating". Same word as in v 12, 14 (from a sword); Act 16:33. It is rendered "blow" in Lk 10:30 (with fists); 12:48; Act 16:23 (with rods); and "beating" in 2 Cor 6:5; 11:23. Elsewhere only as a "plague, calamity" inflicted on the world by God in Rev 9:18, 20; 11:6; 15:1, 6, 8; 16:9, 21; 18:4, 8; 21:9; 22:18. GK 4435. Related to "strike" in Rev 8:12.
4. That is, characterized by death, the death wound.
5. Same word as in v 12. Compare v 14. On this word, see Mt 8:7. Some think John means the head (itself called the beast in v 12, 14) came to life in another form (perhaps the eighth, 17:11); others, that head itself was healed. Compare 17:8-11. Some think this refers to an end-time revived Roman Empire; others, to the ruler himself, who will rise to power based on a mock resurrection; others, to the repeatedly revived pagan state throughout history. The Past View links it to Nero or some other Roman Emperor. Many hold a combination of these views.
6. Same word as in 17:8.
7. On this word, see 4:10. Same word as in v 8, 12, 15.
8. Or, "fight, battle". Same word as in 17:14; 19:11. On this word, see "fight" in 2:16.
9. Note the similarity to Dan 7:8, 11, 20, 25.
10. Or, "even".
11. Some manuscripts say "to make war" {N} as in v 7, where "make" is the same word as "act" here (on which see "does" in v 13).
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. On this time notation, see 11:2. Compare Dan 7:25.
13. Or, "tent, tabernacle". That is, God's place of dwelling. Same word as in 2:13. On this word, see Lk 9:33.
14. This is the verb related to the word just used. This phrase explains the first. The "dwelling" of God in view is not heaven, but His people living there; not His house, but His household. Compare 12:12. Some think John is referring to angels, the ones who threw Satan out. Others, to God's people. On this word, see 7:15. Some manuscripts say "And the ones dwelling", making this a third thing the beast blasphemes. Other manuscripts combine both phrases into one, "His dwelling in heaven" {B}.
15. Some manuscripts include this word; others omit the whole sentence, "And... overcome them" {A}.
16. Or, "do battle", two words in Greek. The phrase "make war" is elsewhere only in 11:7; 12:17; 19:19. This noun "war" is the same word as in 12:7; and is related to the verb "wage war" in 13:4.
17. Or, "conquer". On this word, see 2:7. Note Dan 7:21, 23.
18. Some manuscripts omit "and people" {N}. This implies worldwide power. On this phrase, compare 5:9; 7:9; 11:9; 14:6.
19. On this phrase, see 3:10.
20. Literally, "And they will worship Him—all the ones (plural) dwelling upon the earth of whom (singular) his name has not been written...". The Greek jumps from the plural to the individual case. This grammar (without the jump from plural to singular) occurs again with "whose" in v 12. Some manuscripts have it all plural, all "of whom their names have not been written" {N}.
21. On this book, see 3:5.
22. This is where this phrase is found in the Greek word order of this verse. Some think John means "the Lamb slain since the foundation...."; others, "written in the book... since the foundation", as in 17:8. On this phrase, "since the foundation of the world", see Heb 9:26.
23. What follows is spoken to those who do not worship the beast, and means "Do not worship the beast, whatever the cost. Your earthly destiny, whether captivity or death, is in God's hands".
24. Or, "If anyone is [destined to go] into captivity...". Some manuscripts say "If anyone leads into captivity, he is going into captivity" {B}. The word "captivity" means "prisoner of war". On this word, see Eph 4:8.
25. Some manuscripts say "If anyone kills with the sword, he must be killed with the sword" {B}. In the case of the variant readings for these two sentences, some think this is warning believers (the "anyone") not to retaliate against the beast; others, encouraging believers that their persecutors (the "anyone") will suffer retribution.
26. Or, "At this point, on this occasion". At this point, endurance and faith are needed. There are four "Here is" statements, Rev 13:10, 18; 14:12; 17:9. GK 6045.
27. Or, "faithfulness". On this word, see Eph 2:8.
28. The saints will endure in their faith. They will go into captivity or be put to death rather than worship the beast. They will endure even to the point of death, 12:11. Compare 14:12.
29. Some think this is a system of false religion; others, a person. He is called the "false prophet" in 16:13; 19:20; 20:10. Some identify him with someone in history; others think he is the end-time assistant of the first beast.
30. This is versus the sea in v 1. Or, "earth". On this word, see 7:1. This beast has a different origin. The symbolism of "sea" versus "land" is explained in various ways. For example, the nations versus Israel; a foreigner versus someone from Asia (where the seven churches are); a demonic being from the abyss (11:7) versus a human; from outside the political system versus from within it, etc.
31. Same grammar as in 3:9, "make... so that they will". Similar to 13:15, 16, to "cause... that they should".
32. Note that v 3 says one of his heads had this wound. Some think this change has significance; others think it is the normal way of speaking, "one of the heads" being the location of the beast's wound.
33. Same grammar as with "whose" in v 8; 20:8. Literally, the "beast of whom his wound of death was cured". See v 3.
34. In v 12-16, "exercise", "make", "do", and "cause" are the same Greek word. It is used eight times in these verses. It also means "accomplish, produce, commit, act, perform, appoint". Used 568 times. GK 4472.
35. These "great signs" are also mentioned in Mt 24:24; 2 Thes 2:9-10. Some think they are fake miracles, tricks; others, genuine ones. It depends on the extent of the authority granted to this beast by God. (Compare 2 Thes 2:11). There is nothing in this context indicating they are fake. Their purpose is deception, and this is enhanced if their content is real. On "signs", see 2 Thes 2:9.
36. That is, the sky. God sent fire from heaven on Sodom (Lk 17:29; Gen 19:24); on Egypt (Ex 9:23); on David's sacrifice (1 Chron 21:26); and on Solomon's sacrifice (2 Chron 7:1). Satan did it in Job 1:16. Elijah called it down (1 King 18:36-38; 2 King 1:10, 12, 14); and the disciples wanted to (Lk 9:54). God will do it again in Rev 20:9. On this word, see 2 Cor 12:2.

- 4E. And he deceives¹ the ones dwelling upon the earth² because-of³ the signs^A which it was given him to do in the presence of the beast— 14
- 1F. Telling the ones dwelling upon the earth to make an image to the beast⁴ who has the wound of the sword^B and lived⁵
- 5E. And authority was given to him to give breath⁶ to the image of the beast, in order that the image of the beast might even⁷ speak and cause⁸ that all-who do not give-worship^C to the image of the beast should be killed^D 15
- 6E. And he causes everyone— the small and the great, and the rich^E and the poor^F, and the free^G and the slaves^H— 16
- 1F. That they⁹ should give them¹⁰ a mark¹¹ on their right hand or on their forehead
- 2F. And¹² that no one should be able to buy or to sell except the one having the mark— the¹³ name of the beast or the number¹⁴ of his name 17
- 1G. Here¹⁵ is wisdom^I. Let the one having understanding^K calculate¹⁶ the number¹⁷ of the beast, for it is the number of a man¹⁸ 18
- 2G. And his number is six-hundred sixty six¹⁹
- 8D. And I saw, and behold— the²⁰ Lamb was standing on Mount Zion²¹, and with Him one-hundred forty four thousand²² having His name and²³ the name of His Father having been written on their foreheads²⁴ 14:1
- 1E. And I heard a sound^L from heaven like a sound of many waters²⁵, and like a sound of loud thunder. And the sound which I heard was like that of harpists harping with their harps. *And they²⁶ are singing^M something like²⁷ a new^N song^O before the throne, and before the four living-creatures^P and the elders^Q 2
- 2E. And no one was able to learn^R the song except the one-hundred forty four thousand, the ones having been bought²⁸ from the earth²⁹ 3
- 1F. These are ones who were³⁰ not stained³¹ with women, for they are virgins³² 4
- 2F. These *are*³³ the ones following the Lamb wherever He goes
- 3F. These were bought from mankind^S to be the firstfruit³⁴ to God and to the Lamb
- 4F. And falsehood³⁵ was not found in their mouth 5
- 5F. They³⁶ are without-blemish³⁷

1. Same word as in 19:20, which is referring to 13:14-17. Compare Mt 24:24; Rev 12:9. On this word, see "err" in Jam 5:19.
2. On this phrase, see 3:10.
3. That is, by reason of, as in 12:11.
4. This image is mentioned again in v 15; 14:9, 11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4. On "image", see Col 1:15.
5. Or, "came to life, became alive". The beast had a mortal wound, but "was cured" (v 3, 12), and so "lived". On this word, see "came to life" in 20:4. Compare 17:11.
6. This word means "breath, spirit". Same word as "breath" of life in 11:11, and some think John means that here, genuine life. Others think he means an appearance of life. It depends on the extent of the authority granted to this beast by God. The KJV says "life" here, which is an interpretation following the first view.
7. Or, "both".
8. John may mean that the speaking image causes this to happen. Or, "might both speak and act, in order that all who...". On the idiom "cause that", see Col 4:16. Some manuscripts omit "that", so that it says "cause all who" {C}.
9. Who is specified by "they" is not defined. John probably means "the authorities" who do such things.
10. Some manuscripts say "receive on them" {N}.
11. The mark of the beast is mentioned also in v 17; 14:9, 11; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4. It is evidence of submission. It mimics God's mark on the 144,000 in 7:3; 14:1. Some think it is a literal, physical mark; others think it is symbolic. GK 5916.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word, {A}, so that it says "... forehead, in order that no one...".
13. This defines what the mark is. Some manuscripts say "the mark or the name..." {N}.
14. Same word as 7:4; 9:16; 13:18; 15:2. Used 18 times. GK 750.
15. At this point, wisdom is needed. Compare 13:10.
16. Elsewhere only in Lk 14:28. It means "to calculate with pebbles". Related to "pebble" in 2:17. The letters of the alphabet had numeric equivalents. So the letters of a person's name could be added up, the name of the beast adding up to 666. John does not give the language in which the adding is to be done. Should it be equivalent Greek letters, the language of this book, or Hebrew letters, the language of the OT (note both in 9:11)? Or should it be in the native language of the beast's name? John gives no indication that it is anything other than the language of his readers. GK 6028.
17. Compare 15:2.
18. Or, "for it is a number of man", that is, a human number, as humans normally count. Compare 21:17. On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4.
19. Some manuscripts say "six-hundred sixteen" {A}, perhaps being changed to agree with "Nero Caesar". When calculated using Hebrew characters, the Latin form of "Nero Caesar" is equivalent to 616, the Greek form to 666. Some think this number is symbolic; others, a literal reference to someone in history, like Nero; others, a literal reference to the future Antichrist. There are other views. Some holding the Future View (see 1:1) think it cannot be understood until the beast arrives and the actual number of the mark is assigned. His number (the actual mark, which could be his name, initials, title, or an acronym) at that time will equal 666 when rendered in Greek. Thus John would not mean the beast can be known in advance by calculating his name, but that when v 16-17 occur, his name will calculate to 666.
20. Some manuscripts omit this word {A}, so that it says "Behold—there was a Lamb standing".
21. Some think John means the literal mountain at Jerusalem, meaning this group is still living on earth. Others think this is symbolic of heaven, or of the New Jerusalem, meaning this group is with Christ in heaven. On this word, see Jn 12:15.
22. Some think this is the same group as in chapter 7. Those sealed there all arrive safely here (whether still on earth, or in heaven). Others think this represents a different, special group.
23. Some manuscripts omit "name and" {K}, so that it says "having His Father's name".
24. Some think this is the seal mentioned in 7:3-8; 9:4.
25. This phrase "many waters" occurs also in 1:15; 17:1; 19:6; and Jn 3:23. On the plural "waters", see Jn 3:23.
26. "They" sing before the four creatures and 24 elders, who themselves sang a new song with harps back in 5:8-10. Some think "they" are not identified, and that only the 144,000 could learn this song from them. In this case, some think "they" are angels; others, the redeemed. Others think "they" are the 144,000, meaning they are in heaven.
27. Some manuscripts omit this word, so that it simply says "singing a new song" {C} as in 5:9.
28. Same word as in v 4. On this word, see 5:9.
29. Some think "from the earth" implies they are in heaven; others, that they are holy, as explained in v 4-5.
30. That is, prior to this gathering on Mount Zion, v 1.
31. Or, "soiled, defiled". That is, they never committed sexual immorality, the proof of which is that they have never even been with a woman; they are virgins. Same word as in 3:4. On this word, see 1 Cor 8:7.
32. Same word used of Mary in Mt 1:23; Lk 1:27; the ten virgins in Mt 25:1, 7, 11; and Philip's daughters in Act 21:9. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 7:25, 28, 34, 36, 37, 38; 2 Cor 11:2. GK 4221. Related to "virginity" in Lk 2:36. Some think this is symbolic of spiritual faithfulness; others, of moral purity, taking this word to mean "morally chaste" rather than "unmarried", as it is sometimes used outside the NT. Some holding the Future View take this description literally, thinking that this will be a time of distress like 1 Cor 7:26, leading these men not to marry.
33. Or, "were". Which word to supply here is unclear because the previous sentence is present tense and the next is past tense. John is referring to their obedience. Some think he means "these were the ones following Him prior to this gathering on Mount Zion"; others, "these are the ones following Him now, and in the future". Some think they followed Him to earth; others, on earth.
34. That is, the first part of what is to come, the part offered to God. Some think John means they are the first part of a larger group to follow; others, simply the part offered to God, without implying there are more to follow. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:20.
35. Or, "lie, deceit". Some think John means falsehood in general; others, the falsehood proclaimed by the beast in particular. Same word as in 21:27; 22:15; 2 Thes 2:9, 11. Elsewhere only as "lie" in Jn 8:44; Rom 1:25; Eph 4:25; 1 Jn 2:21, 27. GK 6022.
36. Some manuscripts say "For they..." {N}.
37. On this word, see Col 1:22. Some manuscripts add "before the throne of God" {K}.

- 2E. And another angel, a second¹⁰, followed, saying “Babylon the great fell, it fell¹¹— she who has given-a-drink-to all the nations from the wine^H of the passion¹² of her sexual-immorality^I” 8
- 3E. And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, “If anyone worships^F the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand 9
- 1E. “He himself will also drink from the wine of the fury of God¹³ having been mixed undiluted in the cup of His wrath^K. And he will be tormented¹⁴ with fire and sulphur^L in the presence of holy angels¹⁶, and in the presence of the Lamb 10

- 1E. There was a white cloud³⁰, and one sitting on the cloud resembling a son of man³¹, having a golden crown³² upon his head and a sharp sickle^R in his hand 14

- 2E. And the one sitting on the cloud cast^V his sickle over³⁹ the earth, and the earth was reaped⁴⁰ 16
- 2E. And another angel came out of the temple in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle^R 17
- 1E. And another angel came-out⁴¹ from the altar⁴²— the one having authority^W over the fire.⁴³ And he called-out⁴⁴ with a loud voice to the one having the sharp sickle, saying, “Send^T your sharp sickle and gather^X the clusters⁴⁵ from the grapevine of the earth, because its grapes^Y became ripe” 18
- 2E. And the angel cast^V his sickle into the earth, and gathered^X the grapevine of the earth, and threw^Y it into the great winepress^Z of the fury of God 19

1. There are several views on what "another" refers to. The last angel mentioned was in 12:7, or perhaps 14:2. John may mean "another like I saw before" in 8:13. He may mean "another in addition to all I have already seen". "Another angel" also occurs in 7:2; 8:3; 10:1; 14:8, 9, 15, 17, 18; and 18:1. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}.
2. That is, in the sky. Same word as in 8:13. On this word, see 19:17.
3. Some think the content of this good news is in v 7, a proclamation of the consummation of God's purpose, a warning and call for repentance. Others think this good news is in addition to the warning of v 7, and refers to the gospel of salvation. On this word, see 1 Cor 15:1.
4. John uses the noun and verb of the same word, as in Gal 1:11.
5. Or, "across, upon, over, for". This is the only place in the NT where this preposition is used following this verb. GK 2093. Some manuscripts omit it {N}, so that it says "to announce-as-good-news-to the ones sitting".
6. Same word rendered "sit" throughout this book, 33 times. Same word as in Mt 4:16; Lk 1:79; 21:35. Used 91 times. GK 2764. Some manuscripts say "dwelling" {N}.
7. The future judgment is here, it has come. It has begun. On this word, see 6:17.
8. Or, "earth". On this word, see 7:1.
9. Some manuscripts say "the sea" {N}.
10. Some manuscripts omit this word {B}.
11. This is a further announcement of the judgment that came, v 7. The same pronouncement occurs in 18:2, where this fall is described in more detail. We would say "has fallen". On "Babylon the great", see 16:19. Some manuscripts say "Babylon fell, it fell, that great city, because she has given..." {K}.
12. Or, "fury". Same phrase as in 18:3. On this word, see "fury" in 16:19. Some think this means "fury" here also, the wine of the fury of God (as in v 10) that belongs to her sexual immorality.
13. The "wine of the fury of God" is also mentioned in 14:19; 16:19; 19:15. There is a play on words with the "wine of the passion" in v 8, for these are the exact same words. If you drink her wine, you will drink His wine also.
14. Or, "tortured". Elsewhere only in 9:5; 11:10; 12:2; 20:10; and Mt 8:6, 29; 14:24; Mk 5:7; 6:48; Lk 8:28; 2 Pet 2:8. GK 989. Related to "torment" in v 11; Lk 16:23; and "tormentor" in Mt 18:34.
15. Or, "brimstone". Elsewhere only in Lk 17:29; Rev 9:17, 18; 19:20; 20:10; 21:8. GK 2520.
16. Some manuscripts say "the holy angels" {N}.
17. Or, "torture, pain, anguish". Elsewhere only in 9:5; 18:7, 10, 15. GK 990. A similar statement is made in 19:3.
18. This is an idiom, "into ages of ages", not the normal "into the ages of the ages". The grammar here is unique. See 20:10.
19. This phrase "they do not have a rest by day... night" is the same one used of the four living creatures in 4:8.
20. Or, "At this point". The saints do not worship the beast or receive his mark. They endure to the death. Compare 13:10. Some think this is John's comment; others, a continuation of the angel's proclamation.
21. On this word, see "holy" in 1 Pet 1:16. Some manuscripts say "saints. Here are the ones..." {N}.
22. Some think this means "the faith Jesus gave"; others, the faith of which He is the object, their faith in Him. On "faith", see Eph 2:8.
23. Some manuscripts add "to me" {N}.
24. Or, "Fortunate". On this word, see Lk 6:20.
25. Or, "henceforth, from this time". This is the Greek word order. Some think this means "Blessed... from now on"; others, "dying... from now on". "From now on" means "under the domination of the beast". Note that 20:4 again refers to this group. The fact that these martyrs are blessed does not mean other believers not martyred are not blessed. On this phrase, "from now on", see Mt 26:64.
26. Some manuscripts omit this word {A}.
27. Or, "in order that they may rest". That is, "they are dying in the Lord so that they will rest". Those who choose to live "in the beast" (so to speak) will not have the rest they think they are gaining, v 11.
28. This is the verb related to "rest" in v 11. On this word, see "refreshed" in Phm 7.
29. Some manuscripts say "And" {N}.
30. A "white cloud" and "one sitting on a cloud" is mentioned only here in v 14-16. Compare 10:1. "Clouds" are mentioned in 10:1; Mt 17:5; 24:30; 26:64; Act 1:9; 1 Thes 4:17. Used 25 times. GK 3749. Compare Dan 7:13.
31. Some think this is referring to Christ; others, to an angel who looked like a human. See 1:13 on this phrase.
32. On this word, see 4:4. It is the victor's crown. A "golden crown" is also worn by the 24 elders, its only other occurrence in this book. Christ wears many "diadems" in 19:12, the king's crown. Some think this pictures Christ at His return. Others think it is an angel He sends to reap the earth at the end of the age.
33. Some think this indicates the one on the white cloud was an angel. Others think it refers to the angels in v 6, 8, and 9. Note the issue with this word in v 6.
34. That is, the temple opened in 11:19. This is the first angel to come out.
35. Some think the fact that an angel tells the one on the cloud what to do indicates that the one on the cloud is an angel. Others think this merely pictures the command to begin the final harvest as coming directly from the Father.
36. Some manuscripts say "your" {N}, which may also be rendered "because the hour came for you to reap".
37. That is, it is here, it has come.
38. Or, "became dried up". The grain has become dry, and thus ripe for harvest. Same word as in 16:12; Jn 15:6. On this word, see "withered" in Mk 3:1.
39. Or, "upon, to, across". GK 2093.
40. Jesus said an angel performs this task, Mt 13:39; Mt 24:31. Some think this grain harvest refers to the gathering of believers at the end of the age (some think it is the rapture), and the grape harvest in v 19 refers to the gathering of unbelievers for judgment. Others think both pictures refer to unbelievers. The Past View sees this as referring to the final judgment on Jerusalem.
41. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, leaving it implied.
42. John probably means the altar in 8:3, linking this to the prayers of the saints.
43. Perhaps this is the angel of 8:3-5.
44. Or, "he voiced with a loud voice". John uses the verb and noun of the same word. This is the only use of this verb in Revelation. On this phrase, see Mk 1:26.
45. Used only here. GK 1084.

1. Same word as in 19:15.
2. Some think this refers to Jerusalem; others think it is symbolic.
3. That is, about 184 miles or 296 kilometers. A Roman stade is 607 feet or 185 meters. The Greek measure varied from 607 to 738 feet. Some think this is a literal distance. John may mean up to this height at the winepress, and flowing away to this distance. It is symbolic of the complete judgment of the whole earth. In addition to this, some take it literally. Same word as in Mt 14:24; Lk 24:13; Jn 6:19; 11:18; Rev 21:16. In addition to "stade" as a measure of distance, it also means "stadium" and the "race" held there. Elsewhere only as "race" in 1 Cor 9:24. GK 5084.
4. This word is used as a measure also in Jn 11:18; 21:8. GK 608.
5. This is the third sign John sees in heaven, linking it to what precedes, yet it is a precursor to the seven bowls that follow. Some put it with what follows and start the next main point (5B.) here. The sign is judgment for those on earth, and rejoicing for those who overcame the beast.
6. This phrase "great and marvelous" is elsewhere only in v 3. On "marvelous", see "marvel" in Jn 9:30.
7. These angels appear in advance, just as the beast did in 11:7, and Babylon the great in 14:8. All the players for what follows are now introduced. On this word, see "wound" in 13:3.
8. John sees this here as a sign. In v 5, it is carried out in detail. John refers to it here as if it were already accomplished, as in 10:7. On this word, see 10:7.
9. Or, "made-of-glass". Used twice in this verse, and elsewhere only in 4:6, before the throne. GK 5612.
10. Some think the sea of fire symbolizes the persecution on earth the overcomers passed through; others, the judgment about to fall on the earth in the coming bowls, like the Red Sea that drown the Egyptians after Israel passed through.
11. Or, "coming off victorious from", "conquerors from". The beast overcame these overcomers on earth (13:7), but they overcame him before God through their death. Some think John is referring to martyrs; others, to all the believers. On this word, see 2:7.
12. Some manuscripts add "and from his mark" {N}.
13. That is, the mark of the beast, 13:17.
14. John may mean "harps for worshiping God", "harps given by God", or "harps belonging to God". This is the third mention of "harps", 5:8; 14:2. Elsewhere only in 1 Cor 14:7. GK 3067. Some manuscripts say "the harps of God" {N}.
15. It is not the same song, but a song like the one Moses sang. Some think John means a song of victory and deliverance after "overcoming" Egypt, as in Ex 15. Others think he means a song like the song at the end of Moses' life in Deut 32. In addition, some think John means a song sung by Moses; others, a song about Moses.
16. Some think this is a second song; others think there is only one song of victory. In addition, some think John means a song sung by Christ after He "overcame" the world, Rev 5:5; Jn 16:33; others, a song about Christ.
17. On this word, see "Gentiles" in Act 15:23. Some manuscripts say "ages"; others, "saints" {B}.
18. Or, "fear". Many do not fear and glorify, but all will do so. Some manuscripts say "come-to-fear You, Lord" {N}. Compare Jer 10:7. On this word, see "respecting" in Eph 5:33.
19. That is, holy in character. On this word, see Heb 7:26.
20. Or, "prostrate-themselves". Every knee will bow. On this word, see 4:10.
21. Same word as in 19:8.
22. The phrase "after these things" is also in 4:1; 7:9; 9:12; 18:1; 19:1; 20:3. It is singular in 7:1.
23. Some manuscripts add "and behold" {N}.
24. Or, the "tent of witness", the tent containing the witness, because the ark containing the covenant is there. That is, the temple containing or consisting of the tabernacle which contained the testimony in the ark. On this tabernacle in heaven, note Heb 8:2, 5; 9:11. The earthly copy of the tabernacle (or, tent) of testimony is mentioned in Act 7:44; Ex 38:21; Num 1:50, 53; 9:15; 10:11; 17:7; etc. On earth, the ark of the covenant was kept in the Holy of Holies, which was the inmost part of the tabernacle of testimony. The mobile "tabernacle" (tent) was used in the wilderness, and was replaced by the "temple" in Jerusalem under Solomon.
25. Some think John means the same temple opened in 11:19 to see the ark is reopened here to let the seven angels out (implying it had been closed again in 11:19). Others think John means the larger "temple" was opened in 11:19, exposing the ark inside its own smaller, inner, "temple consisting of the tabernacle of testimony", which is opened here, allowing the angels to come out. Others think John intends us to apply the pattern of the earthly tabernacle, where the ark was found in the inmost part of it. This would mean that the heavenly temple is being opened from the inside out. From God's presence, His heavenly throne-room, the heavenly temple is opened in 11:19; that is, what is here called the "tabernacle of testimony", the tabernacle inside which the heavenly ark is seen (11:19). Here, the way into the larger "temple" containing this tabernacle is opened, from which the angels come out. Then in 19:11, heaven is opened (that is, the outer doors of the heavenly temple are opened, so to speak) and Christ comes out of the heavenly temple to earth.
26. This scene resumes from 11:19 after the three signs in heaven given in 12:1-15:4. Some think the seven bowls are the seventh trumpet and third woe. Others think they recapitulate the bowls and trumpets. Without regard to any of these views, point 5B. presents the next heavenly scene. See 11:19 on the progression of heavenly scenes.
27. This phrase "the seven angels having the seven plagues" refers back to v 1 where they were seen as such in the sign. Here in this event, the actual unfolding of what was seen in v 1, they have not yet received the seven bowls full of the seven plagues. This occurs next in v 7.
28. Some manuscripts say "stone" {B}.
29. Same word for "girded-with" and for "golden belts" as in 1:13.
30. The word "bowls" is only used with reference to these judgments, and in 5:8, of "golden bowls" holding the prayers of the saints. This may be a deliberate link to those prayers. GK 5786.
31. Since no one could enter the temple, this seems to be the voice of God.
32. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
33. Some think these are end-time judgments. Some holding the Spiritual View (see 1:1) think they are symbolic of the final judgment that falls on every individual in this life who fails to heed the partial judgments (the trumpets) aimed at producing repentance. Some holding the Past View think these represent the final judgment upon Israel and Jerusalem in A.D. 70; others, on the Roman Empire.

1. Some manuscripts say "upon" {N}.
2. This stands versus the "sea" next. Same word as "earth" in v 1. On this word, see 7:1. Some take the descriptions that follow literally; others, think they are apocalyptic symbols not intended to be interpreted in detail.
3. Or, "harmful", as in Act 16:28; 28:5. On this word, see "evil" in 3 Jn 11.
4. On this word, see Act 25:18. Others render these two general words more graphically in various ways. Compare the versions.
5. Those with the beast's mark now receive God's mark.
6. John either means that these are the only people left on earth, or that the believers are protected from the bowl judgments as Israel was protected from the plagues on Egypt.
7. Some manuscripts add "angel" {N}.
8. Some take this literally; other think it symbolizes the nations.
9. Some think John means coagulated blood.
10. This is a Hebrew way of speaking based on Gen 1:21, meaning "every living creature". John clarifies it as "in the sea". On this word, see Rom 8:10.
11. Some manuscripts add "angel" {N}.
12. Some think this symbolizes the sources of life; others take it literally.
13. That is, the water. Or, "they". Some manuscripts say "they became" {B}, that is, the rivers and springs.
14. John may mean the third angel in the previous verse, or, some other angel.

17. Same word as in 15:4.
18. Some manuscripts say "You gave" {C}.
19. Some manuscripts say "For they..." {N}.
20. Or, "deserving, fit". Same word used of the saints in 3:4, and in 4:11; 5:2, 4, 9, 12; Mt 3:8; Jn 1:27; Act 13:46; 23:29. Used 41 times. GK 545. Related to "consider worthy" in 2 Thes 1:11.

22. Some manuscripts add "angel" {N}.
23. Or, "him". It may refer to the sun, or to the angel.
24. Elsewhere only in v 9; Mt 13:6; Mk 4:6. GK 3009.
25. That is, the unbelievers, as seen by their response in v 9. Some think the sun symbolizes political leaders, and that this therefore symbolizes political oppression. Others take it literally.
26. Elsewhere only in 7:16. GK 3008. Related to "scorch" in v 8.
27. Same word as in v 11, 21. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:1.

29. That is, the throne given him by the dragon, 13:2; the seat of his power.

Others think it is a moral or spiritual darkness. Others think it refers to internal strife and disorder within his kingdom. On this word, see Eph 4:18.
31. Used only here. GK 3460.
32. Or, "from". Same word as in v 11, 21. GK 1666.

35. This river was mentioned in 9:14, the sixth trumpet. Some think this symbolizes the removal of all barriers in preparation for the last battle. Others take it literally. Babylon (v 19) is on the Euphrates, about 50 miles or 80 kilometers south of Baghdad.
36. That is, from the east; or, from the new day. Same phrase as in 7:2. Some think these kings are separate from the kings of the whole earth, v 14; others, that they are part of that group. Some think this is referring to Christ's army which will destroy the kings gathered in v 14. Compare the sixth trumpet, 9:14. Others think this refers to human kings of eastern empires who battle the kings of western empires (the Roman Empire, the beast's empire) gathered in v 14 in a final human conflict. Others think these kings from the east come to join forces with the kings of the west against Israel.
37. That is, the second beast, 13:11. One unclean spirit comes from each of them. Same word as in 19:20; 20:10. Used 11 times. GK 6021.
38. That is, demon spirits, spirits which are demons.
39. Some render this "false prophet (for they are spirits of demons doing signs) which go out to the kings...", making it all one sentence.

42. Some think John means the battle against the Lamb, 17:14; 19:19. On this word, see "war" in 12:7.
43. The "day of God" is also mentioned in 2 Pet 3:12.

46. The symbol is of one who is sleeping, and who is overcome by such a sudden and overwhelming catastrophe that he has to flee without getting dressed. Keep watch, and keep your garments ready. It symbolizes spiritual readiness. The garments may symbolize righteousness, as in 3:4-5, 18.
47. Or, "he". This could mean "he" the angel; "He", God; or "they", the spirits. Some manuscripts have different grammar that only means "they" {N}.
48. Some manuscripts omit "the" {N}, so that it says "a place".
49. This is a transliterated Hebrew word, sometimes spelled "Armagedon". Its meaning and location are uncertain. Consult the commentaries for the theories. "Har" means "mountain, hill". This is the only place this name occurs in the Bible. GK 762.

1. See 11:19 on the earthquakes in this book.
2. This idiom is literally "from which time" here and in Lk 13:7; 24:21; and with different grammar, "from which hour" in Lk 7:45; and "from which day" in Act 24:11; Col 1:6, 9; 2 Pet 3:4.
3. Or, "mankind". On this word, see "mankind" in Mt 4:4. Some manuscripts have this plural, "people, mankind" {N}.
4. Or, "came into being", as in Jn 1:3. That is, since Adam. GK 1181.
5. Some think this refers to Jerusalem, as in 11:8; others, to Babylon, as in 17:18; 18:10, 16, 18, 19, 21.
6. Some take this symbolically. Others think John means the great city was physically split into three parts. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
7. Babylon is mentioned also in 14:8; 17:5; 18:2, 10, 21. Some holding the Past View (see 1:1) think Babylon is Jerusalem in A.D. 70 (note 18:24); others, Rome, the Roman Empire persecuting believers after A.D. 70. The Spiritual View thinks Babylon refers to Rome in John's day as a symbol of the anti-Christian world system which exists throughout this age, and of the final intense manifestation of it in the end time. The Future View thinks Babylon represents the end-time anti-Christian world system as a whole (political, economic, religious), or the end-time apostate religious system under the Antichrist in particular, or the literal city in which these powers are centered (either a literal Babylon on the Euphrates, or Rome). GK 956. Same word as in 1 Pet 5:13.
8. That is, "kept in mind" (not forgotten) as in Lk 1:54, or, "recalled to mind, brought to mind".
9. This cup was also mentioned in 14:10. Compare 18:6.
10. Similar phrase as in 19:15. Same word as in Lk 4:28; Rom 2:8; Heb 11:27; Rev 12:12; 14:10, 19; 15:1, 7; 16:1. This is the anger or wrath that boils over from the heart. Elsewhere only as "rage" in Act 19:28; 2 Cor 12:20; Gal 5:20; Eph 4:31; Col 3:8; and as "passion" in Rev 14:8; 18:3. GK 2596. Related word in Mt 2:16.
11. This is detailed in chapters 17-18. Same word as in Mt 3:7; Lk 3:7; 21:23; Jn 3:36; Rom 1:18; 2:5, 8; 3:5; 4:15; 5:9; 9:22; 12:19; 13:4, 5; Eph 2:3; 4:31; 5:6; Col 3:6, 8; 1 Thes 1:10; 2:16; 5:9; Heb 3:11; 4:3; Rev 6:16, 17; 11:18; 14:10; 19:15. Elsewhere only as "anger" in Mk 3:5; 1 Tim 2:8; Jam 1:19, 20. GK 3973. This is the anger or wrath or settled indignation proceeding from one's nature or disposition. This word overlaps in meaning with "fury". On the related verb, see "become angry" in 11:18.
12. Compare this to 6:14. Some think this is symbolic of nations and kingdoms; others take it literally. On this word, see 2 Pet 3:10.
13. Elsewhere only in 8:7; 11:19. GK 5898.
14. That is, about 58-94 pounds or 26-43 kilograms, depending on the system of measurement, which varied by time and place. This word, "weighing a talent", is used only here. GK 5418.
15. This implies it is not yet the end. They are still alive, cursing God, as after the fourth and fifth bowl. The coming of Christ brings the end, 19:19.
16. Some manuscripts add "to me" {N}.
17. Same word as in 4:1.
18. That is, of Babylon, 16:19. Same word as in 17:5, 15, 16; 19:2, on which see 1 Cor 6:15. The prostitute represents a "great city", 17:18; 18:16.
19. This is explained in v 15. The prostitute also sits on the beast, v 3. On the phrase "many waters", see 14:2.
20. Or, "land", in the Past View. The phrase "kings of the earth" is also in 1:5; 6:15; 17:18; 18:3, 9; 19:19; 21:24.
21. Some holding the Future View think this is symbolic of spiritual and religious prostitution, of end-time false and apostate religion under the Antichrist, which has political (v 9, 18), religious (v 6) and economic (18:3, 11-19) aspects to it. She spiritually prostituted herself, the kings joined with her in it, and the world became drunk on it. She is an integral part of the world system. Others holding the Future and Spiritual Views think this immorality describes the anti-Christian world system as a whole. See 16:19.
22. Or, "inhabiting". On this phrase, see 3:10. The grammar is different here. The Past View renders this word "land" (see 7:1).
23. A similar phrase occurs in 14:8; 18:3. The same root word occurs three times. The great whore went-whoring with the kings and the world became drunk from her whoredom; the great immoral one engaged-in-immorality with the kings and the world became drunk from her immorality. On this word group, see 1 Cor 5:1.
24. Or, "in spirit". Same phrase as in 21:10. On this phrase, see 1:10.
25. Some think this symbolizes that the prostitute is supported by the political power of the beast (until v 16).
26. The names, heads, and horns link this beast to the beast in 13:1, and prepare for the explanation that follows in v 8-14.
27. That is, blasphemous names. On this word, see 1 Tim 6:4.
28. Or, "had put on purple...". This is a participle, she "was having been clothed". Same with "gilded".
29. That is, adorned, covered. Elsewhere only in 18:16. GK 5998. Related to "gold" next.
30. The same five adornments are mentioned again in 18:16. It all speaks of luxury.
31. Or, "detestable, loathsome things". Elsewhere only in Mt 24:15; Mk 13:14; Lk 16:15; Rev 17:5; 21:27. This word is used of things connected with idolatry, of things spiritually detestable to God and His people. GK 1007. Related to "detestable" in Tit 1:16; and "detesting" in Rom 2:22.
32. Or, "even", defining it. This could be a second description of what is filling the cup. Or, this could be a second thing she is "having", making this point 2F.
33. Some manuscripts say "of the sexual immorality of the earth" {B}.
34. Some think this word is part of her name, "Mystery Babylon the Great". Some think it means that the name "Babylon" is to be interpreted mystically, meaning Rome or Jerusalem. Others think it means her meaning is not known apart from the revelation of God, and that the mystery is explained next. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
35. Or, "even".
36. Or, "I marveled with great marvel", "I was amazed with great amazement". That is, I wondered greatly what it meant. "Wondered" is the same word as in Mk 15:44, and as "caused to marvel" in v 8.
37. Some holding the Future View (see 1:1) think the angel is referring to the future ruler's death-blow in 13:3, from which he recovers, which is the occasion of his coming out of the abyss and rising to power. The Spiritual View thinks this refers to the continual rising and falling of empires until Christ returns, the final one being described as the "eighth" in v 11.
38. Same phrase as in 11:7. Compare 13:1. On "abyss", see 9:1. Note how the angel says this at the end of the verse, "will be present".
39. Some manuscripts say "abyss, and to go..." {B}.
40. This is spoken of in 19:20. Same word as in v 11. On this word, see 2 Pet 2:1.

- 1F. "And the ones dwelling upon the earth¹ whose name² has not been written on³ the book of life^A since the foundation of the world⁴ will be caused-to-marvel⁵ while seeing the beast— because he was and is not and will be present⁶

1. On this phrase, see 3:10.
2. This is the same grammar as with "whose" in 13:8, the ones "of whom the name has not been written..."
3. Here it says written "on", as in 3:12; 14:1; 17:5. GK 2093. It says written "in" in 13:8; 20:12; 21:27; 22:18, 19. GK 1877.
4. On the phrase "since the foundation of the world", see Heb 9:26.
5. Or, "be astonished, amazed". Same word and grammar as in 13:3. Same word as "wondered" in v 6, 7; Mk 15:44; Lk 1:21. Elsewhere as "marvel" 37 times. GK 2513. Related to "marvelous" in 15:1.
6. Or, "will come, will be here". Some manuscripts say "is present" {N}. Only here is it future tense. Same word as in Lk 13:1; 1 Cor 5:3; 2 Cor 10:2. Used 24 times. GK 4205. Related to "coming" in 2 Thes 2:8. The reading "and yet is" in the KJV is based on a printing error in the Greek text of Erasmus (see the Introduction on him).
7. Or, "At this point", a mind having wisdom is needed. Similar to the statement in 13:18. Some take this phrase, "Here is the mind having wisdom", with the previous verse.
8. Same word as "understanding" in 13:18. On this word, see "mind" in Rom 7:23.
9. Some think this is geographical, and points to Rome, which is known as the city on seven hills. Others think it is political, and points to kingdoms headed by the kings mentioned next. Note that the seven heads/mountains/kings belong to the beast. The woman sits on the seven heads/mountains (v 9), on the beast (v 3), on the many waters (v 1, 15). This is the common word for "mountain, mount, hill", used 63 times. GK 4001.
10. Note how this is explained in v 18. Some think this means the woman is an empire; others, that she controls or guides the kings in their empires.
11. The seven heads of the beast represent seven kings, and the beast himself is an eighth king, v 11.
12. Some think the seven kings/kingdoms represent seven world kingdoms, five prior to John (such as Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Persia and Greece); one at John's time (Rome "is" when John wrote), and one yet to come (symbolizing all anti-God governments until the end; or, the final empire at the end). Compare Dan 7. Others think they symbolize the fullness of the Roman empire, which itself is a symbol of the anti-God world system that exists in various forms until Christ returns. Others identify the kings as seven specific Roman Emperors. Some manuscripts say "and the one is" {K}.
13. Or, "a little while". Same word as in 12:12. Elsewhere as a time designation only in Act 26:28, 29; and as "little" in Act 14:28; Jam 4:14; 1 Pet 1:6; 5:10 (perhaps). On this word, see "small" in Act 12:18.
14. The Future and Spiritual Views (see 1:1) think the eighth is the final world kingdom and/or world ruler (the Antichrist).
15. Some think the angel means this king is "one of the seven", that is, the seventh after his mortal wound is healed; others, that this kingdom is "out of the seven", meaning it comes from them, but is distinct from them, as the final embodiment of them.
16. The eighth does not "fall". He goes to destruction. Some think this means the eighth is destroyed by Christ in 19:20.
17. Daniel's fourth beast also had ten horns representing ten kings, Dan 7:7, 24. Note that these "ten kings" help destroy Babylon (v 16-17), and that the "kings of the earth" weep over this (18:9). Some think the ten kings symbolize all the nations under the power of the Antichrist, or the fullness of his political power. Some holding the Future View think they represent a ten-nation confederacy serving the Antichrist.
18. Instead of "not yet", some manuscripts say "not" {N}.
19. That is, a short period of time. This hour ends when the Lamb overcomes them, v 14. On this word, see Lk 2:38.
20. That is, to advance the kingdom of the beast. Same word as in v 17.
21. This last phrase may be rendered as part of the subject, "And the Lamb and the called and chosen and faithful ones with Him will overcome them".
22. Some manuscripts say "on" {K}.
23. The beast turns against Babylon, the prostitute riding on his back, and destroys her. The kings of the earth in league with her, and the merchants, and the sailors, mourn her destruction in 18:9-20. Thus the beast destroys Babylon, carrying out God's will, and Christ destroys the beast when He returns. Some think the beast does this at the point at which he demands worship of himself. He destroys all religion and sets himself up as god, 2 Thes 2:4.
24. This is a participle, make her "having been made desolate", they will render her desolate. On this word, see "desolated" in 18:17. Some holding the Past View (see 1:1) think the beast is Rome and the woman is Jerusalem, and the ten kings are the governors of Rome's ten provinces.
25. This word is plural, "pieces of her flesh", in keeping with how wild beasts devour an animal. Same grammar as in 19:18, 21. They devour the prostitute's wealth and resources, and burn her carcass.
26. This word, "burn up", is the same word as in 8:7; 18:8. GK 2876.
27. On this word, used in v 13 and twice in this verse, see 1 Cor 1:10.
28. That is, to unite together to do God's purpose.
29. Or, "completed, fulfilled". That is, until all God's prophetic words come to pass. On this word, see 10:7.
30. On "the great city", see 16:19. Some think this refers to the woman in terms of the capital city where her power is located. She is the city, and the system of power over the kings of the earth proceeding from the city. Some think the city is Rome; others, Jerusalem; others, literal Babylon; others, an end-time city. Others do not think it is a physical city, but a system of anti-Christian deception.
31. Some manuscripts say "And after..." {N}.
32. Note that John's perspective continues to be from earth, the wilderness, 17:3.
33. On this word, see Mt 8:29. Some manuscripts add "mightily" {K}.
34. On Babylon, see 16:19. This same exclamation is in 14:8.
35. Same word as in 2:10; 20:7. On this word, see Act 5:22.
36. This is a participle, "having been hated". On this word, see Rom 9:13.
37. Some manuscripts omit the last "prison" statement, so that it says "and a prison of every unclean and hated bird" {C}. There are other variations in the order of the three "prison" statements and the word "hated". On this word, see "beast" in 13:1.
38. Some manuscripts say "fallen" {D}, so that it says "the nations have fallen because of the wine..."
39. See the same phrase in 14:8.
40. Similar phrase in 17:2; 18:9.
41. Some think this is the voice of an angel; others, of Christ. Note that John's perspective is still from earth.
42. Or, "so that you might not", and likewise later in the verse. GK 2671.
43. On this word, see "co-partnered" in Phil 4:14.

1. This word means "to join, glue, unite, cling". The idea of the idiom is that Babylon's sins "cling-together [in a mass reaching or heaping] as far as heaven". Some think this is an allusion to the tower of Babel in Gen 11:4. On this word, see "join" in 1 Cor 6:16.
2. Or, "kept in mind". Used of God only here. On this word, see Jn 16:21. Compare the related word in Lk 1:54.
3. Or, "Give back". Some think this is addressed to God's agents for Babylon's destruction, the beast and ten kings in 17:16-17. Others think it is a prayer to God by the voice in v 4, symbolic of the prayers of the saints. On this word, see Mt 16:27.
4. Some manuscripts add "to you" {N}.
5. This verb is used only here. GK 1488. Some manuscripts add "to her" {N}.
6. That is, give her back double for the things she has doubled to others. On "doubles", which occurs again in the next sentence, see 1 Tim 5:17.
7. Or, "live sensually", in a material and sexual sense. Elsewhere only in v 9. GK 5139. Related to "luxury" in v 3.
8. This construction "to the degree... to that degree" is similar to that found in Heb 7:20, 22.
9. Same word as in v 10, 15. On this word, see 14:11.
10. Some take this as the reason for what precedes, making it point 3F, and then begin point 3E. with "For this reason".
11. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}, which serves to introduce the quotation.
12. Or, "pestilence", as in 6:8.
13. Same word as in 17:16, to which this seems to refer.
14. On this word, see Mt 7:1. Some manuscripts say "the One judging" {K}.
15. Or, "mighty, powerful". Used 29 times. GK 2708. Related to "strength" in Eph 1:19; and "can do" in Gal 5:6.
16. Same word as in 1:7, over Christ.
17. Same word as in v 8.
18. Some manuscripts say "will weep and mourn" {N}.
19. Or, "freight". The merchants weep for their own financial loss, not because they care about Babylon. Elsewhere only in v 12; Act 21:3. GK 1203.
20. This is a decorative wood from N. Africa. Used only here. GK 2591.
21. Used only here. GK 1804. This word is part of an "ivory" word group based on the word from which we get "elephant".
22. On this word, see "cross" in 1 Pet 2:24. Some manuscripts say "stone" {A}.
23. Some manuscripts omit "and spice" {N}.
24. This refers to a four-wheeled carriage or wagon. Used only here. GK 4832. Not the same word as a "chariot" in 9:9.
25. That is, slaves; human livestock; treated as commodities like horses and wagons. On this word, see Eph 1:23.
26. Or, "and", "And of bodies. And souls of people". There is a difference of grammar here. "Bodies" has the same grammar as the items in 1G., 2G, and 6G.; "souls" as the items in 3G, 4G, and 5G. "And" might indicate two different groups are in view, or that the people are being viewed from two different angles (the merchants' vs. God's). "Even" would mean this is the climax to the list.
27. Here the voice from heaven (v 4) addresses Babylon directly.
28. Or, "ripe fruit". Used only here. GK 3967. The plums of your soul's desire.

1. Or, "pilot" of the ship. Elsewhere only in Act 27:11, which also mentions the captain or owner-captain. GK 3237.
2. Instead of "to a place", some manuscripts say "on the sea"; others, "on the river"; others, "on the ships" {B}.
3. Same word as in the similar question in 13:4. On this word, see "resembling" in 1:13.
4. This is a symbol of grief.
5. Or, "from, by, out of". GK 1666.
6. Or, "costliness". That is, Babylon's precious things. Used only here. GK 5509. Related to "precious" in 17:4; 18:12, 16; 21:11, 19; 2 Pet 1:4.
7. Here the voice from heaven (v 4) directly addresses the believers again (as in v 4). On this word, see 12:12. Compare 11:10.
8. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}, so that it says "heaven and holy apostles and", where "saints" is the same word as "holy".
9. Some think this refers to the twelve; others take it in the broader sense. On this word, see 1 Cor 12:28.
10. God exacted your verdict or sentence from Babylon. By "your judgment", some think the verdict Babylon exacted from believers is meant (as in Mt 7:2); others, the verdict believers wanted God to exact from Babylon; others, a judgment favorable to believers (judgment was passed in favor of the saints, as in Dan 7:22). Same word as in 17:1. On this word, see Jn 9:39.
11. That is, the large one turned by a donkey, as in Mk 9:42. Used only here. GK 3684.
12. That is, with the rush of a sudden attack. Used only here. GK 3996. Related to "rush" in Act 7:57.
13. That is, the small one turned by two women, as in Mt 24:41.
14. Or, "voice". Same word as used twice in v 22, on which see "voices" in 4:5. "Sound" refers to all the sounds associated with a wedding.
15. Elsewhere only in Gal 5:20. GK 5758. Related to the word in 9:21.
16. Or, "and".
17. Some manuscripts say "And after..." {N}. Note that John's perspective changes from the wilderness (17:3-18:24) back to heaven, where he last was in 17:1-2. The angel of 17:1 returns John to heaven (so to speak), and may remain with him until 19:10. Here, John hears heaven's response to what he has been shown in chapters 17-18.
18. Some manuscripts omit "something like" {N}.
19. A "great multitude" is mentioned also in v 6 and in 7:9. Some think this is a group of angels (as in 5:11), and that redeemed ones are called to join in v 5; others, that this group is made up of redeemed ones (as in 7:9).
20. Note that the trumpets were followed by loud voices in heaven and the 24 elders praising God in 11:15-18, the last time either was heard. Some think this is that same multitude.
21. This is a transliterated Hebrew word meaning "Praise the Lord". Elsewhere only in v 3, 4, 6. GK 252.
22. Some manuscripts add "and the honor" {N}.
23. Some manuscripts say "the Lord our God" {K}.
24. The grammar here is not the same as in "be to" our God in 1:6; 5:13; 12; Rom 11:36; 16:27; Gal 1:5; Eph 3:21; Phil 4:20; 1 Tim 1:17; 2 Tim 4:18; Heb 13:21; 2 Pet 3:18; Jude 25. It is the same as Rev 12:10, and "came" or "came to pass" could be added here also. It may also be rendered, "is of our God", meaning either "is from our God" or "belongs to our God" (as in 7:10).
25. Or, "was corrupting". On this word, see "ruin" in 1 Cor 3:17. Related to "destroying" in 11:18.
26. Compare 14:8; 17:2; 18:3.
27. Same word as in 6:10.
28. This blood is mentioned in 17:6; 18:24.
29. Same expression as in 14:11.
30. Some think this looks forward, and that v 6-7 is spoken in response to this command. The multitude just gave praise to God for the judgment of Babylon (looking back), and now the command is given to praise Him for the new day that has arrived (looking forward). Others think this concludes the praise of the previous section, and make this point 4D. Verse 6 then begins a new point (11C.) that is unrelated to this command, but is a second thing John "heard", parallel with the first thing he heard in v 1.
31. This is apparently the voice of one of the angels at the throne. Jesus never says "our God". He says "My God", and "My God and your God", Jn 20:17.
32. His slaves include angels and humans, as seen in v 10. On this word, see 1:1.
33. Or, "even", making both phrases refer to humans. With "and", "all His slaves" may be all-inclusive, and this phrase may refer to humans in particular. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "all His slaves fearing Him".
34. Some manuscripts say "both the small..." {K}.
35. This phrase appears also in 11:18; 13:16; 19:18; and as "great and small" in 20:12. It is always used of humans. Compare Act 8:10; 26:22; Heb 8:11.
36. On this word, see 4:5. Same word as "sound" later.
37. Some think this is in response to the command in v 5, and therefore is a group of redeemed ones. In this case, "His wife" (v 7) is the name of this group. Others think these are angels singing about redeemed ones, His wife. Others think this multitude includes angels and humans.
38. On "many waters", see 14:2, which also has "loud thunder".
39. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
40. Or, the Lord "reigned", or "became king". Same word and tense as in 11:17. Same word as in 5:10; 11:15; 20:4, 6; 22:5; Lk 1:33; Rom 5:14, 17, 21; 6:12; 1 Cor 15:25. Elsewhere only as "be king" in Mt 2:22; Lk 19:4, 27; 1 Tim 6:15; and "become king" in 1 Cor 4:8. GK 996. Related to "king" and "kingdom".
41. Some manuscripts say "... and be overjoyed. And we will give the glory..." {C}.
42. Or, "wedding-celebration". This wedding of the Lamb is mentioned only here. Same word as in v 9. It pictures the permanent and complete union of Christ and His people. On this word, see Mt 22:11.
43. That is, it is here, it has arrived, as this word is used in 14:7 and 6:17. Some think this wedding is the Second Coming itself, and the banquet pictures an eternal celebration with Christ. Some holding the Future View think the wedding takes place in heaven after the rapture, before Christ's return in v 11, and the banquet takes place after His return.
44. Same word as in 21:9, where it occurs along with the word "bride". Some think this represents the redeemed of all time, 21:12, 14. Some holding the Future View think it represents the redeemed of the church from Pentecost to the rapture. On this word, see 1 Cor 11:3.

1. Some place all of v 8 in the quotation preceding; others, only the first sentence, making the "For..." statement the words of John. Others think none of v 8 is part of the song just quoted.
2. The word "authority" is supplied from 6:8, as throughout this book.
3. Or, "that she might". GK 2671.
4. Same word as in v 14. Some manuscripts say "shining and clean" {N}.
5. This is her wedding dress. Used twice in this verse, and in v 14. Elsewhere only in 18:12, 16. GK 1115. Related to the word in Lk 16:19.
6. Same word as in 15:4. Their works follow with them, 14:13. Some think John means God's "verdicts of justification" pronounced upon the saints. On this word, see "regulation" in Rom 1:32.
7. Some think this is the angel who has been guiding John since 17:1. This occurs again in 22:8 with another such angel. Others think it is the voice of the one in v 5, who is now with him in person.
8. Or, "summoned, invited". Elsewhere, John only uses this word to mean "named", as in v 11, 13. On this word, see Rom 8:30. Some think these guests are also the bride, just as Christ is the lamb and the shepherd. Some holding the Future View think the guests and the bride are different groups.
9. Or, "dinner, supper". Same word as in v 17. On this word, see "dinner" in Lk 14:12. Compare Mt 26:29; Lk 13:29. The wedding banquet typically began after the wedding and lasted several days.
10. Some think this applies to v 9; others, to all this angel has been part of since 17:1.
11. Some manuscripts say "are the true words of God" {N}.
12. Or, "pay homage". On this word, see 4:10. John may have thought the angel was God Himself speaking to him, or he may have wished to pay homage to the angel as to a superior. In any case, the angel corrects him.
13. Same idiom as in 22:9. Similar to Mt 8:4; Mk 1:44; and the positive command in Heb 8:5. In Mt 8:4, a second verb is stated, "See that you tell". Here, the verb "you do" is to be supplied by the reader. In English, using the same verb of seeing, we might say "watch it" or "look out" or "see here", all meaning "do not do that".
14. Same word as in 6:11; 22:9. Elsewhere only in Mt 18:28, 29, 31, 33; 24:29; Col 1:7; 4:7. GK 5281.
15. Some think this means the testimony "given by Jesus"; others, "about Jesus". Later in this verse, it means "given by Jesus". Same phrase as in 1:2, 9; 12:17; 20:4. Compare 6:9; 12:11.
16. That is, the testimony given by Jesus is the inspiration (breath) of prophecy, this one and all others. What the angel is speaking is Christ's testimony, not the angel's. Prophecy has its source in the testimony given by Jesus, borne by the Spirit. So worship Him, not the angel who delivered it. The testimony given by Jesus is the content of what the Spirit inspires the prophets to speak.
17. This is the only place John sees heaven opened. This is the next step in the progression of heavenly scenes (see 11:19 and 15:5). Everything so far has pointed forward to Christ's return, but stopped short of personalizing it. This is the climax to which all has pointed. Some think what follows describes His second coming to earth at the end of the age. Some holding the Past View think it describes His spiritual conquest of the nations by His army (Christians) with the gospel (the sword from His mouth, the Word of God).
18. Same word as in 4:1 (a door); 5:2 (the seals); 11:19; 15:5 (the temple). It is opened so Jesus and His army can come to earth. Same word as in Jn 1:51; Act 10:11. GK 487.
19. Some think white symbolizes victory here. See 4:4.
20. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "the One sitting upon it is faithful and true".
21. Compare 3:14. Same word as in v 9.
22. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}. Same description as in 1:14; 2:18.
23. On this word, see 13:1. It is a king's crown.
24. This is a participle, "He is having". This refers to the person (Jesus) as the subject, not to the diadems, and not specifically to His head. John does not say where this name is written.
25. Or, "And He has been clothed with a garment...". This is a participle, "He is having clothed himself". A form of the verb "to be" has been supplied to each of the four descriptions in v 12-13.
26. Some think the blood is Christ's own (from the cross). Others think it is the blood of His martyrs, those slain for Him. Others think John is referring to the blood of His enemies already killed. Elsewhere only in Lk 16:24; Jn 13:26. GK 970. Related to "baptism" in Mk 1:4. Some manuscripts say "sprinkled" {B}.
27. Some think John is referring to Jn 1:1, 14.
28. Some think this army is made up of angels, 2 Thes 1:7; others, of the redeemed, Rev 17:14; others, of both.
29. Same words as in 1:16. Some think this means that whatever Jesus speaks happens. Jesus needs no physical weapon to kill His enemies, v 21. Compare 2 Thes 2:8. Some holding the Past View (see 1:1) think this symbolizes the gospel, by which He conquers them.
30. That is, "rule", a sense also in 2:27; 12:5 (see 2:27). The usual sense is "tend to, care for, protect, guide". Elsewhere only in Mt 2:6; Lk 17:7; Jn 21:16; Act 20:28; 1 Cor 9:7; 1 Pet 5:2; Rev 2:27; 7:17; 12:5; and as "tending" in Jude 12. GK 4477. Related to the noun "shepherd" in Eph 4:11; and "flock" in 1 Pet 5:2.
31. Overcomers will be with Jesus, 2:27. Same words as in 12:5. Jesus will crush all opposition, breaking them like pottery, 2:27. He will herd this flock to its destiny in a way that permits no opposition or deviation.
32. Same word as in 14:20, where this press is also mentioned. On this word, see "trample" in Lk 10:19.
33. Jesus treads the winepress from which comes the wine of wrath that they must drink, 14:10; 16:19. This is truly the "wrath of the Lamb", 6:16. The suffering Savior is also the executor of God's wrath, 2 Thes 1:7-8.
34. Or, "even", meaning on the portion of the garment that covered His thigh.
35. The phrase "King of kings and Lord of lords" is also in 17:14; and in a different form, in 1 Tim 6:15.

1. That is, in the sky. Elsewhere only in 8:13; 14:6. GK 3547.
2. Some manuscripts say "the banquet of the great God" {N}.
3. This word is plural all five times in this verse, and in v 21. It could be rendered "eat pieces-of-flesh of/kings", etc. See 17:16.
4. Same word as in 6:15, where a similar sentence occurs.
5. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}, making one expression "free and slave— both small and great".
6. A different method of saying "both... and" is used here. It can also be rendered "and small and great".
7. Same word as in 16:14 and 19:17.
8. Or, "make the war, do the battle", meaning the one previously mentioned, the one in 16:14, 16 (Har-Magedon) and 17:14. This is the only time "the" is included in the phrase "make war" (on which see 13:7), and some manuscripts omit it {N}.
9. Compare 13:14.
10. Or, "alive". Their final sentence is immediately executed.
11. That is, the lake characterized by fire, the fiery lake. It is also mentioned in 20:10, 14, 15; 21:8. It is the second death, 20:14; 21:8.
12. On this word, see 14:10.
13. Or, "gone out". GK 2002. Not related to the word in v 15; 1:16.
14. Some think 19:11-22:5 proceeds in chronological order, meaning that this binding for a thousand years follows Christ's return. Since His coming precedes the 1000 years (the millennium), this view is called "pre-millennialism" (P-M). It believes there will be a literal 1000-year kingdom on earth after His second coming. The final judgment of 20:11 follows this millennium. Others think 20:1-10 is not in chronological order, but gives another symbolic overview of this present age (being similar in placement to the visions between the sixth and seventh seals, and trumpets; or, this point being placed as 7B.). Just as chapter 12 returns to the beginning, so does chapter 20. In one view, Satan is bound at Christ's death, believers live and reign in heaven with Him in this present age. The 1000 years is symbolic of this whole age between His two comings. The battle of 20:8 is the same battle as 19:19. The judgment of 20:11 follows immediately after His return in 19:11. This view is called "a-millennialism" (A-M), because it believes there is no literal 1000-year kingdom on earth after His second coming. In another view, 20:1-10 depicts the end of the present church age. It will be a 1000-year period (whether literal or symbolic in length) that will be a golden age brought about by the conversion of the nations to Christ through the church (symbolized by the binding of Satan, either at Christ's death, or still in the future). Satan will lead a rebellion at the end of it, and then Christ will return. This view is called "post-millennialism" (PST), because it believes Christ returns after this millennium. There are variations of each of these three views.
15. On this word, see 9:1. Some think this is that same angel.
16. These four names are also in 12:9. A-M thinks this indicates that this binding began then, when Satan was thrown out of heaven.
17. This "1000 years", known as the millennium (a Latin word meaning 1000 years), is mentioned only in 20:2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7.
18. P-M views this as a confinement from all activity on earth; A-M and PST as a restriction, a restraint on Satan's activities at the national level, so that he is prevented from prematurely bringing about the battle in v 8, and from stopping the gospel, Mt 24:14.
19. P-M thinks believers survive His coming and repopulate the earth. From the succeeding generations, nations and unbelievers arise. A-M and PST think these are nations of this present world.
20. Or, "completed, fulfilled". Same word as in v 5, 7, on which see 10:7.
21. Some manuscripts say "And after..." {N}.
22. Same word as in 20:7, and 9:14.
23. This is described in v 7. On "short time", see 6:11. Not the same words as 12:12.
24. This is the Greek word order of this verse.
25. Some think John is referring back to Christ and the redeemed in 19:14, 19, and that the souls that follow are a sub-group of this larger group. Others think he is anticipating those he speaks of next. He saw thrones and souls who did not worship the beast. And the souls came to life or lived and sat on the thrones and reigned with Him 1000 years. Other passages speak about those who reign with Christ, apostles (Mt 19:28); the saints (1 Cor 6:2; Dan 7:27); the overcomers (Rev 3:21); etc. Some think these other passages apply here; others, to the new city in chapter 21.
26. Or, "sat". Same word as in 3:21; and in Mt 19:28; 20:21; 25:31; 26:36; Act 2:3; Heb 1:3; 8:1. Used 46 times. GK 2767.
27. That is, authority to judge as ones sitting on the thrones, and the work of judgment. On this word, see Jn 9:39.
28. Same word as in 6:9.
29. That is, executed. Used only here. GK 4284. The root word is "axe". These were martyrs for Jesus.
30. The combination of "testimony of Jesus" and "word of God" is elsewhere only in 1:2, 9; 6:9.
31. Or, "even". There is a change of grammar here. Some think this gives further details about the souls who were beheaded, "even they who"; others, that it details a separate group of ones not executed, but who did not worship the beast.

- 1D. And they¹ came-to-life² and reigned³ with Christ *for a*⁴ thousand years. *The⁵ rest⁶ of the dead did not come-to-life⁷ until the thousand years were finished^A. This is the first⁸ resurrection⁹ 5
- 1E. Blessed^B and holy^C is the one having a part^D in the first resurrection 6
- 2E. The second death¹⁰ does not have authority^E over these, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign^F with Him for the¹¹ thousand years
- 2D. And when the thousand years are finished¹², Satan will be released^G from his prison^H. *And he will go out to deceive¹³ the nations in the four corners^I of the earth— Gog and Magog¹⁴— to gather them together for the battle¹⁵, whose number¹⁶ is like the sand of the sea 7-8
- 1E. And they went-up over the breadth¹⁷ of the earth, and surrounded¹⁸ the camp¹⁹ of the saints^C and²⁰ the city having been loved²¹ 9
- 2E. And fire came down from heaven²² and devoured^K them
- 3E. And the devil, the one deceiving them, was thrown into the lake of fire²³ and sulphur— where both²⁴ the beast and the false prophet *are*²⁵ 10
- 4E. And they will be tormented^L by day and by night²⁶ forever and ever²⁷
- 7B. And I saw a great white throne²⁸, and the One sitting on it— from Whose presence the earth fled²⁹, and the heaven, and a place was not found for them 11
- 1C. And I saw the dead³⁰— the great and the small³¹— standing before the throne³² 12
- 2C. And books³³ were opened. And another book was opened, which is *the book of life*³⁴
- 1D. And the dead were judged^M from the things having been written in the books— according-to³⁵ their works
- 2D. And the sea gave the dead in it, and death and Hades³⁶ gave the dead in them, and they were judged^M— each one— according to their works 13

1. That is, the souls. Some think this means the martyrs and victors over the beast only. Others think these people represent all the saints, all the overcomers.
2. Or, "lived, became alive". Same word and tense as elsewhere only in v 5; 2:8; Rom 14:9; and as "became alive" in Lk 15:32; and "lived" in Rev 13:14; Act 26:5. Same word as "living, alive" in Lk 20:38; Jn 5:25; 11:25. This is the common word for "live, be alive", used 140 times. GK 2409. Related to "life" in Rom 8:10. It is generally agreed that this word must mean the same thing in v 4 and v 5. These souls "live" in a sense in which the rest of the dead do not live. P-M thinks John means their bodies were resurrected and they reigned with Christ on earth in the 1000-year kingdom, where the OT promises are literally fulfilled on earth. The rest were not resurrected until later. This view thinks there is more than one phase to the resurrection. A-M thinks he means their souls "lived and reigned" with Christ in heaven and/or on earth (beginning at salvation) during this age. They enjoyed true life with God. The OT promises are spiritually fulfilled in the church, or forfeited due to unbelief. The rest did not live and reign with Christ during this time. Their souls did not enjoy life with God. This condition of existing as souls continues for both groups until the 1000 years (the church age) are finished, when both are resurrected and go on to their separate futures. This view thinks there is one resurrection for all at the end of the age. PST thinks this describes the future victory of the church during the millennium.
3. Same word as in v 6. A-M and PST place the thrones and reigning in heaven and/or spiritually on earth; P-M, on earth.
4. Some manuscripts say "the" {N}, as in v 3, 5, 6, 7. "The" means the one previously mentioned in v 2.
5. Some manuscripts say "And the rest..." {N}.
6. Some think this means all except the actual martyrs. Other believers and all non-believers await the end of the 1000 years. Others think it refers to the non-believers only. Same word as in 19:21.
7. Erasmus (see the Introduction) introduced a reading not found in any Greek manuscript, "live again". It was included in the KJV.
8. First implies at least a second, though no "second resurrection" is specifically mentioned as such. P-M thinks first/second refers to the physical resurrection of different groups. The first resurrection is of believers here, and the second is of unbelievers at v 12. A-M thinks first/second applies to two different kinds of resurrection for the same group. The first is the coming to life with Him in heaven after physical death or the spiritual coming to life at salvation (in either case, it is the life that the rest of the dead do not have); the second is the physical resurrection of the body.
9. Used only here and v 6 in this book. Used of physical resurrection, and of a spiritual resurrection to new life in Christ, Rom 6:5. On this word, see Act 24:15.
10. On the second death, see 2:11. It is the lake of fire, v 14.
11. Some manuscripts omit this word, {C}, so it says "a thousand years".
12. Same word as in v 3, 5.
13. A-M and PST think this is the deception mentioned in 16:14, before Christ returns. P-M thinks it is at the end of the future millennium which begins after Christ returns. Same word as in v 3, 10.
14. The precise meaning of these terms is uncertain. They are mentioned in Ezek 38-39 (see 38:2). Here, they refer to God's enemies among the nations in the four corners of the earth. Both are used only here in the NT. GK 1223, 3408.
15. Or, "war". On this word, see "war" in 12:7. A-M and PST think this is the battle of 19:19; P-M thinks it is a battle 1000 years after the one in 19:19.
16. Same grammar as in 13:12. Literally, "of whom their number is like..."
17. Or, "width". Elsewhere only as "width" in 21:16; Eph 3:18. GK 4424.
18. Or, "encircled". Used only here. GK 3238. Related word in Jn 10:24.
19. John may mean this in a general sense, as in Heb 13:11, 13. Or he may mean it in a military sense, the "army" or "battle line" (as in Heb 11:34), or the army "encampment, barracks" (as in Act 23:10, etc). Used 10 times. GK 4213. Related to "throw up" in Lk 19:43.
20. Or, "even".
21. Or, "the Beloved city". Same word and grammar as in Col 3:12. Some think John means "the church"; others, "Jerusalem".
22. Some manuscripts say "from God out of heaven" {A}, as in 3:12; 21:2, 10. On "fire from heaven", see 13:13.
23. On this lake, see 19:20.
24. Or, "also". Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
25. P-M thinks this reflects the sequential relationship between 19:20 and 20:10. They are separated by 1000 years. A-M and PST think this symbolic picture (20:1-10) ends at the same time as 19:11-21, so that 19:20 and 20:10 are talking about sequential events at the same time in history, Christ's return.
26. On this phrase, see 7:15.
27. This is an idiom, literally "into the ages of the ages". Same phrase as 1:6, 18; 4:9, 10; 5:13; 7:12; 10:6; 11:15; 15:7; 19:3; 22:5. A slightly different phrase is found only in 14:11. This word (GK 172) is found in the idiom "forever" ("into the ages") and "forever and ever" ("into the ages of the ages") over 50 times. It is also rendered "age" and "world" (see Heb 1:2). It is used 122 times. Related to "eternal" in Mt 25:46.
28. This is the next step in the progression of heavenly scenes (see 11:19). Heaven and earth flee from the presence of the One sitting on the throne (they are described in 21:1 as having "passed away"). Used 47 times in this book, and 15 other times in the NT. GK 2585. A-M and PST think this is the next chronological event after the return of Christ, and indicates that the visions in 20:1-10 are giving another view of the present age. P-M thinks this chronologically follows the 1000 years just described.
29. Same word as in 16:20, as is "found".
30. Some think this refers to the whole human race; others, to unbelievers only. A-M and PST think this is the last (and only) judgment, Mt 25:31-46; Rom 14:10; 2 Cor 5:10. P-M thinks it is the final phase of judgment, and refers to "the rest" of v 5, and all unbelievers.
31. Some manuscripts reverse these {K}, so that it says "the small and the great". On this phrase, see 19:5.
32. Instead of "the throne", some manuscripts say "God" {K}.
33. That is, books of deeds or works. Compare Dan 7:10; Mal 3:16; Mt 12:37.
34. Some think this implies the redeemed are present; others, that if the unbelievers are not found in this book, sentence is passed upon them in accordance with their works. On this book, see 3:5.
35. Or, "based on, in accordance with, in keeping with". GK 2848. This phrase "according to works" is also in Rom 2:6; 2 Cor 11:15; 2 Tim 1:9; 4:14; 1 Pet 1:17; Rev 2:23; 18:6; 20:13. Works are the fruit by which the tree is known. They do not produce life, they evidence life.
36. On "death and Hades", see 1:18.

- 3C. And death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire.¹ This is the second death²— the lake of fire³ 14
- 4C. And if anyone was not found having been written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire 15
- 8B. And I saw a new^A heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth passed-away⁴. 21:1
And there is no longer a sea⁵
- 1C. And I⁶ saw the holy city— the new^A Jerusalem— coming down out of heaven from God, 2 having been prepared^B like a bride having been adorned^C for her husband
- 1D. And I heard a loud voice from the throne⁷, saying “Behold— the dwelling⁸ of God is 3

3E. “And God Himself with them will be their God¹⁰
4E. “And He will wipe-away every tear^F from their eyes¹¹ 4
5E. “And there will no longer be death^G, nor will there be mourning^H nor crying^I nor pain^K any longer, because¹² the first^L things passed away”
- 2D. And the One sitting on the throne said, “Behold— I am making all things new^A” 5
3D. And he¹³ says¹⁴, “Write, because these words are trustworthy¹⁵ and true^M”
4D. And He said to me, “They¹⁶ are done¹⁷ 6
- 1E. “I am the Alpha and the Omega,¹⁸ the Beginning^N and the End^O
2E. “To the one thirsting, I will give from the spring¹⁹ of the water of life as-a-gift²⁰.
The one overcoming^P will inherit^Q these²¹ things, and I will be God to him and he will be a son^R to Me
3E. “But for the cowardly²² ones, and unbelieving²³ ones, and ones having been abominable²⁴, and murderers^S, and sexually-immoral^T ones, and sorcerers²⁵, and idolaters, and all the liars²⁶— their part²⁷ will be in the lake burning with fire and sulphur, which is the second death” 8
- 2C. And one of the seven angels having the seven bowls being-full^U of the seven last plagues came²⁸ and spoke with me, saying “Come, I will show²⁹ you the bride³⁰, the wife of the Lamb” 9

2E. Having a great and high wall³⁵ 12
3E. Having twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names having been inscribed— which are the names³⁶ of the twelve tribes^{CC} of the sons^R of Israel
1E. Three gates from the east, and three gates from the north, and three gates from the south, and three gates from the west 13

1. Since there are no longer any "dead", death itself is vanquished. On this lake, see 19:20.
2. The saints experience the first, but not the second death, 2:11. Some think the first death is our physical death. Some holding the A-M view think the first death is our spiritual death to sin.
3. Some manuscripts omit "the lake of fire" {K}.
4. This is the final scene, a new heaven and earth. Some think "passed away", along with "fled" and "not found" in 20:11, refers to the complete disappearance and re-creation of this earth; others, to a renovation of it. Compare 2 Pet 3:10-13. Same word as in v 4.
5. Some think John means there is no sea on the new earth. Others think this looks backward to the passing away of the old sea, along with old earth and heaven.
6. Some manuscripts say "I, John" {K}.
7. Some manuscripts say "heaven" {N}.
8. Or, "tent, tabernacle". Same word as in 13:6. The related verb is next.
9. Or, "people". This word is plural here. Used 142 times, the plural is found elsewhere only in Lk 2:31; Act 4:25, 27; Rom 15:11; Rev 7:9; 10:11; 11:9; 17:15. GK 3295. Some manuscripts have this word singular {B}. Here, it may mean "His people" (His group of people, as in the "people" of Israel, as perhaps in Act 4:27), or "His peoples" (people groups). Elsewhere this phrase, "they will be His people", uses the singular word, 2 Cor 6:16; Heb 8:10. The singular is found in Rev 5:9; 13:7; 14:6; 18:4.
10. Some manuscripts omit "their God" {C}, so that it says "and God Himself will be with them".
11. Same phrase in 7:17.
12. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}, so that it says "any longer—the first things passed away".
13. Or, "He says". Note the change of tense. Some think this indicates that this is the angel speaking. This angel also commanded John to write in 19:9; and a voice from heaven told him to write in 14:13. Others think the One on the throne continues to speak.
14. Some manuscripts say "said" {K}. Some manuscripts add "to me" {N}.
15. Or, "faithful". Same word as in 22:6; 1 Tim 1:15. Some manuscripts reverse the two {K}, so that it says "true and trustworthy". On this word, see "faithful" in Col 1:2.
16. That is, "all things" in v 5.
17. Or, "have taken place, come to pass, happened". These things stand as done. Same word as in 16:17, where it is singular. Some manuscripts have it singular here {N}. Not the same word as "finished" in 10:7. God speaks of these future events as if they have already happened. On this word, see Mt 6:10.
18. On "Alpha and Omega", see 1:8. This is the guarantee that they will come to pass.
19. Mentioned also in 7:17. On this word, see Jn 4:6.
20. Or, "freely". Same word as in 22:17.
21. Some manuscripts say "all these things" {K}.
22. Or, "fearful, timid", afraid to act. On this word, see "afraid" in Mk 4:40. This is referring to those who denied Christ under persecution, who did not endure to death (2:10), who "drew back" (Heb 10:39) out of fear.
23. Or, "unfaithful, faithless". On this word, see Mt 17:17.
24. Or, "detestable, vile, abhorrent". On this word, see "detesting" in Rom 2:22. Related to "abomination" in 17:4.
25. Elsewhere only in 22:15. GK 5761. Related to the word in 9:21.
26. And who is a liar? See 1 Jn 2:4, 22; 5:10.
27. Or, "share". That is, their inheritance or place. Same word as Mt 24:51; Rev 20:6; 22:19. On this word, see Rom 11:25.
28. Some manuscripts add "to me" {K}.
29. Same language as in 17:1-3. This is one of those angels, linking this, and all the visions of chapters 19-22, to the scene of the bowl judgments. John is again given a guided tour to show him more detail about what has just been said.
30. Same word as in 18:23; 21:2; 22:17. GK 3811. "Wife" is the same word as in 19:7. That is, the angel will show John the destiny of the bride, the place where she will be.
31. Or, "in spirit". Same phrase as in 17:3; 1:10.
32. The angel gives a general tour of the city in v 11-27. Compare 22:1. Some manuscripts say "the great and holy city Jerusalem" {N}.
33. Some manuscripts say "and the..." {N}.
34. Or, "being-clear-like-crystal". This verb is used only here. GK 3222. Related to "crystal" in 22:1.
35. This symbolizes the security of the inhabitants living inside, and the exclusion of those not permitted to enter, 21:27; 22:15.
36. Some manuscripts omit "the names" {C}.

- 4E. And the wall of the city has¹ twelve foundations^A, and on them *are the twelve*² names of the twelve apostles^B of the Lamb 14
- 5E. And the one speaking with me had a golden measuring³ rod^C, in order that he might measure the city and its gates and its wall 15
- 1E. And the city lies square— indeed its length is as much as also⁴ the width 16
- 2E. And he measured the city with the rod— a-matter-of twelve thousand stades⁵. Its length and width and height are equal^D 16
- 3E. And he measured its wall— a hundred forty four cubits⁶ (a human's^E measure, which is an angel's [also])⁷ 17
- 6E. And the material⁸ of its wall is jasper, and the city is pure gold resembling pure⁹ glass 18
- 7E. The¹⁰ foundations^A of the wall of the city have been adorned¹¹ with every precious^F stone^G 19
- 1E. The first foundation is jasper¹²; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald¹³; *the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, carnelian¹⁴; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, hyacinth¹⁵; the twelfth, amethyst 20
- 8E. And the twelve gates are twelve pearls^H— individually, each one of the gates was from one pearl 21
- 9E. And the wide-road^I of the city is pure gold, like transparent glass 22

- 12E. And the nations¹⁸ will¹⁹ walk^Q by its light 24
- 13E. And the kings of the earth bring their glory^N into it. *And its gates will never be shut^R by day²⁰— for night will not exist^S there 25
- 1E. And they will bring the glory^N and the honor^T of the nations into it 26
- 2E. And every defiled^U thing, and the one doing abomination²¹ and falsehood^V, will never enter into it— but only the ones having been written in the Lamb's book of life²² 27
- 2D. And²³ he showed^W me a river²⁴ of the water of life, shining²⁵ like crystal^X, proceeding out from the throne of God and of the Lamb, *in the middle of its wide-road²⁶ 22:1 2
- 1E. And on this side and on that *side*²⁷ of the river is a tree of life²⁸ producing^Y twelve fruits^Z, yielding^{AA} its fruit^Z every month²⁹. And the leaves of the tree are for the service³⁰ of the nations³¹ 3

1. This is a participle, "is having".
2. Some manuscripts omit this word {K}.
3. Same word as "measure" in v 17. On this word, see "measure" in Jn 3:34. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
4. Some manuscripts omit this word {C}.
5. On this measure of distance, see 14:20. Here it is equivalent to about 1380 miles or 2220 kilometers.
6. A cubit is the length of a forearm from the elbow to the tip of the middle finger, about 18 inches or .46 meters. The word means "forearm". So either the height or the width of the wall was about 216 feet or 66 meters. Elsewhere only in Mt 6:27; Lk 12:25; Jn 21:8. GK 4388.
7. John could mean that the angel's forearm was the same measure, or that the angel was using mankind's measure. In any case, John wants us to know he is using standard measuring terms.
8. The meaning of this word is uncertain. John may mean "the material of which the wall was made". Or, "the material built into the wall", an inlay or a trim or coping. Used only here. GK 1908. One of the foundations is also adorned with jasper, v 19.
9. This is the same word just used with gold. John may mean "clear", which he clearly says in v 21. Or he may mean "clean, without impurity, bright". On this word, see "clean" in Tit 1:15.
10. Some manuscripts say "And the..." {N}.
11. Same word as in v 2. It is a participle, "are having been adorned".
12. On this word, see 4:3. The next two gems are mentioned only here.
13. Used only here. GK 5040. Related to the word in 4:3, of the rainbow around the throne.
14. The previous gem is mentioned only here, but see 4:3 on this one.
15. The previous four gems are mentioned only here, as is the next. This one is related to the word in 9:17. GK 5611.
16. God is worshiped in person, face to face, not in a separate or special place.
17. The sun and moon are not needed for this purpose. On this word, see Phil 2:15.
18. The identity of these nations is uncertain. Perhaps the peoples (21:3) of the redeemed live outside of the city, as well as inside it. John does not explicitly say where the people live. From this verse it is clear that there are people outside the city, and from v 26, that they come and go. From 22:3 it is clear that His people serve Him in the city. Beyond this, nothing is stated. Some manuscripts add "of the ones saved" {K}.
19. Note that as John closes this part of the tour, he changes from present tense physical description to statements of knowledge using the future tense. Compare 22:3.
20. That is, shut during the daytime, in anticipation of the darkness of night, because there will be no night.
21. On this word, see 17:4. Related to the word in 21:8.
22. On this book, see 3:5.
23. Now the angel turns from the city-tour point of view to things of special importance to believers.
24. Some manuscripts say "the pure river" {N}.
25. Or, "bright, brilliant, radiant". Some think John means "clear", the light shining through it. Same word as in Lk 23:11; Act 10:30; Jam 2:2, 3; Rev 15:6; 18:14; 19:8. Elsewhere only as "bright" in Rev 22:16. GK 3287. Related to "shine" in 2 Cor 4:6; "brightness" in Act 26:13; and "radiantly" in Lk 16:19.
26. On this word, see Lk 14:21. Some make this phrase the beginning of the next sentence, "In the middle..."
27. This is an idiom, literally, "from here (the near side on which he stood) and from there (the far side)", pointing to both with the hands. Compare the perspective in Jn 19:18. "From here" is GK 1949, used 10 times. "From there" is GK 1696, used 37 times.
28. On "tree of life", see 2:7.
29. Some think this tree yields all twelve fruits every month. Others, a different fruit each month. The description in v 2 is similar to Ezek 47:7-12. This is more literally, "according to each month". Compare the similar idiom "each day" in Heb 3:13.
30. Or, "cure, treatment, care, healing". This word was used of "service, care, attendance upon" parents, children, masters, the sick, the gods, animals, plants, buildings, graves, etc. Elsewhere only as "cure" in Lk 9:11; and "body of servants" (the ones performing the service) in Lk 12:42. GK 2542. Related to "servant" in Heb 3:5; and "cure" in Mt 8:7. Here, John may mean the "curing, healing" of the nations; or, he may be referring to service of some other kind. It is rendered in this neutral way to reflect both possibilities.
31. John could mean "by the nations"; or, "for the nations".
32. Note that as in 21:24, John shifts to the future tense as he closes this part of the tour.
33. Or, "cursed". That is, a thing under a curse. Used only here. GK 2873. Related to "curse" in Mt 26:74.
34. Or, "worship". On this word, see "worship" in Heb 12:28. Not related to "service" in v 2.
35. As Jesus promised in Mt 5:8. Note Heb 12:14.
36. Note that this is stated in 21:23-25 from the point of view of the city and those living outside it. Here it is stated again from the point of view of His slaves living in the city.
37. Instead of "be no more night", some manuscripts say "be no night there" {N}.
38. Some manuscripts say "will" {N}.
39. Same word as "illuminated" in 21:23. On this word, see "enlightened" in Heb 6:4.

1. Same word as in 20:4, where they reign 1000 years. On this word, see 19:6.
2. This seems to be the angel who has been with John since 21:9 (21:9, 10, 15, 16, 17; 22:1), whom John falls to worship in v 8.
3. This was also said in 21:5.
4. The angel could mean the prophets' human spirit; or, their spiritual gift or manifestation (as this word is used in 1 Cor 14:12). In other words, the God who gives prophecies to the prophets sent His angel to reveal these things. Some manuscripts say "the God of the holy prophets" {N}.
5. That is, the one speaking here. Compare 1:1. Note how many similarities there are between v 6-7 and 1:1-3.
6. This entire phrase "to show... quickly" is exactly the same as in 1:1. This is the conclusion of the whole book, and restates the purpose of it.
7. Some manuscripts omit this word {N}.
8. Some think Christ is speaking here, interjecting this statement. Others think the angel of v 6 is still speaking, reporting what Christ said, which is what he was sent to do. Compare 16:15 and 22:10, 12.
9. Or, "soon". Same word as in Rev 2:16; 3:11; 11:14; 22:12, 20; Mt 5:25; 28:7, 8; Lk 15:22; Jn 11:29. Elsewhere only as "soon" in Mk 9:39; and "quick" in Jam 1:19. GK 5444. Related to "quickly" in v 6.
10. A similar blessing was given in 1:3. This is the first time the completed book is referred to since 1:3.
11. This is the second "I, John" of the book, the other being in 1:9. "John" is also in 1:1, 4.
12. Same word as in 1:11. Some manuscripts say "seeing and hearing" {N}.
13. Same word as in 19:10, where John fell to worship another of the seven angels having the bowls. See there on the meaning. If the angel stated the words in v 7 on behalf of the One who sent him (v 6), John's confusion is understandable.
14. That is, the angel in v 6.
15. Same phrase as in 19:10.
16. Some manuscripts say "For I am..." {K}.
17. Or, "he". Some think that the speaker is still the angel of v 9, reporting the words of Christ, carrying out his assigned task, as explained in v 16. Others think Christ Himself is now speaking, based on what follows, giving His conclusion to the book. As with 22:7, the result is the same either way. These are the words of Christ, either directly spoken or reported by another. This issue regarding the speaker recurs until v 20.
18. This same phrase, "the time is near", is in 1:3.
19. Or, "doing wrong". Related to "righteousness" later, and rendered this way to show this. On this word, see "wronged" in Act 7:24.
20. That is, moral filth, the opposite of "holy" later in the verse. Elsewhere only in Jam 2:2. GK 4865. Related to the verb next; "filthiness" in Jam 1:21; and "dirt" in 1 Pet 3:21.
21. On this word, see Rom 1:17. Some manuscripts say "be righteous" {N}.
22. In other words, do what you are going to do. Make your choices in life. I will render back to you accordingly, v 12. This is a serious warning to follow Christ. On this word, see "sanctify" in Heb 10:29.
23. Some manuscripts say "And behold..." {N}.
24. This word means "wages, pay". When positive, it is "a reward"; when negative, "a penalty, punishment". In this case, Jesus returns with both reward and punishment for the two groups in the previous verse, based on their work, as described in v 14-15. Used 29 times. GK 3635.
25. Or, "give back", whether a reward or punishment. Same word as 18:6; Mt 16:27. GK 625.
26. Some manuscripts say "shall be" {N}.
27. Christ says this here, whereas in 1:8 it is the Father. It is God's guarantee that what He is saying will occur.
28. On this phrase, see 1:17. Used three times of Jesus.
29. This phrase was used of the Father in 21:6. On this word, see Rom 10:4. Some manuscripts reverse these phrases, so that it says "the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last" {N}.
30. This is the seventh beatitude in Revelation. See 1:3; 14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7, 14. On this word, see Lk 6:20.
31. That is, "in the blood of the Lamb", as in 7:14, which uses this same phrase. Instead of "washing their robes", some manuscripts say "doing His commandments" {A}.
32. Or, "authority". Same word as in 1 Cor 8:9. This is the same phrase as "authority over" in 2:26; 6:8; 11:6; 13:7; 14:18; 16:9. The same concept occurs in 2:7.
33. Or, "be". GK 1639. In other words, in order that they will have the right to eat from the tree of life. This right exists for those who have washed their robes in His blood. Same word as in 4:11; 21:25; Mt 6:30; Lk 12:28; 23:12; Act 17:28; Rom 13:1. On this word, see "is" in Mt 26:26. On "tree of life", see v 2.
34. Only those written in the Lamb's book can enter, 21:27.
35. Some manuscripts say "For outside..." {K}.
36. That is, the morally impure. Elsewhere only in Mt 7:6; Lk 16:21; Phil 3:2; 2 Pet 2:22. GK 3264.
37. Or, "a lie". On this word, see 14:5.
38. This word is plural. Jesus, through the angel He sent, through John (1:1), is testifying to us all.
39. Some manuscripts say "in" {N}.
40. This word means "church, congregation, assembly". Used 114 times. GK 1711.
41. Same statement as in 5:5. Jesus is called the Root of Jesse in Rom 15:12. Some think this means the root originating with David, springing up from David, which grew to become the Messiah, Isa 11:1; others, the ancestor (referring to His pre-existence as God) from which David grew. On this word, see Heb 12:15.
42. Or, "Descendant". Used only here of Christ. On this word, see "kind" in 1 Cor 12:28.
43. The morning star is mentioned in 2:28. On this word, see 6:13. Same word as His "star" in Mt 2:2. There is a different word in 2 Pet 1:19. Some manuscripts say "the Bright and Morning Star" {K}. Jesus is the precursor of the new day, visible before sunrise. He is visible now, prior to the new day He brings at His return.
44. Some think Jesus is still speaking, quoting two others witnesses who say "Come". Others think John or the angel is speaking.
45. That is, His church. They are saying "Come, Lord Jesus", or, "Come to Jesus" (addressing unbelievers).
46. He is exhorting those hearing this book read either to invite others to Christ, or to say "Come, Lord Jesus".
47. Here, He clearly means "come to Christ, come to the city, come to the living water".

4C. "Let¹ the one wanting², take³ the water of life as-a-gift⁴

4B. "I testify⁵ to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this book⁶— 18

1C. "If anyone adds^A to them,⁷ God will add^B to him the plagues^B having been written in this book

2C. "And if anyone takes-away^C from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take^C his part⁹ 19 away-from¹⁰ the tree¹¹ of life¹², and out-from the holy city— the ones having been written in this book

5B. "The *One*¹³ testifying these things says, "Yes, I am coming¹⁴ quickly" 20

Amen.¹⁵ Come,¹⁶ Lord Jesus. "The grace of the Lord Jesus¹⁷ be with all¹⁸ 21

1. Some manuscripts say "And let..." {K}.
2. Or, "wishing, desiring, being willing". On this word, see "willing" in Jn 7:17.
3. Or, "receive". On this word, see Rom 7:8.
4. Or, "freely, without payment". Same word as in 21:6. On this word, see "without a reason" in Gal 2:21.
5. Note that "I" is emphatic, as in v 16. Some think this is John speaking, since it is he who "testifies" (1:2). Others think Christ continues to speak. Others think the angel He sent to "testify" (v 16) is speaking. Some manuscripts say "For I testify" {K}.
6. The book opens with a blessing on those who read, hear, and keep it, 1:3. It ends with this curse on any who would change its message.
7. That is, to the words of this book, Revelation. Some think this is addressed to the copiers of the book, the scribes; others, to the readers who might change or ignore the application of the book; others, to teachers or prophets who might want to add other revelations to it, or delete or dilute part of it.
8. That is, apply to such a person's case in particular.
9. Or, "share". Same word as in 20:6; 21:8, on which see Rom 11:25.
10. John uses two different prepositions here, which are rendered "away from" (GK 608) and "out from" (GK 1666) to display this.
11. Some manuscripts say "book" {K}. When Erasmus (see the Introduction) printed his Greek NT, the last six verses of Revelation were missing from the single Greek manuscript he had. So he translated them into Greek from the Latin Vulgate. When his Greek text was later used by the authors of the King James Version in 1611, "book" was included. In this case, as with some of the other variants marked {K}, the reading is not found in any Greek manuscript.
12. On this tree, see 2:7.
13. Some think this is the One in v 16, 18, "I, Jesus"; others, the angel He sent to testify, v 16.
14. This is the seventh occurrence of "I am coming". See 2:5, 16; 3:11; 16:15; 22:7, 12, 20.
15. This is John's conclusion to the book.
16. Some manuscripts say "Yes, come..." {N}.
17. Some manuscripts say "our Lord Jesus Christ" {A}.
18. Some manuscripts say "with you all"; others, "with the saints"; others, "with all the saints" {B}. Some manuscripts add "amen" {B}.
